Defendants.

CASE NO. 23STCV19118

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND RESTITUTION:

1. Failure to Provide Required Rest Breaks, California Labor Code § 226.7;
2. Failure to Provide Meal Periods, California Labor Code § 226.7;
3. Failure to Pay Minimum Wages, California Labor Code §§1194, 1197 and 1197.1;
4. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages, California Labor Code §§510 and 1194;
5. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statement to Employees, California Labor Code §226 (a) and §226(e)(2)(B);
6. Failure to Pay Unpaid Wages Upon Termination, California Labor Code §203;
7. Failure to Indemnify Employees, California Labor Code §2802;
8. PAGA, Labor Code §2699
9. Unlawful Business Practices Under Business and Professions Code §17200.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff, Shanese Perea, on behalf of herself and all other current and former
2 employees similarly situated, complains of Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

4 1. This is a Class Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §382, on behalf
5 of Plaintiff and all individuals who hold or held the positions of non-exempt "employees," 6 who are or were employed by, VENTURA TRANSFER COMPANY (herein referred to 7 as "VTC") and/or RANDALL CLIFFORD, GREG CLIFFORD, and STEVEN
8 CLIFFORD, individuals (collectively referred to as "DEFENDANTS") within the State
9 of California.

12 2. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action continuing to the 13 present, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay overtime wages for hours
14 worked in excess of eight; failing to pay minimum wages; failing to provide required meal 15 and rest periods; failing to provide an accurate itemized statement in writing to their
16 employees showing gross wages earned, total hours worked, and all deductions; and failure
17 to indemnify employees for their expenses- the cost of COVID-19 tests; engaging in unfair
18 business practices; and failing to pay unpaid wages to employees upon their termination.
20

21 3. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all Class Members, brings this action
22 pursuant to Labor Code §§201, 202, 203, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 23 1199, 2699, and 2802, seeking minimum wage, overtime, rest and meal period, and 24 expense reimbursement compensation, penalties, injunctive and other equitable relief, and 25 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
26
27
28

1 4. Plaintiffs were, at all times relevant herein, employees of Defendants, and
2 bring this action as a Class Action on behalf of themselves and others similarly situated.

4 5. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and all Class Members, pursuant to 5 Business & Professions Code §§17200 – 17203, also seek injunctive relief, restitution and
6 disgorgement of all benefits Defendants enjoyed from their failure to pay proper
7 compensation.

9 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10 6. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to 11 Code of Civil Procedure § 395. The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on 12 Plaintiffs and those similarly situated within the State of California.

13
14 7. This Court is the proper Court, and this action is properly filed in the Superior
15 Court of the State of California, County of Los Angeles, because Defendants' obligations
16 and liability arise in the County of Los Angeles, because Defendants maintain offices and 17 transact business in the County of Los Angeles, and because the work, which is the subject
18 of this action, was performed by Plaintiffs in the County of Los Angeles.

19
20 PARTIES

21
22 Plaintiffs

23 8. Shanese Perea (herein "PEREA") is a resident of the County of Los 24 Angeles.

25
26 Defendants

1 9. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that Defendant VENTURA TRANSFER
2 COMPANY, ("VTC"), at all relevant times hereto, was and is a California corporation,
3 duly authorized to do business in the State of California with its principal place of 4 business located at 2418 East 223rd Street, Long Beach, CA 90810 in Los Angeles
5 County. At all relevant times hereto, VTC was, and now is, doing business and
6 employing individuals in the County of Los Angeles, State of California. All of the 7 contracts, events, incidents and transactions that took place between Plaintiffs and VTC
8 that are the subject of this action were entered into or occurred in Los Angeles County,
9 California.

11 10. Defendant RANDALL CLIFFORD ("RANDALL") is an individual, who is 12 the Chief Executive Officer, Chairman, of the Board, Secretary, Chief Financial Officer, 13 and a Director of VTC, and is a managing agent of VTC, and therefore his acts or 14 omissions are imputed to him under the A Fair Day's Pay Act. Plaintiffs are informed and 15 believe that at all relevant times hereto, RANDALL was, and now is, doing business and 16 employing individuals in the County of Los Angeles, State of California. All of the 17 contracts, events, incidents and transactions that took place between Plaintiffs and 18 RANDALL that are the subject of this action were entered into or occurred in Los 19 Angeles County, California.
20

21 11. Defendant GREG CLIFFORD ("GREG") is an individual, who is a
22 Director of VTC, serves as Vice-President of Sales, and is a managing agent of VTC, and 23 therefore his acts or omissions are imputed to him under the A Fair Day's Pay Act.
24 Plaintiffs are informed and believe that at all relevant times hereto, GREG was, and now
26
27
28

1 is, doing business and employing individuals in the County of Los Angeles, State of 2 California. All of the contracts, events, incidents and transactions that took place between 3 Plaintiffs and GREG that are the subject of this action were entered into or occurred in 4 Los Angeles County, California.

6 12. Defendant STEVEN CLIFFORD ("STEVEN") is an individual, who is a
7 Director of VTC, and is a managing agent of VTC, and therefore his acts or omissions are 8 imputed to him under the A Fair Day's Pay Act. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that 9 at all relevant times hereto, STEVEN was, and now is, doing business and employing 10 individuals in the County of Los Angeles, State of California. All of the contracts, events, 11 incidents and transactions that took place between Plaintiffs and STEVEN that are the 12 subject of this action were entered into or occurred in Los Angeles County, California.

14 13. The A Fair Day's Pay Act amends the Labor Code and adds section 588.1, 15 which expressly defines "employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer" to 16 include a "natural person who is an owner, director, officer, or managing agent of the 17 employer." As a result, an employee is allowed to bring wage and hour claims against the 18 corporate owners, directors, officers, or managing agents (e.g., department supervisors, 19 payroll managers, human resources managers, other employees with the authority to 20 transact on behalf of the business) who violate or cause to be violated various wage and 21 hour laws in the Labor Code and name them as individual defendants in a lawsuit. As a
22 result, individual corporate defendants are no longer immunized from personal liability
23 for wage and hour violations.
25
26
27
28

14. The true names and capacities of the Defendants named herein as DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise are unknown to Plaintiffs who therefore sue such Defendants by fictitious names pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §474. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that all of the DOE Defendants are California residents. At all relevant times, DOES 1 through 50 were acting within the course and cope of their employment and agency with RANDALL, GREG, STEVEN, and/or with VTC. Plaintiffs will amend this Complaint to show such true names and capacities when they have been determined. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereby allege that each DOE Defendant herein is in some manner responsible for the injuries and damages herein. All references to "Defendants" herein include the named Defendants RANDALL, GREG, STEVEN, VTC and DOE defendants 1 through 50.

15. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that RANDALL, GREG, STEVEN and DOES 1-50, at all relevant times herein, have been employees of, a manager of, and supervisors with VTC, and have had day to day oversight, control and management of VTC's business and operations. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that RANDALL, GREG, STEVEN, and DOES 1-50 exercised frequent and consistent authority over Plaintiffs in their day-to-day performance of their job function.

16. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that, at all relevant times, RANDALL, GREG, STEVEN, and DOES 1-50 have acted on or have overseen administrative functions of Defendants, including wages, hours and working conditions, including

1 payroll and employment policies, and that Defendants have maintained certain books and
2 records under their direction.

3 17. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that, at all relevant times, RANDALL,
4 GREG, STEVEN, and DOES 1-50 engaged in the acts alleged herein, and/or condoned,
5 permitted, authorized, and/or ratified the conduct of their employees and agents, and 6 other Defendants, and are vicariously or strictly liable for the wrongful conduct of their 7 employees and agents as alleged herein.

9 18. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that, at all relevant times, RANDALL,
10 GREG, STEVEN, and DOES 1-50 were employers and have caused the provisions of the 11 Labor Code regulating hours and days of work in the Wage Orders to be violated under 12 Labor Code §558(a).

14 19. At all relevant times hereto, Plaintiffs were non-exempt employee of 15 Defendants and were directly supervised by RANDALL, GREG, STEVEN, and DOES 1-16 50, and each of them.

18 Alter Ego

19 20. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants 20 RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN are the owners of Defendant VTC. There exists and,
21 at all times mentioned has existed a unity of interest and ownership between Defendants
22 RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN, on the one hand, and Defendant VTC, on the other
23 hand, such that any individuality and separateness among these Defendants and 24 individuals, and each of them, have ceased, and that VTC is the alter ego of Defendants
25 RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN.
26
27
28

21. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege that:

A. Defendants RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN have completely controlled dominated, managed and operated Defendant VTC, for their sole and exclusive benefit;

B. Defendants RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN were the equitable owners and persons in charge of Defendant VTC;

C. Defendants RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN commingled the assets of the company with their assets to suit their needs and convenience. In this regard, on information and belief – Plaintiffs allege that the income from the monthly railcar storage would not go to VTC, but rather directly to Defendants RANDALL, GREG and STEVEN, for their own personal expenditures;

D. Defendants RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN have failed to maintain the proper degree of separateness with Defendant VTC and have failed to observe corporate formalities to maintain a legal and separate corporate existence. The activities of Defendant VTC have been carried out without the holding of corporate formalities, meetings, and proper records or minutes of company proceedings have not been maintained.

E. Defendants RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN at all times herein mentioned, have controlled and operated Defendant VTC and other companies, devised to avoid individual agency and respondent superior liability and for the purpose of substituting a financially insolvent company and/or company with

1 limited financial resources, in the place of Defendants RANDALL, GREG, and 2 STEVEN.

3 F. The Clifford family Defendants would hold weekly meetings where 4 only Clifford Family members could attend.

6 G. On information and belief, Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants
7 RANDALL, GREG and STEVEN are brothers and corporate directors and owners
8 of VTC. They would formulate corporate policies regarding employees' wages,
9 hours and working conditions.

10
11 H. Defendants RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN have so inadequately
12 capitalized Defendant VTC, compared with the business to be done by this 13 company and the risks of loss attendant thereto, that their capitalization is trifling
14 and/or illusory. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that 15 Defendants RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN have committed additional acts
16 and omissions sufficient to impose alter ego liability of which Plaintiffs are 17 presently unaware. Additional acts and omissions on the part of Defendants
18 RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN consistent with those factors listed in 19 Associated Vendors Inc. v. Oakland Meat Co. (1962) 210 Cal. App. 2d 825, 838-
20 840, and subsequent cases, will be developed during discovery of this litigation.

21
23 I. An inequitable result will ensue if the corporate veil is not pierced,
24 including, but not limited to, Plaintiffs' inability to recover damages for violations
25 of California law. As such, adherence to the fiction of the separate existence of 26 Defendant VTC, as an entity distinct from Defendants RANDALL, GREG, and 27

STEVEN would permit an abuse of the corporate privilege, sanction fraud and promote injustice and insulate them from liability to Plaintiff's for violations of the California Labor Code. Defendant VTC, a California Corporation, has insufficient assets to respond to the ultimate award of general damages, special damages, punitive damages, attorneys' fees, costs, and interest in this action.

22. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on such grounds allege that at all times herein mentioned Defendants and each of them were, and are doing business throughout California and in the County of Los Angeles, and are "persons" as defined in California Labor Code §18. In addition, Defendants are each considered to be an "employer" as that term is used in the California Labor Code, and the applicable California Industrial Welfare Commission's Order ("Wage Order") regulating wages, hours and working conditions.

Factual Background

23. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present, Plaintiff and the Class have not been provided 30-minute uninterrupted meal periods no later than the fifth hour of their shifts for workdays in excess of five (5) hours and were not compensated one hour wages in lieu thereof.

24. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present, Plaintiff and the Class have not been provided 10-minute rest periods for work periods in excess of four (4) hours and were not compensated one hour wages in lieu thereof, as required by California State wage and hour laws.

25. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay employees for all hours worked, and failing to pay minimum wages for all time as required by California Law. Specifically, Plaintiffs worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day, 40 hours in one workweek, and/or on a seventh consecutive workday. Plaintiffs regularly worked 12 hours or more per day 5 days per week. However, Plaintiffs were not paid overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 8 hours a day, 40 hours in one workweek, and/or on a seventh consecutive day, causing Plaintiffs to be paid less than legal minimum and overtime wage rates for all hours worked.

26. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present, Plaintiff and the Class have not been provided with an accurate itemized statement in writing showing gross wages earned, total hours worked, and all deductions.

27. Defendants willfully failed to provide all wages to Plaintiff and the Class at the resignation/termination of their employment with Defendants, within the applicable limitations period.

28. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary expenditures in the performance of their job duties for Defendants-namely the COVID-19 tests.

29. Plaintiff and the Class are, and at all times pertinent hereto, have been non-exempt employees within the meaning of the California Labor Code, and the implementing rules and regulations of the IWC California Wage Orders.

30. Plaintiff and the Class are covered by California Industrial Welfare Commission Occupational Wage Order No. 9-2001, California Industrial Welfare Commission Order No. 4.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

31. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated as a Class Action pursuant to §382 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff seeks to represent one Class defined as follows:

All persons who are employees employed or have been employed, as non-exempt "employees" by VTC at its locations in the State of California, including but not limited to, the County of Los Angeles, since four (4) years prior to the filing of this action.

32. Further, Plaintiff seeks to represent the following Subclasses composed of and defined as follows:

A. Subclass 1. Meal Period Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to provide unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal periods no later than the fifth hour of their shift for every five hours worked or one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

1 B. Subclass 2. Rest Break Subclass. All Class members who were subject to
2 Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Employees to take
3 uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major
4 fraction thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay
5 in lieu thereof.

7 C. Subclass 3. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class members who were not 8 compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.

10 D. Subclass 4. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class members who were not 11 compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for 12 all hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.
13

14 E. Subclass 5. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class members who, within the 15 applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.
16

17 F. Subclass 6. Waiting Time Subclass. All Class members who, within the 18 applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their 19 employment and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay
20 all wages due upon termination.
21

22 G. Subclass 7. Expense Reimbursement Subclass. All Class members who 23 incurred necessary and reasonable expenses in connection with performing their job duties
24 for Defendants and who were subject to a policy and/or practice under which such expenses
25 were not reimbursed.
26
27
28

1 H. Subclass 9. UCL Subclass. All Class members who are owed restitution as 2 a result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are 3 found to be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

5 33. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or 6 modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or 7 limitation to particular issues. To the extent equitable tolling operates to toll claims by the 8 Class against Defendants, the Class Period should be adjusted accordingly.

10 34. Defendants, as a matter of company policy, practice and procedure, and in 11 violation of the applicable Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage
12 Order requirements, and the applicable provisions of California law, intentionally,
13 knowingly, and willfully, engaged in a practice whereby Defendants failed to correctly
14 calculate compensation for the time worked by the Plaintiff and the other members of the 15 Class, even though Defendants enjoyed the benefit of this work, required employees to 16 perform this work and permitted or suffered to permit this work. Defendants have 17 uniformly denied these Class Members wages to which these employees are entitled, and 18 failed to provide meal periods or authorize and permit rest periods, in order to unfairly
19 cheat the competition and unlawfully profit.

21 35. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a Class
22 Action under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure §382 because there is a well-
23 defined community of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily
24 ascertainable.

1 A. Numerosity

2 36. The potential numbers of the Class as defined are so numerous that joinder
3 of all the members of the Class is impracticable. While the precise number of Class
4 Members has not been determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that
5 Defendants currently employ, and during relevant time periods employed, over 100
6 employees.

8 37. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily 9 increases this number substantially. Plaintiff alleges Defendants' employment records
10 would provide information as to the number and location of all Class Members. Joinder of 11 all members of the proposed Class is not practicable.
12

13 B. Commonality

14 38. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class that predominate
15 over any questions affecting only individual Class Members. These common questions of 16 law and fact include, without limitation:
17

18 (a) Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§226.7 and 512, IWC Wage
19 Order 4-2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders and Cal. Code Regs., by failing 20 to provide meal periods before the fifth hour of employment and failing to 21 compensate said employees one (1) hour's wages in lieu of meal periods;
22

23 (b) Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§226.7 and 512, Wage Order 4-24 2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders and Cal. Code Regs., by failing to 25 provide daily rest periods for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked 26
27
28

1 and failing to compensate said employees one (1) hour's wages in lieu of rest
2 periods;

4 (c) Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages as required by the Labor
5 Code and Wage Orders;

7 (d) Whether Defendants failed to pay overtime wages as required by Labor Code
8 §§510, 1194 and Wage Order 4-2001.

10 (e) Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §226 by failing to provide an 11 accurate itemized wage statement;

12
13 (f) Whether Defendants violated §§201-203 of the Labor Code by failing to pay
14 compensation due and owing at the time that any Class Member's employment with 15 Defendants terminated;

17 (g) Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §2802 by failing to reimburse all 18 necessary business expenses Defendants required them to incur in performing their 19 job duties;

20
21 (h) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful;

22
23 (i) Whether Defendants violated §17200, et seq. of the Business & Professions
24 Code by engaging in the acts previously alleged; and

25
26 (j) Whether Plaintiff and the members of the Class are entitled to equitable 27 relief, pursuant to Business & Professions Code §17200, et seq.

1 C. Typicality

2 39. The claims of the named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class.
3 Plaintiff and all members of the Class sustained injuries and damages arising out of and
4 caused by Defendants common course of conduct in violation of laws, and regulations that 5 have the force and effect of law and statutes as alleged herein.

7 D. Adequacy of Representation

8 40. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the 9 members of the Class. Counsel who represents Plaintiffs is competent and experienced in 10 litigating wage and hour class actions.
11

12 E. Superiority of Class Action

13 41. A Class Action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient
14 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable,
15 and questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting 16 only individual members of the Class. Each member of the Class has been damaged and is 17 entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policy and/or practice of denying Class
18 Members proper compensation.
19

20 42. Class Action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate 21 their claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the 22 judicial system. Plaintiffs are unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered
23 in the management of this action that would preclude its maintenance as a Class Action.
24

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE REQUIRED MEAL PERIODS (LABOR CODE §226.7)
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and All Others Similarly Situated Against All Defendants)

43. Plaintiff and the members of the Class incorporate by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

44. Labor Code §226.7(a) provides that “No employer shall require any employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.”

45. Labor Code §512 provides that “An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.”

46. Labor Code §516 provides that the Industrial Welfare Commission may adopt or amend working condition orders with respect to meal periods for workers in California consistent with the health and welfare of those workers.

47. Section 11(A) of the IWC Wage Order(s) provides that “Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30-minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an “on duty” meal period and counted as time worked. An “on duty” meal period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of

1 all duty and when by written agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period
2 is agreed to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, revoke
3 the agreement at any time.”

5 48. Section 11(B) of the IWC Wage Order(s) provides that “If an employer fails
6 to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this
7 order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular
8 rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided.”

10 49. Plaintiff and the members of the Class worked over five (5) hours per day
11 and therefore were entitled to an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30)
12 minutes prior to exceeding five (5) hours of employment.
13

14 50. Plaintiff and the members of the Class did not validly or legally waive their 15 meal periods, by mutual consent with Defendants or otherwise.
16

17 51. Plaintiff and the members of the Class did not enter into any written 18 agreement with Defendants agreeing to an on-the-job paid meal period.
19

20 52. As a matter of Defendants’ established company policy, Defendants failed to 21 comply with the meal period requirements established by Labor Code §226.7, Labor Code
22 §512, Labor Code §516 and Section 11 of the IWC Wage Order(s) by failing to provide 23 Plaintiff and the members of the Class with a legally compliant meal period.
24

25 53. Pursuant to Section 11(B) of the IWC Wage Order(s) and Labor Code
26 §226.7(b) which states “if an employer fails to provide an employee a meal or rest period
27
28

1 in accordance with an applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the employer
2 shall pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 3 compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided," Plaintiffs
4 and the members of the Class are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1)
5 additional hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day
6 that the meal period was not provided, in a sum to be proven at trial.

9 54. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.6 and Civil Code §3287, Plaintiff and the 10 members of the Class seek recovery of pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered
11 herein.
12

13 55. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.5, Plaintiff and the members of the Class
14 request that the Court award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by them in this 15 action.
16

17 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
18 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REQUIRED REST PERIODS
19 (LABOR CODE §226.7)

20 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and All Others Similarly Situated Against All Defendants)

21 56. Plaintiff and the members of the Class incorporate by reference all of the 22 allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set 23 forth herein.

24 57. Labor Code §226.7(a) states: "No employer shall require any employee to 25 work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the Industrial 26 Welfare Commission."
27

1 58. Labor Code §516 provides that the Industrial Welfare Commission may 2 adopt or amend working condition orders with respect to break periods for any workers in
3 California consistent with the health and welfare of those workers.

5 59. Section 12(A) of the IWC Wage Order(s) states: "Every employer shall 6 authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall 7 be in the middle of each work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the 8 total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or 9 major fraction thereof. However, a rest period need not be authorized for employees whose 10 total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours. Authorized rest period
11 time shall be counted as hours worked for which there shall be no deduction from wages."
12

14 60. Section 12(B) of the IWC Wage Order(s) states: "If an employer fails to 15 provide an employee a rest period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this
16 order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular 17 rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided."
18

20 61. Plaintiff and the members of the Class consistently worked over four (4)
21 hours per day and therefore were entitled to a rest period of not less than ten (10) minutes
22 prior to exceeding four (4) hours of employment.
23

24 62. As a matter of Defendants' established company policy, Defendants failed to
25 authorize and permit the required rest periods established by Labor Code §226.7 and Labor
26 Code §516 and Section 12 of the IWC Wage Order(s).
27
28

63. Pursuant to Section 12 of the IWC Wage Order(s) and Labor Code §226.7(b) which states “if an employer fails to provide an employee a meal or rest period in accordance with an applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the employer shall pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided,” Plaintiff and the members of the Class are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) additional hour of pay at each employee’s regular rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period was not so provided.

64. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.6 and Civil Code §3287, Plaintiff and the members of the Class seek recovery of pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered herein.

65. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.5, Plaintiff and the members of the Class request that the Court award reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs incurred by them in this action.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM HOURLY WAGES (LABOR CODE §1197)
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and All Others Similarly Situated Against All Defendants)

66. Plaintiff and the members of the Class incorporate by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

1 67. Pursuant to Labor Code §1197, payment of less than the minimum wage
2 fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

4 68. The IWC Wage Orders §4 (A) state: "Every employer shall pay to each
5 employee wages ... not less than twelve dollars per hour ($12.00) for all hours worked,
6 effective January 1, 2019, and not less than thirteen dollars ($13.00) per hour for all hours
7 worked, effective January 1, 2020, and not less than Fourteen dollars ($14.00) per hour for 8 all hours worked, effective January 1, 2021, and not less than fifteen dollars ($15.00) per 9 hour for all hours worked, effective January 1, 2022, and not less than fifteen dollars and 10 fifty cents ($15.50) per hour for all hours worked, effective January 1, 2023."

12
13 69. Defendants required the Plaintiff and members of the Class to remain under 14 Defendants' control without paying therefore, which resulted in their earning less than the 15 legal minimum wage in the State of California.

17 70. Defendants' pattern and practice in uniform administration of corporate 18 policy regarding Defendants' failure to pay the legal minimum wage to Plaintiff and the 19 members of the Class as described herein is unlawful and creates entitlement, pursuant to 20 Labor Code §1194(a), to recovery by Plaintiff and the members of the Class, in a civil 21 action, for the unpaid balance of the full amount of the unpaid minimum wages owed,
22 calculated as the difference between the straight time compensation paid and the applicable
23 minimum wage, including interest thereon.
25
26
27
28

77. Section 2(G) of the Wage Order defines “hours worked” as “the time during which an employee is subject to the control of the employer, [which] includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.”

79. Labor Code §§510 and 1194, and Section 3 of the Wage Order, also require employers to pay overtime wages to their non-exempt employees at no less than two times their regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve hours in one workday, and for all hours worked in excess of eight hours on a seventh consecutive workday.

81. Pursuant to Labor Code §1194, Plaintiff and members of the Class seek recovery of all unpaid overtime wages, interest thereon, costs of suit, and reasonable attorneys' fees, all in amounts subject to proof.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY FURNISH ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE
STATEMENTS (LABOR CODE §226)
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and All Others Similarly Situated Against All Defendants)

81. Plaintiff and the members of the Class incorporate by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

82. Labor Code §226(a) states in pertinent part: "Every employer shall, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately when wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee... (4) all deductions... (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid... (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during each pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee....".

83. Further, the IWC Wage Orders §7(A) states in pertinent part: "(A) Every employer shall keep accurate information with respect to each employee including the following: (3) Time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods, split shift intervals, and total daily hours worked shall also be recorded...(5) Total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay...."

1 84. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code §226(a) and the IWC Wage Orders §7(A),
2 California employers are required to maintain accurate records pertaining to the total hours
3 worked for Defendants by Plaintiff and the members of the Class, including but not limited
4 to, beginning and ending of each work period, meal period and split shift interval, the total
5 daily hours worked, and the total hours worked per pay period and applicable rates of pay.

7 85. As a pattern and practice, in violation of Labor Code §226(a) and the IWC
8 Wage Orders §7(A), Defendants did not and still do not furnish each Plaintiff and the 9 members of the Class with an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross
10 wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) all deductions, (4) net wages
11 earned and/or (5) all applicable hourly rates in effect during each respective pay period and 12 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by each respective 13 individual.
14

15 86. As a pattern and practice, in violation of Labor Code §226(a) and the IWC
16 Wage Orders §7(A), Defendants did not and do not maintain accurate records pertaining 17 to the total hours worked for Defendants by Plaintiff and the members of the Class,
18 including but not limited to, beginning and ending of each work period, meal period and
19 split shift interval, the total daily hours worked, and the total hours worked per pay period
20 and applicable rates of pay.
21

22 87. Plaintiff and the members of the Class have suffered injury as a result of 23 Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records for Plaintiff and the members of the Class
24 in that they were not timely provided written accurate itemized statements showing all
25 in that they were not timely provided written accurate itemized statements showing all
26 in that they were not timely provided written accurate itemized statements showing all
27 in that they were not timely provided written accurate itemized statements showing all
28

1 requisite information, including but not limited to total hours worked by the employee, net
2 wages earned and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 3 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate, in violation of Labor Code
4 §226 and the IWC Wage Orders §7(A), such that Plaintiff and the members of the Class
5 were misled by Defendants as to the correct information regarding various items, including
6 but not limited to total hours worked by the employee, net wages earned and all applicable
7 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked 8 at each hourly rate.

11 87. Pursuant to Labor Code §226(e), Plaintiff and the members of the Class are 12 entitled to fifty dollars ($50.00) per employee for the initial pay period in which a violation
13 hereunder occurs and one hundred dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in a
14 subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars
15 ($4,000.00).

18 88. Pursuant to Labor Code §226(g), the currently-employed members of the 19 Class are entitled to injunctive relief to ensure Defendants' compliance with Labor Code
20 §226.
21

22 89. Pursuant to Labor Code §226(e) and/or §226(g), Plaintiff and the members
23 of the Class are also entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.
24

25 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
26 FOR FAILURE TO PAY UNPAID WAGES UPON TERMINATION IN 27 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE §203
28 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and All Others Similarly Situated Against All Defendants)

90. Plaintiff and the members of the Class incorporate by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

91. Labor Code §203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code §§201, 201.5, 202 and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue at the same rate, for up to thirty (30) days from the due date thereof, until paid or until an action therefore is commenced.

92. Defendants had a consistent and uniform policy, practice and procedure of willfully failing to pay the earned wages of Defendants' former employees, according to amendment or proof.

93. Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and the members of the Class their entire wages due and owing at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, and failed to pay those sums for thirty (30) days thereafter.

94. Defendants' willful failure to pay wages to Plaintiff and the members of the Class violates Labor Code §203 because Defendants knew or should have known wages were due to the members of the Class, but Defendants failed to pay them.

95. Thus, Plaintiff and the members of the Class are entitled to recovery pursuant to Labor Code §203, in the amount of each Class members' daily wage multiplied by thirty (30) days.

1 96. Pursuant to Civil Code §3287, Plaintiff and the members of the Class seek
2 recovery of pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered herein.

4 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
5 FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY EMPLOYEES IN VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA
6 LABOR CODE §2802
7 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and All Others Similarly Situated Against All Defendants)

8 97. Plaintiff and the members of the Class incorporate by reference all of the 9 allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this complaint as though fully set forth
10 herein.

11 98. Under Labor Code §2802(a) an employer must indemnify its employees for 12 all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the 13 discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.
14

15 99. Employees incurred necessary expenditures in the performance of their job
16 duties for Defendants, namely the cost of COVID-19 tests incurred in performing their 17 daily job duties, as addressed above. From three (3) years prior to the original filing of this
18 lawsuit and continuing to the present, Defendants consistently failed to reimburse
19 Employees for these necessarily incurred business expenses.
20

22 100. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Employees have been 23 deprived of reimbursement in amounts to be determined at trial; they are entitled to 24 recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
CIVIL PENALTIES (LABOR CODE §§2699, et seq.)
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and All Others Similarly Situated Against All Defendants)

101. Plaintiff and the members of the Class incorporate by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint, as though fully set forth herein.

102. At all times mentioned, the California Labor Code §2698, et seq., was applicable to Plaintiff and the members of the Class and their employment by Defendants.

103. At all times mentioned, California Labor Code §2698, et seq., “The Labor Code Private Attorney General Act” (hereinafter “PAGA”) provides that for any provision of law under the Labor Code that provides for a Civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency for violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code §2699.3.

104. Pursuant to Labor Code §2699.3, an aggrieved employee, may commence a civil action arising under Labor Code §2699 after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice (hereinafter “Notice”) by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter “Agency”) and by certified mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violation.

b. A notice filed with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and any employer response to that notice shall be accompanied by a filing fee of seventy-five dollars ($75).

c. The Agency shall notify the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Notice. Upon receipt of the Notice or if no Notice is provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Notice, the aggrieved employee may amend an existing complaint within sixty days of receiving the Notice that the Agency does not intend to investigate the alleged violation, to add a cause of action pursuant to Labor Code §2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties that the employee may be entitled to.

d. When filing a new PAGA lawsuit in court, a filed-stamped copy of the complaint must be provided to LWDA.

105. Plaintiffs have satisfied the jurisdictional prerequisites to the maintenance of this Cause of Action as more fully set out in Labor Code §2699.3 in that on May 30, 2023 Plaintiff and all members of the class gave notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 226.8, 256, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1198 and 2802, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violation, and Plaintiffs' intent to recover penalties based on the violations set forth herein. This same notice was served upon the LWDA online and to Defendants by certified mail on or about May 30, 2023. See Exhibit No.1, May 30, 2019 Notice to the LWDA and the Defendants. Plaintiffs therefore satisfied the requirements of Labor Code §2699 and may recover civil penalties, in addition to other remedies for violations of California Labor Code §§201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 226.8, 256, 510, 512, 558, 1174.5, 1197, 1198, and 2802.

106. Plaintiffs therefore satisfied the requirements of Labor Code §2699 and may recover civil penalties, in addition to other remedies for violations of California Labor Code §§201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 226.8, 256, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1198, and 2802.

107. As set forth more fully above, Defendants violated §§201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 226.8, 256, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1198, and 2802.

108. Plaintiff and all other similarly situated current and former non-exempt employees, seek relief against them under Labor Code §558.

109. Pursuant to Labor Code §2699(f) and (g), Plaintiff, and all other current and former non-exempt employees similarly situated, are entitled to recover civil penalties in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay

1 period for each subsequent violation, plus costs and attorney's fees, for violations of Labor
2 Code §§201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 226.8, 256, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194,
3 1197, 1198, and 2802.

5 110. Defendant RANDALL, who is the CEO, Chairman of the Board, Corporate
6 Secretary, Chief Financial Officer, and Director of VTC; Defendant GREG, who is a
7 Director and Vice President of Sales of Defendant VTC; and Defendant STEVEN who is
8 Director of VTC, are each Managing Agents of Defendant VTC, each attended weekly
9 "CLIFFORD family meetings"; and each of them formulated corporate policies for 10 Defendant VTC's employees regarding wages, hours, and working conditions. Therefore,
11 the individual Defendants, RANDALL, GREG, and STEVEN, are "other persons" within 12 the meaning of Labor Code §558, because they were personally responsible for the Labor
13 Code Violations described in the First through Eighth Causes of Actions, which they 14 condoned and ratified.
15
16
17

18 111. As set forth more fully above, Defendants VTC and RANDALL, GREG 19 and STEVEN violated Labor Code §§201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512,
20 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1198, and 2802.
21

22 112. Plaintiff and all other similarly situated current and former non-exempt
23 employees, seek relief against them under Labor Code §558.
24

25 113. Pursuant to Labor Code §2699(f) and (g), Plaintiff Shanese Perea, and all
26 other current and former non-exempt employees similarly situated, are entitled to recover
27
28

1 118. Defendants have engaged in unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business acts or
2 practices prohibited by Business & Professions Code §17200, including those set forth in
3 the preceding paragraphs of the complaint, thereby depriving Plaintiff and all the members
4 of the Class of the minimum working standards and conditions due to them under the Labor
5 Code and/or the IWC Wage Orders, as specifically described herein.

7 119. Defendants have engaged in unfair business practices in California by 8 practicing, employing and utilizing the employment practices outlined in the preceding 9 paragraphs, specifically, by requiring employees to perform the labor services complained
10 of herein without the requisite compensation.
11

12 120. Defendants' use of such practices constitutes an unfair business practice,
13 unfair competition and provides an unfair advantage over Defendants' competitors.
14

15 121. Plaintiff and the members of the Class have suffered injury in fact and have 16 lost money or property as a result of such unfair competition.
17

18 122. Plaintiff and the members of the Class seek full restitution from Defendants, 19 as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired and/or 20 converted by Defendants by means of the unfair practices complained of herein.
21

22 123. Further, if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth above,
23 Defendants will continue to practice, employ and utilize the employment practices outlined 24 in the preceding paragraphs.
25
26
27
28

124. Therefore, Plaintiff and the members of the Class request that the Court issue a preliminary and permanent injunction prohibiting Defendants from engaging in the above conduct.

125. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the members of the Class, seek the appointment of a receiver, as necessary, to establish the total monetary relief sought from Defendants.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Members of the Class pray for the following relief.

18 and 2802.

19
20 9. As to the Ninth Cause of Action for Unlawful Business Practices from at 21 least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present, as may be proven:

23 a. For an accounting, under administration of Plaintiff and/or the receiver and 24 subject to Court review, to determine the amount to be returned by 25 Defendants, and the amounts to be refunded to members of the Class who 26 are owed monies by Defendants;

- b. For an Order requiring Defendants to identify each of the members of the Class by name, home address, and home telephone number;
- c. For an Order requiring Defendants to make full restitution and payment pursuant to California law;
- d. For an Order for a preliminary and/or permanent injunction prohibiting Defendants from engaging in the acts complained of herein;
- e. For the creation of an administrative process wherein each injured member of the Class may submit a claim in order to receive his/her money;
- f. For all other appropriate injunctive, declaratory and equitable relief;
- g. For interest to the extent permitted by law;
10. As to All Causes of Action:
- a. An award providing for payment of costs of suit;

RE: Shanese Perea / Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford and any and all related entities or parties which are the alter egos of these parties

Dear Sir or Madam:

Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 2998, et seq., of the Private Attorneys General Act, Shanese Perea (herein "Perea") provides notice on behalf of herself and other current and former California employees (herein "aggrieved employees") with employer, Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford and any and all related entities or parties which are the alter egos of these parties (hereinafter "employers"), of violations of Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1198, and 2802, and any other applicable sections affording the types of penalties described.

As set forth below, Perea alleges that Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford, and their agents, have violated the above sections of the Labor Code by failing to provide her and other aggrieved employees with accurate wage statements; failing to pay her and other aggrieved employees overtime wages for all hours worked, by failing to provide her and other aggrieved employees with meal and rest periods, or pay them premium wages in lieu thereof, failing to keep records, and failing to reimburse them for business expenses, failing to timely pay them earned wages, failing to timely pay them earned wages, and failing to timely pay them earned wages upon termination.

Based on these alleged violations of the Labor Code, Perea intends to seek penalties in the amounts set forth below, if the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") declines to investigate these allegations.

Relevant Facts

Shanese Perea was hired by Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford, in or about 2010. She stopped working for the above mentioned employers in or about June, 2022. Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford, and their agents, have violated the above sections of the Labor Code by failing to provide her and other aggrieved employees with accurate wage statements; failing to pay her and other aggrieved employees overtime wages for all hours worked, by failing to provide her and other aggrieved employees with meal and rest periods, or pay them premium wages in lieu thereof, failing to keep records, and failing to reimburse them for business expenses, failing to timely pay them earned wages, failing to timely pay them earned wages, and failing to timely pay them earned wages upon termination, among other violations.

BACKGROUND

Perea has been subject to one or more of the alleged violations during her employment within the one-year period before the mailing of this notice.

Perea is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, employers have been the agents, employees, representatives, servants, masters, employers, or alter egos of each other, and in doing the things herein alleged, were acting within the course and scope of such agency or employment, and with the approval and ratification of each of these other employers.

Perea is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, each and every one of the acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by, and/or attributable to, all employers mentioned herein, each acting as agents and/or employees, and/or under the direction and control of each of the other employers, and that said acts and failures were within the course and scope of said agency, employment, and/or direction or control.

At all relevant times, Perea and aggrieved employees have been both "employees" within the meaning of Section 2(F) of the Wage Order and "aggrieved employees" within the meaning of Labor Code §2699(c). At all relevant times, Perea and aggrieved employees have been non-exempt employees of employers, and are entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the Wage Order.

At all relevant times, employers have failed to keep legally required records concerning Perea and aggrieved employees, including, but not limited to, accurate records of their hours worked.

Failures to Provide Accurate Wage Statements
(Labor Code § 226(a))

Labor Code § 226 (a) states:

Every employer shall, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately when wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social security number, except that by January 1, 2008, only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security may be shown on the itemized statement, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

At all relevant times, Defendants failed to provide Perea and aggrieved employees with accurate itemized wage statements in writing as required under Labor Code 226(a). Specifically, the wage statements given to Perea and the aggrieved employees failed to accurately reflect:

1. Their applicable wage rates, and corresponding units worked at each applicable rate, by not paying her premium wages in lieu of meal and rest periods;
2. Their premium wage penalties;
3. Their applicable hours worked at corresponding each wage rate as a result of Defendants' not paying her legal overtime wages for all hours worked; and
4. The amounts of their gross and net wages earned as a result of these failures.

For employers' violations of Labor Code § 226(a), Perea intends to seek civil penalties against them as follows on behalf of herself and aggrieved employees in the amount of $250 per employee per violation if a civil action results in an initial citation or its functional equivalent, and $1,000 per employee per violation if a civil action results in a subsequent citation or its functional equivalent (penalties established by Labor Code § 226.3).

Failures to Provide Meal and Rest Periods
(Labor Code §§226.7, 512 and 1198)

Labor Code §512(a) states:

An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee. An employer may not employ an employee for a period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

In relevant part, Labor Code §1198 states:

The employment of any employee... under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.

In relevant part, Section 11 of Wage Order 9 states:

- (A) No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day's work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30-minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. An "on duty" meal period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.
- (B) If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal period is not provided.

In relevant part, Section 12 of Wage Order 9 states:

- (A) Every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours of major fraction thereof. However, a rest period need not be authorized for employees whose total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 1/2) hours. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.
- (B) If an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

Labor Code §226.7 states:

- (a) No employer shall require any employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.
- (b) If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period or rest period in accordance with an applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the employer shall pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided.

At all relevant times, employers have violated, and/or caused to be violated, the above referenced provisions of the Labor Code and the Wage Order by:

1. Failing to maintain practices that ensure that legally mandated meal periods are provided to Perea and aggrieved employees, and that rest periods are affirmatively authorized and permitted for Perea and aggrieved employees. Specifically, Perea and aggrieved employees were required to remain under the Employers' control and work through their rest periods, which they were continuously denied. Perea and aggrieved employees were required to work through their meal periods which they were consistently denied. On shifts over ten hours, second meal periods were not provided;
2. Inducing employees to work "off-the-clock" during their meal periods;
3. Not allowing employees to take their meal period until after the 5th hour of their shift;
4. Interrupting employees during their meal and rest periods and requiring them to return to work before the end of their break;
5. Employers failed to pay Perea and aggrieved employees "premium pay," i.e. one hour of wages at each Employee's effective regular rate of pay, for each meal period that the Employers failed to provide. Employers failed to pay Perea and aggrieved employees "premium pay," i.e. one hour of wages for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not provided.

6. Employing Perea and aggrieved employees, or causing her to be employed, under conditions that violate the Labor Code and the Wage Order; and
7. Underpaying Perea and aggrieved employees, or causing her to be underpaid, in violation of the Labor Code and the Wage Order.

For employers' violations of the above referenced Labor Code sections, Perea intends to seek civil penalties against them on behalf of herself and aggrieved employees as follows:

1. Against any and all employers, including, but not limited to Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For all initial violations of Labor Code §512, $50.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation, in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages and, for all subsequent violations, $100.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation, in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages (penalty amounts established by Labor Code §558);
2. Against any and all employers, including, but not limited to Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For all violations of Labor Code §§226.7 and 1198, $100.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation and, for all subsequent violations, $200.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation (penalty amounts established by Labor Code §2699(f)(2));
3. Against Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford, in addition to any such penalties afforded above: For violations of Labor Code §§226.7 and 1198, a civil penalty of $500.00 (penalty amount established by Labor Code §2699(f)(1)).

Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages
(Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1197 and 1198)

Labor Code §1194(a) states:

Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

In relevant part, Section 4 of Wage Order 9 states:

- (A) Every employer shall pay to each employee wages not less than Twelve dollars ($12.00) per hour for all hours worked, effective January 1, 2019 and not less than thirteen dollars ($13.00) per hour for all hours worked effective January 1, 2020 and not less than fourteen dollars ($14.00) per hour for all hours worked effective January 1, 2021, and not less than fifteen dollars ($15.00) per hour for all hours worked, effective January 1, 2022 and not less than fifteen dollars and fifty cents ($15.50) per hour for all hours worked, effective January 1, 2023.
- (B) Every employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, not less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in the payroll period, whether the remuneration is measured by time, piece, commission, or otherwise.

In relevant part, Section 3 of Wage Order 9 states:

- (A) Daily Overtime – General Provisions
 - (1) The following overtime provisions are applicable to employees 18 years of age or over and to employees 16 or 17 years of age who are not required by law to attend school and are not otherwise prohibited by law from engaging in the subject work. Such employees shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday, or more than 40 hours in any workweek, unless the employee receives one and one-half (1 ½) times such employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 hours in the workweek. Eight (8) hours of labor constitutes a day's work. Employment beyond eight (8) hours in any workday or more than six (6) days in any workweek is permissible provided the employee is compensated for such overtime at not less than:
 - (a) One and one-half (1 ½) times the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours up to and including 12 hours in any workday, and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh (7th) consecutive day of work in a workweek; and

- (b) Double the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 12 hours in any workday and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh (7th) consecutive day of work in a workweek.

In conjunction, these provisions of the Labor Code and the Wage Order require employers to pay their non-exempt employees no less than minimum at all relevant times. Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford and employers have violated, and/or caused to be violated, the above-referenced provisions of the Labor Code and the Wage Order by:

1. Specifically, Perea and aggrieved employees worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day, 40 hours in one workweek, and/or on a seventh consecutive workday. Perea and aggrieved employees regularly worked overtime. However, Perea and aggrieved employees were not paid overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 8 hours a day, 40 hours in one workweek, and/or on a seventh consecutive day.
2. Causing Perea and aggrieved employees to be paid less than legal minimum and overtime wage rates for all hours worked.

For employers' violations of the above-referenced Labor Code sections, Perea intends to seek civil penalties against them as follows on behalf of herself and aggrieved employees:

1. Against any and all employers, including, but not limited to Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For all initial violations of Labor Code § 510, $50.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation, in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages, and for all subsequent violations, $100.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation, in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages (penalty amounts established by Labor Code § 558);
2. Against any and all employers, including, but not limited to Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For each initial violation of Labor Code § 1197 deemed to be intentionally committed, $100.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation, and, for all subsequent violations, $250.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation, regardless of whether the initial violation is deemed to be intentionally committed (penalty amounts established by Labor Code § 1197.1);

Untimely Wage Payments
(Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204 and 256)

In relevant part, Labor Code § 201(a) states:

If an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately.

In relevant part, Labor Code § 203(a) states:

If an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.

In relevant part, Labor Code § 204 states:

(a) All wages, other than those mentioned in Section 201, 201.3, 202, 204.1, or 204.2, earned by any person in any employment are due and payable twice during each calendar month, on days designated in advance by the employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, or any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. However, salaries of executive, administrative, and professional employees of employers covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act, as set forth pursuant to Section 13 (a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act, as amended through March 1, 1969, in Part 541 of Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as that part now reads or may be amended to read at any time hereafter, may be paid once a month on or before the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed if the entire month's salaries, including the unearned portion between the date of payment and the last day of the month, are paid at that time.

(b)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period.

At all relevant times, employers have violated, and/or caused to be violated, the above-referenced provisions of the Labor Code and the Wage Order by willfully not timely paying earned wages to Perea and aggrieved employees as a result of the conduct set forth above. Perea and the aggrieved employees did not receive all the wages that they earned and were owed to them.

For employers' violations of the above-referenced Labor Code sections, Perea intends to seek civil penalties against them as follows on behalf of herself and aggrieved employees:

1. Against any and all employers, including, but not limited to, Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For all initial violations of Labor Code § 201, 203, and 204, $100 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation and, for all subsequent violations, $200.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation (penalty amounts established by Labor Code § 2699(f)(2)); and
2. Against any and all employers, including, but not limited to, Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 203, and 204, a civil penalty of $500.00 (penalty established by Labor Code § 2699(f)(1)).

In relevant part, Labor Code § 210 states:

- (a) In addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 204, 204b, 204.1, 204.2, 204.11, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a penalty as follows:

At all relevant times, employers have violated, and/or caused to be violated, the above-referenced provisions of the Labor Code and the Wage Order by willfully not timely paying earned wages to Perea and aggrieved employees as a result of the conduct set forth above. Perea and the aggrieved employees did not receive all the wages that they earned and were owed to them.

For employer's violations of the above referenced Labor Code sections, Perea intends to seek civil penalties against them as follows on behalf of herself and aggrieved employees:

1. Against any and all employers, including, but not limited to, Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For all initial violations of Labor Code § 210, $100 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation and, for all subsequent violations, $200.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation (penalty amounts established by Labor Code § 2699(f)(2)).

Failure to Keep Records in Accordance with Labor Code 1174, 1174.5
(Labor Code §§1174, 1174.5)

Labor Code § 1174 requires employers to keep records showing payroll data and the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to employees. By failing to pay Perea and aggrieved employees proper wages, overtime, premium pay, etc., all discussed herein, Employers failed to maintain proper employment records pursuant to section 1174.

For employer's violations of the above referenced Labor Code sections, Perea intends to seek civil penalties against them as follows on behalf of herself and aggrieved employees:

1. Against any and all employers including but not limited to Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For violations of Labor Code §§ 1174 a civil penalty of $500.00 (penalty amount established by Labor Code §1174.5).
2. Against any and all employers including but not limited to Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For all initial violations of Labor Code §§ 1174 $100.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation, and for all subsequent violations, $200.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation (penalty amount established by Labor Code §2699(f)(2)).
3. Against Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For violations of Labor Code §§1174, a civil penalty of $500.00 (penalty amount established by Labor Code §2699(f)(1)).

Employers' Failure to Indemnify
(Labor Code §§2802)

In relevant part, Labor Code 2802 (a) states:

An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties...

In the present case, Perea and aggrieved Employees incurred necessary expenditures in the performance of their job duties for Employers including, but not limited to, the cost Covid-19 tests. From three years prior to the original filing of this letter and continuing to the present, Employers consistently failed to reimburse Perea and aggrieved employees for these necessary incurred business expenses. For employer's violations of the above referenced Labor Code sections, Perea intends to seek civil penalties against them on behalf of herself and aggrieved employees as follows:

1. Against any and all employers, including but not limited to Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For all violations of Labor Code §2802, $100.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation and, for all subsequent violations, $200.00 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation (penalty amounts established by Labor Code §2699(f)(2));
2. Against Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford: For violations of Labor Code §2802, a civil penalty of $500.00 (penalty amount established by Labor Code §2699(f)(1)).

Conclusion

As indicated above, this letter constitutes the notice required under Labor Code § 2699.3. Insofar as it is directed toward employers, including, but not limited to Ventura Transfer Company, Randall J. Clifford, Greg Clifford, Steven F. Clifford, and any other applicable entities or parties, please be advised that Perea intend to seek attorneys' fees and costs, in addition to civil penalties, in a civil action should the LWDA decline to investigate this matter.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

ELI M. KANTOR
