To the extent the Administration Expenses are less or the Court approves payment less than $15,000.00, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount. 9 all Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, the 10 Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class
11 Representative Service Payment. Disbursement of the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel

15 Individual PAGA Payments and send them to the Class Members via First Class

22 Individual PAGA Payments to all PAGA Employees including Non-Participating
23 Class Members who qualify as PAGA Employees (including those for whom Class
24 Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator may send Participating Class 25 Members a single check combining the Individual Class Payment and the 26 Individual PAGA Payment. Before mailing any checks, the Settlement
27 Administrator must update the recipients' mailing addresses using the National 28 Change of Address Database.

1 4.4.2. The Administrator must conduct a Class Member Address Search for all other Class
2 Members whose checks are returned undelivered without USPS forwarding address.
3 Within seven (7) days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-
4 mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained
5 through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take 6 further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are 7 returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement
8 check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested
9 by the Class Member prior to the void date.

15 § 384(b).

16 4.4.4. The payment of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments shall

11          the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual 12          Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and 13          the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods used to calculate these 14          amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class
15          Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.

17          Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the 18          Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS
19          does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class
20          Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address
21          obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate 22          or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the 23          USPS a second time.

24          7.4.4. The deadlines for Class Members’ written objections, Challenges to Workweeks
25          and/or Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 26          fourteen (14) days beyond the sixty (60) days otherwise provided in the Class
27          Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will 28          inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class

1 Notice.

2 7.4.5. If the Administrator, Defendant or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise
3 discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class
4 Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet
5 and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on 6 whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will 7 be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the 8 Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring 9 them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than fourteen (14) days
10 after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, which ever 11 are later.

12 7.5. Requests for Exclusion (Opt-Outs).

13 7.5.1. Class Members who wish to exclude themselves (opt-out of) the Class Settlement 14 must send the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail, a signed written Request for 15 Exclusion not later than sixty (60) days after the Administrator mails the Class
16 Notice or as otherwise extended for re-mailed Class Notices as described herein. A 17 Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that 18 reasonably communicates the Class Member's election to be excluded from the 19 Settlement and includes the Class Member's name, address, email address or 20 telephone number and last four digits of his/her Social Security Number. To be 21 valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, emailed, or postmarked by the 22 Response Deadline, subject to extension for remailed Class Notices as described 23 herein.

24 7.5.2. The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it
25 fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator
26 shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably
27 ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's 28 desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not

1                   appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to 2                   question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may
3                   demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's
4                   determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise
5                   susceptible to challenge.

6                   7.5.3. Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for 7                   Exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement,
8                   entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement,
9                   including the Participating Class Members' Releases under Paragraphs 5.2 and 5.3
10                  of this Agreement, regardless whether the Participating Class Member actually 11                  receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.

12                 7.5.4. Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a
13                 Non-Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class
14                 Payment or have the right to object to the class action components of the 15                 Settlement. Because future PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon
16                 entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are PAGA
17                 Employees are deemed to release the claims identified in Paragraph 5.3 of this 18                 Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment.

19                 7.6. Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have sixty (60) days
20                 after the Administrator mails the Class Notice, or as otherwise extended for re-mailed
21                 Class Notices as described herein, to challenge the number of Class Workweeks and 22                 PAGA Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class
23                 Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax,
24                 email or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit 25                 supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the 26                 Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are 27                 correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's 28                 determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and shall promptly provide Defense Counsel and Class Counsel of the Administrator's determination of the challenges.

7.7.2. Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail. In the alternative, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than the Response Deadline, or as otherwise extended for re-mailed Class Notices as described herein.

7.7.3. Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement.

2 submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class
3 Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names of Class Members who 4 have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion (“Exclusion List”); (b) the 5 names of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c)
6 copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or 7 invalid) with any personal and private information (e.g., phone number, mailing
8 address, email address, etc.) redacted.

9 7.8.3. Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written 10 reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the 11 number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered,
12 Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received,
13 challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks
14 mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments (“Weekly
15 Report”). The Weekly Reports must include provide the Administrator’s
16 assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all 17 Requests for Exclusion and objections received.

19 address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all

22 susceptible to challenge.

24 which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement,
25 the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed
26 declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance
27 with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its 28 mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration(s) in Court.

7.8.6. Final Report by Settlement Administrator. 8. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES and ESCALATOR CLAUSE.

Based on its records, Defendant estimates that, as of the date of mediation, (1) there were 267 Class Members and 15,191 Total Workweeks during the Class Period. If, at the end of the Class Period, the actual total workweeks worked by the Class Members during the Class Period exceeds this figure by 10% (i.e., if there are 16,711 or more total workweeks), Defendant, at its sole discretion, shall either: (i) increase the Gross Settlement Amount on a proportional basis for those workweeks worked in excess of 10% of the current 15,191 estimate (i.e., if there is a 12% increase in the total workweeks, Defendant shall increase the Gross Settlement Amount by 2%), or (ii) elect to cut off the Class Period as of the date the total workweeks worked by Class Members during the Class Period does not exceed 10% (i.e., so that the total workweeks is at or below 16,711). Class Period can end at the latest on the date of preliminary approval of this Settlement.

1     9.     DEFENDANT’S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW

2     If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 10% of the total of 3     all Class Members and/or if the combined Workweeks worked by Class Members who timely exclude
4     themselves amounts to more than 10% of the total Workweeks worked by all Class Members, Defendant
5     may, but is not obligated to, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendant
6     withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party
7     will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will 8     remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred to that point. Defendant
9     must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than (14) days after the 10    Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel; late elections will have no effect.

13    Not later than sixteen (16) court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in 14    Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA
15    settlement under Labor Code § 2699(I), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment
16    (collectively “Motion for Final Approval”). The Proposed Final Approval Order is to be mutually 17    agreed upon by the Parties prior to Plaintiff filing the Order with the Court. Plaintiff will also provide 18    Defendant with the opportunity to review and comment upon drafts of all other pleadings to be filed in 19    connection with the Motion for Final Approval (e.g., notice of motion, memorandum of points and 20    authorities, and supporting declarations) at least three (3) business days prior to filing the Final 21    Approval motion with the Court. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer
22    in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final 23    Approval prior to Plaintiff filing the Motion with the Court.

25               a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no
26               later than nine (9) court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered
27               or accepted by the Court.

28       10.2.   Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court's concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court's decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administrator Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.

10.3. Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

10.4. Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment reflected set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.

Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. 7 Settlement, Plaintiff and Class Counsel will not initiate any communications with the media or third
8 parties. If contacted by the media or third parties will only discuss information publicly available. Class

14 this Settlement from this court; for public postings or filings necessary for getting approval of the 15 Settlement from the court including submission of the Settlement and other relevant documents to LWDA
16 prior to Settlement approval motion filing; in response to a court order or subpoena or in response to an
17 inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency; to the Parties' attorneys, accountants,
18 or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; to the extent necessary to 19 report income to appropriate taxing authorities or from providing publicly available information regarding 20 this Settlement in communication with Class Members.

21 12.4. No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and 22 employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the 23 Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate
24 with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

25 12.5. Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement
26 together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the

3 required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to 4 execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any 5 amendments to this Agreement.

7 best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement
8 Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by 9 the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document
10 necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become 11 necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court
12 for resolution.

13           12.8. No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not 14 directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to 15 any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released
16 and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.

17           12.9. No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are 18 providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as 19 such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as 20 amended) or otherwise.

21           12.10. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended,
22 modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their 23 representatives, and approved by the Court.

24           12.11. Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the 25 benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.

26           12.12. Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be 27 governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to 28 conflict of law principles.

12.13. Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.

Exhibit “A”

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Camposeco v. Smarte Carte, Inc.

Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. 23STCV07897

*The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.*

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit ("Action") against Defendant SMARTE CARTE, INC. ("Defendant") for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by former Defendant's employee plaintiff Jesus M Camposeco ("Plaintiff") and seeks payment of back wages, penalties, expense reimbursements for a class of hourly employees ("Class Members") who worked for Defendant during the Class Period (July 17, 2021 to [REDACTED]) and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act ("PAGA") for all hourly employees who worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period (April 10, 2022 to [REDACTED]) ("PAGA Employees").

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA").

Based on Defendant's records, and the Parties' current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED] (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED]. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant's records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn't work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant's records showing that you worked [REDACTED] workweeks during the Class Period and you worked [REDACTED] pay periods during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks or pay periods during any of the respective periods, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff's attorneys ("Class Counsel"). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and PAGA Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Defendant.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Defendant, and, if you are an PAGA Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Defendant will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant. The Action accuses Defendant of violating California labor laws by failing to pay all wages, sick pay, wages due upon termination and reimbursable expenses and failing to provide meal periods, rest breaks and accurate itemized wage statements. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) ("PAGA"). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Tunyan Law, APC ("Class Counsel.")

Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws. Defendant also disputes that this action is appropriate for class or representative treatment.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating an to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and PAGA Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendant Will Pay $240,000.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Defendant has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel’s attorney’s fees and expenses, the Administrator’s expenses, and the payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) as part of the PAGA settlement. Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement not more than thirty (30) days after the Effective Date of the settlement. The settlement will become effective after 65 calendar days have passed since the Court has entered a final Order and Judgment certifying the Settlement Class, dismissing the Action with prejudice, and approving the Settlement.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
  - A. Up to $80,000.00 (33 and 1/3% of the Gross Settlement] to Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees and up to $15,000 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
  - B. Up to $6,000 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive for representing the Class in this Action other than Plaintiff’s Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
  - C. Up to $15,000 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement (estimated to be $7,000).
  - D. Up to $15,000 for alleged PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the PAGA Employees based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the “Net Settlement”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 20 % of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 80% to interest and penalties (“Non-Wage Portion.”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller’s Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.
6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [REDACTED], that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the [REDACTED] Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a signed letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member’s name, present address, email address or telephone number, the last four digits of your Social Security Number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Defendant.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Defendant based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, -----(the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.

9. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendant has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of another lawsuit against Defendant or related entities for wages or penalties based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from all claims under state, federal or local law, whether statutory, common law or administrative law, arising out of or related to allegations set forth in the Operative Complaint, including but not limited to claims for failure to pay minimum wage, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to pay sick leave, failure to compensate for split shifts, failure to provide meal periods, failure to provide rest periods, failure to provide accurate and itemized wage statements, failure to reimburse necessary business expenditures, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to provide timely wages owed upon separation, and unfair competition, including, but not limited to, claims for injunctive relief, liquidated damages, penalties of any nature, interest, fees, costs; and all other claims and allegations made or which could have been made in the Action based on the facts and allegations pled in the Operative Complaint during the Class Period. Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

10. PAGA Employees' PAGA Release. After the Court's judgment is final, and Defendant has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all PAGA Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Defendant, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all PAGA Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Defendant or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The PAGA Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are PAGA Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties, from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit B, including but not limited to claims for failure to pay minimum wage, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to pay sick leave, failure to compensate for split shifts, failure to provide meal periods, failure to provide rest periods, failure to provide accurate and itemized wage statements, failure to reimburse necessary business expenditures, failure to timely pay wages during employment, and failure to provide timely wages owed upon separation.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $3,750.00 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all PAGA Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual PAGA Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Defendant's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until [REDACTED] to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendant's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Defendant's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendant's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as PAGA Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every PAGA Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, email address or telephone number, the last four digits of your Social Security Number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as Camposeco v. Smarte Carte, Inc., Case No.

23STCV07897 pending in Los Angeles Superior Court, and include your identifying information (full name, address, email address or telephone number, and the last four digits of your social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by [REDACTED], or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve. At least 16 days before the [REDACTED] Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, approval of Counsel's Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as a Class Representative Service Award. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website [REDACTED] or the Court's website <http://www.lacourt.org/casesummary/ui/index.aspx>.

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award may wish to object, for example, that the proposed Settlement is unfair, or that the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff are too high or too low. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is [REDACTED]. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Action and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for Defendant and sign the objection. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. See Section 8 of this Notice (immediately below) for specifics regarding the Final Approval Hearing.

NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE SECTION § 2698 ET SEQ.

Re: Camposeco v. Smarte Carte, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that my office has been retained by Jesus M Camposeco ("Plaintiff") to pursue a Labor Code Private Attorney General Act (PAGA) representative action (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) against his former employer Smarte Carte, Inc. ("Defendant"). The purpose of this letter is to comply with PAGA and set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which Plaintiff alleges Defendant engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendant's aggrieved employees.

Plaintiff wishes to pursue a PAGA representative action on behalf of himself as an aggrieved employee, on behalf of the State of California, and on behalf of all other current and former aggrieved employees who worked for Defendant in California as an hourly paid, non-exempt employee at any time within the applicable statutory period (hereafter, the “Aggrieved Employees”).

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of Defendant suffered the Labor Code violations described below.

Factual Background Regarding Plaintiff’s Employment with Defendant

Defendant owns and operates an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, Defendant is subject to the California Labor Code and the Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”).

Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a cart associate from approximately April 2018 to the present in one of the locations of Defendant. Defendant classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from overtime. During the time period that Plaintiff was employed by Defendant, Plaintiff typically worked 6 days per week and over 8 hours each workday.

Throughout Plaintiff’s employment, Defendant committed numerous labor code violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff’s experience working for Defendant was typical and illustrative.

Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Overtime

Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

In addition, Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

Pursuant to relevant Industrial Welfare Commission Order Section 2 (n) split shift means a work schedule, which is interrupted by non-paid non-working periods established by the employer, other than bona fide rest or meal periods. Section 4(c) also provides that when an employee works a split shift, one (1) hour’s pay at the minimum wage shall be paid in addition to the minimum wage for that workday.

Throughout the statutory time period, Defendant maintained a policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked including straight time wages and overtime wages. Defendant regularly used a system of time rounding in a manner that resulted, over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendant's operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to the minute. Accordingly, Defendant frequently paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees less than all their work time. Some of this unpaid work also should have been paid at the overtime rate. Throughout the statutory period Defendant also required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work split shifts but refused to pay split shift premiums. Throughout the statutory period, Defendant also maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work "off-the-clock". During the statutory period Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to clock out but continue working to cover the co-worker who failed to show up to work but failed to compensate for that time. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were also required to communicate with their supervisors regarding their schedule and work-related tasks after their scheduled shift over the phone but were not compensated for that time. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendant failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked. In doing so, Defendant also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay for all hours worked, including overtime.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the start of sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s).

Despite these legal requirements, Defendant wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate written policies or practices providing meal periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of meal periods or recording of meal periods. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees would often times miss their meal periods, have interrupted or short meal periods. In those occasions when Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had an opportunity to take their first meal periods, Defendant wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved employees to combine their first meal periods with their first rest periods. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods and that were not provided.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

Defendant, however, wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendant authorizing and permitting them to take a 10 minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a rest period. In those occasions when Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had an opportunity to take their first rest periods, Defendant wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved employees to combine their first meal periods with their first rest periods. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods and to not authorize or permit them to take any rest periods.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked

Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

Defendant, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

Defendant's failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendant's records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendant. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendant to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendant's knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 1174.5 for failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods.

Failure to Reimburse and Indemnify Expenses

California Labor Code § 2802 requires employers to reimburse employees for their necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of the employer.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendant wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendant without reimbursement, which included the usage of personal cell phones for work and purchase of masks, gloves, mopeds and other materials necessary for performing work. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees used their personal cell phones to communicate with their supervisors and co-workers regarding the work assignments and schedules. Additionally, Defendant required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to use their personal vehicle to drive from Defendant's one location to another location but failed to reimburse mileage expenses. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were also required to wear a uniform but were not reimbursed for washing and maintaining the uniforms. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees incurred these substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendant, and Defendant has failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendant failed, and continues to fail to terminated Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendant's employ. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time including straight time and overtime wages, missed meal periods, and missed rest periods.

Defendant's conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

Accordingly, the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to timely pay all wages at termination.

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. Lab. Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).

The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” Lab. Code § 226(e)(1).

Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly list gross wages earned, the failure to list the true net wages earned, including wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and correct wages earned for all hours worked.

As a result of Defendant violating Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendant’s failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding $4,000 dollars per employee.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 226.3 for failing to furnish accurate itemized wage statements.

Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month on days designated in advance by the employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Lab. Code § 204(a). The requirements of this section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Lab. Code § 204(d).

Here, Defendant paid wages bi-weekly, but often times issued wages more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period.

Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were also entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendant systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendant, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendant, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendant owe employees the legally required wages for unpaid wages, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 210 for failing to pay all earned wages twice per month.

Failure to Provide Paid Sick Leave

Labor Code § 246 (a) an employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days.

During the statutory period, Defendant maintained a policy and practice of failing to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with the paid sick leave. On information and belief, Defendant's failure to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead part of Defendant's policy and practice that applied to the Aggrieved Employees.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide paid sick leave.

Action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA

In light of the above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant violated the following provisions of the Labor Code with respect to the Aggrieved Employees:

1. Labor Code § 204, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 by failing to pay for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages;
2. Labor Code § 226.7, 512 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to provide meal periods;
3. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to authorize and permit rest periods;
4. Labor Code § 1174.5 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed;
5. Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse and indemnify employees for expenses and losses in the direct consequence and discharge of their duties;
6. Labor Code §§ 201 to 203 by willfully failing to pay all wages owed at termination;
7. Labor Code § 226 by failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements;
8. Labor Code § 204 by failing to pay all earned wages two times per month;
9. Labor Code § 246 by failing to provide paid sick leave.

Therefore, on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff seeks applicable penalties related to the violations alleged above pursuant to the PAGA. These include, but are not limited to, penalties under Labor Code §§ 210, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2802, and 2699(f)(2).

Plaintiff has placed Defendant on notice by mailing a certified copy of this correspondence to its corporate address and address of the agent for service, as indicated on the first page.

The facts and claims contained herein are based on the information available at the time of this writing. Therefore, if through discovery and/or expert review, Plaintiff becomes aware of additional compensation owed or losses incurred by Plaintiff or by any other aggrieved employee of Defendant or any additional facts, Plaintiff expressly reserves the right to revise these facts and/or add any new claims by amending the claim letter or by adding applicable causes of action to the complaint which will relate back to the date of this letter.
