CASE NO.: 30-2023-01326591-CU-OE-CXC

Assigned to the Hon. William Claster

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

HEARING INFO

Date: October 10, 2025

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Dept.: CX105

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on October 10, 2025, at 9:00 a.m. or as soon thereafter
3 as the matter may be heard by the Honorable William Claster in Department CX101 of the Orange 4 County Superior Court in the State of California, located at 751 West Santa Ana, Santa Ana, 5 California 92701, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382, Plaintiff Devina Vaughan, 6 individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, will and hereby does move the Court
7 for entry of an Order granting final approval of the parties' Class Action and PAGA Settlement 8 Agreement (the "Settlement Agreement" and/or the "Settlement"), which was preliminary 9 approved by this Court on April 28, 2025.

10 This Motion, which is supported and unopposed by Defendant Keller Supply Company 11 ("Defendant"), seeks final approval of a $281,000 Settlement on behalf of the Settlement Class 12 Members and entry of judgment.

13 Specifically, Plaintiff will and hereby does move the Court to grant final approval of the 14 Settlement Agreement, and enter the Proposed Order and Final Judgment filed concurrently 15 herewith:

16 1. Finally certifying the Settlement Class, as defined in the Settlement Agreement 17 and the Court's Order Granting Preliminary Approval of the Class Action Settlement;

18 2. Finally appointing Plaintiff Devina Vaughan as the Class Representative for 19 purposes of settlement;

20 3. Finally appointing Joshua Falakassa of Falakassa Law, P.C. and Mehrdad Bokhour 21 of Bokhour Law Group, P.C. as Class Counsel for purposes of settlement;

22 4. Finding that the Class Notice was properly provided to the Settlement Class in 23 accordance with the Court's Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement;

24 5. Finally approving the Settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable, based upon the 25 terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement;

26 6. Binding Participating Class Members to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, 27 including the Release specified therein; and 28 7. Retaining jurisdiction to enforce the Settlement Agreement.

1 This Motion is based upon this notice, the accompanying memorandum of points and 2 authorities, the Declarations of Mehrdad Bokhour and Joshua Falakassa in Support of Final 3 Approval of Class Action Settlement, and the Declaration of Plaintiff Devina Vaughan in Support 4 of the Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, and the 5 Declaration of Garvin Brown of ILYM Group, Inc.–all filed concurrently herewith; the records 6 and files in this Action, and any other further evidence or argument that the Court may receive at 7 or before the hearing.

7 exempt hourly employees in California between from May 17, 2019, to August 15, 2024 (the 8 “Class Members” or the “Class”).

9 Plaintiff also represents a group of PAGA Members on behalf of the State of California 10 as private attorney general pursuant to the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act 11 of 2004 (“PAGA”). (Lab. Code, §§ 2698–26100.) The PAGA Members include any non-exempt 12 hourly employee who works or worked for Defendant in California at any time from May 12, 13 2022, to August 15, 2024.

14 A true and correct copy of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement 15 (“Settlement Agreement”) is attached as Exhibit B to the concurrently filed Declaration of 16 Mehrdad Bokhour in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement 17 (“Bokhour Decl.”). The Settlement Agreement, in its entirety, is incorporated herein by reference.

18 On or about April 28, 2025, the Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement 19 Agreement. Pursuant to that order, on May 28, 2025, ILYM Group, Inc. (the “Settlement 20 Administrator” or “ILYM”) mailed the Court-approved Notice of Proposed Class Action 21 Settlement (the “Class Notice”) to all 265 Class Members. (See Declaration of Garvin Brown of 22 ILYM, in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Bench Decl.”), at 23 ¶¶ 3-15.)

24 A copy of the Class Notice is attached to the Brown Decl. as Exhibit A.

25 II. SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT AND ESSENTIAL POINTS

26 Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff respectfully requests 27 that this Court grant final approval of the Class and PAGA Representative Action Settlement 28 Agreement (the “Settlement Agreement” and/or the “Settlement”) already on file in this action,

1 which is unopposed by Defendant and enter the Proposed Order and Final Judgment in this matter.

2 There are several essential reasons why this Settlement should be approved, and judgment 3 entered accordingly. They are as follows:

4 • The parties agreed to a $281,000 Settlement Amount tailored to a limited release 5 of the claims alleged on behalf of the Settlement Class Members;

6 • The Settlement Class Members were deemed to participate in the Settlement 7 (unless the Settlement Class Members opted out of the Settlement), and were not required to 8 submit a claim form to receive funds;

9 • There is no reversion to Defendant; and 10 • There are zero objections to the Settlement and zero Requests for Exclusion from 11 the Settlement.

12 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court issue an order 13 (1) finally certifying the Class; (2) finally appointing Plaintiff as the Class Representative; 14 (3) finally appointing Plaintiff's attorneys as class counsel, (4) finding that notice of the 15 settlement was properly provided to the Class Members; (5) finally approving the Settlement 16 Agreement as fair, adequate, and reasonable; (6) finally approving the allocation for attorneys' 17 fees of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus necessary incurred litigation costs; 18 (7) finally approving ILYM as the settlement administrator; (8) finally approving the allocation 19 of $10,000.00 from the Gross Settlement Amount for PAGA penalties; (9) finally approving a 20 class representative incentive payment to Plaintiff in an amount of $10,000; (10) binding all 21 participating class members to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, including the release 22 specified therein; and (11) retaining jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the Settlement 23 Agreement.

24 In accordance with the analysis and law set forth herein, the Settlement should be 25 approved, and judgment entered based on the determination that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, 26 adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class.

27 III. PERTINENT BACKGROUND AND SETTLEMENT TERMS

28 Plaintiff and the Settlement Class Members include all current and former non-exempt, non-union hourly employees of Defendant who worked in California at any time between May 17, 2019, to August 15, 2024 (Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement; ¶ 24 (“Bokhour Decl.”)).

Plaintiff’s primary allegations were that Defendant (1) failed to pay all wages owed, (2) failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods or pay compensation in lieu thereof at the “regular rate of pay”, (3) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, (4) failed to provide timely pay upon separation of employment, and (5) claims for civil penalties under the PAGA arising from the alleged Labor Code violations. (Id.)

The Settlement Class includes 265 individuals who performed work in a non-exempt position for Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period. The following is a breakdown reflecting how the funds are allocated under the Settlement Agreement (Declaration of Garvin Brown Regarding Notice and Settlement Administration (“Brown Decl.”), ¶ 16):

|                                           | Total Amount |
|-------------------------------------------|---------------------|
| Settlement Amount                  | $281,000.00        |
| Attorneys’ Fees (1/3)                     | $93,666.67         |
| Litigation Costs                          | $14,692.10         |
| Settlement Administrator Costs            | $6,000.00          |
| PAGA payment to LWDA (75% of $10k award) | $7,500.00          |
| PAGA payment to PAGA Members              | $2,500.00          |
| Class Representative Service Payment      | $10,000.00         |
| Net Settlement Amount       | $146,641.23 |

Settlement Class Members who did not opt out of the Settlement in a timely manner will be deemed to participate in the Settlement and shall become Participating Class Members without having to submit a claim form or take any other action. Each Participating Class Member will receive a pro-rata share of the Net Settlement Amount according to the percentage of weeks he/she worked during the Class Period, such that the amount actually distributed to Participating Class Members will equal 100% of the Net Settlement Amount.

Assuming the Court approves all of the amounts in the Settlement, the average payment to each Participating Class Member is estimated to be approximately $555.46, and the highest payment is estimated to be approximately $2,914.38. (Brown Decl. ¶ 14.)

1 Ten percent (10%) will be allocated as wages, subject to applicable local, state, and federal 2 tax withholdings; and ninety percent (90%) will be allocated as interest and as civil penalties 3 (pursuant to, e.g., California Labor Code Sections 203 and 226) from which no taxes will be 4 withheld. The Settlement Agreement provides that Defendant will fund the Settlement Amount 5 within thirty days after the Effective Date. Within ten days (10) thereafter, the Settlement 6 Administrator shall issue payments to cover all court-approved payments, including payments to 7 the Participating Class Members.

8 The Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement on April 28, 2025. Inherent in 9 the Court's grant of preliminary approval is a determination that the Settlement is presumptively 10 fair and provides fair and reasonable benefits to the Settlement Class. Thereafter, the Settlement 11 Administrator, ILYM, disseminated the Class Notice. (Brown Decl. ¶¶ 3-6.) The results of the 12 notice process are set forth in The Declaration of Garvin Brown and discussed in detail in Section 13 III below. Nevertheless, the reaction to the Settlement was overwhelmingly positive, as no 14 Settlement Class Member objected to the Settlement and no Settlement Class Member requested 15 exclusion from the Settlement. This represents a 100% participation rate by the Settlement Class.
16 (Brown Decl., ¶ 11.)

17 In light of this overwhelmingly positive reaction to the Settlement and its overall terms, it 18 is clear that the Settlement, which was the product of arm's-length negotiations, is fair and 19 reasonable, and the parties therefore respectfully request that the Court grant final approval and 20 enter the proposed judgment as requested. (See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 21 1794, 1800–1802 [class action settlements should be approved if they are fair and reasonable, and 22 a low percentage of objectors and opt-outs is evidence of an agreement's fairness].)

23 IV. THE NOTICE PROCESS

24 A. Notice to the Settlement Class Members

25 Pursuant to the Court's Preliminary Approval Order and the Settlement Agreement, the 26 parties directed the Settlement Administrator to review and update the Settlement Class Member 27 addresses, mail the Court-approved Class Notice to the Settlement Class Members, and process 28 their responses. (Brown Decl., ¶¶ 3-5.)

1 Before mailing the Class Notice, the Settlement Administrator performed a National 2 Change of Address search on all Settlement Class Members to determine if any had moved.
3 (Brown Decl., ¶ 5.)

4 On May 28, 2025, the Class Notice was sent via first-class mail to 265 Settlement Class 5 Members, advising them about the lawsuit and the Settlement. (Brown Decl., ¶ 6).

6 A total of only three Class Notices have been deemed undeliverable despite the Settlement 7 Administrator's skip-tracing efforts. To date, the settlement administrator has not received any 8 objections and no requests for exclusion.

9 In accordance with California Rules of Court, rules 3.766 (d) and 3.769 (f), the Class 10 Notice provided Settlement Class Members with (1) a brief explanation of the case; (2) an 11 explanation of each Settlement Class Member's right to opt out of the Settlement Class; (3) an 12 explanation of the process (and relevant deadlines) through which a Settlement Class Member 13 could opt out of the Settlement Class; (4) notice about the binding nature of the Judgment for 14 Settlement Class Members who do not opt-out; (5) an explanation of each Settlement Class 15 Member's right to appear through counsel; (6) an explanation of each Settlement Class Member's 16 right to appear at the fairness hearing and express views on the Settlement, i.e., object or otherwise 17 respond; and (7) an explanation of each Settlement Class Member's right to participate in the 18 Settlement and receive payment accordingly. (Attached hereto as Exhibit "A" to the Garvin 19 Brown Declaration is a true and correct copy of the Class Notice.)

20 B. There are Zero Objections and Zero Requests for Exclusion

21 California law makes clear that the percentage of objectors and opt-outs is an important 22 factor in the Court's consideration of a proposed class action settlement. (See Dunk, supra, 48 23 Cal.App.4th at 1802.) Indeed, the Ninth Circuit and other federal courts recognize that in the final 24 fairness analysis, the number or percentage of class members who object to the settlement is a 25 significant factor. (See Mandujano v. Basic Vegetable Prods., Inc., (9th Cir. 1976) 541 F.2d 672, 26 677; In re American Bank Note Holographics, Inc. (SDNY 2001) 127 F.Supp.2d 418, 425 ["[i]t 27 is well settled that the reaction of the class to the settlement is perhaps the most significant factor 28 to be weighed in considering its adequacy."])

1 In this case, as noted above, there are zero objections to the Settlement and zero requests
2 for exclusion from the Settlement--meaning that nearly all of the Settlement Class Members 3 elected to participate in the Settlement. (Brown Decl., ¶¶ 9-13.) Thus, the Settlement Class 4 overwhelmingly viewed this as a fair and reasonable Settlement.

5 V. EVALUATION OF THE SETTLEMENT

6 It is axiomatic that California law strongly favors and encourages settlements. (See 7 Stambaugh v. Super. Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236.) This presumption in favor of settlement 8 applies with particular force in the context of class actions. (See Ferguson v. Lieff, Cabraser, 9 Heimann & Bernstein (2003) 30 Cal.4th 1037 (Kennard, J., concurring and dissenting) [“[p]ublic 10 policy favoring settlement is especially weighty for class actions”]; Bell v. Am. Title Ins. Co.
11 (1991) 226 Cal.App.3d 1589, 1607-1608 [affirming the trial court’s approval of a class settlement 12 and implicitly endorsing its citation of federal precedent for the notion that there is a “strong 13 public policy in favor of settlement of class actions”]; see also Franklin v. Kaypro Corp. (9th Cir.
14 1989) 884 F.2d 1222, 1229, quoting Van Bronkhorst v. Safeco Corp. (9th Cir. 1976) 529 F.2d 15 943, 950 [“it hardly seems necessary to point out that there is an overriding public interest in 16 settling and quieting litigation. This is particularly true in class action suits”].)

17 When entertaining a request for final approval of a class action settlement, a court’s 18 fundamental consideration is whether the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable. (See Dunk, 19 supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801, fn. 7 [noting that state courts look to federal authority concerning 20 the approval of class settlements]; California Rules of Court, rule 3.769 (g).)

21 Importantly, fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-22 length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 23 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; (4) the percentage of objectors 24 and opt outs is small, and (5) the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund to a possible 25 recovery in light of all attendant risks of litigation.” (Dunk 1802.)

26 All five of these factors are discussed in detail below.

27 A. The Settlement Was Reached Through Informed Arms-Length Negotiation

28 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement unless evidence to the contrary is offered. Thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were conducted in good faith. (See, 3 Alba Conte & Newberg, supra, at § 11.51.) The proposed Settlement here was the product of arm's-length negotiation before a highly experienced and reputable California wage and hour class action mediator, Marc Feder, Esq., to reach a settlement. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 26.)

Here, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have diligently investigated the claims raised in this litigation and, after taking into account the disputed factual and legal issues involved in this action, the risks attending further prosecution, and the benefits to be received pursuant to the compromise and settlement of the Action as set forth in the Settlement, concluded that the Settlement terms are fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the Settlement Class. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 27.)

As the Settlement Agreement itself reveals, there is no preferential treatment for any segment of the Settlement Class, as the Settlement is designed to fairly and adequately compensate all Settlement Class Members. Pursuant to California Rules of Court Rule 3.769(b), the parties have disclosed the agreed upon and proposed Attorneys' Fees, which are well within the range of reasonableness for matters of this nature. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 28.)

B. Plaintiff's Investigation Was More Than Sufficient

As set forth at the time of preliminary approval, Class Counsels' extensive investigation into the facts and merits of the wage and hour claims alleged included analyzing substantial amounts of information, correspondence, documents, timekeeping records and payroll data, relevant wage and hour policies and procedures, and evidence relating to the class size and the commonality of the claims.

During this process, Plaintiff and Class Counsel conducted investigations into the potential claims of the similarly situated employees, including interviewing multiple putative class members, as well as researching and investigating Defendant's defenses.

Finally, Class Counsel synthesized and analyzed information provided by Defendant regarding the total Settlement Class Members, the number of current and former non-exempt employees, and the number of employees who worked during various time periods and prepared comprehensive damages calculations regarding the wage and hour claims at issue. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 29.)

C. Class Counsel Are Experienced in Similar Litigation and Endorse the Settlement

Class Counsel are experienced in this type of litigation, and they have (and hereby do) represent that this Settlement is fair and reasonable. (Bokhour Decl., ¶¶ 3-13; Declaration of Joshua Falakassa in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Falakassa Decl.” ¶¶ 3-8); see 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1152 [Final approval of settlement affirmed where counsel were all experienced litigators with class-action experience and had recommended settlement based on the negotiated terms].)

D. Reasonable Estimate of the Nature and Amount of Recovery

Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval contained a comprehensive Kullar analysis (which sufficiently provided the Court with “basic information about the nature and magnitude of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the consideration being paid for the release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133.) Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, later clarified Kullar by noting that an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical amount that the class could recover was not part of the “basic information” that counsel was required to produce:

Greenwell misunderstands Kullar, apparently interpreting it to require the record in all cases to contain evidence in the form of an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims – a number which appears nowhere in the record of the case. But Kullar does not, as Greenwell claims, require any such explicit statement of value; it requires a record which allows “an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.

Of course, a settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 246, 250.)

1 (“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process ... even if the relief afforded 2 by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be 3 successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed 4 be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding 5 litigation.”)

6 In light of the uncertainties of protracted litigation, this negotiated Settlement reflects the 7 best practicable recovery for the Settlement Class. While the total Settlement amount is, of course, 8 a compromise figure, the potential risks and opportunities of both parties were effectively 9 weighed and considered by the parties, resulting in a fair and equitable Settlement. Based upon 10 detailed data obtained through discovery and information exchanges and factoring in claim 11 certification probabilities and liability probabilities, Class Counsel formulated detailed damages 12 models to evaluate the claims in preparation for mediation and to reach a realistic and reasonable 13 resolution. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 29.)

14 Of course, Defendant denies that any damages should be assessed and denies all of the 15 value assessed by Plaintiff. (Id.) Notwithstanding these arguments, the Settlement commits 16 Defendant to pay a Settlement Amount of $281,000 to settle the litigation.

17 VI. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES ARE FAIR, REASONABLE, AND 18 SHOULD BE AWARDED

19 For their efforts in creating a common fund for the benefit of the Settlement Class, the 20 Settlement Agreement provides that Class Counsel may seek reasonable Attorneys’ Fees of 21 $93,666.67, which is one-third of the Settlement Amount. These fees are warranted under the law 22 and within the range of fees commonly awarded in similar class action cases.

23 As shown herein, the requested percentage of one-third of the Settlement Amount as 24 payment for Attorneys’ Fees should be granted for several reasons, including the following: (1) 25 one-third is the standard benchmark in California for class action settlements (see e.g., Chavez v.
26 Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n. 11 (“Empirical studies show that, regardless 27 whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used fee awards in class actions average 28 around one-third of the recovery”); and (2) that the California Supreme Court recently held that

1 the percentage of the fund method survives in California class action cases (Laffitte v. Robert Half 2 International, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480).

3 Accordingly, Plaintiff's Attorneys' Fees request should receive final approval.

4 A. Plaintiff is Entitled to Recover Reasonable Attorneys' Fees Under the Labor
5 Code

6 Plaintiff and the Settlement Class in this action are entitled to recover reasonable 7 Attorneys' Fees and Costs under section 218.5 of the California Labor Code, which provides that, 8 "[i]n any action brought for the nonpayment of wages ... the Court shall award reasonable 9 attorneys' fees and costs to the prevailing party."

10 In addition, Plaintiff and the Settlement Class are entitled to recover reasonable Attorneys' 11 Fees pursuant to section 1194.2 of the Labor Code, which provides that, "... any employee 12 receiving less than the legal minimum wage ... applicable to the employee is entitled to recover 13 in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage... including ...
14 reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit."

15 Plaintiff is further entitled to Attorneys' Fees and Costs under section 226(e) of the Labor 16 Code (employee who prevails on claim for itemized wage statement violation "is entitled to an 17 award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees"); under PAGA (Labor Code § 2699(g), which 18 provides "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable 19 attorney's fees and costs, including any filing fee paid"); and, potentially, section 1021.5 of the 20 California Code of Civil Procedure.

21 B. Class Counsels' Request for Fees Is Reasonable and Properly Calculated as a 22 Percentage of the Common Fund

23 Under the "common fund" doctrine, the request for Attorneys' Fees in the amount of 1/3 24 of the Settlement Amount is reasonable and appropriate, because (1) it is within the approved 25 range for percentages awarded as attorneys' fees in similar cases; (2) it is supported by the high 26 quality and amount of Class Counsels' work on this case and the positive results obtained for the 27 Settlement Class; (3) the Settlement Class had sufficient notice of the attorneys' fee request; and 28 (4) it is supported by the fact that this case was handled on a contingency basis and was undertaken

1 despite numerous risks and expenses.

2 1. The Attorneys' Fees Requested Here Fall Within the Reasonable Range
3 Awarded in Similar Cases Under the Well-established Common Fund
4 Method

5 The California Supreme Court has approved trial courts' usage of the common fund 6 method of awarding attorneys' fees in wage and hour class actions, like this one, and routinely 7 uphold attorneys' fees requests of 1/3 of the total settlement amount obtained for the class. (See 8 Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal. 5th 480, 506; see also, 4 Newberg on Class Actions, 9 § 14:6 at 552 ("fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery").

10 2. The High Quality of Work and Excellent Result Obtained Support the 11 Award

12 In addition to the fact that a class benefit was created with a significant common fund, the 13 fairness of the requested fee award of one-third of that common fund is supported by the high 14 quality of work performed by Class Counsel and the favorable result obtained for the Class 15 Members given the significant challenges faced by Plaintiff in this action. As the record 16 demonstrates, Class Counsel conducted the litigation on behalf of the class in a competent, 17 professional and efficient manner. In doing so, Class Counsel confronted substantial litigation 18 risks with well-developed arguments, careful factual analysis and creative strategy to overcome 19 legal obstacles, such as those created by challenging factual issues pertaining to each of the 20 substantive claims. The effective legal work performed by Class Counsel, which resulted in a 21 significant benefit for class members, justifies the one-third of the common fund that is requested 22 as reasonable attorneys' fees.

23 Class Counsel diligently, efficiently, and creatively pursued this case and promptly 24 reached a successful settlement for the benefit of the Class Members. Despite the numerous risks 25 and obstacles afflicting Plaintiff's claims as detailed in Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary 26 Approval, Plaintiff's counsel crafted and negotiated a fair and reasonable Settlement Agreement 27 for the benefit of the Class Members.

28 The fact that the settlement was embraced and supported by the Class Members, as

1 evidenced by zero objections and no opt-outs out of 265 Class Members, clearly demonstrates 2 that the Class Members support the Settlement Agreement and results achieved by Class Counsel 3 through the litigation of this matter.

4 Moreover, Class Counsel demonstrated considerable skill in obtaining such a significant 5 settlement despite the numerous challenges in this case, which could have precluded any 6 recovery. “Class Counsel demonstrated professional skills that benefited the class. In particular, 7 Class Counsel presented carefully developed legal arguments, evaluated complex factual issues, 8 and implemented an effective strategy in framing the litigation and negotiations. As a result, Class 9 Counsel obtained a settlement that significantly benefits the class.

10 As a result of this litigation, the Class Members stand to receive a significant Net 11 Settlement Amount of $281,000.

12 3. *Settlement Class Members Had Sufficient Notice of the Requested Fees

13 Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court requires that the Class Members be notified 14 of any agreement regarding an application for attorneys’ fees. Here, the Class Notice, 15 preliminarily approved by the Court and distributed to the Settlement Class Members, apprised 16 them that Class Counsel will ask for Attorneys’ Fees of one-third of the Settlement Amount as 17 reasonable compensation for the work Class Counsel performed and will continue to perform in 18 this lawsuit through final approval. (Brown Decl.¶ 6; Exh. A.)

19 The Class Notice also advised the Settlement Class Members of the procedures for 20 objecting to the proposed Settlement and appearing at the settlement hearing, where they could 21 present their objections to any aspect of the Settlement, including the amount of Attorneys’ Fees 22 to be awarded to Class Counsel. (Litwin v. iRenew Bio Energy Solutions, LLC (2014) 226 23 Cal.App.4th 877, 883 [“[p]rocedural due process requires that affected parties be provided with 24 ‘the right to be heard at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner’”].) In accordance with 25 the foregoing, it is respectfully submitted that the instant notice complied with Rule 3.769 and, as 26 a result, the Settlement Class Members’ due process rights were fulfilled.

1                   4.       *The Contingent Nature of Class Counsels’ Representation of Plaintiff
2                   and the Settlement Class Further Supports the Fee Award at 1/3 of the 3                   Common Fund

4           An additional factor in favor of granting the requested fee award is that this case was both 5 legally and financially risky for Class Counsel. (See Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp (9th Cir. 2002) 6 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-49.) Class Counsel has been representing the Settlement Class in this matter 7 on a strictly contingency basis, and as such, incurred the risk of non-recovery after a substantial 8 investment of time, money, and resources, and has done so since the inception of this case without 9 any payment or compensation. Specifically, there was the prospect of enormous cost inherent in 10 this class action litigation, as well as the prospect of a prolonged battle well-funded corporations 11 who were represented by an experienced law firm; the risk that Defendant could prevail on their 12 arguments that the Settlement Class should not be certified; and the risk that Defendant could 13 prevail on the merits of some or all of the claims.

14           If Plaintiff had lost this case, Class Counsel would have recovered nothing and would 15 have lost its out-of-pocket costs.

16           Finally, the absence of any valid objections to the requested fee award, coupled with the 17 100% Class participation rate, also supports the appropriateness and reasonableness of the 18 requested attorneys’ fees. (In re Heritage Bond Litigation (C.D. Cal., June 10, 2005, No. 02-ML-19 1475 DT) 2005 WL 1594403, at *21 [“The absence of objections or disapproval by class members

21                   5.       *A Lodestar Cross-Check Confirms the Reasonableness of the Fee Award

22           Despite recognized limitations of the so-called lodestar method, some California and 23 federal courts acknowledge the utility of a lodestar “cross-check.”<sup>1</sup> (Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.
24 4th at 46-47.) Under the “lodestar multiplier” method of cross-checking the reasonableness of 25 attorneys’ fees in class actions, the court ascertains Class counsel’s total “lodestar” amount by 26

27 <sup>1</sup> In practice, the lodestar method is difficult to apply, time-consuming to administer, inconsistent in result, and 28 capable of manipulation. In addition, the lodestar creates inherent incentive to prolong the litigation until sufficient hours have been expended. Herr, David F., Manual for Complex Litigation, § 14.121 (1988); See also In re Activision (N.D. Cal 1989) 723 F.Supp 1373.

1 multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by each attorney or legal staff member by 2 their hourly rates, and then enhances or reduces this lodestar figure by a “multiplier” to account 3 for a range of factors, such as the novelty or difficulty of the case, its contingent nature, and the 4 degree of success achieved. PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal.4th 1084, 2655-96; Press

6 discretion to use a multiplier to ensure that the “fee awarded is within the range of fees freely 7 negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation”].)

8 Historically, California courts have approved multipliers of 1.5 to 4. See Coalition for 9 Los Angeles County Planning v. Board of Supervisors (1977) 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (multiplier 10 of 2+ approved); Sternwest Corp v. Ash (1986) 183 Cal.App.3d 74, 75. The multiplier requested 11 by Class Counsel below is within the range of multipliers found to be appropriate by various 12 federal and state courts in California. In Sternwest Corp. v. Ash (1986) 183 Cal.App.3d 74, for 13 instance, the Court of Appeal remanded for a lodestar enhancement of “two, three, four or 14 otherwise.” Id. At 76; see also Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 (“Multipliers can range from 2 21 Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 (finding no abuse of discretion 22 in awarding a multiplier of 3.65). In Torchia v. WW Grainger, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2014) 304 F.R.D.

23 256, 275-278, a federal magistrate in Fresno approved attorneys’ fees of $550,000 constituting 24 a 3.57 multiplier on class counsel’s total lodestar of $153,856, in a wage and hour class action 25 where class counsel expended 457.85 hours on the case, engaged in limited formal discovery, and 26 where the case settled for $2,750,000 within one year from filing the Complaint with 909 class 27 members claiming $1,305,200 and the remainder, except for the attorneys’ fees and costs, 28 reverting to the company.

As set forth in the Declarations of Class Counsel submitted herewith, the actual aggregated lodestar between the attorneys working on this case is approximately $101,710, which is summarized in the following table and the declaration of Class Counsel:

| Attorney         | Experience | Hourly Rate | Hours              | Total Lodestar |
|------------------|------------|-------------|--------------------|----------------|
| Mehrdad Bokhour  | 13 years   | $700       | 104.8 <sup>2</sup> | $73,360       |
| Joshua Falakassa | 12 years   | $700       | 40.5               | $28,350       |
| Total Lodestar   |            |             |                    | $101,710      |

(See Bokhour Decl., ¶ 19, Falakassa Decl. ¶ 13.)

The requested fee of $93,666.67 represents a negative multiplier on Class Counsel's lodestar, well within the range of multipliers commonly approved by California and Ninth Circuit courts to account for contingency risk and the results achieved.

The hourly rates above are comparable to those of other attorneys with equal or similar experience, if not somewhat lower (i.e., the Laffrey Matrix at www.laffreymatrix.com indicates that the rate for a 4-year attorney is $455/hour and a 12-year attorney is $742/hour). Moreover, the Wolters Kluwer 2017 Real Rate Report ("Real Rate Report") provides directly applicable information in this regard. The Real Rate Report is based on an extensive and statistically significant compilation of data, comprising 25.8 million billing entries and 23.9 million hours billed by over 112,100 individual timekeepers from 4,620 law firms, totaling $9.02 billion in billed fees. (See Wolters Kluwer's ELM Solutions, Inc., 2017 Real Rate Report). The Real Rate Report then compiles and analyzes this data to provide the hourly rates for partners and associates in major metropolitan areas. For the southern California area, which is based on billing entries for 1,125 partners and 1,566 associates, the Real Rate Report states that: (a) the rates for partners in Los Angeles is between $640 and $869.75 per hour for the middle and upper quartiles, and (b) the rates for associates in Los Angeles is between $478.74 and $638.97 for the median and upper <sup>2</sup> Includes an estimated 15 hours of additional work preparing for and attending the hearing (inclusive of finalizing and filing the motion, appearing at the hearing, addressing the Court's questions/concerns, submitting revised documents, responding to class members who are anxious to receive their check, and so on), as well as 20 hours in anticipated work to be performed after the final approval, working with counsel, administrator, and Class Members (which includes up to 1.5 years of case management relating to ensuring timely payment from Defendant, reviewing the calculations, checks are timely mailed, responding to class members questions about the timing of checks/missing checks/lost checks and remailings, working with the administrator regarding uncashed checks and remailings, assisting with the Administrator's declarations regarding payments and uncashed checks, potentially filing an amended judgment, appearing at the final disbursement hearing and/or submitting paperwork related thereto.

quartiles. And, perhaps most importantly, the information provided in the Real Rate Report is not based on self-reported numbers, surveys, sampling, reviews, or other publications – instead, the Real Rate Report is based on the actual hours and fees billed by law firms. These numbers are not surprising given that the article in the National Law Journal stated that in 2014 partners in Los Angeles charge an average of $665, while the average associate rate is $401. (Sloan, $1,000 Per Hour Isn't Rare Anymore; Nominal Billing Levels Rise, But Discounts Ease Blow (2014) Nat. Law Journal.). (Bokhour Decl., ¶ 24-26.)

Thus, not only are Plaintiff's Counsel's rates reasonable and typical, but the attorneys' fees requested are in line with Plaintiff's Counsel's lodestar, all confirming that the fee request is fair and reasonable.

Class Counsel are also highly experienced in Class/PAGA litigation, including having been selected as a "Super Lawyer" in employment litigation on multiple occasions and having achieved one of the largest settlements in California in 2021 through 2024. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 2-6; Falakassa Decl. ¶¶ 3-8). Indeed, Class Counsel's rates are typical of those charged by defense counsel with similar experience doing similar employment litigation in this region.

6. Public Policy Considerations Require the Award of Adequate Fees So Competent and Experienced Counsel Will Undertake Such Representations

In many complex actions such as this one, able counsel for plaintiffs can be retained only on a contingent basis. A large segment of the public would be denied a remedy and the ability to retain counsel to pursue low-value individual claims in actions such as the current case if fees awarded by the courts in successful cases did not fairly and adequately compensate counsel for the services provided, the serious risks undertaken, and the delay before any compensation is received.

Fair fee awards in successful cases ensure that competent legal services will be available. The complexity and societal importance of this type of litigation call for the most able counsel obtainable for plaintiffs. To encourage first-rate attorneys to represent plaintiffs on a contingent basis in this type of important litigation, attorneys' fees awarded should reflect this goal. In its

1 landmark decision, Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal.3d 800, a unanimous Supreme Court 2 noted:

3 “Thirty years ago commentators, in urging the utility of the class suit to vindicate 4 the rights of stockholders, made this incisive observation: ‘Modern society seems 5 increasingly to expose men to . . . group injuries for which individually they are in 6 a poor position to seek legal redress, either because they do not know enough or 7 because such redress is disproportionately expensive. If each is left to assert his 8 rights alone if and when he can, there will at best be a random and fragmentary 9 enforcement, if there is any at all. This result is not only unfortunate in the particular 10 case, but it will operate seriously to impair the deterrent effect of the sanctions 11 which underlie much contemporary law. The problem of fashioning an effective 12 and inclusive group remedy is thus a major one.’ [Citation.]” (Vasquez v. Superior 13 Court, supra, 4 Cal.3d 800, 807.)

14 The same rationale applies to this litigation. The express judicial policy of California is 15 to favor the maintenance of these types of representative actions. (See, e.g., Sav-On Drug Stores, 16 Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, 340; Pearce v. Superior Court (1983) 149
17 Cal.App.3d 1058, 1065; Kraus v. Trinity Management Services, Inc. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 116, 126.)

18 One of the purposes for awarding fees in such a situation is:

19 “[E]ncouragement of the attorney for the successful litigant, who will be more willing to 20 undertake and diligently prosecute proper litigation for the protection of recovery of the 21 fund if he is assured that he will be promptly and directly compensated should his efforts 22 be successful.” (In re Stauffer’s Estate (1959) 53 Cal.2d 124, 132.)

23 Conversely, a reduction in attorneys’ fees due to the size of the settlement in this case 24 would create perverse incentives for class action attorneys—effectively penalizing them for 25 obtaining more favorable results on behalf of the class. Public policy would be best served by 26 encouraging class action attorneys to recover the greatest amount reasonably possible on behalf 27 of the injured class members. The award of attorneys’ fees as requested by Class Counsel would 28 properly reward Class Counsel’s efforts in advancing a ‘clear public policy’ and would encourage additional such efforts. These important public policy considerations support the Court’s approval of the fee requested.

1 VII. THE REQUESTED COSTS AND SERVICE PAYMENT ARE REASONABLE

2 A. The Requested Costs Are Reasonable and Merit Approval

3 Class Counsels' actual costs through the final approval hearing are estimated to be 4 $14,692.10. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 22.)

5 These costs include mediation, filing, expert, and process service fees. They are 6 reasonable and uncontested.

7 B. The Requested Class Representative Service Payment is Reasonable and 8 Merits Approval

9 A named plaintiff is an essential ingredient of any class action, and a service payment 10 is appropriate to induce individuals to step forward and assume the burdens and obligations of 11 representing the settlement class. Courts regularly approve service payments to compensate 12 named plaintiffs for their service to the class and the risks they incurred during the litigation.
13 (See, e.g., Bell v. Farmers Insurance Exchange (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (upholding 14 "service payments" to named Plaintiff for their efforts in bringing class action); Rodriguez v.
15 West Publishing (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 959 (stating that incentive awards are "intended 16 to compensate class representatives for work done on behalf of the class, to make up for 17 financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action, and, sometimes, to recognize 18 their willingness to act as a private attorney general.").

19 Under the Settlement, Defendant agreed not to oppose Plaintiff's request for a Class 20 Representative Service Payment in the amount of $10,000, which Plaintiff seeks in recognition 21 of her contributions as the Class Representative. Plaintiff came forward and undertook 22 significant risk, including the risk of being blackballed in the industry, losing her job, and the 23 risk that she could have been liable for Defendant's costs if she lost the case. This factor is 24 significant for a relatively low-wage earner, and the potential risk is very real. (See Whiteway
25 v. FedEx Kinkos Office & Print Svcs., Inc. (N.D. Cal. Dec. 17, 2007) No. C 05-2320 SBA, 2007 26 WL 4531783, at *3 ("the few courts to consider this 'class representatives' dilemma' have not 27 found it inequitable to assess costs upon the lead or named plaintiff in a class action.").)
28

1 As further detailed in Plaintiff's Declaration in Support of Preliminary Approval of 2 Class Action Settlement on file with this Court, Plaintiff committed a significant number of 3 hours to assist with the investigation, litigation, settlement processes of this case to assist on 4 the matter. Plaintiff also spent considerable time to help prepare for and aid in the mediation 5 and settlement process. Finally, Plaintiff has entered into a general release of all claims against 6 Defendant, whereas the Settlement Class Members only released the claims alleged. The 7 requested Class Representative Service Payment of $10,000 to Plaintiff is reasonable, 8 particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for the Settlement Class 9 Members, the risks she undertook, and in exchange for executing a general release against 10 Defendant while giving up the right to separately pursue her individual wage and hour claims.

11 The Class Notice sent to each Settlement Class Member detailed the proposed Class 12 Representative Service Payment. No Settlement Class Member objected to the proposed 13 payment to Plaintiff. Thus, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the service payments 14 because it is both reasonable and appropriate.

15 VIII. OTHERS MATTERS RE: FINAL APPROVAL

16 A. Settlement Administration Costs

17 The parties agreed that the Settlement Administrator, ILYM, would be compensated for 18 services performed. The Settlement Administrator's requested fee is $6,000. (Brown Decl., ¶ 19 15.)

20 B. Uncashed Checks

21 The Settlement Agreement provides that uncashed checks should be submitted to the 22 State of California Unclaimed Property Fund after 180 days. The Proposed Order submitted 23 herewith redirects the funds to the California State Controller's Office in the name of the 24 Settlement Class Member.

25 C. Final Report

26 Defendant has 30 days after Effective Date of the Settlement to fund the Settlement to 27 the Settlement Administrator, who then has ten days thereafter to process the funds and issue 28 checks to the Settlement Class Members. Settlement Class Members will have 180 days to cash

1 their checks. As such, the parties propose submitting a final report in the form of a declaration 2 from the Settlement Administrator (setting forth the money that was actually paid to the 3 Settlement Class Members and potentially the state's unclaimed property department) within 4 30 days of the check-cashing deadline.

5 D. Submission to the LWDA

6 As set forth in the Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour in Support of Final Approval of 7 Class Action Settlement at ¶ 24, the Settlement was previously submitted to the LWDA in 8 accordance with Labor Code § 2699(1)(2).

9 IX. CONCLUSION

10 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and 11 merits approval. This Motion is unopposed by Defendant. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff 12 requests that the Court grant this Motion and finally approve the Settlement.
