3. Violation of Labor Code § 226.7 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods);
4. Violation of Labor Code § 226, (Failure to Keep Accurate Itemized Wage Statements);
5. Violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203 (Failure to Pay Wages Upon Termination of Employment);
6. Violation of Labor Code § 2802 (Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Expenditures);
7. Violation of Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq. (Unfair Business Practices); and
8. Violation of the Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code sections 2698, et seq.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff JOSE L. CABELLO (hereinafter referred to as “Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself
2 and all others similarly situated, and as representative of the State of California and the Labor and
3 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary support
4 or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation
5 and discovery, complains and alleges as follows:

6 INTRODUCTION

7 1. This is a class action brought on behalf of Plaintiff and the class he seeks to 8 represent (“Class” or “Class Members”). Class Members consist of all non-exempt, hourly-paid
9 employees currently and/or formerly employed by COMPLETE AUTOMOTIVE SERVICES, 10 INC. in the State of California during the Class Period. The term “Class Period” is defined as 11 four (4) years prior to the filing of this Complaint through the date final judgment is entered.
12 Plaintiff reserves the right to amend this Complaint to reflect a different “Class Period” or “Class”
13 as further discovery is conducted.

14 2. Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the class he seeks to represent, seeks relief
15 against COMPLETE AUTOMOTIVE SERVICES, INC. (“Defendant”) for Defendant’s failure
16 to pay all wages due in violation of Labor Code Sections 204, 510 and 1194, including both 17 regular and overtime wages as well as paid sick leave in violation of Labor Code Section 246;
18 failure to provide meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof pursuant to Labor Code Sections
19 226.7 and 512, the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, and Code of 20 Regulations, Title 8, Section 11000 et seq.; failure to provide rest periods or compensation in lieu
21 thereof pursuant to Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512, the applicable Industrial Welfare
22 Commission Wage Orders, and Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11000 et seq.; failure to 23 provide accurate itemized wage statements upon payment of wages pursuant to Labor Code
24 Sections 226, subdivision (a), 1174, and 1175; failure to reimburse for necessary expenditures
25 pursuant to Labor Code Section 2802; and failure to pay wages of terminated or resigned
26 employees pursuant to Labor Code Sections 201, 202, and 203.

1 3. Plaintiff seeks equitable remedies in the form of declaratory relief and injunctive
2 relief, and relief under Business and Professions Code Section 17200 et seq. for unfair business
3 practices.

4 4. At all relevant times herein, Defendant has consistently maintained and enforced
5 against Plaintiff and Class the following unlawful practices and policies:

6 (a) willfully refusing to pay Plaintiff and Class for all hours worked, including 7 both regular and overtime and paid sick leave;

8 (b) willfully refusing to permit Plaintiff and Class from taking meal periods or 9 compensation in lieu thereof;

10 (c) willfully refusing to permit Plaintiff and Class from taking rest periods or 11 compensation in lieu thereof;

12 (d) willfully refusing to furnish to Plaintiff and Class accurate itemized wage
13 statements upon payment of wages;

14 (e) willfully refusing to compensate Plaintiff and certain members of the Class
15 wages due and owing at the time of Plaintiff and Class Members'
16 employment with Defendant ended; and

17 (f) willfully refusing to reimburse Plaintiff and Class for necessary 18 expenditures.

19 5. On information and belief, Defendant was on actual and constructive notice of 20 the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies.
21 Defendant's violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and 22 deliberate.

23 6. At all relevant times, Defendant was and is legally responsible for all of the 24 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 25 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and Class. Further, Defendant is responsible 26 for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of 27 "respondeat superior".
28

1 7. Plaintiff further brings this action as a representative of the State of California and
2 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) to recover civil penalties pursuant to
3 the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., for violations
4 of numerous Labor Code provisions, including, but not limited to, sections 201-203, 204, 226,
5 246, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1194, and 2802, as well as violations of the applicable Wage Order.

6 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7 8. Venue is proper in this judicial district and in the County of Los Angeles,
8 California because Defendant maintained its location and/or transacted business in this county, 9 the obligations and liability arise in this county, and work was performed by members of the 10 proposed class made the subject of this action in this county.

11 9. The wages, statutory penalties, monetary damages and restitution sought by 12 Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established
13 according to proof at trial. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California
14 Constitution, article VI, Section 10. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify 15 any other basis for jurisdiction.

16 10. The California Superior Court has jurisdiction in the matter because the individual 17 claims are under the seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00) jurisdictional threshold for 18 Federal Court and the five million dollars ($5,000,000.00) aggregate jurisdictional threshold for 19 Federal Court and, upon information and belief, Plaintiff and Defendant are residents of,
20 domiciled in, or otherwise subject to jurisdiction in the State of California. Further, there is no
21 federal question at issue as the issues herein are based solely on California statutes and law
22 including the Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, the Code of 23 Civil Procedure, the Rules of Court, and the Business and Professions Code.

24 THE PARTIES

25 A. Plaintiff

26 11. Plaintiff, at all relevant times herein, was Defendant’s employee and was entitled 27 to compensation for all hours worked, including regular time and overtime compensation, and 28 penalties from Defendant. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt, hourly paid employee during the Class Period. Specifically, Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a preparer and painter of car bumpers from approximately November 2019 to January 31, 2023 at Defendant's facility located at 11404 Imperial Highway, Norwalk, California. Each of the Class Members are identifiable, current and/or former similarly situated persons who were employed in non-exempt hourly positions in California by Defendant during the Class Period.

B. Defendant

12. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant is a California corporation. Defendant provides construction services. On information and belief, Defendant was and/or is the employer of Plaintiff and Class during the Class Period. Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant is conducting business in good standing in California.

13. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships and extent of participation in the conduct herein alleged of the Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, but on information and belief alleges that these Defendants are legally responsible for the payment of overtime compensation, rest and meal period compensation, and wages to Plaintiff and Class by virtue of their unlawful practices, and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of each DOE Defendants when ascertained.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendant, carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendant. Furthermore, Defendants in all respects acted as the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and Class.

15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant acted in all respects as the agent, servant, partner, joint venture, alter-ego, employee, proxy, managing agent, and/or principal of the Defendant, and in performing the actions mentioned below was acting, at least in part, within the course and scope of that authority as such agent, proxy, servant, partner, joint venture, employee, alter-ego, managing agent, and/or principal with permission and consent of the Defendant. Plaintiff also alleges the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendant.

16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of the Defendant sued herein was, at all times relevant hereto, the employer, owner, shareholder, principal, joint venture, proxy, agent, employee, supervisor, representative, manager, managing agent, joint employer and/or alter-ego of the remaining Defendant, and was acting, at least in part, within the course and scope of such employment and agency, with the express and implied permission, consent, and knowledge, approval and/or ratification of the other Defendant.

17. The above Defendant, managing agents, and supervisors aided, abetted, condoned, permitted, approved, authorized and/or ratified the unlawful acts described herein.

ADMINISTRATIVE PREREQUISITE

18. On May 12, 2023, prior to filing this complaint, Plaintiff gave written notice by electronically filing the notice with the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) (LWDA Case No. LWDA-954737-23) and by certified mail to Defendant of the specified provisions alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations as required by Labor Code Section 2699.3.

19. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s letter sent to the LWDA dated May 12, 2023, is attached hereto as “Exhibit A”. As of the filing of this complaint, LWDA has not responded to the written notice.

20. Under Labor Code Section 2699.3 subsection (a), a plaintiff may bring a cause of action under PAGA only after giving notice to the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and the employer of the Labor Code Sections alleged to have been violated, and after receiving notice from the LWDA of its intention not to investigate, or after 65 days have passed without notice.

21. More than sixty-five (65) days have passed without notice from the LWDA. Accordingly, all administrative prerequisites to filing this action have been fulfilled.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

22. Plaintiff was employed as a preparer and painter of car bumpers for Defendant from approximately November 2019 to January 31, 2023.

23. Labor Code Section 1194 provides that notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, an employee receiving less than the legal overtime compensation is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of his or her overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit.

24. Labor Code Section 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month on days designated in advance by the employer as regular paydays. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 204 (a) labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 204 (d) the requirements of this Section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Plaintiff and Class were also entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours worked. However, during Class period, Defendant systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendant, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendant, and all wages for all hours worked.

25. Further, Business and Professions Code Section 17203 provides that any person who engages in unfair competition may be enjoined in any court of competent jurisdiction. Business and Professions Code Section 17204 provides that any person who has suffered actual injury and has lost money or property as a result of the unfair competition may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

26. During all, or a portion of the Class Period, Plaintiff and each member of the Class

1 was employed by Defendant in the State of California.

2 27. Plaintiff and Class Members were non-exempt employees covered under one or 3 more IWC Wage Order(s), and Labor Code Section 510, and/or other applicable Wage Orders,
4 regulations and statutes, and each Class Member was not subject to an exemption for executive,
5 administrative or professional employees, which imposed obligations on the part of Defendant to 6 pay Plaintiff and Class Members lawful overtime compensation.

7 28. Plaintiff and Class were covered by one or more IWC Wage Order(s), and Labor
8 Code Section 226.7 and other applicable Wage Orders, regulations and statutes which imposed
9 an obligation on the part of Defendant to pay Plaintiff and Class rest and meal period 10 compensation.

11 29. During the Class Period, Defendant were obligated to pay Plaintiff and Class
12 Members for all hours worked including straight time wages and overtime wages. Defendant
13 required Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of eight (8) hours per day, sometimes up
14 to twelve (12) hours, without paying overtime and double time pay. Defendant refused to pay
15 overtime and double-time despite Plaintiff's and Class Members' numerous complaints about 16 unpaid overtime and double-time pay. Defendant also regularly used a system of time rounding
17 in a manner that resulted, over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff and Class
18 Members properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities of 19 Defendant's operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for 20 work time to the minute. Accordingly, Defendant frequently paid Plaintiff and Class Members
21 less than all their work time. Some of this unpaid work also should have been paid at the overtime
22 rate. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendant failed to maintain accurate
23 records of the hours Plaintiff and Class Members worked.

24 30. During the Class Period, Defendant were obligated to pay Plaintiff and Class
25 Members overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours of work in one 26 (1) day or forty (40) hours in one (1) week and double-time compensation for hours worked in 27 excess of twelve (12) in one (1) day. However, often times Plaintiff and Class Members were 28 required to work overtime in excess of eight (8) hours per workday and in excess of forty (40)

1 hours per workweek but were not paid at the proper overtime rate of pay.

2 31. During the Class Period, Defendant were obligated to provide Plaintiff and Class
3 with a work-free meal period within the first five (5) hours of a shift when the workday was longer
4 than six (6) hours. Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to a full, thirty (30) minute, off-
5 duty meal period when they worked in excess of six (6) hours within the first five (5) hours of 6 their shifts. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and Class to work in excess of five consecutive 7 hours a day without providing a 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period
8 for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and Class for meal periods that 9 were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Plaintiff and Class
10 Members were routinely not provided with timely, 30-minute off-duty meal periods, and were 11 not permitted and authorized to take uninterrupted meal periods. Defendant did not adequately
12 inform Plaintiff and Class of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, 13 or, for shifts greater than ten (10) hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Moreover,
14 Defendant did not have adequate written policies or practices providing meal periods for Plaintiff
15 and Class, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of meal
16 periods. Defendant only provided one unpaid one-hour unpaid meal period regardless of the hours 17 of work of Plaintiff and Class Members. When Plaintiff and Class Members worked more than 18 ten hours they have never been authorized or taken their second meal periods. Accordingly, 19 Defendant's policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff and Class in 20 compliance with California law.

21 32. Additionally, Defendant were obligated to provide Plaintiff and Class Members
22 with a ten (10) minute rest break for every four (4) hours, or major fraction thereof, worked each 23 day. Defendant prevented Plaintiff and Class Members from taking rest breaks throughout their 24 shifts. Plaintiff and Class Members were generally precluded from taking rest periods due to 25 Defendant's failure to maintain the rest break policy to provide relief and thereby allow Plaintiff
26 and Class Members the opportunity to take rest breaks. Moreover, Defendant did not have 27 adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and Class, nor 28 did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendant

1 did not schedule rest periods at all. Plaintiff and Class Members have never been authorized and 2 taken their first, second and third rest periods. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was 3 for Plaintiff and Class to work through rest periods and to not authorize or permit them to take 4 any rest periods.

5 33. Further, due to the pressure from Defendant and failure to maintain an adequate
6 policy, and in violation of Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff was not
7 authorized and permitted to take a second rest period, on shifts exceeding six hours of work,
8 and/or third rest breaks, on shifts exceeding ten hours of work. Brinker Restaurant Corp. v.
9 Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1030 (2012). "Employees are entitled to 10 minutes rest for 10 shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six hours 11 up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on."

12 34. Furthermore, Defendant failed and/or refused to pay Plaintiff and Class Members
13 one (1) hour's pay at the employees' regular rate of pay as premium compensation for Defendant'
14 failure to provide lawful thirty (30) minute, off-duty meal periods and failure to provide lawful 15 ten (10) minute rest periods within the statutory time frames.

16 35. Labor Code § 246 (a) an employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works in 17 California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of 18 employment is entitled to paid sick days. Labor Code § 246 (i) requires employers to provide an 19 employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available.

20 36. During the Class Period, Defendant maintained a policy and practice of failing to
21 provide Plaintiff and Class with paid sick leave as well as to provide a written notice of accrued
22 paid sick leave. On information and belief, Defendant's failure to provide an employee with 23 written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available was not a single, isolated
24 incident, but was instead part of Defendant's policy and practice that applied to Class.

25 37. Defendant also failed to indemnify Plaintiff and Class Members all necessary
26 expenditures incurred in direct discharge of their duties. During the Class Period, Defendant
27 wrongfully required Plaintiff and Class Members to pay expenses that they incurred in direct 28 discharge of their duties for Defendant without reimbursement. Defendant required Plaintiff and

1 Class Members to purchase masks during the COVID pandemic but failed to reimburse for the 2 purchase of masks. Defendant also required Plaintiff and Class Members to wear and wash their 3 uniforms but failed to reimburse for the costs of washing uniforms. Plaintiff required Plaintiff and 4 Class Members to use their personal cell phone to make and receive work related calls and text
5 messages from their supervisors but failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for those 6 expenses. Plaintiff and Class incurred these substantial expenses as a direct result of performing 7 their job duties for Defendant, and Defendant have failed to indemnify Plaintiff and Class for 8 these employment-related expenses.

9 38. Defendant continues to employ non-exempt, hourly-paid employees within 10 California.

11 39. Plaintiff and Class Members primarily performed non-exempt work, often in 12 excess of the maximum regular rate hours set forth in the applicable IWC Wage Order(s),
13 regulations or statutes, and therefore entitled the Plaintiff and Class Members to overtime
14 compensation at the rate of one and a half times their regular rate of pay and, when applicable,
15 double time compensation as set forth by the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), regulations and/or 16 statutes.

17 40. During the Class Period, Defendant required Plaintiff and Class Members to work
18 regular hours, off the clock hours, and overtime hours without lawful compensation in violation
19 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), regulations and statutes, and Defendant: (1) willfully failed
20 and refused, and continue to fail and refuse to pay compensation for all hours worked, including 21 lawful regular time and overtime compensation, to Class Members; and (2) willfully failed and 22 refused, and continue to fail and refuse to pay due and owing wages promptly upon termination
23 of employment to Plaintiff and affected Class Members.

24 41. Class Members who ended their employment with Defendant during the Class
25 Period but were not paid the above due compensation for all hours worked timely upon the 26 termination of their employment as required by Labor Code Sections 201, 202, and 203 are 27 entitled to penalties as provided by Labor Code Section 203.
28

1 42. During the Class Period, Defendant failed to furnish Plaintiff and Class with
2 accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net
3 wages earned (including overtime hours worked, overtime and double-time rates, correct hours
4 worked, correct wages earned for hours worked, correct overtime hours worked, correct wages
5 for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, correct wages for 6 rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).
7 As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class suffered
8 injury because, among other things:

9 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
10 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium
11 wages to which they were entitled, even though they were entitled;

12 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,
13 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they had not 14 been;

15 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid overtime,
16 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even 17 though they were;

18 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid overtime, meal period
19 premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they had 20 not been;

21 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of overtime, meal
22 period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;

23 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 24 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to perform
25 mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them, computations
26
27
28

1 they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate
2 information;

3 (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to lose
4 entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and 5 other governmental benefits;

6 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages rates
7 to which Plaintiff and Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and Class were paid less than the 8 wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

9 Thus, Plaintiff and Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code §
10 226(e), including actual damages.

11 43. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class members were 12 entitled to receive accurate wage statements, which would include meal break premiums, and/or 13 rest break premiums, as required by Labor Code 226.

14 44. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were 15 entitled to timely payment of all wages earned upon termination. Plaintiff and Class Members did 16 not receive payment of all wages, including but not limited to, meal and rest break premiums, in 17 violation of the Labor Code.

18 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

19 45. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated 20 persons as a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 382. The Class is composed 21 of and defined as follows:

22 (a) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the State
23 of California, and who, within the four (4) years of the filing of this Complaint to the present,
24 have worked as non-exempt employees and were not paid all wages owed, including but not 25 limited to the legally requisite regular time rate, overtime rate and/or double-time rate as 26 specifically described herein;
27
28

1 (b) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the State
2 of California, and who, within the four (4) years of the filing of this Complaint to the present,
3 have worked as non-exempt employees and have not been provided a meal period for shifts in 4 excess of five (5) hours within the first five (5) hours such shifts, and were not provided one (1)
5 hour's pay for each day during which a lawful meal period was not provided;

6 (c) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the State
7 of California, and who, within the four (4) years of the filing of this Complaint to the present,
8 have worked as non-exempt employees and have not been provided a rest period for every four 9 (4) hours, or major fraction thereof, worked per day, and were not provided compensation of one 10 (1) hour's pay for each day on which such rest period(s) was not provided;

11 (d) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the State
12 of California, and who, within the four (4) years of the filing of this Complaint to the present,
13 have worked as non-exempt employees and have not been reimbursed expenditures in discharge
14 of their duties;

15 (e) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the State
16 of California, and who, within the three (3) years of the filing of this Complaint to the present, 17 have worked as non-exempt employees and have been terminated or resigned, and have not been 18 paid wages pursuant to Labor Code Section 203 and are owed restitution and waiting time
19 penalties for unpaid wages;

20 (f) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the State
21 of California, and who, within the one (1) year of the filing of this Complaint to the present have 22 worked as non-exempt employees and were not provided an accurate payroll record or wage
23 statement as required under Labor Code Sections 226 and 1174;

24 (g) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the State
25 of California, and who, within the four (4) years of the filing of this Complaint to the present,
26 have worked as non-exempt employees and were subjected to unlawful and unfair business
27 practices within the meaning of California's Unfair Competition Law and who suffered injury,
28 including lost money, as a result of Defendant's unlawful and unfair business practices.

1 46. Throughout discovery in this litigation, Plaintiff may find it appropriate and/or 2 necessary to amend the definition of the Class. Plaintiff will formally define and designate a class
3 definition at such time when Plaintiff seeks to certify the Class alleged in this Complaint.

4 47. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to 5 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 because there is a well-defined common interest of many 6 persons and it is impractical to bring them all before the court.

7 48. The Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 8 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 because:

9 (a) The questions of law and fact common to Class predominate over any 10 question affecting only individual class members;

11 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and 12 efficient adjudication of the claims of the Class members;

13 (c) Class is so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the Class
14 before the Court;

15 (d) Plaintiff and Class Members will not be able to obtain effective and 16 economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;

17 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable 18 relief for the common law and statutory violations and other improprieties and in obtaining 19 adequate compensation for the damages and injuries which Defendant's actions have 20 inflicted upon Class;

21 (f) There is a community of interest in ensuring that the combined assets and 22 available insurance of the Defendant are sufficient to adequately compensate Class
23 Members for the injuries sustained;

24 (g) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual 25 members of the Class would create a risk of:

26 (1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of 27 the Class which would establish an incompatible standard of conduct for Defendant; and/or 28

1 (2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a 2 practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the 3 adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests,
4 including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those 5 parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendant; and

6 (h) Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 7 Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to Class as a whole.

8 49. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and Class is 9 readily ascertainable:

10 (a) Numerosity: The members of Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous 11 that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire 12 Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 13 100 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 14 Defendant's records.

15 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the 16 interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of 17 interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as 18 demonstrated herein.

19 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the 20 interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of 21 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or 22 interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel,
23 are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff 24 has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and 25 attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this 26 action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

27 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair
28

1 and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

2 1. The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the 3 prosecution or defense of separate actions;

4 2. The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already 5 commenced by or against members of the Class;

6 3. The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in 7 the particular forum; and

8 4. The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

9 (e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to 10 resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, 11 current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
12 retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their 13 former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or 14 other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint 15 with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their 16 privacy is protected.
17

18 50. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 19 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. Defendant's own 20 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the 21 contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would 22 contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as 23 published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by 24 other methods suitable to Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 Failure to Pay All Wages for All Hours Worked and Sick Pay

3 (Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

4 51. Plaintiff and Class Members re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding
5 paragraphs of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

6 52. Labor Code Section 510, subdivision (a) states in pertinent part: "Any work in 7 excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek...
8 shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for 9 any employee."

10 53. Labor Code Section 1194, subdivision (a) states: "Notwithstanding any agreement 11 to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal 12 overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the 13 unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including 14 interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit."

15 54. Further, pursuant to Labor Code Section 1197, payment of less than the minimum 16 wage fixed by the Labor Commission is unlawful.

17 55. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 1198, it is unlawful to employ persons for longer
18 than the hours set by the Industrial Welfare Commission or under conditions prohibited by the 19 IWC Wage Order(s).

20 56. Pursuant to the IWC Wage Order(s), Defendant is required to pay Plaintiff and 21 Class Members for all hours worked, meaning the time during which an employee is subject to 22 the control of an employer, including all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, 23 whether or not required to do so.

24 57. During the Class Period, Defendant were obligated to pay Plaintiff and Class
25 Members for all hours worked including straight time wages and overtime wages. Defendant
26 required Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of eight (8) hours per day, sometimes up
27 to twelve (12) hours, without paying overtime and double time pay. Defendant refused to pay
28 overtime and double-time despite Plaintiff's and Class Members' numerous complaints about unpaid overtime and double-time pay. This is confirmed by Plaintiff's time records and wage statements. Defendant also regularly used a system of time rounding in a manner that resulted, over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendant's operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to the minute. Accordingly, Defendant frequently paid Plaintiff and Class Members less than all their work time. Some of this unpaid work also should have been paid at the overtime rate. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendant failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and Class Members worked.

58. Plaintiff and Class Members were required to work overtime in excess of eight (8) hours per workday and in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek, but were not paid at the proper overtime rate of pay.

59. Labor Code Section 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month on days designated in advance by the employer as regular paydays. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 204 (a) labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 204 (d) the requirements of this Section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Plaintiff and Class were also entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours worked. However, during Class period, Defendant systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendant, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendant, and all wages for all hours worked.

1 60. Defendant's pattern, practice and uniform administration of corporate policy
2 regarding illegal employee compensation as described herein is unlawful and creates an
3 entitlement, pursuant to Labor Code Section 218, to recovery by Plaintiff and the members of the 4 Class, in a civil action, of the unpaid balance of the full amount of wages owing, calculated at the 5 appropriate rate.

6 61. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 1194.2(a) (which provides that in any action under 7 Labor Code § 1194, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages), the members
8 of Class seek recovery of liquidated damages on the straight-time portion of uncompensated hours
9 of work (not including the overtime portion thereof) in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully
10 unpaid and interest thereon.

11 62. That calculation of individual damages for Class Members may at some point be 12 required does not foreclose the possibility of taking common evidence on questions regarding 13 their entitlement to overtime compensation. Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232; Hypolite v.
14 Carleson (1975) 52 Cal.App.3d 566; Employment Development Dept. v. Superior Court (1981)
15 30 Cal.3d 256).

16 63. Labor Code § 246 (a) an employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works in 17 California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of 18 employment is entitled to paid sick days. Labor Code § 246 (i) requires employers to provide an 19 employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available.

20 64. During the Class Period, Defendant maintained a policy and practice of failing to
21 provide Plaintiff and Class with paid sick leave as well as to provide a written notice of accrued
22 paid sick leave. On information and belief, Defendant's failure to provide an employee with 23 written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available was not a single, isolated
24 incident, but was instead part of Defendant's policy and practice that applied to Class.

25 65. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 218.6 and 1194(a) and Civil Code Section 3287,
26 Class Members seek recovery of pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered herein.

27 66. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 218.5 and/or 1194, Class Members request that 28 the Court award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by them in this action.

1 and Class Members have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in an amount which is
2 presently unknown, but which exceed the jurisdictional limits of this Court and which will be
3 ascertained according to proof at trial.

4 74. Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of Class Members, requests recovery of meal
5 period compensation pursuant to Labor Code Section 226.7 for the four (4) years prior to filing
6 this complaint, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendant in a sum as 7 provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

8 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

9 Failure to Provide Rest Periods or Compensation in Lieu Thereof

10 (Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

11 75. Plaintiff and Class Members re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding
12 paragraphs of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

13 76. The IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code Section 226.7 provides that employers
14 must authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods at the rate of ten (10) minutes rest 15 time per four (4) work hours or major fraction thereof.

16 77. Labor Code Section 226.7, subdivision (b) provides that if an employer fails to 17 provide an employee rest period in accordance with this Section, the employer shall pay the 18 employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday
19 that the rest period is not provided.

20 78. During the Class Period, Defendant did not provide Plaintiff and Class Members
21 with a ten-minute rest period for every four (4) work hours or major fraction thereof. Therefore,
22 Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided lawful rest periods.

23 79. Defendant failed and/or refused to implement a policy by which Plaintiff and Class
24 Members could receive rest periods and/or work free rest periods. By and through its actions, 25 Defendant intentionally and improperly denied rest periods to Plaintiff and Class Members in 26 violation of Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512.

27 80. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and Class have worked more than four (4)
28 hours in a workday.

81. By virtue of the Defendant's unlawful failure to provide rest periods to Plaintiff and Class Members, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages, in amounts which are presently unknown, but which exceed the jurisdictional limits of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

82. Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of employees similarly situated, requests recovery of rest period compensation pursuant to Labor Code Section 226.7 for the four (4) years prior to filing this Complaint, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendant, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and/or any other statute.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

(Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

83. Plaintiff and Class re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

84. Labor Code Section 1174, subdivision (d) requires an employer to keep at a central location in California, or at the plant or establishment at which the employee is employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by, and the wages paid to, each employee.

85. Throughout the Class Period, Defendant failed to maintain accurate time records. Defendant failed to record and pay overtime and double-time pay.

86. Defendant's failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and Class the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendant's records. Therefore, Plaintiff and Class had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendant. As a direct result, Plaintiff and Class have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendant to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendant's knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class have

1 also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing
2 the wage payments paid to them.

3 87. Labor Code Section 226, subdivision (a) requires an employer to provide 4 employees—either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee’s
5 wages, or separately when wages are paid by personal check or cash—an accurate itemized wage
6 statement in writing showing

7 (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee . . . , (4) all deductions
8 . . . , (5) net wages, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7)
9 the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number 10 or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and 11 address of the legal entity that is the employer . . . , and (9) all applicable hourly rates in 12 effect during the pay period and corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate
13 by the employee

14 88. Moreover, the IWC Wage Orders require that every employer shall keep accurate
15 information with respect to each employee, including time records showing when each employee
16 begins and ends each work period, the total daily hours worked by each employee and the total 17 hours worked in each payroll period, and applicable rates of pay.

18 89. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant willfully and intentionally failed
19 to make and/or keep records which accurately reflect the hours worked by Plaintiff and Class.
20 Specifically, Plaintiff believes that Defendant’s records do not reflect the overtime and double-
21 time hours and pay, do not accurately reflect all hours worked, when Plaintiff and Class worked 22 during their meal and rest periods and/or took untimely meal periods or worked for hours not 23 paid.

24 90. Labor Code Section 226, subdivision (e) provides that if an employer knowingly 25 and intentionally fails to provide a statement itemizing, inter alia, the gross and net wages earned, 26 the total hours worked by the employee and the applicable hourly overtime rates, causing the 27 employee injury, then the employee is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or 28 fifty dollars ($50.00) for the initial violation and one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each subsequent violation, up to four thousand dollars ($4,000.00). Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant willfully failed to make or keep accurate records for Plaintiff and Class.

91. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant's failure to keep accurate payroll records, as described above, violated Labor Code Section 1174, subdivision (d) and Section 226, subdivision (a), and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s). Pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699, subdivision (f)(2), Plaintiff and Class are entitled to penalties of $100.00 and for the initial violation and $200.00 for each subsequent violation for every pay period during which these records and information were not kept by Defendant.

92. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant's failure to keep and maintain accurate records and information, as described above, was willful, and Plaintiff and Class are entitled to statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 1174.5.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay Wages upon Termination of Employment (Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

93. Plaintiff and Class re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

94. Plaintiff's employment with Defendant ended on or about February 22, 2023. Plaintiff and certain Class who ended their employment with Defendant during the Class Period, were entitled to be promptly paid for all hours worked, including lawful regular time compensation, overtime compensation, double-time compensation, and other premiums, as required by Labor Code Sections 201 through 203. Plaintiff is also entitled to meal period and rest period premium pay in accordance with Labor Code Sections 226 and 226.7.

95. Plaintiff and Class were not compensated for their unlawful and/or missed meal periods and/or rest periods, and were not paid proper regular time compensation, overtime compensation or double-time compensation in accordance with law as a result of Defendant's illegal rounding practice.

96. To date, Plaintiff and Class Members who ended their employment with Defendant during the Class Period have not been compensated for all hours worked.

97. Plaintiff and the affected Class Members seek the payment of penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 203, according to proof.

98. Plaintiff is also entitled to attorneys' fees and costs, pursuant to Labor Code Section 1194, and prejudgment interest.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Business Expenditures

(Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

99. Plaintiff and Class re-allege and incorporate by reference all the above paragraphs of this complaint as if fully alleged herein.

100. California Labor Code §2802, states "An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties."

101. Plaintiff and Class were not reimbursed by Defendant for necessary expenditures as a direct consequence of the discharge of their duties. During the Class Period, Defendant wrongfully required Plaintiff and Class Members to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendant without reimbursement. Defendant required Plaintiff and Class Members to purchase masks during the COVID pandemic but failed to reimburse for the purchase of masks. Defendant also required Plaintiff and Class Members to wear and wash their uniforms but failed to reimburse for the costs of washing uniforms. Plaintiff required Plaintiff and Class Members to use their personal cell phone to make and receive work related calls and text messages from their supervisors but failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for those expenses. Plaintiff and Class incurred these substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendant, and Defendant have failed to indemnify Plaintiff and Class for these employment-related expenses.

102. Defendant knowingly, willingly and intentionally attempted to offset the cost of doing business on the Plaintiff and Class.

103. Defendant had a corporate practice and policy of requiring Plaintiff and Class to shoulder the burden of Defendant's cost of doing business by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and

1 Class for necessary expenditures, specifically requiring Plaintiff and Class to use their personal
2 cell phones, vehicles for work and to purchase tools.

3 104. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Class are entitled to an award of “necessary
4 expenditures or losses” shall include all reasonable costs, including, but not limited to, attorney’s
5 fees and interest.

6 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 Unfair Business Practices

8 (Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

9 105. Plaintiff and Class re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs 10 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

11 106. Business and Professions Code Section 17200 et seq. (also referred to herein as 12 the “Unfair Business Practices Act” or “Unfair Competition Law”) prohibits unfair competition 13 in the form of any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice.

14 107. Business and Professions Code Section 17204 allows “a person who has suffered 15 injury in fact and has lost money or property as a result of the unfair competition” to prosecute a 16 civil action for violation of the Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”).

17 108. Labor Code Section 90.5, subdivision (a) states that it is the public policy of 18 California to vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not 19 required to work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect employers who 20 comply with the law from those who attempt to gain competitive advantage at the expense of their 21 workers by failing to comply with minimum labor standards.

22 109. Beginning at an exact date unknown to Plaintiff, but at least since the date four (4)
23 years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, Defendant has committed acts of unfair competition as 24 defined by the Unfair Business Practices Act, by engaging in the unlawful, unfair and fraudulent
25 business practices and acts described in this Complaint including but not limited to violations of 26 Labor Code Sections 201-204, 210, 246, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2802, 2699(f)(2) as well as other 27 statutes.
28

1 110. The violations of these laws and regulations, as well as of the fundamental 2 California public policies protecting workers, serve as unlawful predicate acts and practices for 3 purposes of Business and Professions Code Section 17200 et seq.

4 111. The acts and practices described above constitute unfair, unlawful and fraudulent
5 business practices, and unfair competition, within the meaning of Business and Professions Code
6 Section 17200 et seq. Among other things, the acts and practices have forced Plaintiff and other 7 similarly situated employees to labor for many consecutive hours without receiving the meal and 8 rest periods and overtime compensation to which they are entitled by law, while enabling 9 Defendant to gain an unfair competitive advantage over law-abiding employers and competitors.

10 112. As a result of Defendant's acts, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury 11 in fact in being denied their statutorily entitled meal and rest periods and full compensation for 12 hours worked.

13 113. As a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned acts and practices, Plaintiff
14 and Class have suffered lost wages in an amount to be proven at trial.

15 114. Business and Professions Code Section 17203 provides that a court may make 16 such orders or judgments as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by any person
17 of any practice which constitutes unfair competition. Injunctive relief is necessary and 18 appropriate to prevent Defendant from repeating its unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business acts 19 and business practices alleged above.

20 115. Business and Professions Code Section 17203 provides that the Court may restore 21 to any person in interest any money or property that may have been acquired by means of such 22 unfair competition. Plaintiff and Class are entitled to restitution pursuant to Business and 23 Professions Code Section 17203 for all wages and payments unlawfully withheld from 24 employees, including the fair value of the meal and rest periods taken away from them during the 25 four-year period prior to the filing of this Complaint, as well as for all expenses or losses incurred
26 by Plaintiff and Class in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her 27 obedience to the directions of the employer.

1 116. Business and Professions Code Section 17202 provides, “Notwithstanding Section
2 3369 of the Civil Code, specific or preventative relief may be granted to enforce a penalty,
3 forfeiture, or penal law in a case of unfair competition.” Plaintiff and Class are entitled to enforce
4 all applicable penalty provisions of the Labor Code pursuant to Business and Professions Code
5 Section 17202.

6 117. Plaintiff’s success in this action will enforce important rights affecting public
7 interest, and in that regard, Plaintiff sues on behalf of the general public, as well as herself and 8 other similarly situated employees. Plaintiff and Class seek and are entitled to restitution, civil 9 penalties, declaratory and injunctive relief, and all other equitable remedies owing them.

10 118. Plaintiff herein takes upon himself enforcement of these laws and lawful claims.
11 There is a financial burden involved in pursuing this action. The action is seeking to vindicate a 12 public right, and it would be against the interests of justice to penalize Plaintiff by forcing her to 13 pay attorneys’ fees from the recovery in this action. Attorneys’ fees are appropriate pursuant to 14 Code of Civil Procedure Section 1021.5 and otherwise.

15 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 Violation of California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698 *et seq.

17 (Against Defendants, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

18 119. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs herein, 19 as if fully alleged herein.

20 120. Plaintiff seeks recovery of penalties under the Labor Code Private Attorney
21 General Act of 2004 (“PAGA.”) (Labor Code sections 2698 et seq.)

22 121. PAGA permits an “aggrieved employee” to recover penalties on behalf of 23 himself/herself and other employees subject to violations of the Labor Code, including violations
24 of sections 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 1174, 1194, and 2802, as well as the applicable
25 Wage Order.

26 122. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants at all relevant times employed one 27 or more employees.
28

123. For those code sections that provide for the recovery of civil penalties, Plaintiff will seek on behalf of all aggrieved employees those penalties. For those sections of the Labor Code that do not specifically provide for civil penalties, Plaintiff will seek civil penalties of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f).

124. Section 2699, subdivision (a) provides that civil penalties may be “recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 2699, subd. (a).) Section 2699, subdivision (g), provides that an employee who prevails in a civil action under section 2699 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

125. The State of California, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees are, therefore, entitled to civil penalties, attorneys’ fees and costs, according to proof.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendant as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Causes of Action;

2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and

3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

As to the First Cause of Action

4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California Labor Code §§ 204, 246, 510, 551, 552, 1194, 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all wages due;

5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;

6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the

1 date such amounts were due;

2 7. For liquidated damages;

3 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 4 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

5 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and 6 appropriate.

7 As to the Second Cause of Action

8 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California
9 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

10 11. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

11 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the 12 date such amounts were due;

13 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure §
14 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

15 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and 16 appropriate.

17 As to the Third Cause of Action

18 15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California
19 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

20 16. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

21 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the 22 date such amounts were due;

23 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure §
24 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

25 19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and

NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE SECTION § 2698 ET SEQ.

Re: Cabello v. Complete Automotive Services, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that my office has been retained by Jose L. Cabello (“Plaintiff”) to pursue a Labor Code Private Attorney General Act (PAGA) representative action (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) against his former employer Complete Automotive Services, Inc. (“Defendant”). The purpose of this letter is to comply with PAGA and set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which Plaintiff alleges Defendant engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendant’s aggrieved employees.

Plaintiff wishes to pursue a PAGA representative action on behalf of himself as an aggrieved employee, on behalf of the State of California, and on behalf of all other current and former aggrieved employees who worked for Defendant in California as an hourly paid, non-exempt employee at any time within the applicable statutory period (hereafter, the “Aggrieved Employees”).

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of Defendant suffered the Labor Code violations described below.

Factual Background Regarding Plaintiff's Employment with Defendant

Defendant owns and operates an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, Defendant is subject to the California Labor Code and the Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”).

Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a preparer and painter of car bumpers from approximately November 2019 to January 31, 2023, primarily in Los Angeles County. Defendant classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from overtime. During the time period that Plaintiff was employed by Defendant, Plaintiff typically worked 6 days per week, and between 10 to 12 hours each workday.

Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendant committed numerous labor code violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendant was typical and illustrative.

Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Overtime

Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

In addition, Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant maintained a policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked including straight time wages and overtime wages. Defendant required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of eight (8) hours per day, sometimes up to twelve (12) hours, without paying overtime and double time pay. Defendant refused to pay overtime and double-time despite Plaintiff's and the Aggrieved Employees' numerous complaints about unpaid overtime and double-time pay. This is confirmed by Plaintiff's time records and wage statements. Defendant also regularly used a system of time rounding in a manner that resulted, over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendant's operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to the minute. Accordingly, Defendant frequently paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees less than all their work time. Some of this unpaid work also should have been paid at the overtime rate. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendant failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay for all hours worked, including overtime.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the start of sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s).

Despite these legal requirements, Defendant wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate written policies or practices providing meal periods for Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of meal periods. Defendant only provided one unpaid one-hour unpaid meal period regardless of the hours of work of Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees. When Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked more than ten hours they have never been authorized or taken their second meal periods. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved

Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods and that were not provided. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods and that were not provided.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

Defendant, however, wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendant authorizing and permitting them to take a 10 minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a rest period. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendant did not schedule rest periods at all. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have never been authorized and taken their first, second and third rest periods. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods and to not authorize or permit them to take any rest periods.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked

Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

Defendant, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendant failed to maintain accurate time records including records of overtime and double-time hours, meal periods. Defendant's failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendant's records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendant. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendant to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendant's knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 1174.5 for failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods.

Failure to Reimburse and Indemnify Expenses

California Labor Code § 2802 requires employers to reimburse employees for their necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of the employer. Throughout the statutory period, Defendant wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendant without reimbursement. Defendant required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to purchase masks during the COVID pandemic but failed to reimburse for the purchase of masks. Defendant also required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to wear and wash their uniforms but failed to reimburse for the costs of washing uniforms. Plaintiff required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to use their personal cell phone to make and receive work related calls and text messages from their supervisors but failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for those expenses.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees incurred these substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendant, and Defendant have failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendant failed, and continues to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendant's employ. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum and straight time wages), missed meal periods, and missed rest periods.

Defendant's conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to timely pay all wages at termination.

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. Lab. Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).

The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” Lab. Code § 226(e)(1).

Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to state overtime hours worked, failure to identify overtime and double-time rates, the failure to correctly list gross wages earned, and the failure to list the true net wages earned, including wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and correct wages earned for all hours worked. Moreover, during some pay periods Defendant failed to state the hourly rate, the total hours worked, the pay period beginning and end date in the wage statements at all.

As a result of Defendant violating Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendant’s failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding $4,000 dollars per employee.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 226.3 for failing to furnish accurate itemized wage statements.

Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month on days designated in advance by the employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Lab. Code § 204(a). The requirements of this section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Lab. Code § 204(d).

Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were also entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendant systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendant, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendant, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendant owe employees the legally required wages for unpaid wages, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 210 for failing to pay all earned wages twice per month.

Failure to Provide Paid Sick Leave and Written Notice of Available Paid Sick Leave

Labor Code § 246 (a) an employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days.

Labor Code § 246 (i) requires employers to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available.

During the statutory period, Defendant maintained a policy and practice of failing to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with the paid sick leave as well as to provide a written notice of accrued paid sick leave. On information and belief, Defendants' failure to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead part of Defendant's policy and practice that applied to the Aggrieved Employees.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide any information on accrued sick leave.

Action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA

In light of the above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant violated the following provisions of the Labor Code with respect to the Aggrieved Employees:

1. Labor Code § 204, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 by failing to pay for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages;
2. Labor Code § 226.7, 512 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to provide meal periods;
3. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to authorize and permit rest periods;
4. Labor Code § 1174.5 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed;
5. Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse and indemnify employees for expenses and losses in the direct consequence and discharge of their duties;
6. Labor Code §§ 201 to 203 by willfully failing to pay all wages owed at termination;
7. Labor Code § 226 by failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
8. Labor Code § 204 by failing to pay all earned wages two times per month.
9. Labor Code § 246 by failing to provide paid sick leave and written notice of available paid sick leave.

Therefore, on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff seeks applicable penalties related to the violations alleged above pursuant to the PAGA. These include, but are not limited to, penalties under Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2802, and 2699(f)(2).

Plaintiff has placed Defendant on notice by mailing a certified copy of this correspondence to its corporate address and address of the agent for service, as indicated on the first page.

The facts and claims contained herein are based on the information available at the time of this writing. Therefore, if through discovery and/or expert review, Plaintiff becomes aware of additional compensation owed or losses incurred by Plaintiff or by any other aggrieved employee of Defendant or any additional facts, Plaintiff expressly reserves the right to revise these facts and/or add any new claims by amending the claim letter or by adding applicable causes of action to the complaint which will relate back to the date of this letter.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

I am employed in the county of Los Angeles, State of California. I am over the age of 18 and not a party to the within action; my business address is 1336 Rossmoyne Avenue Glendale, California 91207. On July 17, 2023, I served the foregoing document described as:

Jorge Miguel Gomez Ramirez
13222 Raymer St. #C & D
North Hollywood, CA 91605

[✓] BY U.S. MAIL: I deposited such envelope in the mail at Los Angeles, California. The envelope was mailed with postage thereon fully prepaid. I am “readily familiar” with the firm’s practice of collection and processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice it would be deposited with U.S. postal service on that same day with postage thereon fully prepaid at Los Angeles, California in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of the party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than one day after date of deposit for mailing in affidavit.

Executed on July 17, 2023, at Glendale, California.
