Case No.: CIVSB2312233

*[Assigned to the Hon. Christian Towns, Dept.
S26, for all purposes]*

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION
FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS
ACTION SETTLEMENT;
DECLARATIONS IN SUPPORT
THEREOF; AND [PROPOSED] FINAL
ORDER AND JUDGMENT

Hearing:

Date: November 4, 2024

Time: 8:30 a.m.

Dept.: 26

Complaint Filed: May 30, 2023

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on November 4, 2024, at 8:30 a.m., or as soon thereafter
3 as this matter may be heard by the Honorable Christian Towns in Department S26 of the San
4 Bernardino County Superior Court, located at 247 West Third Street, San Bernardino, CA
5 92415, Plaintiffs Victor Medina and Francisco Cruz individually and on behalf of all others
6 similarly situated, will move this Court for an Order granting final approval of the class action
7 settlement between Plaintiffs and Defendant Howard Roofing Company, Inc. (“Defendant” or 8 “Howard Roofing”), which was preliminarily approved by the Court. This Motion seeks final 9 approval and entry of judgment of a $970,000 settlement on behalf of the Class Members, and is 10 unopposed by Defendant.

11 Specifically, Plaintiffs will and hereby do move the Court to grant final approval of the 12 Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims (“Settlement 13 Agreement”), and enter the proposed order and final judgment filed concurrently herewith:

- 14 1. Finally certifying the Class, as defined in the Settlement Agreement and the 15 Court’s Order Granting Preliminary Approval of the Settlement;
- 16 2. Finally appointing Plaintiffs as the Class Representatives for the settlement;
- 17 3. Finally appointing Brian Mankin, Peter Carlson and Torus LLP as Class Counsel 18 for purposes of settlement;
- 19 4. Finding that the Class Notice was properly provided to the Class in accordance 20 with the Court’s Order granting Preliminary Approval;
- 21 5. Finally approving the settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable, based upon the 22 terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement;
- 23 6. Binding participating Class Members to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, 24 including the Release specified therein; and
- 25 7. Retaining jurisdiction to enforce the Settlement Agreement.

26 This Motion is based upon this notice; the attached memorandum of points and 27 authorities; the Declarations of the Settlement Administrator (Mayra Gonzalez of Phoenix 28 Settlement Administrators), Class Counsel (Brian Mankin, Peter Carlson and Daniel Hyun),

1 Plaintiffs (Victor Medina and Francisco Cruz) filed concurrently herewith; the records and files
2 in this action; and any other further evidence or argument that the Court may receive at or before 3 the hearing.

I. SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT AND ESSENTIAL POINTS

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiffs Victor Medina and Francisco Cruz respectfully request that this Court grant final approval of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims (“Settlement Agreement”), and enter the proposed order and final judgment in this matter. This Motion is supported and unopposed by Defendant Howard Roofing Company, Inc. (“Defendant” or “Howard Roofing”).

There are several essential reasons why this settlement should be approved, and judgment entered accordingly, as follows:

- After extensive work, the Parties reached a $970,000 settlement with the assistance of Todd Smith, who is one of the most experienced and reputable class action mediators in California, that is tailored to a limited release of the claims alleged on behalf of 425 Class Members;
- The Class Members were deemed to participate in the Settlement, and were not required to submit a Claim Form to receive funds;
- There is no reversion to Defendant;
- There were zero objections and zero opt-outs to the Settlement, meaning 100% of the Class is currently participating in the Settlement.

In accordance with the analysis and law set forth herein as well the preliminary approval motion, the Settlement should be approved and judgment entered based on the determination that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Class. (Declaration of Class Counsel, Brian J. Mankin; ¶¶ 13, 33 (“Mankin Decl.”).)

II. PERTINENT BACKGROUND AND SETTLEMENT TERMS

Plaintiffs and the Class Members include all current and former non-exempt employees of Defendant, who worked in California at any time during the Class Period of May 30, 2019 to May 4, 2024. The primary claims, which Defendant disputes, involved allegations that the Class Members did not receive all minimum, regular and overtime wages owed, did not receive accurate itemized wage statements, were denied meal and rest breaks, as well as claims for waiting time penalties and PAGA penalties.

The Settlement includes 425 Participating Class Members (which is less than the Parties estimated at Preliminary Approval). The following is a breakdown reflecting how the funds are allocated under the Settlement Agreement (Declaration of Administrator, Mayra Gonzalez (“Gonzalez Decl.”), ¶ 12):

Gross Settlement Amount	$ 970,000.00
Attorneys’ Fees (1/3)	$ 323,333.33
Litigation Costs	$ 21,272.07
Administrator Costs	$ 9,500.00
PAGA Penalties	$ 50,000.00
Class Representative Service Awards	$ 20,000.00
Net Settlement Amount	$ 545,894.60

The Participating Class Members were deemed to participate and did not need to submit a Claim Form to receive payment. (Settlement Agreement or “S.A.” ¶ 27). Each Participating Class Member will receive a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount according to the percentage of Workweeks worked during the Class Period, such that the amount actually distributed to Participating Class Members will equal 100% of the Net Settlement Amount. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 48(c)).

Assuming all of the amounts in the Settlement are approved by the Court, the average Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $1,284.46 and the highest individual settlement payment is approximately $5,859.97 and the lowest payment is approximately $22.37 for a short term employee who worked one week during the Class Period. (Gonzalez Decl. ¶ 13). The Participating Class Members collectively worked 24,407 Workweeks during the Class Period, resulting in a net Workweek value of approximately $22.37.

In addition, 288 Aggrieved Employees, who collectively worked 11,196 Pay Periods during the PAGA Period, will each receive an Individual PAGA Payment based on their share of the $12,500 in PAGA Penalties (25% of the total $50,000 PAGA allocation), calculated pro-rata based on the number of Weeks Worked during the PAGA Period. (S.A. ¶ 48(h)). The average payment to the Aggrieved Employees is $43.40. (Gonzalez Decl. ¶ 14).

1 Ten percent (10%) of each Individual Settlement Amount shall constitute wages (for 2 which each Participating Class Member will be issued an IRS Form W-2 for such payment), and 3 the remaining ninety percent (90%) shall constitute interest and penalties (each for which each
4 participating Class Member will be issued an IRS Form 1099). (S.A. ¶ 48(d)). The Settlement
5 Agreement provides that Defendant shall deposit the Settlement Amount within 20 days after the 6 “Effective Date”, which will be 60 days after Judgment is entered assuming that no appeal is 7 filed. (S.A. ¶¶ 16, 71). Additionally, Defendant will separately fund their share of payroll taxes.
8 Within 10 days of receipt, the Settlement Administrator shall issue payments to cover all court-
9 approved payments. (S.A. ¶ 72).

10 Class Members will have 180 days to cash the settlement check. If a Class Member fails 11 to cash a check by the deadline, the Settlement Administrator shall issue unclaimed funds to the 12 California State Controller in the name of the Class Member. (S.A. ¶ 73).

13 III. THE NOTICE PROCESS

14 A. Notice to the Class Members

15 Pursuant to the Court’s Order and the Settlement Agreement, the Parties directed the 16 Settlement Administrator to review and update the Class Members’ addresses, mail the Court-
17 approved Notice Packet, and process their responses. The Administrator also posted the relevant 18 documents on its website for the Class Members to access.

19 Prior to mailing the Class Notice, the Settlement Administrator performed a National 20 Change of Address search on all Class Members to determine if any had moved. (Gonzalez 21 Decl., ¶ 4). On July 29, 2024, the Class Notice was sent via first-class mail to all 425 Class 22 Members. (Gonzalez Decl., ¶ 5). Initially, 41 Notices were returned as undeliverable, but the 23 Administrator was able to locate updated addresses for 24 Class Members and remail those 24
24 Notices. Ultimately, only 17 Class Notices were determined to be undeliverable, resulting in a 25 96% success rate in mailing the Notice Packet. (Gonzalez Decl., ¶ 6-7).

26 In accordance with California Rules of Court, rules 3.766 (d) and 3.769 (f), the Notice
27 provided Class Members with (1) a brief explanation of the case; (2) an explanation of each 28 Class Member’s right to opt out of the settlement class; (3) an explanation of the process (and

1 relevant deadlines) through which a Class Member could opt out of the settlement class; (4)
2 notice about the binding nature of the Judgment for Class Members who do not opt out; (5) an
3 explanation of each Class Member's right to appear through counsel; (6) an explanation of each
4 Class Member's right to appear at the fairness hearing and express views on the settlement, i.e., 5 object or otherwise respond; and (7) an explanation of each Class Member's right to participate
6 in the Settlement and receive payment accordingly. (See Exhibit A to the Gonzalez Decl.)

7 B. There were Zero Objections and Zero Opt-Outs, Resulting In An Impressive
8 100% of the Class Participating in the Settlement

9 California law makes clear that the percentage of objectors and opt-outs is an important
10 factor in the Court's consideration of a proposed class action settlement. (See Dunk v. Ford 11 Motor Co. (1186) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794 at 1802.) Indeed, the Ninth Circuit and other federal 12 courts recognize that in the final fairness analysis, the number or percentage of class members
13 who object to the settlement is a significant factor. (See Mandujano v. Basic Vegetable Prods., 14 Inc., (9th Cir. 1976) 541 F.2d 672, 677; In re American Bank Note Holographics, Inc. (SDNY
15 2001) 127 F.Supp.2d 418, 425 ["[i]t is well settled that the reaction of the class to the settlement 16 is perhaps the most significant factor to be weighed in considering its adequacy."])

17 In this case, there are zero objections and zero opt-outs to the Settlement, meaning that 18 100% of the Class Members elected to participate in the Settlement. (Gonzalez Decl., ¶ 8-10).

19 V. EVALUATION OF THE SETTLEMENT

20 It is axiomatic that California law strongly favors and encourages settlements. (See 21 Stambaugh v. Super. Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236.) This presumption in favor of 22 settlement applies with particular force in the context of class actions. (See Ferguson v. Lieff, 23 Cabraser, Heimann & Bernstein (2003) 30 Cal.4th 1037 ["[p]ublic policy favoring settlement is 24 especially weighty for class actions"]; Bell v. Am. Title Ins. Co. (1991) 226 Cal.App.3d 1589, 25 1607-1608 [affirming the trial court's approval of a class settlement and implicitly endorsing its 26 citation of federal precedent for the notion that there is a "strong public policy in favor of 27 settlement of class actions"]; see also Franklin v. Kaypro Corp. (9th Cir. 11869) 884 F.2d 1222, 28 1229, quoting Van Bronkhorst v. Safeco Corp. (9th Cir. 1976) 529 F.2d 943, 950 ["it hardly

1 seems necessary to point out that there is an overriding public interest in settling and quieting
2 litigation. This is particularly true in class action suits”].)

3 When entertaining a request for final approval of a class action settlement, a court’s
4 fundamental consideration is whether the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable. (See Dunk,
5 supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801, fn. 7 [noting that state courts look to federal authority concerning
6 the approval of class settlements]; California Rules of Court, rule 3.769(g).)

7 Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length
8 bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act 9 intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; (4) the percentage of objectors and 10 opt outs is small, and (5) the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund to a possible
11 recovery in light of all attendant risks of litigation.” (Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802.) All 12 five of these factors are discussed in detail below.

13 A. The Settlement Was Reached Through Informed Arms-Length Negotiation

14 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement,
15 unless evidence to the contrary is offered. Thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations
16 were conducted in good faith. (See, 3 Alba Conte & Newberg, supra, at § 11.51.) The proposed 17 settlement here was the product of arm’s-length negotiation before a highly experienced and 18 reputable class action mediator to reach a settlement, which was finally consummated in the 19 months after mediation.

20 Here, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have diligently investigated the claims raised in this 21 litigation and, after taking into account the disputed factual and legal issues involved in this 22 action, the risks attending further prosecution, and the benefits to be received pursuant to the 23 compromise and settlement of the action as set forth in the Settlement, concluded that the 24 settlement terms are fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the Class.

25 As the Settlement Agreement itself reveals, there is no preferential treatment for any 26 segment of the class, as the Settlement is designed to compensate all Class Members fairly and 27 adequately. And pursuant to California Rules of Court Rule 3.769(b), the parties have disclosed 28 the agreed upon and proposed attorney fee award, which is well within the range of

1 reasonableness for matters of this nature.

2 B. Plaintiffs' Investigation Was Sufficient

3 As set forth at the time of preliminary approval, Class Counsel's investigation into the 4 facts and merits of the wage and hour claims alleged included substantial written discovery, 5 analyzing substantial amounts of information, correspondence, documents, policies and 6 procedures, pay data and timekeeping records, and evidence relating to the class size and the 7 commonality of the claims. During this process, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel conducted 8 investigations into the potential claims of the similarly situated employees, as well as researching 9 and investigating Defendant's defenses. Finally, Class Counsel synthesized and analyzed
10 information provided by Defendant as to the total Class Members, the number of current and 11 former employees, the number of employees who worked during various time periods, and 12 prepared comprehensive damages calculations regarding the claims at issue.

13 C. Class Counsel Are Experienced in Similar Litigation and Endorse the 14 Settlement

15 Class Counsel are experienced in this type of litigation, and they have represented (and 16 hereby do represent) that this Settlement is fair and reasonable. (Mankin Decl., ¶¶ 13, 33;
17 Carlson Decl., ¶¶ 2-6; see 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85
18 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1152 [Final approval of settlement affirmed where counsel were all 19 experienced litigators with class-action experience and had recommended settlement based on 20 the negotiated terms].)

21 D. Reasonable Estimate of the Nature and Amount of Recovery

22 Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Approval contained a comprehensive Kullar analysis
23 (which sufficiently provided the Court with "basic information about the nature and magnitude 24 of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the consideration being paid for the 25 release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise." (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, 26 Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133.) Of course, a settlement is not judged against what 27 might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to 28 provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba v. Apple Computers,

1 Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 246, 250.) (“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement
2 process ... even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it
3 would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement because 4 the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives 5 ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”)

6 In light of the uncertainties of protracted litigation, this negotiated settlement reflects the 7 best practicable recovery for the Class. While the total settlement amount is, of course, a 8 compromise figure, the potential risks and opportunities of both parties were effectively weighed 9 and considered by the parties, resulting in a fair and equitable settlement. Based upon detailed 10 data obtained through discovery and information exchanges, and factoring in claim certification
11 probabilities and liability probabilities, Class Counsel formulated detailed damages models to 12 evaluate the claims in preparation for mediation and in order to reach a realistic and reasonable 13 resolution.

14 Of course, Defendant denies that any damages should be assessed and denies all of the 15 value assessed by Plaintiffs. Notwithstanding these arguments, the Settlement commits 16 Defendant to pay $970,000 to settle the litigation.

17 VI. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE

18 For their efforts in creating a common fund for the benefit of the Class, the Settlement 19 Agreement provided that Class Counsel may seek reasonable fees of $323,333.33 (one-third of 20 the Settlement Amount). This amount will be paid from the settlement amount, as provided by 21 the Settlement Agreement. These fees are warranted under the law and within the range of fees 22 commonly awarded in similar cases.

23 As shown herein, the requested percentage of one-third of the settlement fund as payment
24 for attorneys’ fees should be granted for several reasons, including one-third is the standard
25 bench mark in California for class action settlements (see e.g., Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162
26 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n. 11 (“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage 27 method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of 28 the recovery”), that the California Supreme Court recently held that the percentage of the fund method survives in California class action cases (Laffitte v. Robert Half International, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, and through the prism of a lodestar cross-check. Accordingly, this request should receive final approval.

A. Plaintiffs are Entitled to Recover Reasonable Attorney’s Fees Under the Labor Code

Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees, expenses and costs under section 218.5 of the California Labor Code, which provides that, “[i]n any action brought for the nonpayment of wages ... the Court shall award reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs to the prevailing party.” In addition, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees pursuant to section 1194.2 of the Labor Code, which provides that, “... any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage ... applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage... including ... reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Plaintiffs are also entitled to fees and costs under section 226(e) of the Labor Code (employee who prevails on claim for itemized wage statement violation “is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees”); under PAGA (Labor Code § 2699(g), which provides “Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs, including any filing fee paid”); and, potentially, section 1021.5 of the California Code of Civil Procedure.

B. Class Counsel’s Request for Fees Is Reasonable and Properly Calculated as a Percentage of the Common Fund

Under the “common fund” doctrine, the request for attorneys’ fees in the amount of 1/3 of the common fund is reasonable and appropriate, because (1) it is within the approved range for percentages awarded as attorneys’ fees in similar cases; (2) it is supported by the high quality of Class Counsel’s work on this case and the results obtained for the Class; (3) the Class had sufficient notice of the fee request; (4) it is supported by the fact that this case was handled on a contingency basis and was undertaken despite various risks and expenses; and (5) the lodestar cross-check supports the fee request.

1 1. *The Attorneys’ Fees Requested Here Fall Within the Reasonable
2 Range Awarded in Similar Cases Under the Well-established
3 Common Fund Method

4 The California Supreme Court has approved trial courts’ usage of the common fund
5 method of awarding attorneys’ fees in wage and hour class actions, like this one, upholding a fee
6 awarded of 1/3 of the total settlement amount obtained for the class. See Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 7 506; see also, 4 Newberg on Class Actions, § 14:6 at 552 (“fee awards in class actions average
8 around one-third of the recovery”). Specifically, in Laffitte, the Court wrote: “[w]e join the 9 overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in holding that when class action litigation 10 establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, and the trial court in its 11 equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court may determine the amount 12 of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created”). Id. at 506. The 13 California Supreme Court also noted that trial courts have the discretion to award fees as a 14 percentage of the common fund, with or without the necessity to conduct a lodestar cross-check.
15 Id. (“...[Courts] ... retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other means to 16 evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee.”)

17 The California Supreme Court’s Laffitte decision was consistent with its prior rulings 18 recognizing that “when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an 19 action brought by ... plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that 20 fund, such ... plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys’ fees out of the fund.” Serrano III v. Priest 21 (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34; Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert (1980) 444 U.S. 472, 478 (“[A] lawyer who 22 recovers a common fund . . . is entitled to reasonable attorneys’ fees from the fund as a whole”).
23 Notably, when fees are calculated as a percentage of the common fund, they should be calculated 24 based on the amount that was available to be claimed, rather than as a percentage of the actual 25 amount claimed. See Id. at 475-6, 480-1 (the SCOTUS held that attorneys for a successful class
26 may recover a fee based on the fund created for the class, even if some class members make no
27 claims against the fund, so that money remains in it that will be returned to the defendant, 28 explaining: “[t]heir [class members’] right to share the harvest of the lawsuit upon proof of their

1 identity, whether or not they exercise it, is a benefit in the fund created by the efforts of the class
2 representatives and their counsel.” See also Williams v. MGM-Pathe Communs. Co. (9th Cir.
3 1997) 129 F.3d 1026, 1027 (trial court “abused its discretion by basing the fee on the class 4 members’ claims against the fund rather than on a percentage of the entire fund or on the 5 lodestar”).

6 2. The High Quality of Work and Excellent Result Obtained Support
7 the Award

8 In addition to the fact that a Class benefit was created with a $970,000 non-reversionary
9 common fund settlement, the fairness of the requested fee award of 1/3 of the Settlement
10 Amount is supported by the high quality of work performed by Class Counsel and the positive
11 result obtained for the Class. This great result occurred because Class Counsel diligently, 12 efficiently, and creatively pursued this case and reached a successful settlement for the benefit of 13 the entire Class. In fact, some Class Member will receive $5,859.97 each, which is an excellent
14 result. Moreover, the fact that the settlement was embraced and supported by the Class, as 15 evidenced by a 100% participation rate, demonstrates that Class Counsel obtained a favorable
16 result for the Class.

17 3. Class Members Had Sufficient Notice of the Requested Fees

18 Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court requires that the Class Members be given
19 notice of any agreement regarding an application for attorneys’ fees. Here, the Notice 20 preliminarily approved by the Court and distributed to the Class Members apprised them of the 21 requested attorneys fees, which was consistent with the Notice.

22 The Class Notice also advised the Class Members of the procedures for objecting to the 23 proposed settlement and appearing at the settlement hearing, where they could present their 24 objections to any aspect of the settlement, including the amount of attorneys’ fees to be awarded
25 to class counsel. (Litwin v. iRenew Bio Energy Solutions, LLC (2014) 226 Cal.App.4th 877, 883 26 “[p]rocedural due process requires that affected parties be provided with ‘the right to be heard at 27 a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner’”].) In accordance with the foregoing, it is 28 respectfully submitted that the instant notice Complied with Rule 3.769 and, as a result, the Class

Members' due process rights were fulfilled.

4. The Contingent Nature of Class Counsel's Representation of Plaintiffs and the Class Further Supports the Fee Award at 1/3 of the Common Fund

An additional factor militating in favor of the granting of the requested fee award is the fact that this case was both legally and financially risky for Class Counsel. (See Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-49.) Class Counsel have been representing the Class in this matter on a strictly contingency basis, and as such, incurred the risk of non-recovery after a substantial investment of time, money, and resources, and have done so since the inception of this case without any payment or compensation. Specifically, there was the prospect of enormous cost inherent in class action litigation, as well as a battle with a well-funded corporation who was represented by an experienced law firm; the risk that Defendant could prevail on its argument that the class should not be certified; and the risk that Defendant could prevail on the merits of some or all of the claims.

If Plaintiffs had lost this case, Class Counsel would have recovered nothing, and would have lost its out-of-pocket costs. This is not an easy burden for Plaintiffs' Counsel, which are two small firms. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 20). If, despite these hardships and risks, the best Plaintiffs' Counsel could hope for is merely to be paid its customary hourly rate multiplied by the number of hours worked on all cases (including cases like this where the lodestar is far greater than the potential fee award), then Class Counsel would not be compensated for the hardships and serious risks they faced litigating this contingency case, and would not be incentivized to take on similar cases in the future. (Id.)

The court in Horsford v. Board of Trustees of California State University, 132 Cal.App.4th 359 (2005) analyzed this issue and held that, when determining the market-level compensation to award to contingent fee attorneys, the analysis must take into account the large risk inherent in such situations:

The market value of the services provided by plaintiffs' counsel in a case of this magnitude must take into consideration that any compensation has been deferred for up to four years from the time an hourly fee attorney would begin collecting fees from his or her client; that the demands of the present case substantially precluded other work during that extended period, which makes the ultimate risk of not obtaining fees all the greater (since the attorneys must use savings or incur debt to keep their offices afloat and their families fed during the years-long litigation); and that a failure to fully compensate for the enormous risk in bringing even a wholly meritorious case would effectively immunize large or politically powerful defendants from being held to answer for constitutional deprivations, resulting in harm to the public.”

Id. at 399-400.

Indeed, as Class Counsel can attest, not all class/PAGA cases are successful. Many cases end with no fees or a greatly reduced fee that is far less than lodestar, often due to no fault of counsel (i.e., bankruptcy, change in the law, consolidation/coordination/preemption, being top filed, etc.). According to Mayer Brown LLP’s study entitled, An Empirical Analysis of Class Actions, cited in Laguna v. Coverall North America, Inc., No. 12-55479 (9th Circuit 2014), found that only one-third of class actions are successful, compared to two-thirds that are defeated and result in no payment to the class members.¹

Thus, the contingent nature of this case supports a fee of one-third of the common fund.

5. A Lodestar Cross-Check Confirms the Reasonableness of the Fee Award

Despite recognized limitations of the so-called lodestar method, some California and federal courts acknowledge the utility of a lodestar “cross-check.”² (Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 46-47.) Under the “lodestar multiplier” method of cross-checking the reasonableness of attorneys’ fees in class actions, the court ascertains Class counsel’s total “lodestar” amount by multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by each attorney or legal staff member by their hourly rates, and then enhances or reduces this lodestar figure by a “multiplier” to account for a range of factors, such as the novelty or difficulty of the case, its

² In practice, the lodestar method is difficult to apply, time-consuming to administer, inconsistent in result, and capable of manipulation. In addition, the lodestar creates inherent incentive to prolong the litigation until sufficient hours have been expended. Herr, David F., Manual for Complex Litigation, § 14.121 (1988); See also In re Activision (N.D. Cal 1989) 723 F.Supp 1373.

2 Cal.4th 1084, 1095-96; Press v. Lucky Stores, Inc. (1983) 34 Cal.3d 311, 322; Lealao, supra, 82
3 Cal.App.4th at 43 [court has discretion to use a multiplier to ensure that the “fee awarded is 4 within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation”].)

5 Historically, California courts have approved multipliers of 1.5 to 4. See Coalition for
6 Los Angeles County Planning v. Board of Supervisors (1977) 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251
7 (multiplier of 2+ approved); Sternwest Corp v. Ash (1986) 183 Cal.App.3d 74, 75. The 8 multiplier requested by Class Counsel below is within the range of multipliers found to be 9 appropriate by various federal and state courts in California. In Sternwest Corp. v. Ash, for 10 instance, the Court of Appeal remanded for a lodestar enhancement of “two, three, four or 11 otherwise.” Id. at 76; see also Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 (“Multipliers can range from 2
12 to 4 or even higher”); City of Oakland v. Oakland Raiders (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 78, 83
13 (affirming 2.34 multiplier); Coalition for Los Angeles County Planning in the Pub. Interest v.
14 Board of Supervisors, 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (affirming multiplier of approximately 2);
15 Craft v. County of San Bernardino, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 27526 (C.D. Cal. Apr. 1, 2008)
16 (applying 5.2 multiplier); See also Steinder v. Am. Broadcasting Co., Inc. (9th Cir. 2007) 248
17 Fed. Appx. 780, 783 (approving multiplier of 6.85 and citing cases with comparable or higher
18 multipliers); Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 (finding no abuse
19 of discretion in awarding a multiplier of 3.65). In Torchia v. WW Grainger, Inc. (E.D. Cal.
20 2014) 304 F.R.D. 256, 275-278, a federal magistrate in Fresno approved attorneys’ fees of 21 $550,000 constituting a 3.57 multiplier on class counsel’s total lodestar of $153,856 in a wage 22 and hour class action.

23 The actual aggregated lodestar between the Plaintiffs’ attorneys that worked on this case
24 is approximately $287,592.50. This results in a fair and reasonable 1.12 multiplier, as 25 summarized in the following table, and in the submitted declaration of Plaintiffs’ counsel:
26
27
28

Attorney/Timekeeper	Role	Yrs Experience	Rate	Hours	Fee
Brian J. Mankin (Partner – LML)	Trial Counsel	23	$775	97.5 ³	$75,562.50
Peter Carlson (Senior Associate – LML)	Handling Attorney	10	$650	218.3	$141,895
Daniel Hyun (Partner – Torus)	Attorney	9	$650	107.9	$70,135
Grand Total					$287,592.50

(See Mankin Decl., ¶ 25; Carlson Decl. ¶ 8-9; Hyun Decl. ¶ 20).

Class Counsel’s hourly rates are comparable to those of other attorneys with equal or similar experience, if not somewhat lower (i.e., the Laffey Matrix at www.laffeymatrix.com indicates that the benchmark rates are: $777/hour for an 8–10-year attorney, $878/hour for a 11–19-year attorney, and $1,057/hour for a 20+ year attorney). (Mankin Decl., ¶ 24.)

Moreover, the Wolters Kluwer 2023 Real Rate Report (“Real Rate Report”) provides directly applicable information in this regard. The Real Rate Report is based on an enormous and statistically significant compilation of data, comprising millions of billing entries from a hundred thousand individual timekeepers who worked at thousands of law firms. The Real Rate Report then compiles and analyzes this data to provide the hourly rates for partners and associates in major metropolitan areas. For the southern California area: (a) the rate for partners in Los Angeles is between $840 and $1,159 per hour for the middle and upper quartiles, and (b) the rates for associates with seven or more years of experience, the median rate is $674 per hour, and the upper quartile rate is $888 per hour. And, perhaps most importantly, the information provided in the Real Rate Report is not based on self-reported numbers, surveys, sampling, or reviews or other publications – instead, the Real Rate Report is based on the actual hours and fees billed by law firms, which makes it “a much better reflection of true market rates than self-reported rates in all practice areas.” Brown v. CVS Pharmacy, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Apr. 24, 2017) 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 182309, at *21; PLCM Group, 22 Cal.4th at 1085 (holding that rates

³ Includes an estimated 35 hours that will be expended in finalizing the motion, attending the hearing, working with the parties and administrator regarding the notice and payment process, and filing any post judgment paperwork.

1 should be premised upon precisely this form of independent, “objective” rate data that reflects
2 “fair market” rates actually billed to clients “in the community for similar work”). (Mankin
3 Decl., ¶ 24.)

4 Class Counsel are also highly experienced in Class/PAGA litigation, including having 5 been named by the LA Times as one “Southern California Leading Lawyers” in the May 2023
6 issue of Consumer Attorneys of Southern California (a recognition given to 17 7 employment/labor law attorneys in 2023), having been selected as “Super Lawyer” in 8 employment litigation over the last 5 consecutive years, having achieved large settlements,
9 having prevailed at trial in PAGA-only actions and Class Action jury trials. (Mankin Decl. ¶¶ 2-10 6). Indeed, Class Counsel’s rates are typical of the rates charged by defense counsel with similar 11 experience doing similar employment law work in this region.

12 Thus, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s rates reasonable and typical, and the attorneys’ fees requested 13 confirm that the fee request is fair and reasonable under the lodestar multiplier cross-check.

14 VII. THE REQUESTED COSTS AND SERVICE AWARDS ARE REASONABLE

15 A. The Requested Costs Are Reasonable and Merit Approval

16 The Settlement Agreement authorized litigation expenses up to $25,000. (Settlement 17 Agreement ¶ 48(f)). However, Class Counsel’s actual combined costs through the final 18 approval hearing are estimated to be $21,272.07, including $19,203.71 by Lauby Mankin
19 Lauby LLP (Mankin Decl. ¶ 27) and $2,068.36 by Torus LLP (Hyun Decl. ¶ 20). Since Class
20 Counsel’s actual costs were less than the amount allocated, the saving will be placed in the Net
21 Settlement Amount. These costs include mediation fees, filing fees, CourtCall charges, and 22 court filing fees, and process server fees.

23 B. The Requested Service Awards are Reasonable and Merit Approval

24 A named plaintiff is an essential ingredient of any class action and an incentive award 25 is appropriate to induce individuals to step forward and assume the burdens and obligations of 26 representing the Class. Courts regularly approve service payments to compensate named 27 Plaintiffs for their service to the class and the risks they incurred during the course of the 28 litigation. (See, e.g. Bell v. Farmers Insurance Exchange (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726

1 (upholding “service payments” to named Plaintiff for their efforts in bringing class action);
2 Rodriguez v. West Publishing (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 959 (stating that incentive awards
3 are “intended to compensate class representatives for work done on behalf of the class, to make 4 up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action, and, sometimes, to 5 recognize their willingness to act as a private attorney general.”)

6 Under the Settlement, Defendant agreed to pay Service Awards in the amount of 7 $10,000 each to Victor Medina and Francisco Cruz in recognition of their contribution as the 8 Class Representatives and the fact that they agreed to a general release of all claims. In 9 addition, Plaintiffs also undertook significant risks, including the risk of being blackballed in 10 the industry and the risk that they could have been liable for Defendant’s costs if they lost.
11 This factor is a significant one for a wage earner, and the potential risk is very real. (See
12 Whiteway v. FedEx Kinkos Office & Print Svcs., Inc. (N.D. Cal. Dec. 17, 2007) No. C 05-2320
13 SBA, 2007 WL 4531783, at *3 (“the few courts to consider this ‘class representatives’
14 dilemma’ have not found it inequitable to assess costs upon the lead or named plaintiff in a 15 class action.”).)

16 Plaintiffs also committed a significant number of hours to assist with the 17 litigation/settlement processes of this case. Finally, they entered into a general release of all 18 claims against Defendant, whereas the Class Members only released the claims alleged. The 19 requested Service Payment is reasonable, particularly in light of the substantial benefits
20 Plaintiffs generated for the Class Members, the risks they undertook, and in exchange for 21 executing a general release against Defendant while giving up the right to pursue separate
22 individual claims. (See Medina’s Declaration ¶¶ 3-10 and Cruz’s Declaration ¶¶ 4-10.)

23 The Notice sent to each Class Member detailed the proposed service award. No Class 24 Member has objected to the proposed payment to Plaintiffs. Thus, Plaintiffs request that the 25 Court approve the award because it is both reasonable and appropriate.

1 VIII. OTHERS MATTERS RE: FINAL APPROVAL

2 A. Settlement Administration Costs

3 The parties agreed that the Administrator, Phoenix Settlement Administrators, would be 4 compensated for services performed. The Administrator's flat fee is $9,500.00. (Gonzalez
5 Decl., ¶ 16; Exhibit B thereto.)

6 B. Notice of Final Judgment to the Class

7 The Proposed Final Approval Order directs the Settlement Administrator to give notice
8 of entry of judgment by including a postcard to the Class Members at the same time the checks 9 are mailed.

10 C. Uncashed Checks

11 The Settlement Agreement provides that unclaimed funds will be submitted to the 12 California State Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member 13 thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil 14 Procedure Section 384, subd. (b). (S.A. ¶ 73.)

15 D. Final Report

16 Defendant's payment is due 20 days after the Effective Date, which will occur 60 days
17 after the final order is entered. The Administrator then has 10 days thereafter process the funds
18 and issue checks to the Class Members, who will then have 180 days to cash their checks.
19 Accordingly, the Parties project that the check cashing deadline will occur on approximately 20 August 2, 2025.

21 The Proposed Order filed herewith contains a proposed timeline, including having the 22 Parties submit a declaration from the Administrator on September 12, 2025, attesting to its 23 disbursement of all payments required under the Settlement Agreement, and then holding a 24 disbursement hearing thereafter at the Court's convenience.

25 E. Submission to the LWDA

26 As set forth in the Mankin Declaration at ¶ 29, the Settlement Agreement and this 27 motion are concurrently being submitted to the LWDA in accordance with Labor Code §
28 2699(1)(2). The LWDA has not commented on the Settlement to date.

1 IX. CONCLUSION

2 Plaintiffs respectfully submits that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and 3 merits final approval.
