DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff NALLELY DOMINGUEZ PALACIOS (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including but not limited to claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, employs individuals, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff NALLELY DOMINGUEZ PALACIOS is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

6. Defendant SEPHORA USA, INC., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

7. At all relevant times, Defendant SEPHORA USA, INC. was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants SEPHORA USA, INC. and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators, and/or assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto, were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators, and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual, or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon, alleges that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

10. Defendant SEPHORA USA, INC. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

Class: All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from October 10, 2021 to final judgment.

Subclass A: All class members who received overtime compensation at a rate lower than their respective regular rate of pay because Defendants failed to include all shift differential pay/commissions/non-discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay in the calculation of the regular rate of pay for overtime pay purposes.

Subclass B: All class members who earned shift differential pay/commissions/non-discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay that was not used to calculate the amount of the meal break or rest break penalty/premium payment.

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish additional subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable, and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals, and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

- b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.
- c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.
- d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.
- e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

1 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that
2 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 3 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- 4 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 5 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 6 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay
7 their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California
8 for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed 9 altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 10 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to 11 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
12 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
13 and the other class members;
- 14 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of 15 meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class
16 members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 17 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 18 other class members for all hours worked;
- 19 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 20 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 21 resignation;
- 22 g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 23 the other class members during their employment;
- 24 h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 25 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 26 i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as 27 required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 28 1174(d);

- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;
- m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

17. At all times herein set forth, California Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") was applicable to Plaintiff's employment by Defendants.

18. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

19. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom the alleged violations were committed.

20. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants, and the alleged violations were committed against her during her time of employment, and she is, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are current or former employees of Defendants, and the alleged violations were committed against them.

21. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter, "Employee's Notice") to the LWDA and by certified mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the alleged California Labor Code violations, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.
- b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter, "LWDA Notice") to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violations within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee's Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee's Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties, in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

22. On October 10, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendant SEPHORA USA, INC. of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff did not receive an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) days of the date of Plaintiff's notice. Plaintiff has not received any notice of Defendants' intention to cure the alleged violations.

23. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

24. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and the other class members as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

25. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately November 2013 to approximately February 2025 in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

26. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other class members, classified them as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked and missed meal periods and/or rest breaks.

27. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

28. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members.

29. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other class members.

30. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

31. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

1 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate overtime
4 compensation for all overtime hours worked.

5 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 failed to use the shift differential pay/commissions/non-discretionary bonuses/non-
7 discretionary performance pay to calculate the regular rate of pay used to calculate the 8 overtime rate for the payment of overtime wages where Plaintiff and the other class members
9 earned shift differential pay/commissions/non-discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary 10 performance pay and overtime wages in the same workweek.

11 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members all required rest and meal periods during 13 the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage
14 Orders, and, thus, they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

15 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other class
18 members’ regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal
19 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other class members’
20 regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

21 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
23 all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other class
24 members’ regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest
25 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other class members’
26 regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

27 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
28 failed to use the shift differential pay/commissions/non-discretionary bonuses/non-

1 discretionary performance pay to calculate the regular rate of pay for the payment of meal or 2 rest period premium wages where Plaintiff and the other class members earned shift
3 differential pay/commissions/non-discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay
4 and meal or rest period premium wages in the same workweek.

5 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum 8 wages for all hours worked.

9 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
11 all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages 12 and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not receive all such wages owed to them at 13 the time of their discharge or resignation.

14 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
16 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other class members did
17 not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest
18 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

19 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
21 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but they did not
22 receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies included,
23 inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other 24 class members.

25 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
27 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but they did not 28 keep complete and accurate payroll records.

1 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 3 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

4 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
5 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
6 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 7 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so and falsely
8 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all 9 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

10 46. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to 11 Plaintiff and the other class members for all overtime hours worked. Plaintiff and the other 12 class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours 13 per week without overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

14 47. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to use the shift differential
15 pay/commissions/non-discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay to calculate
16 the regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime rate for the payment of overtime wages
17 where Plaintiff and the other class members earned shift differential pay/commissions/non-
18 discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay and overtime wages in the same 19 workweek.

20 48. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide all requisite
21 uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members.

22 49. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to use the shift differential
23 pay/commissions/non-discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay to calculate
24 the regular rate of pay for the payment of meal or rest period premium wages where Plaintiff
25 and the other class members earned shift differential pay/commissions/non-discretionary 26 bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay and meal or rest period premium wages in the 27 same workweek.

56. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

57. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article."

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

one-and-one-half times (1.5x) or two times (2x) that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

60. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members who worked more than eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek at the rate of one-and-one-half times (1.5x) all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek.
