DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff JOSEPH HECKMAN (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorney General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 and California Labor Code Section 2698, et seq. The monetary damages restitution, and civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, employs individuals, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of Sonoma. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County

1 of Sonoma. At all relevant times, Defendant maintained its headquarters/“nerve center” within
2 the State of California, County of Sonoma.

3 PARTIES

4 5. Plaintiff JOSEPH HECKMAN is an individual residing in the State of 5 California, County of Sonoma.

6 6. Defendant MAASS CORPORATION SPC, at all times herein mentioned, was 7 and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation and an employer whose 8 employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Sonoma.

9 7. At all relevant times, Defendant MAASS CORPORATION SPC was the 10 “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

11 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants MAASS CORPORATION SPC and 12 DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 13 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators, and/or 14 assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto, were acting within the course and 15 scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
16 representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators, and/or assigns, and all acts
17 or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission,
18 encouragement, authorization, and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

19 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual, or 20 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues
21 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon,
22 alleges that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events
23 and happenings referred to in this Complaint and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages
24 to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave
25 of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have 26 been ascertained.

27 10. Defendant MAASS CORPORATION SPC and DOES 1 through 100 will 28 hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members and aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings this action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from December 16, 2021 to final judgment.

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable, and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals, and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

- d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.
- e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class members;

- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;
- h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

17. At all times herein set forth, California Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") was applicable to Plaintiff's employment by Defendants.

1 18. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the 2 California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the
3 Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) for violations of the California Labor
4 Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved
5 employee on behalf of himself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures
6 outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

7 19. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an “aggrieved 8 employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom the 9 alleged violations were committed.

10 20. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants, and the alleged violations were 11 committed against him during his time of employment, and he is, therefore, an aggrieved
12 employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by 13 California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are current or former employees of 14 Defendants, and the alleged violations were committed against them.

15 21. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
16 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 17 following requirements have been met:

18 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission
19 (hereinafter, “Employee’s Notice”) to the LWDA and by certified mail to 20 the employer of the specific provisions of the alleged California Labor
21 Code violations, including the facts and theories to support the alleged 22 violations.

23 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter, “LWDA Notice”) to the 24 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not
25 intend to investigate the alleged violations within sixty (60) calendar
26 days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the 27 LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five 28 (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties, in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

22. On December 16, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendant MAASS CORPORATION SPC of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff did not receive an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) days of the date of Plaintiff's notice. Plaintiff has not received any notice of Defendants' intention to cure the alleged violations.

23. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

24. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and the other class members as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of Sonoma.

25. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately August 2023 to approximately August 2025, in the State of California, County of Sonoma.

26. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other class members, classified them as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked and missed meal periods and/or rest breaks.

27. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

28. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members.

29. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other class members.

30. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

31. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members all required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Orders, and, thus, they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

1 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class
4 members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest
5 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members'
6 regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

7 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
9 at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum 10 wages for all hours worked.

11 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
13 all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages
14 and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not receive all such wages owed to them at 15 the time of their discharge or resignation.

16 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
18 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other class members did
19 not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest
20 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

21 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
23 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but they did not 24 receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies included,
25 inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other 26 class members.

27 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
28 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records

1 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but they did not
2 keep complete and accurate payroll records.

3 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 5 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

6 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
8 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 9 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so and falsely
10 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all 11 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

12 44. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to 13 Plaintiff and the other class members for all overtime hours worked. Plaintiff and the other
14 class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours
15 per week without overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

16 45. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide all requisite
17 uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members.

18 46. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
19 class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

20 47. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
21 class members all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

22 48. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
23 class members all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter
24 alia, California Labor Code section 204.

25 49. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide complete or 26 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members.

27 50. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate
28 payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

1 of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in
2 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day
3 of work.

4 59. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in 5 excess of eight (8) hours in a day and/or forty (40) hours in a week.

6 60. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 7 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

8 61. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid
9 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 10 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.

11 62. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class
12 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 13 attorneys' fees.

17 63. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
18 through 62, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set

20 64. At all relevant times, the IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections
21 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by 22 Defendants.

23 65. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
24 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by the 25 applicable IWC Wage Order.

26 66. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
27 Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to 28 work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee

1 with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per
2 day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual
3 consent of both the employer and employee.

4 67. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
5 Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an 6 employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the 7 employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except 8 that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may 9 be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period 10 was not waived.

11 68. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 12 scheduled to work no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated

21 71. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
22 class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 23 226.7.

25 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

26 73. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
27 226.7(c), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one 28 ///

1 additional hour of pay at the employees' regular rate of compensation for each work day that a

9 75. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California

12 76. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
13 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by the applicable
14 IWC Wage Order.

15 77. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very 16 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 17 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be 18 based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4)
19 hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half 20 (3 ½) hours.

21 78. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other class
22 members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute
23 net rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

24 79. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the 25 other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class

10 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

12 (Against MAASS CORPORATION SPC and DOES 1 through 100)

13 83. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
14 through 82, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
15 forth herein.

16 84. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 17 provide that employees must be paid at least minimum wage, and any lesser payment than the

20 Plaintiff and the other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections
21 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

22 86. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the minimum
23 wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to 24 those sections, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance
25 of their minimum wage compensation, as well as interest, costs, attorney's fees, and liquidated
26 damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

27 87. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and the other class

6 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202)

8 (Against MAASS CORPORATION SPC and DOES 1 through 100)

9 89. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
10 through 88, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
11 forth herein.

12 90. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 13 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the 14 time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her
15 employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72)
16 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her 17 intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of 18 quitting.

19 91. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 20 pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their 21 earned and unpaid wages within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

22 92. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members their earned and 23 unpaid wages within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ is in 24 violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

25 93. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to 26 pay wages owed in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee
