MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs Timothy McCormick, Michael Kindt, Kelly Carter, Carlos Aterrado, Alex Martinez, and Eric Aragaki (collectively “Plaintiffs”) seek preliminary approval of a proposed $435,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Amerifleet Transportation, Inc. (“Defendant,” and together with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”). This motion for preliminary approval is unopposed. The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 282 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arm’s length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Francis “Tripper” Ortman III, Esq., over the course of a full day of mediation. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs’ claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached a settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed Class Notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiffs’ Claims

This is a wage and hour class action and representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.). Plaintiffs and putative class members were employed by Defendant in California and classified as hourly-paid non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant during the class period. (Declaration of Arrash T. Fattahi in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement [“Fattahi Decl.”] at ¶ 2.) Defendant provides comprehensive fleet logistics services, including vehicle transport, storage, licensing and compliance, and work truck management. (Id.)

Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 3.) Plaintiffs further allege that Defendant failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods, and Defendant failed to reimburse business expenses. (Id.) Based on these allegations, Plaintiffs assert related claims for failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

On January 9, 2024, Plaintiffs filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; and (8) unfair business practices. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 4.)

On May 1, 2023, Plaintiffs McCormick and Kindt provided notice to Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) regarding their intent to pursue a PAGA representative action; Plaintiff Carter did the same on June 27, 2023; and Plaintiffs Aterrado, Martinez, and Aragaki did the same on July 28, 2023. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 4.) Plaintiffs alleged similar wage and hour violations in their notices to Defendant and the LWDA pursuant to PAGA. (Id.) On December 12, 2025, Plaintiffs filed a First Amended Class & Representative Action Complaint which added a cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA.¹ (Id.)

B. Discovery and Investigation

Following the filing of the initial complaint, the Parties exchanged documents and information before mediating this action. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 5.) Defendant produced a sampling of timekeeping and pay records for the class members. (Id.) Defendant also provided its written wage and hour policies in effect during the class period and information regarding the total number of current and former employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id.)

After reviewing documents regarding Defendant’s employment policies and practices and analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able to evaluate ¹ A separate PAGA action (Los Angeles County Superior Court, Case No. 23LBCV01245) was filed on July 5, 2023. The plaintiffs have requested dismissal of that action.

1 the probability of class certification and success on the merits and assess Defendant’s maximum 2 monetary exposure for all claims. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the 3 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel 4 reviewed these records and utilized an expert to prepare a damages analysis prior to mediation.
5 (Id.)

6 C. Settlement Negotiations

7 On October 31, 2024, the Parties participated in a private mediation with experienced 8 class action mediator, the Francis “Tripper” Ortman III, Esq. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 7.) The 9 settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 10 were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 11 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial 12 and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 13 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs’ claims and Defendant’s 14 defenses, the Parties reached a settlement, the material terms of which are encompassed within 15 the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 4 [Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class 16 Notice].)

17 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. (Fattahi 18 Decl. at ¶ 13.) Based on the Parties’ informal exchange of documents and information and Class 19 Counsel’s own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of the opinion that 20 the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interests of the Settlement 21 Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, the 22 defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and on the merits, trial risk, 23 and appellate risk. (Id.)

24 Indeed, the $435,000.00 Gross Settlement Amount represents approximately 138% of 25 the realistic maximum recovery of $315,317.53. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 22.) Although Class 26 Counsel estimated that Defendant’s maximum potential liability for all claims was 27 approximately $2.73 million, when the risk of prevailing at certification and trial are factored 28 into the equation, Class Counsel believes that Defendant’s realistic exposure was approximately

1 $315,317.53, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 13-26.)
2 Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an 3 excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 22.) Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, class 4 members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable 5 judgment. (Id.)

6 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

7 The Settlement’s key terms include:

8 1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification 9 of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “all persons employed 10 by Amerifleet in California and classified as a non-exempt employee who worked for Amerifleet 11 during the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 1.5.)

12 2. Class Period: “means the period from January 9, 2020 to April 21, 2025.”
13 (Settlement, § 1.12.)

14 3. Class Member or Settlement Class Member: “means a member of the Class, as either 15 a Participating Class Member or Non-Participating Class Member.” (Settlement, § 1.9.)

16 4. Aggrieved Employee: “means a person employed by Amerifleet in California and 17 classified as a non-exempt employee who worked for Amerifleet during the PAGA Period.”
18 (Settlement, § 1.4.)

19 5. PAGA Period: “means the period from May 1, 2022 to April 21, 2025.” (Settlement, 20 § 1.31.)

21 6. Gross Settlement Amount: “means $435,000.00 which is the total amount 22 Defendant agrees to pay under the Settlement except as provided in Paragraph 9 below. The Gross 23 Settlement Amount will be used to pay Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, 24 the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, Class Representative 25 Service Payments, and the Administrator’s Expenses.” (Settlement, § 1.22.) “Except as otherwise 26 provided by Paragraph 8 below, Defendant promises to pay $435,000 and no more as the Gross 27 Settlement Amount, and to separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage 28 Portions of the Individual Class Payments. Defendant has no obligation to pay the Gross Settlement

1 Amount prior to the deadline stated in Paragraph 4.3 of this Agreement. The Administrator will 2 disburse the entire Gross Settlement Amount without asking or requiring Participating Class 3 Members to submit any claim as a condition of payment. None of the Gross Settlement Amount 4 will revert to Defendant.” (Settlement, § 3.1.)

5 7. Uncashed Checks: Any settlement checks remaining uncashed after 180 days shall 6 be cancelled and the funds represented by such checks shall be transmitted to the California 7 Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member. (Settlement, §§ 4.4.1, 4.4.3.)

8 8. Released Class Claims: “All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves 9 and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, 10 successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from (i) all claims that were alleged, or reasonably 11 could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint 12 including, e.g., Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages, Failure to Pay Overtime Wages, 13 Failure to Provide Meal Breaks, Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods, Failure to Timely 14 Pay Final Wages at Termination, Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements, Failure 15 to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures, Unfair Business Practices, and PAGA Penalties. Except 16 as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other 17 claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair 18 Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ 19 compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 5.2.)

20 9. Released PAGA Claims: “All Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved 21 Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present 22 representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released 23 Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been 24 alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative PAGA Complaint and the PAGA
25 Notice, including, e.g. Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages, Failure to Pay Overtime 26 Wages, Failure to Provide Meal Breaks, Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods, Failure to 27 Timely Pay Final Wages at Termination, Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements, 28 and Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures.” (Settlement, § 5.3.)

1 10. No Reversion, No Claims Made: means that “[n]one of the Gross Settlement 2 Amount will revert to Defendant.” (Settlement, § 3.1.)

3 11. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $20,000.00 allocated to Plaintiffs’ 4 claims under PAGA, with 75% ($15,000.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% ($5,000.00) being 5 paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, § 3.2.4.3.) Plaintiffs’ Counsel submitted the 6 proposed Settlement to the LWDA before filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class
7 Action and PAGA Settlement. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 9.)

8 12. Net Settlement Amount: “means the Gross Settlement Amount, less the following 9 payments in the amounts approved by the Court: Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA
10 Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel 11 Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment. The remainder is to be 12 paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments.” (Settlement, § 1.28.)

13 13. Distribution Formula: The Individual Class Payment will be “calculated by (a) 14 dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating 15 Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class 16 Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA, “[t]he Administrator will calculate 17 each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees’ 25% 18 share of PAGA Penalties ($5,000.00) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all 19 Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved 20 Employee’s PAGA Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for 21 any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.4.)

22 14. Tax Allocation: 10% of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class 23 Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the “Wage Portion”). The remaining 90% 24 of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of 25 claims for interest and penalties (the “Non-Wage Portion”). (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

26 15. Class Representative Service Payment: Defendant agrees not to oppose Plaintiffs’ 27 request for service payments up to $7,500.00 for each plaintiff. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) These 28 payments shall be in addition to the pro rata recovery received by each of the Plaintiffs as part of 1 the Settlement.

2 16. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose 3 a fee application of up to one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently estimated to 4 be $145,000.00), plus out-of-pocket costs not to exceed $25,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

5 17. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Class Notice sets forth in plain 6 terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of 7 attorneys' fees, costs, and service payment being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement 8 allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by 9 first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 7.4.2.) ILYM Group, Inc. ("ILYM"), the proposed 10 Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the class notice is provided 11 to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search 12 and re-mailing the class notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 10, Ex. 6 [ILYM's 13 Bid].)

14 III. DISCUSSION

15 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action 16 requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This 17 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
18 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached 19 through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 20 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
21 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

22 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 23 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 24 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 25 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 26 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 27 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., (2008) 168 28 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself

1 that the class settlement is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record need
2 not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola
3 Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 4 require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 5 prevailed on all its claims”, but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy 6 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.”].)

7 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 8 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 9 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

10 A. The Settlement is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 11 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

12 1. The Settlement is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed 13 and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

14 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 15 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 16 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
17 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stambaugh v. Super.
18 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 19 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 20 to approve the settlement.”].)

21 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of 22 mediation with experienced class action employment mediator, Francis “Tripper” Ortman III, Esq.
23 (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 7.) The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in 24 a professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to 25 explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their 26 position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive 27 negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs’ claims and 28 Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached an agreement. (Id. at ¶ 8.)

1 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 2 the claims set forth in the litigation, such as a sampling of timekeeping and payroll records for the 3 class members, Defendant’s written wage and hour policies in effect during the class period, and 4 information regarding the total number of current and former employees in its informal discovery
5 responses. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Class 6 Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation.
7 (Id. at ¶ 6.) Thus, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 8 negotiating the proposed Settlement.

9 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 10 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 37-46.) Again, this supports the 11 position that the terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been 12 considered and weighed in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of 13 continued litigation of this action.

14 2. The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’
15 Respective Legal Positions

16 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had plaintiff prevailed at 17 trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
18 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 19 and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement 20 is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no 21 bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement 22 in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

23 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation. (Fattahi 24 Decl. at ¶ 24.) While Plaintiffs are confident in the merits of their claims, a legitimate controversy 25 exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 23.) Plaintiffs also recognize that proving the amount of 26 wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain 27 proposition. (Id.)

28 The proposed settlement of $435,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when

1 compared to Plaintiffs’ reasonably forecasted recovery. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 13-26.) Because of the 2 proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk 3 of an unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 4 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 5 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $435,000.00 is well 6 within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) 7 Indeed, each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of 8 approximately $682.09. (Id. at ¶ 25.)

9 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

10 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
11 Class Counsel has a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 12 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 37-46.)
13 Although Plaintiffs and Class Counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, 14 they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

15 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

16 The proposed Class Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be 17 approved for distribution to the class. The Class Notice informs the class of the terms of the 18 settlement and of their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members 19 who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to submit 20 their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Class 21 Notice meets all the requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

22 C. The Proposed Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

23 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, the Parties agreed to allocate 24 reasonable attorneys’ fees of not more than one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, 25 currently estimated to be $145,000.00, and up to $25,000.00 in costs. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.) These 26 amounts are disclosed to all class members in the proposed Class Notice and are reasonable.
27
28

1 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the “Common Fund”
2 Method

3 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created 4 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that “when a number 5 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 6 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 7 may be awarded attorneys’ fees out of the fund.” (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 8 quoting D’Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

9 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/common 10 fund” theory. The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs proportionally among all 11 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” (Vincent v.
12 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1975) 13 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in 14 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive 15 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and 16 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 17 that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought 18 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

19 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 20 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 21 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 22 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 23 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 24 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 25 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 26 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—27 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
28 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

According to a leading treatise on class actions, “[n]o general rule can be articulated on what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.) Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

Here, Plaintiffs request attorneys’ fees equal one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the Parties and requested herein.

3. This Matter Involves a “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this section, Plaintiffs would be permitted to recover their actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class Counsel. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 35-36.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class

1 ahead of all other concerns.

2 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 3 Requested Fee Award

4 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers
5 and employees, Class Counsel possesses considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Fattahi 6 Decl. at ¶¶ 37-46.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class 7 actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class 8 counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel’s requested fee 9 award is supported here.

10 Class Counsel’s experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 11 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement.
12 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 13 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class 14 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee 15 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award 16 is reasonable and fair.

17 D. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

18 Where settlements negotiate a good faith amount for PAGA penalties and “there is no 19 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other” class members, 20 such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr.
21 3, 2009) No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133 at *1, 9.) Courts have approved amounts for 22 PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the total maximum amount of the Settlement.
23 (Id. [approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%, or $1,500]; see also Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. (S.D.
24 Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) 2011 WL 4899942 at *6 [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v.
25 Fed. Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) 2012 WL 12882124 at *5 [acknowledging that courts 26 approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement].) Here, 27 the amount to be paid to the LWDA is larger than many other PAGA settlement amounts approved 28 by the courts where seemingly nominal amounts were allocated for such claims. (See, e.g., Zubia

1 v. Shamrock Foods Co. (C.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) No. CV1603128ABAGRX, 2017 WL 10541431, 2 at *14 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.1%]; Hopson, 2008 WL 3385452, at *1 [approving a 3 PAGA settlement of 0.3% or $1,500]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Oct. 31, 2012) 4 No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [approving a PAGA settlement of 5 0.27%].) Here, the Parties negotiated a good faith amount of $20,000.00, 75% percent of which 6 ($15,000.00) will be paid to the LWDA and 25% ($5,000.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved 7 Employees. (Settlement, § 3.2.4.3.) In good faith, the Parties negotiated to allocate approximately 8 4.6% of the Gross Settlement Amount to PAGA penalties, which exceeds percentages that are 9 routinely approved. Additionally, the $20,000.00 allocation for PAGA penalties represents 10 approximately 6.3% of the realistic maximum recovery ($20,000.00 / $315,317.53). (Fattahi Decl.
11 at ¶ 22.)

12 E. The Service Payments to Named Plaintiffs Are Reasonable

13 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 14 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 15 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 16 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 17 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 18 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir.
19 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

20 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 21 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 22 codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously 23 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to 24 work under substandard unlawful conditions” Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court has 25 noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is 26 widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
27 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for 28 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.

(W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay Class Representative Service Payments of up to $7,500.00 each to Plaintiffs Timothy McCormick, Michael Kindt, Kelly Carter, Carlos Aterrado, Alex Martinez, and Eric Aragaki. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) Courts routinely approve a $10,000 enhancement award for plaintiffs represented by Class Counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v. Pretium Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 3673845, *3 [“The Court concludes a $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez v. Bank of America, National Association (N.D. Cal., Jan. 11, 2024, No. 18-CV-01202-LB) 2024 WL 150721, at *4 [“The court approves awards of $10,000 for each class representative.”].) Class Counsel represents that Plaintiffs devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and were frequently in contact with Class Counsel during the mediation. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 27-31.) This amount is reasonable particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiffs generated for all class members. (Id.)

When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev. 1303, 1308.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

1 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

2 A. Legal Standard

3 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive 4 from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the 5 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 6 prerequisites for certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 7 provides: “when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when 8 the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more 9 may sue or defend for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to 10 section 382: “(1) There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined 11 community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be 12 represented.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal.2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify 13 these requirements, the California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 14 23 to explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) 15 predominant questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of 16 the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart 17 Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal.3d 462, 470.)

18 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
19 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 20 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 21 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the 22 appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 23 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

24 B. Plaintiffs Maintain That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 25 Settlement Purposes.

26 1. The Class is Ascertainable and Numerous

27 The proposed class that Plaintiffs seek to represent is easily ascertainable and includes 28 approximately 282 employees of Defendant.

1 Plaintiffs maintain that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 2 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business 3 records of Defendant, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
4 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the 5 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

6 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 7 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126 8 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action may 9 be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable to 10 join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a class
11 action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries of a trust 12 in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574; see 13 also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, Plaintiffs 14 contend that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

15 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

16 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 17 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 18 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 19 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 20 Cal.App.3d 605.)

21 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 22 policies and practices for all hours worked, including overtime wages; whether Defendant had 23 legally compliant policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether 24 Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees 25 to take rest periods; whether Defendant consequently paid final wages timely at termination; 26 whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; and whether Defendant 27 consequently failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements. Plaintiffs contend that the 28 factual and legal issues are the same for all the identified class members, including Plaintiffs.

1 Further, all class members suffered from, and seek redress for, the same alleged injuries.

2 3. Plaintiffs' Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

3 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or 4 circumstances of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, 5 but rather upon the typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the 6 defendant's conduct and activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he 7 only requirements are that common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class
8 representative be similarly situated" vis-à-vis the class.].) A representative plaintiff's claims 9 are typical of the class if they arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if 10 the claims rest on the same legal theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiffs were 11 all employed by Defendant. As such, they allege that they were subject to the same policies 12 and practices as other similarly situated employees.

13 4. Plaintiffs and Their Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

14 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 15 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 16 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 17 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

18 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiffs retained counsel 19 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 20 previously settled. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 37-46.) Class Counsel unquestionably is "qualified, 21 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 22 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiffs have no conflicts, and Plaintiffs have, with counsel, 23 litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing their dedication.
24 Plaintiffs' willingness to serve as representatives demonstrates their serious commitment to 25 bringing about the best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

26 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

27 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 28 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.

1 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the 2 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 3 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly 4 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 5 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 6 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th 7 Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns are 8 essentially non-existent.

9 V. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

10 A. The Proposed Class Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

11 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 12 Rule 3.766 (e), (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 13 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 14 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 15 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 16 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 17 Members . . .” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided by 18 direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

19 B. The Class Notice is Accurate and Informative

20 The proposed Class Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S.
21 first class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of 22 the terms of the Settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are 23 Class Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the 24 opportunity to submit their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

25 The Class Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & 26 Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date 27 and the terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent 28 manner. It makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability

1 by the Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the 2 merits of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made.
3 The Class Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality 4 required of a combined settlement-certification class notice.

5 VI. CONCLUSION

6 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant preliminary 7 approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing.
