Jury Trial Demanded

Plaintiff Juan Arturo Vega Loera, individually and on behalf of all other members of the public similarly situated, and as an aggrieved employee and on behalf of all aggrieved employees, alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties and any other available relief on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and other current and former employees who worked for Defendants in California as non-exempt, hourly paid employees and received at least one wage statement and against whom one or more violations of any provision in Division 2 Part 2 Chapter 1 of the Labor Code or any provision regulating hours and days of work in the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order were committed, as set forth in this complaint. The monetary damages, penalties, and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, section 10. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction. Plaintiff’s share of damages, penalties, and other relief sought in this action does not exceed $75,000.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants are either citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Juan Arturo Vega Loera is a resident of Garden Grove, in Orange County, California. Defendants employed Plaintiff as an hourly paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2005 to May 20, 2025. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a Machinist at their facility in Huntington Beach, California. During his employment, Plaintiff typically worked ten (10) to twelve (12) hours per day and five (5) to six (6) days per week. Plaintiff's primary job duties included, without limitation, operating precision machining equipment, setting up tools and fixtures, maintaining machines, and fabricating high-quality wind tunnel model components for aerospace, defense, and commercial applications while meeting engineering specifications, upholding quality standards, and meeting project deadlines. At the time of separation of employment, Plaintiff was paid at a rate of approximately $43.00 per hour.

5. TRI MODELS, INC. was and is, upon information and belief, a California Corporation, and at all times hereinafter mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout this county and the State of California.

6. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the Defendants sued herein under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 10, but will seek leave of this Court to amend the complaint and serve such fictitiously named Defendants once their names and capacities become known.

7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that DOES 1 through 10 were the partners, agents, owners, or managers of TRI MODELS, INC. at all relevant times.

8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each and all of the acts and omissions alleged herein was performed by, or is attributable to TRI MODELS, INC. and/or DOES 1 through 10 (collectively, “Defendants” or “TRI MODELS”), each acting as the agent, employee, alter ego, and/or joint venturer of, or working in concert with, each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within the course and scope of such agency, employment,

1 joint venture, or concerted activity with legal authority to act on the others' behalf. The acts of 2 any and all Defendants were in accordance with, and represent, the official policy of 3 Defendants.

4 9. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, ratified each and every act
5 or omission complained of herein. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, aided
6 and abetted the acts and omissions of each and all the other Defendants in proximately causing 7 the damages herein alleged.

8 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said
9 Defendants is in some manner intentionally, negligently, or otherwise responsible for the acts,
10 omissions, occurrences, and transactions alleged herein.

11 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

12 11. Defendants are a specialized aerospace company focused on designing and 13 fabricating precision wind tunnel models used for aerodynamic testing of military aircraft,
14 missiles, business jets, passenger airliners, and space vehicles.. Upon information and belief,
15 Defendants maintain a single, centralized Human Resources ("HR") department at their 16 company headquarters in Huntington Beach, California, which is responsible for the recruiting
17 and hiring of new employees, and communicating and implementing Defendants' company-
18 wide policies, including timekeeping policies and meal and rest period policies, to employees
19 throughout California.

20 12. In particular, Plaintiff and class members, on information and belief, received the 21 same standardized documents and/or written policies. Upon information and belief, the usage 22 of standardized documents and/or written policies, including new-hire documents, indicate that 23 Defendants dictated policies at the corporate level and implemented them company-wide,
24 regardless of their employees' assigned locations or positions. Upon information and belief,
25 Defendants set forth uniform policies and procedures in several documents provided at an 26 employee's time of hire.

27 13. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintain a centralized Payroll
28 department at their company headquarters in Huntington Beach, California, which processes

1 payroll for all non-exempt, hourly paid employees working for Defendants at their various
2 locations in California, including Plaintiff and class members. Based upon information and
3 belief, Defendants issue the same formatted wage statements to all non-exempt, hourly paid
4 employees in California, irrespective of their work locations. Upon information and belief,
5 Defendants process payroll for departing employees in the same manner throughout the State of 6 California, regardless of the manner in which each employee's employment ends.

7 14. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt or hourly paid employees in 8 California.

9 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein
10 mentioned, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers and other professionals, employees and 11 advisors knowledgeable about California labor and wage law, employment and personnel
12 practices, and about the requirements of California law.

13 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and class
14 members were not paid for all hours worked because all hours worked were not recorded.

15 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 16 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to receive certain wages for 17 overtime compensation and that they were not receiving certain wages for overtime
18 compensation.

19 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 20 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to meal periods in accordance 21 with the California Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage
22 Order or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at their regular rates of pay when they were 23 not provided with timely, uninterrupted, thirty (30) minute meal periods and that Plaintiff and 24 class members were not provided with all meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of 25 pay at their regular rates of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted, thirty (30)
26 minute meal period.

27 19. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 28 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to rest periods in accordance

1 with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order or payment of one (1)
2 additional hour of pay at their regular rates of pay when they were not authorized and permitted
3 to take a compliant rest period and that Plaintiff and class members were not authorized and 4 permitted to take compliant rest periods or provided with payment of one (1) additional hour of 5 pay at their regular rates of pay when they were not authorized and permitted to take a
6 compliant rest period.

7 20. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 8 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to receive complete and 9 accurate wage statements in accordance with California law. In violation of the California
10 Labor Code, Plaintiff and class members were not provided complete and accurate wage
11 statements.

12 21. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 13 should have known that they had a duty to maintain accurate and complete payroll records in 14 accordance with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order, but willfully, 15 knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so.

16 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 17 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to timely payment of all
18 wages earned upon termination of employment. In violation of the California Labor Code,
19 Plaintiff and class members did not receive payment of all wages due, including, but not limited
20 to, overtime wages, and meal and rest period premiums, within permissible time periods.

21 23. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or
22 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to timely payment of wages
23 during their employment. In violation of the California Labor Code, Plaintiff and class
24 members did not receive payment of all wages, including, but not limited to, overtime wages,
25 and/or meal and rest period premiums, within permissible time periods.

26 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein
27 mentioned, Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff
28 and class members for all hours worked, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff and class members that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

25. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") for violations of the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order may, as an alternative, be recovered by aggrieved employees in a civil action brought on behalf of themselves and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

26. PAGA defines an "aggrieved employee" in Labor Code section 2699(c) as "any person who was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed."

27. Plaintiff and other current and former employees of Defendants are "aggrieved employees" as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all Defendants' current or former employees and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

28. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee or representative shall give written notice by online filing with the LWDA and by certified mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violation.
- b. An aggrieved employee's notice filed with the LWDA pursuant to 2699.3(a) and any employer response to that notice shall be accompanied by a filing fee of seventy-five dollars ($75).
- c. The LWDA shall notify the employer and the aggrieved employee or representative by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the

1 alleged violation (“LWDA Notice”) within sixty (60) calendar days of the 2 postmark date of the aggrieved employee’s notice. Upon receipt of the 3 LWDA Notice, or if no LWDA Notice is provided within sixty-five (65)
4 calendar days of the postmark date of the aggrieved employee’s notice, the 5 aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California
6 Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties.

7 29. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699.3(c), aggrieved employees,
8 through Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA for violations of any provision
9 other than those listed in Section 2699.5 after the following requirements have been met:

- 10 d. The aggrieved employee or representative shall give written notice by 11 online filing with the LWDA and by certified mail to the employer of the 12 specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been 13 violated (other than those listed in Section 2699.5), including the facts and 14 theories to support the alleged violation.
- 15 e. An aggrieved employee’s notice filed with the LWDA pursuant to 16 2699.3(c) and any employer response to that notice shall be accompanied 17 by a filing fee of seventy-five dollars ($75).
- 18 f. The employer may cure the alleged violation within thirty-three (33)
19 calendar days of the postmark date of the notice sent by the aggrieved
20 employee or representative. The employer shall give written notice within 21 that period of time by certified mail to the aggrieved employee or 22 representative and by online filing with the LWDA if the alleged violation
23 is cured, including a description of actions taken, and no civil action
24 pursuant to Section 2699 may commence. If the alleged violation is not 25 cured within the 33-day period, the aggrieved employee may commence a 26 civil action pursuant to Section 2699.

27 30. On November 3, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice by online filing to the 28 LWDA and by Certified Mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the California Labor

Code alleged to have been violated, including facts and theories to support the alleged violations, in accordance with California Labor Code section 2699.3. Plaintiff's written notice was accompanied with the applicable filing fee of seventy-five dollars ($75). The LWDA PAGA Administrator confirmed receipt of Plaintiff's written notice and assigned Plaintiff PAGA Case Number LWDA-CM-1135813-25. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's written notice to the LWDA and Defendants is attached hereto as "Exhibit 1."

31. As of the filing date of this complaint, over 65 days have passed since Plaintiff sent the notice described above to the LWDA, and the LWDA has not responded that it intends to investigate Plaintiff's claims and Defendants have not cured the violations.

32. Thus, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code sections 2699.3(a) and 2699.3(c) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 516, 1174(d), and 1198.

33. Labor Code section 558(a) provides "[a]ny employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid. . . . (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid. . . ." Labor Code section 558(c) provides "[t]he civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided by law."

34. Defendants, at all times relevant to this complaint, were employers or persons acting on behalf of an employer(s) who violated Plaintiff's and other aggrieved employees' rights by violating various sections of the California Labor Code as set forth above.

35. As set forth below, Defendants have violated numerous provisions of both the Labor Code sections regulating hours and days of work as well as the applicable IWC Wage Order.

36. Pursuant to PAGA, and in particular, California Labor Code sections 2699(a), 2699.3(a), 2699.3(c), and 2699.5, and section 558, Plaintiff, acting in the public interest as a private attorney general, seeks assessment and collection of civil penalties for herself, all other aggrieved employees, and the State of California against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 516, 1174(d), and 1198.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

37. Plaintiff brings this action on his own behalf, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

38. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

39. Plaintiff's proposed class consists of and is defined as follows:

All persons who worked for Defendants as non-exempt, hourly paid employees in California, within four years prior to the filing of the initial complaint until the date of trial ("Class").

40. Plaintiff's proposed subclass consists of and is defined as follows:

All persons who worked for Defendants as non-exempt, hourly paid employees in California and who received at least one wage statement within one (1) year prior to the filing of the initial complaint until the date of trial ("Subclass").

41. Members of the Class and Subclass are referred to herein as "class members."

42. Plaintiff reserves the right to redefine the Class and Subclass and to add additional subclasses as appropriate based on further investigation, discovery, and specific theories of liability.

43. There are common questions of law and fact as to class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including, but not limited to:

(a) Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and class members to work over eight (8) hours per day, over twelve (12) hours per day, or over forty

(40) hours per week and failed to pay all legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and class members;

(b) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and class members with meal periods;

(c) Whether Defendants failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and class members to take rest periods;

(d) Whether Defendants provided Plaintiff and class members with complete and accurate wage statements as required by California Labor Code section 226(a);

(e) Whether Defendants maintained accurate payroll records as required by California Labor Code section 1174(d);

(f) Whether Defendants failed to pay earned overtime wages, meal and rest period premiums, and/or vested vacation wages due to Plaintiff and class members upon their discharge;

(g) Whether Defendants failed timely to pay overtime wages, and/or meal and rest period premiums, due to Plaintiff and class members during their employment;

(h) Whether Defendants engaged in unlawful and unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.; and

(i) The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violations of California law.

44. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the class members are readily ascertainable:

(a) Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than one hundred (100) individuals and the

1 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 2 Defendants' employment records.

3 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately
4 protect the interests of each class member with whom he has a well-
5 defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if 6 any) are typical of all class members as demonstrated herein.

7 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately
8 protect the interests of each class member with whom he has a well-
9 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as 10 demonstrated herein. Plaintiff acknowledges that he has an obligation
11 to make known to the Court any relationship, conflicts or differences
12 with any class member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class
13 counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, 14 certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the 15 duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees 16 that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the 17 prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class
18 member.

19 (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes the use of class action
20 adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve
21 economies of time, effort, and expense as compared with separate
22 lawsuits, and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the same issues 23 can be adjudicated in the same manner and at the same time for the 24 entire class.

25 (e) Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California
26 violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are 27 often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect 28 retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions because

1 they believe their former employers might damage their future
2 endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class
3 actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint
4 with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights
5 while simultaneously protecting their privacy.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198—Unpaid Overtime
8 (Against all Defendants)

9 45. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
10 every allegation set forth above.

11 46. Labor Code section 1198 makes it illegal to employ an employee under 12 conditions of labor that are prohibited by the applicable IWC Wage Order. California Labor
13 Code section 1198 requires that “. . . the standard conditions of labor fixed by the commission
14 shall be the . . . standard conditions of labor for employees. The employment of any employee 15 . . . under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.”

16 47. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide 17 that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-
18 one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours
19 worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

20 48. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 21 were required to pay Plaintiff and class members working more than eight (8) hours in a day or
22 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) for all hours
23 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

24 49. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 25 required to pay Plaintiff and class members working more than twelve (12) hours in a day,
26 overtime compensation at a rate of two (2) times their regular rate of pay. An employee’s 27 regular rate of pay includes all remuneration for employment paid to, or on behalf of, the 28 employee, including nondiscretionary bonuses and incentive pay.

1 50. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 2 one and one-half (1 ½) times the regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8)
3 hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the 4 seventh (7th) day of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the employee's regular rate of 5 pay for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a 6 day on the seventh (7th) day of work.

7 51. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay all overtime
8 wages owed to Plaintiff and class members. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and class
9 members were not paid overtime premiums for all of the hours they worked in excess of eight
10 (8) hours in a day, in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours
11 in a week, because all hours worked were not recorded.

12 52. During the relevant period, Defendants paid Plaintiff and class members
13 incentive pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or other forms of remuneration. However, in 14 violation of the California Labor Code, Defendants failed to incorporate all compensation, 15 including incentive pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or other forms of remuneration, into the 16 calculation of the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating the overtime wage rate.
17 Therefore, during times when Plaintiff and class members worked overtime and received these
18 other forms of pay, Defendants failed to pay all overtime wages by paying a lower overtime rate 19 than required.

20 53. Because Plaintiff and class members worked shifts of eight (8) hours or more a 21 day, or forty (40) hours a week or more, some of this off-the-clock work qualified for overtime
22 premium pay. Therefore, Plaintiff and class members were not paid overtime wages for all of 23 the overtime hours they actually worked.

24 54. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and class members the balance of overtime
25 compensation as required by California law, violates the provisions of California Labor Code
26 sections 510 and 1198. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and class
27 members are entitled to recover from Defendants their unpaid overtime compensation, as well as 28 interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

1 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

2 Violations of California Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198—Meal Period

3 Violations

4 (Against all Defendants)

5 55. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each
6 and every allegation set forth above.

7 56. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 512(a)
8 provides that an employer may not require, cause, or permit an employee to work for a period of 9 more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less
10 than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is not more 11 than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and 12 the employee. Under California law, first meal periods must start after no more than five hours.
13 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1041-1042 (2012).

14 57. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 226.7, 15 512(a), 516, and 1198 provide that no employer shall require an employee to work during any 16 meal period mandated by an applicable order of the IWC.

17 58. At all relevant times herein set forth, Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a), and 18 the applicable IWC Wage Order also require employers to provide a second meal period of not 19 less than thirty (30) minutes if an employee works over ten (10) hours per day or to pay an 20 employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate, except that if the total
21 hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by 22 mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

23 59. At all relevant times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order authorizes 24 "on duty" meal periods only if (1) the nature of the work prevents the employee from being 25 relieved of all duty and (2) when there is a written agreement stating that the employee may, in 26 writing, revoke the agreement at any time.

27 60. First, during the relevant period, Plaintiff and class members were routinely 28 forced to take meal periods late. For example, Plaintiff often clocked in at 6:00 a.m. but was not permitted to take a meal period until a bell rang at 12:30 p.m.

61. Second, during the relevant period, Plaintiff and class members were uniformly denied second meal periods for eligible shifts. For example, Plaintiff regularly worked shifts over 10 hours in duration, but Defendants never provided him with a second meal period in these instances. Under information and belief, Plaintiff and class members did not sign valid second meal period waivers.

62. On information and belief, Defendants engaged in a company-wide practice and/or policy of not paying meal period premiums owed when compliant meal periods were not provided. Because of this practice and/or policy, Plaintiff and class members have not received premium pay for missed, late, and/or interrupted meal periods. To the extent that premiums were paid, on information and belief, Defendants failed to pay premiums at the regular rate of pay. As a result, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and class members compliant meal periods in violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a), and 516 and failed to pay the full meal period premiums due.

63. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order, and California Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198. Plaintiff and class members are therefore entitled to recover from Defendants one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal period was not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, and 1198—Rest Period Violations (Against all Defendants)

64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

65. At all relevant times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7, 516, and 1198 were applicable to Plaintiff's and class members' employment by Defendants.

66. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period” and that the “rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof” unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

67. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC. To comply with its obligation to authorize and permit rest periods under California Labor Code section 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order, an employer must “relinquish any control over how employees spend their break time, and relieve their employees of all duties—including the obligation that an employee remain on call. A rest period, in short, must be a period of rest.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 2 Cal. 5th 257, 273 (2016). California Labor Code section 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order also provide that rest periods shall be counted as hours worked for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

68. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(c), Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one (1) additional hour of pay at their regular rates of pay for each work day that a required rest period was not authorized and permitted.

69. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and class members were not provided with second rest periods when their shifts exceeded 10 hours, as required by California law. Despite being eligible for a second rest period, Plaintiff and class members were not authorized or permitted to take one and were instead expected to continue performing work duties throughout the day. Specifically, for shifts up to 10 hours, Plaintiff and class members were provided with one 10-minute rest break, and for shifts exceeding 10 hours, Plaintiff and class members were provided with a single 15-minute rest break.

70. As a result of Defendants’ practices and policies, Plaintiff and class members worked shifts in excess of 3.5 hours, in excess of 6 hours, and/or in excess of 10 hours without receiving all uninterrupted rest periods to which they were entitled.

1 71. Defendants have also engaged in a company-wide practice and/or policy of not 2 paying rest period premiums owed when compliant rest periods are not authorized and
3 permitted. Because of this practice and/or policy, Plaintiff and class members have not received
4 premium pay for all missed rest periods. To the extent that Defendants paid rest period
5 premiums, on information and belief, Defendants failed to pay premiums at the regular rate of 6 pay.

7 72. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
8 Labor Code sections 226.7, 516, and 1198. Plaintiff and class members are therefore entitled to 9 recover from Defendants one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 10 compensation for each work day that a compliant rest period was not authorized and permitted.

11 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226(a), 1174(d), and 1198—Non-Compliant Wage
13 Statements and Failure to Maintain Accurate Payroll Records

14 (Against all Defendants)

15 73. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each
16 and every allegation set forth above.

17 74. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 226(a)
18 provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate and 19 complete itemized wage statement in writing, including, but not limited to, the name and 20 address of the legal entity that is the employer, the inclusive dates of the pay period, total hours
21 worked, and all applicable rates of pay.

22 75. At all relevant times, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally provided 23 Plaintiff and Subclass members with uniform, incomplete, and inaccurate wage statements. For 24 example, Defendants issued uniform wage statements to Plaintiff and Subclass members that 25 fail to correctly list: gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; and all
26 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period, including rates of pay for overtime 27 wages, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; all deductions; the 28 inclusive dates of the pay periods; the last four digits of employees' social security numbers or

1 employee identification numbers; and the name and legal address of the employer. Specifically,
2 Defendants violated sections 226(a)(1), 226(a)(2), 226(a)(3), 226(a)(4), 226(a)(5), 226(a)(6), 3 226(a)(7), 226(a)(8), and 226(a)(9).

4 76. While Defendants' wage statements are deficient due to derivative violations,
5 Plaintiff and Subclass members also have a direct claim for Defendants' failure to include
6 applicable hourly rates of pay on wage statements. Defendants obfuscated employees' pay and 7 deprived Plaintiff and Subclass members of the information necessary to verify the correctness
8 of their wages and hours.

9 77. Because Defendants did not record the time Plaintiff and Subclass members spent
10 working off the clock, Defendants did not list the correct amount of gross wages and net wages
11 earned by Plaintiff and Subclass members in compliance with sections 226(a)(1) and 226(a)(5).
12 For the same reason, Defendants failed to accurately list the total number of hours worked by 13 Plaintiff and Subclass members, in violation of section 226(a)(2), and failed to list the applicable 14 hourly rates of pay in effect during the pay period and the corresponding accurate number of 15 hours worked at each hourly rate, in violation of section 226(a)(9).

16 78. The wage statement deficiencies also include, among other things, failing to list
17 the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a 18 piece-rate basis; failing to list all deductions; failing to list the inclusive dates of the period for 19 which employees were paid; failing to list the name of the employee and only the last four digits
20 of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social
21 security number; failing to list the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer;
22 and/or failing to state all hours worked as a result of not recording or stating hours worked off-
23 the-clock.

24 79. California Labor Code section 1174(d) provides that "[e]very person employing 25 labor in this state shall . . . [k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of all employees
26 employed and the ages of all minors" and "[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 27 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours
28 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any

1 applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or
 2 establishments” At all relevant times, and in violation of Labor Code section 1174(d),
 3 Defendants willfully failed to maintain accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and Subclass
 4 members showing the daily hours they worked and the wages paid thereto as a result of failing
 5 to record the off-the-clock hours that they worked.

6 80. California Labor Code section 1198 provides that the maximum hours of work
 7 and the standard conditions of labor shall be those fixed by the Labor Commissioner and as set
 8 forth in the applicable IWC Wage Order. Section 1198 further provides that “[t]he employment
 9 of any employees for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor
 10 prohibited by the order is unlawful.” Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order, employers
 11 are required to keep accurate time records showing when the employee begins and ends each 12 work period and meal period. During the relevant time period, Defendants engaged in 13 company-wide practices and/or policies of failing to record actual hours worked, and thereby
 14 failed to keep accurate records of work period and meal period start and end times for Plaintiff
 15 and Subclass members, in violation of section 1198.

16 81. Plaintiff and Subclass members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 17 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor
 18 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per 19 employee.

20 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202—Wages Not Timely Paid Upon 22 Termination

23 (Against all Defendants)

24 82. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each
 25 and every allegation set forth above.

26 83. This cause of action is dependent upon, and wholly derivative of, the overtime
 27 wages, meal and rest period premiums, and/or vested vacation wages that were not timely paid
 28 to Plaintiff and those class members no longer employed by Defendants upon their termination.

1 84. At all times relevant herein set forth, Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide
2 that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of 3 discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her
4 employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72)
5 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or 6 her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of 7 quitting.

8 85. Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and class members who are no longer
9 employed by Defendants the earned and unpaid wages set forth above, including but not limited
10 to, overtime wages, meal and rest period premiums, and/or vested vacation wages, either at the 11 time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

12 86. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and class members who are no longer
13 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within 14 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, violates Labor Code sections 201
15 and 202. Plaintiff and class members are therefore entitled to recover from Defendants the 16 statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular rate of pay, up to a
17 thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

18 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 Violation of California Labor Code § 204—Failure to Timely Pay Wages During 20 Employment
21 (Against all Defendants)

22 87. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each
23 and every allegation set forth above.

24 88. This cause of action is dependent upon, and wholly derivative of, the overtime
25 wages, and/or meal and rest period premiums that were not timely paid to Plaintiff and class
26 members during their employment.

27 89. At all times relevant herein set forth, Labor Code section 204 provides that all 28 wages earned by any person in any employment between the first (1st) and the fifteenth (15th)

days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the sixteenth (16th) and the twenty-sixth (26th) day of the month during which the labor was performed.

90. At all times relevant herein, Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the sixteenth (16th) and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the first (1st) and the tenth (10th) day of the following month.

91. At all times relevant herein, Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. Alternatively, at all times relevant herein, Labor Code section 204 provides that the requirements of this section are deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period.

92. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and class members all wages due including, but not limited to, overtime wages, and/or meal and rest period premiums, within the time periods specified by California Labor Code section 204.

93. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and class members all wages due violates Labor Code section 204. Plaintiff and class members are therefore entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 210.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

For Civil Penalties Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.

(Against all Defendants)

94. Plaintiff incorporates Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

95. California Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. ("PAGA") permits Plaintiff to recover civil penalties for the violation(s) of the Labor Code sections enumerated in Labor Code section 2699.5. Section 2699.5 enumerates Labor Code sections 201, 202, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 516, 1174(d), and 1198. Labor Code section 2699.3(c) permits aggrieved employees, including Plaintiff, to recover civil penalties for violations of those Labor Code sections not found in section 2699.5, including section 516.

96. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, violates numerous sections of the California Labor Code, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. Violation of Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order for Defendants' failure to compensate Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with all required overtime pay, as alleged herein;
- b. Violation of Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order for Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with meal periods, as alleged herein;
- c. Violation of Labor Code sections 226.7, 516, and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order for Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to take rest periods, as alleged herein;
- d. Violation of Labor Code sections 226(a) and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order for failure to provide accurate and complete wage statements to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees, as alleged herein;
- e. Violation of Labor Code sections 1174(d) and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order for failure to maintain payroll records, as alleged herein;
- f. Violation of Labor Code sections 201 and 202 for failure to pay all earned wages upon termination, as alleged herein; and
- g. Violation of Labor Code section 204 for failure to pay all earned wages during employment, as alleged herein.

97. At all relevant times, Defendants also has engaged in a company-wide practice and/or policy of not paying all recovery period premiums owed when compliant recovery periods are not provided. Because of this practice and/or policy, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees have not received premium pay for all missed recovery periods. Defendants failed to authorize

1 and permit all recovery periods in violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7, 516, and
2 1198. Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees are entitled to civil penalties, attorney's fees,
3 costs, and interest thereon, pursuant to Labor Code sections 558 and/or 2699(a), (f)-(g).

4 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. –

6 Unlawful Business Practices

7 (Against all Defendants)

8 98. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
9 every allegation set forth above.

10 99. Defendants are "persons" as defined by California Business & Professions Code
11 section 17201, as they are corporations, firms, partnerships, joint stock companies, and/or 12 associations.

13 100. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, 14 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff has 15 suffered injury in fact and has lost money as a result of Defendants' unlawful business practices.
16 Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of 17 Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

18 101. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 19 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
20 Code sections 17200, et seq.

21 102. A violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.
22 may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In the instant case, Defendants'
23 policies and practices have violated state law in at least the following respects:

- 24 (a) Requiring non-exempt, hourly paid employees, including Plaintiff and 25 class members, to work overtime without paying them proper
26 compensation in violation of California Labor Code sections 510 and 27 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order, as alleged herein;
28 (b) Failing to provide all meal periods to Plaintiff and class members in violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order, as alleged herein;

(c) Failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and class members to take all rest periods in violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7, 516, and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order, as alleged herein;

(d) Failing to provide Plaintiff and class members with accurate wage statements and failing to maintain accurate payroll records in violation of California Labor Code sections 226(a), 1174(d), and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order, as alleged herein; and

(e) Failing timely to pay all earned wages to Plaintiff and class members in violation of California Labor Code section 204, as alleged herein.

103. As a result of the violations of California law herein described, Defendants unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses. Plaintiff and class members have suffered pecuniary loss by Defendants' unlawful business acts and practices alleged herein.

104. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and class members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of the initial complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and class members; and an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. –

Unfair Business Practices

(Against all Defendants)

105. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

106. Defendants are "persons" as defined by California Business & Professions Code section 17201, as they are corporations, firms, partnerships, joint stock companies, and/or

1 associations.

2 107. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, and 3 harmful to Plaintiff, class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff has suffered injury in 4 fact and has lost money as a result of Defendants' unfair business practices. Plaintiff seeks to 5 enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 6 Procedure section 1021.5.

7 108. Defendants' activities, namely Defendants' company-wide practice and/or policy
8 of not paying Plaintiff and class members all meal and rest period premiums due to them under 9 Labor Code section 226.7, deprived Plaintiff and class members of the compensation guarantee
10 and enhanced enforcement implemented by section 226.7. The statutory remedy provided by 11 section 226.7 is a "'dual-purpose' remedy intended primarily to compensate employees, and 12 secondarily to shape employer conduct." Safeway, Inc. v. Superior Court, 238 Cal. App. 4th 13 1138, 1149 (2015). The statutory benefits of section 226.7 were guaranteed to Plaintiff and 14 class members as part of their employment with Defendants, and thus Defendants' practice 15 and/or policy of denying these statutory benefits constitutes an unfair business practice in 16 violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. (Id.)

17 109. A violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.
18 may be predicated on any unfair business practice. In the instant case, Defendants' policies and 19 practices have violated the spirit of California's meal and rest period laws and constitute acts
20 against the public policy behind these laws.

21 110. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.,
22 Plaintiff and class members are entitled to restitution for the class-wide loss of the statutory 23 benefits implemented by section 226.7 withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that
24 commences four years prior to the filing of the initial complaint; a permanent injunction
25 requiring Defendants to pay all statutory benefits implemented by section 226.7 due to Plaintiff
26 and class members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure
27 section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

28 ///

Plaintiff requests a trial by jury.

Plaintiff, on behalf of all others similarly situated, prays for relief and judgment against ants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. For damages, unpaid wages, penalties, injunctive relief, and attorneys' fees in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000), exclusive of interest and costs. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend his prayer for relief to seek a different amount.

2. That this case be certified as a class action;
3. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class and Subclass;
4. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as class counsel.

5. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due to Plaintiff and class members;

6. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

7. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due, or as otherwise provided by law;

8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194(a); and

9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

10. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order by willfully failing to provide all meal periods to Plaintiff and class members;

11. That the Court make an award to the Plaintiff and class members of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a meal period was not provided;

12. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

13. For premiums pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(c);

14. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid meal period premiums from the date such amounts were due, or as otherwise provided by law;

15. For attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, or as otherwise provided by law; and

16. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Third Cause of Action

17. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 226.7, 516, and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order by willfully failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and class members to take all rest periods;

18. That the Court make an award to the Plaintiff and class members of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a rest period was not authorized and permitted;

19. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

20. For premiums pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(c);

21. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid rest period premiums from the date such amounts were due, or as otherwise provided by law;

22. For attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, or as otherwise provided by law; and

23. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

24. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the recordkeeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order as to Plaintiff and Subclass members, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

25. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

26. For injunctive relief pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h);

27. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e);

28. For attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e)(1); and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 by willfully failing to pay overtime wages, meal and rest period premiums, and/or vested vacation wages owed at the time of termination of the employment of Plaintiff and other terminated class members;

31. For all actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

32. For waiting time penalties according to proof pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for all employees who have left Defendants' employ;

33. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due, or as otherwise provided by law;

34. For attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, or as otherwise provided by law; and

35. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

36. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 204 by willfully failing to timely pay Plaintiff and class members overtime wages, and/or meal and rest period premiums, during their employment;

37. For all actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

38. For statutory penalties according to proof pursuant to California Labor Code section 210;

39. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due, or as otherwise provided by law;

40. For attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, or as otherwise provided by law; and

41. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

42. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the following California Labor Code provisions as to Plaintiff and/or other aggrieved employees: 510 and 1198 (by failing to pay all overtime compensation); 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198 (by failing to provide all meal periods); 226.7, 516, and 1198 (by failing to authorize and permit all rest periods); 226(a), 1174(d), and 1198 (by failing to provide accurate wage statements and maintain accurate payroll records); 201 and 202 (by failing to timely pay all earned wages upon termination); and 204 (by failing to timely pay all earned wages during employment).

43. For civil penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code, including sections 210, 226.3, 256, 558, 1174.5, 2699(a), (f), and (g), for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 516, 1174(d), and 1198;

44. For attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(g)(1), and any and all other relevant statutes, for Defendants' violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 516, 1174(d), and 1198;

45. For pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as provided by law; and
For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants' conduct of failing to provide Plaintiff and class members all overtime wages due to them, failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and class members to take all meal periods, failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and class members to take all rest periods, failing to provide Plaintiff and class members accurate and complete wage statements, failing to maintain accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and class members, failing to timely pay Plaintiff and class members all earned wages during employment, failing to timely pay Plaintiff and class members all earned wages upon termination, constitutes an unlawful business practice in violation of California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;

47. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all class members and prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

48. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage, and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;

49. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5; and

50. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

California Labor & Workforce Development Agency
ATTN: PAGA Administrator

Subject: Juan Arturo Vega Loera v. Tri Models, Inc.

Dear PAGA Administrator:

This office represents Juan Arturo Vega Loera in connection with his claims under the California Labor Code. Mr. Loera was an employee of TRI MODELS, INC. ("TRI MODELS").

The employer may be contacted directly at the address below:

TRI MODELS, INC.
5191 OCEANUS DRIVE
HUNTINGTON BEACH, CA 92649

Mr. Loera intends to seek civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and other available relief for violations of the California Labor Code, which are recoverable under sections 2698, et seq., the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"). Mr. Loera seeks relief on behalf of himself, the State of California, and other persons who are or were employed by TRI MODELS in California as a non-exempt, hourly paid employee and who received at least one wage statement ("aggrieved employees"). This letter is sent in compliance with the notice and reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

TRI MODELS employed Mr. Loera as an hourly paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2005 to May 20, 2025. Mr. Loera worked as a Machinist at TRI MODELS' facility in Huntington Beach, California. During his employment, Mr. Loera typically worked ten (10) to twelve (12) hours per day and five (5) to six (6) days per week. Mr. Loera's job duties included, without limitation, operating precision machining equipment, setting up tools and fixtures, maintaining machines, and fabricating high-quality wind tunnel model components for aerospace, defense, and commercial applications while meeting engineering specifications, upholding quality standards, and meeting project deadlines. Mr. Loera was paid at a rate of $43.00 per hour at the time of his separation of employment with TRI MODELS.

TRI MODELS has committed one or more of the following Labor Code violations against Mr. Loera, the facts and theories of which follow, making him an "aggrieved employee" pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(c):¹

TRI MODELS' Company-Wide and Uniform Payroll and HR Practices

TRI MODELS is a California Corporation. TRI MODELS is a specialized aerospace company focused on designing and fabricating precision wind tunnel models used for aerodynamic testing of military aircraft, missiles, business jets, passenger airliners, and space vehicles. Upon information and belief, TRI MODELS maintains a single, centralized Human Resources (HR) department at its company headquarters in Huntington Beach, California, for all non-exempt, hourly paid employees working for TRI MODELS in California, including Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees. At all relevant times, TRI MODELS issued and maintained uniform, standardized scheduling and timekeeping practices and procedures for all non-exempt, hourly paid employees in California, including Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees, regardless of their location or position.

Upon information and belief, TRI MODELS maintains a centralized Payroll department at its company headquarters in Huntington Beach, California, which processes payroll for all non-exempt, hourly paid employees working for TRI MODELS in California, including Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees. Further, TRI MODELS issues the same formatted wage statements in the same manner for all non-exempt, hourly paid employees working in California, including Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees, irrespective of their location, position, or manner in which each employee's employment ended. In other words, TRI MODELS utilized the same methods and formulas when calculating wages due to Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees in California.

Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 – Unpaid Overtime

California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order require employers to pay employees working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek at the rate of time-and-one-half (1 ½) times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that employers are required to pay employees working more than twelve (12) hours in a day overtime compensation at a rate of two (2) times their regular rate of pay. An employee's regular rate of pay includes all remuneration for employment paid to, or on behalf of, the employee, including nondiscretionary bonuses and incentive pay.

TRI MODELS willfully failed to pay all overtime wages owed to Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees. During the relevant time period, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees were not paid overtime premiums for all of the hours they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week, because all hours that they worked were not recorded.

During the relevant period, TRI MODELS paid Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees incentive pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or other forms of remuneration. However, in violation of the California Labor Code, TRI MODELS failed to incorporate all compensation, including incentive pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or other forms of remuneration, into the calculation of the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating the overtime wage rate. Therefore, during times when Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees worked overtime and received these other forms of pay, TRI MODELS failed to pay all overtime wages by paying a lower overtime rate than required.

Because Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees worked shifts of eight (8) hours or more a day, or forty (40) hours a week or more, some of this off-the-clock work qualified for overtime premium pay. Therefore, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees were not paid overtime wages for all of the overtime hours they actually worked.

TRI MODELS' failure to pay Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees the balance of overtime compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees are entitled to recover civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and interest thereon, pursuant to Labor Code sections 558 and/or 2699(a), (f)-(g).

Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198 – Failure to Provide Meal Periods

California Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order require employers to provide meal periods and to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each work day that a meal or rest period is not provided. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order, an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Under California law, first meal periods must start after no more than five hours. Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1041-1042 (2012). Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order also require employers to provide a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes if an employee works over ten (10) hours per day or to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

First, during the relevant period, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees were routinely forced to take meal periods late. For example, Mr. Loera often clocked in at 6:00 a.m. but was not permitted to take a meal period until a bell rang at 12:30 p.m..

Second, during the relevant period, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees were uniformly denied second meal periods for eligible shifts. For example, Mr. Loera regularly worked shifts over 10 hours in duration, but TRI MODELS never provided him with a second meal period in these instances. Under information and belief, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees did not sign valid second meal period waivers.

On information and belief, TRI MODELS engaged in a company-wide practice and/or policy of not paying meal period premiums owed when compliant meal periods were not provided. Because of this practice and/or policy, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees have not received premium pay for missed, late, and/or interrupted meal periods. To the extent that premiums were paid, on information and belief, TRI MODELS failed to pay premiums at the regular rate of pay.

As a result, TRI MODELS failed to provide Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees compliant meal periods in violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a), and 516 and failed to pay the full meal period premiums due.

TRI MODELS' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order, and California Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198. Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees are therefore entitled to recover from TRI MODELS one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal period was not provided.

Accordingly, TRI MODELS failed to provide all meal periods in violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198. Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees are entitled to civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and interest thereon, pursuant to Labor Code sections 558 and/or 2699(a), (f)-(g).

Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, and 1198 – Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

California Labor Code sections 226.7, 516, and 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order require employers to provide rest periods and to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each work day that a meal or rest period is not provided. California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC. The applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

To comply with its obligation to authorize and permit rest periods under California Labor Code section 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order, an employer must "relinquish any control over how employees spend their break time, and relieve their employees of all duties—including the obligation that an employee remain on call. A rest period, in short, must be a period of rest."

Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 2 Cal. 5th 257, 273 (2016).

During the relevant time period, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees were not provided with second rest periods when their shifts exceeded 10 hours, as required by California law. Despite being eligible for a second rest period, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees were not authorized or permitted to take one and were instead expected to continue performing work duties throughout the day. Specifically, for shifts up to 10 hours, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees were provided with one 10-minute rest break, and for shifts exceeding 10 hours, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees were provided with a single 15-minute rest break.

As a result of TRI MODELS' practices and policies, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees worked shifts in excess of 3.5 hours, in excess of 6 hours, and/or in excess of 10 hours without receiving all uninterrupted rest periods to which they were entitled.

TRI MODELS has also engaged in a company-wide practice and/or policy of not paying rest period premiums owed when rest periods are not authorized and permitted. Because of this practice and/or policy, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees have not received premium pay for all missed rest periods. Alternatively, on information and belief, to the extent that TRI MODELS did pay Mr. Loera and/or other aggrieved employees one (1) additional hour of premium pay for missed rest periods, TRI MODELS did not pay Mr. Loera and/or other aggrieved employees at the correct rate of pay for premiums because TRI MODELS failed to include all forms of compensation, such incentive pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or other forms of remuneration, in the regular rate of pay.

Accordingly, TRI MODELS failed to authorize and permit all rest periods in violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7, 516, and 1198. Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees are entitled to civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and interest thereon, pursuant to Labor Code sections 558 and/or 2699(a), (f)-(g).

Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226(a), 1174(d), and 1198 – Non-Compliant Wage Statements and Failure to Maintain Accurate Payroll Records

California Labor Code section 226(a) requires employers to make, keep and provide true, accurate, and complete employment records. TRI MODELS has not provided Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees with properly itemized wage statements. Labor Code section 226(e) provides that if an employer fails to comply with providing an employee with properly itemized wage statements as set forth in 226(a), then the employee is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or $50 for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and $100 per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed $4,000. Further, Labor Code section 226.3 provides that any employer who violates section 226(a) shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of $250 per employee per violation in an initial citation and $1,000 per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage statement or fails to keep the required records pursuant to Section 226(a).

During the relevant time period, TRI MODELS has knowingly and intentionally provided Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees with uniform, incomplete, and inaccurate wage statements. For example, TRI MODELS issued uniform wage statements to Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees that fail to correctly list: gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period, including rates of pay for overtime wages, meal and rest period premiums, and/or paid sick leave, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate. Specifically, TRI MODELS violated sections 226(a)(1), 226(a)(2), 226(a)(5), and 226(a)(9).

While TRI MODELS' wage statements are deficient due to derivative violations, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees also have a direct claim for TRI MODELS' failure to include applicable hourly rates of pay on wage statements. TRI MODELS obfuscated employees' pay and deprived Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees of the information necessary to verify the correctness of their wages and hours.

Because TRI MODELS did not record the time Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees spent working off-the-clock, TRI MODELS did not list the correct amount of gross wages and net wages earned by Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees, in compliance with section 226(a)(1) and section 226(a)(5), respectively. For the same reason, TRI MODELS failed to accurately list the total number of the hours worked by Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees, in violation of section 226(a)(2), and failed to list the applicable hourly rates of pay in effect during the pay period and the corresponding accurate number of hours worked at each hourly rate, in violation of section 226(a)(9).

Moreover, on information and belief, because TRI MODELS did not calculate Mr. Loera's and/or other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay correctly for purposes of paying overtime wages, meal and rest period premiums, and/or paid sick leave, TRI MODELS did not list the correct amount of gross wages in compliance with section 226(a)(1) and did not list the correct amount of net wages in violation of section 226(a)(5). TRI MODELS also failed to correctly list all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period, namely, correct rates of pay for overtime wages, meal and rest period premiums, and/or paid sick leave, in violation of section 226(a)(9).

The wage statement deficiencies also include, among other things, failing to list the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; failing to list all deductions; failing to list the inclusive dates of the period for which employees were paid; failing to list the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number; failing to list the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and/or failing to state all hours worked as a result of not recording or stating hours worked off-the-clock.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) provides that "[e]very person employing labor in this state shall . . . [k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of all employees employed and the ages of all minors" and "[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments" At all relevant times, and in violation of Labor Code section 1174(d), TRI MODELS willfully failed to maintain accurate payroll records for Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees showing the daily hours they worked and the wages paid thereto as a result of failing to record the off-the-clock hours that they worked.

California Labor Code section 1198 provides that the maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor shall be those fixed by the Labor Commissioner and as set forth in the applicable IWC Wage Order. Section 1198 further provides that "[t]he employment of any employees for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful." Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order, employers are required to keep accurate time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period and meal period.

During the relevant time period, TRI MODELS engaged in company-wide practices and/or policies of failing to record actual hours worked, and thereby failed to keep accurate records of work period and meal period start and end times for Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees, in violation of section 1198.

Because TRI MODELS failed to provide the correct net and gross wages earned, applicable rates of pay, and number of total hours worked on wage statements, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees have been prevented from verifying, solely from information on the wage statements themselves, that they were paid correctly and in full. Instead, Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees have had to look to sources outside of the wage statements themselves and reconstruct time records to determine whether in fact they were paid correctly and the extent of underpayment, thereby causing them injury.

Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees are entitled to recover civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and interest thereon pursuant to Labor Code sections 226.3, 1174.5, and/or 2699(a), (f)-(g).

Violation of California Labor Code § 204 – Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. Alternatively, California Labor Code section 204 provides that the requirements of this section are deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period.

During the relevant time period, TRI MODELS failed to pay Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including, but not limited to, overtime wages, meal and rest period premiums, and/or sick leave pay, within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees are entitled to recover civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and interest thereon, pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 and/or 2699(a), (f)-(g).

Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 – Failure to Timely Pay Final Wages Upon Termination

California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

TRI MODELS willfully failed to pay Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees who are no longer employed by TRI MODELS all their earned wages, including, but not limited to, overtime wages, meal and rest period premiums, and/or sick leave pay, either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving TRI MODELS' employ.

Mr. Loera and other aggrieved employees are entitled to recover civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and interest thereon, pursuant to Labor Code sections 256 and/or 2699(a), (f)-(g).

California Labor Code § 558(a)

California Labor Code section 558(a) provides "[a]ny employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid. . . . (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid. . . ." Labor Code section 558(c) provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided by law." TRI MODELS, at all relevant times, was an employer or person acting on behalf of an employer(s) who violated Mr. Loera's and other aggrieved employees' rights by violating various sections of the California Labor Code.

Accordingly, Mr. Loera seeks the remedies set forth in Labor Code section 558 for himself, the State of California, and all other aggrieved employees. Specifically, pursuant to PAGA, and in particular California Labor Code sections 2699(a), 2699.3(a) and 2699.3(c), 2699.5, and 558, Mr. Loera, acting in the public interest as a private attorney general, seeks assessment and collection of civil penalties for himself, all other aggrieved employees, and the State of California against TRI MODELS for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 516, 1174(d), and 1198.

Therefore, on behalf of all aggrieved employees, Mr. Loera seeks all applicable penalties related to these violations of the California Labor Code pursuant to PAGA.
