SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

RODRIGO ALVARADO RUIZ, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees,

Plaintiff,

vs.

C-ME TRIM COMPANY, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 37-2023-00034931-CU-OE-CTL

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF RODRIGO ALVARADO RUIZ'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff RODRIGO ALVARADO RUIZ ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants C-ME TRIM COMPANY, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated

1 with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all
2 hours worked at the employees' minimum wage rate or overtime rate, failure to pay prevailing
3 wages, failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay
4 meal period premium wages, failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant
5 rest periods or pay rest period premium wages, failure to indemnify employees for all necessary
6 expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties,
7 failure to timely pay earned wages during employment, failure to provide complete and accurate
8 wage statements, and failure to timely pay all unpaid wages following separation of employment.
9 Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce
10 Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 11 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

12 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 14 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 15 civil penalties on behalf of himself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
16 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars
17 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-
18 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 19 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 20 California, including but not limited to San Diego County, at 9374 Bond Ave, El Cajon, CA 21 92021.

22 3. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California enacted 23 Emergency Rule 9 to the California Rules of Court, which provided that, notwithstanding any 24 other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are 25 tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

26 III. PARTIES

27 4. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 28 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to

1 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 2 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will 3 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp
4 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 5 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 6 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in El Cajon, California
7 from approximately December 2022, until on or about February 1, 2023.

8 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant C-ME TRIM
9 COMPANY, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business
10 in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto
11 were persons acting on behalf of Defendant C-ME TRIM COMPANY, INC. in the establishment
12 of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant C-
13 ME TRIM COMPANY, INC. operates in San Diego County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved
14 employees in San Diego County, including but not limited to, at 9374 Bond Ave, El Cajon, CA 15 92021.

16 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 17 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 18 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 19 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 20 working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

21 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
22 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued
23 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 24 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to 25 be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of 26 the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

27 8. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff
28 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names

1 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 2 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously
3 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 4 complaint.

5 9. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 6 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and 7 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

8 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

9 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 10 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

11 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

12 10. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

13 11. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 14 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 25 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 15 1771, 1774, 1720, 2802 and the applicable Wage Orders.

16 12. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
17 Labor Code:

18 13. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
19 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
20 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked,"
21 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the
22 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 23 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

24 14. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 25 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 26 Wage Orders.

27 15. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 28 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with

1 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 2 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum
3 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but 4 not limited to:

5 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
6 non-exempt employees to travel between Defendant's jobsites without being paid for that time.

7 (b) Automatically deducting thirty (30) minutes from Plaintiff and other current and
8 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' daily hours worked and
9 attributing that time to a meal break despite that Defendant consistently failed to provide duty-free
10 meal breaks.

11 16. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 12 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants'
13 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 14 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 15 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable
16 Wage Order.

17 17. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay:
18 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
19 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked,"
20 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 21 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either
22 directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.'

23 18. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 24 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty 25 (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

26 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40)
27 hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 28 work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

Labor Code section 510.

19. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to travel between Defendant's jobsites without being paid for that time.

(b) Automatically deducting thirty (30) minutes from Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' daily hours worked and attributing that time to a meal break despite that Defendant consistently failed to provide duty-free meal breaks.

20. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

21. Failure to pay prevailing wages: Labor Code sections 1771 and 1774 of the public works law, Labor Code section 1720 et seq., requires workers on public works projects to be paid prevailing wages. Labor Code section 1194 requires an employer to pay employees the legal overtime rate, including prevailing wage rates.

22. Defendants would often contract for prevailing wage jobs which required them to pay no less than the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for all work performed including overtime, double time, and regular pay. Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees would work on these jobs; however, Defendants failed to pay them the prevailing wage and would instead paid them their regular wages at a rate

1 less than the prevailing rate.

2 23. Defendant's foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures violated Labor Code
3 sections 1771, 1774, and 1194. Defendants owe wages at the proper prevailing wage rates to 4 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees
5 who worked on prevailing wage jobs and were paid less than the prevailing wage.

6 24. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that
7 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other
8 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 9 shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

10 25. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 11 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 12 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 13 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 16 at §11; Brinker
14 Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an 15 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
16 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh
17 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
18 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 19 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being 20 relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

21 26. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 22 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay
23 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code
24 section 226.7; Wage Order 16 at §11.

25 27. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 26 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-27 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 28 limited to:

1 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 2 hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes
3 for every five hours worked;

4 (b) Automatically deducting thirty (30) minutes from Plaintiff and other current and
5 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' daily hours worked and
6 attributing that time to a meal break despite that Defendant consistently failed to provide duty-free
7 meal breaks; and

8 (c) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 9 hourly non-exempt employees a second uninterrupted duty-free meal period of no less than thirty 10 (30) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and similarly situated employees work shifts over ten 11 (10) hours.

12 28. , Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of 13 failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 14 non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that
15 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees
16 did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 17 226.7.

18 29. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
19 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 20 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them
21 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

22 30. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 23 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other
24 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 25 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

26 31. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest
27 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor
28 Code section 226.7; Wage Order 16 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes’ rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 16 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period. Wage Order 16 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

32. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 16 at § 12.

33. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Failing to provide Plaintiffs and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof.

34. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

35. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods in compliance with California law.

1 36. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 2 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 3 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at 4 the obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing
5 the ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, §
6 2802.)

7 37. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify
8 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees’
9 necessary expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants 10 employed a policy, practice, and procedure requiring Plaintiff and other current and former 11 aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees to use or purchase their own tools
12 and/or resources in order to work for Defendants, including but not limited to their mileage 13 reimbursement for use of their personal vehicles, tools, and/or cell phone (including both 14 telephone use and cellular data use) for work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and 15 other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees for such use.

16 38. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff 17 and aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related 18 expenses. This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such 19 indemnification in compliance with California law.

20 39. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 21 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal 22 cell phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

23 40. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 24 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 25 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages 26 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 27 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, 28 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following

1 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 2 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 3 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

4 41. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed
5 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-6 exempt employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, prevailing wages,
7 meal period premium wages and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code
8 section 204. Defendants' aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their 9 failure to pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-10 exempt employees' their earned wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code 11 section 204.

12 42. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 13 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 14 employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an 15 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 16 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 17 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 18 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable 19 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all 20 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 21 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 22 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 23 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 24 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

25 43. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff
26 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 27 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, prevailing wages, meal period premium 28 wages and/or rest period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226.

44. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

45. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, prevailing wages, meal period premium wages and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

46. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

47. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code section 2699.3. On May 31, 2023, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations alleged.

48. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

49. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510,

512, 1194, 1197, 1771, 1774, 1720, 2802, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following amounts:

a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, 512, 1771, 1774, 1720, and 2802; one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 558].

d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194 and 1197, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1].

50. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations

1 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the 2 California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2699(f);

3 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable
4 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and

5 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 6 appropriate
