FOR THE COUNTY OF TULARE

FROYAN GUIZAR, on behalf of himself and all other Aggrieved Employees,

Plaintiff,

v.

PARAGON PERSONNEL a California
Corporation and SANTIAGO J MARTIN an individual and DOES 1- 50, Inclusive,

Defendant,

Case No. VCU303559

COMPLAINT

1. Civil Penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA)

Case Management Conference

03/18/2024 08:30 AM - Department 07

1 Plaintiff, FROYAN GUIZAR, (“Plaintiff”), as a representative of the State of California
2 and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (LWDA), and on behalf of themselves and
3 other current or former Aggrieved Employees, complains and alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. This is a representative action brought by Plaintiff, as a representative of the State
6 of California and the LWDA, and on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, to 7 collect civil penalties for Defendant’s Labor Code violations.

8 2. Defendants and employers, PARAGON PERSONNEL and SANTIAGO J
9 MARTIN, (“Collectively Defendants”), violated numerous wage and hour laws with respect to 10 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees by failing to provide, for example: accurate and 11 itemized wages statements, payment for all hours worked (including regular wages and 12 overtime), failure to provide a minimum wage lawful meal periods, lawful rest periods, timely 13 payment during employment, failure to reimburse for expenses incurred during the course and 14 scope of employment, and payment upon separation of employment.

15 3. Defendants violated numerous wage and hour laws with respect to Plaintiff and 16 other Aggrieved Employees by failing to provide, for example: accurate and itemized wages
17 statements, payment for all hours worked (including regular wages and overtime), lawful meal
18 and rest periods, minimum wages for those hours worked but not compensated, timely payment
19 of wages during employment, reimbursement for necessary expenses incurred during the course
20 and scope of employment, and payment upon separation of employment

21 PARTIES

22 The Plaintiff

23 4. The plaintiff is, and at all times herein mentioned was, a resident of California,
24 currently residing in Tulare County. Aggrieved employees are former and/or current non-exempt
25 employees, during the relevant time period who were subject to the same wage and hour
26 policies/practices as Plaintiff and were employed by Defendants within California holding 27 various positions who experienced at least one or more of the violations set forth in this notice.
28 , and thereby suffered similar or substantially similar violations (“Aggrieved Employees”).

2 The Defendants

3 5. Defendant Paragon Personnel is a California corporation which, at all relevant 4 times mentioned herein, existing, doing business and employing individuals in the County of 5 TULARE, State of California. Plaintiff is informed and thereon alleges that Defendant exercised
6 control over Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' wages, hours, and working conditions.

7 6. Defendant SANTIAGO J MARTIN ("MARTIN") is an individual over the age of 8 18 years, and based on information and belief, was residing at all times mentioned herein in the 9 County of Tulare, State of California. MARTIN, on information and belief is the Chief Executive
10 Officer of Defendant Paragon Personnel and exercised control over Plaintiff and Aggrieved
11 Employees' wages, hours and working conditions.

12 7. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 13 otherwise of Defendants named herein as DOES 1-50, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff at this 14 time and therefore said Defendants are sued by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will seek leave to 15 amend this Complaint to insert the true names and capacities of said Defendants when the same
16 become known to Plaintiff. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that each of 17 the fictitiously-named Defendants are responsible for the wrongful acts alleged herein and is 18 therefore liable to Plaintiff as alleged hereinafter.

19 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges, that at all times
20 relevant hereto, Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, employees, managing agents, 21 supervisors, conspirators, parent corporation, joint employers, alter ego, and/or joint ventures of 22 the other Defendants, and each of them, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting at 23 least in part within the course and scope of said agency, employment, conspiracy, joint 24 employment, alter ego status, and/or joint venture and with the permission and consent of each of 25 the other Defendants.

26 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges, that Defendants,
27 and each of them, including those Defendants named DOES 1-50, acted in concert with one 28

1 another to commit the wrongful acts alleged therein, and aided, abetted, incited, compelled,
2 and/or coerced one another in the wrongful acts alleged herein, and/or attempted to do so.
3 Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges, that the Defendants, and 4 each of them, including those Defendants named as DOES 1-50, formed and executed a 5 conspiracy or common plan pursuant to which they would commit the unlawful acts alleged 6 herein, with all such acts alleged herein done as part of and pursuant to said conspiracy, intended
7 to and actually causing Plaintiff harm.

8 10. Whenever and wherever reference is made in this Complaint to any act or failure 9 to act by a defendant or co-defendant, such allegations and references shall also be deemed to 10 mean the acts and/or failures to act by each defendant acting individually, jointly and severally.

11 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12 11. Venue is proper in Tulare County, because Defendant maintains its locations and 13 transacts business in this county, the obligations and liability primarily arise in this county, and 14 work was primarily performed by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in this county.

15 12. The California Superior Court has jurisdiction over this matter. The individual 16 claims are under the seventy-five thousand dollar ($75,000.00) jurisdictional threshold for 17 federal court and PAGA penalties cannot be aggregated to meet the minimum jurisdictional
18 amount required for diversity removal. Further, there is no federal question at issue as the issues
19 herein are based solely on California statutes and law, including, but not limited to, the California
20 Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, California Code of Civil Procedure, 21 and California Rules of Court.

22 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

23 13. Defendant is a company that offers staffing, training, and other services for 24 agricultural operations. employed Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in California during the 25 relevant PAGA period. Aggrieved Employees are all non-exempt employees employed by 26 Employer within California holding various positions who experienced at least one or more of 27 the violations set forth in the PAGA notice attached as Exhibit A. Plaintiff began working or 28

on about January 2023 to March, 2023, as a “Laborer”.

14. The position required Plaintiff to work more than 8 hours a day and/or 40 hours per week without lawful compensation. Plaintiff and nonexempt Aggrieved Employees were regularly not paid for minimum wages and overtime for compensable work time spent under the control of Defendant, but which was performed off-the-clock, even though such additional work time was in excess of regularly scheduled, eight-hour daily shifts.

15. Plaintiff and some Aggrieved Employees were paid on a piece rate basis for the removal of trees and other large bushes. The payment of piece rate compensation was not properly designated nor properly paid to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. Rest and recovery periods, other non-productive time and overtime periods were not complied with to legally compensated Plaintiff and some Aggrieved Employees.

16. Plaintiff and non-exempt Aggrieved Employees were subject to not having all their compensable work time recorded due to Defendant’s high-volume agricultural duties. Not all of Plaintiff and non-exempt aggrieved employees’ compensable work time spent under the control of Defendant was accounted for and compensated. Specifically, Defendant (1) adjusted clock in and clock out times to the disadvantage of Plaintiff and other non-exempt aggrieved employees by rounding up clock-in times when Plaintiff and non-exempt employees clocked in before the scheduled start of their respective shifts and rounded down clock-out times when Plaintiff and non-exempt Aggrieved Employees worked past the scheduled end time for their shifts, as well as (2) requiring Plaintiff and non-exempt employees to continue working when ostensibly on duty-free meal periods, or requiring them to return to work before the end of their thirty-minute meal periods but prohibiting them from clocking back in until the legally required thirty-minute mark.

17. Based on information and belief, Plaintiff believes non-exempt employees were also not being reimbursed for all necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their job duties. Specifically, Defendant required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, regardless of classification, to use their personal cellular telephones to communicate with colleagues and

1 supervisors in the course of performing their respective duties but failed to reimburse them for
2 use of the personal cellular devices nor the consumption of personal calling. Specifically,
3 Plaintiff would receive text messages from his manager informing him of the job site he would
4 have to attend. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees also had to provide their own shears, gloves,
5 and face masks to complete their agricultural work on Defendant's ranch locations. Defendant
6 also maintained unlawful meal/rest period policies and practices. In order to curtail labor costs,
7 Defendant regularly did not staff enough employees to provide sufficient coverage to maintain 8 their business operations so Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees could not both complete their 9 assigned daily duties and take complete, timely and uninterrupted meal and rest breaks.
10 Defendant prioritized completion of daily duties and customer satisfaction ahead of meal and 11 rest period compliance. Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with an 12 additional hour of premium pay at the regular rate of pay for each meal/rest period violation, as 13 required by Labor Code section 226.7.

14
15 18. As a result of the violations described above, Plaintiff and non-exempt Aggrieved 16 Employees experienced collateral or derivative violations. Specifically, Defendant failed to 17 provide Plaintiff and non-exempt Aggrieved Employees accurate itemized wage statements in 18 writing in compliance with Labor Code section 226 and failed to compensate Plaintiff and other 19 former non-exempt Aggrieved Employees for all wages owed at the time employment with 20 Defendant had ended.

21 19. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), any provision of the Labor
22 Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA or any of its 23 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for violation of the code 24 may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on 25 behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures
26 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

27 20. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is 28 specifically provided, Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f) imposes upon Defendant a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent pay period in which Defendant violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

21. Defendant's conduct during the PAGA period with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees violates numerous Labor Code sections as detailed herein.

22. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant has engaged in a systematic pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

23. At all relevant times herein, Defendant employed Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as employees who were subject to the employment policies, in whole or in part, and therefore suffered the same or substantially similar violations, in whole or in part.

24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were entitled to receive wages for all hours worked, including the applicable minimum, regular, and overtime wages, and that they were not receiving all wages earned for work that was required to be performed. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked. Accordingly, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum, regular, and/or overtime compensation.

25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all required meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted off-duty meal period. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendant had a pattern, practice, and policy of not providing timely meal periods. Defendant failed to pay an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for late meal periods. As a result of Defendant's unlawful policy and practice, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees did not receive all meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted 30 minute off-duty meal period.

1 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew
2 or should have known that Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all required
3 rest periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees'
4 regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted off-duty rest period. In 5 violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendant had a pattern, practice, and policy
6 of not providing timely rest periods. Defendant failed to pay an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff
7 and Aggrieved Employees for each rest periods were not provided or was interrupted. As a result
8 of Defendant's unlawful policy and practice, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did not receive
9 all required rest periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Aggrieved
10 Employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted 10 minute off-
11 duty rest period.

12 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew
13 or should have known that Plaintiff and certain Aggrieved Employees were entitled to timely
14 payment of wages due upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff
15 and certain Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all wages due, within permissible
16 time periods, upon separation of employment.

17 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant
18 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive 19 itemized wage statements that accurately showed their actual hours worked, total hours
20 worked, number of hours worked at each hourly rate, gross and net wages earned, and correct
21 employer information in accordance with California law. As a result of the wage violations
22 specified above, and in violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were 23 not provided with accurate itemized wage statements that accurately reported their gross and 24 net wages earned, total hours worked, each applicable rate of pay in effect during the pay 25 period with the corresponding number of hours worked, and the address of the legal entity that 26 is the employer, among other things.
27
28

1 Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendant knew or should have 2 known that Defendant was required to maintain accurate records of the hours worked by 3 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. In violation of the Labor Code, Defendant failed to 4 maintain accurate records of hours worked by Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees due to its off-
5 the-clock and/or unfair rounding practices, among other things.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act, 8 Labor Code § 2699 et seq., For Violations of the Labor Code)

9 29. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of this 10 Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

11 30. By this complaint, Plaintiff brings this case as a representative action seeking 12 penalties for himself, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California in a representative
13 capacity, as provided by the PAGA, Labor Code sections 2698 et seq. Plaintiff is an Aggrieved
14 Employee who was employed by Defendants and subject to at least one of the Labor Code
15 violations set forth in Labor Code section 2699.5. Plaintiff specifically alleged the following in 16 their notice to the LWDA and Defendants: violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 17 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198 and 18 2802.

19 31. Under Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a), a plaintiff may bring a cause
20 of action under PAGA only after giving the LWDA and the employer notice of the Labor Code
21 sections alleged to have been violated, and after receiving notice from the LWDA of its intention 22 not to investigate, or after 65 days have passed without notice from the LWDA.

23 32. Prior to filing this complaint, on March 3, 2023, Plaintiff gave written notice of 24 the specific provisions alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support
25 the alleged violations, as required by Labor Code section 2699.3 to Defendant's Paragon
26 Personnel. The written notice was given via certified mail to Defendants, and the LWDA by 27 electronically filing the notice via the Department of Industrial Relations website. Plaintiff was 28

1 given an LWDA case number of LWDA-CM-944003-23. True and correct copies of Plaintiff's
2 notices to the LWDA and Defendant are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3 33. The LWDA has not provided Plaintiff with any notice that it intends to investigate
4 the violations as alleged in either of Plaintiff's notices, and more than 65 calendar days have 5 elapsed since the postmark date on the latter notice.

6 34. California Labor Code §§2698-2699.5, in relevant part provides, "any provision
7 of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and 8 Workforce Development Agency...for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be 9 recovered through a civil action brought by an Aggrieved Employee on behalf of himself or 10 herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 11 2699.3."

12 35. As an Aggrieved Employee, Plaintiff brings this civil action to recover civil 13 penalties for Defendant's Labor Code violations.

14
15 First Violation

16 (Failure to Provide Meal Periods, in Violation of Labor Code Section 512)

17 36. Under California Labor Code §512(a), "An employer may not employ an 18 employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee 19 with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the 20 employee is no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both 21 the employer and employee."

22 37. Defendant violated Labor Code § 512 by failing to provide Plaintiff, and other 23 qualifying employees who worked shifts of greater than five hours, meal periods within the first
24 five hours of the shifts worked. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff one hour's pay at Plaintiff's
25 regular rate of pay for each day Defendant failed to provide a meal period in compliance with 26 section 512.

1 Second Violation

2 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods, in Violation of Labor Code Section 226.7)

3 38. Under California Labor Code §226.7(b), “An employer shall not require an 4 employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable
5 statute, or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission”

6 39. Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) provides, “Every employer shall authorize 7 and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle 8 of each work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked 9 daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof.”

10 40. Defendant failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and other employee to take rest
11 periods and mandated by the Wage Order.

12 41. Under §226.7(c), an employer who violates §226.7(b), “...shall pay the employee 13 one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that 14 the meal or rest or recovery period is not provided.”

15 42. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other employees who were not provided rest 16 periods one hour of pay at their regular rate of pay.

17 Third Violation

18 (Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements, 19 in Violation of Labor Code Section 226)

20 43. Under California Labor Code §226(a), an employer is legally obligated to provide 21 its employees, semi-monthly or at the time of payment of wages, “an accurate itemized statement 22 in writing...”

23 44. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
24 for Defendant’s Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney’s fees and costs, under 25 Labor Code § 2699.
26

1 Fourth Violation

2 (Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

3 45. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and IWC Wage Orders, an 4 employer is required to compensate employees for all overtime, which is calculated at one and 5 one-half (1½) times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours per 6 day and/or forty (40) hours per week, and for the first eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive 7 workday, with double time for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any workday
8 and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in 9 any workweek.

10 46. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
11 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
12 Labor Code § 2699.

13 Fifth Violation

14 (Failure to Pay Minimum Wages)

15 47. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and IWC Wage Orders, 16 payment to an employee of less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in a 17 payroll period is unlawful.

18 48. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
19 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
20 Labor Code § 2699.

21 Sixth Violation

22 (Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment)

23 49. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 204, for all labor performed between the 1st 24 and 15th days of any calendar month, an employer is required to pay its employees between the 25 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed. California Labor Code §
26 204 also provides that for all labor performed between the 16th and 26th days of any calendar
27 month, Defendant was required to pay their employees between the 1st and 15th day of the 28

1 following calendar month. In addition, California Labor Code § 204 provides that all wages
2 earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday of the 3 next regular payroll period.

4 50. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
5 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
6 Labor Code § 2699.

7 Seventh Violation

8 (Failure to Pay All Wages Due to Discharged and Quitting Employees)

9 51. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 201, 202, and 203, Defendant is required to 10 pay all earned and unpaid wages to an employee who is discharged. California Labor Code § 11 201 mandates that if an employer discharges an employee, the employee's wages accrued and 12 unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately.

13 52. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
14 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
15 Labor Code § 2699.

16 Eighth Violation

17 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses in Violation of Labor Code § 2802

18 (Against all Defendants and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive)

19 53. Labor Code § 2802 provides that an employer shall indemnify his or her 20 employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 21 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of 22 the employer.

23 54. Defendants failed to indemnify and reimburse Plaintiff for all necessary
24 expenditures or losses incurred by Plaintiff in direct consequence of the discharge of Plaintiff's 25 job duties.

26 55. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2802, Plaintiff is entitled to recover business expenses
27 incurred as a result of discharging his duties, including interest.

28 56. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties

1 for Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
2 Labor Code § 2699.

3 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

4 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- 5 1. For penalties in an amount according to proof;
6 2. For reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to the PAGA; and 7 3. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS - PAGA
(Labor Code § 2699.3)

SUBJECT: Froyan Guizar v. Paragon Personnel; ET AL — NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS UNDER CAL. LABOR CODE §2699.

Dear Representative:

The office represents Froyan Guizar (“Mr. Guizar”) with respect to his claims against Paragon Personnel and Santiago J. Martin (an individual) (“Employers”) for violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders. This letter is being sent simultaneously to Employers by certified mail.

Employers are a corporation doing business in the State of California. Employers jointly employed Mr. Guizar from approximately January 2023 to approximately March 2023, as a non-exempt employee. During his employment with Employers, Mr. Guizar was employed as a “Laborer” at Employers’ company located at 3916 W Caldwell Ave Visalia, CA 93277.

Mr. Guizar intends to seek penalties for violations of the California Labor Code which are recoverable under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”). Mr. Guizar is seeking penalties on behalf of himself and in a representative capacity on behalf of the State of California and all current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Employers (“Aggrieved Employees”). This letter is being sent in compliance with California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees were also subject to a piece rate compensation system where they were paid a fixed amount of approximately $1.40 for each tree they removed. No consideration was given to the amount of time required for the removal of each tree. Therefore, Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees were compensated at an illegally calculated rate.

As detailed below, Employers violated several of California's wage and hour laws during Mr. Guizar employment, including but not limited to violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 227.3, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("IWC Wage Order") including inter alia, IWC Wage Order No. 5. The claims made on behalf of Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees are based upon the following facts and theories:

1. FAILURE TO PAY FOR ALL TIME WORKED AT CORRECT RATES OF PAY, INCLUDING MINIMUM WAGES, STRAIGHT TIME WAGES, AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION.

Employers have engaged in numerous unlawful practices which resulted in the failure to pay Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees for all time worked at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation.

First, Employers regularly required Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock in order to complete their duties and responsibilities. This off-the-clock work included, amongst other things, requiring Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees to: (1) respond to Employers and work-related requests and perform work while clocked out for purported meal breaks; (2) perform work before clocking in for the start of their shift; and (3) perform work after clocking out for the end of their shift. Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees were not compensated for this off-the-clock work, resulting in a failure to pay minimum wages and straight time wages. Moreover, this off-the-clock work typically caused Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees to work more than eight (8) hours in a day and forty (40) hours in week, resulting in a failure to pay overtime compensation.

Besides working off the clock, Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees were not compensated for the time or expense to travel to the various irregular locations they were required to work. The work locations worked by Aggrieved Employees would typically change twice a week.

In addition to requiring Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock without compensation, Employers also failed to accurately record the actual time worked by Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees, which resulted in a failure to pay Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages. Finally, and as a matter of policy and/or practice, Employers failed to pay overtime to Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

As a result of the foregoing practices, Employers have failed to pay Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees for all wages earned at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation. Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Wage Order No. 5 and California Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198.

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order No. 5; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 558, 1197.1, and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

2. FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS AND PAY MEAL PERIOD PREMIUMS

Employers failed to provide Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant 30-minute meal periods. Employers required Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees to work more than five (5) hours per day but were not provided with uninterrupted 30-minute meal periods. Further, Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted 30-minute meal period when they worked over ten (10) hours per day. Employers regularly required Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees to work through their first and second meal periods, to take their first meal period after their fifth (5th) hour of work, and/or to take their second meal periods after their tenth (10th) hour of work. On the occasions that Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees did take a meal period, their meal periods were frequently interrupted or cut short.

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, complete and duty-free meal periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of meal periods or systematically disregarded its own purported meal period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels, affecting all hourly-non-exempt employees, failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant meal period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant meal periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; (6) Employers required Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees to remain on-call and respond to work-related requests at all times, including during meal periods, which included responding to in-person verbal interruptions; and (7) Employers' policy and culture prevented Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods because of the priority placed on completing job requirements over employees' right to receive timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods.

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees did not receive an extra hour of wages at their regular rate of pay for the meal periods which were not provided to them in compliance with California law.

Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Wage Order No. 5 and California Labor Code sections 226.7(a), 512(a) and 1198.

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order No. 5; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code California Labor Code sections 558 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

3. FAILURE TO AUTHORIZE AND PERMIT REST PERIODS AND PAY REST PERIOD PREMIUMS.

Employers failed to authorize and permit Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees take legally compliant 10-minute periods. Employers required Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods. Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods when they worked more than four (4) hours or a major fraction thereof. Further, Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted, duty-free rest period when they worked more than six (6) hours in a day, or a third uninterrupted, duty-free rest period after working more than ten (10) hours in day. In the rare event that a rest period was taken, it was frequently interrupted or cut short. Moreover, Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees were never completely relieved of duty as required by Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 2 Cal.5th 257 (2016).

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely and complete rest periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of rest periods or systematically disregarded its own purported rest period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels, affecting all hourly-non-exempt employees, failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant rest period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant rest periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (6) Employers required Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved Employees to remain on-call and respond to work-related requests at all times, including during rest periods, which included responding to in person verbal interruptions; and (7) Employers' policy and culture prevented Mr. Guizar and other Aggrieved

Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods because of the priority placed on completing job requirements over employees' right to receive rest periods.

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees did not receive an extra hour of wages at their regular rate of pay for the rest periods which were not provided to them in compliance with California law.

Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Wage Order No. 5 and California Labor Code sections 226.7(a), and 1198.

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order No. 5; California Labor Code sections 558 and 1199 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

4. FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY WAGES DURING EMPLOYMENT.

As to each pay period, Employers have failed to timely pay all wages earned because Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees were not paid all the wages they were owed including, inter alia, overtime compensation, straight time wages, and meal and rest period premiums. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 204(a).

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

5. FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE TO DISCHARGED AND QUITTING EMPLOYEES.

As to each pay period, Employers have failed to timely pay all wages earned because Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees were not paid all the wages they were owed including, inter alia, overtime compensation, straight time wages, and meal and rest period premiums. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 201(a), 202(a) and 203(a).

Ms. Armendariz and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

6. FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS.

As a result of the practices described above, the wage statements provided to Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees never included the actual hours worked, the name and address of the legal employing entity, and the correct rates of pay. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 226(a).

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.3; and attorneys' fees and costs.

7. FAILURE TO MAINTAIN ACCURATE RECORDS.

Employers have failed to maintain accurate records relating to Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours worked, and total hours worked per payroll period. Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Wage Order No. 5 and California Labor Code sections 1198.5 and 1174(d).

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order No. 5; California Labor Code section 1174.5 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

8. FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY EXPENDITURES.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of her or her job duties or in direct consequence of her or her obedience to the directions of the employer. IWC Wage Order No. 5 requires employers to provide employees with the tools or equipment necessary for the performance of their job. During the relevant time period, Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Employers. These costs include but are not limited to the use of Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees of their personal cell phone to send and receive messages, and calls with supervisors to understand their duties and the scope of work. Aggrieved Employees would also receive messages or calls on their personal phones informing them of their next location of work. In addition, Aggrieved Employees, to complete their duties, would have to purchase specific scissors to perform their duties.

Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Order No. 5 and California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order No. 5; and attorneys' fees and costs.

9. FAILURE TO PAY VACATION TIME.

Pursuant to California Labor Code section 227.3, ". . . whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off her vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at her final rate in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served." During the relevant time period, Employers failed to pay Mr. Guizar and other

Aggrieved Employees for all earned and unused and accrued vacation time at their final rate of pay at the time of termination of their employment. Accordingly, Employers have violated California Labor Code section 227.3.

Mr. Guizar and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; California Labor Code section 227 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

Sincerely,

JUSTIN LO ESQ.
