SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES-CENTRAL DISTRICT

AHMED ALHAMED, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

HADLEY TOWING EQUIPMENT, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 23STCV15974

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF AHMED ALHAMED'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff AHMED ALHAMED ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants HADLEY TOWING EQUIPMENT, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all

1 hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure 2 to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period 3 premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or 4 pay rest period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred 5 by employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; statutory penalties for failure to 6 provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation 7 wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff 8 seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development 9 Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and 10 costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

11 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 13 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 14 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 15 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars 16 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-17 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 18 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 19 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 11819 Hadley Street, Whittier, CA 20 90601.

21 3. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California enacted 22 Emergency Rule 9 to the California Rules of Court, which provided that, notwithstanding any 23 other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are 24 tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

25 III. PARTIES

26 4. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 27 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 28 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 1 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will 2 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 3 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 4 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 5 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or 6 around April 2021, until on or about November 26, 2022.

7 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant HADLEY 8 TOWING EQUIPMENT, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is 9 doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times 10 relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant HADLEY TOWING EQUIPMENT, 11 INC. in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices 12 or policies. Defendant HADLEY TOWING EQUIPMENT, INC. operates in Los Angeles County 13 and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited 14 to, at 11819 Hadley Street, Whittier, CA 90601.

15 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 16 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 17 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 18 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 19 working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

20 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
21 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 22 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 23 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to 24 be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of 25 the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

26 8. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 27 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 28 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as

1 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 2 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 3 complaint.

4 9. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 5 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and 6 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

8 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 9 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

10 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

11 10. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

12 11. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding Plaintiff sending the initial 13 PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 14 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 2802, and the applicable Wage Orders.

15 12. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 16 Labor Code:

17 13. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
18 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
19 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 20 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 21 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 22 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

23 14. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 24 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 25 Wage Orders.

26 15. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 27 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with 28 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former

1 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum 2 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but 3 not limited to:

4 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 5 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal break by requiring 6 employees to keep cellphones on and monitored at all times during their shift in order to take and 7 respond to calls from Defendant's management personnel, including while off-the-clock during 8 meal breaks.

9 16. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 10 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 11 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 12 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 13 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 14 Wage Order.

15 17. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay:
16 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
17 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 18 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 19 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 20 directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.'

21 18. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 22 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty 23 (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

24 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) 25 hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 26 work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-27 one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve 28 (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

1 Labor Code section 510.

2 19. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 3 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours 4 worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

5 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 6 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal break by requiring 7 employees to keep cellphones on and monitored at all times during their shift in order to take and 8 respond to calls from Defendant's management personnel, including while off-the-clock during 9 meal breaks.

10 20. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 11 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 12 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 13 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 14 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 15 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 16 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 17 sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

18 21. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 19 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other 20 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 21 shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

22 22. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 23 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 24 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 25 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 9 at §11; Brinker 26 Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an 27 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 28 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh

1 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
2 shall be considered an “on duty” meal period and counted as time worked. A paid “on duty” meal 3 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being 4 relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

5 23. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 6 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay 7 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 8 section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at §11.

9 24. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 10 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-11 exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 12 limited to:

13 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 14 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal break by requiring 15 employees to keep cellphones on and monitored at all times in order to take and respond to calls 16 from Defendant’s management personnel; and 17 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 18 hourly non-exempt employees a second meal break when working shifts over 10 hours.

19 25. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 20 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-21 based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
22 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
23 employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code 24 section 226.7.

25 26. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
26 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 27 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them 28 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

1 27. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 2 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other
3 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 4 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

5 28. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 6 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor 7 Code section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10 8 minutes’ rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more 9 than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so 10 on.” Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code 11 section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of 12 each work period. Wage Order 9 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates 13 employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM 14 Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must 15 relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

16 29. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer 17 must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday 18 the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; 19 Wage Order 9 at § 12.

20 30. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 21 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 22 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 23 limited to:

24 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 25 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their rest break by requiring employees to keep 26 cellphones on and monitored at all times during their shift in order to take and respond to calls 27 from Defendant’s management personnel; and

28 (b) Failing to authorize or permit Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved

1 California-based hourly non-exempt employees a third rest break when they worked shifts over 10 2 hours.

3 31. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 4 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-5 based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each 6 workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor 7 Code section 226.7.

8 32. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
9 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 10 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with 11 rest periods in compliance with California law.

12 33. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 13 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 14 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at 15 the obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing 16 the ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 17 2802.)

18 34. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify 19 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' 20 necessary expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants 21 employed policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to, the following:

22 (a) Requiring plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 23 non-exempt employees who worked to use or purchase their own tools and/or resources in order to 24 work for Defendant, including but not limited to requiring cell phone usage to communicate with 25 dispatch for work-related purposes and passing costs of tools to employees - without reimbursing
26 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees

27 35. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff 28 and aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related

1 expenses. This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such 2 indemnification in compliance with California law.

3 36. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 4 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal 5 cell phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

6 37. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 7 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 8 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages 9 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 10 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, 11 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following 12 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 13 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 14 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

15 38. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed 16 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-17 exempt employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period 18 premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204.
19 Defendants' aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay 20 Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' 21 their earned wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

22 39. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 23 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 24 employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an 25 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 26 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 27 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 28 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable

1 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all 2 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 3 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 4 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 5 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 6 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

7 40. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff 8 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 9 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest 10 period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-11 based hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code 12 section 226.

13 41. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 14 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 15 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 16 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

17 42. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
18 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 19 all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 20 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 21 employee’s termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

22 43. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved 23 employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil 24 action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in 25 Labor Code section 2699.3.

26 44. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor 27 Code section 2699.3. On May 5, 2023, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 28 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 1 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 2 violations alleged.

3 45. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 4 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 5 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 6 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 7 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

8 46. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 9 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204 226, 226.7, 510, 10 512, 1194, 1197, and 2802, beginning one (1) year preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA 11 Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following amounts:

12 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, 512, and 13 2802; one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 14 violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each 15 subsequent violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

16 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 17 for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, 18 one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 19 established by Labor Code section 226.3].

20 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each 21 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 22 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 23 established by Labor Code section 558].

24 d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194 and 1197, one hundred dollars 25 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 26 subsequent violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay 27 period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1].

28 47. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2699(f);

3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and

4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or appropriate
