FOR THE COUNTY OF ALAMEDA

RENEE MILTON, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISITAN ASSOCIATION
OF THE EAST BAY; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 25CV152401

Assigned for all purposes to:
Hon. Somnath Raj Chatterjee, Dept. 21

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT:

1. Failure to Pay Split Shift Premiums;
2. Failure to Provide Meal Periods;
3. Failure to Permit Rest Periods;
4. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements;
5. Failure to Pay All Wages Due During Employment and Upon Separation of Employment;
6. Unfair and Unlawful Business Practices;
and
7. Private Attorneys General Act of 2004.

1 Plaintiff Renee Milton (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of all others similarly
2 situated, alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this putative class and representative action against defendants
5 Young Men’s Christian Association of the East Bay and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive
6 (collectively, “Defendants”), on Plaintiff’s own behalf and on behalf of a class of individuals who 7 are and were employed by Defendants as non-exempt or hourly-paid employees throughout 8 California.

9 2. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants engaged in a pattern of wage and hour violations
10 under the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, all of 11 which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate unfair competition.

12 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have 13 increased their profits by violating state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 14 (a) failing to pay split shift premiums;
- 15 (b) failing to provide meal periods or pay meal period premiums;
- 16 (c) failing to authorize or permit rest periods or pay rest period premiums;
- 17 (d) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
- 18 (e) failing to pay all wages due during employment and upon separation of 19 employment.

20 4. Plaintiff seeks monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of herself and all other
21 similarly situated in California to recover, among other things, unpaid wages, statutory penalties,
22 benefits, interest, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses, and penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201,
23 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.7, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2698,
24 et seq., and Code of California Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

25 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26 5. This is a class action brought pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

27 6. The monetary damages, restitution, penalties, and other legal and equitable relief
28 sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of this Court and will be established

1 according to proof at trial.

2 7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Article VI, § 10 of the 3 California Constitution, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes”
4 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not
5 specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

6 8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and 7 belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California,
8 and/or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise
9 of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play
10 and substantial justice.

11 9. Venue is proper in this court because Defendants maintain offices, have agents,
12 employ individuals, and/or transact business in this county.

13 THE PARTIES

14 10. Plaintiff is a California resident and was employed by Defendants in Pleasant Hill, 15 California as a non-exempt teacher’s aide from approximately August 2025 to approximately 16 September 2025.

17 11. Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as 18 employers whose employees were and are engaged to work throughout this county and the State
19 of California.

20 12. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the Defendant sued herein
21 under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 50 but will amend the complaint and serve such 22 fictitiously named Defendants once their names and capacities become known.

23 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each and all of the acts
24 and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable, to each Defendant acting as 25 the agent, employee, alter ego, and/or joint venturer of, or working in concert with, each of the 26 other co-Defendants and within the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture,
27 or concerted activity with legal authority to act on the others’ behalf.

28 ///

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that during the relevant time period, DOES 1 through 50 were the employers of Plaintiff and the other members of the class within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other members of the class so as to make each Defendant an employer liable under the statutory provision set forth herein.

15. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other members of the class, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff and the other members of the class's employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

16. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 exercise sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and the other members of the class's employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other members of the class.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

17. Plaintiff brings this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated who were affected by Defendants' Labor Code Business and Professions Code, and IWC Wage Order Violations.

18. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

19. Plaintiff's proposed class consists of and is defined as follows:

All individuals currently or formerly employed by Defendants as non-exempt or hourly-paid employees in the State of California at any time between June 6, 2024 and the date of class certification (“Class”).

20. Members of the Class described above will be collectively referred to as “Class Members.”

21. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or re-define the Class, establish subclasses, or

1 modify or re-define any class definition as appropriate based on investigation, discovery, and
2 specific theories of liability.

3 22. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class Members that 4 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members including, but not limited to 5 the following:

- 6 (a) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all minimum 7 wages owed, including split shift premiums;
- 8 (b) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with 30-9 minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked;
- 10 (c) Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premiums at the regular rate
11 of pay when Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with timely, 30-
12 minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked;
- 13 (d) Whether Defendants failed to permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take 14 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or 15 major fraction thereof;
- 16 (e) Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premiums at the regular rate of 17 pay when Plaintiff and Class Members were not permitted to take 10-minute,
18 uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major 19 fraction thereof;
- 20 (f) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members accurate 21 itemized wage statements.
- 22 (g) Whether Defendants failed to pay wages timely to Plaintiff and Class
23 Members during employment;
- 24 (h) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages 25 timely upon termination of employment.
- 26 (i) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful, reckless, intentional, and/or 27 knowing; and
- 28 (j) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

23. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the proposed Class and subclasses are readily ascertainable:

- (a) Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical. Although the members of the Class are unknown to Plaintiff at this time, on information and belief, the Class is estimated to be greater than 500 individuals. The identities of the Class Members are readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment and payroll records.
- (b) Typicality: Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of the claims (or defenses, if any) of the Class Members because Defendants' failure to comply with the provisions of California's wage and hour laws entitled each Class Member to similar pay, benefits, and other relief. The injuries sustained by Plaintiff are also typical of the injuries sustained by the Class Members, because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants' common course of conduct as alleged herein.
- (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of all Class Members because it is in Plaintiff's best interest to prosecute the claims alleged herein to obtain full compensation and penalties due. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions and versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred and, throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees and costs that have been and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of the Class Members.
- (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes use of class action adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve economies of time, effort, and expense as compared with separate lawsuits and will avoid

1 inconsistent outcomes because the same issues can be adjudicated in the 2 same manner for the entire Class at the same time. If appropriate, this Court
3 can, and is empowered to, fashion methods to efficiently manage this case
4 as a class action.

5 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

6 24. During the relevant time period, Defendants employed Plaintiff and Class Members
7 as non-exempt or hourly-paid employees throughout California at Defendants' California business
8 location(s).

9 25. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members
10 were entitled to one hour of pay at the state or local minimum wage each day that their work
11 schedule was interrupted by non-paid and non-working time periods established by Defendants.
12 However, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all split shift premiums owed. As 13 a result, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members for all minimum wages in violation
14 of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order.

15 26. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members
16 were entitled to receive 30-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked 17 or payment of meal period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof. However,
18 Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with 30-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free
19 meal periods for every 5 hours worked and failed to pay meal period premiums at their regular rate
20 of pay in lieu thereof in violation of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order.

21 27. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members
22 were entitled to receive 10-minute, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major 23 fraction thereof or payment of rest period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.
24 However, Defendants failed to permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take 10-minute,
25 uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major fraction thereof and failed
26 to pay rest period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof in violation of the Labor
27 Code and applicable IWC Wage Order.

28 ///

1 28. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members
2 were entitled to itemized wage statements that accurately showed, inter alia, gross wages earned,
3 total hours worked, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period
4 and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate. However, due to Defendants'
5 failure to record and pay for all time worked and Defendants' failure to provide meal and rest
6 periods or meal and rest period premiums in lieu thereof, Defendants failed to provide accurate
7 itemized wage statements in violation of the Labor Code.

8 29. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members
9 were entitled to timely payment of wages due during employment and upon separation of 10 employment. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive payment
11 of all wages within the required time periods.

12 30. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew they had a duty to compensate
13 Plaintiff and Class Members, and Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation
14 but willfully, knowingly, and/or intentionally failed to do so in order to increase Defendants'
15 profits.

16 31. Therefore, Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking monetary and injunctive relief
17 against Defendants on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of all Class Members to recover, among 18 other things, unpaid wages (including split shift premiums), unpaid meal period premium 19 payments, unpaid rest period premium payments,, interest, attorneys' fees, penalties, costs, and 20 expenses.

21 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

22 FAILURE TO PAY SPLIT SHIFT PREMIUMS

23 (Violation of Labor Code § 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 4)

24 32. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
25 though fully set forth herein.

26 33. During the relevant time period, Defendants were require to compensate Plaintiff
27 and Class Members for all hours worked pursuant to Labor Code §§ 200, et seq., 1194, 1194.2, 28 1197, and 1198m and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

1 34. During the relevant time period, Defendants were required to compensate Plaintiff
2 and Class Members 1 hour's pay at the applicable minimum wage in addition to the minimum
3 wage for that workday each day that Plaintiff and Class Members worked a split shift pursuant to 4 Labor Code § 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

5 35. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage for employees fixed 6 by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than 7 the minimum so fixed is unlawful

8 36. Labor Code § 1198 provides that the maximum hours of work and the standard
9 conditions of labor fixed by the commission shall be the maximum hours of work and the standard
10 condition of labor for employees.

11 37. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class
12 Members split shift premiums owed for all split shifts worked.

13 38. In violation of the Labor Code, Defendants knowingly and willfully refused to 14 perform their obligations and compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all wages earned.

15 39. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay all wages to 16 Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked in violation of the Labor Code and the applicable
17 IWC Wage Order.

18 40. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members split shift premiums violates 19 Labor Code §§ 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198.

20 41. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class
21 Members the required wages, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid
22 balance of their wages, including split shift premiums, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys'
23 fees.

24 42. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 25 recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest
26 thereon.

Members meal period premiums for missed, late, and/or short meal periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

51. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an additional hour of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PERMIT REST PERIODS

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

52. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

53. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

54. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period[,]" and the "[a]uthorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of 10 minutes net rest time per 4 hours or major fraction thereof[,]" unless the total time worked is less than 3 ½ hours.

55. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive a 10-minute rest period for every 4 hours or major fraction thereof worked because they were required to work through their rest periods and/or were not authorized to take their rest periods.

56. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires an employer to pay an employee an additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each day that a compliant rest period is not provided.

57. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members rest period premiums for missed, late, and/or interrupted rest periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

58. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an additional hour of pay for each day a compliant rest period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code § 226)

59. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

60. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an accurate wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including, the following: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

61. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff and Class Members. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly state the gross and net wages earned, total hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect, and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Plaintiff and Class Members.

62. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury and damage to their statutory rights. Plaintiff and Class Members are deemed to suffer an injury pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) where, as here, Defendants intentionally violated Labor Code § 226(a). Plaintiff and Class Members were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,

1 accurate itemized wage statements under Labor Code § 226(a). In addition, because Defendants
2 failed to provide accurate rates of pay on wage statements, Defendants prevented Plaintiff and 3 Class Members from determining if all hours worked were paid at the appropriate rate and the 4 extent of the underpayment, thereby causing Plaintiff to incur expenses and lost time. Plaintiff
5 would not have had to engage in these efforts and incur these costs had Defendants provided the 6 accurate hours worked, wages earned, and rates of pay. This has also delayed Plaintiff's ability to 7 demand and recover underpayment of wages from Defendants.

8 63. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of 9 all actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) or $50.00
10 for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred and $100.00 per employee for each violation
11 in subsequent pay periods in an amount not exceeding $4,000.00 per employee, plus attorneys'
12 fees and costs.

13 64. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiff and 14 Class Members from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wages paid to them and resulted 15 in a unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and 16 intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members 17 have suffered an injury, in the exact amount of damages and/or penalties to be shown according to 18 proof at trial.

19 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE DURING EMPLOYMENT AND UPON 21 SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

22 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, & 210)

23 65. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
24 though fully set forth herein.

25 66. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee,
26 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if 27 an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 28 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-

two (72) hours previous notice of an intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

67. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 to any employee who is discharged or quit, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced, but not for more than 30 days.

68. Labor Code § 204 provides that employees must be paid within a certain number of days of the close of the pay period. Labor Code § 210 provides that any employer who fails to pay in accordance with the deadlines set forth in Labor Code § 204 shall be subject to a penalty in the amount of $100 for each failure to pay each employee and $200 plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld for each subsequent violation or any willful or intentional violation.

69. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to timely pay Plaintiff and Class Members wages earned during the pay period within the required time limits.

70. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members their earned wages upon termination, either at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

71. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all their earned wages within the required time limits during employment and at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ is in violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 204.

72. Plaintiff and other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalties set forth in Labor Code §§ 203 and 210.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

73. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

74. California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. prohibits acts of unfair competition, which includes any "unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business act or practice . . ."

1 75. A violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be
2 predicated on a violation of any state or federal law. Defendants' policies and practices violated
3 California law, causing Plaintiff and Class Members to suffer and continue to suffer injuries-in-
4 fact.

5 76. Defendants' policies and practices violated state law in at least the following
6 respects:

- 7 (a) Failing to pay split shift premiums to Plaintiff and Class Members in 8 violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1194.2, 1197, & 1198;
- 9 (b) Failing to provide compliant meal periods without paying Plaintiff and Class
10 Members meal period premiums for each day that lawful meal periods were 11 not provided in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; and
- 12 (c) Failing to authorize and permit compliant rest breaks without paying 13 Plaintiff and Class Members rest period premiums for each day that lawful
14 rest periods were not authorized or permitted in violation of Labor Code §
15 226.7.

16 77. As alleged herein, Defendant engaged in unlawful conduct in violation of the 17 California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as failing to pay split shift premiums, failing 18 to provide meal periods and rest periods or meal and rest period premiums in lieu thereof, all in 19 order to decrease their costs of doing business and increase their profits.

20 78. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that during the relevant time
21 period, Defendants were knowledgeable concerning the wage and hour laws of California.

22 79. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiff
23 and Class Members wages and monies owed, thereby creating an artificially lower cost of doing
24 business in order to undercut Defendants' competitors and gain a greater foothold in the 25 marketplace.

26 80. By violating the foregoing statutes and regulations as herein alleged, Defendants'
