1 Plaintiff Nancy Davis (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of all others similarly
2 situated, alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this putative class and representative action against defendants
5 Sweetwater Care Opco LLC, Sweetwater Care Resource LLC, Sweetwater YV Cholla Opco LLC,
6 Sweetwater YV Joshua Opco LLC, SWC CA Opco LLC, SWC CA Opco 2 LLC, AJC Healthcare
7 LLC, JBG Partners LLC, Almond View Care Center LLC, Brookside Care Center LLC, Feather
8 River Care Center LLC, Fowler Care Center LLC, Gateway Care LLC, Grand Oaks Care LLC, 9 Noble Care Center LLC, Palms Care Center LLC, Rancho Seco Care Center LLC, River Walk
10 Care Center LLC, Rolling Hills Care Center LLC, Shasta View Care Center LLC, Valley View
11 Care Center LLC, Vindra, Inc., The Vineyards at Fowler, LLC, and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive
12 (collectively, “Defendants”), on Plaintiff’s own behalf and on behalf of a class of individuals who 13 are and were employed by Defendants as non-exempt or hourly-paid employees throughout 14 California.

15 2. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants engaged in a pattern of wage and hour violations
16 under the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, all of 17 which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate unfair competition.

18 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have 19 increased their profits by violating state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 20 (a) failing to pay all minimum, regular, sick, and overtime wages;
- 21 (b) failing to provide meal periods or pay meal period premiums;
- 22 (c) failing to authorize or permit rest periods or pay rest period premiums;
- 23 (d) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
- 24 (e) failing to pay all wages due during employment and upon separation of 25 employment.

26 4. Plaintiff seeks monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of herself and all other
27 similarly situated in California to recover, among other things, unpaid wages, statutory penalties,
28 benefits, interest, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses, and penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201,

202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.7, 246, 248.5, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2698, et seq., and Code of California Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This is a class action brought pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

6. The monetary damages, restitution, penalties, and other legal and equitable relief sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of this Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Article VI, § 10 of the California Constitution, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, and/or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

9. Venue is proper in this court because Defendants maintain offices, have agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in this county.

THE PARTIES

10. Plaintiff is a California resident and was employed by Defendants in Clearlake, California as a non-exempt housekeeper from approximately April 2024 to approximately September 2025.

11. Defendants AJC Healthcare LLC and JBG Partners LLC directly or indirectly owned, operated, and/or controlled Defendants Sweetwater Care Opco LLC, Sweetwater Care Resource LLC, SWC CA Opco LLC, and SWC CA Opco 2 LLC. Defendants Sweetwater Care Opco LLC, Sweetwater Care Resource LLC, SWC CA Opco LLC, and SWC CA Opco 2 LLC were responsible for the operation, management, and/or control of Defendants Sweetwater YV Cholla Opco LLC, Sweetwater YV Joshua Opco LLC, Almond View Care Center LLC, Brookside

Care Center LLC, Feather River Care Center LLC, Fowler Care Center LLC, Gateway Care LLC, Grand Oaks Care LLC, Noble Care Center LLC, Palms Care Center LLC, Rancho Seco Care Center LLC, River Walk Care Center LLC, Rolling Hills Care Center LLC, Shasta View Care Center LLC, Valley View Care Center LLC, Vindra, Inc., and The Vineyards at Fowler LLC.

12. Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as employers whose employees were and are engaged to work throughout this county and the State of California.

13. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the Defendant sued herein under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 50 but will amend the complaint and serve such fictitiously named Defendants once their names and capacities become known.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each and all of the acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable, to each Defendant acting as the agent, employee, alter ego, and/or joint venturer of, or working in concert with, each of the other co-Defendants and within the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity with legal authority to act on the others' behalf.

15. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that during the relevant time period, DOES 1 through 50 were the employers of Plaintiff and the other members of the class within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other members of the class so as to make each Defendant an employer liable under the statutory provision set forth herein.

16. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other members of the class, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff and the other members of the class's employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

17. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 exercise sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and the other members of

1 the class's employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other members of the 2 class.

3 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

4 18. Plaintiff brings this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on Plaintiff's own
5 behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated who were affected by Defendants' Labor Code
6 Business and Professions Code, and IWC Wage Order Violations.

7 19. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief
8 authorized by California law.

9 20. Plaintiff's proposed class consists of and is defined as follows:

10 All individuals currently or formerly employed by Defendants as 11 non-exempt or hourly-paid employees in the State of California at 12 any time between four years prior to the filing of this action and the date of class certification ("Class").

13 21. Members of the Class described above will be collectively referred to as "Class
14 Members."

15 22. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or re-define the Class, establish subclasses, or 16 modify or re-define any class definition as appropriate based on investigation, discovery, and 17 specific theories of liability.

18 23. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class Members that 19 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members including, but not limited to 20 the following:

- 21 (a) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages 22 (including minimum, sick, and overtime wages) for all hours worked by 23 Plaintiff and Class Members;
- 24 (b) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with 30-25 minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked;
- 26 (c) Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premiums at the regular rate
27 of pay when Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with timely, 30-
28 minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked;

- 1 (d) Whether Defendants failed to permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take 2 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or 3 major fraction thereof;
- 4 (e) Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premiums at the regular rate of 5 pay when Plaintiff and Class Members were not permitted to take 10-minute,
6 uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major 7 fraction thereof;
- 8 (f) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members accurate 9 itemized wage statements.
- 10 (g) Whether Defendants failed to pay wages timely to Plaintiff and Class
11 Members during employment;
- 12 (h) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages 13 timely upon termination of employment.
- 14 (i) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful, reckless, intentional, and/or 15 knowing; and
- 16 (j) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 17 Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

18 24. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the proposed 19 Class and subclasses are readily ascertainable:

- 20 (a) Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all 21 members is impractical. Although the members of the Class are unknown to 22 Plaintiff at this time, on information and belief, the Class is estimated to be 23 greater than 800 individuals. The identities of the Class Members are readily 24 ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment and payroll records.
- 25 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of the claims
26 (or defenses, if any) of the Class Members because Defendants' failure to 27 comply with the provisions of California's wage and hour laws entitled each 28 Class Member to similar pay, benefits, and other relief. The injuries sustained by Plaintiff are also typical of the injuries sustained by the Class Members, because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants' common course of conduct as alleged herein.

(c) Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of all Class Members because it is in Plaintiff's best interest to prosecute the claims alleged herein to obtain full compensation and penalties due. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions and versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred and, throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees and costs that have been and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of the Class Members.

(d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes use of class action adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve economies of time, effort, and expense as compared with separate lawsuits and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the same issues can be adjudicated in the same manner for the entire Class at the same time. If appropriate, this Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods to efficiently manage this case as a class action.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

25. During the relevant time period, Defendants employed Plaintiff and Class Members as non-exempt or hourly-paid employees throughout California at Defendants' California business location(s).

26. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to compensation for all hours worked. However, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members at least the applicable minimum, regular, sick, and overtime wage due to Defendants' policy and practice of chronic understaffing which required Plaintiff and Class

1 Members to remain on-duty during meal periods without paying for that time worked. In fact,
2 Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to sign on-duty meal period agreements which
3 notified Plaintiff and Class Members that the nature of the work prevented them from being
4 relieved of all duty during meal periods. However, it was Defendants' chronic understaffing, not
5 the nature of Plaintiff's and Class Members' work, that prevented them from being relieved of all
6 duty during meal periods. Despite the on-duty meal period agreements, Defendants failed to pay
7 for time Plaintiff and Class Members were on-duty during meal periods. Further, Defendants failed
8 to pay sick pay at either the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which Plaintiff and Class
9 Members used the pay sick time, or at a rate calculated by dividing Plaintiff's and Class Members'
10 total wages, not including overtime pay, by the total hours worked in the full pay periods of the 11 prior 90 days of Plaintiff's and Class Members' employment. As a result, Defendants failed to pay 12 Plaintiff and Class Members for all minimum, regular, sick, and overtime wages in violation of the 13 Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order.

14 27. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members
15 were entitled to receive 30-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked 16 or payment of meal period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof. However,
17 Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with 30-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free
18 meal periods for every 5 hours worked and failed to pay meal period premiums at their regular rate 19 of pay in lieu thereof in violation of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order. On those 20 occasions when Defendants paid meal period premiums, they failed to do so at Plaintiff's and Class
21 Members' regular rate of pay.

22 28. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members
23 were entitled to receive 10-minute, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major 24 fraction thereof or payment of rest period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.
25 However, Defendants failed to permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take 10-minute,
26 uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major fraction thereof and failed
27 to pay rest period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof in violation of the Labor
28 Code and applicable IWC Wage Order.

1 29. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members
2 were entitled to itemized wage statements that accurately showed, inter alia, gross wages earned,
3 total hours worked, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period
4 and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate. However, due to Defendants’
5 failure to record and pay for all time worked and Defendants’ failure to provide meal and rest
6 periods or meal and rest period premiums in lieu thereof, Defendants failed to provide accurate
7 itemized wage statements in violation of the Labor Code. Further, Defendants made payments for 8 wages that were earned in previous periods and identified those payments as “Retro” on wage
9 statements without identifying the inclusive dates in which those wages were earned and supposed 10 to be paid.

11 30. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members 12 were entitled to timely payment of wages due during employment and upon separation of 13 employment. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive payment
14 of all wages within the required time periods. Further, Defendants made payments that were earned 15 in previous periods identified as “Retro,” and those wages were not paid within 10 days of the 16 close of Defendants’ semi-monthly pay periods.

17 31. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew they had a duty to compensate
18 Plaintiff and Class Members, and Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation
19 but willfully, knowingly, and/or intentionally failed to do so in order to increase Defendants’ 20 profits.

21 32. Therefore, Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking monetary and injunctive relief
22 against Defendants on Plaintiff’s own behalf and on behalf of all Class Members to recover, among 23 other things, unpaid wages (including minimum, regular, and overtime wages), unpaid meal period
24 premium payments, unpaid rest period premium payments, unlawfully deducted wages, interest, 25 attorneys’ fees, penalties, costs, and expenses.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM, REGULAR, AND OVERTIME WAGES

3 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, & 1198; Violation of IWC Wage Order
4 §§ 3, 4, and 5)

5 33. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 6 though fully set forth herein.

7 34. During the relevant time period, Defendants were required to compensate Plaintiff
8 and Class Members for all hours worked pursuant to Labor Code §§ 200, et seq., 510, 1182.12, 9 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

10 35. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees must be paid overtime compensation at 11 1 ½ times their regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of 8 hours in a day, 40 hours in a 12 week, and for the first 8 hours worked on the 7th day of work.

13 36. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage for employees fixed 14 by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than 15 the minimum so fixed is unlawful

16 37. Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is unlawful 17 to employ individuals without compensating them at a rate of pay either 1 ½ times or 2 times the 18 individual's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the individual on a 19 daily or weekly basis.

20 38. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194, Defendants were required to compensate
21 Plaintiff and Class Members for all overtime hours worked, calculated at 1 ½ times their regular 22 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 8 hours per workday, 40 hours per workweek, and for 23 the first 8 hours on the 7th consecutive workday, and 2 times their regular rate of pay for all hours
24 after 12 in a workday and for all hours over 8 worked on the 7th day of any workweek.

25 39. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class
26 Members all wages owed when Defendants did not pay for all hours worked at the correct rate of 27 pay.

28 ///

40. In violation of the Labor Code, Defendants knowingly and willfully refused to perform their obligations and compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all wages earned and all hours worked, including work performed in workweeks in which they did not qualify for any overtime compensation.

41. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay all wages to Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked in violation of the Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

42. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members overtime and double-time compensation violates Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

43. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the required wages, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their wages, including minimum, regular, and overtime wages, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

44. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 & 512; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 11)

45. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though forth herein.

46. Labor Code § 226.7 prohibits employers from requiring an employee to work during any meal period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

47. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order provides, “[n]o employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee.”

48. Labor Code § 512(a) provides that an employer may not require, cause, or permit

1 an employee to work for a period of more than 5 hours per day without providing the employee
2 with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period
3 per day of the employee is not more than 6 hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent
4 of both the employer and the employee.

5 49. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an employee
6 for a work period of more 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal
7 period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours,
8 the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only 9 if the first meal period was not waived.

10 50. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive 11 compliant meal periods for every 5 hours worked because their meal periods were missed, late,
12 short, interrupted, and/or they were not permitted to take a second meal period.

13 51. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order require 14 an employer to pay an employee an additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for 15 each workday that a compliant meal period is not provided.

16 52. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class
17 Members meal period premiums for missed, late, and/or short meal periods pursuant to Labor Code
18 § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

19 53. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an additional 20 hour of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class Members
21 suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

22 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

23 FAILURE TO PERMIT REST PERIODS

24 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

25 54. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 26 though fully set forth herein.

27 55. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to work
28 during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

1 56. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states “[e]very employer shall 2 authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the 3 middle of each work period[,]” and the “[a]uthorized rest period time shall be based on the total
4 hours worked daily at the rate of 10 minutes net rest time per 4 hours or major fraction thereof[,]”
5 unless the total time worked is less than 3 ½ hours.

6 57. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive a 10-7 minute rest period for every 4 hours or major fraction thereof worked because they were required
8 to work through their rest periods and/or were not authorized to take their rest periods.

9 58. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires 10 an employer to pay an employee an additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 11 compensation for each day that a compliant rest period is not provided.

12 59. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class
13 Members rest period premiums for missed, late, and/or interrupted rest periods pursuant to Labor
14 Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

15 60. As a result of Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an additional 16 hour of pay for each day a compliant rest period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class Members
17 suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

18 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

20 (Violation of Labor Code § 226)

21 61. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 22 though fully set forth herein.

23 62. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an accurate
24 wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including, the following: (1) gross
25 wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned 26 and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions,
27 provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown 28 as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is

1 paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or 2 an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address
3 of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay
4 period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

5 63. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally failed
6 to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff and Class
7 Members. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly state the gross and 8 net wages earned, total hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect, and the number of hours
9 worked at each hourly rate by Plaintiff and Class Members.

10 64. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor
11 Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury and damage to their statutory 12 rights. Plaintiff and Class Members are deemed to suffer an injury pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e)
13 where, as here, Defendants intentionally violated Labor Code § 226(a). Plaintiff and Class
14 Members were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
15 accurate itemized wage statements under Labor Code § 226(a). In addition, because Defendants 16 failed to provide accurate rates of pay on wage statements, Defendants prevented Plaintiff and 17 Class Members from determining if all hours worked were paid at the appropriate rate and the 18 extent of the underpayment, thereby causing Plaintiff to incur expenses and lost time. Plaintiff 19 would not have had to engage in these efforts and incur these costs had Defendants provided the 20 accurate hours worked, wages earned, and rates of pay. This has also delayed Plaintiff's ability to 21 demand and recover underpayment of wages from Defendants.

22 65. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of 23 all actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) or $50.00
24 for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred and $100.00 per employee for each violation
25 in subsequent pay periods in an amount not exceeding $4,000.00 per employee, plus attorneys'
26 fees and costs.

27 66. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiff and 28 Class Members from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wages paid to them and resulted

1 in a unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and 2 intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members
3 have suffered an injury, in the exact amount of damages and/or penalties to be shown according to 4 proof at trial.

5 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE DURING EMPLOYMENT AND UPON
7 SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

8 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, & 210)

9 67. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 10 though fully set forth herein.

11 68. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 12 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if 13 an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 14 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-15 two (72) hours previous notice of an intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his 16 or her wages at the time of quitting.

13 76. California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. prohibits acts of unfair

82. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that during the relevant time period, Defendants were knowledgeable concerning the wage and hour laws of California.

83. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiff and Class Members wages and monies owed, thereby creating an artificially lower cost of doing business in order to undercut Defendants' competitors and gain a greater foothold in the marketplace.
