DECLARATION OF LILIT TUNYAN

I, LILIT TUNYAN, declare as follows:

1. I am admitted, in good standing, to practice as an attorney in the State of California, the United States District Courts for the Central, Eastern, Southern and Northern Districts of California. I am the founding partner at the law firm of Tunyan Law, APC. I am a fully qualified, adult resident of the State of California, and, if called as a witness herein, I would testify truthfully to the matters set forth herein. All of the matters set forth herein are within my personal knowledge, except those matters that are stated to be upon information and belief. As to such matters, I believe them to be true. I am one of the attorneys of record for Plaintiff ELIM BAZAN ("Plaintiff").

2. This Declaration is submitted in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Class and PAGA Representative Action Settlement.

BACKGROUND

3. On March 2, 2023, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Complaint alleging causes of action against Defendants for: (1) Violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198 (Failure to Pay All Wages; (2) Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 (Failure to Provide Meal Periods); (3) Violation of Labor Code § 226.7 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods); (4) Violation of Labor Code § 226, (Failure to Keep Accurate Itemized Wage Statements); (5) Violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203 (Failure to Pay Wages Upon Termination of Employment); (6) Violation of Labor Code § 2802 (Failure to Reimburse For Necessary Expenditures); (7) Violation of Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq. (Unfair Business Practices). On May 8, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding a cause of action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA [Cal. Lab. Code § 2699, et seq.]. The First Amended Complaint is the operative complaint in the Action (the "Operative Complaint.")

4. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a), Plaintiff gave timely written notice to Defendants and the LWDA by sending the PAGA Notice and Amended PAGA Notice. ("PAGA").

5. The Parties have conducted informal discovery and investigation of the facts and law. Such discovery and investigation have included, inter alia, the exchange of informal data and discoverable information in preparation for the settlement negotiations. The Parties have analyzed payroll and other data pertaining to Plaintiff and the Class during the relevant Settlement Period,

1 including but not limited to the numbers of former and current members of the Class, average
2 workweeks, sample size time and pay records and average rate of hourly pay, wage and hour policies.
3 (Id.) Prior to engaging in settlement negotiations Defendants also produced Defendants financial reports,
4 and Plaintiff's counsel had an opportunity to review and evaluate Defendants' financial condition.

5 6. After reviewing documents regarding Defendants' wage and hour policies and practices
6 and other information obtained during the informal exchange of discovery, Class Counsel were able to 7 evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and the reasonably obtainable
8 maximum monetary exposure for all claims. Class Counsel reviewed these records and prepared a 9 damage analysis prior to engaging in settlement negotiations. Class Counsel also investigated the 10 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation.

11 7. Prior to settlement the Parties engaged in arm's-length settlement negotiations, which led 12 to this Agreement to settle the Action. During settlement negotiations, the Parties discussed at length the 13 burdens and risks of continuing with the litigation considering Defendants' financial condition as well as 14 the merits of the claims and defenses. After successful negotiations, the Parties then signed a long form
15 settlement agreement ("Agreement").

16 8. Plaintiff and Class Counsel are aware of the burdens of proof necessary to establish
17 liability for the claims asserted in the Action, both generally and in response to Defendants' defenses
18 thereto. Plaintiff and Class Counsel have also taken into account Defendants' financial condition and 19 Defendants' agreement to enter into a Settlement that confers substantial relief upon the Class.

20 9. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement
21 set forth in this Agreement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable Settlement and is in the best interests of the 22 Class. Solely for the purpose of settling this case, the parties agree that the requirements for establishing 23 class action certification with respect to this class have been met and are met. If this Settlement is not 24 approved by the Court for any reason, Defendants reserve its right to contest class certification. This 25 Settlement, if approved by the Court, will result in the entry of the Judgment and the release of all 26 Released Claims for all Class Members, including all within the class definition who have not elected to 27 exclude themselves from the Settlement Class.
28

SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

10. Key provisions of the proposed settlement include the following:

- Defendants agree not to oppose certification of a Class for purposes of Settlement only (Settlement, ¶ 11.1);
- Class: All non-exempt, hourly employees of Defendants who worked for Defendants in California during the Class Period (the “Class Period” is March 2, 2019 through March 22, 2024). (Settlement, ¶ 1.5, 1.12.) “Participating Class Members” are those Class Members who do not submit timely exclusion requests to the Settlement Administrator. (Settlement, ¶ 1.9, 1.35);
- Settlement Amount: Defendants will pay a maximum of $102,500.00, referred to as the Gross Settlement Amount (or GSA herein), resulting in an estimated average gross payment per Class Member of approximately $557.06 (Settlement, ¶ 1.22);
- Class Size: 184 individuals who worked 8,156 workweeks during Class Period;
- PAGA Group Size: 58 individuals, who worked 1,200 pay periods during PAGA Period;
- PAGA Period: March 2, 2022 through March 22, 2024. (Settlement, ¶ 1.31);
- Escalator Clause: Based on its records, Defendants estimate that, as of May 31, 2023, there are 175 Class Members. If the estimated number of Class Members increase by more than 10% during the Class Period, i.e. the total number of Class Members as of March 22, 2024 is more than 192, Defendants will increase the Gross Settlement Amount by a pro-rata dollar value equal to the number of employees in excess of 192 employees. (Settlement, ¶ 8); The escalator clause was not triggered.
- Kullar/Munoz Analysis: Plaintiff addresses the claims analysis herein, at Part V.B.3, and in more detail the Declaration of Lilit Tunyan, at Paragraph 18;
- No Reversion: The Settlement is a non-reversionary settlement (Settlement, ¶ 3.1);
- Certification: Plaintiff addresses certification requisites herein, at Part V.A., and in the Declaration of Lilit Tunyan, at Paragraphs 34-40;
- No Claim Form: No claim form is required (Settlement., ¶ 3.1);
- Class Release: The Settlement will release specified wage-and-hour claims for Class

Members (those Class Members who do not opt out of the Settlement) (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.39, 5.2);

- PAGA Release: The Class Members will release the PAGA Claims set forth in this Action, that were identified in the First Amended Complaint and Plaintiff's LWDA Notice Letter, regardless of whether they opt out of the class portion of the Settlement (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.40, 5.3);
- Release Effective Date: The Release is not active until Defendants tender all payments required under the Settlement to the Settlement Administrator (Settlement, ¶ 5);
- Net Settlement Amount Available to the Class: After deducting Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs, service payment to Plaintiff, administration costs, and the payment to the LWDA, the remainder will be available for distribution to Class Members who do not opt out, with each Class Member receiving a share based on the number of workweeks each Class Member worked for Defendants within the Class Period. The Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be at least $31,402.61, resulting in an average net payment per Class Member of at least $170.67 before any tax withholdings. (Settlement, ¶ 3);
- Tax Allocation: The amounts distributed to Class Members will be characterized as 20% alleged unpaid wages, 80% to penalties and interest, and PAGA Settlement Payments will be allocated as 100% penalties. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.1, 3.2.5.2);
- Employer's Portion of Payroll Taxes Paid Separately: Defendants' portion of payroll taxes (e.g., FICA, FUTA, etc.) owed on any settlement payments to Class Members that constitute wages will be paid separate and apart from the GSM (Settlement, ¶ 3.1);
- Settlement Administrator: The notice portion of the Settlement will be administered by a third-party Administrator, ILYM GROUP, Inc., and the Parties estimated that the costs of administration should not reasonably exceed $10,000.00. ILYM GROUP, Inc.'s low bid for settlement administration services in the amount of $9,850.00 was selected as the lowest bid from a competitive bidding process. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.3);
- Class Data for Administration: The Settlement Administrator will receive the Class List within 30 calendar days of Preliminary Approval, use the NCOA database to update the Class List, and then use skip tracing on returned Notices (Settlement, ¶ 4.2);

- Notice: The Notice will issue within 14 days of receipt of the Class List (Settlement, ¶ 7.4.2). The Notice describes how to dispute workweeks, submit an objection in writing, in person, or through an attorney, or request exclusion (Settlement, ¶¶ 7.4 – 7.7);
- Notice Language: Notice will issue in English and Spanish (Settlement, ¶ 1.11);
- Objections: Objections can be submitted in person, through an attorney, or in writing to the Settlement Administrator, with no pre-requisite to being heard (Settlement, ¶ 7.7);
- Exclusion Requests: The procedure for exclusion requests, mailing a request to the Settlement Administrator, is the same as the procedure for submitting a written objection (Settlement, ¶¶ 7.5 and 7.7);
- PAGA Allocation: From the GSA, $15,000.00 will be allocated to settle claims brought pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code § 2699 et seq. (“PAGA”), and seventy-five percent (75%), or $11,250.00, will be paid to the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.34, 3.2.5.);
- Notice to LWDA: Notice was provided prior to the filing of this Motion. Evidence is attached to the Declaration of Lilit Tunyan;
- Enhancement/Service Award to Plaintiff: Defendants will not oppose the application for Class Representative Service Payment of up to $7,500.00 for Plaintiff, to be paid from the GSA (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1);
- Fees and Costs: Defendants will not oppose Class Counsel’s application for fees not to exceed 33 1/3% of the GSA ($34,166.67), and actual costs, in an amount not to exceed $10,000.00, to be paid out of the GSA (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2);
- Check Void Period: Settlement checks will be valid for 180 days (Settlement, ¶ 4.4.3);
- Uncashed Checks: Any settlement checks that are mailed to the Class Members and remain uncashed after 180 days of the date of issuance will be cancelled, and the moneys will be directed to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund (Settlement, ¶ 4.4.3);
- Judgment Notice: Judgment will be posted on the Settlement Administrator’s website after entry (Settlement, ¶ 7.8.1);

- Confidentiality Provisions: The Settlement permits Class Counsel to discuss the Settlement with Class Members (Settlement ¶ 11.3).

11. A true and correct copy of the AMENDED CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT is attached hereto as Exhibit “1.”

THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, JUST AND REASONABLE

12. Plaintiff and counsel have diligently investigated the claims of the Class Members. Plaintiff and Class Counsel concluded, after taking into account the disputed factual and legal issues involved in this Action, the substantial risks attending further prosecution, including risks related to the outcome of certification and possible summary judgment efforts, and the substantial benefits to be received pursuant to the compromise and settlement of the Action as set forth in the Settlement, that settlement on the terms agreed to are in the best interest of Plaintiff and the putative Class and are fair and reasonable. Plaintiff’s and Defendants’ counsel brought to bear a great deal of experience with class actions in negotiating the settlement of this case.

13. One fundamental purpose of the class action device is to promote efficiency. Resolution at this time will forestall the need for additional expensive and time-consuming litigation that could very well result in an outcome less satisfactory than that proposed under this settlement. But, before any other consideration, we have agreed to this settlement because it is objectively reasonable. The potential for resolution benefits the class members, since they do not have to wait additional years for a similar recovery. The efficiency of this litigation benefits the Court, the parties and their counsel. A class-wide resolution is the most realistic method for addressing the claims raised in this matter.

14. We have engaged in the necessary investigation in this case that made it possible for us to exercise informed judgment in those aspects of the settlement process in which we were involved. The exchange of time and wage data, wage and hour policy documents, and data about the composition of the Class, were sufficient to permit us counsel to adequately evaluate the settlement. We had more than enough information upon which to evaluate a fair and reasonable settlement amount.

15. We believe that the case was viable through to a trial. However, while Plaintiff assert a belief that this is a viable case for trial, we realize that there are always significant risks associated with certification and trials, and those risks cannot be eliminated in this case. Continued litigation of this lawsuit presented Plaintiff and Defendants with substantial legal risks and costs that were (and continue to be) difficult to assess. The risks in this matter include:

- the risk that Plaintiff would be unable to establish liability for allegedly unpaid straight time or overtime wages, see Duran v. US Bank Nat'l Ass'n, 59 Cal. 4th 1, 39 & fn. 33 (2014) ("Duran"), citing Dilts v. Penske Logistics, LLC 2014 WL 205039 (S.D. Cal. 2014) (dismissing certified off-the-clock claims based on proof at trial);;
- the risk that Defendants' meal and rest period policies might not ultimately support class certification or a class-wide liability finding, see Duran, 59 Cal. 4th at 14, n. 28 (citing Court of Appeal decisions favorable on class certification issue without expressing opinion as to ultimate viability of proposition);
- the risk that uncertainties pertaining to the ultimate legality of Defendants' policies and practices could preclude class-wide awards of statutory penalties under Labor Code §§ 203 and 226(e);
- the risk that individual differences between Class Members could be construed as pertaining to liability and not solely to damages, see Duran, 59 Cal. 4th at 19;
- the risk that individual differences between Class Members could be construed as pertaining to liability and not solely to damages, see Duran, 59 Cal. 4th at 19;
- the risk that any civil penalties award under the PAGA could be reduced by the Court in its discretion, see Labor Code § 2699(e)(1);
- the risk that class treatment could be deemed improper as to one or more claims, except for settlement purposes;
- the risk that lengthy appellate litigation could ensue;
- the risk that violation rate estimates would prove much lower than expected;
- the risk that pursuing the matter further in litigation can result in a smaller settlement amount and less benefit to Class Members if Defendants' financial condition worsens.

These risks are non-exhaustive. While we remain confident that we possess credible strategies for responding to the legal and factual risks facing them, those risks cannot be disregarded. We carefully considered the risks created by all of these uncontrollable factors when evaluating the reasonableness of

1 this proposed settlement. This Settlement provides a benefit to the Class Members that is very
2 reasonable in light of these particular risks.

3 16. The Settlement is the product of arm's-length negotiations between the Parties occurring
4 throughout the litigation. In light of the uncertainties of protracted litigation and the state of the law
5 regarding the legal positions of the Parties, the settlement amount reflects the best feasible recovery for 6 the Class Members. The settlement amount is, of course, a compromise figure. By necessity it took into 7 account risks related to liability, damages, and the defenses asserted by Defendants and Defendants'
8 financial condition. Moreover, each Class Member will be given the opportunity to opt-out of the 9 Settlement, allowing those who feel they have claims that are greater than the benefits they can receive 10 under this Settlement to pursue their own claims. For the 184 members of the Class, the average gross
11 recovery is at least $557.06 per class member, and the estimated average net recovery for each Class
12 Member is approximately $170.6. Given that Defendants could challenge certification and liability, this 13 is a significant sum to have achieved in settlement. Moreover, a Class Member who worked a greater 14 number of weeks for Defendants will receive a larger share of the Settlement than a Class Member who 15 worked for a shorter amount of time during the class period.

16 17. The Gross Settlement Amount of $102,500.00 is about 59% of the $173,441.60 estimate
17 of risk-adjusted recovery (excluding interest) at this stage in the litigation. This assessment is based on a
18 carefully constructed model of the current fair value of the case, using estimated risks, average wage 19 rates, numbers of employees, and the amount of time covered by the class period. While Plaintiff would 20 certainly have preferred to recover more (and Defendants would have preferred to pay less), this outcome
21 is in line with a carefully constructed estimate of the current fair value of the case. On that basis, it
22 would be unwise to pass up this settlement opportunity. My maximum calculated reasonable exposure, 23 after removing implausible or extreme estimated recoveries, is $907,507.00, including PAGA penalties.

- 24 • A reasonably estimated exposure for unpaid wages for unlawful rounding was calculated,
25 with the assistance of an expert, to be approximately $2,722.00. However, with the risk
26 factor discounts for certification and liability proof, the value of that claim is estimated by 27 Plaintiff's counsel to be approximately $1,524.32, assuming certification probability of 28 80% and merits success at 70%.

- A reasonably estimated exposure for unpaid off-the-clock work and unpaid cash tips was calculated, with the assistance of an expert, to be approximately $54,513.00. However, with the risk factor discounts for certification and liability proof, the value of that claim is estimated by Plaintiff's counsel to be approximately $10,902.60, assuming certification probability of 50% and merits success at 40%.
- A reasonably estimated exposure for rest break violations over the class period was calculated at $227,585.00, but with chances of certification and proof of liability (40% and 40% respectively) for a risk-adjusted exposure of $36,413.60.
- A reasonably estimated exposure for meal break violations over the class period was calculated at $127,446.00 with chances of certification and liability risks (40% and 40% respectively) resulting in a risk-adjusted exposure of $20,391.36.
- Risk-adjusted penalty recoveries for wage statement and Labor Code § 203 penalties were estimated to be approximately $3,712.50 and $19,186.90, respectively, on maximum exposures of $37,125.00 and $191,869.00, respectively (50% and 20% respectively).
- A reasonably estimated exposure for unreimbursed expenses was calculated at $77,947.00, with chances of certification and liability risks (80% and 70% respectively) resulting in a risk-adjusted exposure of $43,650.32.
- Performing risk-adjusted valuations for all claims yields a total value in the range of $135,781.60, excluding PAGA. (Id.)
- PAGA penalties were calculated as having a maximum realistic exposure of $188,300.00, but a risk adjusted value of $37,660.00, after factoring in risks of reduction in penalties pursuant to Court discretion and the high risk of the inability to prove violations for all aggrieved employees.

As required under Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116 (2008) and Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles, 186 Cal. App. 4th 399 (2010), the maximum plausible and realistic recoveries versus the current risk-adjusted value of the claims are discussed in additional detail below:

(a) Key Class Data Elements at Time of Mediation:

- 1) Class Members: 184
- 2) Work Weeks: 8,156 workweeks during Class Period
- 3) PAGA Employees: 58
- 4) Gross Settlement Amount: $102,500

(b) KULLAR/MUNOZ ANALYSIS: Unpaid Wages Due to Rounding

- 1) Plaintiff' claims for unpaid wages due to time rounding is based on the argument that Class Members were not paid for the actual time worked for Defendants. The time was rounded and as a result Class Members were harmed by that rounding.

2) Risk-adjusted Exposure Analysis:

Calculated maximum recovery:	$2,722.00
Estimated certification probability	80%
Estimated chance of prevailing on merits	70%
Max recovery × certification risk × chance or success on merits = Present Settlement Value	$1,524.32

(c) KULLAR/MUNOZ ANALYSIS: Unpaid Wages Due to Off-the-Clock Work and Unpaid Cash Tips

- 1) Plaintiff's claims for unpaid wages due to off-the-clock work is based on Defendants' requirement for Class Members to have a training during their first day of work for at least 4 hours without compensation, donning and doffing prior to clocking in to work and clocking out and continue working through meal breaks. Plaintiff also testified that Defendants did not pay him all cash tips Defendants' customers left for him and deducted some amount.
- 2) Defendants deny these allegations and contends they compensated for all time.
- 3) Risk-adjusted Exposure Analysis:

Calculated maximum recovery:	$54,513.00
Estimated certification probability	50%
Estimated chance of prevailing on merits	40%
Max recovery × certification risk × chance or success on merits = Present Settlement Value	$10,902.60

(d) KULLAR/MUNOZ ANALYSIS: Meal Periods

- 1) Plaintiff's claim for meal break violation is based on Defendants' policy not to schedule meal periods and to require from Class Members to receive permission to take meal periods. As a result of that policy Class Members often times missed or had late, interrupted or short meal periods. Defendants did not have any formal written policies governing meal and rest periods. Employees are entitled to meal periods of at least 30 minutes before exceeding five hours of work and to second meal periods of not less than 30 minutes before exceeding 10 hours of work. For each meal period missed or taken late an employer must pay the employee an additional one hour of compensation. Labor Code § 226.7. This additional hour of compensation is referred to as "premium pay."
- 2) Defendants deny these allegations and maintain that the obligation is simply to "provide" meal periods, not to "ensure" that they are taken. Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. App. 4th 1004, 1034-41 (2012) (rejecting "ensure" standard). Furthermore, Defendants contend that any failure to take meal periods, or to take late meal periods, was a result of employee choice, not of any policy or practice of Defendants. Finally, Defendants assert that Plaintiff's meal period claims would not be amenable to class treatment, since individual inquires would need to be made with respect to each specific shift that each employee missed a meal or rest period, to determine why that specific employee missed that specific meal or rest period on that specific shift.

3) Risk-adjusted Exposure Analysis:

Calculated maximum recovery:	$127,446.00
Estimated certification probability	40%
Estimated chance of prevailing on merits	40%
Max recovery × certification risk × chance or success on merits = Present Settlement Value	$20,391.36

(e) KULLAR/MUNOZ ANALYSIS: Rest Breaks

- 1) Plaintiff’s claim for rest break violation is based on Defendants’ policy not to schedule rest periods and to require from Class Members to receive permission to take rest periods. As a result of that policy Class Members often times missed or had late, interrupted or short rest periods. Defendants did not have any formal written policies governing meal and rest periods. Employees are entitled to a rest period of at least 10 minutes every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof. For each rest period missed or taken late an employer must pay the employee an additional one hour of compensation. Labor Code § 226.7. This additional hour of compensation is referred to as “premium pay.”
- 2) Defendants maintain that the obligation is simply to “authorize and permit” rest periods, not to “ensure” that they are taken. Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. App. 4th 1004, 1034-41 (2012) (rejecting “ensure” standard). Furthermore, Defendants contend that any failure to take rest breaks was a result of employee choice, not of any policy or practice of Defendants. Finally, Defendants assert that Plaintiff’s rest breaks claims would not be amenable to class treatment, since individual inquires would need to be made with respect to each specific shift that each employee missed a rest period, to determine why that specific employee missed that specific rest break on that specific shift.

3) Risk-adjusted Exposure Analysis:

Calculated maximum recovery:	$227,585.00
Estimated certification probability	40%
Estimated chance of prevailing on merits	40%
Max recovery × certification risk × chance of success on merits = Present Settlement Value	$36,413.60

(f) KULLAR/MUNOZ ANALYSIS: Late Pay Penalties Under Labor Code § 203

- 1) Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer fails to pay an employee all wages due at termination or within 72 hours of resignation, then that employee's wages shall continue as a penalty until paid for a period of up to thirty (30) days from the date they were due. Because class members stopped working for Defendants but again were not paid their full compensation for the reasons discussed above, class members did not receive all wages due upon termination of employment.
- 2) Defendants argue that a good-faith belief in the legality of its employment practices precludes a finding that any withholding of wages was "willful." See Cal. Code Regs. § 13520 [good-faith dispute exists to a claim for waiting time penalties "when an employer presents a defense, based in law or fact which, if successful, would preclude any recovery on the part of the employee. The fact that a defense is ultimately unsuccessful will not preclude a finding that a good faith dispute did exist."].) Defendants further maintain that because of viable defenses in both law and fact that waiting-time penalties could not be awarded and, in any case, such penalties were subject to a three-year limitations period under Labor Code § 203(b) and an arbitration agreement that would bar class treatment.

3) Risk-adjusted Exposure Analysis:

Calculated maximum recovery:	$191,869.00
Estimated certification probability	50%
Estimated chance of prevailing on merits	20%
Max recovery × certification risk × chance of success on merits = Present Settlement Value	$19,186.90

(g) KULLAR/MUNOZ ANALYSIS: Wage Statement Violations

- 1) Plaintiff also alleged a cause of action under Labor Code § 226(a) for not including all wages, or meal and rest break premiums in the wage statements and as a result of including all nice digits of Social Security Numbers of employees instead of including only four digits as well as for including sick pay hours in the total number of hours in Class Members wage statements. That section states that an employer must provide an accurate itemized wage statement twice a month or each time wages are paid, whichever is the more frequent. Failure to do so entitles employees to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). See Labor Code § 226(e).
- 2) Defendants contend that Labor Code § 226(e) penalties are not automatic. Rather, the employee must show (1) that he or she “suffered injury” from the employer’s failure to provide compliant wage statements, see Elliot v. Spherion Pacific Work, LLC, 572 F.Supp.2d 1169, 1181 (2008) (applying California law) (holding employee was not entitled to penalties because no injury was shown), and (2) Defendants’ noncompliance was “knowing and intentional.” Defendants contend that class members suffered no injury from any failure to issue compliant wage statements and, furthermore, that any noncompliance was not knowing and intentional. Further, because the damages for this cause of action are penalties, the statute of limitations only runs from one year prior to the filing of the original complaint. See Code Civ. Proc. § 340. Moreover, Defendants maintain that Plaintiff’ derivative claim for wage statement ‘penalties would fail for the same reasons that Plaintiff’ underlying claims would fail. The parties discussed these issues, and in light of these and other considerations Class Counsel factored in a reduction of liability and damages for this cause of action.

3) Risk-adjusted Exposure Analysis:

Calculated maximum recovery:	$37,125.00
Estimated certification probability	50%
Estimated chance of prevailing on merits	20%
Max recovery × certification risk × chance or success on merits = Present Settlement Value	$3,712.50

(h) KULLAR/MUNOZ ANALYSIS: Unreimbursed Expenses Under Labor Code § 2802

- 1) Plaintiff also alleged a cause of action under Labor Code § 2802 for failure to reimburse all necessary expenses. Under Labor Code § 2802, “an employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures... incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties.” Lab. Code § 2802. Plaintiff’s claims for unreimbursed expenses are based upon claims that Class Members were required to purchase aprons for $35 and shirts for $25 (5shirts) from Defendants after working five days. Defendants would deduct the cost of one apron and five shirts (number of shirts was equal to the number of scheduled shifts) from Class Members' wages. Plaintiff and Class Members could be disciplined and sent home if refused to purchase the uniform. Additionally, this claim is based on Defendants' requirement to wash and maintain the uniforms at their cost and purchase an additional apron if the apron was not properly maintained. Additionally, this claim was based on the requirement for Class Members to use their personal cellular phones for work after scheduled working hours to communicate with supervisors regarding the schedule changes.

2) Defendants contend that most employees did not incur significant expenses, and that they purchased those tools voluntarily.

3) Risk-adjusted Exposure Analysis:

Calculated maximum recovery:	$77,947.00
Estimated certification probability	80%
Estimated chance of prevailing on merits	70%
Max recovery × certification risk × chance of success on merits = Present Settlement Value	$43,650.32

(i) QUASI- KULLAR/MUNOZ ANALYSIS: PAGA

1) The Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code § 2699 et seq., allows Plaintiff to obtain civil penalties on behalf of herself and other class members for Defendants' violation of any provision of the Labor Code enumerated under Labor Code § 2699.5. Where civil penalties are provided in the statute, those civil penalties are recoverable; where no civil penalties are recoverable, Labor Code § 2699(f) establishes civil penalties of one ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(i), seventy-five (75) percent of the penalties recovered must be allocated to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (LWDA), with the remaining twenty-five (25) percent allocated to the affected employees. The limitations period is one year prior to the filing of the complaint.

2) The provisions of the Labor Code potentially triggering PAGA penalties in this case include but are not limited to Labor Code §§ 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 510. Defendants asserted that if PAGA penalties were mandatory, an employer's PAGA liability would be huge because of the possibility of collecting multiple civil penalties for a single violation, and thus such penalties would almost always dwarf the damages available under the causes of action proper. However, PAGA penalties are not mandatory but permissive. Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) states that "a court may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory." See also Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc., 203 Cal. App. 4th 1112, 1135 (2012) [affirming reduction of PAGA penalties].) Defendants here maintain that they have a strong argument that it would be unjust to award maximum PAGA penalties.

3) Furthermore, PAGA penalties are also completely derivative of each and every other claim. Finally, under Amaral v. Cintas Corp., 163 Cal. App. 4th 1157(2008), it can be argued that penalties under PAGA could, at best, be awarded only at the rates obtainable for initial violations under the applicable statutes, because Defendants had never been notified of the alleged violations. Id., at 1208, 1209.

4) Risk-adjusted Exposure Analysis:

Calculated maximum recovery:	$188,300.00
------------------------------	---------------------

Discount reduction factor for risk of Court reduction and uncertainty of proof for all aggrieved employees	20%
Max recovery × risk reduction = Present Settlement Value	$37,660.00

With the assistance of Class Counsel’s retained damages expert, Class Counsel estimated Defendants’ maximum total exposure on the PAGA claim at approximately $188,300.00 (without stacking). This number presupposes underlying claims are proven at a plausible rate and that the Court awards the full base penalties for each. Class Counsel then applied discounts in light of the countervailing arguments with regard to the other causes of action, and the Court’s power to award “a lesser amount than the maximum civil liability.” Accordingly, due to the speculative nature of a valuation for this claim, a discount of 80% was applied to account for the difficulty of prevailing on this claim.

(j) Kullar Summary: Indulging the most optimistic estimates and improbably favorable outcomes, the maximum reasonable recovery is estimated to be approximately $907,507.00, including PAGA. The settlement amount is about 11% of that amount. The calculated current settlement value is $173,441.60 (calculated by adding the risk-adjusted amounts in the charts above together), and the settlement is 59% of the current risk-adjusted settlement value. The bottom line is that the settlement is about 11% of the maximum plausible recovery for the 175 Class Members, and it is a reasonable settlement, given that the full amount is very unlikely to be recovered.

18. This result here is fully supportable as reasonable. First, it is important to recognize the wilfulness finding required for Labor Code §§ 203 and 226 is challenging to establish. Second, rest break and meal period claims have been challenging to certify for many years, even after Brinker. Many risks are eliminated through settlement. And, with respect to those risks, certification rates in California

1 are lower than conventional wisdom holds. See, e.g., H. Scott Leviant, Second Interim Report on class
2 actions in California sheds new light on certification (February 19, 2010),
3 www.thecomplexlitigator.com, available at http://www.thecomplexlitigator.com/post-
4 data/2010/2/19/second-interim-report-on-class-actions-in-california-sheds-n.html; see also, Findings of
5 the Study of California Class Action Litigation, 2000-2006, available at 6 <http://www.courtinfo.ca.gov/reference/documents/class-action-lit-study.pdf> (finding, at page 5, and in 7 Table 9, at page 15, that only 21.4% of all class actions were certified either as part of a settlement or as 8 part of a contested certification motion). Here, the estimated certification probabilities are above the 9 average rate at which cases were certified in California over the study years, based upon data available
10 through the California Courts websites. In sum, well under 20% of all cases filed as proposed class
11 actions are ultimately certified by way of a contested motion. Since the recovery is roughly 11% of the 12 maximum theoretical recovery, it meets the expected outcome under that metric. This Settlement 13 achieves the goals of the litigation.

14 19. To the best of my knowledge, there are no other like class claims asserted or filed by 15 Class Members. To the best of my knowledge, no Class Member has refrained from bringing a class
16 action with claims similar to those raised in the Action, whether in reliance on the Action or otherwise, 17 and who thus might be prejudiced by dismissal of the Action.

18 THE EXPERIENCE OF CLASS COUNSEL

19 20. I am a founding partner of Tunyan Law, APC and has been engaged in the practice of 20 employment and labor law for almost five years focusing exclusively on plaintiffs' employment law and 21 wage-and-hour class actions and more than twenty-four years in practice of law in general. I have 22 handled hundreds of wage-related class actions.

23 21. Prior to establishing my own practice, I was an associate attorney at Moon & Yang, APC and 24 Mahoney Law Group, APC. Since I was admitted to the California Bar, my practice has focused mainly 25 on labor and employment class action lawsuits involving California and federal labor laws. Along with 26 those firm's other attorneys I have successfully settled more than 50 class and PAGA matters during that 27 time span and was routinely appointed lead or co-lead class counsel in courts in California including by 28 way of motion for class certification. I have additionally successfully settled about 20 class and PAGA

1 matters during the last two years prior to filing this motion.

2 22. I received my Juris Doctorate from the State Yerevan University and my LL.M. from 3 University of Minnesota Law School. Prior to moving to California and starting to practice law in 4 California I practiced law in Armenia for about twenty years as a licensed attorney. I have been general
5 counsel and head of legal department for big telecommunication and financial corporations in Armenia
6 for the last 12 years prior to moving to California. I managed corporate legal department and corporate 7 legal and regulatory affairs and handled complex litigation matters as well as complex transactions for 8 many years.

9 23. I am a current member of the California Employment Lawyers Association (CELA) and 10 the California Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles (CAALA). I have been an active 11 member of the State Bar of California in good standing.

12 24. I am experienced in prosecuting employment matters, particularly class actions, and I focused 13 a substantial percentage of my practice on wage, hour, and working conditions violations. In addition to 14 the present case, I represented Plaintiff and the class members and have extensively worked on many 15 wage-and-hour class cases and have been appointed as class or PAGA counsel along with other counsel
16 and co-counsel for wage-and-hour class action lawsuits in various counties throughout California such as:

7 25. Artur Tunyan is another partner and attorney at Tunyan Law, APC. He received his Juris
8 Doctorate from the State Yerevan University and his LL.M. from the American University of Armenia
9 and University of Illinois Chicago, School of Law. Prior to moving to California and starting to practice
10 law in California he practiced law in Armenia for about twenty-five years. He oversaw international 11 donor-funded projects for the judiciary and managed public-private partnership initiatives in sectors such 12 as energy, banking, finance, and aviation. He managed complex transactions and litigation matters for 13 many years.

14 26. My current contingent billing rate is consistent with my practice area, legal market and 15 accepted hourly rates considering also that I practiced law in another country for additional 20 years
16 which brings a total of almost 25 years of experience practicing law. The 2023-2024 Adjusted Laffey
17 Matrix states that an attorney with 4 to 7 years experience can reasonably charge $538 per hour. See 18 <http://www.laffeymatrix.com/see.html>.

19 REASONABLENESS OF THE REQUESTED FEE AWARD

20 27. When this case was taken on a contingent fee basis, with the firm agreeing to assume 21 responsibility for litigation costs, the ultimate result was far from certain. In the course of this litigation,
22 Tunyan Law, APC, paid filing fees, Westlaw fees, expert fees, copy charges and mailing, telephone 23 charges. There was never a guarantee that Tunyan Law, APC, would recoup those expenditures. The 24 firm took on this case, which necessarily required the firm to forego other opportunities, given finite
25 resources to devote to cases.

26 28. Because of the uncertainty of the outcome in this and other wage and hour litigation
27 undertaken by Tunyan Law, APC, we took this case with the expectation that a risk enhancement, either 28 in the form of a lodestar multiplier or a percentage of the fund award equivalent thereto, would be

1 available if we prevailed. This expectation stems from the fact that many cases we undertake as putative
2 class actions do not resolve successfully.

3 29. Class Counsel's experience in employment class actions was integral in evaluating the 4 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendants and the reasonableness of the settlement.
5 Practice in the narrow fields of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the 6 rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class action
7 litigation.

8 30. In the past four years, I have settled many wage-and-hour class actions. Just as the 9 Court in Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66, n.11 (2008) observed, it has been my 10 experience, that attorney fee awards of one-third of a common settlement fund are the rule, rather than 11 the exception. Here, Class Counsel agrees that they will seek no more than one third of the settlement
12 amount in fees. This is consistent with common practice, consistent with Ninth Circuit practice,
13 consistent with California law approving the percentage of the fund method to award fees from a 14 common fund, Laffitte v. Robert Half Intern. Inc., 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503 (2016), and not inappropriate in 15 light of the many hours expended by attorneys and paralegals performing work for Plaintiff before and 16 after the filing of this matter. That work includes:

- 17 (a) Numerous interviews with Plaintiff and review of documents provided by Plaintiff;
- 18 (b) Investigation of the matter and exploring the corporate structure of Defendants;
- 19 (c) Legal research and investigation regarding the Defendants' practices at numerous 20 points in the litigation;
- 21 (d) Preparation of multiple drafts of the original complaints and finalization and filing 22 of the original complaints;
- 23 (e) Extensive "meet and confer" efforts with Defendants' counsel regarding obtaining 24 relevant documents and information through informal discovery;
- 25 (f) Drafting and amending the LWDA Notice letter;
- 26 (g) Drafting an amending complaint;
- 27 (h) Drafting joint statements and joint stipulations;
- 28 (i) Review of payroll and time data;

- (j) Working with opposing counsel for the receipt of a representative sampling and analyzing the same with the aid of expert consultants and Plaintiff to perform analyses of liability and exposure prior to settlement negotiations, preparation of a damages model with the aid of a statistics expert, review and revisions to the damage model and supporting data analysis;
- (k) Legal research regarding claims;
- (l) Preparing of Plaintiff's settlement demand letter;
- (m) Conferences with Defendants' counsel regarding settlement negotiations;
- (n) Communicate with Plaintiff who requested updates or other information regarding this matter;
- (o) Drafting, negotiating, and reviewing multiple drafts of the Settlement Agreement and attachments;
- (p) Preparation of the initial motion for preliminary approval and multiple revisions thereafter;
- (q) Drafting, negotiating, and reviewing draft of the Amended Settlement Agreement and attachments;
- (r) Drafting of supplemental declaration and Amended proposed order for preliminary approval of the Settlement;
- (s) Monitoring of the notice process, including review of data and mailing documents, as well as weekly status reports;
- (t) Preparation of the initial motion package for final approval and multiple revisions thereafter.

31. The actual lodestar incurred by Plaintiff's counsel is approximately $71,770.00 to date (and estimated to be $74,520.00 when all is done). The breakdown of work by attorney is as follows:

Attorney	Time	Rate	Total
Lilit Tunyan	127.3	$550	$70,015.00
Artur Tunyan	3.9	$450	$1,755.00

	131.2	Total:	$71,770.00

32. I also anticipate that we will spend an additional 5 hours on this matter, appearing at the hearing of this Motion, working with the administrator to process the Settlement, and preparing final accounting filings after distribution of the Settlement, for an additional lodestar of $2,750.00. The bottom line is that attorneys for Plaintiff invested substantial amounts of time pursuing discovery and evaluating data before and after the mediation in this matter. Those efforts led to this settlement.

33. The fee request is $34,166.67, which is one third of the Gross Settlement Amount, as specified in the Settlement Agreement. As we are requesting a fee of $34,166.67, this represents a negative lodestar multiplier of 2.2, when compared to the recorded and estimated future lodestar of counsel, totaling $74,520.00 ($71,770.00 + $2,750.00) and a negative lodestar multiplier of 2.1, when compared to the recorded lodestar of counsel, totaling $71,770.00. Therefore, Plaintiff's Counsel request an award of fees of $34,166.67 is reasonable. The requested fee of $34,166.67 will be split with Majarian Law Group, APC with 33% of the fee to Majarian Law Group, APC and 67% of the fee to Tunyan Law, APC pursuant to California Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 1.5.1. as a referral fee. Pursuant to California Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 1.5.1 Plaintiff gave his consent in writing which also notified Plaintiff that the total fee charged by all lawyers will not be increased for the reason of the agreement to divide fees.

34. The Agreement also provides for the award of actual costs. Recoverable costs are capped at $10,000.00 under the Settlement. Plaintiff's actual, out-of-pocket costs in taking on representation in this matter on a contingency basis are currently $8,330.72, including future final approval motion and final report filing fees, as set forth in Exhibit "2." Therefore, Plaintiff requests an award of $8,330.72 to reimburse costs incurred in bringing this action.

THE CONTRIBUTION OF PLAINTIFF AND THE REASONABLENESS OF THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT AWARD

35. Here, Plaintiff seek an Enhancement Payment of $7,500.00. This amount is very reasonable given the risks undertaken by Plaintiff for involvement in the Action. Taking the risk of filing a lawsuit against an employer deserves recognition, especially in light of the settlement achieved by

1 Plaintiff. Additionally, Plaintiff was actively involved in the litigation and settlement negotiations of this
2 Action, expending considerable effort in advancing the interests of the Class. Plaintiff provided
3 information to counsel before the filing of this matter; assisted with the informal discovery, settlement
4 process (which included conferring with counsel during the settlement negotiations); and, regularly
5 conferred with counsel regarding the case whenever questions arose. I estimate that Plaintiff contributed
6 dozens of hours of time to the prosecution of this matter. Plaintiff's declaration also confirms that
7 Plaintiff was an active participant in the filing and settlement of this case. Most importantly, $7,500.00
8 as an Enhancement Award is very reasonable given that in addition to the standard risks undertaken by 9 Plaintiff for involvement in the Action as any class representative in class cases, Plaintiff has given up his 10 right to sue Defendants for non-wage-and-hour related potential claims of wrongful termination, 11 harassment, retaliation and defamation not to create any conflicts of interest as a class representative and 12 put Class Members' interests above his own interests. Indeed, instead of filing a separate lawsuit or a 13 settlement demand for his individual non-wage related claims against Defendants and/or entering into 14 separate undisclosed individual agreements with Defendants for settlement and release of his non-wage
15 related claims, Plaintiff has chosen to forego his right to enter into undisclosed individual settlement
16 agreements and filed this class and PAGA action only. Therefore, an Enhancement Award of $7,500.00
17 is also reasonable given Plaintiff provides a general release of all potential claims and a waiver pursuant 18 to Section 1542 of the California Civil Code which class members do not provide. (Bazan Decl., ¶¶ 4-19 21). The enhancement also recognizes the considerable risks Plaintiff undertook on behalf of the Class as 20 well as the personal risk of facing intrusive discovery and potential disclosure to future employers that
21 Plaintiff sued a former employer, making future employment prospects uncertain and that Plaintiff
22 releases claims beyond wage-and-hour claims released by Class Members.

23 THE THIRD-PARTY ADMINISTRATOR

24 36. The parties have agreed that administration will be handled by a third-party administrator.
25 In counsel's experience as class counsel in similar wage-and-hour actions with a similar number of 26 employees, ILYM GROUP, Inc. is fully capable of administering the settlement at a competitive and 27 reasonable cost and should be approved by the Court to administer the settlement notice process. ILYM
28 GROUP, Inc. was selected because it submitted a low bid in the amount of $9,850 for administration

1 services. ILYM GROUP, Inc. has also provided a declaration confirming its experience and its
2 implementation of measures designed to protect Class Member data and Class Settlement funds.
3 Plaintiff's counsel do not have any conflicts of interest with the selected administrator ILYM GROUP,
4 Inc.

5 EXHIBITS

6 37. As noted above, a true and correct copy of the AMENDED CLASS ACTION AND
7 PAGA SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT is attached hereto as Exhibit "1." The Settlement includes

Expenses Payment and Class Representative Service Payment, the Final Approval and the Judgment. The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.

7.8.2. Requests for Exclusion (Opt-outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than five (5) days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion ("Exclusion List"); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).

7.8.3. Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments ("Weekly Report"). The Weekly Reports must include provide the Administrator's assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.

7.8.4. Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator's decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

7.8.5. Administrator's Declaration. Not later than fourteen (14) days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration(s) in Court.

7.8.6. Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within ten (10) days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least fourteen (14) days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

8. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES

Based on its records, Defendants estimate that, as of May 31, 2023, there are 175 Class Members. If the estimated number of Class Members increase by more than 10% during the Class Period, i.e. the total number of Class Members as of March 22, 2024 is more than 192, Defendants will increase the Gross Settlement Amount by a pro-rata dollar value equal to the number of employees in excess of 192 employees.

9. DEFENDANTS' RIGHT TO WITHDRAW

If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 15% of the total of all Class Members, Defendants may, but are not obligated, elect to withdraw from the Settlement.

The Parties agree that, if Defendants withdraw, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendants will remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred to that point. Defendants must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than seven (7) days after the Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel; late elections will have no effect.

10. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL.

Not later than sixteen (16) court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code § 2699(f), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment (collectively "Motion for Final Approval"). Plaintiff shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than seven (7) days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval for their review, input and revision. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.

10.1. Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court's concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court's decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administrator Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.

10.2. Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

10.3. Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment reflected set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.

10.4. Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

10.5 Payment of the Gross Settlement Sum shall constitute Defendants' satisfaction of obligations under this Agreement.

11. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

11.1. No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendants that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Defendants have any liability for any claims

1 asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendants' defenses in 2 the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for 3 purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval, Final
4 Approval or enter Judgment, Defendants reserve the right to contest certification of any class for any
5 reasons, and Defendants reserve all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserve the 6 right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendants' defenses. The 7 Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will 8 not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the 9 Settlement and this Agreement).

10 11.2. Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel,
11 Defendants and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary 12 Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or 13 publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the 14 terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person,
15 corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties'
16 attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement 17 confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to 18 appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; (5) in response to 19 an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency; to (6) to enforce the 20 conditional terms of this Settlement. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party
21 of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class
22 Counsel, Defendants and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, 23 initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for 24 Preliminary Approval, any with third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise
25 to this Agreement except to respond only that "the matter was resolved," or words to that 26 effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's communications with Class Members
27 in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members. Following 28 approval, neither Party will seek publicity or otherwise advertise this settlement or any fact or issue related to this settlement, including on a website.

11.3. No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

11.4. Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.

11.5. Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendants, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.

11.6. Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of the Court for resolution.

11.7. No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.

11.8. No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendants nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.

11.9. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.

11.10. Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.

11.11. Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.

11.12. Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.

11.13. Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.

11.14. Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Evidence Code § 1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Defendants in connection with the settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy, all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Defendants.

11.15. Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.

11.16. Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.

11.17. Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

Exhibit “A”

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Bazan v. Casa Martin, LLC, et al.

Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. 23STCV04670

*The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.*

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit ("Action") against Defendants CASA MARTIN, LLC, and CASA MARTIN PROMENADE, LLC ("Defendants") for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by former employee of Defendant plaintiff Elim Bazan ("Plaintiff") and seeks payment of back wages and other relief for a class of non-exempt hourly employees ("Class Members") who worked for Defendants during the Class Period (March 2, 2019 to March 22, 2024) and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act ("PAGA") for all hourly employees who worked for Defendants during the PAGA Period (March 2, 2022 to March 22, 2024) ("Aggrieved Employees").

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendants to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendants to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA").

Based on Defendants' records, and the Parties' current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED] (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED]. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendants' records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn't work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendants' records showing that you worked [REDACTED] workweeks during the Class Period and you worked [REDACTED] pay periods during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks or pay periods during any of the respective periods, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff's attorneys ("Class Counsel"). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendants to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendants.

If you worked for Defendants during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Defendants.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Defendants, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

DEFENDANTS will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendants that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is _____	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Defendants must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).
Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by _____	All Class Members who do not opt-out ("Participating Class Members") can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court's decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the _____ Final Approval Hearing	The Court's Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on _____. You don't have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court's virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by _____	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to Defendants' records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by _____. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former Defendants' employee. The Action accuses Defendants of violating California labor laws by failing to pay overtime wages, straight time wages, tips, wages due upon termination and reimbursable expenses and failing to provide meal periods, rest breaks and accurate itemized wage statements. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) ("PAGA"). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Tunyan Law, APC ("Class Counsel.")

Defendants strongly deny violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contend they complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendants or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendants engaged in settlement negotiations in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement ("Agreement") and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendants have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court's Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendants do not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendants have agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation and Defendants' financial condition; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendants will pay $102,500 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Defendants have agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement in two installment payments prior to final approval of this settlement by the court. The Administrator will keep the Gross Settlement in trust until Final Approval of this settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorney's fees and expenses, the Administrator's expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") after the Judgment is final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $34,166.67 (33 and 1/3% of the Gross Settlement) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $10,000 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $7,500 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive for representing the Class in this Action other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $9,850 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $15,000 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the "Net Settlement") by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendants are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 20 % of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages ("Wage Portion") and 80% to interest and penalties ("Non-Wage Portion."). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendants will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendants have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don't cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller's Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.
6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [REDACTED], that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the [REDACTED] Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a signed letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member's name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Defendants.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Defendants based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and Defendants have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void; Defendants will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendants.

8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, ILYM GROUP, Inc. (the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members’ Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendants have fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of another lawsuit against Defendants or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from all past, present claims, complaints, demands, liabilities, debts, obligations, liens, costs, attorneys’ fees, promises, losses or damages that were alleged in the Operative Complaint, and/or could have been alleged in the Operative Complaint based on the facts, theories, and/or claims alleged in the Operative Complaint. Except as set forth in Sections 5.2 and 5.3 of the Settlement Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

10. Aggrieved Employees’ PAGA Release. After the Court’s judgment is final, and Defendants have paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Defendants, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Defendants or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Aggrieved Employees’ Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties, from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice letters attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit B.

4.HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.

2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $3,750.00 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Defendants' records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until [REDACTED] to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendants' calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Defendants' records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendants' Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment (if any).
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE SECTION § 2698 ET SEQ.

Re: Elim Bazan v. Casa Martin, LLC, et al.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that my office has been retained by Elim Bazan ("Plaintiff") to pursue a Labor Code Private Attorney General Act (PAGA) representative action (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) against his former employers, Casa Martin, LLC and Casa Martin Promenade, LLC

("Defendants"). The purpose of this letter is to comply with PAGA and set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Defendants engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendants' aggrieved employees.

Plaintiff wishes to pursue a PAGA representative action on behalf of himself as an aggrieved employee, on behalf of the State of California, and on behalf of all other current and former aggrieved employees who worked for Defendants in California as an hourly paid, non-exempt employee at any time within the applicable statutory period (hereafter, the "Aggrieved Employees").

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of Defendants suffered the Labor Code violations described below.

Factual Background Regarding Plaintiff's Employment with Defendants

Defendants owns and operates an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code and the Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC").

Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a server from approximately April 28, 2021 to March 11, 2022, primarily in Los Angeles County. Defendants classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from overtime. During the time period that Plaintiff was employed by Defendants, Plaintiff typically worked 3 to 4 days per week, and between 5 to 8 hours each workday.

Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Overtime

Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

In addition, Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked (including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages). Defendants regularly used a system of time rounding in a manner that resulted, over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendants' operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to the minute. Accordingly, Defendants frequently paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees less than all their work time. Some of this unpaid work also should have been paid at the overtime rate. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants also maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work "off-the-clock". Defendants required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to arrive earlier than their scheduled shift or continue working after the scheduled shift to cover the duties of another employee but refused to pay for that time. Defendants also required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to clock out but continue working through meal and rest periods. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were also required to use their personal cellular telephones for work purposes at home after their scheduled work time to communicate with Defendants. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendants failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked. In doing so, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay for all hours worked, including overtime.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the start of sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s).

Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate written policies or practices providing meal periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of meal periods. Defendants did not schedule meal periods. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees would often times miss their meal periods, have interrupted or short meal periods. In those occasions when Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had an opportunity to take their first meal periods, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to receive the permission of Defendants to take meal periods and instruction as to how long meal period could be each time and when they can take their meal periods. Often times, meal periods were shorter than 30 minutes, missed or after the fifth hour of work. This is also confirmed by Plaintiff's time records showing that meal periods were either not taken or shorter than 30 minutes. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods and that were not provided.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

Defendants, however, wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10 minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendants did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants did not schedule rest periods. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees would often times miss their first and second rest periods. In those occasions when Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had an opportunity to take their rest periods, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to receive the permission of Defendants to take rest periods. This is also confirmed by Plaintiff's time records showing that both first and rest periods were often times missed. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods and to not authorize or permit them to take any rest periods.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest period(s). Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 1174.5 for failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods.

Failure to Reimburse and Indemnify Expenses

California Labor Code § 2802 requires employers to reimburse employees for their necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of the employer.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants without reimbursement, which included the purchase and maintenance of the uniforms, i.e. an apron and a shirt with logo. Further, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to use their cellular telephones for work purposes to receive text messages or calls regarding their schedule change or assignments. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees incurred these substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, and Defendants have failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continues to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum and straight time wages), missed meal periods, and missed rest periods.

Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

Moreover, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to timely pay all wages at termination.

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Lab. Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Lab. Code § 226(e)(1).)

Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify hourly rates, the failure to correctly list gross wages earned, and the failure to list the true net wages earned, including wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and correct wages earned for all hours worked.

As a result of Defendants violating Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding $4,000 dollars per employee.

Moreover, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 226.3 for failing to furnish accurate itemized wage statements.

Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendants owe employees the legally required wages for unpaid wages, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

Moreover, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 210 for failing to pay all earned wages twice per month.

Failure to Provide Written Notice of Available Paid Sick Leave

Labor Code § 246 (i) requires employers to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available.

During the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of failing to provide written notice of accrued paid sick leave. This is confirmed by Plaintiff's wage statements which fail to provide any information on accrued sick leave. On information and belief, Defendants' failure to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead part of Defendants' policy and practice that applied to the Aggrieved Employees.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide any information on accrued sick leave.

Action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA

In light of the above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants violated the following provisions of the Labor Code with respect to the Aggrieved Employees:

1. Labor Code § 204, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 by failing to pay for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages;

2. Labor Code § 226.7, 512 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to provide meal periods;
3. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to authorize and permit rest periods;
4. Labor Code § 1174.5 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed;
5. Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse and indemnify employees for expenses and losses in the direct consequence and discharge of their duties;
6. Labor Code § 227.3 by failing to pay all vacation wages at termination;
7. Labor Code §§ 201 to 203 by willfully failing to pay all wages owed at termination;
8. Labor Code § 226 by failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
9. Labor Code § 204 by failing to pay all earned wages two times per month.
10. Labor Code § 246 (i) by failing to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available.

Therefore, on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff seeks applicable penalties related to the violations alleged above pursuant to the PAGA. These include, but are not limited to, penalties under Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2802, and 2699(f)(2).

Plaintiff has placed Defendants on notice by mailing a certified copy of this correspondence to its corporate address and address of the agent for service, as indicated on the first page.

The facts and claims contained herein are based on the information available at the time of this writing. Therefore, if through discovery and/or expert review, Plaintiff becomes aware of additional compensation owed or losses incurred by Plaintiff or by any other aggrieved employee of Defendants, Plaintiff expressly reserves the right to revise these facts and/or add any new claims by amending the claim letter or by adding applicable causes of action to the complaint which will relate back to the date of this letter.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

AMENDED NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE SECTION § 2698 ET SEQ.

Re: Elim Bazan v. Casa Martin, LLC, et al.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that my office has been retained by Elim Bazan ("Plaintiff") to pursue a Labor Code Private Attorney General Act (PAGA) representative action (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) against his former employers, Casa Martin, LLC and Casa Martin Promenade, LLC ("Defendants"). The purpose of this amended letter is to comply with PAGA and set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Defendants engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendants' aggrieved employees.

Plaintiff wishes to pursue a PAGA representative action on behalf of himself as an aggrieved employee, on behalf of the State of California, and on behalf of all other current and former aggrieved employees who worked for Defendants in California as an hourly paid, non-exempt employee at any time within the applicable statutory period (hereafter, the "Aggrieved Employees").

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of Defendants suffered the Labor Code violations described below.

Factual Background Regarding Plaintiff's Employment with Defendants

Defendants owns and operates an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code and the Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC").

Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a server from approximately April 28, 2021 to March 11, 2022, primarily in Los Angeles County. Defendants classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from overtime. During the time period that Plaintiff was employed by Defendants, Plaintiff typically worked 3 to 4 days per week, and between 5 to 8 hours each workday.

Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked and Tips

Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

In addition, Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

Labor Code § 351 provides that no employer or agent shall collect, take, or receive any gratuity or a part thereof that is paid, given to, or left for an employee by a patron, or deduct any amount from wages due an employee on account of a gratuity, or require an employee to credit the amount, or any part thereof, of a gratuity against and as a part of the wages due the employee from the employer. Every gratuity is hereby declared to be the sole property of the employee or employees to whom it was paid, given, or left for. An employer that permits patrons to pay gratuities by credit card shall pay the employees the full amount of the gratuity that the patron indicated on the credit card slip, without any deductions for any credit card payment processing fees or costs that may be charged to the employer by the credit card company. Payment of gratuities made by patrons using credit cards shall be made to the employees not later than the next regular payday following the date the patron authorized the credit card payment.

Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked (including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages). Defendants regularly used a system of time rounding in a manner that resulted, over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendants' operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to the minute. Accordingly, Defendants frequently paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees less than all their work time. Some of this unpaid work also should have been paid at the overtime rate. Throughout the statutory period, Defendant also failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all tips received by them from Defendant's customers. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants also maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work "off-the-clock". Defendants required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to arrive earlier than their scheduled shift or continue working after the scheduled shift to cover the duties of another employee but refused to pay for that time. Defendants also required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to clock out but continue working through meal and rest periods. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were also required to use their personal cellular telephones for work purposes at home after their scheduled work time to communicate with Defendants. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendants failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked. In doing so, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay for all hours worked, including overtime.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the start of sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s).

Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate written policies or practices providing meal periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of meal periods. Defendants did not schedule meal periods. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees would often times miss their meal periods, have interrupted or short meal periods. In those occasions when Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had an opportunity to take their first meal periods, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to receive the permission of Defendants to take meal periods and instruction as to how long meal period could be each time and when they can take their meal periods. Often times, meal periods were shorter than 30 minutes, missed or after the fifth hour of work. This is also confirmed by Plaintiff's time records showing that meal periods were either not taken or shorter than 30 minutes. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods and that were not provided.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

Defendants, however, wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10 minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendants did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants did not schedule rest periods. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees would often times miss their first and second rest periods. In those occasions when Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had an opportunity to take their rest periods, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to receive the permission of Defendants to take rest periods. This is also confirmed by Plaintiff's time records showing that both first and rest periods were often times missed. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods and to not authorize or permit them to take any rest periods.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest period(s). Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 1174.5 for failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods.

Failure to Reimburse and Indemnify Expenses

California Labor Code § 2802 requires employers to reimburse employees for their necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of the employer.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants without reimbursement, which included the purchase and maintenance of the uniforms, i.e. an apron and a shirt with logo. Further, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to use their cellular telephones for work purposes to receive text messages or calls regarding their schedule change or assignments. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees incurred these substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, and Defendants have failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continues to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum and straight time wages), missed meal periods, and missed rest periods.

Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

Moreover, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to timely pay all wages at termination.

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Lab. Code § 226(c)(2)(B)(iii).)

The statute further provides: "An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney's fees." (Lab. Code § 226(e)(1).)

Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify hourly rates, the failure to correctly list gross wages earned, and the failure to list the true net wages earned, including wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and correct wages earned for all hours worked.

As a result of Defendants violating Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding $4,000 dollars per employee.

Moreover, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 226.3 for failing to furnish accurate itemized wage statements.

Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendants owe employees the legally required wages for unpaid wages, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

Moreover, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 210 for failing to pay all earned wages twice per month.

Failure to Provide Written Notice of Available Paid Sick Leave

Labor Code § 246 (i) requires employers to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available.

During the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of failing to provide written notice of accrued paid sick leave. This is confirmed by Plaintiff's wage statements which fail to provide any information on accrued sick leave. On information and belief, Defendants' failure to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead part of Defendants' policy and practice that applied to the Aggrieved Employees.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide any information on accrued sick leave.

Action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA

In light of the above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants violated the following provisions of the Labor Code with respect to the Aggrieved Employees:

1. Labor Code § 204, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 by failing to pay for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages;
2. Labor Code § 226.7, 512 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to provide meal periods;
3. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to authorize and permit rest periods;
4. Labor Code § 1174.5 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed;
5. Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse and indemnify employees for expenses and losses in the direct consequence and discharge of their duties;
6. Labor Code § 227.3 by failing to pay all vacation wages at termination;
7. Labor Code §§ 201 to 203 by willfully failing to pay all wages owed at termination;
8. Labor Code § 226 by failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
9. Labor Code § 204 by failing to pay all earned wages two times per month.
10. Labor Code § 246 (i) by failing to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available.
11. Labor Code § 351 by failing to pay all earned tips.

Therefore, on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff seeks applicable penalties related to the violations alleged above pursuant to the PAGA. These include, but are not limited to, penalties under Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2802, and 2699(f)(2).

Plaintiff has placed Defendants on notice by mailing a certified copy of this correspondence to its corporate address and address of the agent for service, as indicated on the first page.

The facts and claims contained herein are based on the information available at the time of this writing. Therefore, if through discovery and/or expert review, Plaintiff becomes aware of additional compensation owed or losses incurred by Plaintiff or by any other aggrieved employee of Defendants, Plaintiff expressly reserves the right to revise these facts and/or add any new claims by amending the claim letter or by adding applicable causes of action to the complaint which will relate back to the date of this letter.
