APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION
SETTLEMENT, ATTORNEY'S FEES,
COSTS, SERVICE AWARDS, AND CLAIMS ADMINISTRATION

DATE: JUNE 1, 2026

TIME: 08:15 A.M.

DEPT: 1

1 I, Enrique Martinez, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a member in good standing of the Bar of the State of California and an attorney
3 with the Law Office of Enrique Martinez, PC in Oakland, California. I am the attorney for the 4 Plaintiffs and the Class in this action. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this 5 Declaration and could and would testify competently to them.

6 2. I make this Declaration in support of Plaintiffs' Memorandum of Points and 7 Authorities in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement, Attorney's Fees, 8 Costs, Service Award, and Claims Administration.

9 Summary of Work Performed by Class Counsel, Results & Attorney's Fee Request

10 3. Prior to filing the Complaint, we conducted extensive legal and investigative research
11 and had many phone calls with our clients and other workers. Defendants hired experienced counsel 12 and vigorously defended this action. The Named Plaintiffs, Damian Lona, Abelardo Ledesma and 13 Francisco Mendoza ("Class Representatives") sought meal period and rest break premiums, overtime
14 compensation, and other relief on behalf of themselves and a putative class of non-exempt employees
15 who worked for Defendants.

16 4. Defendants answered the Complaint, denying every allegation in Plaintiffs'
17 Complaint. Plaintiffs then propounded significant written discovery and had to engage in extensive 18 meeting and conferring to obtain the requested information. The Parties participated in mediation on 19 October 28, 2025. Preparation for mediation was thorough, with Plaintiffs' counsel gathering and 20 processing data, including thousands of time and payroll records provided by Defendants in order to 21 calculate damages. Class Counsel also interviewed witnesses and drafted comprehensive mediation 22 statements.

23 5. Following execution of the Settlement Agreement, which we negotiated with 24 Defendants at length and with the help of David Perrault, an experienced employment class action
25 mediator, we prepared the motion for preliminary approval. We worked closely with the Claims
26 Administrator following Preliminary Approval of the settlement to calculate amounts due to class 27 members and arrange the mailing of the class notice and dispute form.

28 6. Throughout the period after preliminary approval was granted, Class Counsel

1 performed extensive follow-ups with settlement class members. We spoke with class members, 2 answering questions they had.

3 7. Defendants will make the full settlement payment of $200,000 in one installment
4 payment within thirty (30) days from the Final Approval Order. The amounts of any uncashed checks
5 sent to Eligible Class Members will be distributed to the Central California Food bank, a non-profit
6 organization that provides food assistance and addresses food insecurity for underserved communities
7 throughout Central California, as a cy pres recipient.

8 8. According to our calculations, the maximum potential recovery for the primary claim 9 of rest break violations is approximately $440,000, assuming certification was maintained through 10 trial and judgment, all defense challenges to potential liability were defeated, and Plaintiffs recovered
11 100% of the claims. Thus, the proposed $200,000 settlement constitutes over 45% of the maximum 12 recoverable amount for these claims. The Net Settlement Fund of $78,634 will be distributed to the 13 Class of 71 workers. Again, the amounts of any uncashed checks sent to Eligible Class Members will 14 be distributed to Central California Food Bank.

15 9. Following the dissemination of the Class Notice and providing adequate time for Class
16 Members to present an objection, as described in more detail by the Notice Administrator in her 17 Declaration, no Class Member objected to the Settlement. Thus, the proposed Settlement is entitled 18 to the presumption that it is reasonable, fair and one which should be finally approved.

19 10. I believe my firm has represented and will continue to represent the best interest of the 20 class. We have engaged in extensive investigation of the facts and the applicable law. I have many 21 years of experience in handling class actions and claims based on the same substantive law asserted 22 in this action. I have represented thousands of other workers in lawsuits similar in size, scope and 23 complexity to the present case, and have been appointed as class counsel in every prior case where 24 they have sought such appointment. Class Counsel has applied for an award of attorney's fees in the 25 amount of $66,666, which is 33.3% of the gross settlement fund. We have calculated our $115,265
26 lodestar fee at rates reflecting those currently earned in the marketplace, which is approximately 1.70
27 the requested amount of attorney's fees. I was admitted to the California Bar in 2000 and my hourly 28 rate is $775. I have spent over 101.40 hours since February 2025 and expect to spend more hours in

1 the future responding to class member questions through the distribution process. The rates are in line
2 with rates typically approved in wage and hour class action litigation. See Exhibit A. The paralegals
3 also devoted 209.60 hours to the case, primarily working with the class data and handling calls from 4 class members. The hourly rate for our paralegals is $175.

5 11. In addition to the description of our work in this case, as explained above, the 6 following summary of the tasks we undertook in this case: pre-litigation investigations since February 7 2025, including meeting with and interviewing former workers and reviewing their pay information;
8 legal research concerning primarily meal and rest period cases and recent case law developments;
9 thorough analysis of Defendants' policies, practices and procedures concerning pay practices, in 10 particular; drafting complaint and other pleadings; preparation of discovery and extensive meeting 11 and conferring with Defendants' counsel and motion work; drafting of mediation briefs, especially 12 as it relates to the class data and damages calculations, and attend mediation; work up the details and 13 negotiation of the settlement agreement; drafting of approval motions; and communication with class
14 members concerning the distribution processes. All the tasks and work performed were reasonable
15 and necessary to the prosecution of this case. My firm only has one attorney, and Class Counsel
16 believes that firms of this size have faced even greater risks in litigating class actions with no 17 guarantee of payment.

18 12. I graduated from Yale University in 1995 and from UCLA Law School in 1999. I have 19 extensive knowledge of employment litigation throughout California in both federal and state courts.
20 I began my legal career at Lieff, Cabraser, Heimann & Bernstein in San Francisco working primarily 21 on civil rights and employment class actions. Since then, I have litigated over 35 wage and hour class 22 actions involving overtime, meal periods, and other California Labor Code violations, leading to 23 favorable statewide class action and nationwide collective action settlements that have recouped 24 millions of dollars in unpaid wages and penalties. Throughout my career, my practice has focused on 25 employment law, and I have primarily represented low-wage, immigrant workers. I am a member of 26 the California Employment Lawyers Association (CELA) and a former chair of CELA's Immigrant 27 Employment Rights Committee. I also have served on various non-profit organizations' boards and 28 am a past president of La Raza Centro Legal in San Francisco.

1 13. Class Counsel is seeking $7,700 in costs, which was communicated to the Class in the 2 Class Notice. The majority of these costs have been for mediator fees, the filing of Complaint and 3 First Amended Complaint, and data entry expenses, while smaller amounts have been paid for other 4 ordinary litigation costs and expenses such as filing fees and mail costs. We respectfully request to 5 be reimbursed for these necessary costs which Class Counsel incurred in the representation of the 6 Plaintiffs and the Class.

7 Worked Performed by the Class Representatives

8 14. Plaintiffs' Counsel worked closely with Plaintiffs Damian Lona, Abelardo Ledesma
9 and Francisco Mendoza to prosecute and resolve this litigation.

10 15. Class Counsel's work with the Plaintiffs included initial meetings with them, at which 11 time they agreed to serve as class representatives. Following these meetings, the attorney and 12 paralegals at my firm worked with Plaintiffs on various matters related to the litigation. Since 13 February 2025, the Plaintiffs came forward in this action on behalf of the entire class, produced
14 documents, assisted counsel in bringing the case and investigating the underlying merits, conferred 15 with counsel on settlement negotiations, attended mediation, and extensively monitored the progress 16 of the litigation.

17 16. The Plaintiffs, in working with our office, put in extensive time finding and contacting 18 other class members. They reached out to their former co-workers to inform them of the litigation.
19 The Plaintiffs' time and effort resulted in Plaintiffs' Counsel obtaining a significant amount of 20 information and class data, which in turn, facilitated the settlement of this action.

21 17. As Class Representatives, the Plaintiffs took their duties and responsibilities seriously.
22 They stayed in constant contact with our offices and assisted us whenever we requested their time or 23 knowledge of the case. The Class Representatives spent time working with attorneys on phone
24 consultations, meetings, mediation and settlement documents. They provided us with information 25 that was vital to the prosecution of this action and final successful resolution of this lawsuit. In 26 addition, they were exposed to the potential risk of having to pay Defendants' costs if they did not 27 resolve this lawsuit. I believe that the requested enhancement payment of $10,000 to each of the 28 Named Plaintiffs is fair and reasonable in light of all circumstances.

18. Upon filing this declaration and other related documents in support of Final Approval with this Court, my office will electronically file them with the LDWA for purposes of the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”).

I make this Declaration under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States and the State of California in Oakland, California.
