Case No. 25CU009471C

Honorable Matthew C. Braner
Department C-60

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS
ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT;
MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT THEREOF

Date: November 13, 2026
Time: 9:00 a.m.
Dept.: C-60

Complaint Filed: February 21, 2025
FAC Filed: December 9, 2025
Trial Date: Not Set

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on November 13, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. in Department C-60 of the above-captioned Court located at 330 West Broadway, San Diego, California 92101, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court, Plaintiff Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby does move the Court for an Order granting preliminary approval of the proposed class action and PAGA settlement between Plaintiff and Defendant San Diego Family Care (“Defendant”).

Plaintiff requests that the Court enter an Order:

1. Preliminarily approving the Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”) attached as Exhibit 3 to the Declaration of James S. Winn Jr. in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Winn Decl.”);

2. Certifying the Class for Settlement purposes;

3. Appointing Plaintiff Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla as the Class Representative for Settlement purposes;

4. Appointing Jonathan M. Genish, Ryan A. Quadrel, Alexandra Rose, and James S. Winn Jr. of Blackstone Law, APC as Class Counsel for Settlement purposes;

5. Approving the proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class Notice”), attached as Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement, to be mailed to the Class;

6. Approving the opt-out and objection procedures provided in the Settlement Agreement and set forth in the Class Notice;

7. For each Class Member, directing Defendant to furnish their (1) full name; (2) last known mailing address; (3) Social Security number; (4) dates worked for Defendant during the Class Period; and (5) such other information as is necessary for the Settlement Administrator to calculate Workweeks and Pay Periods within fourteen (14) calendar days after entry of the order granting preliminary approval of the Settlement;

8. Approving the proposed deadlines for the settlement administration process; and

9. Setting a Final Approval Hearing.

1 Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(1)(2), on February 24, 2026, a copy of the 2 Settlement was submitted to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) via 3 online submission through the LWDA’s website. (Winn Decl., ¶ 44 and Exh. 4).

4 This Motion is based upon this Notice, the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the 5 Declaration of James S. Winn Jr., the Declaration of Plaintiff Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla, the Declaration
6 of the Settlement Administrator (Kimberly Sutherland of Apex Class Action LLC), the pleadings and 7 other records on file with the Court in this matter, and any other further evidence or argument that the 8 Court may properly receive at or before the hearing.

9 Respectfully submitted,

10 Dated: February 24, 2026

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of the Joint Stipulation
4 of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered into between 5 Plaintiff and Defendant San Diego Family Care (“Defendant”) (together, with Plaintiff, the “Parties”).
6 (Declaration of James S. Winn Jr. in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class
7 Action and PAGA Settlement [“Winn Decl.”], Exh. 3). The Settlement terms are outlined as follows:

- 8
- 9 • Class Size: Approximately three hundred sixty-four (364) individuals.
 - 10 • Gross Settlement Amount: Eight Hundred Seventy-Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars
11 and Zero Cents ($877,500.00).
 - 12 • Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: Attorneys’ fees of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross
13 Settlement Amount ($307,125.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $877,500.00) plus actual 14 litigation costs and expenses not to exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents
15 ($30,000.00), to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
 - 16 • Enhancement Payment: Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00), to be paid from 17 the Gross Settlement Amount.
 - 18 • Settlement Administration Costs: Not to exceed Eight Thousand One Hundred Dollars and 19 Zero Cents ($8,100.00), to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
 - 20 • PAGA Amount: Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($35,000.00) from the Gross
21 Settlement Amount, 65% of which will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development 22 Agency (“LWDA”) and the remaining 35% to be paid to the PAGA Employees.
 - 23 • Estimated Net Settlement Amount: Four Hundred Eighty-Seven Thousand Two Hundred
24 Seventy-Five Dollars and Zero Cents ($487,275.00) to be distributed to Settlement Class
25 Members.

26 As set forth herein, the Settlement is the product of informed discovery and arms-length
27 negotiations, and provides a fair, adequate, and reasonable recovery for the Class. Plaintiff therefore 28 respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminarily approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify the Class, approve the proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class Notice”), and set a hearing date for final settlement approval, among other requested relief.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Defendant is a primary care referral agency with eight health centers located throughout San Diego County. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Referral Coordinator from approximately December 2021 to approximately May 2022. (Declaration of Plaintiff Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement [“Rodriguez-Padilla Decl.”], ¶ 2).

On February 21, 2025, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint in the action entitled Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla v. San Diego Family Care, San Diego County Superior Court Case No. 25CU009471C (“Action”), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant. (Id., ¶ 8).

On June 23, 2025, the Parties participated in a formal mediation conducted by Gig Kyriacou, Esq. (“Mediator”), a neutral and respected mediator with extensive experience in complex wage and hour matters, and with the assistance of the Mediator’s evaluations, the Parties were able to reach an agreement to resolve this dispute on a class and representative basis. (Id., ¶ 9). The Parties then worked diligently to negotiate and memorialize the terms in a long form settlement agreement. (Ibid.).

On November 5, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified Mail, pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specified provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant (“PAGA Letter”). (Id., ¶ 10 and Exh. 2).

On December 9, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Operative Complaint”) in the Action. (Id., ¶ 11). The Operative Complaint alleges ten (10) causes of action for violations of the California Labor Code for failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide compliant rest periods and premiums payments in lieu thereof, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, and failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, for violations of California Business & Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations, and for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”) based on the aforementioned California Labor Code

1 violations. (Ibid).

2 On February 17, 2026, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement. (Winn Decl., ¶ 12 and 3 Exh. 3).

4 III. THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

5 A. Class Definition

6 For purposes of settlement only, the Parties have agreed that the Class shall be defined as “all
7 current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of 8 California at any time during the Class Period” (“Class” or Class Member(s)). (Winn Decl., ¶ 13; 9 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.b). The Class Period is defined as the period from February 21, 2021 through 10 August 23, 2025. (Winn Decl., ¶ 13; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.f). Based on information provided by 11 Defendant, it is estimated that there is a total of three hundred sixty-four (364) Class Members. (Winn 12 Decl., ¶ 13).

13 B. Amount of Settlement

14 The Parties have agreed to settle the class and PAGA claims at issue in the Operative Complaint
15 for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of Eight Hundred Seventy-Seven Thousand Five 16 Hundred Dollars and Zero cents ($877,500.00), exclusive of employer-side payroll taxes. (Winn Decl., ¶ 17 14; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.q).

18 C. Allocation and Funding of the Gross Settlement Amount

19 The Gross Settlement Amount is a common fund and therefore includes all requested costs, fees, 20 and other allocations. (Winn Decl., ¶ 14; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.q). The Gross Settlement Amount
21 includes: (1) Class Counsel’s fees in the amount of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement
22 Amount (i.e., $307,125.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $877,500.00); (2) Class Counsel’s actual
23 litigation costs and expenses, not to exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($30,000.00); (3)
24 Settlement Administration Costs, not to exceed Eight Thousand One Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents
25 ($8,100.00); (4) Enhancement Payment in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents
26 ($10,000.00); and (5) PAGA Amount of Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($35,000.00).
27 (Winn Decl., ¶ 14; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.q, 12, 13, 14, and 15). After the above-estimated amounts 28 are deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Net Settlement Amount that will be available for

1 Class Members is currently estimated to be Four Hundred Eighty-Seven Thousand Two Hundred
2 Seventy-Five Dollars and Zero Cents ($487,275.00). (Winn Decl., ¶ 14). Additionally, 35% of the PAGA
3 Amount (“PAGA Employee Amount”), which is $12,250.00 out of $35,000.00, will be fully distributed
4 to “all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the 5 State of California at any time during the PAGA Period” (“PAGA Employee(s)”). (Winn Decl., ¶ 14;
6 Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.y, 9.z, and 14). The “PAGA Period” is defined as the period from November 7 5, 2024 through August 23, 2025. (Winn Decl., ¶ 14; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.aa).

8 The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed and paid to all Class Members who do not submit 9 a timely and valid Request for Exclusion (“Settlement Class Member(s)”) on a pro rata basis based on 10 the number of weeks each Class Member worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt
11 employee in California during the Class Period (“Workweeks”). (Winn Decl., ¶ 15; Settlement 12 Agreement, ¶¶ 9.mm and 9.nn). The pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that a Class Member
13 may be eligible to receive under the Class Settlement (“Individual Settlement Share”) will be calculated 14 by the Settlement Administrator, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Winn Decl., ¶ 15; 15 Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.t, and 17).

16 The PAGA Employee Amount will be distributed and paid to all PAGA Employees on a pro rata
17 basis based on the number of pay periods each PAGA Employee worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid
18 and/or non-exempt employee in California during the PAGA Period (“Pay Periods”). (Winn Decl., ¶ 16; 19 Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.cc and 14). The pro rata share of the PAGA Employee Amount that a PAGA
20 Employee may be eligible to receive under the PAGA Settlement (“Individual PAGA Payment”) will be 21 calculated by the Settlement Administrator, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Winn Decl., 22 ¶ 16; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.r and 18).

23 Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as twenty percent (20%) wages and eighty 24 percent (80%) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages. (Winn Decl., ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 25 19). The portion allocated to wages will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the portions allocated to 26 penalties, interest, and non-wage damages will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the 27 Settlement Administrator. (Winn Decl., ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19). The Settlement
28 Administrator will withhold the employee’s share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages

1 portion of the Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class Members for their net
2 payment of their Individual Settlement Share (“Individual Settlement Payment”). (Winn Decl., ¶ 17;
3 Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.s and 19). The employer’s share of taxes and contributions in connection
4 with the wages portion of Individual Settlement Shares will be paid by Defendant separately and in 5 addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Winn Decl., ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.q and 19).
6 Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties and will be 7 reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator. (Winn Decl., ¶ 17; 8 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19).

9 The Settlement Agreement is a non-reversionary and non-claims made settlement. (Winn Decl., 10 ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.q and 37). The Net Settlement Amount will be fully distributed to 11 Settlement Class Members and the PAGA Amount will be fully distributed to the LWDA and PAGA
12 Employees, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Winn Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 13 14 and 17). No money will revert to Defendant. (Winn Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.q).

14 Each Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment check will be valid and 15 negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are issued, and 16 thereafter, shall be canceled. (Winn Decl., ¶ 19; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 37). Any funds associated 17 with such canceled checks will be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to the State of California’s
18 Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the Settlement Class Member and/or PAGA Employee.
19 (Winn Decl., ¶ 19; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 37).

20 D. Released Claims

21 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and all
22 Settlement Class Members will deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, 23 relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of all Released Class Claims. (Settlement Agreement, 24 ¶ 38).

25 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement, Plaintiff, the State of California
26 with respect to all PAGA Employees, and all PAGA Employees will be deemed to have fully, finally,
27 and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of all 28 Released PAGA Claims. (Id., ¶ 39).

1 “Released Class Claims” means any and all claims which were alleged or which could have been
2 reasonably alleged based on the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint, arising during the Class
3 Period, which shall specifically include claims for Defendant’s alleged failure to pay overtime and 4 minimum wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium payments, timely pay
5 wages during employment and upon termination, provide accurate wage statements, and reimburse
6 necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204,
7 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, the applicable Industrial 8 Welfare Commission Wage Order, and California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.
9 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.ff).

10 “Released PAGA Claims” means any and all claims arising from any of the factual allegations in 11 the PAGA Letter and the Operative Complaint, arising during the PAGA Period, for civil penalties under 12 the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code Sections 2698 et seq., which shall 13 specifically include claims for Defendant’s alleged failure to pay overtime and minimum wages, provide 14 compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium payments, timely pay wages during employment 15 and upon termination, provide compliant wage statements, and reimburse necessary business-related 16 expenses in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510,
17 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission
18 Wage Order. (Id., ¶ 9.gg).

19 “Released Parties” means Defendant and its current and former officers, directors, members, 20 insurers, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, and assigns. (Id., ¶ 9.hh).

21 IV. STANDARD OF REVIEW FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

22 The settlement of a class action requires court approval. (See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.
23 App. 4th 1794 (1996)). “In general, questions whether a settlement was fair and reasonable, whether 24 notice to the class was adequate, whether certification of the class was proper, and whether the attorney
25 fee award was proper are matters addressed to the trial court’s broad discretion.” (Wershba v. Apple 26 Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234-35 (2001) (disapproved on other grounds)).

27 ///

1 The review and approval of a proposed class action settlement involves a two-step process. (See
2 Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(c)). First, counsel submit the proposed terms of the settlement and the 3 Court makes a preliminary assessment of whether the settlement appears to be sufficiently within the 4 range of a fair settlement to justify providing notice of the proposed settlement to class members. After 5 notice is provided to the class, the Court must conduct a second inquiry into whether the proposed 6 settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Ibid).

7 The initial evaluation of the settlement at the preliminary approval step “is not a fairness hearing.”
8 (Armstrong v. Board of School Directors of City of Milwaukee, 616 F.2d 305, 314 (7th Cir. 1980)).
9 Rather, the limited purpose of this initial inquiry is to determine, at a threshold level, only whether the 10 proposed settlement is within the range of possible approval and, as a result, “whether there is any reason
11 to notify the class members of the proposed settlement and to proceed with a fairness hearing.” A 12 presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s length bargaining; (2)
13 investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel
14 is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (See In re Microsoft I-V 15 Cases, 135 Cal. App. 4th 706, 723 (2006)).

16 Preliminary approval does not require a court to make a final determination that the settlement is 17 fair, reasonable, and adequate. Rather, that decision is made only at the final approval stage, after notice 18 of the settlement has been given to the class members and they have had an opportunity to object or 19 exclude themselves from the settlement. (See Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(g)). In considering a 20 potential class settlement, the court need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law 21 which underlie the merits of the dispute and need not engage in a trial on the merits. (See Officers for 22 Justice v. Civil Service Commission, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982)).

23 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS PRESUMED FAIR

24 A. The Settlement Was Reached as a Result of Arm’s-Length Bargaining

25 California courts recognize that “a presumption of fairness exists where . . . [a] settlement is 26 reached through arm’s-length bargaining.” (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; see also Clark v. Am.
27 Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799 (2009)). Here, the Parties’ settlement negotiations 28 were at all times made at arm’s-length and were adversarial. (Winn Decl., ¶ 20). The Settlement was

1 reached following a full day of mediation with a highly respected mediator with substantial experience
2 mediating wage and hour cases. (Ibid). At all times, Plaintiff was willing and prepared to litigate this 3 matter through class certification and trial if the Parties had been unable to reach a favorable resolution.
4 (Id., ¶ 41).

5 B. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery by Experienced Class Counsel

6 Courts typically assess the status of discovery in determining whether a class action settlement
7 agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801). Prior to mediation, 8 Defendant produced a random twenty-five percent (25%) sampling of putative class members' time and 9 pay data, information regarding the total number of putative class members, the number of current versus 10 former employees, the total workweeks worked by the putative class members, and the average rate of 11 pay for the putative class members. (Winn Decl., ¶ 21).

12 This allowed Class Counsel to conduct an informed assessment and analysis of the strengths and 13 weaknesses of the claims and the potential class-wide damages. (Id., ¶ 22). Based on information
14 exchanged, the Parties extensively briefed issues regarding class certification and liability and provided
15 their analyses to the Mediator who helped the Parties debate the strengths and weakness of their respective 16 positions. (Id., ¶ 23). Additionally, settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and 17 experienced counsel. (Winn Decl., ¶¶ 1-7). Accordingly, Class Counsel had sufficient information and 18 experience to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

19 C. The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties' Respective Legal Positions 20 and Recovery Risks

21 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at 22 trial, nor does the settlement have to obtain 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
23 (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250). In evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement, a trial court 24 must consider "the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 25 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the 26 extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the 27 presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement."
28 (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008)).

1 Here, the reasonableness of the Settlement is underscored by the fact that Defendant has legal and 2 factual grounds for defending the Action. Based upon Class Counsel's experience litigating similar
3 complex matters, Plaintiff reasonably expected a vigorous and lengthy defense to both class certification
4 and the merits of the Action absent a settlement.

5 1. Class Counsel's Analysis of the Maximum Available Liability and Damages

6 Class Counsel analyzed all available data and estimated Defendant's maximum potential exposure 7 to be approximately $7,096,876, assuming the litigation was successful at trial on all claims at issue and 8 every employee had a violation for each claim on every shift worked. (Winn Decl., ¶ 24). This maximum 9 potential analysis was then reduced based on the challenges facing the likelihood of obtaining class
10 certification, prevailing at trial, and other attendant risks. (Ibid). This estimate is based off an estimated 11 maximum liability for all claims at issue and the total aggregate workweeks during the relevant time
12 period, less interest, and based on the analysis of the data which was extrapolated out for all class 13 members across the entire putative class period, which included: $541,022 for meal period violations;
14 $3,983,880 for rest period violations at a 100% violation rate; $970,016 for unpaid off-the-clock work 15 for 1 hour per workweek of off-the-clock work; $74,465 in unpaid wages due to rounding; $244,000 for 16 unreimbursed business expenses; $646,443 for waiting time penalties; and $637,050 for wage statement
17 penalties. (Ibid). Plaintiff further estimated that Defendant faced an additional exposure of $648,900 in 18 potential, non-stacked (i.e., one penalty, per employee, per pay period during the PAGA statutory period)
19 PAGA penalties. (Ibid). Together with the PAGA penalties, Defendant's maximum potential exposure
20 totaled $7,745,776 in damages. (Ibid).

21 2. Class Counsel's Risk-Based Analysis and Risk-Based Adjustments

22 While Plaintiff believes that Defendant faced significant exposure, substantial barriers to a
23 recovery existed. Defendant contended that Plaintiff's claims are not suitable for class certification
24 because individual issues and affirmative defenses would predominate should this case go to trial. (Winn
25 Decl., ¶ 27; See Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004 (2012); Duran v. U.S. Bank
26 Nat. Assn., 59 Cal.4th 1, 35-36 (2014); Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 131 S.Ct. 2541, 2551 (2011)).
27 While Plaintiff and Class Counsel disagree with Defendant's predictions, they also recognize that there 28 is a significant risk that the Court may deny class certification. (Winn Decl., ¶ 27; see also, Findings of

1 the Study of California Class Action Litigation, 2000-2006, available at 2 <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/class-action-lit-study.pdf> (finding that only 21.4% of all class 3 actions were certified either as part of a settlement or as part of a contested certification motion)).

4 For example, Plaintiff's meal period claims, which were based on Defendant's alleged failure to 5 provide lawful meal periods, have been increasingly difficult to certify in recent years. (Winn Decl., ¶
6 28; See Brinker, 53 Cal. 4th at 1034-35). Plaintiff's theory of liability for meal period violations was 7 based on allegations that Defendant had failed to implement its policies and that its practices failed to 8 allow Class Members to take meal breaks in the manner required under California law. (Winn Decl., ¶ 9 28; See Bradley v. Networkers Int'l, LLC, 211 Cal.App.4th 1129, 1150 (2012) (holding that "the lack of 10 a meal/rest break policy and the uniform failure to authorize such breaks are matters of common proof.")).
11 Defendant contended that its policies and practices at all times during the Class Period were lawful.
12 (Winn Decl., ¶ 28). Indeed, Plaintiff's analysis revealed only a 15.1% violation rate for purported unique
13 meal period violations. (Ibid). Defendant further argued that the rate of purported meal period violations
14 reflected in the data would require individualized inquiry and that such inquiry would prohibit a class
15 from being certified. (Ibid). Class Counsel also had to consider the risk that the Court would find validity
16 in an individualized proof defense to certification of Plaintiff's meal period claim. (Ibid).

17 Additionally, a large portion of Defendant's overall liability lies in Plaintiff's rest period
18 allegations. (Id., ¶ 29). As with the meal period allegations, Defendant contended that it had a lawful 19 written rest period policy, provided compliant rest breaks, and relieved Class Members of all duties as 20 required under California law. (Ibid). Additionally, this claim was even more uncertain given the 21 difficulties associated with proving the alleged rest period violations, as Defendant was not required to 22 record these breaks. (Ibid). Given the lack of records demonstrating rest period violations, there were 23 legitimate concerns Plaintiff would not be able to certify these claims or prove substantial damages with 24 requisite certainty, which made the estimated value of this claim subject to much challenge. (Ibid).

25 Plaintiff also faced challenges certifying and proving liability for her minimum wage and 26 overtime claims. (Id., ¶ 30). These claims were largely based on Defendant's rounding and unrecorded,
27 off-the-clock work performed by the Class Members. (Ibid). Plaintiff argued that Defendant rounded 28 employees' time in a manner which was entirely in favor of Defendant and to the detriment of the

1 employees. (Ibid). Plaintiff's off-the-clock claim rested on unrecorded, off-the-clock work performed
2 by the Class Members both before and after their shifts and during purported meal periods. (Ibid). For 3 example, it was reported that Plaintiff and the other Class Members were required to: (1) respond to co-
4 workers and supervisors regarding work-related requests during purported meal breaks; (2) clock out at 5 the behest of Plaintiff and other Class Members prior to returning to work to perform additional work
6 unpaid; (3) don protective wear intended to assist with cold temperatures in Defendant's workplace prior 7 to clocking in; and (4) doff the same protective wear after clocking out. (Ibid). However, the 8 individualized nature of why this work was performed and the individualized nature of damages presented
9 substantial concerns regarding the manageability of the case and the risk the Court could find these issues
10 prevented certification, and the estimated damages for this claim were based on an assumption that all 11 Class Members worked off the clock for at least one hour per week. (Ibid).

12 Plaintiff also contended that Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members 13 for necessary business-related expenses, such as the usage of personal cell phones for work-related 14 purposes. (Id., ¶ 31). Defendant contended that it had a policy and practice of reimbursing employees 15 for necessary business-related expenses. (Ibid). Defendant further contended that, with respect to the 16 alleged expenses for which Plaintiff and the other Class Members never requested reimbursement from 17 Defendant, it did not know and had no reason to know that alleged business-related expenses had been 18 incurred. (Ibid). Defendant further contended that the reason for why a Class Member undertook certain 19 expenses, while not others, and failed to receive reimbursement for certain expenses while not others, 20 would raise individual issues that could not be certified. (Ibid).

21 There are also substantial risks associated with Plaintiff's waiting time penalties and wage
22 statement claims. (Id., ¶ 32). First, these claims were derivative of Plaintiff's claims for unpaid meal
23 period premiums, unpaid rest period premiums, unpaid minimum wages, and unpaid overtime wages, 24 and if certification was denied on those underlying claims, these derivative claims for penalties would 25 also likely fail. (Ibid). Further, even if Plaintiff prevailed on her underlying claims, she would still be 26 required to demonstrate that Defendant's violations of California Labor Code section 203 were willful
27 violations. (Winn Decl., ¶ 32; See, e.g., Choate v. Celite Corp., 215 Cal App. 4th 1460, 1468 (2013) 28 (holding that "an employer's reasonable, good faith belief that wages are not owed may negate a finding of willfulness’’)). Wage statement claims have also seen varying treatment at the appellate level because such claims have an element of discretion attached to them rather than a pure calculation of damages after liability is proven. (Winn Decl. ¶ 32; Jaimez v. DAIOHS USA, Inc., 181 Cal.App.4th 1286 (2010) with Price v. Starbucks Corp., 192 Cal.App.4th 1136 (2011)). Accordingly, these derivative claims, which comprised a substantial portion of Defendant’s estimated liability, were therefore uncertain. (Winn Decl., ¶ 32).

Class Counsel also recognized that, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification, proving the amount of wages due to Class Members would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id., ¶ 33). In order to prove liability and damages, Class Counsel will need to request and analyze thousands of pages of documents, obtain the Class Members’ contact information, contact them, and obtain their declarations at great expense. (Ibid.). Obtaining the cooperation of current employees would also be difficult, given the likely reluctance to aid prosecution of a lawsuit against a current employer. (Ibid.). On the other hand, Defendant would likely be able to obtain the cooperation of its employees. (Ibid.). Moreover, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification and trial, possible appeals would substantially delay any recovery by the Class. (Ibid.).

Therefore, taking into account how each of the above risks potentially effected Plaintiff’s ability to first obtain class certification, and then prove the underlying violations, plus the cost and delay in recovering the alleged potential damages, Class Counsel discounted Defendant’s estimated liability based on the challenges facing her ability to succeed on class certification by 65% to $2,711,022. (Id., ¶ 34). The merits-based risk factors further reduced Defendant’s estimated liability by an additional 65%. (Ibid.). This resulted in an adjusted estimated liability of $948,858. (Ibid.). In light thereof, the settlement amount of $877,500.00 is a significant settlement. (Ibid.).

Class Counsel also contemplated the risks of proceeding with the PAGA claims and potential liability Defendant could face from these claims as part of the global resolution. (Id., ¶ 35). Existing case law makes PAGA claims subject to the same defenses and risks as Plaintiff’s underlying wage claims. (Winn Decl., ¶ 35; see, Elliot v. Spherion Pac. Work, LLC, 572 F.Supp.2d 1169, 1181-82 (C.D. Cal. 2008) (“Plaintiff’s claim under [PAGA] is wholly dependent upon her other claims. Because all of Plaintiff’s other claims fail as a matter of law, so does her PAGA claim’’)). Class Counsel also anticipated

1 that even if successful on the merits at trial, the imposition of cumulative civil penalties based on the 2 alleged wage and hour violations could be considered unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory,
3 and that Defendant would argue that it made a good faith attempt to comply with its legal obligations
4 warranting a reduction in penalties. (Winn Decl., ¶ 35).¹ Class Counsel also anticipated Defendant would 5 argue that the violations per pay period were low, warranting an additional reduction in civil penalties.
6 (Ibid). Finally, Class Counsel was also mindful of the fact that PAGA is fundamentally not intended to 7 be compensatory in nature but is instead intended to facilitate enforcement of California’s labor laws by 8 financing state activities and educating and deterring non-compliance. (Ibid).

9 Therefore, after considering this multitude of factors, Plaintiff and Class Counsel concluded that 10 it was in the best interest of the State of California and the PAGA Employees to enter into the Settlement,
11 and to allocate Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($35,000.00) of the Gross Settlement
12 Amount towards the PAGA claims, which represents approximately 4% of the Gross Settlement Amount.
13 (Id., ¶ 36). This percentage of the settlement is well within the range of wage and hour settlements
14 regularly approved in both state and federal court for cases that include both a class and PAGA action.
15 (Ibid). Typically, such hybrid cases allocate only 1% of the gross settlement value to resolve PAGA 16 claims, and, indeed, settlements allocations as little as 0.22% of the gross settlement amount have been 17 approved as reasonable by courts. (Ibid). Moreover, the overall relief obtained by the Settlement is 18 significant, not only from a monetary perspective, but also because it fulfills the public policy objectives
19 of PAGA—to promote enforcement of California’s labor laws, provide funds to the state, and deter future 20 non-compliance by the employer. (Ibid).

arising out of the same conduct); Fleming v. Covidien, Inc., 2011 WL 756304718, at *4 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 12, 2011) (reducing PAGA penalties by 80%); Cotter v. Lyft, Inc., 193 F.Supp.3d 1030 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (indicating that a substantial reduction is warranted where good faith dispute exists in legal obligations); Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal.App.5th 504, 529 (2018) (approving reduction in penalties from $50 per pay period to $5 per pay period based on good faith attempts to comply with obligations and minimal violations).

1 The Settlement is in the best interest of the Class Members, the PAGA Employees, and the State
2 of California and is within the accepted range of recoveries for this type of litigation given the inherent 3 risk of litigation, the risk of obtaining and maintaining class certification, and the costs of further 4 litigation. (Id., ¶ 37).

5 VI. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

6 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 provides that three basic requirements must be met in order
7 to sustain any class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class; (2) there must be a well-defined
8 community of interest in the question of law or fact affecting the parties to be represented; and (3)
9 certification will provide substantial benefits to litigants and the courts, i.e., proceeding as a class action
10 is superior to other methods. (See Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1806). Plaintiff contends that the Action,
11 which is based upon Defendant's wage and hour policies and practices, satisfies the class certification
12 requirements under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Defendant denies Plaintiff's
13 allegations, but for purposes of the Settlement only, Defendant has stipulated to certification of the Class.

14 A. An Ascertainable Class Exists Which is So Numerous That Joinder of All Members is 15 Impracticable

16 Whether an ascertainable class exists turns on three factors: (1) the class definition, (2) the size of 17 the class, and (3) the means of identifying the class members. (See Miller v. Woods, 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 18 873 (1983)). In this case, all three considerations strongly favor class certification. Here, the Class is 19 defined as "all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant 20 in the State of California at any time during the Class Period." (Winn Decl., ¶ 13; Settlement Agreement, 21 ¶ 9.b). This provides a clear and definite scope for the proposed class.

22 Next, the Class is sufficiently numerous. There is no magic number that satisfies the numerosity 23 requirement. Courts have certified classes with as few as ten or twenty-eight class members. (Rose v.
24 City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981); Bowles v. Superior Court, 44 Cal. 2d 574 (1995);
25 Hebbard v. Colgrove, 28 Cal.App.3d 1017, 1030 (1972)). Here, the estimated Class size of three hundred 26 sixty-four (364) individuals meets the numerosity requirement.

27 ///

28 ///

1 Finally, the question of whether class members are easily identifiable turns on whether a plaintiff
2 can establish “the existence of an ascertainable class.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co., 67 Cal.2d 695 at 706
3 (1967)). The existence of an ascertainable class in this case can be established through Defendant’s
4 payroll records, and the Class definition is sufficiently specific to enable the Parties, Class Members, and
5 the Court to determine the parameters of the Class. (See Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp., 191 6 Cal.App.3d 605, 617 (1987)).

7 B. The Class Shares a Well-Defined Community of Interest

8 The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant questions of law
9 and fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives
10 who can adequately represent the class. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1806). Here, all three requirements 11 are easily satisfied.

12 The commonality criterion requires the existence of common question of law or fact and is 13 generally established with the issues of predominance and typicality. (See Daar, 67 Cal.2d 695, 706).
14 What is required is that a common question of fact or law exists which predominates over issues unique
15 to individual plaintiffs. The existence of individual issues or facts—generally present in any case arising 16 from employment—is not a bar to class certification as long as they do not render class litigation 17 unmanageable or predominate over the common issues. (See B.W.I. Custom Kitchen v. Owens-Illinois, 18 Inc., 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1354 (1987)).

19 Here, Plaintiff’s claims present common issues of law and fact that predominate and warrant class
20 certification. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant denied compliant meal and rest periods to employees, 21 required employees to perform work off-the-clock, and failed to fully compensate employees for all time
22 actually worked. These policies and practices meant that Defendant allegedly failed to pay minimum and 23 overtime wages, and other related claims. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s policies and practices were 24 uniform as to all Class Members. Thus, class treatment is appropriate.

25 To satisfy the typicality requirement, California law does not require that plaintiffs’ claims be 26 identical to the other class members. Rather, the test of typicality for a class representative is whether 27 other members have the same or similar injury, whether the action is based on conduct which is not 28 unique to the named plaintiff, and whether other class members have been injured by the same course of

1 conduct. (See Seastrom v. Neways, Inc., 149 Cal.App.4th 1496, 1502 (2007)). The typicality requirement
2 for a class representative refers to the nature of the claim or defense of the representative, and not to the 3 specific facts from which it arose or the relief sought. (See Ibid).

4 Here, Plaintiff alleges that her claims are similar to that of the other Class Members and that 5 Plaintiff's claims arise out of the same alleged course of conduct giving rise to the claims of the other
6 Class Members. Because Plaintiff's claims are based upon the same alleged conduct and business
7 practices as those of Class Members, the typicality requirement has been satisfied.

8 Finally, the question of adequacy of representation "depends on whether the plaintiff's attorney 9 is qualified to conduct the proposed litigation and the plaintiff's interests are not antagonistic to the 10 interests of the class." (McGee v. Bank of America, 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 450 (1976)). Here, these 11 considerations are satisfied. Class Counsel is well-regarded and is qualified and experienced in 12 employment-related, class-action litigation. (Winn Decl., ¶¶ 1-7). Plaintiff will vigorously, adequately, 13 and fairly represent the interests of the Class. Plaintiff has, at all times, throughout the course of the 14 litigation considered the interests of the Class and understood that she must take steps to adequately
15 represent the Class and their interests. (Rodriguez-Padilla Decl., ¶ 10). Because Plaintiff's claims are 16 typical of other Class Members and are not based on unique circumstances, there is no antagonism 17 between the interests of Plaintiff and the Class.

18 C. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

19 Under the circumstances, proceeding as a class action is a superior means of resolving this dispute, 20 as the Class Members and the Court will derive substantial benefits. Class certification would serve as 21 the only means to deter and redress the alleged violations. (See Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal.4th 429, 22 434 (2000) (relevant considerations include the probability that each class member will come forward to 23 prove his or her separate claim and whether the class approach would actually serve to deter and redress 24 the alleged wrongdoing)). Further, individual actions arising out of the same operative facts would 25 unduly burden the courts and could result in inconsistent results. Therefore, class action proceedings are 26 superior to individual litigation.

27 ///

28 ///

1 VII. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT IS REASONABLE

2 Plaintiffs in class action lawsuits are eligible for reasonable incentive payments as compensation
3 “for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class.” (Munoz
4 v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 412 (2010)). Courts routinely grant approval of 5 class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representative, which are 6 necessary to provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the class
7 representatives help to bring about for the class. (See In re Online DVD Rental, 779 F.3d 934, 947-948
8 (9th Cir. 2014) (approving incentive award 417 times larger than individual payments where incentive
9 award made up a mere .17% of the settlement); Gaudin v. Saxon Mortgage Servs., Inc., 2015 WL 10 7454183, at *10 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 23, 2015) (finding service award of $15,000 to be “fair and 11 reasonable”)).

12 Plaintiff initiated this litigation on behalf of her former co-workers who will now be entitled to 13 receive payment from the Settlement. Plaintiff invested substantial time and effort into litigation, 14 including her own research, reviewing documents, and extensive discussions with Class Counsel.
15 (Rodriguez-Padilla Decl., ¶¶ 3-5). Further, the requested amount for Plaintiff is also reasonable given 16 the average award and the benefit gained by other Class Members. For these reasons, Plaintiff requests
17 that an Enhancement Payment of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) to Plaintiff be 18 preliminarily approved by the Court. (Winn Decl., ¶ 38; Rodriguez-Padilla Decl., ¶ 12).

19 VIII. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND COSTS ARE REASONABLE

20 Trial courts have “wide latitude” in assessing the value of attorneys’ fees and their decisions are 21 “not to be disturbed on appeal absent a manifest abuse of discretion.” (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal, Inc., 82 22 Cal.App.4th 19, 41 (2000)). California law provides that attorney fee awards should be equivalent to fees
23 paid in the legal marketplace to compensate for the result achieved and risk incurred. (Id. at 47). In cases 24 where class members present claims against a common fund and the defendant agrees to a percentage of 25 the fund as part of the settlement, use of the percentage method is appropriate. (Id. at 32).

26 Here, the requested attorneys’ fees of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount 27 (i.e., $307,125.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $877,500.00) are disclosed to Class Members in the 28 proposed Class Notice. (Settlement Agreement, Exh. A). The requested fee was freely negotiated, is common in the legal marketplace, and is not opposed by Defendant. The Motion for Final Approval will elaborate on the nature of the legal services provided and will also support Class Counsel's request for the reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses not to exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($30,000.00). (Winn Decl., ¶¶ 39 and 41). The Attorneys' Fees and Costs that are not ultimately approved by the Court shall instead be included in the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Settlement Class Members. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 12).

IX. THE CLASS NOTICE AND THE OPT-OUT AND OBJECTION PROCESS
MEETS DUE PROCESS REQUIREMENTS

The Parties have jointly drafted the Class Notice, which will be mailed to the Class Members. (Id., Exh. A). The Class Notice will include information regarding the nature of the Action, a summary of the terms of the Settlement, the Class definition, information on how to object to and/or opt-out of the Class Settlement and to dispute Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, and the date of the Final Approval Hearing. (Ibid.). The Class Notice will list each Class Member's total Workweeks and their estimated Individual Settlement Share and each PAGA Employee's total Pay Periods and their estimated Individual PAGA Payment. (Ibid.).

Within fourteen (14) calendar days after entry of the preliminary approval order, Defendant will provide a list in a formatted readable Microsoft Office Excel spreadsheet to the Settlement Administrator containing the following information for each Class Member: 1) full name; (2) last known mailing address; (3) Social Security number; (4) dates worked for Defendant during the Class Period; and (5) such other information as is necessary for the Settlement Administrator to calculate Workweeks and Pay Periods (collectively referred to as the "Class List"). (Id., ¶¶ 9.d and 26). Within seven (7) calendar days after receiving the Class List from Defendant, the Settlement Administrator will perform a search based on the National Change of Address Database or other similar services available, such as provided by Experian, for information to update and correct for any known or identifiable address changes, and will mail a Class Notice in English and Spanish to all Class Members via First-Class U.S. Mail, using the most current, known mailing addresses identified by the Settlement Administrator. (Id., ¶ 27.a). The Parties have agreed to use Apex Class Action LLC as the Settlement Administrator. (Winn Decl., ¶ 42; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.kk).

1 In determining whether to approve a settlement of a class action, a trial court has virtually
2 complete discretion as to the manner of giving notice to class members, and review on appeal is governed
3 by the abuse of discretion standard. (See In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380
4 (2010)). Here, Class Counsel is not aware of an alternative method of providing notice to the Class which 5 would result in a higher likelihood of actual notice. (Winn Decl., ¶ 43). The original source of the mailing
6 addresses is from Class Members, who provided the information to Defendant. (Ibid).

7 Class Members will have forty-five (45) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Class Notice
8 by the Settlement Administrator to submit a Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection, and/or Dispute
9 (“Response Deadline”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.jj).

10 Any Class Notice returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable on or before the 11 Response Deadline will be sent promptly via First-Class U.S. Mail to the forwarding address affixed
12 thereto and the Settlement Administrator will indicate the date of such re-mailing on the Class Notice.
13 (Id., ¶ 27.b). If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will promptly attempt 14 to determine a correct address using a skip-trace or other search, using the name, address, and/or Social 15 Security number of the Class Member, and perform a single re-mailing within five (5) calendar days.
16 (Ibid). In the event that a Class Notice is re-mailed to a Class Member, the Response Deadline for that 17 Class Member shall be extended fifteen (15) calendar days from the original Response Deadline. (Id., ¶ 18 9.jj).

19 Class Members will have an opportunity to dispute the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods
20 to which they have been credited, as reflected in their respective Class Notices, by submitting a timely 21 and valid letter (“Dispute”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or before the 22 Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 9.j and 28). A Dispute must: (a) contain the case name and number of the 23 Action; (b) contain the Class Member’s full name, signature, address, telephone number, and the last four 24 (4) digits of the Class Member’s Social Security number; (c) clearly state that the Class Member disputes
25 the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to the Class Member and what the Class Member 26 contends is the correct number; and (d) be returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at the 27 specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶ 9.j).

28 ///

1 Any Class Member wishing to be excluded from the Class Settlement must submit a timely and 2 valid letter (“Request for Exclusion”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or before
3 the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 9.ii and 29). A Request for Exclusion must: (a) contain the case name
4 and number of the Action; (b) contain the Class Member’s full name, signature, address, telephone
5 number, and last four (4) digits of the Class Member’s Social Security number; (c) clearly state that the 6 Class Member does not wish to be included in the Class Settlement; and (d) be returned by mail to the 7 Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., 8 ¶ 9.ii). Notwithstanding the above, all PAGA Employees will be bound by the PAGA Settlement and 9 will be issued their Individual PAGA Payment, irrespective of whether they submit a Request for 10 Exclusion. (Id., ¶ 29).

11 To object to the Class Settlement, Settlement Class Members must submit a timely and complete
12 written objection (“Notice of Objection”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or 13 before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 9.w and 30). A Notice of Objection must: (a) contain the case
14 name and number of the Action; (b) contain the objector’s full name, signature, address, telephone
15 number, and the last four (4) digits of the objector’s Social Security number; (c) contain a written 16 statement of all grounds for the objection accompanied by any legal support for such objection; (d)
17 contain copies of any papers, briefs, or other documents upon which the objection is based; and (e) be 18 returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the 19 Response Deadline. (Id., ¶ 9.w). Settlement Class Members, individually or through counsel, may also 20 present their objection orally at the Final Approval Hearing, regardless of whether they have submitted a 21 Notice of Objection. (Id., ¶ 30).

22 X. CONCLUSION

23 For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant Plaintiff’s
24 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and the relief requested herein.

25 Respectfully submitted,
