1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiffs Pablo Acosta, Colleen Duarte, Calvin Smith, Sleem Sheikh, and Chia-Chen 3 Chang (“Plaintiffs”) respectfully submit this memorandum in support of the unopposed motion for 4 preliminary approval of the proposed class and representative action settlement with Defendant Jitsu, 5 Inc. (formerly known as Axlehire, Inc.) (“Defendant”), and seek entry of an order: (1) preliminarily
6 approving the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”); (2) for settlement 7 purposes only, conditionally certifying the Class, which is comprised of “all individuals who are or 8 previously contracted with Defendant as couriers in the State of California at any time during the Class 9 Period”, which is December 1, 2019 through March 17, 2025; (3) provisionally appointing Plaintiffs 10 as the Class Representatives for settlement purposes only; (4) provisionally appointing Norman B.
11 Blumenthal, Kyle R. Nordrehaug, and Aparajit Bhowmik of Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De 12 Blouw LLP as Class Counsel; (5) approving the form and method for providing class-wide notice; 13 (6) directing that notice of the proposed settlement be given to the class; (7) provisionally appointing 14 and approving Apex Class Action LLC as Administrator, and (8) scheduling a final approval hearing
15 date, proposed for December 16, 2025 to consider Plaintiffs’ motion for final approval of the settlement 16 and for approval of attorneys’ fees and expenses.

17 Plaintiffs and Defendant (collectively the “Parties”) have reached a full and final settlement of 18 the above-captioned action, which is embodied in the Agreement filed concurrently with the Court.¹
19 A copy of the Agreement is attached as Exhibit #1 to the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug (“Decl.
20 Nordrehaug”), served and filed herewith. Plaintiffs now seek preliminary approval of the Agreement, 21 which will resolve the litigation in its entirety.

22 As consideration for this Settlement, the non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of Two 23 Million Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,400,000) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) is to be paid 24 by Defendant, as set forth in the Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount will settle all issues 25 pending in the Action between the Parties and will be made in full and final settlement of the Released 26 Class Claims in exchange for the Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members from the 27 _____

28 ¹ Capitalized terms shall have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.

1 Net Settlement Amount, and also includes (a) the costs of administration of the settlement, (b) all
2 attorneys' fees and costs, (c) Class Representative Service Payments, and (d) the PAGA Penalties
3 payment allocated 75% to the LWDA and 25% to the Aggrieved Employees. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.)
4 Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶3. The following is a table of the key financial terms of the Settlement and the 5 proposed deductions:

6 $2,400,000 (Gross Settlement Amount) 7 - $75,000 (Plaintiffs' proposed Class Representative Service Payments not to exceed 8 $15,000 each)
9 - $20,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount) 10 - $800,000 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
11 - $100,000 (PAGA Payment - 75% to LWDA / 25% to Aggrieved Employees)
12 - $75,000 (Administration Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount) 13 $1,330,000 (Net Settlement Amount)

14 Based upon 14,000 Class Members who collectively worked 160,449 Workweeks, the Gross Settlement 15 Amount provides an average value of $171 per Class Member and $14.95 per Workweek and after 16 deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $95 per Class Member and a 17 recovery of $8.28 per Workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶6.

18 On January 16, 2025, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation session presided over 19 Kevin Barnes, a respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions. Following the 20 mediation, the Parties agreed on the basic terms of a settlement pursuant to a mediator's proposal which 21 was memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶5. A 22 presumption of fairness exists as: (1) the Settlement was reached through extensive, mediated 23 arm's-length negotiations; (2) sufficient investigation and discovery was conducted, which allowed 24 Class Counsel to act intelligently; and (3) Class Counsel are experienced in similar wage-and-hour class 25 litigation. Additionally, preliminary approval is appropriate as the Settlement is fair, reasonable and 26 adequate, and should be preliminarily approved because there is a substantial monetary payment, and 27 there are significant litigation and class-certification risks. Therefore, Plaintiffs respectfully request that 28 this Court grant preliminary approval of the Agreement and enter the proposed order submitted herewith.

II. DESCRIPTION OF THE SETTLEMENT

The Gross Settlement Amount is Two Million Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,400,000).

(Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses Payment; (4) the Class Representative Service Payments to the Plaintiffs; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment which is allocated between the LWDA PAGA Payment and the Individual PAGA Payments. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶15.

Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount by transmitting the funds to the Administrator in three separate installments as follows: (a) 38% twenty-one (21) days after the Effective Date, (b) 31% one year after the first payment, and (c) the final 31% of the Gross Settlement Amount one year after the second payment. (Agreement at ¶ 4.3.) On a pro rata basis, the Administrator shall proportionately make a total of three (3) payment distributions with each distribution being made within thirty (30) days of receipt of each installment from Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 5.1.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶16.

The amount remaining in the Gross Settlement Amount after the deduction of Court-approved amounts for Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Representatives Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment (called the "Net Settlement Amount") shall be allocated to Class Members as their Individual Class Payments. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.28 and 3.2.) From the Net Settlement Amount, the Individual Class Payment for each Participating Class Member will be calculated as follows: (1) 56% of the Net Settlement Amount will be allocated to the workweeks prior to the enactment of Proposition 22 from December 1, 2019 to December 31, 2020 ("Pre-Prop. 22 Portion"); and (2) 44% of the Net Settlement Amount will be allocated to the workweeks beginning after the enactment of Proposition 22 from January 1, 2021 to the end of the Class Period ("Post-Prop 22 Portion"). An Individual Class Payment calculated by (1) (a) dividing the Pre-Prop. 22 Portion of the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members from December 1, 2019 through December 31, 2020 and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks from December 1, 2019 through December 31, 2020, and (2) (a) dividing

1 the Post-Prop. 22 Portion of the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by 2 all Participating Class Members from January 1, 2021 to the end of the Class Period and (b) multiplying 3 the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks from January 1, 2021 to the end of the 4 Class Period, and (3) summing these totals. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Workweeks will be based on 5 Defendant's records, however, Class Members will have the right to challenge the number of 6 Workweeks. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶17.

7 Class Members may choose to opt-out of the Settlement by following the directions in the Class 8 Notice. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5, Ex. A.) All Class Members who do not "opt out" will be deemed 9 Participating Class Members who will be bound by the Settlement and will be entitled to receive an 10 Individual Class Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5(c).) All Aggrieved Employees, including those who 11 submit an opt-out request, will be paid their allocation of the PAGA Penalties and will remain subject 12 to the release of the Released PAGA Claims regardless of their request for exclusion. (Agreement at 13 ¶¶ 6.3 and 8.5(d).) Finally, the Class Notice will advise the Class Members of their right to object to 14 the Settlement and/or dispute their Workweeks. (Agreement at ¶¶ 8.6 and 8.7, Ex. A.) Decl.
15 Nordrehaug at ¶18.

16 A Participating Class Member must cash his or her Individual Class Payment check within 180 17 days after it is mailed. (Agreement at ¶ 5.2.) Any settlement checks not cashed within 180 days will 18 be voided and any funds represented by such checks sent to the California Controller's Unclaimed 19 Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the 20 requirements of C.C.P. § 384(b). (Agreement at ¶ 5.4.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶19.

21 Subject to Court approval, the Parties have agreed on Apex Class Action to administer the 22 Settlement ("Administrator"). (Agreement at ¶ 1.2.) The Administrator will be paid for settlement 23 administration in an amount not to exceed $75,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(c).) Apex Class Action 24 provided a capped estimate of $71,250 for administration expenses. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶20.

25 Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for Class Counsel to be awarded a sum not 26 to exceed one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, as the Class Counsel Fees Payment. (Agreement 27 at ¶ 3.2(b).) Class Counsel will also be allowed to apply separately for an award of Class Counsel 28 Litigation Expenses Payment in an amount not to exceed $20,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(b).) Subject

1 to Court approval, the Agreement provides for a payment of no more than $15,000 each to the Plaintiffs 2 as their Class Representative Service Payments. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶21.

3 Subject to Court approval, the PAGA Penalties will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount 4 for PAGA penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code Section 2698, 5 et seq. (“PAGA”). The PAGA Penalties are $100,000. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.37 and 3.2(d).) Pursuant 6 to the express requirements of Labor Code § 2699(i), the PAGA Payment shall be allocated as follows:
7 75% shall be allocated to the Labor Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") as its share of the civil 8 penalties and 25% allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments to be distributed to the Aggrieved
9 Employees calculated by: (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees’ 25% share of PAGA
10 Penalties ($25,000) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees 11 during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Pay 12 Periods. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(d).) As set forth in the accompanying proof of service, the LWDA has 13 been served with this motion and the Agreement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶22.

14 III. CASE BACKGROUND

15 On December 1, 2023, plaintiffs Pablo Acosta and Colleen Duarte filed this putative Class 16 Action in Alameda Superior Court against Defendant alleging seven causes of action: (1) unfair
17 competition in violation of the California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.; (2) failure 18 to pay minimum wages; (3) failure to pay overtime wages; (4) failure to provide meal periods; (5) 19 failure to provide rest breaks, (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and, (7) failure
20 to reimburse business expenses (the “Class Action”). On December 1, 2023, plaintiffs Pablo Acosta
21 and Colleen Duarte filed a Representation Action Complaint against Defendant in the Superior Court 22 of the State of California, County of Alameda, asserting a single cause of action for violation of the 23 PAGA, Case No. 23CV055896 (hereinafter, the “PAGA Action”). On July 22, 2024, the Court ordered 24 the Class Action and the PAGA Action consolidated. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 7-8.

25 The Parties engaged in thorough investigation and the exchange of documents and information 26 in connection with the Action for more than a year which permitted Class Counsel to perform a 27 thorough analysis of the claims. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶¶ 10 and 14. The Parties participated in mediation 28 on January 16, 2025 with Kevin Barnes, which after arms’ length negotiations, resulted in this

1 Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶12. Following mediation, and pursuant to the Settlement, on June 26, 2 2025 the Plaintiffs filed a First Amended Complaint (the “Operative Complaint”) which added plaintiffs 3 Calvin Smith, Sleem Sheikh, and Chia-Chen Chang, and added additional claims that, inter alia, 4 Defendant violated the Labor Code and failed to comply with Prop 22, i.e., Bus. & Prof. Code Section 5 7450. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶9.

6 IV. THE SETTLEMENT MEETS THE CRITERIA NECESSARY FOR THIS COURT TO 7 GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

8 California “[p]ublic policy generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation.”
9 Nordstrom Comm’n Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 581 (2010) quoting Cellphone Termination Fee 10 Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117-18 (2009). Class action settlements are approved where the 11 proposed settlement is “fair, adequate and reasonable.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 12 1801 (1996) (citing Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982), cert.
13 denied, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983)).

14 Preliminary approval is the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for 15 settlements of class actions. The second step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all class 16 members. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument 17 concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented, and class 18 members may be heard regarding the settlement. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 19 1801 (1996); Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769.

20 The primary question presented on an application for preliminary approval of a proposed class 21 action settlement is whether the proposed settlement is “within the range of possible approval.” Manual 22 for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 at 229; Gautreaux v. Pierce, 690 F.2d 616, 621 n.3 (7th Cir.
23 1982).² Preliminary approval is merely the prerequisite to giving notice so that “the proposed 24 settlement... may be submitted to members of the prospective Class for their acceptance or rejection.”

26 ² California courts look to federal authority on class actions. Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal.3d 27 800, 821 (1971). “It is well established that in the absence of relevant state precedents trial courts are 28 urged to follow the procedures prescribed in Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for conducting class actions.” Frazier v. City of Richmond, 184 Cal. App.3d 1491, 1499 (1986), citing Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146 (1981).

1 Sayaman v. Baxter Healthcare Corp., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 151997, *3 (C.D. Cal. 2010). There is 2 "a presumption of fairness . . . where . . . [a] settlement is reached through arms-length bargaining."
3 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245 (2001) (citation omitted); see also Cho v.
4 Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc., 177 Cal. App. 4th 734, 742-45 (2009) (upholding trial court's 5 determination that settlement was "fair, reasonable and adequate" where the settlement "provided 6 valuable benefits to the class . . . that were 'particularly valuable in light of the risks plaintiff would have 7 faced if she proceeded to litigate her case.'"); Newberg, 3d Ed., §11.41, p.11-88. However, the ultimate 8 question of whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate is made after notice of the 9 settlement is given to the class members and a final settlement hearing is held by the Court.

10 A. The Role Of The Court In Preliminary Approval Of A Class Action Settlement

11 The approval of a proposed settlement of a class action suit is a matter within the broad 12 discretion of the trial court. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 234-235; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th 1794.
13 In considering a potential settlement for preliminary approval purposes, the trial court does not have 14 to reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, 15 and need not engage in a trial on the merits. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 239-40; Dunk, supra, 16 48 Cal.App. 4th at 1807. The Ninth Circuit explains, "the very essence of a settlement is compromise, 17 'a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.'" Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 624.
18 Thus, when analyzing the settlement, the amount is "not to be judged against a hypothetical or 19 speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators." Officers for Justice, 688 20 F.2d at 625, 628.

21 With regard to class action settlements, the opinions of counsel should be given considerable 22 weight both because of counsel's familiarity with this litigation and previous experience with cases such 23 as these. Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. As a result, courts hold that the recommendation of 24 counsel is entitled to significant weight. Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D.
25 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004).

26 B. Factors To Be Considered In Granting Preliminary Approval

27 A number of factors are to be considered in evaluating a settlement for purposes of preliminary 28 approval. In determining whether to grant preliminary approval, the court considers whether the "(1)

1 the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, (2) 2 has no obvious deficiencies, (3) does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives 3 or segments of the class, and (4) falls within the range of possible approval." In re Tableware Antitrust 4 Litig., 484 F.Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007). Courts hold that "a presumption of fairness exists 5 where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery 6 are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar 7 litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small." Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.
8 App. 4th 116, 128 (2008). Here, the Settlement meets all of these criteria for preliminary approval and 9 therefore the presumption applies.

10 1. The Settlement is the Product of Serious, Informed and 11 Arm's Length Negotiations by Experienced Counsel

12 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations before 13 an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continues to deny any 14 wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiffs and Class 15 Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released Class 16 Claims of the Class in accordance with this Settlement. The Released Class Claims are appropriately 17 tethered to the allegations of the Operative Complaint. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.39 and 6.2.)

18 Class Counsel are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class claims, the defenses asserted, 19 and the risks and benefits of trial and settlement, and Class Counsel are particularly experienced in wage 20 and hour employment class actions, as Class Counsel have previously litigated and certified similar 21 claims against other alleged employers. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶31. The view of qualified and 22 well-informed counsel that a class action settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable is entitled to 23 significant weight. See Kullar v. Foot Locker, 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 133 (2008) (the trial court 24 "undoubtedly should continue to place reliance on the competence and integrity of counsel, the 25 involvement of a qualified mediator, and the paucity of objectors to the settlement."); Dunk, 48 Cal.
26 App. 4th at 1802.

27 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Kevin Barnes, a respected and 28 experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement. In preparation

1 for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with pay and work data and other information
2 regarding the Class Members, various internal documents, and other compensation and work-related 3 materials. Class Counsel analyzed the data with the assistance of damages expert Berger Consulting 4 and prepared and submitted a mediation brief to the mediator. The final settlement terms were 5 negotiated and set forth in the Agreement now presented for this Court's approval. Decl. Nordrehaug 6 at ¶ 5. Importantly, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe that this Settlement is fair, reasonable, and 7 adequate.

8 As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount to be paid by Defendant is 9 Two Million Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,400,000). The Settlement is all-in with no reversion 10 to Defendant and no need to submit a claim form. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 3.

11 Class Counsel has conducted an investigation into the facts of the class action. Informal 12 discovery were obtained, which included the production of hundreds of pages of relevant documents 13 and data. Class Counsel engaged in a thorough review and analysis of the relevant documents and data 14 with the assistance of an expert. Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel 15 possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on 16 the merits and the results that could be obtained through further litigation. In addition, Class Counsel 17 previously negotiated settlements with other alleged employers in actions involving nearly identical 18 issues and analogous defenses. Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation, 19 evaluation and experience, Class Counsel believe that the Settlement with Defendant on the terms set
20 forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light 21 of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by 22 Defendant, and potential appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 14.

23 Plaintiffs and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of continuing to litigate and trying 24 this Action against Defendant through possible appeals which could take several years. Class Counsel 25 has also taken into account the uncertain outcome and risk of litigation, especially in complex class 26 actions such as this Action. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of 27 proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the Action. Based upon their evaluation, 28 Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the 1 best interest of the Class Members. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 23.

2 Here, there can be no dispute that the litigation has been hard-fought with aggressive and 3 capable advocacy on both sides. The Parties were represented by experienced and capable counsel who 4 zealously advocated their positions. Accordingly, “[t]here is likewise every reason to conclude that 5 settlement negotiations were vigorously conducted at arms’ length and without any suggestion of undue 6 influence.” In re Wash. Public Power Supply System Sec. Litig., 720 F. Supp. at 1392.

7 2. The Settlement Has No “Obvious Deficiencies” and Falls Well Within 8 the Range for Approval

9 The proposed Settlement herein has no "obvious deficiencies" and is well within the range of 10 possible approval. All Class Members will receive an opportunity to participate in the Settlement and 11 receive payment according to the same formula. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Based upon 14,000 Class 12 Members who collectively worked 160,449 Workweeks, the Gross Settlement Amount provides an 13 average value of $171 per Class Member and $14.95 per Workweek and after deductions the Net 14 Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $95 per Class Member and a recovery of $8.28 per 15 Workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

16 The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation 17 were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiffs’ damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at 18 issue in this Action, Plaintiffs used the expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid 19 wages for the employees. The important consideration of the damages in this case was the voter 20 approval of Proposition 22 which enacted Business & Professions Code § 7450, et seq. declaring app 21 based delivery drivers to be independent contractors, if certain conditions are met. As a result, Plaintiffs 22 considered the pre-Proposition 22 damages separately from the post-Proposition 22 damages.

23 For the pre-Proposition 22 damages, the maximum potential damages were calculated to be 24 $313,300 for the alleged unpaid wages due to off-the-clock work at 1 hour per week, $313,300 for 25 alleged meal period damages based upon an alleged 1 missed meal period per week, and $313,300 for 26 alleged rest period damages based upon an alleged 1 missed rest period per month, $1,050,664 for 27 alleged unreimbursed business expenses for personal vehicle usage of 41 average miles per day. As a 28 result, the pre-Proposition 22 maximum damages were $1,990,564. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6. For the

1 post-Proposition 22 damages, the Business & Professions Code § 7451 provided a complete defense
2 to the proposed damages, and given the Defendant showing of substantial compliance with Proposition 3 22, Plaintiffs considered it extremely unlikely that these damages could be recovered. The maximum 4 post-Proposition 22 damages in the absence of this complete defense were $1,178,392 for off-the-clock, 5 $1,178,392 for the meal period claim, $1,178,392 for the rest period claim, and up to $15 million for 6 the alleged unreimbursed business expenses for personal vehicle usage, for a maximum total of 7 $18,535,176. However, given the Proposition 22 complete defense, Plaintiffs believe that these 8 damages are highly unlikely as in less than a 10% chance of recovery, and applying this risk rating 9 provides a more realistic damage recovery of less than $1,853,518. Further, the far more likely result 10 is that in light of the defense, any recovery the post-Proposition damages would be limited to the 11 sporadic instances where the Class earnings fell below the “Earnings Guarantee” in Proposition 22. This 12 maintains the independent contractor status defense, and simply guarantees that Class Members would 13 earn 120% of minimum wages for engaged time plus $0.30 per mile. Under this Proposition 22 14 recovery, few earnings periods would be recoverable, and only in small amounts representing the 15 different to this “Earnings Guarantee”. Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiffs’ calculations and 16 exposure theories, and contends that at all times it complied with the law including Proposition 22, 17 which would provide a complete defense to Plaintiffs’ claims. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

18 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $2,400,000 represents a reasonable percentage 19 of the maximum value of the alleged damages, which are less than $3,844,082.³ While Plaintiffs 20 alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 226 for waiting time 21 penalties and wage statement penalties, Plaintiffs gave negligible value to these penalty claims at 22 mediation because these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses asserted by Defendant, 23 including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for meal or rest periods or 24 other wages were owed given Defendant’s position that Plaintiffs and Class Members were properly 25 compensated and classified as independent contractors. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal.

27 ³ Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, 28 Plaintiffs did not include the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The PAGA claim is addressed in the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶33.

1 App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have 2 a good faith dispute as to whether and when the wages were due."). Importantly, the recent decision that 3 good faith belief of compliance by the employer in Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 4 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely negate the claims for waiting time and wage statement penalties, 5 even if some wages were owed to the Class. The above maximum calculations should then be adjusted 6 further in consideration for both the risk of class certification and the risk of establishing class-wide 7 liability on all claims. Given the amount of the Settlement as compared to the potential value of claims 8 in this case and the defenses asserted by Defendant, this Settlement is fair and reasonable.⁴ Clearly, the 9 goal of this litigation has been met. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

10 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
11 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by 12 Defendant present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiffs and the other Class Members.
13 Defendant asserted that Class Members were correctly classified as independent contractors and 14 compensated in accordance with Proposition 22. Defendant argued that Plaintiffs' claims were entirely 15 barred by Proposition 22, and overcoming the Proposition 22 defense would have been extremely 16 difficult and unlikely, Defendant maintained that it complied fully with Proposition 22 and satisfied the 17 "Earnings Guarantee." Defendant also argued that based on its facially lawful practices, Defendant 18 acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if accepted would negate the claims for waiting time 19 penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. See e.g. Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 20 1056, 1065 (2024) ("[I]f an employer reasonably and in good faith believed it was providing a complete

22 ⁴ See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 23 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime 24 damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 25 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents 26 approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Dunleavy v.
27 Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.), 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) (affirming approval of 28 a class settlement which represented "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery".) See also Viceral v.
Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D.
Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

1 and accurate wage statement in compliance with the requirements of section 226, then it has not
2 knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with the wage statement law.”). If successful, Defendant’s
3 defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the Class. Plaintiffs believe that there 4 is a low possibility these defenses could be overcome, therefore present a serious risk to recovery by 5 the Class. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 24.

6 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiffs would be unable 7 to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not recover on behalf 8 of any individuals other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully opposed 9 the propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification. Further, 10 as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 11 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even where the 12 class has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, 13 class certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class through trial 14 was by no means a foregone conclusion. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 25.

15 After arm’s length negotiations between experienced and informed counsel, the Parties 16 recognized the potential risks and agreed on the Settlement with a Gross Settlement Amount of 17 $2,400,000. As the Court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those here:

18 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 19 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of how 20 this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 21 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of 22 litigating an appeal. ‘The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be 23 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.’”

24 2007 WL 221862, at *4 (quoting In re Mego Financial Corp. Securities Litigation, 213 F.3d 454, 458 25 (9th Cir. 2000)).

26 3. The Settlement Does Not Improperly Grant Preferential Treatment To 27 Class Representatives or Segments Of The Class

28 The relief provided in the Settlement will benefit all members of the Class. The Settlement does not grant preferential treatment to Plaintiffs or segments of the Class in any way. Payments to the Class Members are all determined under a neutral methodology. Each Participating Class Member will

1 receive the same opportunity to participate in and receive payment through a neutral formula that is 2 based upon the Workweeks for that individual. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶4.

3 Plaintiffs will apply to the Court for Class Representative Service Payments in consideration 4 for their service and for the risks undertaken on behalf of the Class. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Plaintiffs 5 performed their duties admirably by working with Class Counsel over the course of litigation. The 6 Declarations of the Plaintiffs are submitted herewith in support. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶27. At this stage, 7 the requested service award not to exceed amount is within the accepted range of awards for purposes
8 of preliminary approval. See e.g. Andrews v. Plains All Am. Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (finding that the requested service awards of $15,000 each are 10 appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal.
11 2019) (granting request for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist.
12 LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was $351); 13 Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D.Cal. 2008) (awarding 14 $25,000 service award in overtime class action); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862, *16-17 15 (N.D.Cal. 2007) (awarding $25,000 service award in overtime class action and a pool of $100,000 in 16 enhancements). As explained in Glass, service awards are routinely awarded to class representatives 17 to compensate the plaintiffs for the time and effort expended on the case, for the risk of litigation, for 18 the fear of suing an alleged employer and retaliation there from, and to serve as an incentive to vindicate 19 the statutory rights of all employees. 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17.

20 4. The Stage Of The Proceedings Are Sufficiently Advanced To Permit
21 Preliminary Approval Of The Settlement

22 The stage of the proceedings at which this Settlement was reached also militates in favor of 23 preliminary approval and ultimately, final approval of the Settlement. Class Counsel has conducted a 24 thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel began investigating the Class 25 Members' claims before the Action was filed, and during the course of litigation, Class Counsel 26 engaged in informal discovery to obtain necessary information. Class Counsel conducted a review and 27 analysis of the relevant documents and data. Class Counsel was also experienced with the claims at 28 issue here, as Class Counsel previously litigated and settled similar claims in other actions.

1 Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient information 2 to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and the results that 3 could be obtained through further litigation. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶28.

4 Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class
5 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set
6 forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light
7 of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by 8 Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues. There can be no doubt that Counsel for both 9 parties possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of 10 success on the merits and the results that could be obtained through further litigation. Decl. Nordrehaug 11 at ¶29.

12 V. THE CLASS IS PROPERLY CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY

13 Plaintiffs contend that the proposed Settlement meet all of the requirements for class 14 certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 as demonstrated below, and therefore, the 15 Court may appropriately approve the Class as defined in the Agreement. This Court should 16 conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, defined as follows:

17 All individuals who are or previously contracted with Defendant as couriers in the State 18 of California at any time during the Class Period.

19 (Agreement at ¶ 1.5.)

20 The Class Period is December 1, 2019 through March 17, 2025. (Agreement at ¶ 1.13.)

21 A. California Code of Civil Procedure § 382

22 Plaintiffs seek certification of this Class for settlement purposes under California Code of Civil 23 Procedure § 382. The California Supreme Court has summarized the standard for determining whether 24 class certification is appropriate as follows:

25 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 authorizes class actions “when the question is one 26 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and 27 it is impracticable to bring them all before the court....” The party seeking certification 28 has the burden to establish the existence of both an ascertainable class and a well-defined community of interest among class members. (citations omitted). The “community of interest” requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.

1 Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 326 (2004).

2 While Defendant reserves all rights to dispute that the Plaintiffs can satisfy these requirements, 3 the Parties agree that Defendant will not dispute that these requirements may be satisfied in this case 4 for purposes of settlement only and therefore, the proposed Class should be certified for purposes of 5 settlement only. (Agreement at ¶ 2.10.)

6 B. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

7 Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of a Class of couriers in California during the Class Period.
8 Plaintiffs assert that all of these individuals are ascertainable because the class members can readily be 9 determined through examination of Defendant's files. Given that the Class consists of approximately 10 14,000 individuals, Plaintiffs maintain that numerosity is clearly satisfied. See Bowles v. Superior 11 Court, 44 Cal.2d 574 (1955) (class with 10 members sufficiently numerous); Rose v. City of Hayward, 12 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981) (class of 48 members satisfies numerosity requirement.) Here, 13 Plaintiffs assert that the estimated 14,000 couriers that comprise the Class can be identified based on 14 Defendant's records and are sufficiently numerous for class certification. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30.

15 C. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

16 Predominance of common issues of law or fact does not require that the common issues be 17 dispositive of the entire controversy or even that they be dispositive of all liability issues. 1 Newberg 18 on Class Actions, Section 4.25 at 4-82, 4-83 (1992). "Predominance is a comparative concept, and 'the 19 necessity for class members to individually establish eligibility and damages does not mean individual 20 fact questions predominate.'" Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 334.

21 Commonality exists if there is a predominant common legal question regarding how an 22 company's policies impact its workers. Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 23 1536 (2008) ("[T]he common legal question remains the overall impact of Diva's policies on its 24 drivers.") Whether the plaintiff is likely to prevail on their theory of recovery is irrelevant at the 25 certification stage since the question is "essentially a procedural one that does not ask whether an action 26 is legally or factually meritorious." Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-440 (2003).

27 Here, Plaintiffs contend that common questions of law and fact are present, specifically the 28

1 common questions of whether Defendant's practices were lawful, whether Defendant misclassified 2 Plaintiffs, whether Plaintiffs' claims were barred by Proposition 22, whether Class Members were 3 lawfully compensated, whether Defendant's practices failed to meet the "Earnings Guarantee", whether 4 Defendant failed to provide required expense reimbursement, and whether Class Members are entitled 5 to damages and penalties as a result of these practices. Plaintiffs contend that certification of this Class 6 is appropriate because Defendant allegedly engaged in uniform policies and practices with respect to 7 the Class Members. As a result, these common questions of liability could be answered on a class wide 8 basis. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶30. Defendant disputes that common questions predominate but will not 9 oppose such a finding for purposes of this Settlement only.

10 D. The Claims of the Plaintiffs Are Typical of the Class Claims

11 The typicality requirement requires the Plaintiffs to demonstrate that the members of the class 12 have the same or similar claims as the Plaintiffs. "The typicality requirement is met when the claims 13 of the [p]laintiff arise from the same event or are based on the same legal theories." Tate v.
14 Weyerhaeuser Co., 723 F.2d 598, 608 (8th Cir. 1983). In Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1020, the Ninth 15 Circuit held that "[u]nder the rule's permissive standards, representative claims are 'typical' if they are 16 reasonably coextensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical."

17 In this Action, Plaintiffs contend that the typicality requirement is fully satisfied. Plaintiffs, like 18 every other member of the Class, provided services for Defendant as a courier, and, alleges like every 19 other member of the Class, they were subject to the same policies and practices. Plaintiffs, like every 20 other member of the Class, also claim owed compensation as a result of the Defendant's company 21 policies and practices. Thus, the claims of Plaintiffs and the members of the Class arise from the same 22 course of conduct by Defendant, involve the same issues, and are based on the same legal theories.
23 Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30. For purposes of settlement, Plaintiffs assert that the typicality requirement 24 is met as to the common issues presented in this case. Defendant does not oppose a finding of typicality 25 for purposes of this Settlement only.

26 E. The Class Representation Fairly and Adequately Protected the Class

27 Plaintiffs contend that the Class Members are adequately represented here because Plaintiffs and 28 representing counsel (a) do not have any conflicts of interest with other class members, and (b) will

1 prosecute the case vigorously on behalf of the class. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. This requirement is 2 met here. First, Plaintiffs are well aware of their duties as the representatives of the Class and have 3 actively participated in the prosecution of this case to date. Plaintiffs effectively communicated with 4 Class Counsel, provided documents and information to Class Counsel, and participated in the 5 investigation and resolution of the Action. The personal involvement of the Plaintiffs was essential to 6 the prosecution of the Action and the monetary settlement reached. Second, Plaintiffs retained 7 competent counsel who are experienced in employment class actions and who have no conflicts. Decl.
8 Nordrehaug at ¶ 31. Third, there is no antagonism between the interests of the Plaintiffs and those of 9 the Class. Both the Plaintiffs and the Class Members seek monetary relief under the same set of facts 10 and legal theories. Under such circumstances, there can be no conflicts of interest, and adequacy of 11 representation is satisfied. Reaves v. Ketoro, Inc., 2020 U.S. Dist. Lexis 167926, *23 (C.D. Cal. 2020).
12 Defendant disputes that the adequacy requirement is satisfied but will not oppose such a finding for 13 purposes of this Settlement only.

14 F. The Superiority Requirement Is Met

15 To certify a class, the Court must also determine that a class action is superior to other available 16 methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. “Where classwide litigation of 17 common issues will reduce litigation costs and promote greater efficiency, a class action may be 18 superior to other methods of litigation.” Valentino v. Carter-Wallace, Inc., 97 F.3d 1227, 1234 (9th Cir.
19 1996). As courts have previously observed:

20 Absent class treatment, each individual plaintiff would present in separate, duplicative 21 proceedings the same or essentially the same arguments and evidence, including expert 22 testimony. The result would be a multiplicity of trials conducted at enormous expense 23 to both the judicial system and the litigants. “It would be neither efficient nor fair to 24 anyone, including defendants, to force multiple trials to hear the same evidence and 25 decide the same issues.”

26 Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 340, citing Boggs v. Divested Atomic Corp., 141 F.R.D. 58, 67 (S.D. Ohio 1991).

27 Here, Plaintiffs contend that a class action is the superior mechanism for resolution of the claims 28 as pled by the Plaintiffs, as class certification would serve as the only means to deter and redress the alleged Labor Code violations. Linder, supra, 23 Cal.4th at 434 (relevant considerations include the probability that each class member will come forward ultimately to prove his or her separate claim to 1 a portion of the total recovery and whether the class approach would actually serve to deter and redress

2 the alleged wrongdoing) While Defendant disputes that class treatment is superior, Defendant does not 3 dispute a finding of superiority in this action for purposes of this Settlement only.

4 VI. THE PROPOSED METHOD OF CLASS NOTICE IS APPROPRIATE

5 The Court has broad discretion in approving a practical notice program. The Parties have agreed 6 upon procedures by which the Class Members will be provided with written notice of the Settlement 7 similar to that approved and utilized in hundreds of class action settlements. In accordance with the 8 Agreement, Defendant will provide to the Administrator a confidential electronic spreadsheet 9 containing the Class Data. (Agreement at ¶ 4.2.) Within 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the 10 Administrator will mail the Class Notice to all Class Members via first-class U.S. Mail using the most 11 current mailing address information available. (Agreement at ¶ 8.4(b).)

12 “The principal purpose of notice to the class is the protection of the integrity of the class action 13 process.” Cartt v. Superior Court, 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 970 (1975). The notice “must fairly apprise the 14 class members of the terms of the proposed compromise and of the options open to the dissenting class 15 members.” Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 224, 251. Additionally, the notice given should have a 16 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members. Cartt, supra, 50
17 Cal.App.3d at 974. However, there is no statutory or due process requirement that all class members 18 receive action notice. Id.

19 The Class Notice, drafted jointly and agreed upon by the Parties through their respective counsel
20 and to be approved by the Court, includes all relevant information. (See Exhibit “A” to the Agreement.)
21 The Class Notice will include, among other information: (i) information regarding the Action; (ii) the 22 impact on the rights of the Class Members if they do not opt out, including a description of the 23 applicable release; (iii) information to the Class Members regarding how to opt out and how to object 24 to the Settlement; (iv) the estimated Individual Class Payment for each of the Class Members; (iii) the 25 amount of attorneys’ fees and expenses to be sought; (v) the amount of the Plaintiffs’ service award 26 request; and (vi) the anticipated expenses of the Administrator. A Spanish translation will be included 27 with the Class Notice. (Agreement at ¶ 1.11.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32.

28 The Class Notice will state that the Class Members shall have sixty (60) days from the date that

1 the Class Notice is mailed to them (the “Response Deadline”) to request exclusion (opt-out) or to 2 submit a written objection, which deadline shall be extended by 14 days for re-mailings. (Agreement 3 at ¶¶ 1.43, 8.5, 8.7.) Class Members shall be given the opportunity to object to the Settlement and/or 4 requests for attorneys’ fees and expenses and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing. (Agreement at 5 ¶ 8.7.) Class Members who do not submit a timely and proper request to opt-out will automatically 6 receive a payment of their Individual Class Payment. This notice program was designed to 7 meaningfully reach the Class Members and it advises them of all pertinent information concerning the 8 Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32. The mailing and distribution of the Class Notice satisfies the 9 requirements of due process and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances and complies 10 with Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769(f).

11 VII. CONCLUSION

12 Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed settlement and 13 sign the proposed Preliminary Approval Order, which is submitted herewith, and schedule the final 14 approval hearing for the proposed date of December 16, 2025, which date is at least one hundred twenty 15 (120) days from the date of Preliminary Approval.
