I, Eric B. Kingsley, state and declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney admitted before all courts of the State of California and a partner in the law firm of Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers, counsel of record for Plaintiff in this action. I am completely familiar with the present litigation, including the pleadings, discovery, and filings submitted in this matter. I make this Declaration from my own personal knowledge, and, if called upon, I could and would competently testify to the following.

2. I graduated from the University of California, Santa Barbara, in 1993 with a degree in History. I graduated from Loyola Law School of Los Angeles in 1996. I am admitted to practice before the following Courts: United States Supreme Court; United States District Court, Northern, Eastern, Southern and Central of California; all California State Courts.

3. I make this Declaration in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Class Action Settlement in the above-captioned case.

RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY

4. On April 14, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint alleging causes of action for: (1) failure to pay wages and/or overtime; (2) failure to provide lawful meal breaks; (3) failure to provide lawful rest breaks; (4) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (5) waiting time penalties; and (6) unfair business practices.

5. Also on April 14, 2023, Plaintiff sent a notice letter, pursuant to Labor Code § 2699 (to the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) regarding her intent to seek civil penalties for the same Labor Code violations above, under Labor Code § 2699, et seq.

6. On June 20, 2023, Plaintiff then filed the First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“FAC”) adding an additional cause of action for penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) based on the underlying Labor Code violations already pled.

THE DISCOVERY PROCESS

7. The Parties have yet to engage in formal discovery, instead focusing their efforts on resolving this case through early mediation.

1 8. On May 8, 2024, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation presided over by
2 Monique Ngo-Bonnici, which led to the Agreement to settle the Action. While the Action did not
3 settle on the day of mediation, the Parties continued in arms-length negotiations with the help of 4 the mediator to ultimately reach this settlement.

5 9. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff obtained, through informal discovery, time and pay
6 records, employment records, employee handbooks, and Defendant's financial information.

7 10. Defendant denies any liability or wrongdoing of any kind associated with the claims
8 alleged in the Action, disputes the damages and penalties claimed by Plaintiff, and further contends
9 that, for any purpose other than settlement, Plaintiff's claims are not appropriate for class or 10 representative action treatment. Defendant contends, among other things, that, at all times, it has 11 complied with the California Labor Code, and the Industrial Wage Commission Orders.

12 11. Based on their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of 13 the opinion that the Agreement with Defendant is fair, reasonable and adequate, and in the best
14 interest of the settlement classes in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk
15 of significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendant, uncertainties regarding a class and 16 representative action trial on the merits, and numerous potential appellate issues. Although 17 Defendant denies any liability, Defendant is agreeing to this Agreement solely to avoid the cost of 18 litigation. Accordingly, the Parties and their counsel desire to fully, finally, and forever settle,
19 compromise and discharge all disputes and claims arising from or relating to the Action on the 20 terms set forth here.

21 CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES

22 12. Plaintiff maintains that the proposed Settlement Class is ascertainable for several 23 reasons: Defendant has agreed in the Agreement to provide a class list to the Administrator
24 containing the name, last known mailing address, social security number, and number of Class
25 Period Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods for all putative class members after issuance of the 26 preliminary approval order.

27 13. Settlement Class Member consist of Defendant's hourly employees, and Defendant
28 is required to keep records of its hourly employees' names, home addresses, and social security

1 numbers.

2 14. Defendant informally produced time and pay records, employment records, and
3 employee handbooks for Settlement Class Members containing class member contact information,
4 which confirms that all Settlement Class Member may be readily identified based on Defendant's 5 records.

6 15. Therefore, Plaintiff is confident she will be able to establish that the proposed 7 Settlement Class is ascertainable and sufficiently numerous.

8 16. Plaintiff argues that there are questions of law and fact common to the proposed 9 Settlement Class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class Members.

10 17. These common questions include:

- 11 1) Whether Defendant failed to pay all wages and/or overtime compensation;
- 12 2) Whether Defendant failed to provide lawfully required meal periods and/or failed
- 13 to compensate employees one (1) hour's wages in lieu thereof;
- 14 3) Whether Defendant failed to provide lawfully required rest periods and/or failed to
- 15 compensate employees one (1) hour's wages in lieu thereof;
- 16 4) Whether Defendant failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements;
- 17 5) Whether Defendant failed to pay compensation due and owing upon termination
- 18 of employment;
- 19 6) Whether Defendant engaged in unfair competition; and,
- 20 7) Whether Defendant violated § 2699, et seq. of the Labor Code by engaging in the
- 21 acts previously alleged.

22 18. Plaintiff's challenge to Defendant's uniform policies and practices involves 23 common factual and legal issues that are amenable to class treatment.

24 19. Plaintiff maintains that the proposed Settlement Class Members suffered the same
25 injuries, in the same manner: (1) Settlement Class Members were not properly paid all 26 wages/overtime; (2) Settlement Class Members did not receive their meal and rest periods as 27 required; (3) Settlement Class Members were not provided accurate itemized wage statements; and 28 (4) Settlement Class Members were not paid all wages owed upon termination/resignation.

1 20. Accordingly, for purposes of settlement, certification for settlement purposes is 2 appropriate.

3 21. Plaintiff worked as an “hourly employee” for Defendant as a case manager.

4 22. Plaintiff alleges that she: (1) worked without being paid all wages and/or overtime;
5 (2) worked without being provided meal/rest periods as required by law; (3) worked without being
6 provided accurate itemized wage statements; and (4) worked without being paid all wages due
7 upon separation. Plaintiff also alleges that she experienced derivative claims for unfair business
8 competition (B&P Code §17200) and Labor Code §2699, et seq.

9 23. Plaintiff also contends that her claims are typical of those of the Settlement Class.

10 24. Plaintiff believes that she is capable of fairly representing and adequately protecting 11 the interests of the proposed Settlement Class Members.

12 25. The members of the proposed Settlement Class all worked for Defendant during 13 the relevant time period and incurred the same type of alleged damages with regard to Defendant’s 14 alleged violations of the law.

15 26. Moreover, Plaintiff has agreed to serve as Class Representative and has retained
16 qualified Counsel who is experienced in prosecuting wage and hour class actions.

17 27. This demonstrates her commitment to bringing about the best possible results for 18 the benefit of the proposed Settlement Class.

19 28. Plaintiff has provided her Counsel with all necessary and pertinent information.

20 29. Plaintiff has been a very active participant in the litigation including having 21 frequent contact with Settlement Class Members, and working closely with Class Counsel to 22 develop the theories of liability.

23 30. Therefore, Plaintiff believes that she has and will continue to adequately represent 24 the proposed Settlement Class Members.

25 31. In this regard, the superiority of class treatment is evident here because individual
26 pursuit of class members’ claims may not be economically viable.

27 32. The only alternative to certification would be to force over 675 employees to join 28 this action, file individual, uniform actions, or abandon their legal rights altogether.

1 33. Plaintiff maintains that this economic reality would result in a windfall for 2 Defendant if this case were not certified.

3 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

4 34. For purposes of Agreement, the settlement class is defined as: “All persons who are 5 employed or have been employed as an hourly employee by NORTH VALLEY BEHAVIORAL
6 HEALTH, LLC, in the State of California from April 14, 2019 to the earlier of preliminary
7 approval or March 7, 2025.”

8 35. The Class Period means the period from April 14, 2019 to March 7, 2025 or the 9 date of preliminary approval, whichever is earlier.

10 36. As of April 29, 2025, (the date all Parties signed the Agreement), and based on 11 documents and other information produced by Defendant, there are approximately 675 Settlement
12 Class Members who collectively worked a total of 35,326 Workweeks.

13 37. The Parties have also agreed on an escalator provision. If the actual number of 14 Compensable workweeks worked by the Proposed Class during the Class Release Period increases
15 beyond 10%, Defendant shall have the option of (a) increasing the Gross Settlement Amount by 16 the percentage increase in the number of workweeks worked by the class members above 10%
17 (e.g. if the number of workweeks increases by 11%, the Gross Settlement Amount will increase 18 by 1%) or (b) rolling back the Class Release Period and PAGA Release Period to the date in which 19 38,859 workweeks are met. If Defendant elects not to increase the Gross Settlement Amount
20 proportionately, Defendant shall notify Class Counsel of its decision in writing within ten (10)
21 days of receiving the number of Class Members from the Administrator. Within ten (10) days of 22 receipt of such written notice from Defendant, Plaintiff shall have the option to terminate this 23 Settlement Agreement via written notice to Defense Counsel and the Parties will be restored to 24 their positions prior to the Settlement and the Settlement shall be null and void.

25 38. For purposes of the Agreement, the Aggrieved Employees are defined as: “All
26 persons who are employed or have been employed as an hourly employee by NORTH VALLEY
27 BEHAVIORAL HEALTH, LLC, in the State of California from April 14, 2022 to the earlier of 28 preliminary approval or March 7, 2025.”

39. The PAGA Period means the period from April 14, 2019 to March 7, 2025 or the date of preliminary approval, whichever is earlier.

40. Based on documents and other information produced by Defendant in connection with the mediation and the negotiation of the Settlement Agreement, there are approximately 486 Aggrieved Employees who collectively worked a total of 15,245 PAGA Pay Periods.

41. The reference to Section 6.3 of the Agreement is an inadvertent typo and should be a reference to Section 5.3 which covers the Released PAGA Claims.

42. As detailed fully in the Agreement, the Settlement provides for Defendant to pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $700,000.00, which includes the sum of the Individual Class Payments, the Class Representative service award, the Class Counsel Award, PAGA Payment, and the Settlement Administration Costs.

43. The Net Settlement Amount is the Gross Settlement Amount, less Class Counsel Award, Class Representative Enhancement, PAGA Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs.

KULLAR ANALYSIS

44. The proposed settlement satisfies each of the Kullar factors.

45. This discovery permitted Class Counsel to fairly evaluate the strength of the case and the risks associated with ongoing litigation.

46. Class Counsel is experienced in handling wage and hour class actions and, after weighing all of the following factors, supports this Agreement.

a) The Risks Associated with Unpaid Wages Claim

47. Plaintiff claimed that she and the Proposed Class earned non-discretionary bonuses, such as birthday bonuses.

48. The birthday bonus was non-discretionary as the bonus was equal to one day's worth of wages.

49. Defendant allegedly failed to include the birthday bonus in the regular rate calculation when paying meal premiums and sick pay.

50. However, at trial, Defendant would likely argue that these nondiscretionary bonuses were so infrequently paid (i.e. the birthday bonus is paid out once per year per employee), that any actual damages because of its failure to blend is de minimis.

51. As such, Plaintiff acknowledged this risk for purposes of settlement.

52. Defendant allegedly implemented a rounding policy that, on average, favors the employer and results in underpayment to Plaintiff and the Proposed Class.

53. Plaintiff's wage statements and the time records produced by Defendant showed rounding to the quarter-hour.

54. Plaintiff's expert reviewed Defendant's timekeeping data and contended that 42.3% of shifts were underpaid due to rounding and that 68% of employees were underpaid for at least one shift.

55. However, Plaintiff's expert also estimated that 34.8% of shifts were overpaid due to rounding, and 22.9% of shifts analyzed were neither underpaid nor overpaid due to rounding.

56. Thus, while Plaintiff maintains that more than 50% of employees have been underpaid at least once according to Defendant's rounding policy, Plaintiff also acknowledges that more than 50% of shifts resulted in either overpayment or had no affect at all.

57. Based on this risk, Plaintiff believed it was appropriate to discount this claim for settlement purposes.

b) The Risks Associated with the Meal Break Claim

58. Plaintiff and Proposed Class consistently worked shifts over five (5) hours and over eight (8) hours.

59. Due to the workload, the time Plaintiff took her lunch varied.

60. However, Plaintiff maintains that many of her meal periods occurred beyond the fifth hour of work, but she was unable to report her actual meal punches to Defendant due to its auto-deduct policy.

61. Plaintiff also contends that she missed meal periods, but would still have time deducted as if she was able to take them.

62. Defendant told her that it would automatically deduct time to account for lunch, and Plaintiff was not permitted to accurately record her hours to reflect the time she actually took

1 lunch and the length of time she was on a meal period.

2 63. Plaintiff acknowledges that this can be a difficult type of claim to prove because
3 there are no time records to substantiate or evaluate the allegations, except for the deducted meals
4 in the time records.

5 64. Defendant would likely argue that if there was any such issue of late meal periods,
6 it would necessitate speaking to each and every employee about their experiences day to day and 7 whether meal breaks were in fact ever provided late, and if so, why.

8 65. Moreover, Defendant would also rely on security clock-in reports that show when 9 an employee's badge was used to open entrances and exits to Defendant's facilities.

10 66. At trial, Defendant would argue that any swipes of an entry/exit door before the 11 fifth hour of work would be an employee leaving for lunch.

12 67. While Plaintiff disagrees with this contention, Plaintiff acknowledges the risks
13 nonetheless and believed it was appropriate to discount this claim for settlement purposes.

14 c) The Risks Associated with the Rest Break Claim

15 68. Plaintiff contends that she and the Proposed Class Members were regularly denied 16 rest periods.

17 69. Plaintiff does not ever recall being informed or told that she was entitled to rest
18 periods.

19 70. In fact, since Plaintiff would be reprimanded for trying to take meal breaks, Plaintiff
20 was not aware that she was even entitled to rest breaks.

21 71. Absent a shift-by-shift, break-by-break, employee-by-employee inquiry, Defendant
22 would have argued that there was simply no way to know (1) whether a break was taken; and (2)
23 if not, why not.

24 72. For each instance where an employee did not take a 10-minute rest period by the 25 end of the fourth hour of work, the trier of fact would still have to determine why that particular 26 employee had less than their full allotment of rest time.

27 73. As such, Plaintiff had to acknowledge that it could potentially be easy for 28 Defendant to defeat certification of this claim if it was able to gather testimonial evidence from

1 class members indicating that they were able to take all required rest breaks each day.

2 74. Though Plaintiff does not believe this was the case, Plaintiff must acknowledge it
3 poses risks for the Class.

4 75. There is certainly risk as to both sides as to what declarations and depositions of 5 class members might reveal.

6 d) The Risks Associated with the Rest Break Claim

7 76. Here, Plaintiff contends that she and the Proposed Class Specifically, Plaintiff
8 contends that she and the Proposed Class are issued wage statements that do not include all
9 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
10 worked at each hourly rate by the employee in violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a)(2) and (9).

11 e) The Risks Associated with the Waiting Time Penalty Claim

12 77. Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to properly pay all wages, including meal
13 and rest premiums.

14 78. The risk analysis for the section 203 claim flows from the risk analysis for the 15 underlying wage claim discussed above as derivative waiting-time penalties are only as strong as 16 the underlying predicate claims, and are subject to good faith defenses.

17 79. If Defendant could prove, as it contends, that class members were properly paid for 18 all hours worked, there would be no recovery of wages and no waiting time penalties that flow 19 therefrom.

20 80. Plaintiff also alleged that Defendant owes waiting time penalties by not paying 21 former alleged employees all wages owed and all premium payments for non-compliant meal or 22 rest periods, Labor Code § 226.7.

23 81. Pursuant to Murphy v. Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. (2002) 40 Cal.4th 1094,
24 1120, Plaintiff contended that break premium payments constitute “wages” under Labor Code §
25 203. (“We hold that section 226.7’s plain language, the administrative and legislative history, and 26 the compensatory purpose of the remedy compel the conclusion that the ‘additional hour of pay’
27 is a premium wage, not a penalty”).

28 82. The bigger risk that Plaintiff analyzed, however, is that to establish liability for

1 waiting time penalties, Plaintiff would have to establish not only that the underlying violations
2 occurred, but also that Defendant's conduct was "willful."

3 83. If Defendant could establish that any alleged failure to blend was the result of 4 mistake or oversight and not "willful", then it is possible that Plaintiff would not be able to recover
5 penalties for this claim.

6 84. Because of this risk, Plaintiff determined that accepting a discount for settlement
7 purposes was appropriate.

8 f) The Risks Associated with the PAGA Claim

9 85. Plaintiff discounted the PAGA claim for multiple reasons.

10 86. The aggrieved employees' PAGA claims are arguably derivative of all the 11 foregoing class claims. If Plaintiff cannot establish liability on the underlying claim (taking into 12 account the risks discussed above), then the derivative PAGA claim will also necessarily fail.

13 87. A court has discretion to award less than the maximum penalty.

14 88. The likelihood of the Court reducing the PAGA damages awarded to Plaintiffs and 15 the aggrieved employees – assuming liability is proven as to each of Plaintiffs' claims – is also 16 higher in this case where these same individuals will also be receiving money for the same
17 unlawful conduct under the class claims.

18 89. There is significant expense associated with the class certification process, which 19 the Parties can avoid by entering into the contemplated Agreement now.

20 90. If the Court did eventually certify a meal or wage statement class, trial of a case
21 involving approximately 675 Settlement Class Members would require the retention of expensive 22 expert witnesses, the accrual of extensive litigation costs, and a significant time overlay by the 23 parties.

24 91. Moreover, given the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues in this case it is 25 likely that any outcome at trial would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal
26 would result in further delay for the Settlement Class Members who are waiting for a resolution in 27 this matter.

28 92. This case has not been certified to be tried as a class action. While Plaintiff believes

1 there is strong evidence to support certification of several possible subclasses (especially a rest
2 period class), certification is always hard fought and subject to judicial discretion. Moreover, in
3 class actions, decertification is always a possibility. In attempting to certify a class, the parties
4 would need to conduct multiple depositions, including of the Class Representative and of several 5 person(s) most knowledgeable regarding Defendant's meal and rest policies. There is a risk for 6 both sides as to what these depositions will reveal and whether they will support class certification
7 to the extent expected.

8 93. It was very difficult for the Parties to reach this Settlement of $700,000.00.

9 94. This Settlement is the result of adversarial, non-collusive, and arms-length
10 negotiations. The Parties arrived at it after extensive investigation and discovery, careful 11 evaluation of the law, risks, and all information substantiating the amount of penalties reasonably
12 likely to be awarded to the class were the trier of fact to find Defendant liable, and the assistance
13 of an experienced mediator, Monica Ngo-Bonnici.

14 95. Plaintiff assessed full value of the Unpaid Wages (Rounding/Failure to Blend)
15 claim, without any discount, at approximately $90,728 without interest.

16 96. This calculation was Plaintiff's expert analysis of 89,121 shifts that showed 17 approximately 1,535 of underpaid hours due to Defendant's rounding policy.

18 97. As explained above, 42.3% of shifts were underpaid due to rounding, but 34.8% of 19 shifts were overpaid and 22.9% of shifts were unaffected by rounding.

20 98. The amount of unpaid wages due to the rounding policy totaled approximately 21 $59,577.

22 99. Plaintiff's expert also calculated that meal break premiums and sick hours were 23 underpaid, totaling approximately $31,151.

24 100. The full value of the Meal Period claim, without any discount, was approximately
25 $2,424,713 without interest.

26 101. For the reasons above, Plaintiff determined that accepting a discount of the full 27 amount was appropriate.

28 102. The full value of the Rest Period claim, without any discount, was approximately

1 $2,765,447 without interest.

2 103. Again, because there are no records to support Plaintiff's assumed violation rate
3 100%, Plaintiff determined that accepting a discount of the full amount was appropriate.

4 104. Plaintiff valued the Wage Statement Claim, without discount, at $775,400 without 5 interest.

6 105. Due to the risk discussed above that 226(a) liability wouldn't attach under Naranjo
7 and Maldonado, Plaintiff determined that a steep discount of this claim was fair for settlement
8 purposes.

9 106. Plaintiff valued the Waiting Time Claim, tied to the Wage/Overtime claim, at 10 $1,883,813.

11 107. Considering the derivate nature of Labor Code §203 and the dispute over whether 12 class members were owed any wages, Plaintiff determined that accepting a discount on this claim 13 was appropriate.

14 108. Plaintiff calculated the value of the PAGA claim at $2,774,800 for Settlement Class
15 Members (using $100 per pay period) and "stacked" violations for each Labor Code section and 16 $792,800 without stacking.

17 109. The main risk taken into account with PAGA is the discretionary nature of the 18 penalty award.

19 110. A judge can award the statutory maximum of $100 for the initial violation and $200
20 thereafter or – in theory – one cent per wage statement.

21 111. For example, if a court were to disallow the "stacking" of PAGA penalties (given 22 the lack of caselaw doing so), then Defendant's maximum exposure at trial would actually be 23 $792,800 as Plaintiff stated above.

24 112. While there is a dearth of available authority, in Plaintiff's view, were she to 25 succeed on any of the underlying Labor Code violations, it is not likely that a Judge would also 26 award a large amount of penalties of top of any damages recovered.

27 113. The allocation of PAGA penalties here represents approximately 8.4% of the 28 maximum exposure at trial, or $8.40 penalty per pay period ($$66,666.67 \div 7,928$ pay periods =

1 $8.40 per pay period) which is in line with judgments reached in other cases.

2 114. Per Plaintiff's assessment, the maximum potential value of all of Plaintiff's and the 3 Settlement Class Members' claims was approximately $8,732,901.

4 115. However, as a result of the forgoing risks on the merits, Class Counsel believes the 5 Gross Settlement Amount of $700,000.00 is fair and reasonable.

All Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice and ascertained in the course of the Action.

6. MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL. The Parties agree to jointly prepare and file a motion for preliminary approval (“Motion for Preliminary Approval”) that complies with the Court’s current checklist for Preliminary Approvals.

6.1 Defendant’s Declaration in Support of Preliminary Approval. Within 14 days of the full execution of this Agreement, Defendant will prepare and deliver to Class Counsel a signed Declaration from Defendant and Defense Counsel disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with the Administrator and Cy Pres Recipient. In their Declarations, Defense Counsel and Defendant shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.

- 6.2 Plaintiff's Responsibilities. Plaintiff will prepare and deliver to Defense Counsel all documents necessary for obtaining Preliminary Approval, including: (i) a draft of the notice, and memorandum in support, of the Motion for Preliminary Approval that includes an analysis of the Settlement under Dunk/Kullar and a request for approval of the PAGA Settlement under Labor Code Section 2699, subd. (f)(2)); (ii) a draft proposed Order Granting Preliminary Approval and Approval of PAGA Settlement; (iii) a draft proposed Class Notice; (iv) a signed declaration from the Administrator attaching its "not to exceed" bid for administering the Settlement and attesting to its willingness to serve; competency; operative procedures for protecting the security of Class Data; amounts of insurance coverage for any data breach, defalcation of funds or other misfeasance; all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Class Members; and the nature and extent of any financial relationship with Plaintiff, Class Counsel or Defense Counsel; (v) a signed declaration from Plaintiff confirming willingness and competency to serve and disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Class Members and/or the Administrator; (v) a signed declaration from each Class Counsel firm attesting to its competency to represent the Class Members; its timely transmission to the LWDA of all necessary PAGA documents (initial notice of violations (Labor Code section 2699.3, subd. (a)), Operative Complaint (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(1)), this Agreement (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(2)); and all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflict of interest with Class Members, the Administrator and/or the Cy Pres Recipient. In their Declarations, Plaintiff and Class Counsel Declaration shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.
- 6.3 Responsibilities of Counsel. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel are jointly responsible for expeditiously finalizing and filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval no later than 30 days after the full execution of this Agreement; obtaining a prompt hearing date for the Motion for Preliminary Approval; and for appearing in Court to advocate in favor of the Motion for Preliminary Approval. Class Counsel is responsible for delivering the Court's Preliminary Approval to the Administrator.
- 6.4 Duty to Cooperate. If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed Motion for Preliminary Approval and/or the supporting declarations and documents, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement. If the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval or conditions Preliminary Approval on any material change to this Agreement, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to modify the Agreement and otherwise satisfy the Court's concerns.

7. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION.

- 7.1 Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Expenses. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.
- 7.2 Employer Identification Number. The Administrator shall have and use its own Employer Identification Number for purposes of calculating payroll tax withholdings and providing reports state and federal tax authorities.
- 7.3 Qualified Settlement Fund. The Administrator shall establish a settlement fund that meets the requirements of a Qualified Settlement Fund (“QSF”) under US Treasury Regulation section 468B-1.
- 7.4 Notice to Class Members.
- 7.4.1 No later than three (3) business days after receipt of the Class Data, the Administrator shall notify Class Counsel that the list has been received and state the number of Class Members, PAGA Members, Workweeks, and Pay Periods in the Class Data.
- 7.4.2 Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service (“USPS”) mail, the Class Notice with Spanish translation, if applicable substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A. The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if applicable) used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.
- 7.4.3 Not later than 3 business days after the Administrator’s receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time.

7.4.4 The deadlines for Class Members' written objections, Challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 14 days beyond the 60 days otherwise provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class Notice.

7.4.5 If the Administrator, Defendant or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, whichever are later.

7.5 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-Outs).

7.5.1 Class Members who wish to exclude themselves (opt-out of) the Class Settlement must send the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail, a signed written Request for Exclusion not later than 60 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed). A Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member's election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member's name, address and email address or telephone number. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, emailed, or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

7.5.2 The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

7.5.3 Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement, entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members' Releases under Paragraphs 6.2 and 6.3 of this Agreement, regardless whether the Participating Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.

7.5.4 Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a Non-Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class Payment or have the right to object to the class action components of the Settlement. Because future PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release the claims identified in Paragraph 6.4 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment.

7.6 Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have 60 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed) to challenge the number of Class Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination the challenges.

7.7 Objections to Settlement.

7.7.1 Only Participating Class Members may object to the class action components of the Settlement and/or this Agreement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Class Representative Service Payment.

7.7.2 Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail. In the alternative, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than [60] days after the Administrator's mailing of the Class Notice (plus an additional [14] days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).

7.7.3 Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement.

- 7.8 Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.
- 7.8.1 Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will establish and maintain and use an internet website to post information of interest to Class Members including the date, time and location for the Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Preliminary Approval, the Class Notice, the Motion for Final Approval, the Motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and Class Representative Service Payment, the Final Approval and the Judgment. The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.
- 7.8.2 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 5 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion (“Exclusion List”); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).
- 7.8.3 Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments (“Weekly Report”). The Weekly Reports must include provide the Administrator’s assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.
- 7.8.4 Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator’s decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.
- 7.8.5 Administrator’s Declaration. Not later than 14 days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration(s) in Court.

7.8.6 Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 15 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

8. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES and ESCALATOR CLAUSE Based on its records, Defendant estimates that, as of the date of this Settlement Agreement, (1) there are 675 Class Members and 35,326 Total Workweeks during the Class period and (2) there were 486 Aggrieved Employees who worked 15,124.5 Pay Periods during the PAGA Period.

8.1 Increase in Compensable Work Weeks. Upon receipt of the Class Data, in the event that the actual number of Compensable workweeks worked by this group of people during the Class Release Period increase beyond 10%, Defendant shall have the option of (a) increasing the Gross Settlement Amount by the percentage increase in the number of workweeks worked by the class members above 10% (e.g. if the number of workweeks increases by 11%, the Gross Settlement Amount will increase by 1%) or (b) rolling back the Class Release Period and PAGA Release Period to the date in which 38,859 workweeks are met. If Defendant elects not to increase the Gross Settlement Amount proportionately, Defendant shall notify Class Counsel of its decision in writing within ten (10) days of receiving the number of Class Members from the Administrator. Within ten (10) days of receipt of such written notice from Defendant, Plaintiff shall have the option to terminate this Settlement Agreement via written notice to Defense Counsel and the Parties will be restored to their positions prior to the Settlement and the Settlement shall be null and void.

9. DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 10% of the total of all Class Members, Defendant may, but is not obligated, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendant withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred to that point. Defendant must notify Class

Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than seven days after the Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel; late elections will have no effect.

- 10. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment (collectively “Motion for Final Approval”). Plaintiff shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than seven days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.

10.1 Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than five court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.

10.2 Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court’s concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court’s decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administrator Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.

10.3 Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

10.4 Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment reflected set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties’ obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.

10.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

11. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit and a proposed amended judgment.

12. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

12.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendant that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Defendant has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendant's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

12.2 Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, any with third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that “the matter was resolved,” or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel’s communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel’s ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

12.3 No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel’s ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel’s ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

12.4 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.

12.5 Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.

12.6 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.

12.7 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.

12.8 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.

- 12.9 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 12.10 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 12.11 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 12.12 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.
- 12.13 Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 12.14 Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Defendant in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy, all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Defendant unless, prior to the Court's discharge of the Administrator's obligation, Defendant makes a written request to Class Counsel for the return, rather than the destructions, of Class Data.
- 12.15 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 12.16 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.
- 12.17 Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

*IRMA MARTINEZ-MONTANO, an individual, on behalf of herself and others similarly situated,
PLAINTIFF v. NORTH VALLEY BEHAVIORAL HEALTH, LLC; and DOES 1 thru 50, inclusive, DEFENDANTS, Sutter County Superior Court Case No. CVCS23-0000676*

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against North Valley Behavioral Health, LLC (“Defendant” or “NVBH”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former NVBH employee Irma Martinez-Montano (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) back wages and other relief for a class of hourly employees (“Class Members”) who worked for NVBH during the Class Period (April 14, 2019 to [date]¹ and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all hourly employees who worked for NVBH during the PAGA Period (April 14, 2019 to [date]²) (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED] (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED]. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant’s records showing that you worked [REDACTED] workweeks during the Class Period and you worked [REDACTED] workweeks during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Defendant.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Defendant, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

NVBH will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendant that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is [date]	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Defendant must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).
Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement	All Class Members who do not opt-out ("Participating Class Members") can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court's decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel

but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by [date]	and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the [date] Final Approval Hearing	The Court's Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on [date]. You don't have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court's virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by [date]	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to Defendant's records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by [date]. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former NVBH employee. The Action accuses NVBH of violating California labor laws by failing to pay overtime wages, wages due upon termination and failing to provide meal periods, rest breaks and accurate itemized wage statements. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) ("PAGA"). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Eric B. Kingsley and Jessica Bulaon or Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers "Class Counsel.")

Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating an to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement ("Agreement") and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court's Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendant Will Pay $700,000.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Defendant has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorney's fees and expenses, the Administrator's expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 14 days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $245,000.00 (35% of the Gross Settlement to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $25,000.00 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $7,500.00 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $[amount] to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $66,666.67 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the “Net Settlement”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 20% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 80% to interest, etc. (“Non-Wage Portion.”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller’s Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.
6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [date], that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the [date] Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member’s name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Defendant.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Defendant based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.

8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, [name] (the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members’ Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendant has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from (i) all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and ascertained in the course of the Action Except as set forth in Section 6.3 of the Settlement Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period..

10. Aggrieved Employees’ PAGA Release. After the Court’s judgment is final, and Defendant has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Defendant, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Defendant or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Aggrieved Employees’ Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties, from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice and ascertained in the course of the Action

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $16,666.67 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Defendant's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until [date] to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendant's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Defendant's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendant's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.

2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as Irma Martinez-Montano v. North Valley Behavioral Health, LLC and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by [date], or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve. At least 15 days before the [date] Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as a Class Representative Service Award. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website [need details] or the Court's website [need details].

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award may wish to object, for example, that the proposed Settlement is unfair, or that the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff are too high or too low. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is [date]. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Action [case caption] and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for Defendant and sign the objection. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. See Section 8 of this Notice (immediately below) for specifics regarding the Final Approval Hearing.
