Time: 2:30 p.m.

Action File: April 25, 2023
Trial Date: None Set

1 I, Jonathan Melmed, declare as follows:

2 1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of California. I am counsel for 3 Plaintiffs Manuel Balux Och and Pedro Garcia Alferez (“Plaintiffs”), and the Putative Class. As such,
4 I am familiar with the file in this matter and if called as a witness I could and would competently testify
5 to the following facts of my own personal knowledge.

6 2. On May 12, 2023, plaintiff Garcia Alferez gave notice to the LWDA and defendant Sac
7 ProFloors of his claims for its violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 8 226.7, 256, 510, 512, 1174, 1174.5, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, and the 9 IWC Wage Order Nos. 1-2001, 7-2001, and/or 17-200 under the Private Attorney General Act
10 (“PAGA”). A true and correct copy of the PAGA notice is attached herein as Exhibit A.

11 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of California that the foregoing
12 is true and correct on this 25th day of April 2024, at Los Angeles, California.

Re: Pedro Garcia Alferez v. Sac ProFloors
Notice of Intent to File Suit Pursuant to California Labor Code
Section 2699

To Whom It May Concern:

This office represents Pedro Garcia Alferez ("Plaintiff") and a group of the putative class members in a forthcoming lawsuit against Sac ProFloors ("Defendant"). The action, entitled Pedro Garcia Alferez v. Sac ProFloors, is to be filed in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Yolo (the "Action"). A copy of the complaint as currently drafted, and as is intended to be filed in the Action, is enclosed as Exhibit A. This letter incorporates by reference the facts, law, and allegations of Exhibit A.

This letter serves as notice pursuant to the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), codified at California Labor Code sections 2698 through 2699.6, that we intend to include representative claims in the Action for civil penalties under PAGA on behalf of a group of aggrieved employees. For the purposes of this letter, "Aggrieved Employees" is defined as: All individuals who are or were employed by Defendant(s) as non-exempt employees in California, from one year prior to the mailing of this notice through the date of trial.

As set forth in more detail in Exhibit A, Defendant violated its obligations to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees under California law by: failing to pay minimum wages for all hours worked, failing to pay all overtime wages earned, failing to provide lawful rest periods and pay missed rest period premiums, failing to provide lawful meal periods and pay missed meal period premiums, failing to maintain accurate records, failing to provide accurate and complete wage statements, failing to pay all wages in full and on time during employment, and failing to pay all wages due upon termination.

Because of these systemic violations, Defendant violated: Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 256, 510, 512, 1174, 1174.5, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, and California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders Wage Orders 1-2001, 7-2001, and/or 17-2001, and others that may be applicable. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070, 11170.) The enclosed Complaint further details: (1) the alleged violations; (2) the facts and theories supporting these violations; (3) the people and entities, dates, classifications, violations, events, and actions at issue; and (4) the illegal practices instituted by Defendant.

Together with this correspondence, the enclosed complaint provides notice that we intend to proceed with a claim for civil penalties in the Action pursuant to PAGA. (See Lab. Code, §§ 2698–2699.6.) We intend to fully prosecute the representative claims alleged in the complaint, including by obtaining civil penalties under PAGA.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

JONATHAN MELMED

1. Failure to Pay All Minimum Wages,
2. Failure to Pay All Overtime Wages,
3. Failure to Provide Rest Periods and Pay Missed Rest Period Premiums,
4. Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Pay Missed Meal Period Premiums,
5. Failure to Maintain Accurate Employment Records,
6. Failure to Pay Wages Timely during Employment,
7. Failure to Pay All Wages Earned and Unpaid at Separation,
8. Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements, and
9. Violations of California's Unfair Competition Law (Bus. & Prof. Code, §§ 17200–17210).

Demand for Jury Trial

1 Plaintiff Pedro Garcia Alferez (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated
2 employees within the State of California, complains and alleges of defendants Sac ProFloors and Does
3 1 to 50 (collectively, “Defendants”), and each of them, as follows:

4 I. INTRODUCTION

5 1. This is a class action complaint brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure
6 section 382.

7 2. The “Class Period” as used herein, is defined as the period from four years prior to the 8 filing of this action and continuing into the present and ongoing. Defendants’ violations of California’s 9 laws as described more fully below have been ongoing throughout the Class Period and are still 10 ongoing.

11 3. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of himself and the following class: All 12 individuals who are or were employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during 13 the Class Period (the “Class Members”). (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.)

14 4. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the Class Members, as a class action, 15 against Defendants for:

- 16 A. Failure to pay all minimum wages,
- 17 B. Failure to pay all overtime wages,
- 18 C. Failure to provide rest periods and pay missed rest period premiums,
- 19 D. Failure to provide meal periods and pay missed meal period premiums,
- 20 E. Failure to maintain accurate employment records,
- 21 F. Failure to pay wages timely during employment,
- 22 G. Failure to pay all wages earned and unpaid at separation,
- 23 H. Failure to furnish accurate itemized wage statements, and
- 24 I. Violations of California’s Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”) (Bus. & Prof.
25 Code, §§ 17200–17210).

26 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the California Industrial 27 Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders applicable to the facts of this case are IWC Wage Orders
28 1-2001, 7-2001, and/or 17-2001 (the “Applicable Wage Orders”) and possibly others that may be

1 applicable. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070, 11170.) Plaintiff reserves the right to amend
2 or modify the definition of “Applicable Wage Orders” with greater specificity or add additional IWC
3 Wage Orders if additional applicable wage orders are discovered in litigation.

4 II. JURISDICTION & VENUE

5 6. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein
6 pursuant to Article VI, section 10, of the California Constitution and Code of Civil Procedure section 7 410.10 because this is a civil action in which the matter in controversy, exclusive of interest, exceeds 8 $25,000, and because each cause of action asserted arises under the laws of the State of California or 9 is subject to adjudication in the courts of the State of California.

10 7. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants have caused 11 injuries in the County of Yolo and the State of California through their acts, and by their violation of 12 the California Labor Code and California state common law. Defendants transact millions of dollars of 13 business within the State of California. Defendants own, maintain offices, transact business, have an 14 agent or agents within the County of Yolo, and/or otherwise are found within the County of Yolo, and 15 Defendants are within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

16 8. Venue as to Defendants is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to section 395 of the 17 Code of Civil Procedure. Defendants operate within California and do business within Yolo County, 18 California. The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and all of Defendants’
19 employees identified above within Yolo County and surrounding counties where Defendants may 20 remotely operate.

21 9. This matter is not appropriate for removal under the Class Action Fairness Act (28 22 U.S.C. § 1332) as the amount in controversy for Plaintiff’s and the Class Members’ claims, in 23 aggregate, is less than $5 million. Additionally, all the allegations herein occurred in the State of 24 California. As such, even if the amount in controversy did exceed $5 million this matter would still not 25 be appropriate for removal under the “local controversy” exception to the Class Action Fairness Act.
26 (28 U.S.C. § 1332, subd. (d)(4)(A).)

1 III. THE PARTIES

2 A. PLAINTIFF

3 10. At all relevant times, Plaintiff, who is over the age of 18, was and currently is a citizen
4 of California residing in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt hourly
5 employee in the County of Yolo.

6 11. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following class pursuant to 7 section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure as follows: All individuals who are or were employed by 8 Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during the Class Period (the “Class Members”).

9 12. The Class Members, at all times pertinent hereto, are or were employees of Defendants 10 during the relevant statutory period.

11 B. DEFENDANTS

12 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants were authorized
13 to and doing business in Yolo County and is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the other 14 Class Members during the applicable statutory periods. Plaintiff and the other Class Members were,
15 and are, subject to Defendants’ policies and/or practices complained of herein and have been deprived
16 of the rights guaranteed to them by: California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226,
17 226.3, 226.7, 256, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, and others
18 that may be applicable; California Business and Professions Code sections 17200 through 17210
19 (“UCL”); and the Applicable Wage Orders (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070, 11170).

20 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the Class
21 Period, Defendants did (and continue to do) business in the State of California, County of Yolo.

22 15. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 23 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as Does 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said defendants
24 are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to amend this 25 complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and 26 thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual, partners, or corporate, were 27 responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, and proximately caused Plaintiff
28 and the other Class Members to be subject to the unlawful employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and

1 damages complained of herein.

2 16. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned
3 herein, Defendants were and/or are the employers of Plaintiff and the other Class Members. At all times
4 herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of the acts hereinafter alleged to 5 have been done by the named Defendants. Furthermore, the Defendants, and each of them, were the 6 agents, servants, and employees of each and every one of the other Defendants, as well as the agents
7 of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned were acting within the course and scope of said
8 agency and employment. Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, or otherwise ratified 9 every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein.

10 17. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, were members of and engaged in a 11 joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and scope of and in 12 pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further, Plaintiff is informed, and 13 believes, and thereon alleges, that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff and 14 the other Class Members.

15 IV. COMMON FACTS & ALLEGATIONS

16 18. Plaintiff and the other Class Members (collectively, the “Class Members”) are, and were 17 at all relevant times, employed by the Defendants within the State of California.

18 19. The Class Members are, and were, at all relevant times, non-exempt employees for the 19 purposes of minimum wages, overtime, rest breaks, meal periods, and the other claims alleged in this 20 complaint.

21 20. Specifically, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within the statutory Class Period, 22 working as an hourly, non-exempt warehouse worker for Defendants.

23 A. MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

24 21. Labor Code section 1197 requires employees to be paid at least the minimum wage fixed
25 by the IWC, and any payment of less than the minimum wage is unlawful. Similarly, Labor Code 26 section 1194 entitles “any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage . . . to recover in a 27 civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage.” Likewise, the Applicable 28 Wage Orders also obligate employers to pay each employee minimum wages for all hours worked.

1 (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070, 11170.) Labor Code section 1198 makes unlawful the 2 employment of an employee under conditions that the IWC Wage Orders prohibit.

3 22. These minimum wage standards apply to each hour that employees work. Therefore, an 4 employer's failure to pay for any particular time worked by an employee is unlawful, even if averaging 5 an employee's total pay over all hours worked, paid or not, results in an average hourly wage above
6 minimum wage. (Armenta v. Osmose, Inc. (2005) 135 Cal.App.4th 314, 324.)

7 23. Here, Defendants failed to fully conform their pay practices to the requirements of the 8 law during the relevant statutory periods. The Class Members were not compensated for all hours
9 worked including, but not limited to, all hours they were subject to the control of Defendants and/or 10 suffered or permitted to work under the California Labor Code and the Applicable Wage Orders.

11 24. Labor Code sections 1194, subdivision (a), and 1194.2, subdivision (a), provide that an 12 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those employees
13 the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages 14 due and interest thereon.

15 25. When employees, such as the Class Members, are not paid for all hours worked under 16 Labor Code section 1194, they are entitled to recover minimum wages for the time which they received
17 no compensation. (See Sillah v. Command International Security Services (N.D. Cal. 2015) 154
18 F.Supp.3d 891 [employees suing for failure to pay overtime could recover liquidated damages under 19 Labor Code section 1194.2 if they also showed they were paid less than minimum wage].)

20 26. Labor Code section 1197.1 authorizes employees who are paid less than the minimum
21 wage fixed by an applicable state or local law, or by an order of the IWC, a civil penalty, among other 22 damages, as follows:

23 (1) "For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred 24 dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for 25 which the employee is underpaid."

26 (2) "For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two 27 hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay 28 period for which the employee is underpaid regardless of whether the

1 initial violation is intentionally committed.” (Lab. Code, § 1197.1, subd.

2 (a).)

3 27. As set forth above, Defendants failed to fully compensate the Class Members for all 4 minimum wages. Accordingly, the Class Members are entitled to recover liquidated damages for 5 violations of Labor Code section 1197.1.

6 28. Based upon these same factual allegations, the Class Members are likewise entitled to 7 penalties under Labor Code sections 1199.

8 B. OVERTIME VIOLATIONS

9 29. Labor Code section 510 requires employers to compensate employees who work more 10 than eight hours in one workday, forty hours in a workweek, and for the first eight hours worked on 11 the seventh consecutive day no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee.
12 (Lab. Code, § 510, subd. (a).) Further, Labor Code section 510 obligates employers to compensate
13 employees at no less than twice the regular rate of pay when an employee works more than twelve 14 hours in a day or more than eight hours on the seventh consecutive day of work. (Lab. Code, § 510, 15 subd. (a).) These rules are also reflected in the Applicable Wage Orders.

16 30. In accordance with Labor Code section 1194 and the Applicable Wage Orders, the Class
17 Members could not then agree and cannot now agree to work for a lesser wage than the amount 18 provided by Labor Code sections 510 or the Applicable Wage Orders.

19 31. Here, Defendants violated their duty to accurately and completely compensate the Class 20 Members for all overtime worked. The Class Members periodically worked hours that entitled them to 21 overtime compensation under the law but were not fully compensated for those hours.

22 32. These actions were and are in clear violation of California’s overtime laws as set forth
23 in Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1199, and the Applicable Wage Orders. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, 24 §§ 11010, 11070, 11170.) As a result of Defendants’ faulty policies and practices, the Class Members 25 were not compensated for all hours worked or paid accurate overtime compensation.

26 C. REST BREAK VIOLATIONS

27 33. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage Orders, Defendants
28 were and are required to provide the Class Members with compensated, duty-free rest periods of not

1 less than ten minutes for every major fraction of four hours worked. Under the Applicable Wage
2 Orders, an employer must authorize and permit all employees to take ten minute duty free rest periods
3 for every major fraction of four hours worked. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070, 11170.)

4 34. Likewise, Labor Code section 226.7 provides that “[a]n employer shall not require an 5 employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute,
6 or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission” (Lab. Code, §
7 226.7, subd. (b).) Labor Code section 226.7 also provides that employers must pay their employees one 8 additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate for each workday that a “meal or rest or recovery 9 period is not provided.” (Lab. Code, § 226.7, subd. (c).) The “regular rate” for these purposes must 10 factor in all nondiscretionary payments for work performed by the employee, including non-11 discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other forms of wage payments exceeding the employees’ base
12 hourly rate. (Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal.5th 858, 878.) Thus, the Wage
13 Orders set when and for how long the rest period must take place and the Labor Code establishes that 14 violations of the IWC Wage Orders are unlawful and sets forth the premium pay employer must pay 15 their employees when employers fail to provide rest periods.

16 35. The California Supreme Court has held that, during required rest periods, “employers 17 must relieve their employees of all duties and relinquish any control over how employees spend their 18 break time.” (Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 260.) Relinquishing 19 control over employees during rest periods requires that employees be “free to leave the employer’s 20 premises” and be “permitted to attend to personal business.” (Id. at p. 275.) The Brinker Court 21 explained in the context of rest breaks that employer liability attaches from adopting an unlawful 22 policy:

23 “An employer is required to authorize and permit the amount of rest break time
24 called for under the wage order for its industry. If it does not—if, for example, 25 it adopts a uniform policy authorizing and permitting only one rest break for 26 employees working a seven-hour shift when two are required—it has violated
27 the wage order and is liable.” (Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53
28 Cal.4th 1004, 1033.)

1 36. Here, Defendants periodically did not permit the Class Members to take compliant duty-
2 free rest breaks, free from Defendants' control as required by Labor Code section 226.7, the Applicable
3 Wage Orders, and applicable precedent. (See Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 4 257, 269 [concluding that "during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all duties and 5 relinquish control over how employees spend their time."].) At all relevant times, the Class Members
6 were periodically not provided with legally-compliant and timely rest periods of at least ten minutes
7 for each four hour work period, or major fraction thereof due to Defendants' unlawful rest period
8 policies/practices. The Class Members were often expected and required to continue working through 9 rest periods to meet the expectations Defendants and finish the workday. In some cases when the Class
10 Members worked more than ten hours in a shift, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit a third
11 mandated rest period. As a result, the Class Members were periodically unable to take compliant rest 12 periods.

13 37. In such cases where Defendants did not offer the Class Members the opportunity to 14 receive a compliant off-duty rest period, "the court may not conclude employees voluntarily chose to 15 skip those breaks." (Alberts v. Aurora Behavioral Health Care (2015) 241 Cal.App.4th 388, 410 (2015)
16 ["If an employer fails to provide legally compliant meal or rest breaks, the court may not conclude 17 employees voluntarily chose to skip those breaks."]; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Court, supra, 53
18 Cal.4th at p. 1033 ["No issue of waiver ever arises for a rest break that was required by law but never 19 authorized; if a break is not authorized, an employee has no opportunity to decline to take it."].)

20 38. In addition to failing to authorize and permit compliant rest periods, the Class Members 21 were not compensated with one hour's worth of pay at their regular rate of compensation when they 22 were not provided with a compliant rest period in accordance with Labor Code section 226.7, 23 subdivision (c). Thus, Defendants have violated Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage
24 Orders.

25 39. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff seeks to recover, on behalf of himself and other non-26 exempt employees, rest period premiums and penalties.

27 ///

28 ///

1 D. MEAL BREAK VIOLATIONS

2 40. Labor Code section 512 and the Applicable Wage Orders require employers to provide 3 employees with a thirty-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal period within the first five hours of 4 work. (Lab. Code, § 512, subd. (a) [“An employer shall not employ an employee for a work period of 5 more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30
6 minutes”]; Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070, 11170 [“No employer shall employ any 7 person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30
8 minutes”].) Additionally, an employee who works more than ten hours per day is entitled to 9 receive a second thirty-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal period. (Lab. Code, § 512, subd. (a) 10 [“An employer shall not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without 11 providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes”].)

12 41. “An on-duty meal period is permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an 13 employee from being relieved of all duty and the parties agree in writing to an on-duty paid meal 14 break.” (Lubin v. The Wackenhut Corp. (2016) 5 Cal.App.5th 926, 932.) The written agreement must 15 include a provision allowing the employee to revoke it at any time. (Ibid.) Generally, the California
16 Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (“DLSE”) and courts 17 have “found that the nature of the work exception applies: (1) where the work has some particular 18 external force that requires the employee to be on duty at all times, and (2) where the employee is the 19 sole employee of a particular employer.” (Id. at p. 945, internal quotation marks omitted; Abdullah v.
20 U.S. Security Associates, Inc. (9th Cir. 2013) 731 F.3d 952, 958–959.) “[I]t is the employer’s obligation 21 to determine whether the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved before requiring 22 an employee to take an on-duty meal period.” (Lubin v. The Wackenhut Corp., supra, 5 Cal.App.5th at 23 p. 946.)

24 42. Here, the Class Members were never asked to sign any enforceable document agreeing
25 to an on-duty meal period. Moreover, nothing in the nature of their work involved the kind of “external 26 force” that might justify on-duty meal breaks. (Lubin v. The Wackenhut Corp., supra, 5 Cal.App.5th at 27 p. 945.) Nevertheless, Defendants periodically did not provide compliant off-duty meal periods within 28 the first five hours of work for the Class Members.

1 43. As with rest breaks, meal breaks must be duty-free. (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v.
2 Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1035 [“The IWC’s wage orders have long made a meal period’s
3 duty-free nature its defining characteristic.”].) Relinquishing control over employees during meal
4 periods requires that employees be “free to leave the employer’s premises” and be “permitted to attend
5 to personal business.” (Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., supra, 2 Cal.5th at p. 275.) Under 6 Labor Code section 512, if an employer maintains a uniform policy that does not authorize and permit
7 the amount of meal time called for under the law (as specified in the Labor Code and/or applicable
8 IWC Wage Order), “it has violated the wage order and is liable.” (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior
9 Court, supra, 53 Cal.4th at p. 1033.)

10 44. During the applicable statutory periods here, the Class Members were periodically
11 denied legally-compliant and timely off-duty meal periods of at least thirty minutes due to Defendants’
12 unlawful meal period policy and practices. As a result of Defendants’ uniform meal period policies and 13 practices, the Class Members were often not permitted to take compliant first meal periods before the 14 end of the fifth hour of work. The Class Members were also periodically not permitted to take second 15 meal periods for shifts in excess of ten hours. Defendants thus violated Labor Code section 512 and 16 the Applicable Wage Orders by failing to advise, authorize, or permit the Class Members to receive 17 thirty-minute, off-duty meal periods within the first five hours of their shifts.

18 45. Labor Code section 226.7 provides that “[a]n employer shall not require an employee 19 to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute, or 20 applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.” (Lab. Code, § 226.7, 21 subd. (b).) Labor Code section 226.7, subdivision (c), and the Applicable Wage Orders further obligate
22 employers to pay employees one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation
23 for each workday that the meal period is not provided. (Lab. Code, § 226.7, subd. (c); Cal. Code of 24 Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070, 11170 [“If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in 25 accordance with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) 26 hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is 27 not provided.”].) The “regular rate” for these purposes must factor in all nondiscretionary payments for 28 work performed by the employee, including non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other forms

1 of wage payments exceeding the employees' base hourly rate. (Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC
2 (2021) 11 Cal.5th 858, 878.)

3 46. Accordingly, for each day that the Class Members did not receive compliant meal
4 periods, they were and are entitled to receive meal period premiums pursuant to Labor Code section
5 226.7 and the Applicable Wage Orders. Defendants, however, failed to pay the Class Members
6 applicable meal period premiums for many workdays that the employees did not receive a compliant
7 meal period. Thus, Defendants have violated Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage
8 Orders.

9 47. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff seeks to recover, on behalf of himself and other non-
10 exempt employees, meal period premiums and penalties.

11 E. UNTIMELY WAGES DURING EMPLOYMENT

12 48. Labor Code section 204 expressly requires employers who pay employees on a weekly, 13 biweekly, or semimonthly basis to pay all wages "not more than seven calendar days following the 14 close of the payroll period." Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a), makes employers who violate 15 Labor Code section 204 subject to a penalty of:

16 "(1) For any initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to 17 pay each employee.

18 "(2) For each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two 19 hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25
20 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld." (Lab. Code, § 210, subd.
21 (a).)

22 49. Notably, the penalty provided by Labor Code section 210 is "[i]n addition to, and 23 entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article" (Lab. Code, § 210, 24 subd. (a).)

25 50. Due to Defendants' failure to pay the Class Members the wages described above, along 26 with rest and meal break premiums, Defendants failed to timely pay the Class Members within seven 27 calendar days following the close of payroll in accordance with Labor Code section 204 on a regular 28 and consistent basis. (See Parson v. Golden State FC, LLC (N.D. Cal., May 2, 2016, No. 16-CV-00405-

1 JST) 2016 WL 1734010, at p. *3–5, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 58299 [finding that a failure to pay rest
2 period premiums can support claims under Labor Code sections 203 and 204].)

3 F. UNTIMELY WAGES AT SEPARATION

4 51. Labor Code section 203 provides “if an employer willfully fails to pay . . . any wages
5 of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty”
6 for up to thirty days. (Lab. Code § 203; Mamika v. Barca (1998) 68 Cal.App.4th 487, 492.) As a result
7 of Defendants’ failure to pay the Class Members for the wages described above, along with rest and 8 meal break premiums, Defendants violated and continue to violate Labor Code section 203.

9 52. Due to Defendants’ faulty pay policies, those Class Members whose employment with 10 Defendants concluded were not compensated for each and every hour worked at the appropriate rate.
11 Defendants have failed to pay formerly-employed Class Members whose sums were certain at the time
12 of termination within at least seventy-two hours of their resignation and have failed to pay those sums 13 for thirty days thereafter.

14 G. WAGE STATEMENT VIOLATIONS

15 53. Defendants also failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance with 16 Labor Code sections 226, subdivisions (a)(1), (2), (5), and (9). Labor Code section 226, subdivision
17 (a), obligates employers, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment to furnish an itemized wage 18 statement in writing showing:

- 19 (1) The gross wages earned;
- 20 (2) The total hours worked by the employee;
- 21 (3) The number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if 22 the employee is paid on a piece rate basis;
- 23 (4) All deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of 24 the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item;
- 25 (5) The net wages earned;
- 26 (6) The inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid;
- 27 (7) The name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social 28 security number or an employee identification number other than a social

1 security number;

2 (8) The name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and

3 (9) All applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 4 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 5 employee.

6 54. Due to Defendants' failure to pay the Class Members properly as described above, the 7 wage statements issued do not indicate the correct amount of gross wages earned, total hours worked,
8 or the net wages earned, or the applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 9 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate. Thus, Defendants have violated Labor
10 Code section 226, subdivisions (a)(1), (2), (5), and (9).

11 55. In addition to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Defendants also knowingly and 12 intentionally failed to provide the Class Members with accurate itemized wage statements in violation
13 of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e). Defendants knew that they were not providing the Class 14 Members with wage statements required by California law but nevertheless failed to correct their 15 unlawful practices and policies. (See Garnett v. ADT LLC (E.D. Cal. 2015) 139 F.Supp.3d 1121, 1134
16 [finding the defendant knowingly and intentionally violated Labor Code section 226 because the 17 "[d]efendant knew that it was not providing total hours worked to plaintiff or other employees paid on 18 commission" even though it believed that employees paid solely on commission or commission and 19 salary "are exempt and therefore we do not record hours on a wage statement."].)

20 H. RECORDKEEPING VIOLATIONS

21 56. Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), requires employers to keep an accurate record
22 of, among other things, all hours worked by employees. Labor Code section 226.3 provides, in pertinent 23 part, as follows:

24 "Any employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a 25 civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per 26 violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee 27 for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to 28 provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records

1 required in subdivision (a) of Section 226. The civil penalties provided for in 2 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.” (Lab. Code, §
3 226.3, emphasis added.)

4 57. Likewise, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d), requires every employer, including 5 Defendants, to:

6 “Keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which 7 employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by 8 and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any 9 applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or 10 establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established 11 for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not 12 less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee from 13 maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, 14 piece-rate units earned.” (Lab. Code, § 1174, subd. (d), emphasis added.)

15 58. As explained in detail above, Defendants failed to provide the Class Members with 16 accurate itemized wage statements. Defendants did so, in part, because they failed to accurately track
17 hours worked by the Class Members. Defendants have thus failed to keep accurate records of the “total 18 hours worked by the employee[s]” in violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), and are 19 therefore subject to the penalties provided by Labor Code section 226.3. These penalties are “in 20 addition to any other penalty provided by law.” (Lab. Code, § 226.3.)

21 59. The failure to accurately track hours worked also resulted in a failure of Defendants to 22 keep a record of all “payroll records showing the hours worked daily by” Defendants’ employees,
23 including Plaintiff and the other Class Members, in violation of Labor Code section 1174, subdivision 24 (d).

25 V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

26 60. As mentioned above, Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the Class
27 Members pursuant to section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

28 ///

1 61. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all
2 members would be unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the class is unknown to Plaintiff
3 at this time; however, it is estimated that the number of Class Members is greater than 100 individuals.
4 The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment 5 records.

6 62. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well Defined Community of 7 Interest: There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and all other similarly situated 8 non-exempt employees, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members 9 including, without limitation to:

10 A. Whether Defendants' pay policies/practices resulted in a failure to pay the Class
11 Members for all hours worked, including all minimum wages;

12 B. Whether Defendants' pay policies/practices resulted in a failure to pay the Class
13 Members for all required overtime wages at the Class Members' regular rate of pay;

14 C. Whether Defendants' rest period policies and practices afforded legally 15 compliant rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof;

16 D. Whether Defendants' meal period policies and practices afforded legally 17 compliant meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;

18 E. Whether Defendants maintained accurate employment records;

19 F. Whether Defendants timely paid all wages during employment;

20 G. Whether Defendants timely paid all wages earned and unpaid at separation;

21 H. Whether Defendants furnished legally-compliant wage statements to the Class 22 Members pursuant to Labor Code section 226; and

23 I. Whether Defendants' violations of the Labor Code and the Applicable Wage 24 Orders amounted to a violation of California's UCL.

25 63. Predominance of Common Questions: Common questions of law and fact
26 predominate over questions that affect only individual Class Members. The common questions of law
27 set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendants' uniform policies and practices
28 applicable to each individual class member, such as Defendants' uniform policy and practice of failing

1 to pay for all hours worked, Defendants' uniform policies and practices which failed to provide
2 compliant rest periods, Defendants' uniform policies and practices which failed to provide compliant
3 meal periods, Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and others. As such,
4 the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual class
5 member's showing as to his or her eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of his or her damages.

6 64. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class Members
7 because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the 8 statute(s) of limitation applicable to each cause of action pleaded in this complaint. As alleged herein,
9 Plaintiff, like the other Class Members, was deprived of minimum, regular, and overtime wages
10 because of Defendants' unlawful timekeeping policies and practices, was deprived of rest periods and 11 premium wages in lieu thereof, was deprived of meal periods and premium wages in lieu thereof, was 12 subject to Defendants' uniform rest period policies and practices, was subject to Defendants' uniform
13 meal period policies and practices, was not provided accurate itemized wage statements, was not paid
14 all wages in full and on time, , and was subject to other similar policies and practices to which the Class
15 Members were subject.

16 65. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps to 17 represent fairly and adequately the interests of the Class Members. Moreover, Plaintiff's attorneys are 18 ready, willing, and able to fully and adequately represent the Class Members and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's 19 attorneys have prosecuted numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and federal court in the past 20 and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the Class Members.

21 66. Superiority: The California Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an 22 important public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California.
23 These laws and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers
24 who have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior
25 economic and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of 26 this action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and the Class Members make the class action
27 format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged herein. If each 28 employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily gain an

1 unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of 2 each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

3 67. Moreover, requiring each Class Member to pursue an individual remedy would also 4 discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file an action
5 against their former or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent 6 damages to their careers at subsequent employment. Further, the prosecution of separate actions by the 7 individual Class Members, even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying 8 verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual Class Members against Defendants herein, and 9 which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants or legal 10 determinations with respect to individual Class Members which would, as a practical matter, be 11 dispositive of the interest of the other Class Members not parties to adjudications or which would 12 substantially impair or impede the ability of the Class Members to protect their interests.

13 68. Further, the claims of the individual Class Members are not sufficiently large to warrant 14 vigorous individual prosecution considering the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto. As 15 such, the Class Members identified above are maintainable as a class under section 382 of the Code of 16 Civil Procedure.

17 VI. CAUSES OF ACTION

18 First Cause of Action

19 Failure to Pay All Minimum Wages

20 (Against All Defendants)

21 69. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

22 70. Section 4 of the Applicable Wage Orders and Labor Code section 1197 establish the 23 right of employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state law. (Lab.
24 Code, § 1197; Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070, 11170.) Labor Code sections 1194, 25 subdivision (a), and 1194.2, subdivision (a), provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal 26 minimum wage as required by Labor Code section 1197 may recover the unpaid balance, together with 27 attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid wages
28 and interest accrued thereon.

71. Here, Defendants failed to fully conform their pay practices to the requirements of the law during the relevant statutory periods. Plaintiff and the other Class Members were not compensated for all hours worked including, but not limited to, all hours they were subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and the Applicable Wage Orders.

72. Labor Code section 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under conditions that the IWC Wage Orders prohibit. Labor Code sections 1194, subdivision (a), and 1194.2, subdivision (a), provide that an employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

73. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged herein, Plaintiff and the other Class Members have sustained economic damages, including but not limited to unpaid wages and lost interest, in an amount to be established at trial, and they are entitled to recover economic and statutory damages and penalties and other appropriate relief because of Defendants' violations of the Labor Code and Applicable Wage Orders.

74. Defendants' practices and policies regarding illegal employee compensation are unlawful and create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and the other Class Members in a civil action for the unpaid amount of minimum wages, liquidated damages, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code sections 204, 218.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198, and Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

Second Cause of Action

Failure to Pay All Overtime Wages

(Against All Defendants)

75. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

76. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194, and 1198, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to overtime wages for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly pay

1 Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all overtime wages earned pursuant to Labor Code section
2 1194 and the Applicable Wage Orders. Defendants caused Plaintiff and the other Class Members to 3 work overtime hours but did not compensate them at one and one-half times their regular rate of pay
4 for such hours in accordance with California law. Likewise, Defendants caused Plaintiff and the other
5 Class Members to work double-time hours but did not compensate them at twice their regular rate of 6 pay for such hours in accordance with California law.

7 77. Defendants failed to fully conform their pay practices to the requirements of California
8 law. This unlawful conduct includes but is not limited to Defendants' uniform and unlawful pay 9 policies and practices of failing to accurately record all the time that non-exempt employees were under 10 the supervision and control of Defendants. The foregoing policies and practices are unlawful and allow 11 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to recover in a civil action the unpaid amount of overtime
12 premiums owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit 13 according to Labor Code section 204, 510, 1194, and 1198, the Applicable Wage Orders, and Code of 14 Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

15 Third Cause of Action

16 Failure to Provide Rest Periods and Pay Missed Rest Period Premiums

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 78. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

19 79. Section 12 of the Applicable Wage Orders, and Labor Code section 226.7 establish the 20 right of employees to be provided with a rest period of at least ten minutes for each four hour period
21 worked, or major fraction thereof. (See Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070, 11170.)

22 80. Due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies and practices described in detail above,
23 Defendants did not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class Members to take all rest periods
24 to which they were legally entitled. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants have not paid an 25 additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and the other Class Members at their respective regular rates of pay 26 for each violation, in accordance with California Labor Code section 226.7.

27 81. The foregoing violations create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and the other
28 Class Members in a civil action for the unpaid amount of rest period premiums owing, including interest

1 thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the Applicable Wage Orders, and California
2 Labor Code section 226.7.

3 Fourth Cause of Action

4 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Pay Missed Meal Period Premiums

5 (Against All Defendants)

6 82. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

7 83. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges, that Defendants failed in their 8 affirmative obligation to provide their hourly non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and the other 9 Class Members, with all required meal periods in accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and 10 the Applicable Wage Orders, for the reasons set forth herein above. Despite Defendants' violations, 11 Defendants have not paid an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and the other Class Members at their 12 respective regular rates of pay for each violation, in accordance with California Labor Code section 13 226.7.

14 84. As a result, Defendants are responsible for paying premium compensation for meal 15 period violations, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the 16 Applicable Wage Orders and Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, and Civil Code sections 3287,
17 subdivision (b), and 3289. (See Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070, 11170.)

18 Fifth Cause of Action

19 Failure to Maintain Accurate Employment Records

20 (Against All Defendants)

21 85. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

22 86. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d), an employer shall keep 23 at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, 24 payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and wages paid to employees employed at the 25 respective plants or establishments. These records must be kept in accordance with rules established 26 for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not less than two years.

27 87. Labor Code section 1174.5 imposes a civil penalty of $500 for an employer's failure to 28 maintain accurate and complete records.

88. Defendant has intentionally and willfully failed to keep accurate and complete records showing the hours worked daily and wages paid to Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Thus, Plaintiff and the other Class Members have been denied their legal right and protected interest in having available at a central location at the plant or establishment where they are employed, accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily by, and the wages paid to, employees at those respective locations pursuant to Labor Code 1174.

Sixth Cause of Action

Failure to Pay Wages Timely during Employment

(Against All Defendants)

89. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

90. Labor Code section 200 provides that “wages” include all amounts for labor performed by employees of every description, whether the amount is fixed or ascertained by the standard of time, task, pieces, commission basis, or other method of calculation. Labor Code section 204 states that all wages earned by any person in any employment are payable twice during the calendar month and must be paid not more than seven days following the close of the period when the wages were earned. Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a), makes employers who violate Labor Code section 204 subject to a penalty of $100 for any initial failure to timely pay each employee’s full wages and $200 for each subsequent violation, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld.

91. Labor Code section 216 establishes that it is a misdemeanor for any person, with regards to wages due, to “falsely deny the amount or validity thereof, or that the same is due, with intent to secure himself, his employer or other person, any discount upon such indebtedness, or with intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud, the person to whom such indebtedness is due.”

92. Defendants as a matter of established company policy and procedure in the State of California, scheduled, required, suffered, and/or permitted Plaintiff and the other Class Members, to work without full compensation, to work without legally-compliant off-duty meal periods, to work without legally-compliant off-duty rest periods, and thereby failed to fully pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members within seven days of the close of payroll, as required by law.

93. Defendants, as a matter of established company policy and procedure in the State of California, falsely deny they owe Plaintiff and the other Class Members these wages, with the intent of securing for itself a discount upon its indebtedness and/or to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, and/or defraud Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

94. Defendants' pattern, practice, and uniform administration of its corporate policy of illegally denying employees compensation, as described herein, is unlawful and entitles Plaintiff and the other Class Members to recover, pursuant to Labor Code section 218, the unpaid balance of the compensation owed to them in a civil action and any applicable penalties, attorney fees, and interest owed to them pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 and 218.5.

Seventh Cause of Action

Failure to Pay All Wages Earned and Unpaid at Separation

(Against All Defendants)

95. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

96. The actionable period for this cause of action is three years prior to the filing of this complaint through the present, and ongoing until the violations are corrected or the class is certified. (Pineda v. Bank of America, N.A. (2010) 50 Cal.4th 1389, 1395; Murphy v. Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1094, 1109; Code Civ. Proc., § 338, subd. (a).) Labor Code sections 201 and 202 of the California Labor Code require Defendants to pay all compensation due and owing to its former employees (including the formerly-employed Class Members) during the actionable period for this cause of action at or around the time that their employment is or was terminated, or ended.

97. Section 203 of the Labor Code provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay compensation promptly upon discharge or resignation, as required by Sections 201 and 202, then the employer is liable for penalties in the form of continued compensation up to thirty workdays.

98. Due to Defendants' faulty pay policies, those Class Members whose employment with Defendants has concluded were not compensated for each and every hour worked at the appropriate rate. Defendants have willfully failed to pay those formerly-employed Class Members whose sums were certain at the time of termination within seventy-two hours of their resignation and have failed to pay those sums for thirty days thereafter as required by Labor Code sections 201 through 203.

99. As a result, Defendants are liable to the formerly-employed Class Members for waiting time penalties amounting to thirty days wages for the formerly-employed Class Members pursuant to Labor Code section 203. (See, e.g., DLSE Manual, § 4.3.4 [failure to pay any sort of wages due upon termination entitles an employee to recover waiting time penalties].)

Eighth Cause of Action

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

(Against All Defendants)

100. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

101. Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), obligates employers, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment to furnish an itemized wage statement in writing showing:

- (1) The gross wages earned;
- (2) The total hours worked by the employee;
- (3) The number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece rate basis;
- (4) All deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item;
- (5) The net wages earned;
- (6) The inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid;
- (7) The name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number;
- (8) The name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and
- (9) All applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

102. As set forth above, Defendants issued and continues to issue wage statements to its non-exempt employees including Plaintiff and the other Class Members that are inadequate under Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a). By failing to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members properly as

1 described above, Defendants failed to include required information on their wage statements, including,
2 but not limited to, the gross wages earned, the net wages earned in violation of Labor Code section 3 226, subdivision (a).

4 103. Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), of the 5 Labor Code was knowing and intentional. (Lab. Code, § 226, subd. (e)).

6 104. As a result of Defendants' issuance of inaccurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiff
7 and the other Class Members in violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Plaintiff and the 8 other Class Members are each entitled to recover an initial penalty of $50, and subsequent penalties of 9 $100, up to an amount not exceeding an aggregate penalty of $4,000 per Plaintiff and per each Class
10 Member from Defendants pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), along with costs and 11 reasonable attorneys' fees.

12 Ninth Cause of Action

13 Violations of California's Unfair Competition Law

14 (Against All Defendants)

15 105. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

16 106. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business
17 practices in California in violation of California Business and Professions Code section 17200 through 18 17210, by committing the unlawful acts described above. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and 19 unlawful business practices deprived and continue to deprive Plaintiff and the other Class Members of 20 compensation to which they are legally entitled. These practices constitute unfair and unlawful 21 competition and provide an unfair advantage over Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are 22 currently employing workers and attempting to do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and 23 hour laws.

24 107. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and unlawful conduct alleged herein,
25 Plaintiff for himself and on behalf of the Class Members, seeks full restitution of monies, as necessary 26 and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired and/or converted by 27 Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17203 and 17208.

28 ///

1 108. The acts complained of herein occurred within the four years prior to the initiation of 2 this action and are continuing into the present and ongoing.

3 109. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this Court action to 4 protect his interests and those of the Class Members, to obtain restitution and injunctive relief on behalf
5 of Defendants' current non-exempt employees and to enforce important rights affecting the public
6 interest. Plaintiff has thereby incurred the financial burden of attorneys' fees and costs, which Plaintiff
7 is entitled to recover under Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

8 VII. DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

9 110. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of Plaintiff's and the Class Members' claims 10 against Defendants.

11 VIII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

12 Plaintiff prays for judgment for himself and for all others on whose behalf this suit is brought 13 against Defendants, as follows:

- 14 1. For an order certifying the proposed class;
- 15 2. For an order appointing Plaintiff as representative of the class;
- 16 3. For an order appointing Plaintiff's counsel as counsel for the class;
- 17 4. For the failure to pay all minimum wages, compensatory, consequential, general, and 18 special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code sections 1194, 1194.2,
19 1197, and others as may be applicable;
- 20 5. For the failure to pay all overtime wages, compensatory, consequential, general, and 21 special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194,
22 1198, and others as may be applicable;
- 23 6. For the failure to provide rest periods and pay missed rest period premiums,
24 compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant 25 to Labor Code section 226.7;
- 26 7. For the failure to provide meal periods and pay missed meal period premiums,
27 compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant 28 to Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512;

- 1 8. For the failure to maintain accurate employment records, penalties pursuant to Labor
2 Code sections 226.3, 1174.5, and others that may be applicable;
- 3 9. For the failure to pay wages timely during employment, the unpaid balance of the 4 compensation owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members and any applicable
5 penalties owed to them pursuant to Labor Code section 210;
- 6 10. For the failure to pay all wages earned and unpaid at separation, statutory waiting time
7 penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 through 203, for the Class Members who 8 quit or were fired in an amount equal to their daily wage multiplied by thirty days, as 9 may be proven;
- 10 11. For the violations of California’s Unfair Competition Law, restitution to Plaintiff and 11 the other Class Members of all money and/or property unlawfully acquired by 12 Defendants by means of any acts or practices declared by this Court to be in violation 13 of Business and Professions Code sections 17200 through 17210;
- 14 12. Prejudgment interest on all due and unpaid wages pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6 15 and Civil Code sections 3287 and 3289;
- 16 13. On all causes of action for which attorneys’ fees may be available, for attorneys’ fees
17 and costs as provided by Labor Code sections 218.5, 226, Code of Civil Procedure 18 section 1021.5, and others as may be applicable;
- 19 14. For an order enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their agents, servants, and 20 employees, and all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in 21 derogation of any rights or duties adumbrated in this complaint; and
- 22 15. For such other and further relief, this Court may deem just and proper.
