1 Plaintiff AMANDA MICAELA FERNANDEZ (“Plaintiff”), individually, on behalf of 2 other members of the general public similarly situated, and as Private Attorney General, based 3 upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a 4 reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants GREENBELL BUFFET INC DBA
7 PARADISE BUFFET and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as 8 “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties
9 stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal 10 periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to 11 timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate time 12 and payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Ninth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 14 behalf of herself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
15 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 16 13, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
17 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 18 and will be established according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Tenth Cause of Action is brought solely as a representative action, and 20 solely as a Private Attorney General, on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved
21 employees, including himself and other aggrieved employees of Defendants against whom a 22 violation of the same provision was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 23 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq; Balderas v.
24 Fresh Start Harvesting, Inc., 101 Cal.App.5th 533 (2024), as modified (April 18, 2024); and 25 Johnson v. Maxim Healthcare Services, Inc., 66 Cal.App.5th 924 (2021). Plaintiff is an aggrieved
26 employee against whom the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff 27 exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to 28

1 proof at trial.

2 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
3 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes”
4 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 5 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

6 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
7 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 8 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 9 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 10 substantial justice.

11 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants 12 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Los 13 Angeles.

14 PARTIES

15 7. Plaintiff AMANDA MICAELA FERNANDEZ is an individual residing in the 16 County of Los Angeles, State of California. Plaintiff is not suing in her individual capacity with 17 respect to her Tenth Cause of Action. Instead, she is proceeding therein solely under the PAGA, 18 on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved employees. Plaintiff is an Aggrieved 19 Employee as defined under PAGA because he was employed by Defendants and suffered the 20 labor code violations alleged herein.

21 8. Defendant GREENBELL BUFFET INC DBA PARADISE BUFFET, is and at all 22 times herein mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of 23 California and registered to do business in the State of California.

24 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, 25 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe Defendants may be 26 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges,
27 that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe Defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, 28

1 servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants and was at 2 all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and
3 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this 4 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 5 believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe Defendants is responsible in 6 some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged 7 were proximately caused by its conduct. GREENBELL BUFFET INC DBA PARADISE
8 BUFFET and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants."

9 10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in 10 the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with 11 the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

12 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or 13 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 14 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants 15 employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

16 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

17 12. Plaintiff brings the First through Ninth Causes of Action as a class action on her 18 own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus,
19 seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

20 13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt
21 employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four 22 (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified 23 class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members").

24 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

25 15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 26 litigation:

27 a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class 28

Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class Member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class Members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact,

1 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- 2 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 3 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 4 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff
5 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or 6 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 7 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more 8 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed
9 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class 10 Members;
- 11 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
12 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work 13 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 14 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 15 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- 16 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members 17 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 18 periods;
- 19 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class 20 Members for all hours worked;
- 21 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 22 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- 23 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 24 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- 25 j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class 26 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from 27 employment;
- 28

- 1 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members
2 for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California
3 Labor Code section 2802;
- 4 l. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 5 Class Members during their employment;
- 6 m. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California
7 Labor Code, including section 226;
- 8 n. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- 9 o. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 10 p. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 11 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their 12 improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- 13 q. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties 14 resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 15 r. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory 16 damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

17 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

18 17. Defendants are a buffet-restaurant.

19 18. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a Food Preparation Worker and Server
20 since approximately September 9, 2009.

21 19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class and 22 the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

23 20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to 24 hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly 25 control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 26 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of 27 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

1 21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 2 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

3 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in 4 an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
5 employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 6 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees working off the clock without compensation,
7 thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages.
8 Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
9 Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay
10 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition, Defendants 11 routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and 12 duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also failed to 13 reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related 14 expenses.

15 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
16 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
17 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class,
18 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
19 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal
20 periods, regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable 21 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
22 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
23 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute
24 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 25 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 26 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

27 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
28

1 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under
2 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
3 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
5 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free
6 meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through 7 their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

8 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were 10 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 11 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
12 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
13 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants 14 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 15 Aggrieved Employees routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class,
16 and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short,
17 late, and/or interrupted.

18 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
19 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 20 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 21 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest 22 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
23 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 24 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 25 work period.

26 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
27 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under 28

1 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
2 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
3 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
4 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 5 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
6 to work through their rest periods.

7 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
8 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 9 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
10 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
11 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
12 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
13 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
14 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
15 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 16 interrupted.

17 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required 18 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. Although 19 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 20 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 21 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off the clock for which they 22 were not compensated.

23 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies 24 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 25 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 26 all wages owed.

27 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 28

Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week.

32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single work day and/or eighty (80) hours in a single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock.

35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under

1 California Labor Code section 202.

2 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to
3 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
4 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 5 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 6 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
7 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including minimum wages, and meal and rest 8 period premiums.

9 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 10 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
11 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 12 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 13 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 14 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
15 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, net wages earned, all applicable 16 hourly rates, the inclusive pay period dates.

17 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 18 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
19 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and 20 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 21 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

22 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 23 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class', and the Aggrieved Employees' work 24 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

25 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse 26 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses,
27 including but not limited to work-mandated uniform shirts, pants, shoes, and oil-resistant cram 28

1 for shoes. Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to reimburse
2 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses and 3 costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in violation of California law.

4 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 5 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
6 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 7 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 8 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 9 Defendants' profits.

10 42. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
11 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 12 to him [or her] under this article."

13 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

15 (Against All Defendants)

16 43. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 17 every allegation set forth above.

18 44. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare 19 Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 20 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular 21 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

22 45. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 23 were required to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees employed by Defendants, 24 and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at 25 the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more 26 than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

27 46. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 28

1 required to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees overtime compensation at a
2 rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a
3 day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a 4 workweek.

5 47. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 6 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 7 day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 8 work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 9 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

10 48. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
11 regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a 12 week.

13 49. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 14 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

15 50. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees the 16 unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions 17 of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

18 51. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 19 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, 20 costs, and attorneys' fees.

21 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 25 every allegation set forth above.

26 53. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections
27 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's, the Class', and the Aggrieved Employees'

1 employment by Defendants.

2 54. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
3 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 4 applicable order of the California IWC.

5 55. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
6 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work
7 for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal 8 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the 9 employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 10 both the employer and employee.

11 56. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that 12 an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more 13 than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal 14 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 15 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 16 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

17 57. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
18 who were scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive 19 their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer 20 than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

21 58. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
22 who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to 5 68. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff, the Class, 12 Plaintiff and other Class Members from taking uninterrupted rest periods.

13 70. Defendants’ conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor
14 Code section 226.7.

15 71. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 16 226.7(b), Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from 17 Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employees’ regular hourly rate of compensation for

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 72. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 5 statutorily-protected rights.

6 87. More specifically, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees have been 8 rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

9 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 94. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 13 every allegation set forth above.

14 95. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, 15 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, the Class, the Aggrieved Employees, to the general public, and 16 Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the 17 public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

18 96. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and 19 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
20 Code section 17200, et seq.

21 97. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may 22 be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies
23 and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
24 to work overtime without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code
25 sections 510 and 1198. Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees,
26 including Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their meal and rest
27 periods without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 226.7
28

1 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' policies and practices of failing to timely pay wages to 2 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees violate California Labor Code sections 201,
3 202, 203 and 204.

4 98. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 221, 226(a), 1194, 1197, 5 1197.1, 510, 1174(d), 2800, and 2802.

6 99. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants
7 unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

8 100. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees have been personally injured by 9 Defendants' unlawful business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily 10 limited to the loss of money and/or property.

11 101. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.,
12 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld
13 and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this 14 Complaint; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 15 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

16 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203)

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 102. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 20 every allegation set forth above.

21 103. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 22 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of 23 discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his 24 or her wages shall become due and payable not later seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the 25 employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case 26 the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

27 104. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Class
28

Members with Defendants ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge. Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendants all of their wages, earned and unpaid, including but not limited to minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime wages, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

105. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

106. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

107. Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendants are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

108. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

109. Plaintiff brings her Ninth cause of action solely as a representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved employees, including herself and other aggrieved employees of Defendants against whom the alleged violations were committed.

110. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code as follows: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor

1 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
2 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 3 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of the employee and other current or 4 former employees against whom a violation of the same provision was committed pursuant to the 5 procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

6 111. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged 7 above were committed against her during her time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an 8 “aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

9 112. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants
10 have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 11 Codes by:

- 12 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage 13 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 14 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
15 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 16 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 17 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 18 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 19 226.7 and 512.
- 20 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 21 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 22 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 23 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 24 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end 25 of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- 26 f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed 27 during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.

g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.

h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

j. Failing to pay reporting time wages to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

113. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11050, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 210, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, and 1197.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

114. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On December 3, 2025, Plaintiff, through her counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's December 3, 2025 notice, and the LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice.

1 Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for herself and other
2 Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

3 115. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 4 protect her interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
5 owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs
6 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

7 116. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
8 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
9 specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.
