MY EMPLOYMENT

3. I worked for Defendant Artemis Headlands LLC (“Artemis Headlands”) in California from in or around February 2022, to June of 2024. I was classified as a non-exempt employee, while working for Artemis Headlands.

4. While employed by Artemis Headlands, I experienced repeated wage-and-hour violations, including unpaid overtime, missed meal and rest breaks, and unreimbursed business expenses. I regularly worked twelve-hour shifts, generally scheduled one to three times per week, and sometimes more depending on Artemis Headlands’ needs. Despite working more than eight hours in a shift, I was not paid overtime or double-time wages. I was also not permitted to take meal or rest breaks at the legally required times. On multiple occasions, I worked beyond my fifth hour before being allowed to take a meal break, or I was instructed to clock out for a meal period while continuing to work. When I worked shifts longer than ten hours, I was often not provided with a second meal break, and Artemis Headlands did not encourage second meal periods. When I attempted to take a second meal break, it was frequently interrupted due to workload demands.

5. I was regularly required to work more than four hours without being provided a ten-minute rest break, and when I worked more than eight hours, I was not permitted to take a third rest break. At no time was I paid meal or rest break premium wages. Artemis Headlands also failed to reimburse me for necessary business expenses incurred in the course of my employment, including required use of my personal cell phone. Because Artemis Headlands did not accurately track or calculate my hours worked, I did not receive all overtime wages owed to me and did not receive accurate itemized wage statements. Based on my experience, I believe these practices affected other non-exempt employees.

MY ROLE IN THE LITIGATION

6. After discussing these issues with Plaintiff Ruth Joy Segovia, I retained Nevels Nichols, LLP, a firm experienced in class action litigation and California Labor Code claims. I have no personal or familial relationship with my attorneys or any officer of the Court, and I am not involved in litigation against any member of the class. My attorneys represent me only in connection with this lawsuit.

7. I agreed to serve as a representative Plaintiff because I believed Artemis Headlands violated my labor rights and the rights of other non-exempt employees. Specifically, I believe Artemis Headlands failed to pay all wages owed for all hours worked and failed to compensate employees at the correct rates.

8. I understood that by acting in a representative capacity, I was pursuing relief not only for myself but also for other current and former employees of Artemis Headlands in California. I believed many employees were unaware of their rights or reluctant to pursue claims due to fear of retaliation or the burden of litigation. I therefore devoted significant time to assisting with discovery in this action.

9. This lawsuit was filed on October 31, 2024, after I contacted counsel to seek legal assistance related to my employment with Artemis Headlands, following discussions with Plaintiff Ruth Joy Segovia. My attorneys explained that the case includes claims under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) based on a PAGA notice submitted on my behalf, and I am serving as a PAGA representative. Prior to the filing of the complaint, I assisted my attorneys by discussing Artemis Headlands’ policies and practices, providing documents, answering questions, and coordinating with other representatives. My attorneys were accessible and responsive throughout the case.

10. I made myself available for mediation on May 20, 2025, before Judge Cole, which did not result in settlement due to Artemis Headlands’ failure to provide accurate and current sampling information. I again participated in mediation on August 14, 2025, with mediator Kelly Knight, at which time the parties reached a settlement. I discussed the settlement terms with my attorneys, understood my role in representing absent aggrieved employees, and sought the best possible outcome for the class. I believe the settlement provides a fair and favorable resolution. I reviewed and signed the long-form settlement agreement on December 8, 2025.

11. I actively participated in this litigation by remaining in contact with my attorneys and devoting substantial time to discovery and mediation efforts. Although I did not maintain a

1 precise record of my time, I estimate that I spent approximately ten (10) to twenty (20) hours
2 working on this case, and I understand additional time may be required. I believe I have fulfilled
3 my duties as a representative Plaintiff and will continue to act in the best interests of the class.

4 12. Considering the time and effort I devoted to this case, the risks associated with suing a
5 former employer, the potential impact on my future employment, the general release provided,
6 and the size of the settlement, I believe a representative service payment of five thousand dollars
7 ($5,000.00) is fair and reasonable. I also believe that the individual twenty thousand dollar
8 ($20,000.00) payment to Plaintiff Ruth Joy Segovia for her individual Retaliation claim is both 9 fair and reasonable.

11 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the 12 foregoing is true and correct. Executed on June 15, 2026, at San Diego, California.
