1 Plaintiffs Agustin Umana Villatoro (“Plaintiff Villatoro”) and Plaintiff Bryan Hernandez
2 (“Plaintiff Hernandez”) (Plaintiff Villatoro and Plaintiff Hernandez are, together, “Plaintiffs”)¹,
3 based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support
4 after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, allege as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

6 1. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants American Asphalt Repair and 7 Resurfacing Company, Inc. and Does 1 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for 8 California Labor Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’
9 failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods,
10 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked 11 and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, failure to indemnify 12 necessary business expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements.

13 2. Plaintiffs bring the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 14 class action on behalf of themselves and certain current and former employees of Defendants 15 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 16 below). The Class consists of Plaintiffs Villatoro and Hernandez and all other persons who have 17 been employed by any Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during 18 the statute of limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

19 3. Plaintiffs bring the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 20 California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 21 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present employees of Defendants (hereinafter 22 referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

23 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 24 establishment within the State of California, including Alameda County. As such, and based 25 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants 26

27 _____
28 ¹ The initial filing plaintiff, Manuel Carlos Ibarra Becerra, is removed as a plaintiff from the action in this Second Amended Complaint.

are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing to pay an additional hour’s pay for each workday a meal period violation occurred;
- (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour’s pay for each workday a rest period violation occurred;
- (d) Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within the time period specified by California law when employment terminates;
- (f) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked; and
- (g) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their

1 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 2 willful and deliberate.

3 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 4 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 5 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiffs and the Class. Further, Defendants are 6 responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of 7 "respondeat superior".

8 THE PARTIES

9 A. Plaintiffs

10 8. Plaintiff Agustin Umana Villatoro is a California resident that worked for 11 Defendants in the County of Alameda, State of California, as a laborer primarily in Alameda
12 County during the statutory period.

13 9. Plaintiff Bryan Hernandez is a California resident that worked for Defendants in 14 the County of Alameda, State of California, as a laborer primarily in Alameda County during the 15 statutory period.

16 10. Plaintiffs reserve the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new 17 plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v.
18 American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

19 B. Defendants

20 11. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief 21 allege, that Defendants is:

- 22 (a) A California corporation with its principal places of business in Alameda, 23 California;
- 24 (b) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the 25 State of California, including in Alameda County; and
- 26 (c) The former employer of Plaintiffs, and the current and/or former employer 27 of the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiffs and the 28 Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

1 12. Plaintiffs do not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or 2 entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious
3 names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages
4 suffered by Plaintiffs and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to set
5 forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained,
6 together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

7 13. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 8 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of,
9 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiffs and the Class in the State of California.

10 14. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times
11 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs 12 and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their 13 wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege 14 that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer,
15 director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest
16 and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 17 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to 18 some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters
19 alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each Defendant acted 20 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 21 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 22 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

23 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

24 15. Plaintiff Agustin Umana Villatoro is a California resident that worked for 25 Defendants in the County of Alameda, State of California, as a laborer primarily in Alameda
26 County during the statutory period. Plaintiff Bryan Hernandez is a California resident that 27 worked for Defendants in the County of Alameda, State of California, as a laborer primarily in 28 Alameda County during the statutory period. During the statutory period, Defendants classified

1 Plaintiffs Villatoro and Hernandez as non-exempt from California's overtime requirements, and 2 paid them an hourly wage.

3 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs for all hours
4 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiffs with 5 uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs to take uninterrupted rest
6 periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiffs for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all 7 final wages to Plaintiffs when Defendants terminated Plaintiffs' employment, and failed to 8 furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs. Furthermore, Defendants failed to include all non-9 discretionary compensation within the regular rate of pay. As discussed below, Plaintiffs'
10 experiences working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

11 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 12 not paying Plaintiffs and the Class for all hours worked, including all overtime wages.
13 Throughout the statutory period, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to work off the clock, and 14 uncompensated. For example, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to work in excess of 8 hours
15 per day and in excess of 40 hours per week, but were not paid all wages owed. Some employees 16 were paid a specific amount each pay period despite the amount of work performed, amounting 17 to a salary. However, Defendants failed to pay all overtime and double-time wages owed.

18 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 19 Plaintiffs and the Class with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants sometimes, but not 20 always, required Plaintiffs and the Class to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day 21 without providing 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five 22 hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiffs and the Class for meal periods that were not 23 provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not 24 adequately inform Plaintiffs and the Class of their right to take a meal period by the end of the 25 fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work.
26 Defendants also failed to accurately record meal periods. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and 27 practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiffs and the Class in compliance with California 28 law.

1 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize
2 and permit Plaintiffs and the Class to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants
3 sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiffs and the Class to work in excess of four 4 consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute,
5 continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four 6 hours), or without compensating Plaintiffs and the Class for rest periods that were not authorized 7 or permitted. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiffs and the Class of their right to 8 take a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting
9 or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiffs and the Class, nor did Defendants have adequate policies
10 or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants also did not have adequate policies
11 or practices to verify whether Plaintiffs and the Class were taking their required rest periods.
12 Further, Defendants did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore 13 Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiffs and the Class took rest periods during the middle 14 of each work period. Plaintiffs and the Class were also not permitted to leave the premises during 15 rest breaks. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit
16 Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

17 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiffs and the 18 Class to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants without 19 reimbursement. Plaintiffs and the Class were required to use their personal cellular telephones for 20 work purposes, without reimbursement.

21 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
22 pay Plaintiffs and the Class at the conclusion of their employment all wages for all minimum 23 wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages.

24 22. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs and the 25 Class with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross 26 and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages earned for hours worked, 27 correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in 28 accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and

1 permitted to take in accordance with California law, and Defendant's address). Further, the wage
2 statements do not show Defendants' address as required by California law. As a result of these 3 violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiffs and the Class suffered injury because,
4 among other things:

- 5 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
6 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest 7 period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were 8 entitled;
- 9 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,
10 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even 11 though they had not been;
- 12 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid
13 minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages 14 at the correct California rate even though they were;
- 15 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime,
16 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct 17 California rate even though they had not been;
- 18 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, 19 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- 20 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 21 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 22 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
23 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage 24 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 25 (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to 26 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, 27 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- 28

1 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages
2 rates to which Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiffs and the 3 Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were 4 entitled.

5 Thus, Plaintiffs and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code §
6 226(e), including actual damages.

7 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

8 23. Plaintiffs bring certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all 9 other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil 10 Procedure § 382.

11 24. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiffs seek relief
12 authorized by California law.

13 25. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

14 All persons who worked for any Defendants in California as an hourly, non-15 exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the 16 filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

17 26. At all material times, Plaintiffs were members of the Class.

18 27. Plaintiffs undertake this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 19 conditions of all Class Members.

20 28. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 21 readily ascertainable:

22 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so 23 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
24 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time, 25 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the 26 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 27 Defendants' records.

28 (b) Typicality: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately

1 protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared,
2 well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiffs claims (or defenses, if 3 any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

4 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately
5 protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared,
6 well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as 7 demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have no conflicts with or interests
8 antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class 9 counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, 10 certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have incurred, and throughout the 11 duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that 12 have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this 13 action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

14 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 15 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration 16 of:

- 17 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually
- 18 controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 19 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy
- 20 already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 21 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of
- 22 the claims in the particular forum; and
- 23 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a
- 24 class action.

25 (e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California
26 is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through 27 a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their 28 rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are

1 also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former 2 employers might damage their future endeavors through negative
3 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members 4 who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows 5 for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is 6 protected.

7 29. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 8 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 9 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 10 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum 11 wages, and overtime wages;
- 12 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to 13 Class Members;
- 14 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium
15 wages to Class Members;
- 16 (d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their 17 discharge or resignation;
- 18 (e) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, 19 and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
- 20 (f) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses; 21 and
- 22 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a 23 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

24 30. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 25 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 26 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 27 question affecting only individual members;
- 28 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;

(c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;

(d) Plaintiffs, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;

(e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;

(f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:

1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or

2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

(g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

31. Plaintiffs contemplate the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the

1 contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiffs would 2 contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as 3 published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by 4 other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

7 32. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
8 1 through 22 in this Second Amended Complaint.

9 33. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 10 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 11 not required to do so.

12 34. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 13 Plaintiffs and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay 14 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 15 provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage
16 Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

17 35. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for 18 all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

19 36. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiffs and the Class have been 20 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

21 37. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 22 Plaintiffs and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiffs and the Class 23 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 24 Plaintiffs and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which 25 will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

26 38. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code §
27 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage
28 compensation due to Plaintiffs and the Class.

1 39. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiffs and the Class are 2 entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum 3 wages.

4 40. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with 5 all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable
6 to this cause of action, Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates
7 required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants
8 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiffs and the Class all such wages due, and failed to 9 pay those wages twice a month.

10 41. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum
11 wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 12 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

13 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

15 42. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
16 1 through 22 in this Second Amended Complaint.

17 43. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be 18 employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless 19 they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.
20 California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall not be 21 employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation
22 beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California Labor Code § 23 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the 24 Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

25
26 At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs and the Class have worked more than eight hours in a 27 workday, as employees of Defendants.

28 44. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Class

1 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
2 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198. Plaintiffs and the 3 Class are regularly required to work overtime hours.

4 45. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
5 compensation to the Plaintiffs and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiffs and the 6 Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently
7 unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be 8 ascertained according to proof at trial.

9 46. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 10 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 11 Plaintiffs and the Class.

12 47. Plaintiffs and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according 13 to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well
14 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 15 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

16 48. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 17 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 18 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all 19 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the 20 Class with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

21 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

23 49. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
24 1 through 22 in this Second Amended Complaint.

25 50. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 26 Plaintiffs and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the 27 start of Plaintiffs and the Class's sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal 28 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the

1 California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer
2 provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a
3 violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee
4 to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

5 51. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiffs
6 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit
7 and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact
8 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), 9 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and 10 the applicable Wage Orders.

11 52. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 12 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), 13 plus interest thereon.

14 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

16 53. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
17 1 through 22 in this Second Amended Complaint.

18 54. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 19 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 20 two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that 21 the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for 22 each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten
23 minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so 24 required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of 25 the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest
26 period mandated under any Wage Order.

27 55. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiffs and the 28 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours in a workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

56. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

57. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Second Amended Complaint.

58. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by failing to pay and indemnify the Plaintiffs and the Class for their necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

59. As a result, Plaintiffs and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

60. Plaintiffs and the class they represent are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(b).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

1 61. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
2 1 through 22 in this Second Amended Complaint.

3 62. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 4 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 5 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment,
6 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter,
7 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 8 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

9 63. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiffs and 10 many other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the 11 employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and 12 continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be 13 paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within 14 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

15 64. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and those Class members who are no longer
16 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within 17 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor
18 Code §§ 201 and 202.

19 65. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay 20 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 21 continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 22 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

23 66. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally 24 accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days
25 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

26 67. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiffs and the 27 Class are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs 28 incurred in this action.

1 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 3 Compliant Wage Records)

4 68. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
5 1 through 22 in this Second Amended Complaint.

6 69. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 7 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement
8 in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
9 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
10 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made 11 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages 12 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the 13 employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee 14 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 15 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 16 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

17 70. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 18 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the 19 failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiffs and the Class, the failure to list 20 the true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

21 71. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs 22 and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

23 72. Specifically, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class have been injured by 24 Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied
25 both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage 26 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

27 73. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiffs and the Class is difficult and 28 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiffs and the Class were also injured as

1 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following
2 Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and related 3 laws and regulations.

4 74. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their actual 5 damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

6 75. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 7 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor
8 Code § 226(h).

9 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, 11 et seq.)

12 76. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
13 1 through 22 in this Second Amended Complaint.

14 77. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business
15 & Professions Code § 17201.

16 78. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
17 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiffs, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiffs 18 seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 19 Procedure § 1021.5.

20 79. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 21 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
22 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

23 80. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 24 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 25 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of 26 public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, 27 and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of 28 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

1 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

2 81. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the 3 California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California
4 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

5 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

6 82. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation
7 of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
8 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

9 Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

10 83. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance 11 with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or 12 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

13 Failure to Provide Meal Periods

14 84. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor 15 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or 16 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

17 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

18 85. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with 19 California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful 20 and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

21 Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

22 86. Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in 23 accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above,
24 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§
25 17200, et seq.

26 Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

27 87. Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance 28 with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity

1 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

2 88. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices
3 described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from 4 Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiffs, and all persons
5 similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

6 89. Plaintiffs and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of 7 Defendants' wrongful conduct.

8 90. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, are 9 entitled to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property
10 which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiffs and the Class have been 11 deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.
12 Plaintiffs and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful 13 practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

14 91. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further 15 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair,
16 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them,
17 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business 18 practices in the future.

19 92. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no
20 plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members
21 suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
22 practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 23 above, Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, have suffered and 24 will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained 25 from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

26 93. Plaintiffs also allege that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 27 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 28 withholdings.

94. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiffs and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiffs and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

95. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Second Amended Complaint.

96. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

97. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

98. Plaintiff Agustin Umana Villatoro has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. On March 20, 2023, Plaintiff Villatoro gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff Villatoro and current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations (See attached as Exhibit A). Plaintiff's PAGA case number is No. LWDA-CM-943261-23. At the time of this filing, 65 days has elapsed since Plaintiff Villatoro provided

1 notice, but the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to 2 investigate Defendants' Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff
3 Villatoro may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to 4 § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties
5 include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1197.1, 6 and 2699(f)(2).

7 99. In addition, Plaintiffs seek penalties for Defendants' violation of California Labor
8 Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, 9 employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by 10 California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable
11 IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins
12 and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.
13 Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall keep total 14 hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

15 100. During the time period of employment for Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved
16 Employees, Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders
17 by failing to maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and accurate records showing 18 when employees begin and end each work period. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain 19 records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved
20 Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal 21 periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore,
22 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages,
23 all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result,
24 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses 25 related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and 26 attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law,
27 all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants'
28 knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and

1 the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing,
2 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

3 101. Based on the conduct described in this First Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs are 4 entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of themselves, the State of California, and 5 similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in 6 all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all 7 other remedies permitted by law.

8 103. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs 9 pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in 10 any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

11 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

12 Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to 13 the class claims, pray for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as 14 follows:

15 Class Certification

- 16 1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second,
17 Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action; 18 2. That Plaintiffs be appointed as the representatives of the Class; and 19 3. That counsel for Plaintiffs be appointed as Class Counsel.

20 As to the First Cause of Action

- 21 4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
22 Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all 23 minimum wages due;
24 5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
25 6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
26 such amounts were due;
27 7. For liquidated damages;
28 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to

1 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

2 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

3 As to the Second Cause of Action

4 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
5 Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all
6 overtime wages due;

7 11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;

8 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing 9 from the date such amounts were due;

10 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 11 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

12 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

13 As to the Third Cause of Action

14 15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
15 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

16 16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

17 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
18 such amounts were due;

19 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 20 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

21 19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

22 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

23 20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
24 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

25 21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

26 22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
27 such amounts were due;

23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders;

26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be appropriate;

27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

1 37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
2 Labor Code § 226(h);

3 38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

4 39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

5 As to the Eighth Cause of Action

6 40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
7 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked 8 (including minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain 9 accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to 10 maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage 11 statements, and failing to indemnify necessary business expenses;

12 41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiffs and all Class Members and 13 prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

14 42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all 15 funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by 16 Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

17 43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 18 California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

19 44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
20 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

21 45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

22 As to the Ninth Cause of Action

23 46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California
24 Labor Code by failing to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide 25 meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of 26 hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, failure 27 to indemnify necessary business expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements;

1 47. For all civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, et seq., and all
2 other applicable Labor Code provisions;

3 48. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 4 California Labor Code § 2699;

5 49. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

6 As to all Causes of Action

7 50. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.
