1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Tyrik Foulks (“Plaintiff”) seeks approval of a non-reversionary $175,000.00 gross
4 settlement of claims for civil penalties alleged pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, 5 Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). After a full day of mediation with experienced and neutral 6 mediator Tripper Ortman, Esq., and extended settlement negotiations, Plaintiff reached a resolution with 7 Defendant Browning-Ferris Industries of California, Inc. (“Defendant”) (collectively, Plaintiff and 8 Defendant are the “Parties”). The Parties have executed a PAGA Settlement Agreement and Release of 9 Claims (the “Settlement”), a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration
10 of Kane Moon in Support of Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement (“Moon Decl.”) submitted 11 concurrently herewith. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), Plaintiff now files this motion seeking 12 an order approving the proposed Settlement.

13 The Settlement resolves all claims for civil penalties under PAGA that arose during the PAGA 14 Period and that were alleged in the above-captioned matter (“Action”). (Settlement, ¶ A.1.) For purposes 15 of settlement, the “PAGA Period” is April 1, 2022 through February 9, 2026. (Id. at ¶ A.22.) This 16 Settlement is on behalf of the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”), 17 Plaintiff, and any and all persons who are or were employed by Defendant in California as a non-exempt
18 employee during the PAGA Period (“Aggrieved Employees”). (Id. at ¶ A.3.)

19 Settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. Pursuant to the operative PAGA statute, 20 the “court shall review and approve any penalties sought as part of a proposed settlement agreement 21 pursuant to this part.” (Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).) In deciding whether to grant approval of a proposed 22 settlement, the primary issue to be decided is whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.
23 Specifically, the issue is whether the PAGA penalties to which the parties have agreed provide “genuine 24 and meaningful” relief that is “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public,” 25 and whether the penalties are reasonable in light of the potential verdict value in this case. (Villalobos v.
26 Calandri Sunrise Farm LP (C.D. Cal. July 22, 2015) No. CV 12-2615 PSG (JEMx), 2015 WL 12732709, 27 at *5; see also O’Connor v. Uber Techn., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1135.)

28 As set forth herein, the proposed Settlement embodies all the features of a settlement that is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as (1) it is the product of an arm's-length negotiation, (2) negotiated by attorneys experienced in wage and hour litigation in a mediation conducted by renowned mediator Tripper Ortman, Esq., (3) following sufficient investigation necessary to evaluate the relative strength and value of the PAGA claims, and (4) reflects a reasoned compromise based directly on the relative strength and value of the PAGA claims, as well as the risks, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation.

The meaningful value achieved by the Settlement at issue may be gleaned from the fact that the LWDA and the estimated 230 Aggrieved Employees will, cumulatively, receive no less than $81,056.93 as PAGA Penalties. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 20, 21.) This is a significant recovery, not only because further litigation may have resulted in a net-zero recovery based on the facts of the case and defenses asserted by Defendant, but also because an investigation by experienced PAGA counsel and analysis of discovery revealed minimal identifiable violations, the discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties, and the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis at all due to the potential manageability issues and current state of the law. For these reasons, as set forth more fully below, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court enter the proposed order and proposed judgment submitted concurrently herewith.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff's Claims and Procedural Background

Defendant is a waste management company that operates landfills and recycling facilities. (Moon Decl., ¶ 4.) Plaintiff worked for Defendant from approximately April 2022 to June 2023 as an operating engineer. (Id.; Declaration of Plaintiff Tyrik Foulks in Support of Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement ["Plaintiff Decl.,"] ¶ 2) Throughout his employment, Plaintiff was classified as non-exempt and paid on an hourly basis. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶ 2.) Plaintiff contends he and his former coworkers were subjected to the same or similar unlawful labor practices during their employment by Defendant, including failure to pay all wages. (Id. at ¶ 4; Moon Decl., ¶ 4.)

Plaintiff's claims for unpaid wages stems from allegations of Defendant's failure to pay employees all minimum and overtime pay owed, including due to Defendant's failure to compensate employees for off-the-clock work. (Id. at ¶ 5.) Plaintiff's meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their work and Defendant's employment practices, employees

1 regularly experienced missed, untimely, or interrupted breaks, and that Defendant failed to provide any 2 premiums for non-compliant rest breaks or all premiums for non-compliant meals. (Id.) Plaintiff also 3 alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse employees for all reasonable and necessary business expenses 4 incurred, including work expenses incurred for the use of employees' personal cellphone and for the 5 purchase of masks, shoes, and flashlights. (Id.) Plaintiff further alleges he and other employees did not 6 receive all wages owed at the time of termination nor accurate itemized wage statements due to 7 Defendant's failure to pay all wages and premiums. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff alleges Defendant is 8 liable for civil penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

9 Because of the foregoing alleged violations of the Labor Code, Plaintiff filed a Class Action
10 Complaint on April 4, 2023, alleging Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum wages, (2) 11 failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize and permit 12 rest breaks, (5) failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final wages at 13 termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair business
14 practices. (Id. at ¶ 6.)

15 Pursuant to PAGA, on April 1, 2023, Plaintiff submitted notice of the alleged Labor Code
16 violations to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (the "LWDA"), with certified 17 mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. (Id. at ¶ 7, Ex. 2.) The administrative 18 exhaustion period under PAGA expired without the LWDA indicating any intent to investigate the 19 allegations. (Id. at ¶ 7.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is duly authorized to act as a private attorney general 20 with respect to the PAGA claims involved in this action. (Id. at ¶ 7.) On June 5, 2023, Plaintiff filed 21 a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint to allege a ninth cause of action for civil 22 penalties under PAGA, to which Defendant filed an Answer and then a Motion for Judgment on the 23 Pleadings. (Id.) The Court granted Defendant's Motion in part. (Id.) Plaintiff filed a Second Amended 24 Complaint on May 30, 2024 against Defendant. (Id.) Defendant filed a demurrer, which was overruled.
25 (Id.) Defendant appealed the ruling on its demurrer, which was denied. (Id.)

26 In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently submitted to the 27 LWDA a file-stamped copy of the First Amended Complaint containing the Court-assigned case
28 number. (Id. at ¶ 8.) To date, the LWDA has not sought to intervene in this action. (Id.)

1 Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff's factual allegations. (Id.
2 at ¶ 9.) Defendant argues all employees were properly paid for all hours worked and that it did not require 3 or permit employees to work off-the-clock. (Id.) Defendant maintains all employees were provided with 4 the opportunity to take all their code-compliant meal and rest breaks and that missed breaks, if any, were 5 solely the result of employees' voluntary choice. (Id.) As for the unreimbursed business expenses, 6 Defendant maintains it did not require employees to incur any business-related expenses. (Id.) To the 7 extent employees received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant argues penalties 8 are not warranted because employees suffered no actual damage or harm as a result. (Id.; see, e.g., 9 Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013) No. C 12-05860 CRB, 2013 WL 622032, at *10
10 ["A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer's failure to provide full and 11 accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone is not sufficient."].)
12 Additionally, Defendant alleges its good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes the imposition of 13 waiting time penalties because Plaintiff would be unable to show Defendant's alleged conduct was done 14 willfully or knowingly. (Moon Decl., ¶ 9; see, e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012) 15 No. ED CV 11-298 GHK (DTBx), 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, Defendant claims it did 16 not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 9.)
17 Defendant also maintains the claims are not susceptible to proof on a representative basis because of the 18 individualized and varying nature of each employee's experience, making this matter unmanageable.
19 (Id.)

20 B. Discovery and Investigation

21 The Parties agreed to mediate the representative PAGA claims. (Id. at ¶ 10.) The Parties 22 engaged in informal discovery exchange prior to mediation. (Id.) Defendant provided information 23 and documents for the Aggrieved Employees, which enabled Plaintiff's Counsel to meaningfully 24 investigate Plaintiff's allegations and assess the value of the PAGA claims. (Id.) Specifically, 25 Defendant produced Plaintiff's personnel file and his time and payroll records, documents regarding 26 Defendant's written policies and practices in effect during the relevant period, and time and 27 corresponding payroll records for approximately 84% of all Aggrieved Employees. (Id.)

28 Prior to mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information that Defendant

1 produced, including the time/pay records and Defendant's written policies, in conjunction with 2 information provided by Plaintiff. (Id. at ¶ 11.) Plaintiff's Counsel retained an expert to analyze the 3 time/pay records and prepare a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) The time/pay records contained 4 221,256 shifts worked (representing 89.7% of all shifts), which allowed the expert to prepare an analysis 5 with a high degree of certainty. (Id.) Further, Plaintiff's Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding 6 the claims and defenses asserted in this action. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel were able to 7 evaluate the probability of success on the merits and Defendant's monetary exposure. (Id.) In sum, 8 Plaintiff and his Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues involved allowed 9 them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

10 C. Settlement Negotiations

11 On December 9, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation facilitated 12 by Tripper Ortman, Esq., an experienced PAGA action mediator. (Id. at ¶ 12.) The negotiations were 13 at arm's length and although conducted in a professional matter, were adversarial. (Id.) Both sides 14 went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but they were 15 also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached.
16 (Id.) Negotiations were protracted, with extended discussions and instances in which it appeared the 17 Parties would not reach a resolution. (Id.) Following a full discussion of the strengths and weaknesses 18 of the claims and defenses, the Parties ultimately reached a resolution, the material terms of which 19 are encompassed within the Settlement at issue. (Id.)

20 In reaching a resolution, the Parties recognized that the issues presented in this action are 21 likely only to be resolved with extensive and costly pretrial and trial proceedings, and that further 22 litigation will lead to inconvenience, distraction, disruption, delay, and expense disproportionate to 23 the potential benefits of litigation. (Id. at ¶ 13.) Plaintiff and his Counsel also considered the risk and 24 uncertainty of the outcome inherent in any litigation when determining whether this Settlement was 25 the correct option. (Id.) In sum, Plaintiff and his Counsel believe the proposed Settlement is in the 26 best interests of Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA. (Id.) In compliance with Labor Code 27 section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the proposed Settlement has been 28 submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff's motion and the hearing date. (Id. at ¶ 14, Ex. 3.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 14.)

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Settlement's key financial and other terms include:

1. Gross Settlement Amount, Funding, Disbursement, and Uncashed Checks. The Gross Settlement Amount ("GSA") is a non-reversionary $175,000.00, subject to potential increase under an Escalator Clause and entry of the Court's Approval Order. (Settlement, ¶¶ A.12, C.1.a., C.5.) Defendant's settlement funding contribution will be wired by Defendant to the settlement administrator no later than twenty (20) calendar days after the later of (1) the Effective Date, or (2) the date the Settlement Administrator provides Defendant with wire instructions for depositing the Gross Settlement Amount and verbally verifies the authenticity of those wire instructions with Defendant by a telephone call prior to the transfer, initiated by Defendant using the Settlement Administrator's telephone number published on its known website. (Id. at ¶ D.10.) Disbursement will occur within ten (10) calendar days after Defendant fully funds the GSA. (Id. at ¶ D.11.) Any funds remaining uncashed after 180 days from issuance will be transmitted to the California State Controller's Office, to be held pursuant to the Unclaimed Property Law in the name of each individual who failed to cash his or her check prior to the void date. (Id. at ¶ D.12.)

2. Escalator Clause: The GSA was negotiated based on an estimate that as of the date of the Parties' mediation, there are 26,660¹ aggregate PAGA Pay Periods worked by approximately 230 Aggrieved Employees. (Id. at ¶¶ D.1, D.2.) The Settlement includes an Escalator Clause whereby should the actual number of PAGA Pay Periods increases by more than twelve percent (12%) of the estimated count, Defendant has the option to a) increase the GSA pro rata for the increased pay periods with a 12% grace margin, or b) end the PAGA Period applicable to the Released Claims on the date that the total number of pay periods reaches 29,859 pay periods. (Id. at D.2.)

1 3. PAGA Service Payment. The Settlement includes a Service Payment to Plaintiff in an 2 amount up to $5,000.00, payable from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ C.2.d.) This payment is in consideration for 3 Plaintiff's efforts in litigating the Action and risks of incurring financial obligations to Defendant in the 4 event Plaintiff was not successful in the Action and held to pay for Defendant's costs and/or attorney's 5 fees. (Id. at ¶¶ A.35, C.2.d.) If the Court awards less than the amount requested, any amount not awarded 6 will become part of the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Aggrieved Employees. (Id. at ¶ C.2.d.)

7 4. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. The Settlement includes attorneys' fees in an amount of not 8 more than one-third of the GSA, $58,333.33, plus reimbursement for out-of-pocket litigation costs not 9 to exceed $28,000.00, payable to Plaintiff's Counsel from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ C.2.a.) In the event actual 10 costs are less and/or the amount of fees and costs approved by the Court are less than the amounts 11 requested, the difference will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) Plaintiff's Counsel has 12 incurred $26,109.74 in litigation costs. (Id., Ex. 4)

13 5. Administration Costs. The Settlement provides Administration Costs to the Administrator, 14 payable from the GSA, in an amount up to $4,500.00, for its fees and expenses in administering this 15 Settlement. (Id. at ¶ C.2.b.) In the event the amount of actual administration costs is less and/or the 16 amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the difference will be allocated to the Net Settlement
17 Amount. (Id.) The Parties jointly selected Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions ("Phoenix")
18 as the neutral entity to administer this Settlement with a bid for $4,500.00. (Id. at ¶ A.31; Moon Decl., ¶
19 20, Ex. 5; Declaration of Jodey Lawrence on Behalf of Phoenix: Qualifications and Costs for Settlement
20 Administration, ¶ 21, Ex. B.)

21 6. Net Settlement Amount. After deducting the Service Payment, PAGA Counsel attorneys' 22 fees and costs, and Settlement Administration Costs from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved 23 by the Court, any difference in the amounts requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the 24 Net Settlement Amount as PAGA Penalties. (Id. at ¶ A.17.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount is 25 estimated to be no less than $81,056.93,² which will be distributed 75% (i.e., no less than 75% *

26
27 ² The estimated Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following amounts from the 28 GSA ($175,000.00): $5,000.00 for the PAGA Service Payment, $26,109.74 for the PAGA Attorney's Cost Award, $58,333.33 for the PAGA Attorney's Fees Award, and $4,500.00 for the Settlement

1 $81,056.93= $60,792.70) to the LWDA and 25% (i.e., no less than 25% * $81,056.93= $20,264.23) to 2 Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff’s claims. (Moon Decl., ¶ 20.)

3 7. Individual PAGA Payments. Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to his or her pro
4 rata amount from the 25% share of PAGA Penalties that is directly proportional to the number of pay 5 periods worked in the PAGA Period without having to submit any claim form. (Id. at ¶¶ C.2.c, C.2.c.i.)
6 This results in an average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $88.11 for each of the estimated 230 7 Aggrieved Employees ($20,264.23 / 230), and a PAGA Pay Period value of $0.76 for each of the 8 26,660 estimated PAGA Pay Periods ($20,264.23 / 26,660). Individual PAGA Payments will be 9 allocated to 100% penalties for tax purposes. (See id. at ¶ C.2.c.ii.)

10 8. Releases of Claims. Upon entry of the Approval Order and on the date when Defendant 11 fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount, and except as to such rights or claims as may be created 12 by the Settlement, the Aggrieved Employees will forever completely release and discharge the Released 13 Parties from the Released Claims for the PAGA Period, including from all claims, transactions, 14 occurrences, or penalties under the California Private Attorneys’ General Act (Labor Code section 2698, 15 et seq.) that were or could have been sought by the Labor Commissioner for the violations identified and 16 facts contained in any of the Complaints filed in the Action and/or in Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice, that 17 accrued at any time during the PAGA Period. (Id. at ¶ E.1.) It is the intent of the Parties that the Approval 18 Order and judgment entered by the Court shall have full equitable and collateral estoppel and res judicata 19 effect and be final and binding upon the Aggrieved Employees. (Id.) “Released Claims” means the 20 claims being released by Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, including the PAGA claims that Plaintiff 21 alleged or could have alleged against the Released Parties, on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and 22 the State of California, based on the facts stated in the Action, any of the Complaints filed in the Action, 23 in the LWDA PAGA Notice letter, or that could have been asserted based on those facts, as further 24 detailed in the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ A.28.) The “Released Parties” are “Browning-Ferris Industries of 25 California, Inc., and its respective past, present, or future affiliates, related entities, parents, subsidiaries, 26 owners, including specifically but not limited to including Republic Services, Inc., as well as their members, partners, officers, directors, board members, managers, supervisors, employees, co-employers, predecessors, successors, assigns, agents, shareholders, investors, insurers, and legal representatives.” (Id. at ¶ A.29.)

9. No Related Cases. To the best of the Plaintiff’s knowledge, there is no other pending litigation involving similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted by approval of the Settlement at issue, other than Luke Miracle v. Republic Services Inc., a Delaware Corporation; Browning-Ferris Industries of California, Inc., a California Corporation, et. al, case number 26CHCV01501, filed on April 13, 2026 in the Los Angeles Superior Court (“Miracle Action”). (Moon Decl., ¶ 23.) The Miracle Action seeks civil penalties pursuant to PAGA based on allegations that Defendant and defendant Republic Services, Inc. failed to pay overtime wages, failed to prove meal periods, failed to provide rest periods, failed to pay minimum wages, failed to timely pay wages upon termination, failed to timely pay wages during employment, failed to provide complete and accurate wage statements, failed to keep complete and accurate payroll records, and failed to reimburse necessary business-related expenses and costs. (Id.) Accordingly, the claim for civil penalties in the Miracle Action are premised on similar allegations as this Settlement and approval of this Settlement may extinguish or affect the claims in the Miracle Action. (Id.) However, this Action was filed on April 4, 2023, approximately 3 years prior to the Miracle Action and thus takes priority. (Id.) Plaintiff’s Counsel came to this conclusion after a reasonable inquiry and review of the LWDA’s PAGA Case Search website, this Court’s case search website, and other information reasonably available online. (Id.)

III. DISCUSSION

A. Availability of Civil Penalties

The LWDA and its constituent departments and divisions are authorized to assess and collect civil penalties for specified violations of the Labor Code committed by an employer. With a stated goal of improving enforcement of existing Labor Code obligations, the California Legislature adopted the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, permitting, as an alternative, an aggrieved employee to initiate a private civil action on behalf of him- or herself and other current or former employees.” (Lab. Code § 2699(a).) Before an employee may file an action seeking to recover civil penalties for violations of any of the Labor Code provisions enumerated in Labor Code section 2699.5, he or she must comply with the Act’s administrative procedures as set forth in Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a), which include providing notice to the LWDA and the employer of the alleged Labor Code violations, and then waiting a prescribed period of time to permit the LWDA to investigate and to decide whether to cite the employer for the alleged violations. (Id. at §§ 2699.3, 2699.5; Caliber Bodyworks, Inc. v. Superior Court (2005) 134 Cal.App.4th 365, 370; see also Dunlap v. Superior Court (2006) 142 Cal.App.4th 330.)

Here, in compliance with Labor Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff submitted notice of the Labor Code violations at issue to the LWDA, and he exhausted administrative remedies without the LWDA noticing any intent to investigate the claims. (Moon Decl., ¶ 7, Ex. 2.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is duly authorized to act as a private attorney general pursuant to PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 7.)

B. The Settlement Merits Approval

Settlement of PAGA claims must be approved by a Court. (Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).) Here, the circumstances weigh heavily in favor of approval, as explained below.

1. The Relief Is Genuine, Meaningful, and Consistent with the Dual Statutory Purposes of Deterrence and Punishment under PAGA

The $175,000.00 GSA amounts to “genuine and meaningful” relief “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public.” (Moon Decl., ¶ 33; see O’Connor, 201 F.Supp.3d at 1133–35 [denying settlement approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% of the estimated full worth].) This is an excellent result, particularly because, under the Settlement, Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of not being able to recover anything at all. (Moon Decl., ¶ 33.)

The Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies PAGA’s dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.) As a result of this litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in employee-wide discovery, and participate in mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶ 34.) Assuming approval is granted, Defendant will also have to pay civil penalties pursuant to PAGA. (Id.) Not including its own attorneys’ fees and costs, Defendant will pay at least $175,000.00 to resolve this matter—of which at least $81,056.93 is

1 allocated toward PAGA Penalties and will be distributed as 75% to the LWDA and 25% to 2 Aggrieved Employees, in compliance with PAGA law governing the claims in this action. (See 3 Settlement, ¶¶ C.2.c.i., C.2.c.ii.) This amount represents roughly 15% of the realistic exposure for 4 the claims ($81,056.93 / $533,200.00), as discussed below. (Moon Decl., ¶ 34.) Additionally, the 5 release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved Employees from pursuing any 6 individual (non-PAGA) claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released Parties. (See 7 id. at ¶ A.28.)

8 2. The Settlement Amount Provides a Realistic Value for the Claims that is within the 9 “Ballpark” of Reasonableness

10 Prior to settlement negotiations, the Parties engaged in substantial motion practice, including a 11 motion for judgment on the pleadings, a demurrer, and an appeal. (Moon Decl., ¶ 24.) There can be no 12 doubt that this Settlement is the result of vigorous, adversarial, non-collusive, and arm’s-length 13 negotiations between the Parties. (Id.) Plaintiff’s Counsel performed an extensive investigation into the 14 facts, claims, and defenses at issue and Defendant’s potential liability, including a review of governing 15 law and analysis of informal discovery, including Defendant’s written policies and time/pay data for a 16 majority of Aggrieved Employees. (Id. at ¶¶ 10-11) Plaintiff’s Counsel used the foregoing discovery and 17 investigation to prepare for mediation and, with the assistance of a statistics expert, assessed the 18 probability of success on the merits and Defendant’s monetary exposure, discussed the strengths and 19 weaknesses of the claims and defenses in depth at mediation and continued negotiations, and ultimately 20 negotiated the resulting Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 12–13.)

21 Based on Plaintiff’s Counsel’s analysis of the arguments and information provided by Defendant, 22 on an expert analysis of the time/pay records, and on information from Plaintiff, Plaintiff’s Counsel 23 evaluated Defendant’s both maximum (optimistic) and risk-adjusted (realistic) potential exposure in 24 preparation for mediation. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although the expert’s analysis revealed that the time and pay 25 records supported several violations by Defendant, those identifiable violations were primarily limited to 26 the regular rate and meal period claims. (Id.) However, the meal period claim, overtime claim, and 27 reimbursement claim were dismissed with prejudice through Defendant’s Motion for Judgment on the 28 Pleadings, with further limits Defendant’s exposure. (Id.) The records themselves also did not provide

1 strong support for the off-the-clock work, rest period, and expense reimbursement claims, and derivative
2 penalties for those claims, as these claims are predominantly testimony based. (Id.) In other words, 3 Plaintiff's analysis revealed that certain claims were not as strong as originally believed. (Id.)

4 Indeed, the maximum exposure figures that were calculated for mediation were based on assumed 5 high violation rates that would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as they assume either the participation 6 of all Aggrieved Employees (which would be difficult given the size of this group), or alternatively, the 7 use of surveys or statistical data as a surrogate (which would still require the participation of a majority 8 of Aggrieved Employees to establish a sound representation of all non-exempt employees). (Id. at ¶ 26.)
9 The reality is that many, if not all, employees would be unwilling to participate due to fear of retaliation.
10 (Id.) However, even assuming those employees would be willing to participate, obtaining such 11 declarations would potentially reveal that each Aggrieved Employee had a different experience. (Id.)
12 The individualized nature of their employment experience and the numerosity of employees affected 13 present significant risk with manageability and proof on the merits. (Id.)

14 Even as to the regular rate and meal period claims, our analysis found that Defendant's exposure 15 is less than initially believed. (Id. at ¶ 27.) As to meal periods, a review of the time/pay records shows a 16 45.7% violation rate for Defendant. (Id.) However, the records also show that after accounting for meal 17 waivers and premium payments, the violation rate is reduced to 21.8%. (Id.) Defendant argues that the 18 use of meal waivers and the payment of meal premiums indicate that Defendant did not fail to provide 19 meal breaks or provide meal premium payments in lieu thereof. (Id.) The use of waivers and premium
20 payments also shows that to the extent there was any violation, which Defendants dispute, such violations
21 were not intentional. (Id.) Defendant also contends that many meal breaks were taken and, where a 22 violation appears, it was a result of the Aggrieved Employee voluntarily choosing to forego a meal period, 23 to take it after the end of the fifth hour, or to stop his or her break early to return to work. (Id.) As to the 24 regular rate issue, Plaintiff's expert identified 8,685 total payments that were not factored into the regular 25 rate of pay for purposes of paying sick pay, meal break premiums, and overtime, resulting in a 66.9% 26 violation rate for unpaid overtime, a 5.4% violation rate for unpaid meal break premiums, and a 5.6% 27 violation rate for unpaid sick pay. (Id.) However, these violation rates assume Plaintiff would be able to 28 show the bonus payments were non-discretionary payments that should have been factored into the

1 regular rate. (Id.) Indeed, Defendant argues that the bonuses were discretionary and that it did not fail to 2 incorporate any non-discretionary bonuses into the regular rate for purposes of paying overtime, sick pay,
3 and meal premium payments. (Id.) Moreover, the overtime claim, meal period claim, and rest period 4 claims were dismissed through Defendant's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings, and as such 5 Defendant argues these claims cannot be a basis for Plaintiff's PAGA claim. (Id.)

6 The likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its 7 overall exposure. (Id. at ¶ 28.) For example, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the 8 claims could bar manageability of this representative action or otherwise significantly reduce Defendant's 9 overall liability. (Id.) Further, a claim-by-claim penalty calculation is overly optimistic as it presumes 10 Plaintiff would be able to stack the penalties, although penalty stacking is not expressly permitted by 11 PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 29.) Rather, without either (i) a prior finding by the LWDA or a court within the past 12 five years that the employer violated PAGA or (ii) evidence that the employer's conduct was malicious, 13 fraudulent, or oppressive, PAGA only provides for a maximum $100.00 penalty for each pay period.
14 (Lab. Code § 2699(f)(2)(A)–(B).) Plaintiff's Counsel also believe it would be unrealistic to expect the 15 Court to award the full (penalty-stacked) exposure given the discretionary nature of awarding penalties 16 and given Defendant's defenses, and additionally, to the extent employees received wage statements that 17 were allegedly inaccurate, employees suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. (Moon Decl., ¶ 29.)
18 Moreover, awarding the full penalties amount would likely raise Due Process concerns. (Id.) For the 19 foregoing reasons, the realistic exposure is thus far below the optimistic maximum estimate. (Id. at ¶ 29.)

20 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it is more reasonable to assess penalties on a 21 $100.00 civil penalty per pay period basis pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(f)(2)(A) for each of the 22 estimated 26,660 pay periods at issue, as opposed to a claim-by-claim approach. (Id. at ¶ 30.)
23 Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel estimate Defendant's maximum PAGA exposure to be $2,666,000.00
24 ($100.00 x 26,660). (Id.) However, based on the discovery, Defendant's arguments at mediation and 25 continued settlement discussions, an understanding that the claims are heavily dependent on the 26 unlikely participation by Aggrieved Employees and their varying employment experience, and other 27 important considerations discussed above, it is reasonable to assume a violation occurred only in at 28 most 20% of all pay periods, which results in a realistic (risk-adjusted) exposure of $533,200.00

1 ($2,666,000.00 * 20%). (Id.) As a result, the GSA of $175,000.00 represents approximately 33% of the 2 realistic exposure ($175,000.00 / $533,200.00). (Id.)

3 The proposed Settlement therefore represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 4 reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶ 32.) When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 5 involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability 6 of appeal, it is clear the GSA of $175,000.00 is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and that 7 settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th
8 116, 133; see Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09
9 [holding that Kullar does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class 10 could recover if it prevailed on all its claims,” but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is 11 in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

12 3. The Settlement Is a Fair and Reasonable Result Following a Thorough Investigation 13 and Accounting of Various Litigation Risks

14 Plaintiff’s Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the allegations.
15 (Moon Decl., ¶ 35.) Based on the foregoing discovery and on their own independent investigation and 16 evaluation, Plaintiff’s Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and 17 adequate. (Id.) Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant 18 delay, trial risk, appellate risk, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant on the merits, the 19 Settlement is in the best interests of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California. (Id.)

20 Although Plaintiff’s Counsel believe there is merit to Plaintiff’s allegations, they also 21 acknowledge a legitimate controversy exists as to each allegation. (Id. at ¶ 36.) Plaintiff’s Counsel 22 also recognize that proving the amounts of penalties owed to each Aggrieved Employee would 23 be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.) Moreover, Plaintiff’s 24 Counsel are also of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, there is a 25 possibility of the Court not awarding PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits 26 due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶ 37.) Indeed, a Court 27 may reduce PAGA penalties “if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do 28 otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” (Lab.

Code § 2699(e)(2).) In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction. (Moon Decl., ¶ 37.) While Plaintiff's Counsel believe there would be no persuasive grounds to reduce penalties, they recognize that the Court could determine otherwise and significantly reduce any award of penalties. (Id. at ¶ 38.) This wide range of potential recovery and additional delays and risks of trial provide justification to settle for a reasonable amount of recovery at this point in the litigation. (Id.) In all, based on the investigation and analysis of the claims in preparation for mediation, the maximum exposure did not comport with the realistic exposure that Defendant faced, as discussed above. (Id.)

Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis at all due to the potential manageability issues, the risk of not prevailing at trial, and the risk that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, the penalties would be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶ 39.) The provisions of the Labor Code triggering PAGA penalties in this case include Labor Code sections 203, 210, 226, 1197.1, and 2802. (Id.) However, PAGA penalties are not mandatory, but rather, permissive. (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) Accordingly, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would be successful at trial, assuming he is first able to win on the merits regarding his individual claims at arbitration and then defeat the manageability issues presented at litigation by the large number of Aggrieved Employees in this action, Plaintiff may still be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the Settlement. (Moon Decl., ¶ 39.)

The Settlement avoids the significant risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of further litigation. (Id. at ¶ 40.) Though the Parties have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, and employee data analysis, they have not participated in formal discovery procedures, including depositions and expert discovery. (Id.) Moreover, Plaintiff would have to proceed with arbitration of his individual claims and win on the merits before proceeding with litigation of the representative PAGA claims. (Id.) Preparation for trial and the prospect of appeals in the wake of any summary judgment ruling would remain for the Parties. (Id.) As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys' fees and costs through trial, a lengthy and uncertain process that could result in recovering less than was settled for. (Id.)

1 C. The Representative Payment to Plaintiff is Reasonable and Should Be Approved

2 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 3 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 4 codified in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “[i]t is the policy of this state to 5 vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or 6 permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions . . .” (Lab. Code § 90.5.) Nonetheless, the 7 California Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights 8 under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees.
9 (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460–61.) In this context, PAGA representatives should 10 be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of aggrieved employees.

11 Here, in line with the Settlement and subject to the Court’s approval, Plaintiff requests a 12 Service Payment of $5,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ C.2.d; Plaintiff Decl., ¶ 13.) Plaintiff and his Counsel 13 respectfully submit that the requested enhancement is reasonable in recognition of Plaintiff’s role as 14 the named Plaintiff and PAGA Representative, for the risks to future employment inherent in 15 undertaking this role and for his service and participation in litigation that resulted in a fair settlement
16 under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 40-43; Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 14–17.)

17 D. The Requested Attorneys’ Fees/Costs Are Reasonable and Should Be Approved

18 In line with the Settlement, my firm requests an award of attorneys’ fees in an amount 19 of one-third of the GSA (i.e., no less than $58,333.33, subject to potential increase under the 20 escalator clause), plus reimbursement for actual litigation costs in the amount of $26,109.74.
21 (Moon Decl., ¶ 64; see Settlement, ¶ C.2.a.)

22 1. Plaintiff’s Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the Common Fund Method

23 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created by 24 counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. (See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25.) The 25 California Supreme Court has held, “when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific 26 fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or 27 preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorney’s fees out of the fund.” (Id.
28 at p. 34.)

1 Here, Plaintiff's Counsel seek an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of 2 recovery/common fund" theory. (Moon Decl., ¶ 65.) The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation 3 costs proportionately among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 4 burden alone." (Vincent v. Hughes Air W., Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of 5 Cal. (1975) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated, "one who expends attorneys' fees in 6 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits, may require those passive 7 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and County of 8 San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized that the common 9 fund doctrine has been applied "consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a 10 fund in which other persons[] are entitled to share." (Id. at pp. 110–11 [pincite omitted].) The reasons 11 for applying this doctrine include:

12 fairness to the successful litigant, who might otherwise receive no benefit because his recovery 13 might be consumed by the expenses; correlative prevention of an unfair advantage to the others 14 who are entitled to share in the fund and who should bear their share of the burden of its 15 recovery; encouragement of the attorney for the successful litigant, who will be more willing to 16 undertake and diligently prosecute proper litigation for the protection or recovery of the fund if 17 he is assured that he will be properly and directly compensated should his efforts be successful.

18 (Id. at p. 111.)

19 Several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative "lodestar" approach for deciding 20 fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and often indecipherable time records.
21 Commenting on the lodestar approach, Chief Judge Marilyn Hall Patel wrote in In re Activision Securities
22 Litigation (N.D. Cal. 1989) 723 F.Supp.1373:

23 This court is compelled to ask, "Is this process necessary?" Under a cost-benefit analysis,
24 the answer would be a resounding, "No!" Not only do the Lindy and Kerr-Johnson analyses 25 consume an undue amount of court time with little resulting advantage to anyone, but, in fact, it 26 may be to the detriment of the class members.

27 (Id. at p. 1375 [emphasis added].) The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it 28 aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the demands on judicial resources. (Id. at pp. 1378–79.) California Courts now routinely use the percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award of attorney's fees. (See, e.g., In re Pac. Enter.

1 Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378–79 [approving attorneys’ fee award of 33%.]

2 2. The Matter Involves a Fee and Cost Shifting Provision under PAGA

3 Labor Code section 2699 provides for the recovery reasonable attorney’s fees as well as costs of 4 suit. (Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1).) Specifically, it states: “Any employee who prevails in any [PAGA] action 5 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs . . .” (Id.) Under this provision, 6 Plaintiff would be permitted to recover his actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the 7 total recovery for the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of this case. (Id.) This fee/cost-shifting 8 provision reflects the understanding that Plaintiff’s Counsel must accept significant risk of substantial 9 expenses and consumption of time, energy, and other resources in litigating a PAGA claim, and thus,
10 that Plaintiff’s Counsel is not only permitted, but entitled, to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs 11 if successful in litigating a PAGA claim.

12 The Settlement at issue is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and 13 consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding 14 Plaintiff’s Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this 15 action involved significant financial risk for Plaintiff’s Counsel who undertook this matter on a 16 contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 70–73.) Once Plaintiff’s Counsel 17 undertook this litigation on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees, they committed to pursue it to its 18 conclusion, and were accordingly precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which 19 could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain. (Id. at ¶ 71.)

20 3. Counsel’s Experience, Reputation, and Ability Support the Requested Fee Award

21 As demonstrated by their prior experience in pursuing class and representative actions on behalf 22 of employees, Plaintiff’s Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class action and 23 representative matters. (Id. at ¶¶ 45–61.) Plaintiff’s Counsel have been involved as lead counsel or co-24 counsel in a multitude of class and representative actions resulting in beneficial results to class members
25 and aggrieved employees in California. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate Plaintiff’s Counsel 26 commensurate with their skill, reputation, and experience, the requested fee award is supported here.

27 Plaintiff’s Counsel’s experience in wage-and-hour class and representative actions was integral 28 in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of this

1 Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 62.) Practice in the narrow field of wage-and-hour litigation requires skill and 2 knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural 3 law of representative action litigation. (Id. at ¶ 60.) Based on these and other factors, Plaintiff’s Counsel 4 have frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for aggrieved employees.
5 (See id. at ¶¶ 49, 54, 59.) Thus, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

6 4. While the Lodestar Method Is Not Necessary in Common Fund Cases, the Court May 7 Perform a Cross-Check to Award Fees

8 “Despite its primacy, the lodestar method is not necessarily utilized in common fund cases.”
9 (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 27.) Courts have criticized the lodestar 10 method as a drain on the judicial system and a disincentive on attorneys to take on high-risk, challenging 11 cases. (Id. at p. 29.) Indeed, the lodestar approach: “(1) ‘increases the workload of an already overtaxed 12 judicial system,’ (2) is ‘insufficiently objective and produce[s] results that are far from homogenous,’ (3) 13 ‘creates a sense of mathematical precision that is unwarranted in terms of the realities of the practice of 14 law,’ (4) ‘is subject to manipulation by judges who prefer to calibrate fees in terms of percentages of the 15 settlement fund or the amounts recovered by the plaintiffs or of an overall dollar amount,’ (5) ‘encourages 16 lawyers to expend excessive hours, and . . . engage in duplicative and unjustified work,’ (6) ‘creates a 17 disincentive for the early settlement of cases,’ (7) deprives trial courts of ‘flexibility to reward or deter 18 lawyers so that desirable objectives, such as early settlement, will be fostered,’ (8) ‘works to the particular 19 disadvantage of the public interest bar,’ and (9) results in ‘confusion and lack of predictability.’” (Id.
20 [quoting Third Circuit Task Force, Court Awarded Attorney Fees (1985) 108 F.R.D. 237, 246– 21 49].)

22 Although California Courts support the common fund doctrine, the lodestar method can be used 23 to cross-check fee awards. “It may be appropriate in some cases, assuming the class benefit can be 24 monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty, to ‘cross-check’ or adjust the lodestar in comparison to 25 a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and within the range of 26 fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.” (In re Consumer Privacy 27 Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557 [quoting Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at pp. 49–50].)
28 Applying the lodestar method is a two-step process. The first step is to multiply the number of hours

1 reasonably expended by a reasonable hourly rate, and the second step is to apply a multiplier to the 2 lodestar to account for various factors. (Id. at p. 556.) “The purpose of such adjustment is to fix a fee at 3 the fair market value for the particular action. In effect, the court determines, retrospectively, whether the 4 litigation involved a contingent risk or required extraordinary legal skill justifying augmentation of the 5 unadorned lodestar in order to approximate the fair market rate for such services.” (Id.) “Under certain 6 circumstances, a lodestar calculation may be enhanced on the basis of a percentage-of-the-benefit 7 analysis.” (Id. at pp. 556–57.)

8 Further, “California case law permits fee awards in the absence of detailed time sheets.”
9 (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 255.) The Court “should defer 10 to the winning lawyer’s professional judgment as to how much time he was required to spend 11 on the case.” (Moreno v. City of Sacramento (9th Cir. 2008) 534 F.3d 1106, 1112.) Generally, 12 hours are reasonable if they were “reasonably expended in pursuit of the ultimate result achieved 13 in the same manner that an attorney traditionally is compensated by a fee-paying client.”
14 (Hensley v. Eckerhart (1983) 461 U.S. 424, 431.)

15 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel current lodestar is no less than $67,650.00, which is based on no less
16 than 83.4 hours of attorney time spent to-date at their customary hourly rates. (Moon Decl., ¶ 66.)
17 Thus, in comparison to this lodestar, the lodestar fee represents a negative multiplier. (Id. at ¶ 69(c).) 18 Although application of a positive multiplier would be warranted in this case, none is requested. (Id. at ¶ 19 68.) Further, the foregoing lodestar does not reflect additional works that will be devoted to this litigation, 20 including to obtain and monitor approval of the Settlement and requested awards, oversee the 21 settlement administration process and distribution of funds, respond to inquiries, and 22 communicate with Plaintiff regarding the case. (Id. at ¶ 67.) The amount of fees requested under 23 the Settlement is warranted based on the contingent risk that Plaintiff’s Counsel incurred, the difficulty 24 of the questions involved, the substantial benefit conferred on the Aggrieved Employees and State of 25 California as a result of the Settlement, and the skill displayed by Plaintiff’s Counsel. (Id. at ¶ 69.)
26 Plaintiff’s Counsel also bear the risk of taking whatever actions are necessary if Defendant fails to pay.
27 (Id. at ¶ 67.) Thus, the request for attorneys’ fees is more than reasonable under a lodestar check.
