Trial Date: Not Set

I, James S. Winn Jr., declare and state as follows:

Experience and Adequacy of Blackstone Law, APC

3. Jonathan M. Genish is the founder of Blackstone Law, APC. He received his law degree from Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law and was admitted to the California State Bar in 2008. During law school, he clerked at the litigation firm Oved & Oved, LLP and was published several times in various small publications. Upon graduation, he was rehired by Freedman & Taitelman, LLP as an associate and remained employed there from September 2008 through August 2015. During his tenure, he managed hundreds (perhaps thousands) of complex litigation cases, ranging from employment, corporate, entertainment, and general business litigation matters, though his primary area of expertise was employment, both single plaintiff and representative actions. On the vast majority of those cases, he was the only or primary attorney managing the case and thus obtained extensive experience. In that capacity, he conducted wage and hour and wrongful termination labor and employment intakes; was the primary contact for all clients; took and defended hundreds (if not thousands) of depositions; propounded and responded to all discovery; prepared and opposed all motions and pleadings, including dispositive and certification motions; strategized on all cases;

1 attended all hearings; attended all mediations; coordinated with class action administrators; prepared
2 and worked with experts; first and second chaired multiple trials and arbitrations; and engaged in all
3 other intricate facets of litigation. During that time, he represented a wide range of clients from sole
4 proprietorships to Fortune 500 companies in state, federal, complex, and appellate courts. Many of 5 the cases he managed were highly publicized, with articles written about them in the Los Angeles
6 Times, Deadline, The Hollywood Reporter, Business Insider, Law360, and others. Super Lawyers has 7 regularly honored him as a Southern California Rising Star since 2012.

8 4. Ryan A. Quadrel is a leading wage and hour litigator whose practice focuses on high-
9 exposure class and representative actions in state, federal, and complex courts throughout California.
10 Known for his strategic judgment and disciplined litigation management, Mr. Quadrel brings extensive 11 experience representing both employees and employers, allowing him to assess cases with the 12 sophistication and balance required in complex employment matters. Mr. Quadrel earned his Juris
13 Doctor degree from Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center in 2015, where he graduated in 14 the top of his class and earned several accolades by competing and coaching teams in moot court
15 competitions. Since his admission to the California State Bar, his practice has been dedicated almost 16 exclusively to employment law, with a concentration on wage and hour class actions and 17 representative actions under PAGA. Throughout his career, Mr. Quadrel has taken a leadership role
18 in all aspects of complex litigation including trial and arbitration hearings. He regularly oversees case
19 assessment and strategy, directs discovery, and manages the full spectrum of motion practice,
20 including dispositive and class certification briefing. His experience includes soliciting testimony 21 from trial witnesses, taking and defending depositions, coordinating with experts on liability and 22 damages analyses, supervising communications with large groups of class members and aggrieved
23 employees, and guiding cases through mediation, settlement approval, and administration. His 24 strategic approach and command of wage and hour law have resulted in the recovery of unpaid wages
25 and penalties for thousands of employees throughout the state. Recognized for both his results and 26 his professional leadership, Mr. Quadrel frequently lectures on wage and hour legal updates and 27 litigation strategy. He has been recognized as a Top Lawyer on several occasions by Palm Springs
28 Life Magazine.

1 5. Alexandra Rose joined Blackstone Law, APC from a highly reputable employment law
2 firm. She graduated from the University of California, Los Angeles with a Bachelor of Arts degree in
3 2016 and from New England Law | Boston with a Juris Doctor degree in 2019. She was admitted to
4 the State Bar of California in December of 2019 and the State Bars of New York and New Jersey in 5 2023. Additionally, she is licensed in all federal district courts of California. She has worked on many 6 wage and hour class action and PAGA representative matters, and her work has included, inter alia,
7 researching and drafting pleadings, administrative notice exhaustion, drafting, negotiating, and 8 finalizing stipulations and settlement agreements, engaging in motion practice, claims evaluation and 9 analysis, and making court appearances. She manages the post-settlement department at Blackstone.
10 In that capacity, she oversees and handle over 100 wage-and-hour putative class actions and/or 11 representative actions under PAGA that are in settlement.

12 6. I joined Blackstone Law, APC after working at a respected employment and personal 13 injury plaintiff-side law firm where I handled cases from intake to post settlement. I graduated from 14 the University of California, Santa Barbara with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science with a 15 Minor in Professional Writing in 2018. I received my Juris Doctorate Degree in 2022 from University
16 of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law. I was admitted to the State Bar of California in May 2023.
17 I have worked on many wage and hour class action and PAGA representative matters, and my work 18 has included, inter alia, conducting legal research, drafting pleadings, stipulations, memorandums of 19 understanding, and settlement agreements, negotiating settlement terms, engaging in motion practice, 20 and making court appearances.

21 7. Blackstone Law, APC has been counsel of record on several class action and PAGA
22 actions that have since been resolved, the most recent of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

23 Procedural History of the Action

24 8. On February 21, 2025, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint in the action entitled
25 Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla v. San Diego Family Care, San Diego County Superior Court Case No.
26 25CU009471C (“Action”), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant San Diego
27 Family Care (“Defendant”).

28 ///

1 9. On June 23, 2025, Plaintiff and Defendant (together, the “Parties”) participated in a
2 formal mediation conducted by Gig Kyriacou, Esq. (“Mediator”), a neutral and respected mediator
3 with extensive experience in complex wage and hour matters, and with the assistance of the Mediator’s
4 evaluations, the Parties were able to reach an agreement to resolve this dispute on a class and 5 representative basis. The Parties then worked diligently to negotiate and memorialize the terms in a 6 long form settlement agreement.

7 10. On November 5, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice to the California Labor and 8 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified
9 Mail, pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specified provisions of the California
10 Labor Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant (“PAGA Letter”). A true and correct copy of 11 the PAGA Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

12 11. On December 9, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action
13 Complaint (“Operative Complaint”) in the Action. The Operative Complaint alleges ten (10) causes
14 of action for violations of the California Labor Code for failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay
15 overtime wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof,
16 failure to provide compliant rest periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to timely pay
17 wages during employment, failure to provide compliant wage statements, failure to timely pay wages
18 upon termination, and failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, for violations of California
19 Business & Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor
20 Code violations, and for civil penalties under PAGA based on the aforementioned California Labor
21 Code violations.

22 12. On February 17, 2026, the Parties executed the Joint Stipulation of Class Action and 23 PAGA Settlement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”). A true and correct copy of the 24 Settlement Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

25 Summary of the Terms of the Settlement Agreement

26 13. For purposes of settlement only, the Parties have agreed that the Class shall be defined 27 as “all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in 28 the State of California at any time during the Class Period” (“Class” or “Class Member(s)”). The

1 Class Period is defined as the period from February 21, 2021 through August 23, 2025. Based on
2 information provided by Defendant, it is estimated that there are a total of three hundred sixty-four 3 (364) Class Members.

4 14. The Parties have agreed to settle the class and PAGA claims at issue in the Operative
5 Complaint for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of Eight Hundred Seventy-Seven
6 Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($877,500.00), exclusive of employer-side payroll
7 taxes. The Gross Settlement Amount is a common fund and therefore includes all requested costs,
8 fees, and other allocations. The Gross Settlement Amount includes: (1) Class Counsel's fees in the 9 amount of thirty-five (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $307,125.00 if the Gross Settlement
10 Amount is $877,500.00); (2) Class Counsel's actual litigation costs and expenses, not to exceed Thirty 11 Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($30,000.00); (3) Settlement Administration Costs, not to exceed 12 Eight Thousand One Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($8,100.00); (4) Enhancement Payment in the 13 amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00); and (5) PAGA Amount in the amount
14 of Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($35,000.00). After the above-estimated amounts 15 are deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Net Settlement Amount that will be available for 16 Class Members is currently estimated to be Four Hundred Eighty-Seven Thousand Two Hundred
17 Seventy-Five Dollars and Zero Cents ($487,275.00). Additionally, 35% of the PAGA Amount 18 ("PAGA Employee Amount"), which is $12,250.00 out of $35,000.00, will be fully distributed to "all
19 current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State 20 of California at any time during the PAGA Period" ("PAGA Employee(s)"). The "PAGA Period" is 21 defined as the period from November 5, 2024 through August 23, 2025.

22 15. The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed and paid to all Class Members who do
23 not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion ("Settlement Class Member(s)") on a pro rata
24 basis based on the number of weeks each Class Member worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid
25 and/or non-exempt employee in California during the Class Period ("Workweeks"). The pro rata
26 share of the Net Settlement Amount that a Class Member may be eligible to receive under the Class
27 Settlement ("Individual Settlement Share") will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator, in 28 accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

1 16. The PAGA Employee Amount will be distributed and paid to all PAGA Employees on 2 a pro rata basis based on the number of pay periods each PAGA Employee worked for Defendant as 3 an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employee in California during the PAGA Period (“Pay Periods”).
4 The pro rata share of the PAGA Employee Amount that a PAGA Employee may be eligible to receive
5 under the PAGA Settlement (“Individual PAGA Payment”) will be calculated by the Settlement
6 Administrator, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

7 17. Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as twenty percent (20%) wages and 8 eighty percent (80%) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages. The portion allocated to wages will 9 be reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the portions allocated to penalties, interest, and non-wage
10 damages will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator. The 11 Settlement Administrator will withhold the employee’s share of taxes and withholdings with respect
12 to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class
13 Members for their net payment of their Individual Settlement Share (“Individual Settlement 14 Payment”). The employer’s share of taxes and contributions in connection with the wages portion of 15 Individual Settlement Shares will be paid by Defendant separately and in addition to the Gross
16 Settlement Amount. Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%)
17 penalties and will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator.

18 18. The Settlement Agreement is a non-reversionary and non-claims made settlement. The 19 Net Settlement Amount will be fully distributed to Settlement Class Members and the PAGA Amount
20 will be fully distributed to the LWDA and PAGA Employees, in accordance with the Settlement
21 Agreement. No money will revert to Defendant.

22 19. Each Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment check will be 23 valid and negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are 24 issued, and thereafter, shall be canceled. Any funds associated with such canceled checks will be 25 distributed by the Settlement Administrator to the State of California’s Unclaimed Property Division
26 in the name of the Settlement Class Member and/or PAGA Employee.

1 and $637,050 for wage statement penalties. Plaintiff further estimated that Defendant faced an
2 additional exposure of $648,900 in potential, non-stacked (i.e., one penalty, per employee, per pay
3 period during the PAGA statutory period) PAGA penalties. Together with the PAGA penalties,
4 Defendant's maximum potential exposure totaled $7,745,776 in damages.

5 Specific Risks Considered

6 25. Although the investigation and information discovered supports Plaintiff's contentions,
7 Defendant raised potential defenses and other circumstances that impacted the risk of proceeding on 8 a class-wide basis. Consideration of these risks factored into the negotiations and the decision to enter 9 the Settlement.

10 26. Class Counsel is aware of Defendant's defenses and arguments and has also taken into 11 account the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays
12 inherent in such litigation, including those involved in class and/or representative adjudication.
13 Plaintiff further recognizes the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability for the claims asserted
14 in the Action, Defendant's defenses, and the difficulties in establishing entitlement to monetary
15 recovery. Plaintiff has also considered the Parties' settlement discussions, as well as the evaluations
16 of the Mediator, who is experienced and well-regarded in complex labor and employment matters.

17 27. Defendant denied and continues to deny any liability and wrongdoing of any kind 18 associated with the claims alleged in the Action, and further denies that class certification is 19 appropriate for any purpose other than the Settlement. Defendant believes that it would ultimately 20 prevail in the Action. Defendant proffered defenses to both certification and to the merits of Plaintiff's
21 claims. Defendant contended that Plaintiff's claims are not suitable for class certification because 22 individual issues would predominate should this case go to trial. As with all class actions, these 23 complex cases raise difficult management and proof issues and, accordingly, there is a significant risk
24 that the Court may deny class certification.

25 28. For example, Plaintiff's meal period claims, which were based on Defendant's alleged 26 failure to provide lawful meal periods, have been increasingly difficult to certify in recent years.
27 Plaintiff's theory of liability for meal period violations was based on allegations that Defendant had 28 failed to implement its policies and that its practices failed to allow Class Members to take meal breaks

1 in the manner required under California law. Defendant contended that its policies and practices at all
2 times during the Class Period were lawful. Indeed, Plaintiff's analysis revealed only a 15.1% violation
3 rate for purported unique meal period violations. Defendant further argued that the rate of purported
4 meal period violations reflected in the data would require individualized inquiry and that such inquiry
5 would prohibit a class from being certified. We also had to consider the risk that the Court would find 6 validity in the individualized proof defense to certification of Plaintiff's meal period claim.

7 29. Additionally, a large portion of Defendant's overall liability lies in Plaintiff's rest
8 period allegations. As with the meal period allegations, Defendant contended that it had a lawful 9 written rest period policy, provided compliant rest breaks, and relieved Class Members of all duties as 10 required under California law. Additionally, this claim was even more uncertain given the difficulties
11 associated with proving the alleged rest period violations, as Defendant was not required to record
12 these breaks. Given the lack of records demonstrating rest period violations, there were legitimate
13 concerns Plaintiff would not be able to certify these claims or prove substantial damages with requisite 14 certainty, which made the estimated value of this claim subject to much challenge.

15 30. Plaintiff also faced challenges certifying and proving liability for her minimum wage
16 and overtime claims. These claims were largely based on Defendant's rounding and unrecorded, off-
17 the-clock work performed by the Class Members. Plaintiff argued that Defendant rounded employees'
18 time in a manner which was entirely in favor of Defendant and to the detriment of the employees.
19 Plaintiff's off-the-clock claim rested on unrecorded, off-the-clock work performed by the Class
20 Members both before and after their shifts and during purported meal periods. For example, it was 21 reported that Plaintiff and the other Class Members were required to: (1) respond to co-workers and 22 supervisors regarding work-related requests during purported meal breaks; (2) clock out at the behest
23 of Plaintiff and other Class Members prior to returning to work to perform additional work unpaid; (3)
24 don protective wear intended to assist with cold temperatures in Defendant's workplace prior to 25 clocking in; and (4) doff the same protective wear after clocking out. However, the individualized
26 nature of why this work was performed and the individualized nature of damages presented substantial
27 concerns regarding the manageability of the case and the risk the Court could find these issues
28 prevented certification, and the estimated damages for this claim were based on an assumption that all

1 Class Members worked off the clock for at least one hour per week.

2 31. Plaintiff also contended that Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class
3 Members for necessary business-related expenses, such as the usage of personal cell phones for work-
4 related purposes. Defendant contended that it had a policy and practice of reimbursing employees for 5 necessary business-related expenses. Defendant further contended that, with respect to the alleged 6 expenses for which Plaintiff and the other Class Members never requested reimbursement from 7 Defendant, it did not know and had no reason to know that alleged business-related expenses had been 8 incurred. Defendant further contended that the reason for why a Class Member undertook certain 9 expenses, while not others, and failed to receive reimbursement for certain expenses while not others,
10 would raise individual issues that could not be certified.

11 32. There are also substantial risks associated with Plaintiff's waiting time penalties and 12 wage statement claims. First, these claims were derivative of Plaintiff's claims for unpaid meal period 13 premiums, unpaid rest period premiums, unpaid minimum wages, and unpaid overtime wages, and if 14 certification was denied on those underlying claims, these derivative claims for penalties would also 15 likely fail. Further, even if Plaintiff prevailed on her underlying claims, she would still be required to 16 demonstrate that Defendant's violations of California Labor Code section 203 were willful violations.
17 Wage statement claims have also seen varying treatment at the appellate level because such claims
18 have an element of discretion attached to them rather than a pure calculation of damages after liability
19 is proven. Accordingly, these derivative claims, which comprised a substantial portion of Defendant's 20 estimated liability, were therefore uncertain.

21 33. Class Counsel also recognized that, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification, 22 proving the amount of wages due to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 23 extremely uncertain proposition. In order to prove liability and damages, Class Counsel will need to 24 request and analyze thousands of pages of documents, obtain the Class Members' contact information,
25 contact them, and obtain declarations at great expense. Obtaining the cooperation of current 26 employees would also be difficult, given the likely reluctance to aid prosecution of a lawsuit against a 27 current employer. On the other hand, Defendant would likely be able to obtain the cooperation of its 28 employees. Moreover, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification and trial, possible appeals would

1 substantially delay any recovery by the Class.

2 34. Therefore, taking into account how each of the above risks potentially effected
3 Plaintiff's ability to first obtain class certification, and then prove the underlying violations, plus the 4 cost and delay in recovering the alleged potential damages, Class Counsel discounted Defendant's
5 estimated liability based on the challenges facing his ability to succeed on class certification by 65%
6 to $2,711,022. The merits-based risk factors further reduced Defendant's estimated liability by an 7 additional 65%. This resulted in an adjusted estimated liability of $948,858. In light thereof, the 8 settlement amount of $877,500.00 is a significant settlement.

9 35. Class Counsel also separately contemplated the risks of proceeding with the PAGA
10 claims and potential liability Defendant could face from these claims as part of the global resolution.
11 Existing case law makes PAGA claims subject to the same defenses and risks as Plaintiff's underlying 12 wage claims. Class Counsel also anticipated that even if successful on the merits at trial, the 13 imposition of cumulative civil penalties based on the alleged wage and hour violations could be 14 considered unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory, and that Defendant would argue that it
15 made a good faith attempt to comply with its legal obligations warranting a reduction in penalties.
16 Class Counsel also anticipated Defendant would argue that the violations per pay period were low,
17 warranting an additional reduction in civil penalties. Finally, we were also mindful of the fact that 18 PAGA is fundamentally not intended to be compensatory in nature but is instead intended to facilitate 19 enforcement of California's labor laws by financing state activities and educating and deterring non-20 compliance.

21 36. Therefore, after considering this multitude of factors, we concluded that it was in the 22 best interest of the State of California and the PAGA Employees to enter into the Settlement, and to 23 allocate Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($35,000.00) of the Gross Settlement Amount
24 towards the PAGA claims, which represents approximately 4% of the Gross Settlement Amount. This 25 percentage of the settlement is well-within the range of wage and hour settlements regularly approved
26 in both state and federal court for cases that include both a class and PAGA action. Typically, such 27 hybrid cases allocate only 1% of the gross settlement value to resolve PAGA claims, and, indeed, 28 settlements allocations as little as 0.22% of the gross settlement amount have been approved as

1 reasonable by courts. Moreover, the overall relief obtained by the Settlement is significant, not only
2 from a monetary perspective, but also because it fulfills the public policy objectives of PAGA—to 3 promote enforcement of California’s labor laws, provide funds to the state, and deter future non-
4 compliance by the employer.

5 37. Class Counsel therefore submits that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.
6 The Settlement is in the best interest of the Class Members, the PAGA Employees, and the State of 7 California and is within the accepted range of recoveries for this type of litigation given the inherent 8 risk of litigation, the risk of obtaining and maintaining class certification, and the costs of further 9 litigation.

10 Enhancement Payment

11 38. As part of the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiff is requesting a reasonable Enhancement
12 Payment of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) to Plaintiff Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla.
13 This Enhancement Payment is eminently reasonable given the time and effort Plaintiff spent on this
14 case, and the benefit to the Class Members as a result of Plaintiff’s actions. Notice of the requested
15 Enhancement Payment is disclosed to the Class Members in the Class Notice.

16 Attorneys’ Fees and Costs

17 39. The attorneys’ fees incurred by Class Counsel are in line with the common fund
18 requested. The Settlement Agreement provides for Class Counsel to apply for attorneys’ fees in an 19 amount of up to thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $307,125.00 if the 20 Gross Settlement Amount is $877,500.00) and actual litigation costs and expenses in an amount not
21 to exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($30,000.00), which will be paid out of the Gross
22 Settlement Amount, subject to approval by the Court. Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and 23 costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.

24 40. The effectiveness of Blackstone Law, APC’s prosecution of this matter has translated
25 into tangible monetary benefits as follows: (1) Class Members, the State of California, and PAGA
26 Employees will obtain monetary recovery over a relatively short period of time, as opposed to waiting 27 additional years for the same, or potentially worse, result; (2) a guaranteed result that compares 28 favorably with other similar class action settlements of this type, given the strengths and weaknesses of the case; and (3) significant savings in Class Counsel's fees and/or costs that would have only increased significantly had the case progress through certification, trial, and/or upon appeal.

41. Class Counsel has litigated this matter since it commenced and was actively preparing this matter for class certification and trial. The Motion for Final Approval will elaborate on the nature of the legal services provided, the time incurred in performing those services, and Class Counsel's hourly rates. The Motion for Final Approval will also elaborate on the reimbursement costs sought by Class Counsel. Notice of the requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs is disclosed to the Class Members in the Class Notice.

Notice to the Class

42. The Parties have agreed to retain Apex Class Action LLC ("Apex" or "Settlement Administrator") to handle the notice and settlement administration process. The Parties respectfully request that the Court appoint Apex to handle these procedures and to serve as the Settlement Administrator. Defendant will provide Apex with the Class List and Apex will calculate each Class Member's estimated Individual Settlement Share and each PAGA Employee's estimated Individual PAGA Payment. Apex will also receive and process Requests for Exclusion, Notices of Objection, and Disputes; will provide necessary reports and declarations; will calculate, subtract, and transmit necessary taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Shares; will prepare and submit informational and other tax filings and documents; will issue and transmit all payments provided for by the Settlement, including, but not limited to, mailing Individual Settlement Payment checks to the Settlement Class Members and Individual PAGA Payment checks to the PAGA Employees; and perform any other usual and customary duties for administering a class action settlement.

43. I am not aware of an alternative method of providing notice to the Class which would result in a higher likelihood of actual notice. The original source of the mailing addresses is from each Class Member, who provided the information to Defendant. As a fail-safe to this highly reliable method, skip tracing will be performed, if necessary.

Notice of Settlement to the LWDA

44. In accordance with California Labor Code section 2699(1)(2), on February 24, 2026, a copy of the proposed Settlement was submitted to the LWDA via online submission through the LWDA's website. A true and correct copy of the email from the LWDA confirming receipt is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on February 24, 2026, at Tustin, California.

RE: Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla v. San Diego Family Care

To Whom It May Concern:

This office represents Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla (“Claimant”) with respect to their claims under the California Labor Code against San Diego Family Care (including all affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, directors, and officers) (collectively referred to herein as “Employers”). This letter is being sent simultaneously to Employers by certified mail.

Employers employed Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla from approximately December 2021 to May 2022 as a non-exempt, hourly-paid employee. Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla worked as a Referral Coordinator for Employers and was based out of Employers’ facility located at 6973 Linda Vista Road, San Diego, CA 92111.

Claimant intends to bring a representative action seeking penalties for violations of the California Labor Code which are recoverable under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). Claimant is seeking penalties on behalf of themselves and in a representative capacity on behalf of the State of California and all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Employers in the State of California during the relevant statutory period who suffered the violations alleged (“Aggrieved Employees”). This letter is being sent in compliance with California Labor Code section 2699.3 and shall serve as Claimant’s notice of the provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories in support thereof.

As detailed below, Employers violated several of California’s wage and hour laws during Claimant’s employment, including but not limited to California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order (“IWC Wage Order”). Employers’ conduct giving rise to the violations detailed below was malicious, fraudulent, and/or oppressive within the meaning of PAGA.

The claims made on behalf of Claimant and Aggrieved Employees are based upon the following facts and theories:

1. FAILURE TO PAY FOR ALL TIME WORKED AT CORRECT RATES OF PAY, INCLUDING MINIMUM WAGES, STRAIGHT TIME WAGES, AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION

Employers engaged in numerous unlawful practices which resulted in the failure to pay Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees for all time worked at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 and the applicable IWC Wage Order require employers to pay at least the legal minimum wage to their employees. California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order further require employers to pay no less than one and one-half times an employee's regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one workweek, and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek, and to pay no less than twice an employee's regular rate of pay of the employee for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in one workday and for any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek.

Throughout the relevant time, Employers regularly required Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock. Employers failed to compensate Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees for any of this off-the-clock work, in violation of California law.

This uncompensated work often resulted in the total number of hours worked by Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees exceeding the daily and/or weekly triggers for overtime wages, yet Employers failed to pay Claimant and Aggrieved Employees applicable overtime rate(s) for these hours.

Employers also failed to accurately record the actual time worked by Claimant and Aggrieved Employees. In addition, Employers utilized time rounding practices that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages (including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages) to Claimant and Aggrieved Employees.

Employers also failed to pay overtime to Claimant and Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration, including non-discretionary commissions, non-discretionary bonuses, and non-discretionary performance pay.

As a result of the foregoing practices, Employers failed to pay Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees for all wages earned at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation. Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198.

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 558, 1197.1, and 1199; injunctive relief; and attorneys' fees and costs.

2. MEAL BREAK VIOLATIONS

California law requires employers to provide employees with an opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes before the end of the fifth hour of work when an employee works more than five (5) hours in a day. Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512(a). Employers must provide a second meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes before the end of the tenth hour of work when an employee works more than ten (10) hours in a day. Id. For each day that an employer fails to provide compliant meal period(s), the employer must pay the employee a meal penalty equal to one hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation. Id.

During the relevant time period, Employers failed to provide Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant 30-minute meal periods. Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were required by Employers to work more than five (5) hours per day but were not provided with uninterrupted 30-minute meal periods. Further, Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted 30-minute meal period when they worked over ten (10) hours per day. Employers regularly required Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to work through their first and second meal periods, to take their first meal period after their fifth (5th) hour of work, and/or to take their second meal periods after their tenth (10th) hour of work. Meal breaks, when provided, were oftentimes interrupted and/or cut short.

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, complete and duty-free meal periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of meal periods or systematically disregarded their own purported meal period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant meal period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant meal periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; (6) Employers required Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to respond to work-related requests at all times, including during meal periods; and (7) Employers' policy and culture prevented Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods because of the priority placed on maximizing profits over employees' right to receive timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods.

Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees did not receive an extra hour of wages at their regular rate of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided to them in compliance with California law.

Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a) and 1198.

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph of the applicable IWC Wage Orders; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 558 and 1199; injunctive relief; and attorneys' fees and costs.

3. REST BREAK VIOLATIONS

California law requires employers to authorize and permit employees to take an uninterrupted rest period of no less than ten (10) minutes for every four (4) hours, or major fraction thereof, worked. Cal. Lab. Code § 226.7. For each day that an employer fails to authorize and permit a compliant rest period, the employer owes the employee one hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation. Cal. Lab. Code § 226.7(c).

Employers failed to authorize and permit Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to take compliant 10-minute rest periods. Employers required Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods. Claimant and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods when they worked more than four (4) hours or a major fraction thereof. Further, Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted, duty-free rest period when they worked more than six (6) hours in a day, or a third uninterrupted, duty-free rest period after working more than ten (10) hours in day. In the rare event that a rest period was taken, it was frequently interrupted or cut short. Moreover, Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were not completely relieved of duty as required by Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 2 Cal.5th 257 (2016).

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely and complete rest periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of rest periods or systematically disregarded its own purported rest period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant rest period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant rest periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (6) Employers required Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to respond to work-related requests at all times, including during rest periods; and (7) Employers' policy and culture prevented

Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods because of the priority placed on completing job requirements over employees' right to receive rest periods.

Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees did not receive an extra hour of wages at their regular rate of pay for each day a rest period was not provided to them in compliance with California law. Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 1198.

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders; Labor Code sections 558 and 1199 penalties; injunctive relief; and attorneys' fees and costs.

4. FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY WAGES DURING EMPLOYMENT

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, Employers willfully and intentionally failed to timely pay all wages earned because Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were not paid all the wages they were owed including, inter alia, overtime compensation, straight time wages, minimum wages, and meal and rest period premiums. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 204(a).

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210 and 1199; injunctive relief; and attorneys' fees and costs.

5. FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

California Labor Code section 226(a) requires an employer semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages to furnish wage statements to its employees setting forth, inter alia, (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, and (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer.

As a result of the practices described above, the wage statements provided to Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees failed to include the actual hours worked (including time spent working off-the-clock), the actual gross wages earned (including wages owed for time spent working off the clock and meal and rest period premiums), and the correct rates of pay. Employers' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements was knowing and intentional. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 226(a).

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.3; injunctive relief; and attorneys' fees and costs.

6. FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY EXPENDITURES

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. The applicable IWC Wage Order requires employers to provide employees with the tools or equipment necessary for the performance of their job. During the relevant time period, Claimant and Aggrieved Employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Employers.

Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802. Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph of the applicable IWC Wage Orders; injunctive relief; and attorneys' fees and costs.

7. FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL WAGES UPON TERMINATION

California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

During the relevant time period, upon the termination of employment (including but not limited to when they were temporarily laid off, laid off, discharged, and/or resigned), Employers failed to pay all wages due to their employees within twenty-four (24) hours of termination or even within seventy-two (72) hours for those who resigned. Specifically, as a result of Employers' practices of requiring Claimant and Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock without compensation, failing to pay proper overtime compensation, unlawful rounding practices, failure to properly calculate regular rates, and failure to accurately record all hours actually worked, Employers failed to pay Claimant and Aggrieved Employees for all straight time wage, minimum wages and overtime compensation owed to them upon termination of their employment. Employers also failed to pay Claimant and Aggrieved Employees for meal period premiums and rest period premiums they were owed, amongst other wages. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 203 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

8. CONCLUSION

Claimant hereby provides notice to the LWDA under the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code Sections 2698, et seq., and specifically asks for an investigation, or if the agency does not intend to investigate the alleged violations, a letter confirming the same so that Claimant may allege a cause of action under PAGA against Employers for the violations discussed in this letter.

This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3. By law, an employee alleging a violation of one of the above referenced sections must notify his or her employer and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (LWDA) before he or she can invoke the provisions of Sections 2699, et seq., by seeking redress in court. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a)(1). The LWDA must then notify the employer and the employee within 60 calendar days regarding whether it intends to investigate the alleged violation. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(B). If the LWDA advises it will not investigate, or if no notice is provided within 65 calendar days, the employee may file a lawsuit invoking the provisions under Labor Code § 2699. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(A). It is Claimant's intention to file a civil complaint and to bring the appropriate claims under California Labor Code § 2699 on behalf of themselves, the State of California and all Aggrieved Employees should your office not address Employers' alleged violations within this timeframe.

1 JOINT STIPULATION OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT

2 This Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or 3 “Settlement Agreement”) is made and entered into by and between Plaintiff Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla
4 (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”), individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated and
5 on behalf of the State of California with respect to aggrieved employees, and Defendant San Diego
6 Family Care (“Defendant”) (together, Plaintiff and Defendant are referred to as “Parties” and 7 individually as “Party”).

8 This Settlement Agreement shall be binding on Plaintiff, Settlement Class Members (as 9 defined herein), the State of California as to the employment of PAGA Employees (as defined herein),
10 and Defendant, subject to the terms and conditions hereof and the approval of the Court.

11 RECITALS

12 1. On February 21, 2025, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint in the action entitled
13 Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla v. San Diego Family Care, San Diego County Superior Court Case No.
14 25CU009471C (“Action”), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant.

15 2. On June 23, 2025, the Parties participated in mediation with Gig Kyriacou, Esq. (the 16 “Mediator”), a respected mediator of complex wage and hour actions, and with the assistance of the 17 Mediator’s evaluations, the Parties reached the settlement that is memorialized herein. The Parties’
18 settlement discussions were conducted at arms’ length, and the Settlement is the result of an informed
19 and detailed analysis of Defendant’s potential liability and exposure in relation to the costs and risks
20 associated with continued litigation. Based on Class Counsel’s investigation and evaluation, Class
21 Counsel believes that the settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set forth in 22 this Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class
23 Members, State of California, and PAGA Employees in light of all known facts and circumstances,
24 including the risk of significant delay and uncertainty associated with litigation and various defenses
25 asserted by Defendant.

26 3. On November 5, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice to the Labor and Workforce
27 Development Agency (“LWDA”) by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified Mail,
28 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specific provisions of the California Labor

1 Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant ("PAGA Letter").

2 4. The Parties agree that Plaintiff will file a First Amended Class and Representative
3 Action Complaint ("Operative Complaint") in the Action, which will add a cause of action under the 4 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2698 et seq.
5 ("PAGA").

6 5. The Operative Complaint alleges ten (10) causes of action for violations of the 7 California Labor Code for failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to 8 provide compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide compliant
9 rest periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to timely pay wages during employment,
10 failure to provide compliant wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, and failure
11 to reimburse necessary business expenses, for violations of California Business & Professions Code
12 Section 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations, and for civil 13 penalties under PAGA based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations.

14 6. Defendant denies all material allegations set forth in the Action and has asserted
15 numerous affirmative defenses. Notwithstanding, in the interest of avoiding further litigation, 16 Defendant desires to fully and finally settle the Action, Released Class Claims (as defined herein), and 17 Released PAGA Claims (as defined herein).

18 7. Class Counsel diligently investigated the class and PAGA claims against Defendant, 19 including any and all applicable defenses and the applicable law. The investigation included, inter
20 alia, the exchange of information, data, and documents, and review of corporate policies and practices.
21 The Parties have engaged in sufficient informal discovery and investigation to assess the relative 22 merits of the claims and contentions of the Parties.

23 8. The Parties expressly acknowledge that this Settlement Agreement is entered into 24 solely for the purpose of compromising significantly disputed claims and that nothing herein is an 25 admission of liability or wrongdoing by Defendant. If for any reason this Settlement Agreement is 26 not approved, it will be of no force or effect, and the Parties shall be returned to their original respective 27 positions.

28 ///

DEFINITIONS

9. The following definitions are applicable to this Settlement Agreement. Definitions contained elsewhere in this Settlement Agreement will also be effective.

a. "Attorneys' Fees and Costs" means attorneys' fees approved by the Court for Class Counsel's litigation and resolution of the Action and all actual costs and expenses incurred and to be incurred by Class Counsel in connection with the Action, as set forth in Paragraph 12.

b. "Class" or "Class Member(s)" means all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California at any time during the Class Period.

c. "Class Counsel" means Jonathan M. Genish, Ryan A. Quadrel, Alexandra Rose, and James S. Winn Jr. of Blackstone Law, APC, who will seek to be appointed counsel for the Class.

d. "Class List" means a complete list of all Class Members that Defendant will diligently and in good faith compile from its records and provide to the Settlement Administrator. The Class List will be formatted in a readable Microsoft Office Excel spreadsheet containing the following information for each Class Member: (1) full name; (2) last known mailing address; (3) Social Security number; (4) dates worked for Defendant during the Class Period; and (5) such other information as is necessary for the Settlement Administrator to calculate Workweeks and Pay Periods.

e. "Class Notice" means the Notice of Class Action Settlement, substantially in the form attached hereto as "Exhibit A."

f. "Class Period" means the period from February 21, 2021 through August 23, 2025.

g. "Class Settlement" means the settlement and resolution of all Released Class Claims.

h. "Court" means the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Diego.

i. "Defendant's Counsel" means Christopher B. Cato of Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, LLP.

1 j. “Dispute” means a letter submitted by a Class Member disputing the number of
2 Workweeks and/or Pay Periods which have been credited to them, which must: (a) contain the case
3 name and number of the Action; (b) contain the Class Member’s full name, signature, address,
4 telephone number, and the last four (4) digits of the Class Member’s Social Security number; (c)
5 clearly state that the Class Member disputes the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to 6 the Class Member and what the Class Member contends is the correct number; and (d) be returned by 7 mail to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response
8 Deadline.

9 k. “Effective Date” means the following: (i) if no Settlement Class Member
10 objects to the Class Settlement, then the Effective Date will be the date of Final Approval; or (ii) if 11 any Settlement Class Member objects to the Class Settlement, the Effective Date will be the sixty-first 12 (61st) calendar day after the date of Final Approval, provided no appeal is initiated by an objector; or 13 (iii) if a timely appeal is initiated by an objector, then the Effective Date will be the day after final 14 resolution of that appeal (including any requests for rehearing and/or petitions for certiorari), resulting 15 in final judicial approval of the Settlement.

16 l. “Employer Taxes” means the employer’s share of taxes and contributions in 17 connection with the wages portion of Individual Settlement Shares, which shall be paid by Defendant
18 in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount.

19 m. “Enhancement Payment” means the amount to be paid to Plaintiff, in 20 recognition of her effort and work in prosecuting the Action on behalf of Class Members and PAGA
21 Employees, and general release of claims, as set forth in Paragraph 13.

22 n. “Final Approval” means the determination by the Court that the Settlement is 23 fair, reasonable, and adequate, and entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment based thereon.

24 o. “Final Approval Hearing” means the hearing at which the Court will consider 25 and determine whether the Settlement should be granted Final Approval.

26 p. “Final Approval Order and Judgment” means the order granting final approval
27 of the Settlement and entering judgment thereon, in a form and content mutually agreed to by the 28 Parties, and subject to approval by the Court.

1 q. “Gross Settlement Amount” means the amount of Eight Hundred Seventy-
2 Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($877,500.00) to be paid by Defendant in full
3 satisfaction of the Action, Released Class Claims, and Released PAGA Claims, which includes all
4 Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payment, PAGA Amount, Settlement Administration Costs,
5 and Net Settlement Amount to be paid to the Settlement Class Members. Defendant shall pay the 6 Employer Taxes separately and in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. The Gross Settlement
7 Amount is non-reversionary; no portion of the Gross Settlement Payment will return to Defendant.
8 The Gross Settlement Amount is subject to increase, as provided in Paragraph 16.

9 r. “Individual PAGA Payment” means the pro rata share of the PAGA Employee
10 Amount that a PAGA Employee may be eligible to receive under the PAGA Settlement, to be 11 calculated in accordance with Paragraph 18.

12 s. “Individual Settlement Payment” means the net payment of each Settlement
13 Class Member’s Individual Settlement Share, after reduction for the employee’s share of taxes and 14 withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Share, as provided in 15 Paragraph 19.

16 t. “Individual Settlement Share” means the pro rata share of the Net Settlement
17 Amount that a Class Member may be eligible to receive under the Class Settlement, to be calculated 18 in accordance with Paragraph 17.

19 u. “LWDA Payment” means the amount of Twenty-Two Thousand Seven
20 Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($22,750.00), i.e., 65% of the PAGA Amount, that the Parties
21 have agreed to pay to the LWDA under the PAGA Settlement, as set forth in Paragraph 14.

22 v. “Net Settlement Amount” means the portion of the Gross Settlement Amount
23 that is available for distribution to Settlement Class Members, which is the Gross Settlement Amount 24 less the Court-approved Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payment, PAGA Amount, and 25 Settlement Administration Costs.

26 w. “Notice of Objection” means a Settlement Class Member’s written objection to 27 the Class Settlement, which must: (a) contain the case name and number of the Action; (b) contain the 28 objector’s full name, signature, address, telephone number, and the last four (4) digits of the objector’s

1 Social Security number; (c) contain a written statement of all grounds for the objection accompanied
2 by any legal support for such objection; (d) contain copies of any papers, briefs, or other documents
3 upon which the objection is based; and (e) be returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at the 4 specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline.

5 x. "PAGA Amount" means the allocation of Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars and 6 Zero Cents ($35,000.00) from the Gross Settlement Amount for the PAGA Settlement. Sixty-five
7 percent (65%) of the PAGA Amount, or $22,750.00, will be paid to the LWDA (i.e., the LWDA
8 Payment) and the remaining thirty-five percent (35%), or $12,250.00, will be distributed to the PAGA
9 Employees (i.e., the PAGA Employee Amount).

10 y. "PAGA Employee(s)" means all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-
11 exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California at any time during the PAGA 12 Period.

13 z. "PAGA Employee Amount" means the amount of Twelve Thousand Two 14 Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($12,250.00), i.e., 35% of the PAGA Amount, to be distributed 15 to PAGA Employees on a pro rata basis based on their Pay Periods.

16 aa. "PAGA Period" means the period from November 5, 2024, 2024 through 17 August 23, 2025.

18 bb. "PAGA Settlement" means the settlement and resolution of all Released PAGA 19 Claims.

20 cc. "Pay Periods" means the number of pay periods each PAGA Employee worked 21 for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employee in California during the PAGA Period.
22 Pay Periods will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator based on such information as is 23 necessary for the Settlement Administrator to calculate Pay Periods that will be provided by 24 Defendant.

25 dd. "Preliminary Approval" means the date on which the Court enters the 26 Preliminary Approval Order.

27 ee. "Preliminary Approval Order" means the order granting preliminary approval
28 of the Settlement, in a form and content mutually agreed to by the Parties, and subject to approval by

1 the Court.

2 ff. "Released Class Claims" means any and all claims which were alleged or which
3 could have been reasonably alleged based on the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint,
4 arising during the Class Period, which shall specifically include claims for Defendant's alleged failure
5 to pay overtime and minimum wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium
6 payments, timely pay wages during employment and upon termination, provide accurate wage
7 statements, and reimburse necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code
8 Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 9 2802, the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order, and California Business and 10 Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.

11 gg. "Released PAGA Claims" means any and all claims arising from any of the 12 factual allegations in the PAGA Letter and the Operative Complaint, arising during the PAGA Period,
13 for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code Sections
14 2698 et seq., which shall specifically include claims for Defendant's alleged failure to pay overtime
15 and minimum wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium payments, 16 timely pay wages during employment and upon termination, provide compliant wage statements, and 17 reimburse necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201, 18 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the 19 applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

20 hh. "Released Parties" means Defendant and its current and former officers, 21 directors, members, insurers, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, and 22 assigns.

23 ii. "Request for Exclusion" means a letter submitted by a Class Member indicating 24 a request to be excluded from the Class Settlement, which must: (a) contain the case name and number 25 of the Action; (b) contain the Class Member's full name, signature, address, telephone number, and 26 last four (4) digits of the Class Member's Social Security number; (c) clearly state that the Class
27 Member does not wish to be included in the Class Settlement; and (d) be returned by mail to the 28 Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline.

jj. “Response Deadline” means the deadline by which Class Members must submit a Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection, and/or Dispute, which shall be the date that is forty-five (45) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Class Notice by the Settlement Administrator to Class Members, unless the 45th day falls on a Sunday or Federal holiday, in which case the Response Deadline will be extended to the next day on which the United States Postal service is open. The Response Deadline may also be extended by express agreement between Class Counsel and Defendant’s Counsel. In the event that a Class Notice is re-mailed to a Class Member, the Response Deadline for that Class Member shall be extended fifteen (15) calendar days from the original Response Deadline.

kk. "Settlement Administrator" means Apex Class Action LLC, or any other third-party class action settlement administrator agreed to by the Parties and approved by the Court for purposes of administering the Settlement. The Parties and their counsel each represent that they do not have any financial interest in the Settlement Administrator or otherwise have a relationship with the Settlement Administrator that could create a conflict of interest.

II. "Settlement Administration Costs" means the costs payable from the Gross Settlement Amount to the Settlement Administrator for administering the Settlement, as set forth in Paragraph 15.

mm. “Settlement Class” or “Settlement Class Member(s)” means all Class Members who do not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion.

nn. "Workweeks" means the number of weeks each Class Member worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employee in California during the Class Period. Workweeks will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator based on such information as is necessary for the Settlement Administrator to calculate Workweeks that will be provided by Defendant.

CLASS CERTIFICATION

10. For the purposes of this Settlement only, the Parties stipulate to the certification of the Class.

III

11. The Parties agree that certification for the purpose of settlement is not an admission that certification is proper under Section 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Should, for whatever reason, the Court not grant Final Approval, the Parties' stipulation to class certification as part of the Settlement shall become null and void ab initio and shall have no bearing on, and shall not be admissible in connection with, the issue of whether or not certification would be inappropriate in a non-settlement context.

TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, promises, and agreements set forth herein, the Parties agree, subject to the Court's approval, as follows:

12. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Defendant agrees not to oppose or impede any application or motion by Class Counsel for attorneys' fees in the amount up to thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $307,125.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $877,500.00) and reimbursement of actual costs and expenses associated with Class Counsel's litigation and settlement of the Action, in an amount not to exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($30,000.00), both of which will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. These amounts will cover any and all work performed and any and all costs incurred by Class Counsel in connection with the litigation of the Action, including without limitation all work performed and costs incurred to date, and all work to be performed and all costs to be incurred in connection with obtaining the Court's approval of this Settlement Agreement, including any objections raised and any appeals necessitated by those objections. Class Counsel shall be solely and legally responsible for correctly characterizing this compensation for tax purposes and for paying any taxes on the amounts received. The Settlement Administrator shall issue an IRS Form 1099 to Class Counsel for the Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Any portion of the requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs that is not awarded by the Court to Class Counsel shall be reallocated to the Net Settlement Amount for the benefit of the Settlement Class Members.

13. Enhancement Payment. Defendant agrees not to oppose or impede any application or motion by Plaintiff for an Enhancement Payment in the amount up to Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00). The Enhancement Payment, which will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, subject to Court approval, will be in addition to any other payment Plaintiff is entitled to

1 under the Settlement. Plaintiff shall be solely and legally responsible for correctly characterizing this
2 compensation for tax purposes and for paying any taxes on the amounts received. The Settlement
3 Administrator shall issue an IRS Form 1099 to Plaintiff for the Enhancement Payment. Any portion
4 of the requested Enhancement Payment that is not awarded by the Court to Plaintiff shall be reallocated
5 to the Net Settlement Amount for the benefit of the Settlement Class Members.

6 14. PAGA Amount. Subject to approval by the Court, the Parties agree that the amount of 7 Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($35,000.00) shall be allocated from the Gross
8 Settlement Amount toward penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code
9 Section 2698, et seq. (i.e., the PAGA Amount), of which sixty-five percent (65%), or $22,750.00, will 10 be paid to the LWDA (i.e., the LWDA Payment) and thirty-five percent (35%), or $12,250.00, will be 11 distributed to PAGA Employees (i.e., the PAGA Employee Amount) on a pro rata basis, based on the 12 total number of Pay Periods worked by each PAGA Employee during the PAGA Period (i.e., the 13 Individual PAGA Payments).

14 15. Settlement Administration Costs. The Settlement Administrator will be paid for the 15 reasonable costs of administration of the Settlement and distribution of payments under the Settlement,
16 which is currently estimated not to exceed Eight Thousand One Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents
17 ($8,100.00). These costs, which will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, subject to Court
18 approval, will include, inter alia, translating the Class Notice to Spanish, printing, distributing, and 19 tracking Class Notices and other documents for the Settlement, calculating and distributing payments
20 due under the Settlement, issuing of 1099 and W-2 IRS Forms and all required tax reporting, filings, 21 withholdings, and remittances, providing necessary reports and declarations, and other duties and 22 responsibilities set forth herein to process the Settlement, and as requested by the Parties. To the 23 extent the actual Settlement Administrator's costs are greater than the estimated amount stated herein, 24 such excess amount will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount, subject to approval by the 25 Court. Any portion of the estimated, designated, and/or awarded Settlement Administration Costs
26 which are not in fact required to fulfill payment to the Settlement Administrator to undertake the 27 required settlement administration duties shall be reallocated to the Net Settlement Amount for the 28 benefit of the Settlement Class Members.

1 16. Escalator Clause. Defendant has represented that there are 355 Class Members who
2 worked a total of 39,000 workweeks during the period from February 21, 2021 through June 23, 2025.
3 If it is determined by the Settlement Administrator that the total number of Workweeks worked by the 4 Class Members during the Class Period actually exceeds 39,000 by more than 10% (i.e., if the 5 Workweeks exceed 42,900), then the Gross Settlement Amount will be increased on a pro rata basis
6 equal to the percentage increase in the number of Workweeks worked by the Class Members above
7 10%. For example, if the number of Workweeks increases by 11% to 43,290 Workweeks, then the 8 Gross Settlement Amount will increase by 1%.

9 17. Individual Settlement Share Calculations. Individual Settlement Shares will be 10 calculated and apportioned from the Net Settlement Amount based on the Class Members' number of 11 Workweeks, as follows:

12 a. After Preliminary Approval, the Settlement Administrator will divide the Net
13 Settlement Amount by the Workweeks of all Class Members to yield the "Estimated Workweek
14 Value," and multiply each Class Member's individual Workweeks by the Estimated Workweek Value
15 to yield each Class Member's estimated Individual Settlement Share that the Class Member may be 16 entitled to receive under the Class Settlement.

17 b. After Final Approval, the Settlement Administrator will divide the final Net
18 Settlement Amount by the Workweeks of all Settlement Class Members to yield the "Final Workweek
19 Value," and multiply each Settlement Class Member's individual Workweeks by the Final Workweek
20 Value to each Settlement Class Member's final Individual Settlement Share.

21 18. Individual PAGA Payment Calculations. Individual PAGA Payments will be 22 calculated and apportioned from the PAGA Employee Amount based on the PAGA Employees'
23 number of Pay Periods, as follows: The Settlement Administrator will divide the PAGA Employee
24 Amount, i.e., 35% of the PAGA Amount, by the Pay Periods of all PAGA Employees to yield the 25 "Pay Period Value," and multiply each PAGA Employee's individual Pay Periods by the Pay Period
26 Value to yield each PAGA Employee's Individual PAGA Payment.

27 19. Tax Treatment of Individual Settlement Shares and Individual PAGA Payments. Each
28 Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as follows: twenty percent (20%) wages and eighty

1 percent (80%) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages. The portion allocated to wages will be
2 reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the portions allocated to penalties, interest, and non-wage damages
3 will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement
4 Administrator will withhold the employee's share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages
5 portion of the Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class Members for their
6 Individual Settlement Payments (i.e., payment of their Individual Settlement Share net of these taxes
7 and withholdings). The Employer Taxes will be paid separately and in addition to the Gross
8 Settlement Amount. Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%)
9 penalties and will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator.

10 20. Administration of Taxes by the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement
11 Administrator will be responsible for issuing to Plaintiff, Settlement Class Members, PAGA
12 Employees, and Class Counsel any tax forms (i.e., IRS Forms W-2, IRS Forms 1099, etc.) as may be 13 required by law for all amounts paid pursuant to this Settlement Agreement. The Settlement
14 Administrator will also be responsible for calculating the Employer Taxes and forwarding all payroll
15 taxes and other legally required withholdings to the appropriate government authorities.

16 21. Tax Liability. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant, and Defendant's Counsel do not 17 intend anything contained in this Settlement Agreement to constitute advice regarding taxes or 18 taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement Agreement be relied on as such. Plaintiff, Settlement
19 Class Members, and PAGA Employees are not relying on any statement, representation, or calculation
20 by Defendant, the Settlement Administrator, or Class Counsel in this regard. Plaintiff, Settlement
21 Class Members, and PAGA Employees understand and agree that Plaintiff, Settlement Class
22 Members, and PAGA Employees will be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes and penalties
23 assessed on the payments described in this Settlement Agreement. Plaintiff, Settlement Class
24 Members, and PAGA Employees should consult with their tax advisors concerning the tax
25 consequences of any payment they receive under the Settlement.

26 22. Circular 230 Disclaimer. EACH PARTY TO THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT
27 (FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION, THE "ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY" AND EACH PARTY 28 TO THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT OTHER THAN THE ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY, AN

1 "OTHER PARTY") ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT (1) NO PROVISION OF THIS
2 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT, AND NO WRITTEN COMMUNICATION OR DISCLOSURE
3 BETWEEN OR AMONG THE PARTIES OR THEIR ATTORNEYS AND OTHER ADVISORS, IS 4 OR WAS INTENDED TO BE, NOR WILL ANY SUCH COMMUNICATION OR DISCLOSURE
5 CONSTITUTE OR BE CONSTRUED OR BE RELIED UPON AS, TAX ADVICE WITHIN THE 6 MEANING OF UNITED STATES TREASURY DEPARTMENT CIRCULAR 230 (31 CFR PART 7 10, AS AMENDED); (2) THE ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY (A) HAS RELIED EXCLUSIVELY
8 UPON HIS, HER, OR ITS OWN, INDEPENDENT LEGAL AND TAX COUNSEL FOR ADVICE
9 (INCLUDING TAX ADVICE) IN CONNECTION WITH THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT, (B)
10 HAS NOT ENTERED INTO THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT BASED UPON THE 11 RECOMMENDATION OF ANY OTHER PARTY OR ANY ATTORNEY OR ADVISOR TO ANY 12 OTHER PARTY, AND (C) IS NOT ENTITLED TO RELY UPON ANY COMMUNICATION OR 13 DISCLOSURE BY ANY ATTORNEY OR ADVISOR TO ANY OTHER PARTY TO AVOID ANY 14 TAX PENALTY THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON THE ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY; AND (3) NO
15 ATTORNEY OR ADVISOR TO ANY OTHER PARTY HAS IMPOSED ANY LIMITATION
16 THAT PROTECTS THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF ANY SUCH ATTORNEY'S OR ADVISOR'S
17 TAX STRATEGIES (REGARDLESS OF WHETHER SUCH LIMITATION IS LEGALLY 18 BINDING) UPON DISCLOSURE BY THE ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY OF THE TAX
19 TREATMENT OR TAX STRUCTURE OF ANY TRANSACTION, INCLUDING ANY 20 TRANSACTION CONTEMPLATED BY THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT.

21 23. Settlement Awards Do Not Trigger Additional Benefits. All payments made under the 22 Settlement shall be deemed to be paid to the payee solely in the year in which such payments actually 23 are issued to the payee. It is expressly understood and agreed that payments made under this 24 Settlement shall not in any way entitle Plaintiff, Settlement Class Members, or any PAGA Employee
25 to additional compensation or benefits under any new or additional compensation or benefits, or any 26 bonus, contest, or other compensation or benefit plan or agreement in place during the Class Period,
27 nor will it entitle Plaintiff, Settlement Class Members, or any PAGA Employee to any increased 28 retirement, 401K benefits or matching benefits, or deferred compensation benefits (notwithstanding

1 any contrary language or agreement in any benefit or compensation plan document that might have
2 been in effect during the Class Period).

3 24. Duties of the Parties with Respect to Obtaining Preliminary Approval of the Settlement.

4 Plaintiff will obtain a hearing date from the Court for Plaintiff's motion for preliminary approval of 5 the Settlement, which Class Counsel will be responsible for drafting, and submit this Settlement
6 Agreement to the Court in support of said motion. Class Counsel will provide Defendant's Counsel a 7 draft of the preliminary approval motion before filing it with the Court. Defendant agrees not to 8 oppose the motion for preliminary approval of the Settlement consistent with this Settlement
9 Agreement. By way of said motion, Plaintiff will apply for the entry of the Preliminary Approval
10 Order seeking the following:

- 11 a. Conditionally certifying the Class for settlement purposes only;
- 12 b. Granting Preliminary Approval of the Settlement;
- 13 c. Preliminarily appointing Plaintiff as the representative of the Class;
- 14 d. Preliminarily appointing Class Counsel as counsel for the Class;
- 15 e. Approving as to form and content, the mutually-agreed upon and proposed 16 Class Notice and directing its mailing by First Class U.S. Mail;
- 17 f. Approving the manner and method for Class Members to request exclusion 18 from or object to the Class Settlement as contained herein and within the Class Notice; and
- 19 g. Scheduling a Final Approval Hearing at which the Court will determine whether 20 Final Approval of the Settlement should be granted.

21 25. Notice of Settlement to the LWDA. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(1)(2), 22 Class Counsel shall notify the LWDA of the Settlement.

23 26. Delivery of Class List. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of Preliminary Approval, 24 Defendant will provide the Class List to the Settlement Administrator.

25 27. Notice by First-Class U.S. Mail.

- 26 a. Within seven (7) calendar days after receiving the Class List from Defendant,
27 the Settlement Administrator will perform a search based on the National Change of Address Database
28 or any other similar services available, such as provided by Experian, for information to update and

1 correct for any known or identifiable address changes, and will mail a Class Notice in English and
2 Spanish (in the form attached as Exhibit A to this Settlement Agreement) to all Class Members via
3 First-Class U.S. Mail, using the most current, known mailing addresses identified by the Settlement
4 Administrator.

5 b. Any Class Notice returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable on 6 or before the Response Deadline will be sent promptly via First-Class U.S. Mail to the forwarding
7 address affixed thereto and the Settlement Administrator will indicate the date of such re-mailing on 8 the Class Notice. If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will promptly
9 attempt to determine the correct address using a skip-trace or other search, using the name, address,
10 and/or Social Security number of the Class Member, and perform a single re-mailing within five (5) 11 calendar days.

12 c. Compliance with the procedures described herein above shall constitute due and 13 sufficient notice to Class Members of the Settlement and shall satisfy the requirements of due process.
14 Nothing else shall be required of or done by the Parties, Class Counsel, or Defendant's Counsel to 15 provide notice of the Settlement.

16 28. Disputes Regarding Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. Class Members will have an 17 opportunity to dispute the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods which have been credited to 18 them, as reflected in their respective Class Notices, by submitting a timely and valid Dispute to the 19 Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. The date of the 20 postmark on the return mailing envelope will be the exclusive means to determine whether a Dispute
21 has been timely submitted. Absent evidence rebutting the accuracy of Defendant's records and data
22 as they pertain to the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods to be credited to a disputing Class
23 Member, Defendant's records will be presumed to be correct and determinative of the dispute.
24 However, if a Class Member produces information and/or documents to the contrary, the Settlement
25 Administrator will evaluate the materials submitted by the Class Member and the Settlement
26 Administrator will resolve and determine the number of eligible Workweeks and/or Pay Periods that 27 the disputing Class Member should be credited with under the Settlement. The Settlement
28 Administrator's decision on such disputes will be final and non-appealable.

1 29. Requesting Exclusion from the Class Settlement. Any Class Member wishing to be
2 excluded from the Class Settlement must submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion to the
3 Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. The date of the 4 postmark on the return mailing envelope will be the exclusive means to determine whether a Request
5 for Exclusion has been timely submitted. The Settlement Administrator will certify jointly to Class
6 Counsel and Defendant's Counsel the number of timely and valid Requests for Exclusion that are 7 submitted, and also identify the individuals who have submitted a timely and valid Request for 8 Exclusion in a declaration that is to be filed with the Court in advance of the Final Approval Hearing.
9 At no time will any of the Parties or their counsel seek to solicit or otherwise encourage Class Members
10 to request exclusion from the Class Settlement. Any Class Member who submits a Request for 11 Exclusion is prohibited from making any objection to the Class Settlement. Any Class Member who 12 submits a timely and valid Request for Exclusion will not be bound by the Class Settlement and will
13 not be issued an Individual Settlement Payment. Any Class Member who does not affirmatively
14 request exclusion from the Class Settlement by submitting a timely and valid Request for Exclusion
15 will be bound by all of the terms of the Class Settlement, including and not limited to those pertaining 16 to the Released Class Claims, as well as any judgment that may be entered by the Court if it grants
17 Final Approval to the Settlement. Notwithstanding the above, all PAGA Employees will be bound to 18 the PAGA Settlement and will be issued their Individual PAGA Payment, irrespective of whether they 19 submit a Request for Exclusion.

20 30. Objecting to the Class Settlement. To object to the Class Settlement, Settlement Class
21 Members must submit a timely and complete Notice of Objection to the Settlement Administrator, by 22 mail, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. The date of the postmark on the return mailing
23 envelope will be the exclusive means to determine whether a Notice of Objection has been timely
24 submitted. The Settlement Administrator will certify jointly to Class Counsel and Defendant's
25 Counsel the number of Notices of Objection that are submitted (specifying which ones were timely 26 and complete and which were not), and also attach them to a declaration that is to be filed with the 27 Court in advance of the Final Approval Hearing. At no time will any of the Parties or their counsel
28 seek to solicit or otherwise encourage Settlement Class Members to object to the Class Settlement or

1 appeal from the Final Approval Order and Judgment. Settlement Class Members, individually or 2 through counsel, may also present their objection orally at the Final Approval Hearing, regardless of 3 whether they have submitted a Notice of Objection.

4 31. Reports by the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administrator shall provide 5 weekly reports to counsel for the Parties providing: (a) the number of undeliverable and re-mailed
6 Class Notices; (ii) the number of Class Members who have submitted Disputes; (iii) the number of 7 Class Members who have submitted Requests for Exclusion; and (iv) the number of Settlement Class
8 Members who have submitted Notices of Objection. Additionally, the Settlement Administrator will 9 provide to counsel for the Parties any updated reports regarding the administration of the Settlement
10 Agreement as needed or requested, and immediately notify the Parties when it receives a request from 11 an individual or any other entity regarding inclusion in the Class and/or Settlement or regarding a 12 Dispute.

13 32. Defendant's Right to Rescind. If more than ten percent (10%) of the Class Members
14 submit timely and valid Requests for Exclusion, Defendant may elect to rescind the Settlement
15 Agreement. Defendant must exercise this right of rescission in writing that is provided to Class
16 Counsel within seven (7) calendar days of the Settlement Administrator notifying the Parties of the 17 number of Class Members who have submitted timely and valid Requests for Exclusion following the 18 Response Deadline. If Defendant exercises this option, Defendant shall pay any costs of settlement
19 administration owed to the Settlement Administrator incurred up to that date.

20 33. Certification of Completion. Upon completion of administration of the Settlement, the 21 Settlement Administrator will provide a written declaration under oath to certify such completion to 22 the Court and counsel for all Parties.

23 34. Duties of the Parties with Respect to Obtaining Final Approval of the Settlement. After 24 the Response Deadline, a Final Approval Hearing will be conducted to determine whether Final 25 Approval of the Settlement should be granted, along with the amounts properly payable for: (a)
26 Individual Settlement Shares; (b) Individual PAGA Payments; (c) LWDA Payment; (d) Attorneys'
27 Fees and Costs; (e) Enhancement Payment; and (f) Settlement Administration Costs. The Final 28 Approval Hearing will not be held earlier than thirty (30) calendar days after the Response Deadline.

1 Plaintiff and Class Counsel will be responsible for drafting the motion seeking Final Approval of the 2 Settlement. Class Counsel will provide Defendant's Counsel a draft of the final approval motion
3 before filing it with the Court. By way of said motion, Plaintiff will apply for the entry of the Final
4 Approval Order and Judgment, which will provide for, in substantial part, the following:

5 a. Approval of the Settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate, and directing 6 consummation of its terms and provisions;

7 b. Certification of the Settlement Class;

8 c. Approval of the application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs to Class Counsel;

9 d. Approval of the application for Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff;

10 e. Directing Defendant to fund all amounts due under the Settlement Agreement
11 and ordered by the Court; and

12 f. Entering judgment in the Action, while maintaining continuing jurisdiction, in 13 conformity with California Rules of Court 3.769 and the Settlement Agreement.

14 35. Funding of the Gross Settlement Amount. No later than June 30, 2026 or sixty-five 15 (65) calendar days after Final Approval, whichever is later, Defendant will deposit the Gross
16 Settlement Amount into a Qualified Settlement Fund ("QSF") within the meaning of Treasury
17 Regulation Section 1.468B-1, et seq., to be established by the Settlement Administrator. Defendant
18 shall provide all information necessary for the Settlement Administrator to calculate necessary payroll
19 taxes including its official name, 8-digit state unemployment insurance tax ID number, and other
20 information requested by the Settlement Administrator, no later than June 30, 2026 or sixty-five (65)
21 calendar days after Final Approval, whichever is later.

22 36. Distribution of the Gross Settlement Amount. Within five (5) business days of the 23 funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Administrator will issue the Individual
24 Settlement Payments to Settlement Class Members, Individual PAGA Payments to PAGA Employees,
25 LWDA Payment to the LWDA, Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff, Attorneys' Fees and Costs to Class
26 Counsel, and Settlement Administration Costs to itself. The Settlement Administrator shall also set 27 aside the Employer Taxes and all employee-side payroll taxes, contributions, and withholding, and 28 timely forward these to the appropriate government authorities.

1 37. Settlement Checks. The Settlement Administrator will be responsible for undertaking
2 appropriate deductions, required tax reporting, and issuing the Individual Settlement Payments by way
3 of check to the Settlement Class Members and the Individual PAGA Payments by way of check to the 4 PAGA Employees in accordance with this Settlement Agreement. When issuing payments, the 5 Settlement Administrator may combine the Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA
6 Payment into one check if the intended recipient for both payments is one individual. Settlement Class
7 Members and PAGA Employees are not required to submit a claim to be issued an Individual
8 Settlement Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment. Each Individual Settlement Payment and 9 Individual PAGA Payment check will be valid and negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180)
10 calendar days from the date the checks are issued, and thereafter, shall be canceled. Any funds
11 associated with such canceled checks shall be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to the State
12 of California's Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the Settlement Class Member and/or 13 PAGA Employee. The Parties agree that this disposition results in no "unpaid residue" under 14 California Civil Procedure Code Section 384, as the entire Net Settlement Amount will be paid out to 15 Settlement Class Members, whether or not they cash their settlement checks. Therefore, Defendant
16 will not be required to pay any interest on such amounts. The Settlement Administrator shall undertake 17 amended and/or supplemental tax filings and reporting required under applicable local, state, and 18 federal tax laws that are necessitated due to the cancelation of any Individual Settlement Payment
19 and/or Individual PAGA Payment checks. Settlement Class Members whose Individual Settlement
20 Payment checks are canceled shall, nevertheless, be bound by the Class Settlement, and PAGA
21 Employees whose Individual PAGA Payment checks are canceled shall, nevertheless, be bound by the 22 PAGA Settlement.

23 38. Class Settlement Release. Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross 24 Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and all Settlement Class Members will be deemed to have fully, finally,
25 and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of all 26 Released Class Claims.

27 39. PAGA Settlement Release. Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross
28 Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, the State of California with respect to all PAGA Employees, and all

1 PAGA Employees will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised,
2 relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of all Released PAGA Claims.

3 40. Plaintiff's General Release. Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross
4 Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, individually and on her own behalf, will be deemed to have fully, finally,
5 and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties from 6 any and all claims, debts, liabilities, demands, obligations, guarantees, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees,
7 damages, or causes of action of any kind or nature whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or 8 unsuspected, asserted or unasserted, arising out of, relating to, or resulting from her employment
9 and/or separation of employment with Defendant, which Plaintiff, at any time up until the execution
10 of this Settlement Agreement, had or claimed to have or may have. It is agreed that this is a general 11 release and is to be broadly construed as a release of all claims, provided that, notwithstanding the 12 foregoing, this Paragraph expressly does not include a release of any claims that cannot be released
13 hereunder by law. Any and all rights granted under any state or federal law or regulation limiting the 14 effect of this Settlement Agreement, including the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil 15 Code, ARE HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVED. Section 1542 of the California Civil Code reads as 16 follows:

17 A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR
18 OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER
19 FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM
20 OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH 21 THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

22 41. Final Approval Order and Judgment. The Parties shall provide the Settlement
23 Administrator with a copy of the Final Approval Order and Judgment once it is entered by the Court,
24 and the Settlement Administrator shall post the Final Approval Order and Judgment on its website for 25 sixty (60) calendar days. No individualized notice of the Final Approval Order and Judgment to the 26 Class will be required.

27 42. Continued Jurisdiction. After entry of the judgment pursuant to the Settlement, the 28 Court will have continuing jurisdiction pursuant to Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court and

1 Section 664.6 of the California Code of Civil Procedure, for purposes of addressing: (a) the 2 interpretation and enforcement of the terms of the Settlement, (b) settlement administration matters,
3 and (c) such post-judgment matters as may be appropriate under court rules or as set forth in this
4 Settlement Agreement.

5 43. Effects of Termination or Rescission of Settlement. Termination or rescission of the 6 Settlement Agreement shall have the following effects:

7 a. The Settlement Agreement shall be void and shall have no force or effect, and 8 no Party shall be bound by any of its terms;

9 b. In the event the Settlement Agreement is terminated, Defendant shall have no
10 obligation to make any payments to any Party, Class Member, or attorney, except that the terminating
11 Party shall pay the Settlement Administrator for services rendered up to the date the Settlement
12 Administrator is notified that the Settlement has been terminated;

13 c. The Preliminary Approval Order and Final Approval Order and Judgment, 14 including any order certifying the Class, shall be vacated;

15 d. The Settlement Agreement and all negotiations, statements, and proceedings
16 relating thereto shall be without prejudice to the rights of any of the Parties, all of whom shall be 17 restored to their respective positions in the Action prior to the execution of the Settlement Agreement;

18 e. Neither this Settlement Agreement, nor any ancillary documents, actions, 19 statements, or filings in furtherance of the Settlement (including all matters associated with the 20 mediation) shall be admissible or offered into evidence in the Action or any other action for any 21 purpose whatsoever; and

22 f. Any documents generated to bring the Settlement into effect, will be null and 23 void, and any order or judgment entered by the Court in furtherance of this Settlement Agreement will 24 likewise be treated as void from the beginning.

25 44. No Prior Assignments. The Parties and their counsel represent, covenant, and warrant
26 that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign,
27 transfer, or encumber to any person or entity any portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause
28 of action or right herein released and discharged.

1 45. Exhibits Incorporated by Reference. The terms of this Settlement include the terms set
2 forth in any attached exhibits, which are incorporated by this reference as though fully set forth herein.
3 Any exhibits to this Settlement Agreement are an integral part of the Settlement.

4 46. Entire Agreement. This Settlement Agreement and any attached exhibits constitute the 5 entirety of the Parties' agreement relating to the settlement and transaction completed thereby, and all
6 prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, representations, and statements, whether oral
7 or written and whether by a Party or such Party's legal counsel, are merged herein. No other prior or 8 contemporaneous written or oral agreements may be deemed binding on the Parties. The Parties
9 expressly recognize California Civil Code Section 1625 and California Code of Civil Procedure
10 Section 1856(a), which provide that a written agreement is to be construed according to its terms and 11 may not be varied or contradicted by extrinsic evidence, and the Parties agree that no such extrinsic
12 oral or written representations or terms will modify, vary, or contradict the terms of this Settlement
13 Agreement.

14 47. Interim Stay of Proceedings. The Parties agree to hold in abeyance all proceedings in 15 the Action (including with respect to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 583.310), except 16 such proceedings necessary to implement and complete this Settlement Agreement, pending the Final 17 Approval Hearing to be conducted by the Court.

18 48. Amendment or Modification. Prior to the filing of the motion for preliminary approval
19 of the Settlement, the Parties may not amend or modify any provision of this Settlement Agreement
20 except by written agreement signed by counsel for all Parties. After the filing of the motion for 21 preliminary approval of the Settlement, the Parties may not amend or modify any provision of this
22 Settlement Agreement except by written agreement signed by counsel for all the Parties and subject
23 to Court approval. A waiver or amendment of any provision of this Settlement Agreement will not 24 constitute a waiver of any other provision.

25 49. Authorization to Enter into Settlement Agreement. Counsel for all Parties warrant and 26 represent they are expressly authorized by the Parties whom they represent to negotiate this Settlement
27 Agreement and to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant 28 to this Settlement Agreement to effectuate its terms and to execute any other documents required to effectuate the terms of this Settlement Agreement. The Parties warrant that they understand and have full authority to enter into this Settlement Agreement, and further intend that this Settlement

1 Agreement will be fully enforceable and binding on all Parties, and agree that it will be admissible
2 and subject to disclosure in any proceeding to enforce its terms, notwithstanding any mediation
3 confidentiality provisions that otherwise might apply under state or federal law.

4 50. Signatories. It is agreed that because the members of the Class are so numerous, it is 5 impossible or impractical to have each Settlement Class Member or PAGA Employee execute this 6 Settlement Agreement. The Class Notice will advise all Class Members of the binding nature of the 7 Class Settlement as to the Settlement Class Members and the binding nature of the PAGA Settlement
8 as to the PAGA Employees, and the releases provided for by this Settlement Agreement shall have
9 the same force and effect as if this Settlement Agreement were executed by each Settlement Class 10 Member and PAGA Employee.

11 51. Binding on Successors and Assigns. This Settlement Agreement will be binding upon,
12 and inure to the benefit of, the successors or assigns of the Parties hereto, as previously defined.

13 52. California Law Governs. All terms of this Settlement Agreement and attached exhibits
14 hereto will be governed by and interpreted according to the laws of the State of California.

15 53. Execution and Counterparts. This Settlement Agreement is subject only to the 16 execution of all Parties. However, this Settlement Agreement may be executed in one or more
17 counterparts. All executed counterparts and each of them, including facsimile, electronic, and scanned
18 copies of the signature page, will be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

19 54. Acknowledgement that the Settlement is Fair and Reasonable. The Parties believe this 20 Settlement Agreement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable settlement of the Action and have arrived at 21 this Settlement after arm's length negotiations and in the context of adversarial litigation, taking into 22 account all relevant factors, present and potential. The Parties further acknowledge that they are each
23 represented by competent counsel and that they have had an opportunity to consult with their counsel
24 regarding the fairness and reasonableness of this Settlement Agreement. In addition, if necessary to 25 obtain approval of the Settlement, the Mediator may execute a declaration supporting the Settlement
26 and the reasonableness of the Settlement and the Court may, in its discretion, contact the Mediator to 27 discuss the Settlement and whether or not the Settlement is objectively fair and reasonable.

28 55. Invalidity of Any Provision. Before declaring any provision of this Settlement
Agreement invalid, the Court will first attempt to construe the provision as valid to the fullest extent

1 possible consistent with applicable precedents so as to define all provisions of this Settlement
2 Agreement valid and enforceable.

3 56. Plaintiff's Cooperation. Plaintiff agrees to sign this Settlement Agreement and, by 4 signing this Settlement Agreement, is hereby bound by the terms herein and agrees to fully cooperate
5 to implement the Settlement.

6 57. Non-Admission of Liability. The Parties enter into this Settlement Agreement to 7 resolve the dispute that has arisen between them and to avoid the burden, expense, and risk of 8 continued litigation. In entering into this Settlement Agreement, Defendant does not admit, and 9 specifically denies, it has violated any federal, state, or local law; violated any regulations or guidelines
10 promulgated pursuant to any statute or any other applicable laws, regulations, or legal requirements;
11 breached any contract; violated or breached any duty; engaged in any misrepresentation or deception;
12 or engaged in any other unlawful conduct with respect to its employees. Neither this Settlement
13 Agreement, nor any of its terms or provisions, nor any of the negotiations connected with it, shall be 14 construed as an admission or concession by Defendant of any such violations or failures to comply
15 with any applicable law. Except as necessary in a proceeding to enforce the terms of this Settlement
16 Agreement, this Settlement Agreement and its terms and provisions shall not be offered or received
17 as evidence in any action or proceeding to establish any liability or admission on the part of Defendant 18 or to establish the existence of any condition constituting a violation of, or a non-compliance with,
19 federal, state, local, or other applicable law.

20 58. Captions. The captions and paragraph numbers in this Settlement Agreement are 21 inserted for the reader's convenience, and in no way define, limit, construe, or describe the scope or 22 intent of the provisions of this Settlement Agreement.

23 59. Mutual Preparation. The Parties have had a full opportunity to negotiate the terms and 24 conditions of this Settlement Agreement. Accordingly, this Settlement Agreement will not be 25 construed more strictly against one Party than another merely by virtue of the fact that it may have 26 been prepared by counsel for one of the Parties, it being recognized that, because of the arms-length
27 negotiations between the Parties, all Parties have contributed equally to the preparation of this 28 Settlement Agreement.

1 60. Representation By Counsel. The Parties acknowledge that they have been represented
2 by counsel throughout all negotiations that preceded the execution of this Settlement Agreement, and
3 that this Settlement Agreement has been executed with the consent and advice of counsel, and 4 reviewed in full.

5 61. All Terms Subject to Final Court Approval. All amounts and procedures described in 6 this Settlement Agreement herein will be subject to final Court approval.

7 62. Notices. All notices, demands, and other communications to be provided concerning
8 the Settlement Agreement shall be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third
9 business day after mailing by First Class U.S. Mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed 10 as follows:

 63. Cooperation and Execution of Necessary Documents. All Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other in good faith and use their best efforts to implement the Settlement, including and not limited to, executing all documents to the extent reasonably necessary to effectuate the terms of this Settlement Agreement. If the Parties are unable to reach agreement on the form or content of any document needed to implement the Settlement Agreement, or on any supplemental provisions that may become necessary to effectuate the terms of this Settlement Agreement, the Parties

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Alicia Rodríguez-Padilla v. San Diego Family Care Superior Court of California for the County of San Diego, Case No. 25CU009471C

PLEASE READ THIS CLASS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

You have received this Class Notice because Defendant's records indicate that you may be eligible to take part in the class action settlement reached in the above-referenced case.

You do not need to take any action to receive a settlement payment.

This Class Notice is designed to advise you of your rights and options with respect to the settlement, and how you can request to be excluded from the Class Settlement, object to the Class Settlement, and/or dispute the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods that you are credited with, if you so choose.

YOU ARE NOTIFIED THAT: A class and representative action settlement has been reached between Plaintiff Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla ("Plaintiff") and Defendant San Diego Family Care ("Defendant") (Plaintiff and Defendant are collectively referred to as the "Parties") in the case entitled Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla v. San Diego Family Care, San Diego County Superior Court, Case No. 25CU009471C ("Action"), which may affect your legal rights. On [date of Preliminary Approval], the Court granted preliminary approval of the settlement and scheduled a hearing on [hearing date] at [hearing time] ("Final Approval Hearing") to determine whether or not the Court should grant final approval of the settlement.

I. IMPORTANT DEFINITIONS

"Class" or "Class Member(s)" means all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California at any time during the Class Period.

"Class Period" means the period from February 21, 2021 through August 23, 2025.

"Class Settlement" means the settlement and resolution of all Released Class Claims.

"PAGA Employee(s)" means all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California at any time during the PAGA Period.

"PAGA Period" means the period from November 5, 2024 through August 23, 2025.

"PAGA Settlement" means the settlement and resolution of all Released PAGA Claims.

II. BACKGROUND OF THE ACTION

On February 21, 2025, Plaintiff commenced a putative class action lawsuit by filing a Class Action Complaint in the Action. On November 5, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and Defendant of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code that Plaintiff contends were violated ("PAGA Letter"). On December 9, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint ("Operative Complaint") in the Action, which added a cause of action under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA").

Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to properly pay minimum and overtime wages, provide compliant meal and rest breaks and associated premiums, timely pay wages during employment and upon termination of employment and associated waiting-time penalties, provide accurate wage statements, and reimburse business expenses, and thereby engaged in unfair business practices in violation of the California Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq., and conduct that gives rise to penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff seeks, among other things, recovery of unpaid wages and meal and rest period premiums, unreimbursed business expenses, restitution, penalties, interest, and attorneys' fees and costs.

Defendant denies all of the allegations in the Action or that it violated any law.

The Parties participated in mediation with a respected class action mediator, and as a result, the Parties reached a settlement.

The Parties have since entered into a Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”).

On [Date of Preliminary Approval], the Court entered an order preliminarily approving the Settlement. The Court has appointed Apex Class Action LLC as the administrator of the Settlement (“Settlement Administrator”), Plaintiff Alicia Rodriguez-Padilla as representative of the Class (“Class Representative”), and the following Plaintiff’s attorneys as counsel for the Class (“Class Counsel”):

Jonathan M. Genish
Ryan A. Quadrel
Alexandra Rose
James S. Winn Jr.
Blackstone Law, APC
8383 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 745
Beverly Hills, California 90211
Tel: (310) 622-4278 / Fax: (855) 786-6356

If you are a Class Member, you need not take any action to receive an Individual Settlement Payment, but you have the opportunity to request exclusion from the Class Settlement (in which case you will not receive an Individual Settlement Payment), object to the Class Settlement, and/or dispute the Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you, if you so choose, as explained more fully in Sections III and IV below. If you are a PAGA Employee, you do not need to take any action to receive an Individual PAGA Payment; you will not have the opportunity to object or seek exclusion from the PAGA Settlement and all PAGA Employees will be bound to the PAGA Settlement if the Court grants final approval of the Settlement.

The Settlement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in the Settlement is intended or will be construed as an admission by Defendant that the claims in the Action have merit or that Defendant has any liability to Plaintiff, Class Members, or PAGA Employees. Plaintiff and Defendant, and their respective counsel, have concluded and agree that, in light of the risks and uncertainties to each side of continued litigation, the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is in the best interests of the Class Members, the State of California, and PAGA Employees.

III. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A. Settlement Formula

The total gross settlement amount is Eight Hundred Seventy-Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($877,500.00) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”). The portion of the Gross Settlement Amount that is available for payment to Class Members is referred to as the “Net Settlement Amount.” The Net Settlement Amount will be the Gross Settlement Amount less the following payments which are subject to approval by the Court: (1) attorneys’ fees, in an amount not to exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $307,125.00), and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses, in an amount not to exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($30,000.00) to Class Counsel; (2) Enhancement Payment in an amount not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) to Plaintiff for her services in the Action; (3) the amount of Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($35,000.00) allocated toward civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA Amount”), of which the LWDA will be paid 65% ($22,750.00) (“LWDA Payment”) and the remaining 35% ($12,250.00) will be distributed to PAGA Employees (“PAGA Employee Amount”); and (4) Settlement Administration Costs in an amount not to exceed Eight Thousand One Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($8,100.00) to the Settlement Administrator.

Class Members are eligible to receive payment under the Class Settlement of their pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount (“Individual Settlement Share”) based on the number of weeks each Class Member worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employee in California during the Class Period (“Workweeks”). The Settlement Administrator has divided the Net Settlement Amount by the Workweeks of all Class Members to yield the “Estimated Workweek Value,” and multiplied each Class Member’s individual Workweeks by the Estimated Workweek Value to yield an estimated Individual Settlement Share that each Class Member may be entitled to receive under the Class Settlement (which is listed in Section III.C below). Class Members who do not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion (“Settlement Class Members”) will be issued their final Individual Settlement Payment.

Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as twenty percent (20%) as wages, which will be reported on an IRS Form W-2, and eighty percent (80%) as penalties, interest, and non-wage damages, which will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable). Each Individual Settlement Share will be subject to reduction for the employee's share of payroll taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Shares resulting in a net payment to the Settlement Class Member ("Individual Settlement Payment"). The employer's share of taxes and contributions in connection with the wages portion of Individual Settlement Shares ("Employer Taxes") will be paid by Defendant separately and in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount.

PAGA Employees are eligible to receive payment under the PAGA Settlement of their pro rata share of the PAGA Employee Amount ("Individual PAGA Payment") based on the number of pay periods each PAGA Employee worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employee in California during the PAGA Period ("Pay Periods"). The Settlement Administrator had divided the PAGA Employee Amount, i.e., 25% of the PAGA Amount, by the Pay Periods of all PAGA Employees to yield the "PAGA Pay Period Value," and multiplied each PAGA Employee's individual Pay Periods by the Pay Period Value to yield each PAGA Employee's Individual PAGA Payment.

Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties, will not be subject to taxes or withholdings, and will be reported on IRS Form 1099 (if applicable).

If the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, Individual Settlement Payments will be mailed to Settlement Class Members and Individual PAGA Payments will be mailed to PAGA Employees at the address that is on file with the Settlement Administrator. If the address to which this Class Notice was mailed is not correct, or if you move after you receive this Class Notice, you must provide your correct mailing address to the Settlement Administrator as soon as possible to ensure you receive any payment that you may be entitled to under the Settlement.

B. Your Workweeks and Pay Periods (if applicable) Based on Defendant's Records

According to Defendant's records:

- From February 21, 2021 through August 23, 2025 (i.e., the Class Period), you are credited as having worked [REDACTED] Workweeks.
- From November 5, 2024 through August 23, 2025 (i.e., the PAGA Period), you are credited as having worked [REDACTED] Pay Periods.

If you wish to dispute the Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you, you must submit your dispute in writing to the Settlement Administrator ("Dispute"). The Dispute must: (a) contain the case name and number of the Action (Rodriguez-Padilla v. San Diego Family Care, Case No. 25CU009471C); (b) contain your full name, signature, address, telephone number, and the last four (4) digits of your Social Security number; (c) clearly state that you dispute the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you and what you contend is the correct number; and (d) be returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address listed in Section IV.B below, postmarked on or before [Response Deadline].

C. Your Estimated Individual Settlement Share and Individual PAGA Payment (if applicable)

As explained above, your estimated Individual Settlement Share and Individual PAGA Payment (if applicable) is based on the number of Workweeks and Pay Periods (if applicable) credited to you.

Under the terms of the Settlement, your Individual Settlement Share is estimated to be $ [REDACTED]. The Individual Settlement Share is subject to reduction for the employee's share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Share and will only be distributed if the Court approves the Settlement and after the Settlement goes into effect.

Under the terms of the Settlement, your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED] and will only be distributed if the Court approves the Settlement and after the Settlement goes into effect.

The settlement approval process may take multiple months. Your Individual Settlement Share and Individual PAGA Payment (if applicable) reflected in this Class Notice is only an estimate. Your actual Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment (if applicable) may be higher or lower.

D. Release of Claims

Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and all Settlement Class Members will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of all Released Class Claims.

Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, the State of California with respect to all PAGA Employees, and all PAGA Employees will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of all Released PAGA Claims.

“Released Class Claims” means any and all claims which were alleged or which could have been reasonably alleged based on the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint, arising during the Class Period, which shall specifically include claims for Defendant’s alleged failure to pay overtime and minimum wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium payments, timely pay wages during employment and upon termination, provide accurate wage statements, and reimburse necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order, and California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.

“Released PAGA Claims” means any and all claims arising from any of the factual allegations in the PAGA Letter and the Operative Complaint, arising during the PAGA Period, for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code Sections 2698 et seq., which shall specifically include claims for Defendant’s alleged failure to pay overtime and minimum wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium payments, timely pay wages during employment and upon termination, provide compliant wage statements, and reimburse necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

“Released Parties” means Defendant and its current and former officers, directors, members, insurers, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, and assigns.

E. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs to Class Counsel

Class Counsel will seek attorneys’ fees in an amount not to exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $307,125.00) and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in an amount not to exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($30,000.00) (collectively, “Attorneys’ Fees and Costs”), subject to approval by the Court. The Attorneys’ Fees and Costs granted by the Court will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. Class Counsel has been prosecuting the Action on behalf of Plaintiff, Class Members, and PAGA Employees on a contingency fee basis (that is, without being paid any money to date) and has been paying all litigation costs and expenses.

F. Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff

Plaintiff will seek the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) (“Enhancement Payment”), in recognition of her services in connection with the Action. The Enhancement Payment will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, subject to approval by the Court, and if awarded, it will be paid to Plaintiff in addition to any other payment that she is entitled to under the Settlement.

G. Settlement Administration Costs to Settlement Administrator

Payment to the Settlement Administrator is estimated not to exceed Eight Thousand One Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($8,100.00) (“Settlement Administration Costs”) for the costs of the notice and settlement administration process, including and not limited to, the expense of notifying the Class Members of the Settlement, processing Requests for Exclusion, Notices of Objection, and Disputes, calculating Individual Settlement Shares, Individual Settlement Payments, and Individual PAGA Payments, and distributing payments and tax forms under the Settlement, and shall be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, subject to approval by the Court.

IV. WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS AS A CLASS MEMBER?

A. Participate in the Settlement

If you want to participate in the Class Settlement and receive money from the Class Settlement, you do not have to do anything. You will automatically be included in the Class Settlement and issued your Individual Settlement Payment unless you decide to exclude yourself from the Class Settlement.

Unless you elect to exclude yourself from the Class Settlement and if the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, you will be bound by the terms of the Class Settlement and any judgment that may be entered by the Court based thereon, and you will release the Released Class Claims against the Released Parties as described in Section III.D above.

If you are a PAGA Employee and the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, you will automatically be included in the PAGA Settlement and issued your Individual PAGA Payment. This means you will be bound by the terms of the PAGA Settlement and any judgment that may be entered by the Court based thereon, and you will release the Released PAGA Claims against the Released Parties as described in Section III.D above.

As a Class Member and PAGA Employee (if applicable), you will not be separately responsible for the payment of attorney’s fees or litigation costs and expenses, unless you retain your own counsel, in which event you will be responsible for your own attorney’s fees and expenses.

B. Request Exclusion from the Class Settlement

Class Members may request to be excluded from the Class Settlement by submitting a letter (“Request for Exclusion”) to the Settlement Administrator, at the following address:

[Settlement Administrator]
[Mailing Address]

A Request for Exclusion must: (a) contain the case name and number of the Action (Rodriguez-Padillia v. San Diego Family Care, Case No. 25CU009471C); (b) contain your full name, signature, address, telephone number, and last four (4) digits of your Social Security number; (c) clearly state that you do not wish to be included in the Class Settlement; and (d) be returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address above, postmarked on or before [Response Deadline].

If the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, any Class Member who submits a timely and valid Request for Exclusion will not be issued an Individual Settlement Payment, will not be bound by the Class Settlement (and the release of Released Class Claims described in Section III.D above), and will not have any right to object to, appeal, or comment on the Class Settlement. Class Members who do not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion will be deemed Settlement Class Members and will be bound by all terms of the Class Settlement, including those pertaining to the release of claims described in Section III.D above, as well as any judgment that may be entered by the Court based thereon. PAGA Employees will be bound to the PAGA Settlement (and the release of Released PAGA Claims described in Section III.D above) and will still be issued an Individual PAGA Payment, irrespective of whether they submit a Request for Exclusion.

C. Object to the Class Settlement

You can object to the Class Settlement as long as you have not submitted a Request for Exclusion by submitting a written objection (“Notice of Objection”) to the Settlement Administrator.

The Notice of Objection must: (a) contain the case name and number of the Action (Rodriguez-Padillia v. San Diego Family Care, Case No. 25CU009471C); (b) contain your full name, signature, address, telephone number, and the last four (4) digits of your Social Security number; (c) contain a written statement of all grounds for the objection accompanied by any legal support for such objection; (d) contain copies of any papers, briefs, or other documents upon which the objection is based; and (e) be returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address listed in Section IV.B above, postmarked on or before [Response Deadline].

You may also appear at the Final Approval Hearing and present your objection orally, regardless of whether you have submitted a Notice of Objection.

V. FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing in Department C-60 of the San Diego County Superior Court, located at 330 West Broadway, San Diego, California 92101, on [date], at [time], to determine whether the Settlement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court also will be asked to approve and grant the Attorneys' Fees and Costs to Class Counsel, Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff, and Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator.

The Final Approval Hearing may be continued without further notice to the Class Members and PAGA Employees. It is not necessary for you to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, although you may appear if you wish to.

You can attend the hearing by video or audio conference using the free Microsoft Teams App. The information and link to the Microsoft Teams meeting is provided at: <https://www.sdcourt.ca.gov/sdcourt/civil2/civilvirtualhearings>.

VI. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The above is a summary of the basic terms of the Settlement. For the precise terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement, you should review the detailed Settlement Agreement and other papers, which are on file with the Court.

You may view the Settlement Agreement and other documents filed in the Action by accessing the Court Records. To begin, visit the following link: <https://www.sdcourt.ca.gov/sdcourt/generalinformation/accesscourtrecords>.

On that page, scroll to the "Register of Actions" section and click the "Search Now" button. This will take you to the Case Number Search screen.
