1 Plaintiff Lawrence A. Adefeso (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary
2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further 3 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants SOCAL JAMBA, LLC; a limited
6 liability company; LA JAMBA, LLC, a limited liability company; JUICE TO GO, LLC, a 7 limited liability company; FRESH JUICE DEVELOPMENT, LLC, a limited liability company;
8 LA JUICE COMPANY, LLC, a limited liability company; GRAB N GO JUICE, LLC, a limited
9 liability company; BREA JUICE COMPANY, LLC, a limited liability company; and Does 1 10 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations and 11 unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, failure to 12 pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods,
13 failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay all 14 wages to terminated employees, failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, and failure to 15 furnish accurate wage statements.

16 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 17 class action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees of Defendants 18 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 19 below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any 20 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of 21 limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

22 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 23 California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 24 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt, hourly-paid employees of 25 Defendants who worked in California during the applicable statute of limitations period
26 (hereinafter referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

27 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 28 establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, and based

1 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants
2 are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare
3 Commission ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

4 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants 5 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 6 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum
7 wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code
8 and IWC Wage Orders;
- 9 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 10 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 11 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 12 failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period 13 violation occurred;
- 14 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
15 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
16 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 17 period violation occurred;
- 18 (d) Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- 19 (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, 20 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within 21 the time period specified by California law when employment terminates; 22 and
- 23 (f) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked.
- 24 (g) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements 25 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 26 IWC Wage Orders.

27 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 28 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their

1 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 2 willful and deliberate.

3 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 4 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 5 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
6 Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of 7 herein under the doctrine of "respondeat superior".

8 THE PARTIES

9 A. Plaintiff

10 8. Plaintiff is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of Los 11 Angeles, State of California, as a barista during the statutory period.

12 9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new 13 plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v.
14 American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

15 B. Defendants

16 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief
17 alleges, that Defendants SOCAL JAMBA, LLC; a limited liability company; LA JAMBA, LLC,
18 a limited liability company; JUICE TO GO, LLC, a limited liability company; FRESH JUICE
19 DEVELOPMENT, LLC, a limited liability company; LA JUICE COMPAN, LLC, a limited
20 liability company; GRAB N GO JUICE, LLC, a limited liability company; BREA JUICE 21 COMPANY, LLC are:

- 22 (a) Limited liability companies with their principal places of business in Los 23 Angeles, California.
- 24 (b) Business entities conducting business in numerous counties throughout the 25 State of California, including in Los Angeles County;
- 26 (c) The former employers of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employers 27 of the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff, the 28 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions;

(d) At all times mentioned herein, Defendants were doing business as Jamba Juice; and

(e) At all times mentioned herein, Defendants were the joint employers of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees and had a joint enterprise to employ Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that there exists, and at all times herein mentioned there existed, Defendants, and each of them, were at all relevant times the joint employer of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, were alter egos of each other, and/or were operating as an integrated enterprise with each other because, among other things:

(a) Defendants advertise as having multiple locations in California and other states, including those locations operated by each Defendant;

(b) As a condition of employment for working anywhere in California, Defendants require their employees to sign documents regarding the terms and conditions of their employment. All of these documents are the same for each and every California location. All of these documents also bear the “Jamba Juice” trademark or trade name. Further, on information and belief, these documents were authored by human resources personnel employed by each of these entities;

(c) Payroll and personnel matters related to Defendants’ California locations are handled by a single human resources department;

(d) There is a seamless flow of employees between each Defendant. Employees are able to transfer between locations without being retrained because Defendants’ policies and procedures are the same for each location;

(e) Defendants routinely comingle assets in order to pay for expenses, including paying wages to employees;

- 1 (f) All Defendants share the same corporate address located in Los Angeles
2 County, California;
- 3 (g) All Defendants share the same members/ownership interest, and corporate 4 officers/directors;
- 5 (h) Defendants used the assets of the other corporate entities for their own use, 6 caused assets of the other corporations to be transferred freely between the 7 corporate entities without adequate consideration, and withdrew funds
8 from one corporate entity to be transferred to another corporate entity 9 without adequate consideration;
- 10 (i) Defendants are, and at all times herein mentioned were, mere shells, 11 instrumentalities, and conduits of one another through which each 12 Defendant carried on their business, exercising complete control and 13 dominance of such business to such an extent that any individuality or 14 separateness of each individual Defendant does not, and at all times herein 15 mentioned did not, exist;
- 16 (j) Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, controlled, 17 dominated, and operated by a single owner or owners, as his or their 18 individual business and alter ego;
- 19 (k) Defendants share the same corporate address and share the same corporate 20 officers and directors. Further, Defendants share the same employees, in 21 that employees were transferred between Defendants' locations;
- 22 (l) Defendants failed to comply with corporate formalities, including but not 23 limited to (1) the nonexistence of bylaws; (2) the failure to conduct 24 corporate meetings of the board of directors; (3) the failure to take or 25 maintain corporate minutes of any corporate proceedings; (4) the failure to 26 create any corporate resolutions or voting; (5) the entering and carrying out
27 of unapproved, undocumented transactions without adequate consideration
28

1 between and among Defendants; and (6) Defendants have at all times
2 herein failed to have any assets;

3 (m) Defendants were conceived, intended, and used as a device to avoid 4 liability;

5 (n) Defendants are, and at all times herein mentioned were, so inadequately
6 capitalized that, compared with the business to be done by Defendants and 7 the risk of loss, its capitalization was trifling.

8 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that adherence to the fiction
9 of the separate existence of Defendants as distinct from one another would permit an abuse of the 10 corporate privilege and would sanction fraud and promote injustice.

11 13. Plaintiff does not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or 12 entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious
13 names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages 14 suffered by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will 15 amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they 16 have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

17 14. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 18 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of,
19 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in 20 the State of California.

21 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times 22 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and 23 the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their 24 wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges 25 that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer,
26 director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest
27 and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 28 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to

1 some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters
2 alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted
3 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 4 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 5 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

6 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

7 16. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in the County of Los 8 Angeles, State of California, as a barista during the statutory period. Plaintiff was typically 9 scheduled to work at least 5 days in a workweek, and typically in excess of 8 hours in a single 10 workday.

11 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours
12 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with 13 uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest
14 periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiff for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all 15 final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish 16 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for 17 Defendants was typical and illustrative.

18 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 19 not paying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including all
20 overtime wages. During the statutory period, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 21 were required to work off the clock, and uncompensated. For example, Plaintiff, the Class, and 22 the Aggrieved Employees were required to check on a work application called WhatsApp to 23 determine whether they were required to work that day, and to communicate, off the clock and 24 uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were often required to 25 be on-call, off the clock and uncompensated. Also throughout the statutory period, Defendants 26 failed to provide paid sick days to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

27 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 28 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods.

1 Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
2 Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing 30-minute, 3 continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without 4 compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not
5 provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not
6 adequately inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal
7 period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the 8 tenth hour of work. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal
9 periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

10 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 11 and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest
12 periods. Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 13 Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and 14 permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four 15 hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and 16 the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendants also 17 did not adequately inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take 18 a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or 19 authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did
20 Defendants have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants 21 also did not have adequate policies or practices to verify whether Plaintiff, the Class, and the 22 Aggrieved Employees were taking their required rest periods. Further, Defendants did not 23 maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore Defendants cannot 24 demonstrate that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees took rest periods during the 25 middle of each work period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize 26 and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance
27 with California law.

1 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff, the 2 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of 3 their duties for Defendants without reimbursement, which included without limitation the 4 purchase of uniforms, the maintenance of uniforms, the purchase of certain types of shoes, the 5 purchase of masks, and the use of personal cellular telephones for work purposes.

6 22. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
7 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of their employment all
8 wages for all minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period
9 premium wages. Further, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
10 Employees their final paychecks immediately upon termination.

11 23. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff, the Class,
12 and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable 13 hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages 14 earned for hours worked, correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that 15 were not provided in accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were not 16 authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and Defendant's address).
17 Further, the wage statements do not show Defendant's address as required by California law. As 18 a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff, the Class, and the 19 Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other things:

- 20 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
21 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest 22 period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were 23 entitled;
- 24 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, 25 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even 26 though they had not been;
- 27
28

- 1 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid
2 minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages
3 at the correct California rate even though they were;
- 4 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime,
5 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct
6 California rate even though they had not been;
- 7 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum,
8 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- 9 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 10 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 11 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
12 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage 13 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 14 (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to 15 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, 16 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- 17 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages
18 rates to which Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 19 entitled, and Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were paid 20 less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

21 Thus, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in 22 California Labor Code § 226(e), including actual damages.

23 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

24 24. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all 25 other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil 26 Procedure § 382.

27 25. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief
28 authorized by California law.

1 26. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

2 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly, non-3 exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the 4 filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

5 27. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

6 28. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 7 conditions of all Class Members.

8 29. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 9 readily ascertainable:

10 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so 11 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
12 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, 13 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the 14 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 15 Defendants' records.

16 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect 17 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
18 defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) 19 are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

20 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
21 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
22 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated 23 herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 24 Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in 25 the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
26 Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 27 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 28

necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

(d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

30. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum wages, and overtime wages;

- (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- (d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their discharge or resignation;
- (e) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
- (f) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses; and
- (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

31. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;
- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;

- 1 (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by 2 individual members of the class would create a risk of:
- 3 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual
4 members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards
5 of conduct for Defendants; and/or
- 6 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would,
7 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other
8 members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially 9 impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but 10 not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from 11 those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
- 12 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 13 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to 14 the class as a whole.

15 32. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 16 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own 17 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the 18 contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would 19 contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as 20 published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by 21 other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

22 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

24 33. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
25 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

26 34. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 27 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 28 not required to do so.

1 35. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 2 Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay
3 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 4 provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage
5 Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

6 36. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for all
7 non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

8 37. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been 9 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

10 38. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 11 Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class 12 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 13 Plaintiff and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which 14 will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

15 39. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code §
16 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage
17 compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

18 40. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are 19 entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum 20 wages.

21 41. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with 22 all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable
23 to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates
24 required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants 25 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due, and failed to 26 pay those wages twice a month.

42. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

43. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

44. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

45. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

46. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

47. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198. Plaintiff and the Class are regularly required to work overtime hours.

48. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

49. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to

1 Plaintiff and the Class.

2 50. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according 3 to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well
4 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 5 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

6 51. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 7 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 8 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all
9 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class
10 with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

11 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

13 52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
14 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

15 53. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 16 Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the 17 start of Plaintiff and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal
18 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the 19 California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer
20 provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a
21 violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee
22 to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

23 54. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff
24 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit
25 and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact 26 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), 27 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and 28 the applicable Wage Orders.

1 55. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 2 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s),
3 plus interest thereon.

4 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

6 56. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
7 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

8 57. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 9 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 10 two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that 11 the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for 12 each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten 13 minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so 14 required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of 15 the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest 16 period mandated under any Wage Order.

17 58. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the 18 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours in a 19 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as 20 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take 21 these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of 22 the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

23 59. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 24 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), 25 plus interest thereon.

1 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

3 60. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
4 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

5 61. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by 6 failing to pay and indemnify the Plaintiff and the Class for their necessary expenditures and 7 losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to 8 directions of Defendants.

9 62. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 10 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

11 63. Plaintiff and the class they represent are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and 12 costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 13 2802(b).

14 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 16 Penalties)

17 64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
18 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

19 65. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 20 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 21 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, 22 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, 23 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 24 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

25 66. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 26 other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the 27 employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and 28 continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be

1 paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within 2 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

3 67. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and those Class members who are no longer
4 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within 5 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor
6 Code §§ 201 and 202.

7 68. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay 8 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 9 continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 10 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

11 69. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally 12 accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days
13 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

14 70. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiff and the 15 Class are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs 16 incurred in this action.

17 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 19 Compliant Wage Records)

20 71. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
21 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

22 72. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 23 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement
24 in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
25 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
26 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made
27 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages 28 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

73. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list the true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

74. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

75. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

76. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

77. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

78. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of attorney’s fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h).

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200,
3 et seq.)

4 79. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
5 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

6 80. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business
7 & Professions Code § 17201.

8 81. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
9 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff
10 seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 11 Procedure § 1021.5.

12 82. Defendants’ activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 13 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
14 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

15 83. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 16 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 17 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of 18 public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, 19 and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of 20 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

21 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

22 84. Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the 23 California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California
24 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

25 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

26 85. Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation
27 of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
28 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

1 Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

2 86. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance 3 with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or 4 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

5 Failure to Provide Meal Periods

6 87. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor
7 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or 8 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

9 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

10 88. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with 11 California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful 12 and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

13 Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

14 89. Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in 15 accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above,
16 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§
17 17200, et seq.

18 Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

19 90. Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance 20 with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
21 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

22 91. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices
23 described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from 24 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly 25 situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

26 92. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of 27 Defendants' wrongful conduct.

28 93. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled

1 to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 2 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by 3 means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and 4 the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 5 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

6 94. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further 7 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair,
8 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them,
9 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business 10 practices in the future.

11 95. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no
12 plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members
13 suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
14 practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 15 above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and 16 will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained 17 from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

18 96. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 19 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 20 withholdings.

21 97. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff
22 and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 23 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a 24 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and 25 Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 26 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

1 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act
3 of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

4 98. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
5 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

6 99. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 7 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

8 100. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action 9 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of 10 law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by 11 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, 12 commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, 13 be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or 14 herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 15 2699.3.”

16 101. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor 17 Code § 2699.3. On May 21, 2023, he gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and 18 Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions
19 of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and certain current and former 20 aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also 21 paid the filing fee. Plaintiff’s PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-956377-23.

22 102. More than 65 days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the Labor and 23 Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ 24 Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil 25 action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of 26 the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, 27 penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, and 2699(f)(2).
28

1 103. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants' violation of California Labor
2 Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, 3 employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by 4 California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable
5 IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee
6 begins and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be 7 recorded. Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall 8 keep total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

9 104. During the time period of employment for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, 10 Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders by failing to 11 maintain accurate records showing meal periods. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain 12 records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
13 Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal
14 periods. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting 15 failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants.
16 As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, 17 substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and 18 expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation
19 under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of 20 Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders,
21 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented 22 from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

23 105. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award
24 of civil penalties on behalf of herself, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved Employees
25 of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown 26 according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

27 106. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs 28 pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;
2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and
3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

As to the First Cause of Action

4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all minimum wages due;
5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
7. For liquidated damages;
8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,
9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due;
11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;
12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

1 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 2 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

3 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

4 As to the Third Cause of Action

5 15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
6 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

7 16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

8 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
9 such amounts were due;

10 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 11 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

12 19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

13 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

14 20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
15 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

16 21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

17 22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
18 such amounts were due;

19 23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 20 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

21 24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

22 As to the Fifth Cause of Action

23 25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code §
24 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders;

25 26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be 26 appropriate;

27 27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
28 such amounts were due;

1 28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

2 29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

3 As to the Sixth Cause of Action

4 30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
5 Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of 6 termination of the employment;

7 31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former 8 employees who have left Defendants' employ;

9 32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were 10 due;

11 33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

12 34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

13 As to the Seventh Cause of Action

14 35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record
15 keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and 16 willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

17 36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

18 37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
19 Labor Code § 226(h);

20 38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

21 39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

22 As to the Eighth Cause of Action

23 40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
24 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked 25 (including minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain 26 accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to 27 maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage 28 statements, and failing to indemnify necessary business expenses;

1 41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and 2 prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

3 42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all
4 funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by 5 Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

6 43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 7 California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

8 44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
9 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

10 45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

11 As to the Ninth Cause of Action

12 46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California
13 Labor Code by failing to pay all wages owed, including overtime, failure to provide meal
14 periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest

[✓] BY U.S. MAIL: I deposited such envelope in the mail at Los Angeles, California. The envelope was mailed with postage thereon fully prepaid. I am “readily familiar” with the firm’s practice of collection and processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice it would be deposited with U.S. postal service on that same day with postage thereon fully prepaid at Los Angeles, California in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of the party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than one day after date of deposit for mailing in affidavit.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this August 24, 2023 at Los Angeles, California.
