1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Pursuant to California Rules of Court 3.769 (d) and (e), Plaintiff Allison Crouch (“Plaintiff”)
3 requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of a class action settlement of wage and hour claims,
4 including a claim under the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code
5 §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against Defendant Bakersfield Behavioral Healthcare Hospital, LLC,
6 (“Defendant”) (collectively, Plaintiff and Defendant referred to as the “Parties”). The settlement releases
7 claims on behalf of all persons currently or formerly employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee 8 in the State of California at any time during the PAGA Period the State of California at any time during 9 the Class Period (individually, “Class Member”; collectively, the “Class”) from September 23, 2018 to 10 May 18, 2026 (the “Class Period”). The basic terms of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement 11 Agreement (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”)¹ provide for the following:

- 12 (1) A non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00 allocated to 13 approximately 1,249 Class Members on a pro rata basis according to the number 14 of weeks each Class Member worked during the Class Period;
- 15 (2) An award of not more than 33% of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently 16 $833,333.33) and up to $45,000.00 in reimbursement of costs to Plaintiff’s 17 Counsel for services rendered as counsel on this matter;
- 18 (3) Service Payment of up to $10,000.00 to the Named Plaintiff;
- 19 (4) Settlement Administration fees and costs of up to $13,850.00; and
- 20 (5) Allocation of $150,000.00 for resolution of civil penalties under PAGA. Seventy-21 five percent (75%) of this payment will be paid to the California Labor and 22 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA Payment”), and twenty-five percent
23 (25%) will be paid to Class Members who worked for Defendant during the PAGA 24 Period (the “Aggrieved Employees”).

25 _____
26 ¹ A true and correct copy of the fully-executed “Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and 27 Class Notice” is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Julia M. Toscano in Support of Plaintiff’s 28 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Toscano Decl.”), filed concurrently herewith. Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms in this Motion will be used as such terms are defined and used in the Settlement.

1 With each Class Member allocated an average recovery of approximately $1,159.18 from the Net
2 Settlement Amount, the Settlement satisfies the criteria for preliminary approval and falls well within 3 the range of reasonableness given the risks and costs of continued litigation. The Settlement was reached 4 through informed, arms-length bargaining at and after mediation between experienced attorneys. As 5 such, Plaintiff requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify
6 the Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative, appoint Plaintiff's 7 Counsel as Class Counsel, appoint ILYM Group, Inc., as the Settlement Administrator, authorize the 8 Settlement Administrator to send notice of the Settlement, and set a final approval hearing date.

9 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

10 On March 20, 2023, Plaintiff filed a putative class action on behalf of Defendant's non-exempt 11 employees alleging the following causes of action: (1) failure to pay minimum wages; (2) failure to pay 12 overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to permit rest breaks; (5) failure to 13 reimburse business expenses/or Deductions from Wage; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage 14 statements; (7) failure to pay all wages timely during employment; (8) failure to pay all wages due upon 15 separation of employment and (9) violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.; for the 16 preceding claims. Toscano Decl., ¶ 3. On March 20, 2023, Plaintiff's counsel provided written notice to 17 the LWDA and Defendant regarding Defendant's alleged Labor Code violations, as required by Labor 18 Code section 2699.3(a). Id. Ex. 2. The LWDA did not respond to this notice, indicating it did not intend 19 to investigate, thus allowing Plaintiff to bring a PAGA claim against Defendant. Id. On August 3, 2023, 20 Plaintiff filed a First Amended the Complaint adding a PAGA claim. Id.

21 The Parties proceeded with formal discovery. Id. at ¶ 4. Plaintiff served her first set of written 22 discovery, seeking, inter alia, her personnel files, Defendant's policy documents, the class members' 23 contact information, and class members' timekeeping and pay records. Id. After numerous discussions 24 between the Parties' attorneys, the Parties agreed to attend a private mediation session. Id. Through 25 informal discovery, Defendant produced a significant number of documents and information, including 26 policy documents, the majority of timekeeping records for the Class Period, and a sample of pay records.
27 Id.

28 On March 18, 2026, the Parties attended a mediation session with Monique Ngo-Bonnici, a

1 respected mediator. Id. at ¶ 5. The Parties reached a settlement at the end of the mediation. Id. The Parties
2 spent the next several months negotiating the terms of the Settlement, which was finalized in August of 3 2026. Id. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm's length and tempered by the efforts of 4 both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id.

5 On August 13, 2026, Plaintiff submitted the Settlement to the LWDA pursuant to Labor Code 6 section 2699(1)(2). Id. at ¶ 13, Ex. 3.

7 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT

8 A. Terms of Settlement

9 Plaintiff and Defendant agreed to settle the class claims in exchange for a Gross Settlement 10 Amount of $2,500,000.00. Settlement Agreement, § 3.1. The Gross Settlement Amount will be used to 11 make payments for the following: (1) Individual Settlement Payments to Participating Class Members; 12 (2) attorneys' fees to Class Counsel of up to 33% of the Gross Settlement Amount; (3) reimbursement 13 of Class Counsel's litigation costs of up to $45,000.00; (4) a Service Payment to Plaintiff of up to 14 $10,000.00; (5) Settlement Administration fees and costs of $13,850.00; and (6) a payment to the 15 LWDA of $150,000.00 pursuant to PAGA. Id. at § 3.2.1, 3.2.2, 3.2.3, and 3.2.5.

16 Class Members do not need to submit a claim form to participate in the Settlement. Settlement 17 Agreement, § 3.1. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will fully fund the Gross Settlement 18 Amount and will pay it in two equal installments of $1,250,000.00 each: the first installment shall be 19 due no later than 10 days after the Effective Date; the second installment shall be due no later than 90 20 days after the Effective Date. Id. at § 4.3. Class Members' Individual Settlement Payments will be 21 distributed within 14 days after Defendant fully funds the Gross Settlement Amount. Id. at § 4.4.
22 Individual Settlement Payments will be calculated by comparing the total number of Workweeks for the 23 Class to each individual Class Member's number of Workweeks. Id. at § 3.2.4. The Settlement 24 Administrator will calculate the actual estimated recovery to include in the Class Notice and provide 25 the estimated low and high range of possible recovery at final approval. Id. at § 7.4.2; Settlement 26 Agreement, Ex. A (Notice of Class Action Settlement). The class notice will be provided in English, 27 with a Spanish translation, in the form of Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement, without material 28 variation. See Settlement Agreement, § 1.11.

1 The Individual Settlement Payments to Class Members will be allocated for tax purposes as 2 follows: 20% to wages; 80% to penalties and interest. Settlement Agreement, § 3.2.4.1. The employer-
3 side payroll taxes on the portion allocated to wages will be paid by Defendant separately from, and in 4 addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. Id. at § 3.1. No portion of the Gross Settlement Amount will 5 revert to Defendant. Id. at § 3.1. Funds from uncashed or undeliverable checks will be tendered by the 6 Settlement Administrator to the State Controller Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class
7 Member for whom the funds are designated. Id. at § 4.4.3.

8 B. Proposed Opt-Out and Objection Process

9 Once the Court grants preliminary approval, Defendant will have fourteen (14) days to deliver the 10 Class Data to the Settlement Administrator. Settlement Agreement, § 4.2. The Settlement Administrator 11 will then have fourteen (14) days to send Class Members the Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class 12 Notice”) by first-class mail after checking for updated addresses through the National Change of Address
13 database. Id. at §§ 4.4 -7.4.2. The Class Notice provides information regarding the nature of the lawsuit, 14 a summary of the substance of the settlement terms, the formula for calculating Individual Settlement 15 Payments, the individual’s estimated payout, a statement that Class Members who take no action will 16 release their claims and receive settlement checks, instructions regarding how to dispute the 17 calculations, instructions regarding how to request exclusion or object to the Settlement, the date for the 18 final approval hearing, the amounts sought for attorneys’ fees and costs, the Settlement Administration
19 Costs, the Class Representative’s Service Payment, and the PAGA allocation. See Settlement 20 Agreement, Ex. A (Class Notice).

21 The Class Notice provides instructions for Class Members who choose to exclude themselves 22 from the Settlement. See Settlement Agreement § 7.5.1. To opt out, Class Members are instructed to 23 submit a Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator by a specified date (60 days after the date 24 of mailing of the Class Notice). See Settlement Agreement, Ex. A (Class Notice), pp. 2, 7. Class Members 25 do not need to submit a claim form to participate in the Settlement. Id. at p. 2. Class Members are informed 26 of how they can object to the Settlement, and the Class Notice informs Class Members of the date, time, 27 and location of the final fairness and approval hearing so that they can appear in person. Id. at pp. 2, 7.
28 The Class Notice also informs Class Members to check the Administrator's website or contact Class

1 Counsel to verify the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing. Id. at p. 8. Accordingly, the content of 2 the Class Notice complies with the requirements of California Rules of Court Rule 3.766(d).

3 If Class Notice packets are returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will perform a 4 skip-trace or other search, and re-mail the Class Notice with an extended deadline, to opt out or object, of 5 14 days from the date of the original deadline. Settlement Agreement, § 7.6. The initial 60-day notice
6 period and extension process ensures the notice program provides due process by giving Class Members 7 enough time to determine whether they want to participate in the Settlement. This means of notice is 8 reasonably calculated to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the action. See California Rules of 9 Court Rule 3.766 (d)-(f).

10 C. Proposed Release

11 The release to be given by Class Members is limited to Defendant and each former and present 12 parents, subsidiaries, affiliated corporations and entities, clients, vendors, and independent contractors; 13 (b) the successors and predecessors of the entities identified in subparagraph (a); and (c) each of the 14 respective current, former, and future officers, directors, members, managers, insurers, accountants, 15 attorneys, investment bankers, trusts, trustees, licensors, licensees, employees, consultants, vendors, 16 payroll companies, staffing agencies, independent contractors, clients, partners, shareholders, joint 17 venturers, and third-party agents of any entities identified in subparagraphs (the “Released Parties”).
18 Settlement Agreement, § 1.41. Under the proposed release, Class Members who do not exclude 19 themselves from the Settlement will be deemed to have released the following:

- 20 (i) All from all state, federal, or local claims, rights, demands, liabilities and causes 21 of action of any nature or description arising from and/or relating to any claim 22 ever alleged in the Action or which could have been alleged arising from or 23 based on the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint, which arose during the 24 Class Period, as well as any and all damages, restitution, disgorgement, civil 25 penalties, statutory penalties, interest or attorneys' fees resulting therefrom 26 ("Released Class Claims").

27 The Released Class Claims include but are not limited to violations of California 28 Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 206, 210, 215, 216, 218, 218.5, 218.6, 221, 223, 225, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.6, 226.7, 233, 246, 246.5, 354, 408, 500, 510, 512, 515, 516, 553, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1175, 1182, 1182.11, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199; California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.; California Civil Code sections 3287, 3289; California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5; and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, and claims for failure to pay minimum wages and overtime wages, including any overtime wages owed on bonuses, incentive pay, or other such compensation; failure to pay wages for all hours worked, including for off the clock work; failure to provide meal periods; failure to pay meal period premium wages; failure to provide rest periods; failure to pay rest period premium wages; failure to pay all wages due; failure to furnish complete, accurate, itemized wage statements; failure to pay all earned wages timely during employment and at termination; failure to maintain accurate records; failure to calculate and pay regular rate of pay; and improper deductions from pay.

Id at § 5.2.

Aggrieved Employees will release the Released Parties from all claims demands, rights, liabilities, and causes of action for civil penalties under California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (Labor Code section 2698 et seq.), arising from and/or relating to any claim ever alleged in the Action, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint and/or Plaintiff's PAGA notice letter(s) submitted to the LWDA, which arose during the PAGA Period ("Released PAGA Claims").

The Released PAGA Claims include but are not limited to violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 206, 210, 215, 216, 218, 218.5, 218.6, 221, 223, 225, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.6, 226.7, 233, 246, 246.5, 354, 408, 500, 510, 512, 515, 516, 553, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1175, 1182, 1182.11, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199; and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, and claims for failure to pay minimum wages and overtime wages, including any overtime wages owed on bonuses, incentive pay, or other such compensation; failure to

1 pay wages for all hours worked, including for off the clock work; failure to provide meal periods; failure
2 to pay meal period premium wages; failure to provide rest periods; failure to pay rest period premium 3 wages; failure to pay all wages due; failure to furnish complete, accurate, itemized wage statements; 4 failure to pay all earned wages timely during employment and at termination; and failure to maintain 5 accurate records; failure to calculate and pay regular rate of pay; and improper deductions from pay.
6 Settlement Agreement, § 5.3.

7 Only Plaintiff will agree to a general release of any and all claims, whether known or unknown, 8 which exist or may exist on Plaintiff's behalf as of the date of the Settlement, and a waiver of Civil Code 9 section 1542. Settlement Agreement, § 5.1.1.

10 IV. LEGAL ARGUMENTS SUPPORTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

11 A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

12 Class certification is appropriate when there exists (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently numerous 13 class, (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members, and (3) when certification would 14 be a fair and efficient means of adjudicating the action, rendering class litigation superior to alternative 15 means. See Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1021 (2012).

16 1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

17 Whether a class is "ascertainable" is "determined by examining (1) the class definition, (2) the 18 size of the class, and (3) the means available for identifying class members." Reyes v. Bd. of Supervisors, 19 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 1271 (1987). Here, the Class consists of all persons currently or formerly 20 employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in the State of California at any time from September 21 23, 2018 to May 18, 2026. Settlement Agreement, §§ 1.5, 1.12. Defendant's records show the Class 22 consists of approximately 1,249 Class Members making joinder of all Class Members impracticable.
23 Toscano Decl., ¶ 7. Further, the Class is readily ascertainable from Defendant's business records 24 because all Class Members are current or former employees of Defendant. Id.

25 2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists Among Class Members

26 "[T]he 'community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 27 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) 28 class representatives who can adequately represent the class.'" Fireside Bank v. Superior Court, 40 Cal.

1 4th 1069, 1089 (2007) (quoting Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc., 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470 (1981)).

2 a. Common Questions Predominate

3 To assess whether common questions predominate, courts focus on whether the theories of 4 recovery advanced are likely to prove amenable to class treatment. See Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v.
5 Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 327 (2004). In other words, courts determine whether the elements 6 necessary to establish liability are susceptible of common proof, even if the class members must 7 individually prove their damages. Brinker, supra, 53 Cal. 4th at 1021-1022, 1024.

8 Plaintiff alleged that Defendant maintained uniform employment policies and/or practices that 9 illegally deprived Class Members of lawful wages, meal periods, rest breaks, accurate wage statements, 10 and waiting time pay. Toscano Decl., ¶ 8. Plaintiff's allegations present common legal and factual 11 questions of, inter alia, whether Defendant applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, minimum and 12 overtime pay, meal period, and rest break policies to all Class Members; whether these policies and 13 practices resulted in Labor Code violations; whether Defendant's conduct was intentional; and whether 14 Class Members are entitled to penalties. Id. These common questions could be resolved using Class
15 Members' schedules, time punches, and payroll records, Defendant's corporate representative's 16 testimony, written communications between Defendant and Class Members, and Class Member 17 declarations. Id. Thus, the Court can and should exercise its discretion to grant conditional class 18 certification for settlement purposes.

19 b. Plaintiff's Claims are Typical of the Class Claims

20 The typicality requirement is satisfied when the legal theories and facts supporting Plaintiff's 21 claims are substantially similar to other class members. See Classen v. Weller, 145 Cal. App. 3d 27, 46 22 (1983). Here, Plaintiff alleges that she and other Class Members were employed by Defendant and 23 injured by Defendant's common wage and hour policies and practices, including Defendant's 24 scheduling, timekeeping, minimum wage pay, overtime pay, meal period, and rest break practices and 25 policies. Toscano Decl., ¶ 9. Through documents and information exchanged in discovery, including 26 production of thousands of pages of documents by Defendant, Plaintiff confirmed that these common 27 policies and practices similarly affected Plaintiff and the Class. Id. Thus, Plaintiff's claims arise from 28 the same employment practices and are based on the same legal theories as those applicable to other

1 Class Members, as further explained in Plaintiff's exposure analysis below.

2 c. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Interests of 3 the Proposed Class

4 Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative(s) and proposed class 5 counsel. With respect to the class representative, a plaintiff must adequately represent and protect the 6 interests of other members of the class and demonstrate that his or her claim is not inconsistent with the 7 claims of other members of the class. See Capitol People First v. State Dep't of Developmental Servs., 8 155 Cal. App. 4th 676, 696-697 (2007). Here, Plaintiff's interests are coextensive with the interests of 9 the Class. Plaintiff demonstrated an ability to advocate for the interests of the Class by litigating this 10 action, gathering documents and information, being available on the day of mediation to answer 11 questions, meeting with her attorneys on several occasions to understand the claims and theories of 12 liability at issue, assisting attorneys in preparing for mediation, reviewing the proposed settlement
13 agreement to understand its legal effect, and obtaining a fair settlement on behalf of Class Members 14 who stand to recover a substantial amount under the Settlement. Toscano Decl., ¶ 21.

15 Likewise, Aegis Law Firm, PC has expended considerable time and effort on this case and will 16 continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Toscano Decl. Accordingly, Plaintiff should be 17 appointed Class Representative, and Plaintiff's Counsel should be appointed Class Counsel

18 3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

19 Class treatment is superior to other methods of adjudication when the probability is small that 20 each class member will come forward to prove his or her claim and when the class approach would deter 21 and redress the alleged wrongdoing. See Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 435, 446 (2000); 22 Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 1537-1538 (2008). Here, none of the 1,249
23 Class Members have shown any interest in bearing the expense and burden of litigating their own claims.
24 Toscano Decl. ¶ 21. Thus, a class action is the superior method for seeking relief.

25 B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

26 Preliminary approval is warranted if the settlement falls within a "reasonable range." See North 27 County Contractor's Ass'n., Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Servs., 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1089-90 (1994); 28 Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions, § 11.26 (4th ed. 2002). In reviewing the fairness of a

1 class action settlement, due regard should be given to what is “otherwise a private consensual
2 agreement between the parties.” Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 1380, 1389 3 (2010). The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the 4 agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, 5 and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id.

6 Reasonableness and fairness are presumed where (1) the settlement is reached through “arms-7 length bargaining”; (2) investigation and discovery are “sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act 8 intelligently”; (3) counsel is “experienced in similar litigation”; and (4) the percentage of objectors “is 9 small.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1802 (1996). The Settlement satisfies the first 10 three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor at the final approval stage.

11 1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

12 a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm’s-Length Negotiations

13 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 14 evidence to the contrary is offered. Thus, there is a presumption that settlement negotiations are 15 conducted in good faith. Here, the Settlement was the product of extensive investigation and a full day 16 mediation session with a respected mediator after extensive discovery. Toscano Decl. ¶¶ 4-5. The 17 negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm’s length and tempered by the efforts of both sides to 18 serve the interests of their clients. Id. at ¶ 5. The amount of Plaintiff’s requested Service Award was not 19 negotiated until after the Parties agreed to the Gross Settlement Amount and many other terms. Id. at ¶ 20 22.

21 b. Plaintiff’s Counsel Conducted Sufficient Investigation and Discovery

22 Plaintiff’s Counsel thoroughly investigated the class claims, applicable law, and potential 23 defenses. See generally, Toscano Decl. In particular, Plaintiff’s Counsel assessed the value of the class 24 claims using Defendant’s data and documents produced through discovery. Toscano Decl., ¶ 10.
25 Plaintiff’s counsel extensively reviewed policy documents and Class Members’ time and pay records to 26 perform a thorough analysis. Id. Further, Plaintiff’s Counsel engaged an expert to quantify the potential 27 exposure using the time and payroll records, and then assessed the risks associated with each of the 28 claims meriting reductions in the likely recovery at trial. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s Counsel fully 1 understood the strengths and weaknesses of the claims before the Parties reached a settlement. Id.

2 c. Plaintiff's Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

3 Plaintiff is represented by Aegis Law Firm, PC ("Class Counsel"). Class Counsel prosecute wage
4 and hour class actions on behalf of employees and others who have had their rights violated. Toscano
5 Decl. ¶¶ 24-37. The attorneys working on this case have been appointed class counsel in many cases, 6 through both contested motions and settlement approval motions. Id. Thus, Plaintiff's Counsel has 7 extensive experience in similar litigation and should be appointed as Class Counsel.

8 2. The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiff's Claims and 9 the Risks and Expense of Litigation

10 Courts have discretion to approve class settlements by assessing several factors, including the 11 "strength of plaintiffs' case, risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation and risk 12 of maintaining the class action through trial." Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A., 186 Cal.
13 App. 4th 399, 407 (2010); see Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 129 (2008).

14 While Plaintiff and her counsel believed and continue to believe this is a strong case for 15 certification, they accounted for the significant risks and expenses associated with class certification 16 and liability proceedings. Toscano Decl., ¶ 12. To determine if the amount offered at mediation was 17 reasonable, Plaintiff's Counsel weighed the figure offered against numerous risk factors. Id. at ¶ 13. For 18 example, Plaintiff's counsel considered that if they were to continue to prosecute the claims rather than 19 accept the settlement offered at mediation, they would expend significant time and resources engaging 20 in extensive formal written discovery, conducting depositions, resolving disputes, preparing and filing 21 discovery motions and/or dispositive motions, preparing and filing a motion for class certification, and 22 engaging in extensive trial preparation. Id. Moreover, Plaintiff's counsel understood that an adverse 23 ruling at any one of the foregoing stages could prevent Plaintiff and the Class from obtaining any 24 recovery. Id.

25 a. Exposure Analysis

26 A settlement need not provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered a fair and reasonable 27 settlement. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal. App. 3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Rather, compromise 28 is expected:

Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if “the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated,” this is no bar to a class settlement because “the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”

Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 250 (2001) (citation omitted). Here, Plaintiff contends that her claims are based on Defendant’s common, class-wide policies and procedures, and that liability could be determined on a class-wide basis without dependence on individual assessments of liability. Toscano Decl., ¶ 11. Although the amount of Defendant’s total potential exposure—if proven—is substantial, the legitimate and serious risks of succeeding at class certification and trial compelled a serious consideration of the benefit of a settlement. Id. at ¶¶ 14-20.

Minimum Wage and Overtime Claims: Plaintiff’s minimum wage and overtime claims were premised on the theory that Defendant failed to compensate class members for all time worked by requiring them to complete pre- and post-shift duties off the clock. Assuming unpaid wages of 3 minutes per shift, Plaintiff’s expert calculated a maximum exposure of $664,702.00. However, Defendant argued that it maintained policies of paying for all recorded work, and that there was no evidence that it required class members to work before or after clocking in. As such, this claim could become highly individualized and difficult to certify. As such, Plaintiff assumed there was a 20% chance of success at class certification and 10% chance of success on the merits at trial, rendering the claim worth approximately $13,294.04. Toscano Decl., ¶ 15.

Unpaid Overtime Wages: Plaintiff’s unpaid overtime wages claim was also based on the theory that Defendant maintained an illegal overtime policy and an invalid workweek schedule that failed to pay all Class Members at the overtime rate for all hours worked in excess of eight hours per day or 40 hours per workweek. Plaintiff’s expert calculated that Defendant owed unpaid overtime wages in the amount of $5,847,632, assuming an invalid workweek schedule. However, at mediation, Defendant presented evidence that it registered an alternative workweek schedule with the Department of Industrial Relations. As such, this claim could become difficult to certify. Plaintiff assumed there was a 20% chance of success at class certification and 10% chance of success on the merits at trial, rendering the claim worth approximately $116,952.64. Toscano Decl., ¶ 16.

Meal Period Claims: Plaintiff’s meal period claim was potentially worth about $5,770,503.00 in

1 light of the violations shown in the records. However, Defendant argued that it maintained compliant
2 written policies and that employees could waive their meal periods. Thus, Plaintiff discounted this claim 3 for the risk that the damages could at least be reduced, and that the claim would be hard to certify with 4 a compliant policy. As such, Plaintiff's counsel believed there was a 60% chance succeeding at class 5 certification and a 40% chance at trial, resulting in a value of $1,384,920.72. Toscano Decl., ¶ 17.

6 Rest Break Claim: Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to authorize timely rest breaks due to 7 the productivity requirements imposed on class members. If Plaintiff could prove a 100% violation rate 8 for each shift over 3.5 hours, then damages could reach up to $9,626,157.00. However, Defendant 9 argued that it maintained compliant written rest break policies and that class members could again 10 choose to waive their rest breaks. As such, this claim would have relied on Class Member testimony, 11 making it a riskier claim at class certification and liability stages. Plaintiff's counsel believed there was 12 a 20% chance succeeding at class certification and a 15% chance at trial, resulting in a value of 13 $288,784.71423,038.60. Toscano Decl., ¶ 18.

14 Waiting Time and Wage Statement Penalties: Plaintiff's Counsel also considered the arguable 15 presence of various derivative penalties, and weighed the potential recoveries against probable defenses.
16 Specifically, Defendant could argue that Plaintiff could not prove the "willful" prong needed to obtain 17 waiting time penalties under Labor Code § 203. Additionally, Defendant could argue that Plaintiff could 18 not show that Class Members suffered an "injury" as a result of wage statement violations, as required by 19 Labor Code § 226, or that the wage statements correctly reflected the wages paid and owed. Moreover, 20 Plaintiff would not recover any of these derivative penalties if he failed to prove the underlying claims.
21 Although the Class arguably could have seen a payout of approximately $5,869,589.00 for waiting time 22 penalties and $2,240,650.00 for wage statement penalties, Plaintiff would not recover any of these 23 derivative penalties if he failed to prove the underlying claims. Thus, Plaintiff discounted these claims 24 assuming a 30% chance of class certification and 20% chance at the merits for both claims, resulting in a 25 realistic value of $352,175.34 for the waiting time claim and $134,439.00 for the wage statement claim.
26 Toscano Decl. ¶ 19.

27 PAGA Claim: The PAGA claim presented even higher hurdles. Although Plaintiff's Counsel
28 found Defendant's exposure could potentially reach approximately $13,765,200.00 under Lab. Code §

2699(f), assuming the initial penalty rate of $100 for each pay period, Plaintiff would have to prove a violation in every pay period. Most importantly, the Court would have discretion to reduce the PAGA award based on whether the amount of the award would be “unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2). In theory, the Court could reduce the award by 99% if it so wished. Plaintiff was doubtful she could recover any PAGA penalties, especially if a large class judgment was entered for the same violations. Accordingly, Plaintiff could not place a high value on the PAGA penalties, and therefore allocated $150,000.00 of the Gross Settlement Amount to settle these claims. Toscano Decl. ¶ 20.

C. The Requested Service Award for Plaintiff

Plaintiff seeks a Service Award of up to $10,000.00 for accepting the responsibilities of representing the interests of the Class and assuming risks and potential costs that were not borne by any other Class Members. A named plaintiff is eligible for payment that reasonably compensates him or her for undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary duty to represent absent class members. See Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, supra, 186 Cal. App. 4th at 1393; Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal. App. 4th 715, 726 (2004).

Here, Plaintiff had the option to pursue his claims individually, but instead chose to pursue this class action, delaying individual recovery until approval of a class action settlement. Toscano Decl., ¶ 21. Throughout the case, Plaintiff assisted counsel in gathering the evidence necessary to prosecute the class claims, maintained regular contact with counsel, made herself available on the day of mediation to answer critical questions from her attorneys, and reviewed the Settlement to make sure it was fair to the Class. Id. None of the 1,249 Class Members have shown any interest in bearing the expense and burden of litigating their own claims. Id. No action would likely have been taken by Class Members individually, and no compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiff’s services on behalf of the Class. Id.

By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiff furthered the California public policy goal of enforcing the State’s wage and hour laws. See Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc., supra, 34 Cal. 4th at 340. The requested Service Award for Plaintiff’s service as the class representative and for a general release of all employment claims is reasonable and should be preliminarily approved. At the final approval stage,

1 Plaintiff will further support the request for the Service by declarations addressing the factors for the 2 award. Toscano Decl., ¶ 23.

3 D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs

4 The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who invested 5 in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the class.
6 Attorneys' fees are awarded as a matter of equity. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees
7 equaling one-third or more of the potential value of the common fund. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162
8 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66, n.11 (2008) ("Empirical studies show that, regardless of whether the percentage 9 method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 10 recovery").

11 Plaintiff seeks appointment of Aegis Law Firm, PC as Class Counsel. The attorneys performed 12 significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting the matter with no guarantee of any 13 payment. Toscano Decl., ¶ 37. Plaintiff's Counsel seeks preliminary approval for $833,333.33 in 14 attorneys' fees, which is up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, and up to $45,000.00 in 15 reimbursement of litigation costs. Given the work performed in this matter, the extensive information 16 exchange, and substantial recovery obtained on behalf of Plaintiff and the Class, Plaintiff's Counsel 17 achieved a settlement through efficient and diligent work. See generally, Toscano Decl. At final 18 approval, Plaintiff's Counsel will fully brief the merits of its request for the award of attorneys' fees 19 and litigation costs. Id. at ¶ 38.

20 V. CONCLUSION

21 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable Settlement of the class claims in light of the 22 risks present in this case. Plaintiff has appropriately presented the materials and information necessary 23 for preliminary approval, and therefore, respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the 24 Settlement and schedule a date to conduct the final approval hearing.
