DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff MARINO LEZA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and Plaintiff ROBERT VASQUEZ (“Plaintiff Vasquez”) (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to PAGA, allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Fresno. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs took place in the State of California, County of Fresno. Defendants employed Plaintiffs within the State of California, County of Fresno.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff MARINO LEZA is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Fresno.

6. Plaintiff ROBERT VASQUEZ is an individual residing in the State of California.

1 7. Defendant AMERICAN PROMOTIONAL EVENTS, INC. - WEST DBA TNT
2 FIREWORKS, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a
3 California corporation incorporated in the State of California, and at all times herein
4 mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of 5 California, including the County of Fresno.

6 8. At all relevant times, Defendant AMERICAN PROMOTIONAL EVENTS, INC.
7 - WEST DBA TNT FIREWORKS was the “employer” of Plaintiffs within the meaning of all
8 applicable California laws and statutes.

9 9. At all times herein relevant, Defendants AMERICAN PROMOTIONAL
10 EVENTS, INC. - WEST DBA TNT FIREWORKS and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them,
11 were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants,
12 employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all
13 times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents,
14 partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-
15 conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the 16 ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each
17 defendant designated herein.

18 10. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 19 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs, who sue
20 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based on 21 that information and belief allege, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
22 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused
23 the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
24 Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 25 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

26 ///

27 ///

11. Defendants AMERICAN PROMOTIONAL EVENTS, INC. - WEST DBA TNT FIREWORKS and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as "Defendants."

12. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

13. Plaintiffs bring this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

14. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years prior to the filing of this Complaint to final judgment.

15. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

16. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other class members' claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom they have a well-defined community of interest.

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 2 each class member, with whom they have a well-defined community of 3 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have 4 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs'
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing
6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 17. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common
23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;

26 ///

27 ///

- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiffs and the other class members to worked overtime and earned incentive pay;
- e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members during their employment;
- i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;

1 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary
2 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and

3 n. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to 4 compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

5 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

6 18. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiffs
7 and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California,
8 including the County of Fresno.

9 19. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiffs as an hourly-paid non-
10 exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of Fresno.

24 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or 25 non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing 26 to pay them for all hours worked, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in violation of 27 California law.
28

1 26. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiffs and the other class members were 4 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

5 27. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
6 failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
7 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
8 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

9 28. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
11 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs'
12 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 13 interrupted, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive all timely and 14 proper meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when 15 a meal period was missed.

16 29. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and other class members were entitled to receive all
18 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs'
19 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 20 interrupted, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 21 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 22 missed.

23 30. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
25 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiffs and the other class members were 26 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

27 ///

1 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
4 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did
5 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

6 32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
8 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
9 Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements
10 from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number 11 of hours worked by Plaintiffs and the other class members.

12 33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 14 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

15 34. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
17 for Plaintiffs and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did
18 not keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other class members.

19 35. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class
21 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 22 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
23 represented to Plaintiffs and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
24 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

25 36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
26 overtime wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiffs and 27 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40)
28

1 hours per week without overtime compensation.

2 37. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide
3 uninterrupted and timely meal and rest periods to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

14 increase Defendants' profits.

15 43. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
16 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty 17 due to him [or her] under this article."

15 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
16 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

17 91. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants
18 the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California

1 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

3 (Against AMERICAN PROMOTIONAL EVENTS, INC. - WEST DBA TNT

4 FIREWORKS and DOES 1 through 100)

5 103. Plaintiff Vasquez incorporates by reference the allegations contained in 6 paragraphs 1 through 102, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as 7 though fully set forth herein.

8 104. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code
9 which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its 10 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the 11 California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved
12 employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

13 105. On May 4, 2023, Plaintiff Vasquez provided written notice to the LWDA and 14 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the 15 theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference
16 is a copy of the May 4, 2023 written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff Vasquez believes that on or 17 about July 10, 2023 the sixty-five (65) day notice period expired as to all Defendants and the 18 LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff
19 Vasquez exhausted the statutory time period to bring this action.

20 106. Plaintiff Vasquez and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are 21 “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they are all current
22 and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California
23 who worked for Defendants at any time during the period from May 4, 2022 to the present, and 24 one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

25 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

26 107. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-27 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
28

1 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 2 mandate of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

3 108. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff Vasquez and 4 the other aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to 5 pay all minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

6 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

7 109. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, Defendants
8 were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break
9 for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and were further required to provide 10 their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours worked.

11 110. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Vasquez and the 12 other aggrieved current and former employees with legally-mandated meal periods and rest
13 breaks and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

14 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

15 111. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
16 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code § 204.

17 112. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Vasquez and the other
18 aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time 19 period.

20 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

21 113. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
22 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to California Labor Code §§
23 201 to 204.

24 114. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants
25 failed to pay Plaintiff Vasquez and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages
26 pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to 27 Labor Code § 203.
28

1 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

2 115. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
3 regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 226, 1174 and 4 1776.

5 116. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 6 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff Vasquez and the other aggrieved current and former
7 employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate
8 records regarding Plaintiff Vasquez and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross
9 wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly
10 rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

11 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

12 117. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its employees
13 for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
14 consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§
15 2800 and 2802.

16 118. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff Vasquez and the 17 other aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owing them
18 within the required time period.

19 Penalties

20 119. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiff Vasquez, individually, and on 21 behalf of the other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover
22 from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs, including 23 but not limited to:

- 24 a. Penalties under California Labor Code § 2699 in the amount of a hundred 25 dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 26 violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per 27 pay period for each subsequent violation;

- 1 b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 § 11040 in the 2 amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for
3 the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved
4 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 5 c. Penalties under California Labor Code § 210 in addition to, and entirely
6 independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California
7 Labor Code in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved
8 employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars
9 ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 10 violation;
- 11 d. Penalties under Labor Code § 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars
12 ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation,
13 and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay
14 period for each subsequent violation;
- 15 e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other 16 statutes; and
- 17 f. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210, 1194, and 2699,
18 and any other applicable statute.

20 Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly 21 situated, requests a trial by jury.

22 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

23 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of all other members of the 24 general public similarly situated, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and

Re: AMERICAN PROMOTIONAL EVENTS - WEST D/B/A TNT FIREWORKS

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Robert Vasquez against American Promotional Events – West d/b/a TNT Fireworks (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an “Employer” or person acting on behalf of an “Employer” pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as “TNT”).

Mr. Vasquez is pursuing his California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Vasquez may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

American Promotional Events – West d/b/a TNT Fireworks is a California corporation located at 4511 Helton Drive, Florence, Alabama 35630.

TNT employed Mr. Vasquez as an hourly-paid non-exempt Warehouse Assistant within one year of the data of this letter (until in or about June of 2022) in the State of California. TNT directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees’ employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

¹ Mr. Vasquez does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Vasquez will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Vasquez is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Vasquez and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

The “aggrieved employees” that Mr. Vasquez may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of TNT within the State of California.

TNT failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Vasquez has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at TNT, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

TNT has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. TNT failed to compensate Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. TNT also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Vasquez and aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, TNT failed to pay Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees with paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, TNT routinely required Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with TNT's policies and expectations. TNT failed to provide coverage to Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Moreover, TNT also failed to authorize and permit Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, TNT failed to compensate Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." TNT required aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." TNT required aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, TNT failed to pay Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, TNT failed to pay Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, TNT did not provide Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from TNT were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, TNT failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, TNT did not provide Mr. Vasquez and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by TNT, including for purchasing equipment and uniforms they were required to wear while working, and using their personal cellular phones and vehicles for work related purposes.

We believe that Mr. Vasquez and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Vasquez will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of TNT within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
