APPROVAL OF CLASS AND PAGA
ACTION SETTLEMENT

Date: September 24, 2024
Time: 10:00 a.m.

Complaint Filed: April 21, 2023
Trial Date: None Set

1 I, DAVID MARA, declare the following:

- 2 1. I am President of Mara Law Firm, PC, and counsel of record for Plaintiff and the putative
3 class in this matter. I am duly admitted to practice before all the courts of the state of 4 California. The following facts are within my personal knowledge and, if called to testify,
5 I could and would competently testify thereto.
- 6 2. I graduated from California Western School of Law.
- 7 3. I was admitted to practice law in California in May 2004.
- 8 4. I extensively handle employment cases which involve violations of the California Labor
9 Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, such as wage and hour class
10 actions and cases alleging violations of the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004
11 (“PAGA”).
- 12 5. I was co-class counsel in Hohnbaum v. Brinker Restaurant Corp. (San Diego County Superior 13 Court, Case No. GIC834348) which was the underlying case in the California Supreme 14 Court’s landmark decision in Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th
15 1004, in which the California Supreme Court delineated the scope of employer obligations to 16 provide, and employee rights to receive, meal and rest periods under California law.
- 17 6. I am frequently called upon to author Amicus Curiae briefs on behalf of Consumer Attorneys 18 of California (“CAOC”). For example, I authored the Amicus Curiae briefs on behalf of 19 CAOC in Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, (The California
20 Supreme Court ruling that, like meal periods, employers must relieve employees of all duty
21 and relinquish all control to satisfactorily discharge its obligation to authorize and permit rest
22 periods.); Frlekin v. Apple, Inc. (2020) 8 Cal.5th 1038 (The California Supreme Court ruling
23 that the time spent on the employer’s premises waiting for, and undergoing, required exit 24 searches of packages, bags, or personal technology devices voluntarily brought to work is 25 compensable hours worked within the meaning of the Wage Orders.); Oliver v. Superior 26 Court (2021) California Court of Appeal Case No. H049185 (A brief asking the California
27 Court of Appeal for the Sixth Appellate District to determine whether mandatory drive time
28 of personal vehicles should be considered hours worked within the meaning of the Wage

1 Orders' suffered or permitted test.). Davidson v. O'Reilly Auto Enterprises, LLC (9th Cir.,
2 2020; Docket No. 18-56188) (a brief seeking Review En Banc of an order denying class
3 certification in a wage and hour matter).

4 7. I am also a member of CAOC's Amicus Committee that determines the cases in which the 5 organization will agree to provide amicus support.

6 8. I have also lectured as a panelist for California Employment Lawyers Association
7 regarding a host of wage and hour issues.

8 9. My firm has been granted class certification in both state and federal courts.

9 10. I have been named as class counsel in a number of wage and hour class actions in which 10 the Court granted the plaintiff's motion for class certification. For example, I have been 11 named class counsel in the following cases: Mario Norona v. B&G Delivery System, Inc.
12 (Sacramento County Superior Court, Case No. 34-2015-00186826-CU-OE-GDS); Jerald

14 John Martin v. Sysco Corporation, et al. (Eastern District of California, Case No. 1:16-cv-15 00990-DAD-SAB); William Smith v. Werner Enterprises, Inc. d/b/a C.L. Werner, Inc.

21 Hansen and Adkins Auto Transport, Inc.; et al. (San Bernardino County Superior Court,
22 Case No. CIVDS2020832); Bobby Williams v. Mohsen Transport, Inc. (San Diego County
23 Superior Court, Case No. 37-2019-00063361-CU-OE-CTL); and Ashton Harden vs.
24 Mushiana Transport Inc. (Sacramento County Superior Court, Case No. 34-2021-00301950-25 CU-OE-GDS).

26 11. I have also been named as class counsel in numerous cases during the settlement process.
27 Here is a non-exhaustive list of cases where I have been named as class counsel in cases
28 during the settlement process: Kenneth Cox v. 3PL Worx, et al. (Yolo County Superior

4 12. On April 21, 2023, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Complaint alleging causes
5 of action against Defendant for failure to pay all straight time wages, failure to pay all
6 overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest 7 periods, failure to adopt a compliant sick pay policy, knowing and intentional failure to 8 comply with itemized employee wage statement provisions, failure to pay all wages due at 9 the time of termination of employment, failure to reimburse/illegal deductions, and 10 violation of the Unfair Competition Law.

11 13. On April 19, 2023, Plaintiff provided notice to the Labor and Workforce Development
12 Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant in accordance with the Private Attorneys General Act
13 of 2004 (“PAGA”). On August 14, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding
14 a cause of action against ABR for violation of the PAGA. The First Amended Complaint
15 is the operative complaint in the Action.

16 14. After filing, the Parties engaged in informal discovery. These discovery efforts led to 17 Defendant producing policy documents that covered employees’ employment with 18 Defendant, and time and wage records. Included within these documents were Defendant’s 19 wage and hour policies, including its meal and rest period policies. Defendant also 20 produced time and wage records for a 20% random sampling of the Class Members which 21 Plaintiff’s Counsel analyzed. The sampling should be reflective of the entire Class as the 22 employees included in it were selected at random. Defendant further produced Plaintiff’s
23 personnel file and time and pay records. Plaintiff also requested, and Defendant produced, 24 data surrounding the number of current and former employees, as well as the number of 25 workweeks worked by Class Members during the relevant time period, to establish a 26 potential exposure model in preparation for mediation. From this discovery, Plaintiff and 27 his Counsel were able to analyze Defendant’s liability in this action and prepare a realistic 28 damage model.

- 1 15. The Parties attended an all-day mediation presided over by respected wage and hour
2 mediator Jeffrey Ross on November 14, 2023. This mediation was ultimately successful.
3 The Parties then met and conferred over all the terms of the settlement and finalized their 4 settlement in the Parties' Agreement. The Parties Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 5 1.
- 6 16. Class Counsel applies for an award of attorneys' fees in the sum of $266,640 (33.33% of 7 the GSA), and litigation costs of $16,764.40.
- 8 17. Class Counsel at the Mara Law Firm, PC, have worked 279 hours to date on this case and 9 have calculated the lodestar fee on those hours at $197,000 at rates reflecting those 10 currently earned in the marketplace.
- 11 18. All of the work and tasks performed by Class Counsel were reasonable and necessary to 12 the prosecution of this case and are reflected in the result achieved.
- 13 19. This was a highly contested matter which required a significant amount of time and labor.
14 Class Counsel had to investigate and analyze documents and data for Plaintiff and a 15 sampling of Class Members. In addition, as part of the above investigation and analysis,
16 Plaintiff had to marshal the evidence in a manner in which it could be adjudicated on a
17 class-wide basis. So often, lawyers unskilled in the class action aspect of wage and hour 18 cases do not pay attention to or put the work into how the evidence must be presented for 19 class-wide adjudication. Strong class-wide cases perish in the hands of inexperienced
20 counsel because the case has not been worked up to succeed at certification. Class Counsel 21 here has considerable experience in class litigation and, from the beginning of the case, is 22 marshalling the evidence with a sharp focus on class-wide proof needed for the matter to 23 get certified. This case was no different. This filtering of voluminous evidence into class-
24 wide proof while keeping an eye on the merits of the litigation required a considerable 25 amount of attorney time and skill.
- 26 20. All services were performed by Class Counsel on a contingent basis.
- 27 21. Class Counsel's hourly rates are between $340 and $800 and are in line with rates typically 28 approved in wage and hour class action litigation and which rates have been approved by

1 Courts in California in the Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Francisco, Alameda, Orange and 2 San Diego County Superior Courts.

3 22. I devoted 148 hours to this case. The following is a summary of my tasks and activities
4 performed in the litigation of this matter: initial case intake with Plaintiff; research into 5 new case; pre-filing investigation and legal research; reviewing and revising initial 6 complaint in class action and related documents; reviewing and revising PAGA notice;
7 researching and investigating legal issues throughout case; interoffice discussions
8 throughout case; investigating Defendant's pay-structures and policies for its employees;
9 analyzing records produced by Defendant relating to its policies, pay-structures, and time
10 keeping; creating document summary; performing an analysis on the sampling of Class
11 Member time and wage records; reviewing and revising mediation brief, supplement to the 12 mediation brief, and mediation damage and exposure model; preparing for and attending
13 mediation; reviewing and revising the settlement agreement and the Notice to the Class;
14 reviewing and revising preliminary approval motion and supporting papers; drafting 15 declaration in support of preliminary approval; reviewing weekly status reports from the 16 Settlement Administrator regarding Class participation; drafting declaration in support of 17 final approval; and reviewing and revising final approval motion and supporting 18 documents.

19 23. My hourly rate is $800. Based on my hourly rate and the hours expended, 148, my fee is 20 $118,400, which is reasonable and necessary to the successful litigation of this matter.

21 24. Jill Vecchi is a partner at Mara Law Firm, PC. She solely handles wage and hour class
22 actions and PAGA actions. Ms. Vecchi graduated from Santa Clara University School of 23 Law and was admitted to practice law in California in December 2014 and received her
24 undergraduate degree from University of California, Riverside in 2010. Ms. Vecchi has

On August 14, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding a cause of action against ABR for violation of the PAGA. The First Amended Complaint is the operative complaint in the Action (the “Operative Complaint”). ABR denies the allegations in the Operative Complaint, denies any failure to comply with the laws identified in in the Operative Complaint and denies any and all liability for the causes of action alleged.
- 2.2 Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a), Plaintiff gave timely written notice to ABR and the LWDA by sending the PAGA Notice.
- 2.3 On November 14, 2023, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation with Jeffrey Ross, which led to this Agreement to settle the Action.

Plaintiff’s investigation was sufficient to satisfy the criteria for court approval set forth in Dunk v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 and *Kullar v. If the Court approves a Class Representative Service Payment less than the amount requested, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount. The Administrator will pay the Class Representative Service Payment using IRS Form 1099. The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. The 60% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.
- 3.2.4.2 Effect of Non-Participating Class Members on Calculation of Individual Class Payments. Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments. Any amounts allocated to Non-Participating Class Members' Individual Class Payments will be added to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members.
- 3.2.5 To the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: PAGA Penalties in the amount of $50,000 to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, with 75% ($37,500) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($12,500) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.
- 3.2.5.1 The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($12,500) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.

4. SETTLEMENT FUNDING AND PAYMENTS.

- 4.1 Class Workweeks and Aggrieved Employee Pay Periods. Based on a review of its records to date, ABR estimates there are 98 Class Members who collectively worked a total of 7,264 Workweeks, and 77 Aggrieved Employees who worked an estimated total of 3,539 workweeks.
- 4.2 Class Data. Not later than 15 days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, ABR will simultaneously deliver the Class Data to the Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. To protect Class Members' privacy rights, the Administrator must maintain the Class Data in confidence, use the Class Data only for purposes of this Settlement and for no other purpose, and restrict access to the Class Data to Administrator employees who need access to the Class Data to effect and perform under this Agreement. ABR has a continuing duty to immediately notify Class Counsel if it discovers that the Class Data omitted class member identifying information and to provide corrected or updated Class Data as soon as reasonably feasible. Without any extension of the deadline by which ABR must send the Class Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use best efforts, in good faith, to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or omitted Class Data.
- 4.3 Funding of Gross Settlement Amount. ABR shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay ABR's share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than 14 days after the Effective Date.
- 4.4 Payments from the Gross Settlement Amount. Within 14 days after ABR funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will mail checks for all Individual Class Payments, all Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class Representative Service Payment. Disbursement of the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and the Class Representative Service Payment shall not precede disbursement of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments.
- 4.4.1 The Administrator will issue checks for the Individual Class Payments and/or Individual PAGA Payments and send them to the Class Members via First Class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid. The face of each check shall prominently state the date (not less than 180 days after the date of mailing) when the check will be voided. The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. The Administrator will send checks for Individual Settlement Payments to all Participating Class Members (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees including Non-Participating Class Members who qualify as Aggrieved Employees (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator may send Participating Class Members a single check combining the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment. Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update the recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database.

- 4.4.2 The Administrator must conduct a Class Member Address Search for all other Class Members whose checks are returned undelivered without United States Postal Service ("USPS") forwarding address. Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Class Member prior to the void date.
- 4.4.3 For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 384, subdivision (b).
- 4.4.4 The payment of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments shall not obligate ABR to confer any additional benefits or make any additional payments to Class Members (such as 401(k) contributions or bonuses) beyond those specified in this Agreement.

Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.

- 7.4.3 Not later than 3 business days after the Administrator's receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.
- 10.4 Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties’ obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.
- 10.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

- 11. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit and a proposed amended judgment.

12. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

- 12.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by ABR that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that ABR has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that ABR's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, ABR reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and ABR reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest ABR's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).
- 12.2 Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, ABR and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, ABR and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, any with third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that "the matter was resolved," or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

- 12.3 No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 12.4 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants or inducements made to or by any Party.
- 12.5 Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and ABR, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 12.6 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.
- 12.7 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered or purported to assign, transfer or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 12.8 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, ABR nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 12.9 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives and approved by the Court.

- 12.10 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 12.11 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the State of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 12.12 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.
- 12.13 Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made and orders entered during Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 12.14 Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Evidence Code section 1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by ABR in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute or California Rules of Court rule. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from ABR unless, prior to the Court's discharge of the Administrator's obligation, ABR makes a written request to Class Counsel for the return, rather than the destruction, of Class Data.
- 12.15 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 12.16 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.
- 12.17 Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

EXHIBIT A

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

William Giron v. Accent Building Restoration, Inc.
Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. 23STCV08941

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully! It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against Accent Building Restoration, Inc. (abbreviate name; “ABR” is used herein as a placeholder) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former ABR employee William Giron (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) back wages and penalties for a class of non-exempt hourly employees (“Class Members”) who worked for ABR during the Class Period of April 21, 2019 to November 16, 2023; and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all non-exempt hourly employees who worked for ABR during the PAGA Period (April 19, 2022 to November 16, 2023) (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring ABR to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring ABR to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on ABR’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $_____ (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $_____. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to ABR’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on ABR’s records showing that you worked _____ workweeks during the Class Period and you worked _____ workweeks during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires ABR to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against ABR.

If you worked for ABR during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement.

- (1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against ABR.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against ABR, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

ABR will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against ABR that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is [INSERT]	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. ABR must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).
Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections	All Class Members who do not opt-out ("Participating Class Members") can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court's decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.

Must be Submitted by [INSERT]
You Can Participate in the [INSERT] Final Approval Hearing	The Court's Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on [INSERT]. You don't have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court's virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by [INSERT]	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to ABR's records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by [INSERT]. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former ABR employee. The Action accuses ABR of violating California labor laws by failing to pay overtime wages, minimum wages, wages due upon termination and reimbursable expenses; failing to provide meal periods, rest breaks and accurate itemized wage statements; and failing to implement a lawful sick pay/paid time off policy. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Lab. Code, § 2698, et seq.) ("PAGA"). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action:

 Telephone: (323) 486-5101

(Plaintiff's attorneys are referred to as "Class Counsel.")

ABR strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether ABR or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and ABR hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating an to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement ("Agreement") and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and ABR have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court's Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, ABR does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) ABR has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. ABR Will Pay $800,000 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). ABR has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and expenses, the Administrator's expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, ABR will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 14 days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $266,640 (33.33 % of the Gross Settlement) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $30,000 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.

- B. Up to $15,000 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
- C. Up to $15,000 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
- D. Up to $50,000 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

- 3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the "Net Settlement") by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
- 4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and ABR are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 40% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages ("Wage Portion") and 60% to penalties and interest ("Non-Wage Portion"). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. (ABR will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion.) The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and ABR have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

- 5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don't cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller's Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.
- 6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [INSERT], that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the [INSERT] Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her/their representative setting forth a Class Member's name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against ABR.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against ABR based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and ABR have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: ABR will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against ABR.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, ILYM Group, Inc. (the "Administrator") to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members' Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and ABR has fully funded the Gross Settlement (and separately paid all employer payroll taxes), Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue or be part of any other lawsuit against ABR or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, release Released Parties from (i) all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and ascertained in the course of the Action including, e.g., failure to pay all straight time wages, failure to pay all overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to adopt a compliant sick pay policy, failure to comply with itemized employee wage statement provisions, failure to pay all wages due at the time of termination, failure to reimburse/illegal deductions, and violation of the Unfair Competition Law. This release will be for the Class Period.

Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of the Settlement Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

10. Aggrieved Employees' PAGA Release. After the Court's judgment is final, and ABR has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against ABR, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue or participate in any other PAGA claim against ABR or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Aggrieved Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties, from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint, the PAGA Notice, and ascertained in the course of the Action including, e.g., failure to pay all straight time wages, failure to pay all overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to adopt a compliant sick pay policy, failure to comply with itemized employee wage statement provisions, failure to pay all wages due at the time of termination, and failure to reimburse/illegal deductions. This release will be for the PAGA Period..

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $12,500 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in ABR's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until [INSERT] to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept ABR's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on ABR's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and ABR's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as Giron v. Accent Building Restoration, Inc., and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by [INSERT], or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and ABR are asking the Court to approve. At least [INSERT] days before the [INSERT] Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as a Class Representative Service Award. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website at [INSERT] or the Court's by searching for Case Number "23STCV08941" at:

https://www.lacourt.org/casesummary/ui/index.aspx?casetype=civil_

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award may wish to object, for example, that the proposed Settlement is unfair, or that the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff are too high or too low. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is [INSERT]. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Action Giron v. Accent Building Restoration, Inc. and include your name, current address, telephone number and approximate dates of employment for ABR and sign the objection. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. See Section 8 of this Notice (immediately below) for specifics regarding the Final Approval Hearing.

8. CAN I ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING?

You can, but don't have to, attend the Final Approval Hearing on [INSERT] at [INSERT] in Department 6 of the Los Angeles Superior Court, located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012. At the Hearing, the judge will decide whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement and how much of the Gross Settlement will be paid to Class Counsel, Plaintiff and the Administrator. The Court will invite comment from objectors, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel before making a decision. You can attend (or hire a lawyer to attend) either personally or virtually via LACourtConnect (<https://www.lacourt.org/lacc/>). Check the Court's website for the most current information.

It's possible the Court will reschedule the Final Approval Hearing. You should check the Administrator's website at [INSERT] beforehand or contact Class Counsel to verify the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing.

9. HOW CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION?

The Agreement sets forth everything ABR and Plaintiff have promised to do under the proposed Settlement. The easiest way to read the Agreement, the Judgment or any other Settlement documents is to go to the settlement website at [\[INSERT\]](#).

You can also telephone or send an email to Class Counsel or the Administrator using the contact information listed below, or consult the Superior Court website by going to (<http://www.lacourt.org/casesummary/ui/index.aspx>) and entering the Case Number for the Action, Case No. 23STCV08941. Dept.: C-69

Judge: Hon. Katherine A. Bacal

Complaint Filed: August 16, 2004

1 I, RICHARD M. PEARL, hereby declare the following:

2 1. I am a member in good standing of the California State Bar. I am in 3 private practice as the principal of my own law firm, the Law Offices of Richard
4 M. Pearl, in Berkeley, California. I specialize in issues related to court-awarded 5 attorneys' fees, including the representation of parties in fee litigation and 6 appeals, serving as an expert witness, and serving as a mediator and arbitrator in 7 disputes concerning attorneys' fees and related issues. In this case, I have been 8 asked by Plaintiffs' counsel to render my opinion on the reasonableness of the 9 hourly rates they are requesting in this matter. I make this Declaration in Support
10 of Plaintiffs' Motion for Award of Reasonable Attorneys' Fees.

11 Professional Background

12 1. Briefly summarized, my background is as follows: I am a 1969
13 graduate of Boalt Hall School of Law, University of California, Berkeley, 14 California. I took the California Bar Examination in August 1969 and passed it in 15 November of that year, but because I was working as an attorney in Atlanta, 16 Georgia for the Legal Aid Society of Atlanta (LASA), I was not admitted to the 17 California Bar until January 1970. I worked for LASA until summer of 1971,
18 when I then went to work in California's Central Valley for California Rural Legal 19 Assistance, Inc. (CRLA), a statewide legal services program. From 1977 to 1982, 20 I was CRLA's Director of Litigation, supervising more than fifty attorneys. In 21 1982, I went into private practice, first in a small law firm, then as a sole 22 practitioner. Martindale Hubbell rates my law firm "AV." I also have been 23 selected as a Northern California "Super Lawyer" in Appellate Law for 2005,
24 2006, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, and 2014. A copy of my current 25 Resume is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

26 2. Since 1982, my practice has been a general civil litigation and 27 appellate practice, with an emphasis on cases and appeals involving court-awarded 28 attorneys' fees. I also am the author of California Attorney Fee Awards (3d ed.

1 Cal. CEB 2010) and its February 2011, 2012, 2013, and March 2014 Supplements,
2 as well as all its previous editions and annual supplements. California appellate
3 courts have cited this treatise on more than 35 occasions. See, e.g., Graham v.
4 DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, 576, 584; Lolley v. Campbell (2002)
5 28 Cal.4th 367, 373; Chacon v. Litke (2010) 181 Cal.App.4th 1234, 1259; Syers
6 Properties III, Inc. v. Rankin (2014) 226 Cal.App.4th 691, 698, 700. I also have
7 lectured and written extensively on court-awarded attorneys' fees. I have been a
8 member of the California State Bar's Attorneys' Fees Task Force and have 9 testified before the State Bar Board of Governors and the California Legislature on 10 attorneys' fee issues. In addition, I authored a federal manual on attorneys' fees
11 entitled Attorneys' Fees: A Legal Services Practice Manual, published by the 12 Legal Services Corporation. I also co-authored the chapter on "Attorney Fees" in 13 Volume 2 of CEB's Wrongful Employment Termination Practice, 2d Ed. (1997).

14 3. More than 90% of my practice is devoted to issues involving court-
15 awarded attorneys' fees. I have been counsel in over 180 attorneys' fee
16 applications in state and federal courts, primarily representing other attorneys. I 17 also have briefed and argued more than 40 appeals, at least 25 of which have 18 involved attorneys' fees issues. I have successfully handled five cases in the 19 California Supreme Court involving court-awarded attorneys' fees: (1) Maria P. v.
20 Riles (1987) 43 Cal.3d 1281, a landmark early decision on the scope of California
21 Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5; (2) Delaney v. Baker (1999) 20 Cal.4th 22 23, which held that heightened remedies, including attorneys' fees, are available in 23 suits against nursing homes under California's Elder Abuse Act; (3) Ketchum v.
24 Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, which held, inter alia, that contingent risk 25 multipliers remain available under California attorney fee law, despite the United 26 States Supreme Court's contrary ruling on federal law (note that in Ketchum, I was 27 primary appellate counsel in the Court of Appeal and "second chair" in the 28 Supreme Court); (4) Flannery v. Prentice (2001) 26 Cal.4th 572, which held that in

1 the absence of an agreement to the contrary, statutory attorneys' fees belong to the 2 attorney whose services they are based upon; and (5) Graham v. DaimlerChrysler
3 Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, which held, inter alia, that the "catalyst" theory was 4 still valid under California law despite federal Supreme Court authority to the 5 contrary. I also represented and argued on behalf of amicus curiae in 6 Conservatorship of McQueen (2014) 59 Cal.4th 602, and, along with Richard
7 Rothschild, filed an amicus curiae brief in Vasquez v. State of California (2009) 45
8 Cal.4th 243. I also have handled numerous other appeals involving attorney's fees,
9 including: Davis v. City & County of San Francisco (9th Cir. 1992) 976 F.2d 1536;
10 Mangold v. CPUC (9th Cir. 1995) 67 F.3d 1470; Moore v. Bank of America (9th
11 Cir. 2007) 245 Fed.Appx. 613; Velez v. Wynne (9th Cir. 2007) 2007
12 U.S.App.LEXIS 2194; Camacho v. Bridgeport Financial, Inc. (9th Cir. 2008) 523
13 F.3d 973; Center for Biological Diversity v. County of San Bernardino (2010) 185
14 Cal.App.4th 866; and Environmental Protection Information Center v. California
15 Dept. of Forestry & Fire Protection et al (2010) 190 Cal.App.4th 217. For an 16 expanded list of my representative decisions, see Exhibit A.

17 4. I also have been retained by various governmental entities, including 18 the State of California, at my then current rates to consult with them regarding their 19 affirmative attorney fee claims.

20 5. I am frequently called upon to opine about the reasonableness of 21 attorneys' fees, and numerous federal and state courts have cited my testimony on 22 that issue favorably. The reported cases referencing my testimony include the 23 following California appellate courts: Laffite v. Robert Half Int'l (2014)
24 __Cal.App.4th __, 2014 Cal.App.LEXIS 1059; In re Tobacco Cases I (2013) 216
25 Cal.App.4th 570; Heritage Pacific Financial LLC v. Monroy (2013) 215
26 Cal.App.4th 972, 1009; Children's Hospital & Medical Center v. Bonta (2002) 97
27 Cal.App.4th 740; Wilkinson v. South City Ford (2010) 2010 Cal.App.Unpub.
28 LEXIS 8680; Church of Scientology v. Wollersheim (1996) 42 Cal.App.4th 628

(anti-SLAPP case). My declaration also has been favorably referenced by the following federal courts: Prison Legal News v. Schwarzenegger (9th Cir. 2010) 608 F.3d 446, 455, in which the expert declaration referred to in that opinion is mine; Antoninetti v. Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc. (9th Cir. 2012) Order filed Dec. 26, 2012; In re TFT-LCD (Flat Panel) Antitrust Litigation (N.D.Cal. 2013) No. M 07-1827 SI, MDL, No. 1827, Report and Recommendation of Special Master re Motions for Attorneys' Fees etc., filed Nov. 9, 2012, adopted in relevant part, 2013 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 49885; Rosenfeld v. United States Dept. of Justice (N.D. Cal. 2012) 904 F.Supp.2d 988; Stonebrae v. Toll Bros. (N.D. Cal. 2011) 2011 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 39832, at *9 (thorough discussion), aff'd (9th Cir. 2013) 2013 U.S.App.LEXIS 6369; Hajro v. United States Citizenship & Immigration Service (N.D.Cal 2012) 900 F.Supp.2d 1034, 1054; Armstrong v. Brown (N.D. Cal. 2011) 2011 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 87428; Californians for Disability Rights, Inc. v. California Dept. of Transportation (N.D. Cal. 2010) 2010 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 141030; Prison Legal News v. Schwarzenegger (N.D. Cal. 2008) 561 F.Supp.2d 1095 (an earlier motion); Oberfelder v. City of Petaluma (N.D. Cal. 2002) 2002 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 8635, aff'd (9th Cir. 2003) 2003 U.S.App.LEXIS 11371; Bancroft v. Trizechahn Corp., C.D. Cal. No. CV 02-2373 SVW (FMOx), Order Granting Reasonable Attorneys' Fees etc., filed Aug. 14, 2006; Willoughby v. DT Credit Corp., C.D. Cal. No. CV 05-05907 MMM (Cwx), Order Awarding Reasonable Attorneys' Fees After Remand, filed July 17, 2006; A.D. v. California Highway Patrol (N.D.Cal. 2009) 2009 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 110743, rev's'd on other grounds (9th Cir. 2013) 712 F.3d 446, reaffirmed and additional fees awarded on remand at 2013 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 169275; National Federation of the Blind v. Target Corp. (N.D.Cal. 2009) 2009 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 67139. In addition, numerous trial courts have relied upon my testimony in unpublished fee orders.

6. I also have extensive experience litigating the merits of class actions, including numerous housing, government benefits, and consumer class actions.

1 See, e.g., Employment Dev. Dept. v. Superior Court (Boren) (1981) 30 Cal.3d 256.

2 I also have represented Class Counsel on their fee requests in numerous highly-
3 contested class actions, including Davis v. City & County of San Francisco, supra,
4 Duran v. First National Bank, Alameda County Superior Court No. 2001-035537,
5 and Molina, et al. v. Lexmark International, et al., Los Angeles County Superior
6 Court No. BC339177.

7 7. In this matter, I have reviewed several documents from the underlying 8 litigation and fee motion, including the entire Motion for Preliminary Approval, as 9 well as the declarations of Plaintiffs' principal counsel filed in support of the 10 instant motion. I also have discussed the case with class counsel Julie Corbo-
11 Ridley.

12 PLAINTIFFS' ATTORNEYS' HOURLY RATES ARE 13 REASONABLE

14 8. Through my writing and practice, I have become knowledgeable 15 about the non-contingent market rates charged by attorneys in California and 16 elsewhere. I have obtained this knowledge in several ways: (1) by handling
17 attorneys' fee litigation; (2) by preparing expert declarations in numerous cases;
18 (3) by discussing fees with other attorneys; (4) by obtaining declarations regarding 19 prevailing market rates in cases in which I represent attorneys seeking fees; and (5) 20 by reviewing attorneys' fee applications and awards in other cases, as well as 21 surveys and articles on attorneys' fees in the legal newspapers and treatises.

22 9. I am aware of the hourly rates being requested by Plaintiffs' attorneys
23 in this case, their experience and qualifications, the nature of the work performed, 24 and the results achieved. Under California law, Plaintiff's attorneys are entitled to 25 their requested rates if those rates are "within the range of reasonable rates charged 26 by and judicially awarded comparable attorneys for comparable work." Children's 27 Hosp. & Med. Ctr. v. Bonta [CHMC] (2002) 97 Cal.App.4th 740, 783. In my 28 opinion, the information about non-contingent hourly rates I have gathered, some

1 of which is summarized below, shows that the rates requested by Plaintiffs'
2 counsel in this matter are well within the range of the non-contingent market rates
3 charged by California and San Diego attorneys of reasonably comparable
4 experience, skill, and expertise for reasonably comparable services. I base that 5 opinion in large part on the following data:

6 Court Awards

7 10. Several of the Plaintiffs' law firms have had the hourly rates requested
8 here, or their equivalent rates in prior years, approved by the courts in other class
9 actions. For example, Hurst & Hurst's rates were found reasonable in Serochi v.
10 Bosa Development California II, Inc., et al., San Diego Superior Court Case No.:
11 37-2009-00096686-CU-BT-CTL. Similarly, Ms. Lorens's 2012 rate of $795/hour
12 was approved in November 2012 in Hoch v. Rockin' Baja Coastal Cantina, et al., 13 San Diego Superior Court Case No. 37-2012-00095176-CU-OE-CTL/Mojica v.
14 Rockin' Baja Coastal Cantina, et al., San Diego Superior Court Case No. 37-2012-
15 00091490-CU-OE-CTL. This is highly probative evidence of the reasonableness
16 of their rates in subsequent reasonably similar cases.

17 11. Counsel's rates are also consistent with the following court awards
18 from the Southern District of California¹:

19 (1) In Hartless v. Clorox, 273 F.R.D. 630, 644 (S.D. Cal. 2011), the 20 Court found, inter alia, that class counsel's requested rates were consistent with 21 the hourly rates found reasonable in numerous other class actions and with rates
22 charged by other firms in the San Diego area, including rates of $795 per hour for a
23 25-year attorney and $675 per hour for an experienced partner. 273 F.R.D. at 644.

24
25 ¹ In my experience, for purposes of the hourly rates charged and found reasonable by the courts,
26 the differences between types of class actions (i.e. wage and hour class actions versus consumer 27 class actions) are not significant, either factually or legally. See, e.g., Heritage Pacific Financial,
28 LLC v. Monroy, 215 Cal.App.4th 972, 1009 (2013); Camacho v. Bridgeport Financial, Inc., 523
F.3d 973, 979 (9th Cir. 2008).

1 Given the rate increases that have occurred over the ensuing three years, counsel's
2 rates here are certainly within the same range.

3 (2) In Shames v. Hertz Corp., 2012-2 Trade Case. (CCH) ¶78,120 (S.D.
4 Cal. 2012), the Court, relying on Hartless, found that plaintiffs' San Diego
5 Counsel there were comparable in skill and experience to the attorneys whose rates
6 were found reasonable in Hartless. At *59-61.

7 (3) In Briarwood Capital LLC v. HCC Investors LLC, San Diego
8 Superior Court No. GIC877446, on March 30, 2011, the court (Judge William R.
9 Nevitt Jr.) found that the 2009 hourly rates charged by the San Diego office of 10 Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossman LLP -- $725 for partners, $490-550 for 11 associates -- were reasonable.

12 (4) Similarly, in the same case, the court found that the 2009 rates
13 charged by the Century City office of O'Melveny & Myers LLP, including rates of 14 $860-950 for a 36-37 year attorney and $700-710 for 16-18 year attorneys also 15 were reasonable for San Diego litigation. Again, given the rate increases that have 16 occurred over the past three years, Plaintiffs' attorneys' current rates here are in the 17 same range as those found reasonable in Briarwood Capital.

18 (5) In Atlas v. Accredited Home Lenders Holdings, Co. Case No. 07-
19 CV-488-H-CAB (S.D. Cal. 2009), the court (Judge Marilyn Huff) found the 2009
20 rates charged by Bernstein Litowitz's San Diego office reasonable. Again, those 21 rates ranged from $490 to $550 for associates, and $725 for a partner.

22 (6) In In re Virgil's Tours, Case No. 08-30659 (Bank. N.D. Cal. 2008),
23 the court found reasonable the 2008 rates requested by Morrison & Foerster LLP's
24 San Diego office. Those rates ranged from $600 to $675 for partners, from $350 to 25 $485 for associates, and from $220 to $245 for paralegals.

26 (7) In Qualcomm, Inc. v. Broadcom, Inc. Case No. 05-CV-1958-B,
27 2008 WL 2705161 (S.D. Cal. 2008), the court found the 2007 hourly rates
28 requested by Wilmer Cutler, Pickering, Hale & Dorr LLP reasonable for San

1 Diego-based litigation. Those rates ranged from $45 to $300 for staff and
2 Paralegals, from $275 to $505 for associates and counsel, and from $435 to $850
3 for partners.

4 12. In addition to local courts, the following hourly rates have been
5 found reasonable by various California courts for reasonably similar services:

6 2014

7 (1) IPVX Patent Holdings, Inc. v. Voxernet LLC, N.D. Cal. No.
8 5:13-CV-01708-HRL, a patent infringement case, in which the court found the

Rate Information from Surveys

12. I also base my opinion on several credible surveys of legal rates, including the following:

- The 2014 Laffey Matrix is a survey of District of Columbia hourly rates that is often relied upon in other jurisdictions, with appropriate adjustments for differences in income levels, to determine reasonable hourly rates. See, e.g., Syers Properties III, Inc. v. Rankin (2014) 226 Cal.App.4th 691, 695. A copy of that survey is attached hereto as Exhibit B. It shows that for attorneys with 20+ years out of law school, the prevailing market in the period between June 1, 2013, and May 31, 2014 was $771 per hour. For lawyers with 11-19 years out of law school, the prevailing rate for the same period was $640 per hour. The difference in the Local Pay Tables for the Washington D.C. area and the San Diego-Carlsbad-San Marcos areas are de minimis -- .03%.

- 1 • On January 13, 2014, the National Law Journal published an article
2 about its most recent rate survey. That article included a chart listing
3 the billing rates of the 50 firms that charge the highest average hourly
4 rates for partners. A true and correct copy of that article is attached
5 hereto as Exhibit C. Of the 50 firms listed, several have offices in the 6 San Diego area and many others have significant litigation experience
7 in this area. And, although the rates that Plaintiffs' counsel are 8 requesting here are significantly lower than many of the rates charged
9 by the top 50 firms, the NLJ chart does show the range of rates
10 charged for similar services, which is the applicable standard. See
11 CHMC, 97 Cal.App.4th at 783.
- 12 • In an article entitled "On Sale: The $1,150-Per Hour Lawyer," 13 written by Jennifer Smith and published in the Wall Street Journal on 14 April 9, 2013, the author describes the rapidly growing number of 15 lawyers billing at $1,150 or more revealed in public filings and major 16 surveys. A true and correct copy of that article is attached hereto as 17 Exhibit D. The article also notes that in the first quarter of 2013, the 18 50 top-grossing law firms billed their partners at an average rate 19 between $879 and $882 per hour.
- 20 • In an article published April 16, 2012, the Am Law Daily described
21 the 2012 Real Rate Report, an analysis of $7.6 billion in legal bills
22 paid by corporations over a five-year period ending in December
23 2011. A true and correct copy of that article is attached hereto as 24 Exhibit E. That article confirms that the rates charged by experienced 25 and well-qualified attorneys have continued to rise over the five-year
26 period between 2006 and 2011, particularly in large urban areas. It 27 also shows, for example, that the top quartile of lawyers bill at an 28 average of "just under $900 per hour."

7 13. The declaration of San Diego attorneys Vincent J. Bartolotta and 8 Timothy Blood, filed with this motion, also support the rates requested here. All of 9 this evidence shows that Plaintiffs' requested rates are well within the range of 10 rates charged in this forum by comparably qualified and experienced attorneys for 11 comparably difficult work.

12 14. In my experience, fee awards are almost always determined based on 13 current rates, i.e., the attorney's rate at the time a motion for fees is made, rather 14 than the historical rate at the time the work was performed. This is a common and 15 accepted practice to compensate attorneys for the delay in being paid. The hourly
16 rates set forth above are those charged where full payment is expected promptly 17 upon the rendition of the billing and without consideration of factors other than 18 hours and rates. If any substantial part of the payment were to be deferred for any 19 substantial period of time, for example, the fee arrangement would be adjusted
20 accordingly to compensate the attorneys for those factors.

21 15. If called as a witness, I could and would competently testify from my 22 personal knowledge to the facts stated herein. I declare under penalty of perjury
23 that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 25th day of November 2014, in 24 Berkeley, California.

The methodology of calculation and benchmarking for this Updated Laffey Matrix has been approved in a number of cases. See, e.g., McDowell v. District of Columbia, Civ. A. No. 00-594 (RCL), LEXSEE 2001 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8114 (D.D.C. June 4, 2001); Salazar v. Dist. of Col., 123 F.Supp.2d 8 (D.D.C. 2000).

* "Years Out of Law School" is calculated from June 1 of each year, when most law students graduate. "1-3" includes an attorney in his 1st, 2nd and 3rd years of practice, measured from date of graduation (June 1). "4-7" applies to attorneys in their 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th years of practice. An attorney who graduated in May 1996 would be in tier "1-3" from June 1, 1996 until May 31, 1999, would move into tier "4-7" on June 1, 1999, and tier "8-10" on June 1, 2003.

 The Adjustment Factor refers to the nation-wide Legal Services Component of the Consumer Price Index produced by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor.

Body

As recently as five years ago, law partners charging $1,000 an hour were outliers. Today, four-figure hourly rates for in-demand partners at the most prestigious firms don't raise eyebrows-and a few top earners are closing in on $2,000 an hour.

These rate increases come despite hand-wringing over price pressures from clients amid a tough economy. But ever-rising standard billing rates also obscure the growing practice of discounts, falling collection rates, and slow march toward alternative fee arrangements.

Nearly 20 percent of the firms included in The National Law Journal's annual survey of large law firm billing rates this year had at least one partner charging more than $1,000 an hour. Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher partner Theodore Olson had the highest rate recorded in our survey, billing $1,800 per hour while representing mobile satellite service provider LightSquared Inc. in Chapter 11 proceedings.

Of course, few law firm partners claim Olson's star power. His rate in that case is nearly the twice the $980 per hour average charged by Gibson Dunn partners and three times the average $604 hourly rate among partners at NLJ 350 firms. Gibson Dunn chairman and managing partner Ken Doran said Olson's rate is "substantially" above that of other partners at the firm, and that the firm's standard rates are in line with its peers.

"While the majority of Ted Olson's work is done under alternative billing arrangements, his hourly rate reflects his stature in the legal community, the high demand for his services and the unique value that he offers to clients given his extraordinary experience as a former solicitor general of the United States who has argued more than 60 cases before the U.S. Supreme Court and has counseled several presidents," Doran said.

In reviewing billing data this year, we took a new approach, asking each firm on the NLJ 350-our survey of the nation's 350 largest firms by attorney headcount-to provide their highest, lowest and average billing rates for associates and partners. We supplemented those data through public records. All together, this year's survey includes information for 159 of the country's largest law firms and reflects billing rates as of October.

The figures show that, even in a down economy, hiring a large law firm remains a pricey prospect. The median among the highest partner billing rates reported at each firm is $775 an hour, while the median low partner rate is $405. For associates, the median high stands at $510 and the low at $235. The average associate rate is $370.

Multiple industry studies show that law firm billing rates continued to climb during 2013 despite efforts by corporate counsel to rein them in. TyMetrix's 2013 Real Rate Report Snapshot found that the average law firm billing rate increased by 4.8 percent compared with 2012. Similarly, the Center for the Study of the Legal Profession at the Georgetown University Law Center and Thomson Reuters Peer Monitor found that law firms increased their rates by an average 3.5 percent during 2013.

Richard Pearl

$1,000 Per Hour Isn't Rare Anymore; Nominal billing levels rise, but discounts ease blow.

Of course, rates charged by firms on paper don't necessarily reflect what clients actually pay. Billing realization rates-which reflect the percentage of work billed at firms' standard rates- have fallen from 89 percent in 2010 to nearly 87 percent in 2013 on average, according to the Georgetown study. When accounting for billed hours actually collected by firms, the realization rate falls to 83.5 percent.

"What this means, of course, is that- on average-law firms are collecting only 83.5 cents for every $1.00 of standard time they record," the Georgetown report reads. "To understand the full impact, one need only consider that at the end of 2007, the collected realization rate was at the 92 percent level."

In other words, law firms set rates with the understanding that they aren't likely to collect the full amount, said Mark Medice, who oversees the Peer Monitor Index. That index gauges the strength of the legal market according to economic indicators including demand for legal services, productivity, rates and expenses. "Firms start out with the idea of, 'I want to achieve a certain rate, but it's likely that my client will ask for discounts whether or not I increase my rate,'" Medice said.

Indeed, firms bill nearly all hourly work at discounts ranging from 5 percent to 20 percent off standard rates, said Peter Zeughauser, a consultant with the Zeughauser Group. Discounts can run as high as 50 percent for matters billed under a hybrid system, wherein a law firm can earn a premium for keeping costs under a set level or for obtaining a certain outcome, he added. "Most firms have gone to a two-tier system, with what is essentially an aspirational rate that they occasionally get and a lower rate that they actually budget for," he said.

Most of the discounting happens at the front end, when firms and clients negotiate rates, Medice said. But additional discounting happens at the billing and collections stages. Handling alternative fee arrangements and discounts has become so complex that more than half of the law firms on the Am Law 100-NLJ affiliate The American Lawyer's ranking of firms by gross revenue-have created new positions for pricing directors, Zeughauser said.

THE ROLE OF GEOGRAPHY

Unsurprisingly, rates vary by location. Firms with their largest office in New York had the highest average partner and associate billing rates, at $882 and $520, respectively. Similarly, TyMetrix has reported that more than 25 percent of partners at large New York firms charge $1,000 per hour or more for contracts and commercial work.

Washington was the next priciest city on our survey, with partners charging an average $748 and associates $429. Partners charge an average $691 in Chicago and associates $427. In Los Angeles, partners charge an average $665 while the average associate rate is $401.

Pricing also depends heavily on practice area, Zeughauser and Medice said. Bet-the-company patent litigation and white-collar litigation largely remain at premium prices, while practices including labor and employment have come under huge pressure to reduce prices.

"If there was a way for law firms to hold rates, they would do it. They recognize how sensitive clients are to price increases," Zeughauser said. But declining profit margins-due in part to higher technology costs and the expensive lateral hiring market-mean that firms simply lack the option to keep rates flat, he said.

BILLING SURVEY METHODOLOGY

The National Law Journal's survey of billing rates of the largest U.S. law firms provides the high, low and average rates for partners and associates.

The NLJ asked respondents to its annual survey of the nation's largest law firms (the NLJ 350) to provide a range of hourly billing rates for partners and associates as of October 2013.

For firms that did not supply data to us, in many cases we were able to supplement billing-rate data derived from public records.

In total, we have rates for 159 of the nation's 350 largest firms.

Richard Pearl

$1,000 Per Hour Isn't Rare Anymore; Nominal billing levels rise, but discounts ease blow.

Rates data include averages, highs and low rates for partners and associates. Information also includes the average full-time equivalent (FTE) attorneys at the firm and the city of the firm's principal or largest office.

We used these data to calculate averages for the nation as a whole and for selected cities.

When It Comes to Billing, Latest Rate Report Shows the Rich Keep Getting Richer

Posted by Sara Randazzo

Hourly rates just keep rising—and the best-paid lawyers are raising their rates faster than everyone else.

Those are two of the key findings contained in the 2012 Real Rate Report, an analysis of $7.6 billion in legal bills paid by corporations over a five-year period ending in December 2011. The report, released Monday, is the second such collaboration between TyMetrix, a company that manages and audits legal bills for corporate legal departments, and the Corporate Executive Board.

Many of the new rate report's findings echo those contained in the 2010 study, including the fact that rates keep going up, almost across the board, and that the cost of a given matter can vary dramatically depending on a law firm's size and location and its relationship with a particular client.

At the same time, this year's study shows that the legal sector is becoming increasingly bifurcated, with top firms raising rates faster than those at the bottom of the market and large firms charging a premium price based purely on their size.

"What it's really showing is that there's an increased premium being paid for experience and expertise," says Julie Peck, vice president of strategy and market development at TyMetrix. "Some parts of the lawyer market are able to raise rates much more quickly, and are more impervious to economic forces than others."

To compile the current rate report, TyMetrix received permission from its clients to examine legal fees billed to 62 companies across 17 industries including energy, finance, retail, technology, insurance, and health care. The bills, which represent the amount actually paid by the companies in question rather than the amount initially charged, came from more than 4,000 firms in 84 metropolitan areas around the country. Every firm on the 2011 Am Law 100 is represented in the data.

The report's key data points include:

A Widening Gap: Hourly rates charged by lawyers in the legal sector's upper echelon grew faster between 2009 and 2011 than those charged by lawyers toiling on the lower rungs. Particularly striking was the jump in associate rates billed by those falling in the report's top quartile: 18 percent on average, to just over $600 per hour. Rates billed by top quartile partners, meanwhile, rose 8 percent, to just under $900 per hour. In the bottom quartile, associate rates rose 4 percent and partner rates rose 3 percent during the same period.

The Recession's (Minor) Toll: Even amid the economic downturn, the cost of an hour of a lawyer's time continued to rise faster than key measures of inflation. That said, the legal industry wasn't completely immune to the broader economy's slowdown. After rising 8.2 percent between 2007 and 2008, hourly rates rose just 2.3 percent in 2009. Law firms bounced back a bit last year, with rates climbing 5.1 percent, to an average of $530 an hour.

Location Counts: Not surprisingly, lawyers working in major metropolitan areas—where, as the rate report notes, rents are typically higher—are the priciest. An address in Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, or Washington, D.C., alone adds about $161 to the hourly rate charged by an individual lawyer. Those six cities and Baltimore, Houston, Philadelphia, and San Jose are the ten U.S. markets with the highest hourly rates. With an average partner rate topping $700 per hour and average associate rate of more than $450 per hour, New York is the most expensive market in the country. The least expensive? Riverside, California, where the average partner bills at under $250 per hour and associates bill at just over $300 an hour.

In the Minority: A small group of lawyers—12 percent—bucked the trend toward higher fees and actually lowered rates between 2009 to 2011—and 3 percent trimmed rates by $50 or more per hour. (Most of those in the rate-cutting camp were based outside the big six markets identified above.) At the other end of the spectrum, 52 percent of lawyers increased rates by between $25 and $200 or more per hour. Another 18 percent increased rates by less than $25 per hour, and the final 18 percent held rates steady.

First-Year Blues: Even before the recession hit, clients balked at paying for what they considered on-the-job training for first-year associates. The latest rate report is likely to reinforce that reluctance, given its finding that using entry-level lawyers adds as much as 20 percent to the cost of a legal matter. The report offers evidence that firms may be accommodating clients on this front: The percentage of bills attributed to entry-level associates dropped from 7 percent in 2009 to 2.9 percent last year.

Ties That Bind: The more work one firm handles for a client—and the longer the client relationship extends—the higher the average rate the firm charges. For companies that paid one firm $10 million or more in a single year, the average hourly rate paid was $553 in 2011. By comparison, clients that limited their spending on an individual firm to $500,000 paid that firm an average of $319 per hour.

Four-Digit Frontier: Data has consistently shown that many lawyers hesitate to charge more than $1,000 an hour, and in 2011 just under 3 percent of the lawyers covered by the rate report had broken that barrier. Of those, the vast majority were working in the six main legal markets identified above and 60 percent of the time, they billed in increments of one hour or less.

Playing Favorites: Across all practice areas, 90 percent of lawyers charged different clients different rates for similar types of work. (The figure for mergers and acquisitions lawyers was 100 percent.) The differences from client to client can be extreme, and were even more pronounced in the current report than in the 2010 edition. Rates charged by intellectual property specialists, for instance, had a median variance of 23.1 percent, while lawyers doing commercial and contract work showed a 18.7 percent median difference.

Who's Doing What? A closer look at law firm bills for work performed on litigation and intellectual property assignments shows that the kind of timekeeper billing on a matter varies by practice type. On patent matters, the report shows, 47 percent of hours billed on average are attributed to paralegals, and 37 percent by partners. By comparison, paralegals account for just 8 percent of the work done on labor and employment litigation hours, while partners handle 45 percent.

Top partners at leading U.S. law firms are charging more than ever — routinely $1,150 or more an hour — but after discounts and write-offs the nosebleed rates aren't all they appear to be. Jennifer Smith reports. Photo: Getty Images.

Having blown past the once-shocking price tag of $1,000 an hour, some sought-after deal, tax and trial lawyers are commanding hourly fees of $1,150 or more, according to an analysis of billing rates compiled from public filings.

But, as law firms boost their standard rates, many are softening the blow with widespread discounts and write-offs, meaning fewer clients are paying full freight. As a result, law firms on average are actually collecting fewer cents on the dollar, compared with their standard, or "rack," rates, than they have in years.

Think of hourly fees "as the equivalent of a sticker on the car at a dealership," said legal consultant Ward Bower, a principal at Altman Weil Inc. "It's the beginning of a negotiation.... Law firms think they are setting the rates, but clients are the ones determining what they're going to pay."

James Kobaczewski

the firm's database billed at that level in the first quarter of 2013, up from 158 a year earlier.

Star lawyers still can fetch a premium, and some of them won't budge on price. The number of partners billing $1,150-plus an hour has more than doubled since this time last year, according to Valeo Partners, a consulting firm that maintains a database of legal rates pulled from court filings and other publicly disclosed information. That glided circle includes tax experts such as Christopher Roman of King & Spalding LLP and Todd Maynes of Kirkland & Ellis LLP, intellectual-property partner Nader A. Mousavi of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, and deal lawyers such as Kenneth M. Schneider of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP.

Those lawyers and their firms either declined to comment or didn't reply to requests for comment.

When corporate legal departments need a trusted hand to fend off a hostile takeover or win a critical court battle, few general counsels will nitpick over whether a key lawyer is charging $900 an hour or $1,150 an hour. But for legal matters where their future isn't on the line, companies are pushing for—and winning—significant price breaks.

"We almost always negotiate rates down from the rack rates," said Randal S. Milch, general counsel for phone giant Verizon Communications Inc. [VZ +0.29%] The result, he said, is a "not-insignificant discount."

For the bread-and-butter work that many big law firms rely on, haggling has become the norm. Many clients grew accustomed to pushing back on price during the recession and continue to demand discounts.

Some companies insist on budgets for their legal work. If a firm billing by the hour exceeds a set cap, lawyers may have to write off some of that time.

Other clients refuse to work with firms who don't discount, lopping anywhere from 10% to 30% off their standard rates. Some may grant rate increases to individual partners or associates they deem worthy. Another tactic: locking in prices with tailored multiyear agreements with formulas governing whether clients grant or refuse a requested rate increase.

In practical terms, that means the gap between law firms' sticker prices and the amount of money they actually bill and collect from their clients is wider than it has been in years.

According to data collected by Thomson Reuters Peer Monitor, big law firms raised their average standard rate by about 9.3% over the past three years. But they weren't able to keep up on the collection side, where the increase over the same period was just 6%. Firms that used to collect on average about 92 cents for every dollar of standard time their lawyers worked in 2007, before the economic downturn, now are getting less than 85 cents. "That's a historic low," said James Jones, a senior fellow at the Center for the Study of the Legal Profession at Georgetown Law.

To be sure, things have certainly picked up some since the recession, when some clients flat-out refused to pay rate increases.

In the first quarter of 2013, the 50 top-grossing U.S. law firms boosted their partner rates by as much as 5.7%, billing on average between $879 and $882 an hour, according to Valeo Partners. Rates for junior lawyers, whose labors have long been a profit engine for major law firms, jumped even more.

While some clients resisted using associate lawyers during the downturn, refusing to pay hundreds of dollars an hour for inexperienced first- or second-year attorneys, the largest U.S. law firms have managed to send the needle back up again. This year, for the first time, the average rate for associates with one to four years of experience rose to $500 an hour, according to Valeo.

The increases continue the upward trend of 2012, when legal fees in general rose 4.8% and associate billing rates rose by 7.4%, according to a coming report by TyMetrix Legal Analytics, a unit of Wolters Kluwer, [WKLAE +0.95%] and CEB, a research and advisory-services company. Those numbers are based on legal-spending data from more than 17,000 law firms.

More than a dozen leaders at major law firms declined to discuss rate increases on the record, though some said privately that the increase in associate rates could be caused in part by step increases as junior lawyers gain in seniority.

Joe Sims, an antitrust partner at Jones Day and former member of the firm's partnership committee, said clients don't mind paying for associates, as long as they feel they are getting their money's worth.

Sophisticated clients, he said, tend to focus on the overall price tag for legal work, not on individual rates. "They are more concerned about how many people are working on the project and the total cost of the project," Mr. Sims said. "Clients want value no matter who is on the job."

While a handful of elite lawyers have successfully staked out the high end—the deal teams at Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, for example—legal experts say that client pressure to control legal spending means most law firms must be considerably more flexible on price.

"There will always be some 'bet the company' problem where a client will not quibble about rates," said Mr. Jones, the Georgetown fellow. "Unfortunately, from the law firms' standpoint, that represents a small percentage of the work."
