MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(s)(2), Plaintiff seeks the Court’s approval of the proposed Gross Settlement Amount of Two Hundred Ten Thousand Dollars ($210,000.00) for all inclusive, non-reversionary settlement of the Action including the PAGA Penalties, payment to Plaintiff for release of his individual claims, payment to Plaintiff as an aggrieved employee, PAGA Counsel, attorneys’ fees, litigation costs, administration costs, and a payment to the aggrieved employees and State of California under the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”). See Exhibit C to Declaration of Harris Emran (“Emran Decl.”). By way of this settlement, Plaintiff and Defendants (collectively the “Parties”) seek to fully and finally resolve alleged violations on a representative capacity on behalf of the State of California and all other Aggrieved Employees as defined in the Settlement Agreement. Emran Decl. ¶ 10. If approved, the proposed Settlement will resolve this matter in its entirety. Emran Decl. ¶ 10.

Defendants deny all claims, deny that Plaintiff is entitled to any recovery, and asserts affirmative defenses in response to Plaintiff’s claims. Emran Decl. ¶ 8. Nonetheless, having resolved the matter, the Parties hereby submit their PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”) to the Court for its approval. Emran Decl. ¶ 8.

Accordingly, the Parties requests the Court enter an order (1) finding the Settlement is fair and reasonable in light of the facts and evidence, (2) approving the form and method of settlement check administration to the alleged Aggrieved Employees, (3) finding all procedural requirements for PAGA settlement have been met, (4) dismissing the action with prejudice as to the named Plaintiff and the State and all other Aggrieved Employees as approved by the Court.

II. FACTS AND PROCEDURES

A. Plaintiff’s Contentions

Defendants own and operate a Ford car dealership selling new and pre-owned vehicles in Tracy, California. Emran Decl. ¶ 3. Defendants employed Plaintiff between May 2021 and April 2023 as a Financial Salesperson. Emran Decl. ¶ 3. Plaintiff contends Defendants committed numerous wage and hour violations against Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees. Emran Decl. ¶ 3. Specifically,

1 Plaintiff alleged Defendants systematically violated Plaintiff's and other Aggrieved Employees' 2 wage and hour rights by requiring employees to perform off-the-clock work, required these 3 employees to forfeit meal and rest periods to complete sales and close deals, and failed to reimburse 4 employees for personal cell phone use resulting in a failure to pay all wages when due and upon 5 termination, and inaccurate itemized wage statements. Emran Decl. ¶ 3.

6 B. Procedural History

7 On April 28, 2023, Plaintiff provided the Labor Workforce and Development Agency 8 ("LWDA") written notice by online filing and Defendants via certified mailing of specific 9 provisions of Lab. Code §§ 2699 et seq. alleged to be violated including the facts and theories to 10 support the alleged violation. See Emran Decl. ¶ 4; Ex. A and Ex. D. The LWDA did not provide 11 any notice of its intent to investigate the alleged violation within 65 calendar days of the postmark 12 date of the PAGA Notice. Emran Decl. ¶ 5.

13 On July 31, 2023, Plaintiff filed his individual and PAGA Complaint against Defendants 14 Dornoch Inc. ("Dornoch"), Thomas Nokes, and Brian Nokes (collectively "Defendants") alleging 15 violations of California Labor Code including (1) Unlawful Business Practices, (2) Failure to 16 Provide Required Rest Periods, (3) Failure to Provide Required Meal Periods, (4) Failure to 17 Reimburse Business Expenses (5) Failure to Pay Overtime Compensation, (6) Failure to Pay 18 Minimum Wages, (7) Failure to Pay Wages When Due, (8) Failure to Provide Accurate, Itemized
19 Wage Statements, (9) Fraud, and (10) Recovery of Civil Penalties under the Labor Code Private 20 Attorneys General Act. Emran Decl. ¶ 6; Ex. B.

21 On September 30, 2024, after meeting and conferring in preparation for arbitration of Plaintiff's 22 individual claims, the Parties agree to mediate Plaintiff's individual claims and the representative 23 claim brought under PAGA. Emran Decl. ¶ 7.

24 On April 14, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day mediation with the Hon. Steven Denton 25 (Ret.), a well-regarded and experienced mediator of wage and hour and PAGA actions. Emran Decl.
26 ¶ 8. At the conclusion of mediation, Hon. Steven Denton (Ret.) sent the parties a mediator's 27 proposal, which was subsequently was memorialized in a long form settlement agreement. Emran 28 Decl. ¶ 8; Ex. C to Emran Decl. Defendants deny all claims, deny that Plaintiff is entitled to any

1 recovery, and assert multiple affirmative defenses in response to Plaintiff's claims. Emran Decl. ¶
2 8. Nonetheless, having resolved the matter, the Parties hereby submit this PAGA Settlement
3 Agreement ("Settlement" or "Settlement Agreement") to the Court for its approval. Emran Decl. ¶
4 8.; Ex. C to Emran Decl.

5 At the same time of submission to the Court, my office submitted a copy of the Settlement
6 Agreement and this Motion to the LWDA website in accordance with Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).
7 Emran Decl. ¶ 9; Ex. D. By way of this settlement, Plaintiff seeks to fully and finally resolve alleged 8 violations on in a representative compacity on behalf of the State of California and all other 9 Aggrieved Employees as defined in the Settlement Agreement. Emran Decl. ¶ 10; See Ex. C. This 10 Settlement, if approved, will resolve the Action in its entirety. Emran Decl. ¶ 10; See Ex. C.

11 C. Investigation and Settlement Discussions

12 Between December 2024 and March 2025, Plaintiff's Counsel conducted a thorough 13 investigation into the claims and defenses of each party. Emran Decl. ¶ 11. Plaintiff expended 14 considerable time and effort advocating on behalf of himself and the alleged PAGA Aggrieved 15 Employees. Emran Decl. ¶ 11. Plaintiff contacted previous coworkers and asked individuals to serve 16 as a witness for him and corroborate his claims, he provided all documents and evidence in his 17 possession which included communications from Defendants during his employment regarding pay 18 and policies. Emran Decl. ¶ 11.

19 In anticipation of mediation, the Parties met and conferred over an agreeable mediator, the data 20 that would be exchanged, and the appropriate sample size. Emran Decl. ¶ 12. The Parties agreed to 21 a 25% random sample of Aggrieved Employee Data, which included 1) timecard data; 2) 22 corresponding pay records; 3) Plaintiff's daily time records; 4) Defendant's employee handbook; 23 and 5) aggrieved employee demographic information. Emran Decl. ¶ 12. Plaintiff further provided 24 the contact information for several former employees. Emran Decl. ¶ 12. One of Plaintiff's 25 identified witnesses was willing to provide a signed declaration for mediation. Emran Decl. ¶ 12.

26 Plaintiff's Counsel then retained the statisticians and economists at Berger Consulting Group 27 ("BCG") to evaluate the Aggrieved Employee payroll and time data. Emran Decl. ¶ 13. BCG
28 provides data analysis and damages modeling consulting services, specializing in PAGA and wage

1 and hour class actions. Emran Decl. ¶ 13. BCG's team of financial and data analysts are credentialed 2 and experienced experts in their fields and have provided their expertise on thousands of cases.
3 Emran Decl. ¶ 13.

4 BCG analyzed Defendants' time and payroll data to assist in the development of various 5 damages models. Emran Decl. ¶ 14. After Plaintiff's damage expert analyzed Defendant's data, 6 BCG concluded Defendants reimbursed cell phone use in 23.5% of the pay periods, the sales 7 employees earned enough in each pay period that they were exempt from overtime provisions, 8 Defendants failed to provide a second meal period for shifts worked in excess of 10 hours and in 9 excess of 12 hours in 100% of timecards analyzed. Emran Decl. ¶ 14. BCG's model determined the 10 approximate civil penalties for failure to reimburse, failure to provide meal periods, failure to 11 provide rest periods, waiting time penalties, and inaccurate itemized wage statements. Emran Decl.
12 ¶ 14.

13 Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed Plaintiff's payroll records and calculated Plaintiff's estimated 14 damages based on his oral testimony, regular rate of pay, and evidence in his possession. Emran 15 Decl. ¶ 15. Plaintiff's Counsel interviewed and met with a previous coworker who corroborated 16 each of Plaintiff's claims. Emran Decl. ¶ 15. Defendants maintained written policies regarding meal 17 and rest periods that are consistent with the law. Emran Decl. ¶ 15. Defendants' employee handbook 18 encourages employees to notify management if they are in any way discouraged or impeded from 19 taking their breaks. Emran Decl. ¶ 15.

20 Overall, Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the claims at issue, including: (1) 21 determining Plaintiff's suitability as a representative through interviews, background 22 investigations, and analysis of his employment files; (2) evaluating all of Plaintiff's potential 23 claims; (3) researching similar wage and hour PAGA actions as to the claims brought, the nature of 24 the positions, and the type of employer; (4) analyzing the Aggrieved Employees' time and payroll 25 records; (5) analyzing Defendants' labor policies and practices; (6) researching settlements in 26 similar cases as well as outstanding issues which could affect PAGA approval; (7) evaluating 27 Plaintiff's claims and estimating Defendant's liability for purposes of settlement; (8) drafting the 28 mediation brief; (9) obtaining a written declaration for mediation; and (10) participating in the 1 mediation. Emran Decl. ¶ 16. This investigation allowed Plaintiff's Counsel to fully assess the 2 nature and magnitude of the claims being settled, as well as the impediments to recovery, such as 3 to make an independent assessment of the reasonableness of the terms to which the Parties have 4 agreed. Emran Decl. ¶ 16.

5 The Parties Settlement Agreement is the final product of Hon. Steven Denton's (Ret.)
6 mediator's proposal. Emran Decl. ¶ 17. Objectively, the Settlement terms are fair, adequate and 7 represent a reasonable compromise of the claims at issue. Emran Decl. ¶ 17. The Parties represent 8 that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be 9 extinguished or affected by the Settlement. Emran Decl. ¶ 18.

10 III. SUMMARY OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

11 A. The Proposed Settlement Terms

12 The Parties have agreed, no later than fourteen (14) days after the Settlement Administrator 13 confirms the final Gross Settlement Amount, pursuant to the Escalator provision in Paragraph 8 of 14 the Agreement, Defendants will jointly and severally pay a Gross Settlement Amount of Two 15 Hundred Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($210,000.00). Emran Decl. Ex. C Sections 3.1 and 16 4.3 to Emran Decl. The Settlement Administrator will make and deduct the following payments 17 from the Gross Settlement Amount, in the amounts specified by the Court in the Final Approval, to 18 determine the Net Settlement Amount available for the LWDA PAGA Payment and Individual 19 PAGA Payment:

20 1) To Plaintiff: Plaintiff's Individual Settlement Payment to Plaintiff of Sixty-Five 21 Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($65,000.00) (in addition to any Individual PAGA 22 Payment Plaintiff is entitled to receive as an Aggrieved Employee). A determination 23 by the Court to approve a greater or lesser amount instead of this amount will neither 24 entitle either party to void the agreement nor impact the Gross Settlement Amount.
25 Emran Decl. Ex. C Section 3.2.1

26 i. Of the Individual Settlement Payment to Plaintiff, Six Thousand Five 27 Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($6,500.00) will be allocated to 28 compensation for Plaintiff's alleged wage damages, minus applicable

1 payroll tax withholdings. Plaintiff shall receive a Form W-2 for the 2 alleged wage damages. Of the Individual Settlement Payment to 3 Plaintiff, Thirty-Seven Thousand Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents 4 ($37,050.00) will be allocated to compensation for Plaintiff's alleged 5 non-wage damages. Plaintiff will receive a Form 1099 for his portion 6 of the alleged non-wage damages. Of the Individual Settlement
7 Payment to Plaintiff, Twenty-One Thousand Four Hundred Fifty 8 Dollars and Zero Cents ($21,450.00) shall be allocated toward the 9 attorney's fees and costs for the Emran Law Firm incurred by 10 PLAINTIFF (the "attorneys' fee payment"). The Emran Law Firm
11 shall receive a Form 1099 for the attorneys' fee payment. Emran 12 Decl. Ex. C Section 3.2.1.1.

- 13 2) To PAGA Counsel: A PAGA Counsel Fees Payment of not more than thirty-five 14 percent (35.00%) of the GSA less Plaintiff's Individual Settlement Payment, which 15 is currently estimated to be Fifty Thousand Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero 16 Cents ($50,750.00) and PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more 17 than Thirteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($13,500.00).
18 Defendant will not oppose requests for Court approval of these payments provided 19 that they do not exceed these amounts. If the Court approves a PAGA Counsel Fees 20 Payment and/or a PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment less than the 21 amounts requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net 22 Settlement Amount. Released Parties shall have no liability to PAGA Counsel or 23 any other Plaintiff's Counsel arising from any claim to any portion any PAGA 24 Counsel Fee Payment and/or PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. The 25 Administrator will pay the PAGA Counsel Fees Payment and PAGA Counsel 26 Expenses Payment using one or more IRS 1099 Forms. PAGA Counsel assumes full 27 responsibility and liability for taxes owed on the PAGA Counsel Fees Payment and 28 the PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and holds Defendant harmless, and

1 indemnifies Defendant, from any dispute or controversy regarding any division or 2 sharing of any of these Payments. A determination by the Court to approve a greater 3 or lesser amount instead of this amount will neither entitle either party to void the 4 agreement nor impact the Gross Settlement Amount. Emran Decl. Ex. C Section 5 3.2.2.

6 3) To the Settlement Administrator: An Administrator Expenses Payment not to exceed 7 Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($3,500.00) except for a 8 showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. To the extent the 9 Administration Expenses are less or the Court approves payment less than the noted 10 amount, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount.
11 A determination by the Court to approve a greater or lesser amount instead of this 12 amount will neither entitle either party to void the agreement nor impact the Gross 13 Settlement Amount. Emran Decl. Ex. C Section 3.2.3.

14 4) To the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: The PAGA Penalties will be paid from 15 the Gross Settlement Amount, after deducting the above amounts for PAGA Counsel
16 Fees Payment, PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, Administrator 17 Expenses Payment, and Plaintiff's Individual Settlement Payment, currently 18 estimated to be Seventy-Seven Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents 19 ($77,250.00) with 75% estimated to be Fifty Seven Thousand Nine Hundred Thirty-20 Seven Dollars and Fifty Cents ($57,937.50) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment 21 and 25% estimated to be Nineteen Thousand Three Hundred Twelve Dollars and 22 Fifty Cents ($19,312.50) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments. Emran Decl.
23 Ex. C Section 3.2.4.

- 24 i. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by 25 (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of 26 PAGA Penalties by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods
27 worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b)
28 multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period

1 Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and 2 liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.
3 Emran Decl. Ex. C Section 3.2.4.1.

4 B. Settlement/Release of Claims

5 The Parties have agreed, effective upon the date when Defendants fully fund the entire Gross 6 Settlement Amount, in exchange for the consideration set forth in this Agreement, Plaintiff, the 7 LWDA and the Aggrieved Employees will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

8 A. Plaintiff's Release: In addition to the claims released under Sections 6.2 (Responsibilities 9 of PAGA Counsel) and 6.3 (Duty to Cooperate), Plaintiff and Plaintiff's former and present 10 spouses, representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, 11 agree to a general release of any and all claims, transactions, or occurrences against Released 12 Parties—which will include without limitation any and all claims which in any way relate 13 to Plaintiff's employment with Defendant, under State or Federal law, in tort, common law, 14 statute, contract, or equity, whether pled in the Complaint or not, including but not limited 15 to any claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA"), Title VII, Americans with 16 Disabilities Act ("ADA"), Fair Employment and Housing Act ("FEHA"), Age
17 Discrimination in Employment Act ("ADEA"), Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA"), 18 California Labor Code, or any Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order—now existing 19 or arising in the future, based on any act, omission, event, occurrence, or nonoccurrence 20 from the beginning of time to the date of execution hereof ("Plaintiff's Release"). Plaintiff's 21 Release does not extend to any claims or actions to enforce this Agreement, or to any claims 22 for vested benefits, unemployment benefits, disability benefits, social security benefits, 23 workers' compensation benefits that arose at any time. Plaintiff acknowledges that Plaintiff 24 may discover facts or law different from, or in addition to, the facts or law that Plaintiff now 25 knows or believes to be true but agrees, nonetheless, that Plaintiff's Release shall be and 26 remain effective in all respects, notwithstanding such different or additional facts or 27 Plaintiff's discovery of them. Emran Decl. Ex C Section 5.1.
28

1 a. Plaintiff's Release additionally includes a Section 1542 Waiver. Emran Decl. Ex C
2 Section 5.1.1.

3 B. Release by LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: All Aggrieved Employees, the State of 4 California, and the LWDA are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their 5 respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, 6 successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were 7 alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative 8 Complaint and the PAGA Notices during the PAGA Period, including claims for (1) failure 9 to reimburse expenses, (2) failure to pay wages promptly or when due, (3) failure to maintain 10 and provide accurate, itemized wage statements, (4) failure to compensate missed rest 11 periods; (5) failure to pay overtime wages; and (6) any and all claims arising out of or related 12 to the following sections of the California Labor Code: 201, 202, 203, 204, 206, 210, 226, 13 226.7, 510, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1198, 1198.5, 2699(a), 2699(f), and 2802. Emran Decl. Ex 14 C Section 5.2.

15 IV. LEGAL ANALYSIS

16 Under PAGA, an aggrieved employee may bring a civil action personally and on behalf of other 17 current or former employees to recover civil penalties for Labor Code violations. Iskanian v. CLS
18 Transp. Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal.4th 348, 380. Seventy-five percent of any penalties
19 recovered go to the LWDA, leaving the remaining twenty-five percent for the employees. Id. PAGA 20 is intended "to augment the limited enforcement capability of [the LWDA] by empowering 21 employees to enforce the Labor Code as representatives of the Agency." Id. at 59 Cal. 4th 383. A 22 judgment [or Court-approved settlement] in a PAGA action binds all those, including nonparty 23 aggrieved employees, who would be bound by a judgment in an action brought by the government.
24 Id. at 381.

25 Based on the California Supreme Court's holdings in Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th
26 969 and Iskanian v. CLS Transportation Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal.4th 348, there is no
27 requirement under PAGA for Plaintiff to establish the requirements of class certification (i.e., 28 numerosity, typicality, commonality, and adequacy) nor is there the usual two-step preliminary and

1 final approval process as found in class actions. Rather, a PAGA settlement merely requires a one-2 step review and approval by the Court. Id.

3 The California Supreme Court has said in this context that “any negotiated resolution [must be] 4 fair to those affected.” Williams v. Superior Ct. (2017) 3 Cal. 5th 531, 549. However, it may be 5 substantially discounted given that courts often exercise their discretion to award PAGA penalties
6 below the statutory maximum even where a claim succeeds at trial. Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2
7 (2008) 163 Cal. App. 4th 1157, 1213, (“Section 2699, subdivision (e)(2) provides that in an action 8 by an aggrieved employee to recover PAGA penalties, the court ‘may award a lesser amount than 9 the maximum civil penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of 10 the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, 11 or confiscatory.’”) See also, Lopez v. Friant & Assocs., LLC (2017) 15 Cal. App. 5th 773, 787, 12 (recognizing the trial court’s discretion to reduce PAGA penalties).

13 Under Labor Code § 2699(s)(2), the Parties must obtain approval of their PAGA settlement 14 from the Court and hereby seek the Court’s approval. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699(e)(1), 15 the Court has wide discretion regarding the amount of the PAGA penalty (See also Thurman v.
16 Bayshore Transit Management (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1136 [standard of review is abuse of 17 discretion].) The primary objective of a PAGA action “is to supplement enforcement actions by 18 public agencies, which lack adequate resources to bring all such actions themselves.” Arias v.
19 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 980-981, 986. “Restitution is not the primary object of a 20 PAGA action, as it is in most class actions.” Franco v. Athens Disposal Co., Inc. (2009) 171 21 Cal.App.4th 1277,1300 (emphasis added). Rather, a PAGA action is “fundamentally a law 22 enforcement action designed to protect the public and penalize the employer for past illegal 23 conduct.” Id. Prior to the enactment of PAGA, the California Legislature determined that it lacked 24 adequate financing to enforce California labor laws and in order “to achieve maximum compliance 25 with state labor laws,” it declared that it was in the public interest to allow employees, acting as 26 private attorneys general, to recover civil penalties that otherwise would have been assessed and 27 collected by the LWDA. Arias, 46 Cal.4th at 980-981.

1 Labor Code § 2699(s)(2) provides that the Superior Court shall review and approve any 2 settlement of any civil action filed pursuant to the PAGA. Although PAGA actions bear a superficial
3 resemblance to a type of class action, there are several factors distinguishing representative PAGA
4 actions and class actions. First a representative action under PAGA is fundamentally a law 5 enforcement action designed to protect the public and penalize the employer for past illegal conduct.
6 See Franco v. Athens Disposal Co., Inc., (2009) 171 Cal. App. 4th 1277, 1300. The purpose is not 7 to collect damages on behalf of other employees or provide restitution to victims of Labor Code
8 violations. Id. (“Restitution is not the primary object of a PAGA action, as it is in most class 9 actions.”). Moreover, there is no requirement that the Court apply the same level of scrutiny in 10 approving a PAGA settlement as it does with class actions. Indeed, the California Supreme Court 11 has held that an employee who sues an employer under the PAGA need not satisfy class action 12 requirements. Arias, 46 Cal. 4th at 974. For example, “PAGA has no notice requirements for 13 unnamed aggrieved employees, nor may such employees opt out of a PAGA action.” Baumann v.
14 Chase Inv. Servs. Corp., 747 F.3d 1117, 1122 (9th Cir. 2014).

15 A. Plaintiff Submitted a Copy of the Settlement to the LWDA

16 Labor Code § 2699(s)(2) requires that any proposed settlement of a PAGA action be submitted 17 to the LWDA. Plaintiff completed this requirement by submitting a copy of the PAGA Settlement 18 to the LWDA through its online submission at the same time this was submitted to the court. Emran 19 Decl. ¶ 9; Ex D to Emran Decl.

20 B. The LWDA Did Not Investigate Plaintiff’s PAGA Claims

21 The Labor Code requires that a proposed PAGA settlement be sent to the LWDA at the same 22 time that it is submitted to the Superior Court for review and approval. Lab. Code § 2699(1)(2).
23 However, the Labor Code does not authorize the LWDA to interfere with, obstruct, object, or 24 otherwise impede a request for approval of a PAGA settlement. Indeed, the time for the LWDA to 25 comment on a settlement is during the short window in which it must inform the aggrieved 26 employee that it declines to investigate. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(B). Once that window shuts, the 27 aggrieved employee is deputized to act on behalf of the LWDA in a civil action.

1 The Labor Code is clear that all that is required to obtain court approval of a PAGA settlement
2 is for the proposed settlement to be sent to the LWDA. Lab. Code § 2699(1)(2). Here, the LWDA 3 had opportunity to investigate and obtain civil penalties by citation after Plaintiff submitted his 4 PAGA notice to the LWDA. Emran Decl. ¶ 4-5. “If the [LWDA] intends to investigate the alleged 5 violation, it shall notify the employer and the aggrieved employee or representative by certified 6 mail of its decision within 65 calendar days of the postmark date of the notice.” Lab. Code §
7 2699.3(a)(2)(B). All that is required now regarding LWDA involvement is for the requisite
8 documentation to be submitted to the LWDA pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(1)(2) which Plaintiff’s 9 counsel has completed. Emran Decl. ¶ 9; Ex D to Emran Decl.

10 C. This Settlement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

11 A plaintiff suing under PAGA does so as the proxy or agent of the State of California to enforce 12 labor laws on behalf of the state’s law enforcement agencies. Iskanian v. CLS Transportation Los 13 Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal.4th 348, 380-381. As a result of Plaintiff’s Counsel’s efforts, Plaintiff’s
14 PAGA action undoubtedly achieved the primary objective of a PAGA action when Plaintiff’s 15 Counsel supplemented the State of California’s enforcement action by filing the PAGA complaint 16 on the behalf of Plaintiff and the State of California and utilizing its law firm’s resources to litigate
17 the action against the Defendants in an effort to compel maximum compliance with California labor 18 laws. See Arias, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 980-981.

19 A presumption of fairness exists as the Settlement was reached through extensive, mediated 20 arm’s-length negotiations; sufficient investigation and discovery allowed Plaintiff’s counsel to act 21 intelligently, and Plaintiff’s counsel is experienced in similar wage-and-hour litigation. Dunk v.
22 Ford Motor Company (1996) 48 Cal. App 4th 1794, 1802. Additionally, settlement approval is 23 appropriate as the proposed Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to Plaintiff and the 24 Aggrieved Employees.

25 The Parties participated in mediation the highly respected Mediator the Hon. Steven Denton 26 (Ret.) who managed the Parties’ expectations and provided a useful, neutral analysis of the issues 27 and risks to both sides. Emran Decl. ¶ 19. (In re Apple Computer, Inc. Derivative Litig, No. C 06-28 4128 JF (HRL), 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 108195 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 5, 2008) (mediator’s participation weighs considerably against any inference of a collusive settlement); D'Amato v. Deutsche Bank (2d. Cir. 2001) 236 F.3d 78, 85 (a “mediator’s involvement in pre-certification settlement negotiations helps to ensure that the proceedings were free of collusion and undue pressure.”). The Settlement is a compromise by both parties and reached after a day of informed, non-collusive, arms-length negotiation and a result of a mediator’s proposal. Emran Decl. ¶ 19. The Settlement reflects a reasonable assessment of the risks for each, as well as the recognition that continued litigation will cause extensive and costly discovery for all parties and further litigation would cause inconvenience, distraction, disruption, delay and expense disproportionate to the potential benefits of litigation. Emran Decl. ¶ 19.

Counsel in this action is of opinion that Settlement for the consideration and on the terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in light of all known facts and circumstances reasonably considering the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled, and the role of judicial discretion, and the various potential impediments to recovery. Emran Decl. ¶ 20. Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s counsel conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the Action, including by informal discovery exchange which requested information from Defendants in order to evaluate the potential damages and for respective counsel to engage in meaningful mediation with the assistance of Hon. Steven Denton (Ret.). Emran Decl. ¶ 21. In addition to informal discovery, document review, interviewing Aggrieved Employees, data analysis and legal research including multiple exchanges with BCG to identify all claims, and research similar cases. Emran Decl. ¶ 21. Although no two cases are identical, this research provided Plaintiff’s Counsel with a marker to inform settlement discussions and, ultimately, to measure this settlement against. Emran Decl. ¶ 21. The investigation allowed Plaintiff’s Counsel to realistically assess the value of Plaintiff’s claims and intelligently engage defense counsel in settlement discussions that culminated in the proposed settlement now before the Court. Emran Decl. ¶ 21.

Approval of the Parties’ Settlement Agreement is warranted because counsel for all Parties agree that the amount allocated for civil penalties under PAGA, currently estimated to be at least Seventy-Seven Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($77,250.00), is fair and

1 reasonable considering Defendants’ compliant employment policies and practices PAGA period, 2 the settlement was negotiated as part of an informed, non-collusive, arms-length negotiation 3 following mediation with Hon. Steven Denton (Ret.), the uniqueness of Plaintiff’s injuries which 4 may have undermined her individual and representative claim, the ability for alleged “aggrieved 5 employees” to bring their own claims for non-PAGA claims, the consideration of 166 aggrieved 6 employees, and 6,000 total pay periods impacted by the Settlement, and Plaintiff’s counsel risk of 7 obtaining full recovery of claimed PAGA penalties in light of Defendants’ disclosures. Emran Decl.
8 ¶ 23. This amount is large enough to punish Defendants for alleged previous violations and to deter 9 such alleged conduct in the future and still allows Aggrieved Employees to seek recovery of any 10 individual claims they may have. Emran Decl. ¶ 23.

11 Continuing to litigate this action would require continued and extensive resources coupled with 12 significant Court time to proceed through trial and post-trial motions; which can often take years.
13 Emran Decl. ¶ 24. Furthermore, wage and hour litigation is complex and expensive, as it often 14 necessitates extensive expert testimony, particularly with regards to damages. Emran Decl. ¶ 24.
15 But even if Plaintiff is successful at trial, Plaintiff is acutely aware that a judgment does not end the 16 litigation. Plaintiff fully expects that Defendant would appeal any favorable judgment. Emran Decl.
17 ¶ 24. As demonstrated by Magadia, 999 F.3d 668, the risk of an appeal and subsequent reversal is 18 real. Emran Decl. ¶ 24.

19 Here, both Parties’ counsel has experience in employment litigation, specifically PAGA 20 litigation, and conducted an extensive investigation of the factual allegations involved in this case.
21 Emran Decl. ¶ 22. Each side has apprised the other, informally of their respective factual 22 contentions, legal theories and defenses, resulting in extensive arms-length negotiations taking 23 place among the Parties. Emran Decl. ¶ 22. Accordingly, the Parties respectfully request the Court 24 approve the PAGA Settlement Agreement and this Motion.

25 D. The Requested Attorneys’ Fees and Costs are also Reasonable.

26 1. Legal Standard for Attorneys’ Fee Awards in Representative Actions

27 PAGA allows a prevailing plaintiff to obtain attorneys’ fees and costs. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g).
28 The U.S. Supreme Court has recognized that “a lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit

1 of persons other than himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee from the fund as 2 a whole.” Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert (U.S. 1980) 444 U.S. 472, 478. Accord, Serrano v. Priest
3 [Serrano III] (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 38 (trial courts have equitable power to award attorneys’ fees 4 and costs when a litigation proceeding in a representative capacity secures a substantial benefit).
5 The purpose of the “common fund doctrine” is not only to reward effective legal advocacy but to 6 “spread litigation costs proportionally among all of the beneficiaries” preventing unjust enrichment.
7 Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769. Both state and federal courts in 8 California have embraced the common fund doctrine. E.g, Roos v. Honeywell Internat., Inc. (2015)
9 241 Cal.App.4th 1472, 1490.

10 California courts routinely award attorneys’ fees equaling one-third or more of the potential 11 value of the common fund. See Laffitte v. Robert Half Internat., Inc., 1 Cal. 5th 480 (2016) (affirming 12 a fee award representation one-third of the common fund). In Laffitte v. Robert Half Internat., Inc., 13 the California Supreme Court “join[ed] the overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in 14 holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 15 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 16 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 17 fund created.” Laffitte v. Robert Half Internat., Inc. (2016) 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503. Plaintiff submits 18 that this guidance should equally apply to representative actions under PAGA.

19 In Plaintiff’s view, Lafitte stands for the proposition that a trial judge may rely on his or her 20 discretion and utilize either the percentage method, the lodestar method, or both to calculate a 21 reasonable attorney’s fee. Furthermore, should a lodestar crosscheck be elected, the trial court does 22 not abuse its discretion whether it chooses to “perform[] the cross-check using counsel declarations 23 summarizing overall time spent” or opts to do a more detailed analysis of daily time sheets. Id. at 24 505. Indeed, “[t]he choice of a fee calculation method is generally one within the discretion of the 25 trial court, the goal...being the award of a reasonable fee to compensate counsel for their efforts.”
26 Id. at 504. Laffitte affirmed a fee award representing 33 and 1/3 percent of the fund. Laffitte. Id. at 27 506. And this was based on a lodestar amount that required a multiplier of 2.13. Id. at 487. As the 28 Court held, only when the multiplier is “extraordinarily high or low [should] the trial court []

1 consider whether the percentage method should be adjusted so as to bring the imputed multiplier 2 within a justifiable range.” Id. at 505.

3 2. 35% of the Net Settlement Amount and the Request Costs Reimbursement Are 4 Appropriate and Should be Awarded.

5 The requested percentage fee is reasonable and should be awarded as confirmed by relevant 6 case law and when compared with counsel’s lodestar. Plaintiff’s counsel requests 35% fee or Fifty 7 Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,750.00). This is not an “extraordinarily high 8 or low” multiplier, so the Court is not compelled to adjust the percentage fee request in order to get 9 the multiplier to a “justifiable range.” Laffitte 1 Cal. 5th at 505.

10 “While the percentage method has been generally approved in common fund cases, courts have 11 sought to ensure the percentage fee is reasonable by refining the choice of a percentage or by 12 checking the percentage result against a lodestar- multiplier calculation.” Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th 13 480, 494-495.

14 Plaintiff’s Counsel took this matter on a contingency fee basis and invested significant time and 15 expense successfully prosecuting Plaintiff’s individual and representative claims. Emran Decl. ¶ 16 25. Considering the positive outcome for the Aggrieved Employees, and in light of the supporting 17 authority, the proposed Attorneys’ Fees and Expenses are fair and reasonable. Emran Decl. ¶ 25.
18 As part of the Settlement Agreement, the Parties agreed to an award of attorneys’ fees equal to 35% 19 of the Gross Settlement Amount, which equals Fifty Thousand Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars and 20 Zero Cents ($50,750.00). Emran Decl. Ex. C ¶ 3.2.1. Defendants additionally agreed to PAGA
21 Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than Thirteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars
22 and Zero Cents ($13,500.00). Emran Decl. Ex. C ¶ 3.2.1

23 In defining a reasonable fee, the Court should mimic the marketplace for cases involving a 24 significant contingent risk such as this one. Emran Decl. ¶ 27. Our legal system places unique 25 reliance on private litigants to enforce substantive provisions of employment law through PAGA 26 actions. Emran Decl. ¶ 27. Therefore, attorneys providing these substantial benefits should be paid 27 an award equal to the amount negotiated in private bargaining that takes place in the legal 28 marketplace. Emran Decl. ¶ 27.

1 There is a substantial difference between the risk assumed by attorneys being paid by the hour 2 and attorneys working on a contingent fee basis. Emran Decl. ¶ 28. The attorney being paid by the 3 hour can go to the bank with his fee while the attorney working on a contingent basis can only log 4 hours while working without pay towards a result that will hopefully entitle him to a marketplace
5 contingent fee taking into account the risk and other factors of the undertaking. Emran Decl. ¶ 28.
6 Otherwise, the contingent fee attorney receives nothing. Emran Decl. ¶ 28. In this case, PAGA
7 Counsel subjected themselves to this contingent fee market risk in this all or nothing contingent fee 8 case wherein the necessity and financial burden of private enforcement makes the requested award 9 appropriate. Emran Decl. ¶ 28. The contingent fee practices of PAGA Counsel do not accommodate 10 the investment of unnecessary time in a case. Emran Decl. ¶ 28. This case was litigated on a 11 contingent basis with all of the concomitant risk factors inherent in such an uncertain undertaking.
12 Emran Decl. ¶ 28.

13 A number of difficult issues, the adverse resolution of any one of which could have doomed the 14 successful prosecution of the action, were present here. Emran Decl. ¶ 29. Attorneys' fees in this 15 case were not only contingent but risky, with a very real chance that PAGA Counsel would receive 16 nothing at all for their efforts, having devoted time and advanced costs. Emran Decl. ¶ 29. PAGA 17 Counsel has previously invested in cases which resulted in no recovery. Emran Decl. ¶ 29.

18 At the time this case was brought, the result was far from certain. Emran Decl. ¶ 30. Defendants'
19 practice at issue here had been in place for years. Emran Decl. ¶ 30. A number of defenses asserted 20 by Defendants presented serious threats to Plaintiff's claims and Plaintiff's ability to stand as a 21 PAGA representative and created difficulties with complex legal issues for PAGA Counsel to 22 overcome. Emran Decl. ¶ 30. Defendants asserted that the employment practices complied with all 23 applicable Labor Laws. Emran Decl. ¶ 30. The vast majority of the damages alleged to have been 24 suffered by the Aggrieved Employees and Plaintiff are attributed to missed meal and rest breaks.
25 Emran Decl. ¶ 30. Before and during the mediation, Defendant aggressively argued that 26 Defendant's policies and culture afforded the Aggrieved Employees an opportunity to take timely 27 meal and rest breaks, and that employees like the Plaintiff chose not to take compliant breaks.
28 Emran Decl. ¶ 30. Because Plaintiff's claims were largely based on the missed breaks, and because

1 Defendant's policies were, on their face compliant, this presented a very real concern for Plaintiff
2 and the Aggrieved Employees. Emran Decl. ¶ 30. Defendants argued the caselaw under PAGA
3 grants the Court discretion to reduce or forego penalties for such "technical" violations. Emran
4 Decl. ¶ 30. Finally, the typical ebb and flow of business means employees generally have slow 5 periods during which they take breaks to play on their phones, go out for a smoke, or both, over the 6 course of the shift. Emran Decl. ¶ 30. If successful, this defense could eliminate or substantially 7 reduce any recovery to the Aggrieved Employees. Emran Decl. ¶ 30. While Plaintiff believes that 8 this defense, and others, could be overcome, Defendant maintain these defenses have merit and 9 therefore present a serious risk to recovery. Emran Decl. ¶ 30.

10 The Settlement was possible only because PAGA Counsel was able to persuade Defendants that 11 there was an appreciable risk that PAGA Counsel would prevail on the factual and legal issues
12 underlying liability, demonstrate Plaintiff's injuries to collect on behalf of the Aggrieved 13 Employees and the LWDA, and overcome difficulties in proof as to monetary relief. Emran Decl.
14 ¶ 31. In successfully navigating these hurdles so as to convince Defendants to settle, PAGA Counsel 15 displayed skills consistent with those that might be expected of attorneys of comparable 16 employment and PAGA experience. Emran Decl. ¶ 31.

17 PAGA Counsel was required to advance all costs in this litigation. Emran Decl. ¶ 32. The 18 financial burdens undertaken by PAGA Counsel in prosecution this action on behalf of the LWDA 19 and Aggrieved Employees were very substantial. Emran Decl. ¶ 32. To date, PAGA Counsel has 20 advanced more than $12,566.69 in costs which could not have been recovered if this case had been 21 lost. Emran Decl. ¶ 32. These litigation expenses include the expenses reasonably incurred for filing 22 fees, mediation fees, expert fees, postage, and litigation support vendors, all of which are costs 23 normally billed to and paid by the client. Emran Decl. ¶ 32. Plaintiff and PAGA Counsel undertook 24 the risk of liability for Defendants' costs had this case not succeeded, as well as other potential 25 negative financial ramifications from having come forward to sue Defendants on behalf of the 26 Aggrieved Employees. Emran Decl. ¶ 32. Accordingly, the contingent nature of the fee and 27 financial burdens on PAGA Counsel support the requested award. Emran Decl. ¶ 32.

1 In this case, the reasonableness of the requested attorneys' fee of 35% of the Gross Settlement 2 Amount equaling Fifty Thousand Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,750.00) is 3 established by reference to PAGA Counsel's lodestar in this matter. Emran Decl. ¶ 33. The 4 contemporaneous billing records for PAGA Counsel evidence that as of the date of this total lodestar
5 is $46,922.70 with additional fees still to be incurred. Emran Decl. ¶ 33. The requested fee award
6 is therefore close to PAGA Counsel's overall lodestar. Emran Decl. ¶ 33. As a result, this Court
7 should appropriately conclude that an award which compares favorably to PAGA Counsel's overall 8 lodestar is fair and reasonable and is justified under California law. Emran Decl. ¶ 33.

9 The charges are reasonable and were reasonably necessary to the conduct of the case. Emran
10 Decl. ¶ 34; Ex. E to Emran Decl. From approximately April 2023 and June 2025, PAGA Counsel 11 has worked more than 131.62 hours prosecuting these claims with the attorneys' hourly fee rates 12 for attorneys between $450 per hour and $550 per hour, resulting in current attorneys' fees equaling
13 $46,922.70, with additional time and costs expected including attending the hearing for this Motion, 14 coordinating administration, finalizing the orders and judgment, monitoring completion of the 15 settlement process, and any subsequent compliance hearings. Emran Decl. ¶ 34; Ex. E to Emran 16 Decl. PAGA Counsel's additional work, estimated to add an additional $5,000 - $10,000 in 17 attorneys' fees, brings the multiplier down even lower. Emran Decl. ¶ 34. PAGA Counsel's rates 18 are in line with the prevailing rates of attorneys in the local legal community for similar work and,
19 if this were a commercial matter, these are the charges that would be made and presented to the 20 client. Emran Decl. ¶ 34. These hourly rates have been approved by Court's throughout California, 21 including those in the Superior Court of California. Emran Decl. ¶ 34.

22 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are represented by competent and experienced counsel
23 to pursue their claims. Emran Decl. ¶ 35. PAGA Counsel have extensively litigated similar labor 24 law cases against other employers on behalf of aggrieved employees. Emran Decl. ¶ 38. PAGA
25 Counsel must be extremely familiar and knowledgeable with wage and hour laws, litigation 26 practices, case law, policy, statutory construction, employer practices, employee needs, employee 27 working conditions, and more. Emran Decl. ¶ 38. With this learned knowledge, PAGA Counsel 28 must strategize which cases to settle pre-litigation or post-litigation, which to mediate, and which

1 cases to take to trial. Emran Decl. ¶ 38. It is this level of experience which enabled the firms to 2 undertake the instant matter and to successfully combat the resources of the defendant and their 3 capable and experienced counsel. Emran Decl. ¶ 38. PAGA Counsel strongly believes in the 4 vigorous prosecution of our cases, including this case, for the best interest of our clients, and any 5 aggrieved employees. Emran Decl. ¶ 38. Plaintiff's counsel undertook this matter purely as a 6 contingency fee case. Emran Decl. ¶ 40. In other words, Plaintiff's counsel will not receive any 7 compensation unless there is a cash recovery. Emran Decl. ¶ 40. Plaintiff was asked or required to 8 pay Plaintiff's counsel any money unless there is a recovery on his behalf. Emran Decl. ¶ 40.

9 The requested fee award, agreed to by the parties as part of the Settlement, should be approved.
10 Emran Decl. ¶ 39. The requested fee award was bargained for during arms' length adversarial 11 bargaining by counsel for each of the parties as part of the Settlement. Emran Decl. ¶ 39.
12 Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court approve PAGA Counsel Fees Payment.

13 V. CONCLUSION

14 Based on the foregoing, the Parties respectfully request the Court grant this motion and 15 approve the Parties' Settlement Agreement.
