Action Filed: June 30, 2023

Trial Date: Not set

I, KANE MOON, declare as follows:

CASE BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

4. Plaintiff's claim for unpaid minimum and overtime wages stem from allegations that Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and others for off-the-clock work and for reporting time pay. Plaintiff's meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their work, Class Members' breaks were often short, late, interrupted, and sometimes missed altogether, and that Defendant did not pay all premium wages for non-compliant breaks. Plaintiff further brings a claim for unreimbursed necessary business expenses based on allegations that Class Members were required to purchase cleaning supplies like Fabuloso and Pine, maintain their company-provided uniforms, and use their personal cellphone for work purposes without reimbursement from Defendant. Finally, Plaintiff also brings derivative claims

1 for waiting time penalties, wage statement violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under 2 PAGA.

3 5. Because of the foregoing alleged violations of various provisions of the Labor Code, Plaintiff 4 filed a class action on June 30, 2023, which alleges Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum 5 wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize 6 and permit rest periods, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final 7 wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair 8 business practices.

9 6. Pursuant to PAGA, on June 24, 2023, Plaintiff gave written notice to the California Labor and 10 Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) of the alleged Labor Code violations, with certified mail 11 service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice is 12 attached hereto as Exhibit 2. On September 13, 2023, Plaintiff timely filed a First Amended Class and 13 Representative Action Complaint to add a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA. In 14 compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently submitted to the LWDA a file-15 stamped copy of the Operative Complaint containing the Court-assigned case number. To date, the 16 LWDA has not indicated its intent to investigate the alleged violations or intervene in this Action.

17 7. In December 2023, due to the existence of an arbitration agreement, Plaintiff dismissed the 18 class allegations in this action without prejudice. Although the class allegations had previously been 19 dismissed, the Parties reached a settlement on a class basis at the mediation. In order to effectuate the terms 20 of the Settlement, the Parties jointly stipulated to the filing of a Second Amended Complaint (“SAC”)
21 reinstating the class allegations, which will serve as the operative complaint for purposes of the Settlement 22 and its approval.

23 8. Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations.
24 Defendant asserts it complied with all its compensation obligations, including compensating Class Members 25 for any and all off-the-clock work, reporting time pay, and overtime work, and therefore, Plaintiff and other 26 Class Members were paid all wages owed.. Defendant maintains compliance with all its meal and rest period 27 obligations. Defendant asserts it complied with all its reimbursement obligations, and that Plaintiff and other 28

1 employees were compensated for any and all business expenses necessarily incurred. To the extent
2 employees received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant asserts employees suffered 3 no actual damage or harm as a result. (See, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013, No.
4 C 12–05860 CRB) 2013 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an 5 employer’s failure to provide full and accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information 6 alone is not sufficient.”].) With respect to Plaintiff’s claim for waiting time penalties, Defendant alleges its 7 good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes the imposition of waiting time penalties since Plaintiff 8 cannot prove Defendant’s alleged failure to pay all final wages at the time of separation was “willful.” (See,
9 e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012, No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx)) 2012 WL
10 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, among others, Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, 11 and further claims it did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA.
12 Defendant also maintains the claims are improper for class treatment, in part, due to the individualized and 13 testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims that could bar class certification or significantly reduce 14 Defendant’s overall liability.

15 DISCOVERY AND INVESTIGATION

16 9. The Parties agreed to mediate this action with Steven Rottman, Esq., an experienced class and 17 PAGA action mediator. In preparation for mediation, the Parties agreed to a protocol for an informal 18 production of documents and information before mediation. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff obtained from 19 Defendant, through informal discovery, documents and data that were necessary and helpful to evaluate the 20 claims asserted in this action. Defendant produced a statistically sound sample of time and pay records for 21 the putative Class, Plaintiff’s personnel file and time and pay records, and Defendant’s written employment 22 policies in effect during the Class Period. Defendant also provided information regarding the estimated 23 number of current and formerly employed Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and PAGA Pay Periods.

24 10. In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff’s Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information 25 Defendant provided, including the sample records and documents regarding Defendant’s wage-and-hour 26 policies. Plaintiff’s Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze the sample records and prepare a damage 27 analysis prior to the mediation. The sample time and pay records analyzed contained 8,128 actual shifts 28

1 worked (representing roughly 8% of total shifts worked in the Class Period), which allowed Plaintiff's expert
2 to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty. In conjunction with their extensive factual
3 investigation, Plaintiff's Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses
4 asserted in the litigation. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class 5 certification, success on the merits, and Defendant's maximum and realistic monetary exposure for all claims.
6 Thus, Plaintiff's and her Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues raised by the 7 pleadings allowed them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

8 SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS AND NOTICE TO THE LWDA

9 11. On October 14, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation with Steven 10 Rottman, Esq. The negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were 11 adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, 12 but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been 13 reached. After a full discussion regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's 14 defenses and with the assistance of the mediator, the Parties reached a resolution, the material terms of which 15 are set out in the Settlement.

16 12. In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the 17 proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff's preliminary approval 18 motion and the hearing date. A true and correct copy of the LWDA's email confirming receipt thereof is 19 attached hereto as Exhibit 3. To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement.

20 KEY TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

21 13. GSA and Funding: The Gross Settlement Amount ("GSA") is $750,000, subject to potential 22 increase under an Escalator Clause, and is non-reversionary. (Settlement, ¶ 3.0.) Defendant will separately 23 pay its employer-side payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of Individual Class Payments to the 24 Administrator. (Id.) Defendant will fully fund the GSA, together with all employer-side payroll taxes owed 25 on the Wage Portion of Individual Class Payments, by transmitting the funds to the Administrator in two (2)
26 equal installment payments as follows: the first installment payment of fifty percent (50%) of the GSA 27 shall be funded on or before March 31, 2026 ("Initial Payment"), and the second and final installment 28

1 payment of fifty percent (50%) of the Gross Settlement Amount shall be funded within four (4) months of 2 the Initial Payment, or ten (10) business days following the Effective Date, whichever date is later.¹ (Id. at 3 ¶ 4.0.)

4 14. Escalator Clause: The Settlement provides an escalator clause under which should the number 5 of Class Period Workweeks increases by more than 10% of the original estimate of 26,000, Defendant shall 6 increase the GSA by the percentage increase above ten percent (10%) (e.g. if the number of Workweeks 7 increases by 11%, the Gross Settlement Amount will increase by 1%). (Id. at ¶ 7.0.) In the alternative, 8 Defendant in its sole discretion may elect to shorten the Class and PAGA period in order to stay within the 9 ten percent (10%) cushion. (Id.)

10 15. Class Representative Service Payment: The Settlement includes a payment up to $10,000.00 11 payable from the GSA, subject to the Court's approval, to Plaintiff as the Class Representative, in addition 12 to the amount he is eligible to receive as a Class Member. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.14, 3.1.1.) This award is for her services 13 in support of the Action and General Release. (Id. at ¶ 1.14.) In the event the award finally approved is less, 14 the difference will revert to Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.1.)

15 16. Class Counsel Fees and Expenses Payments: The Settlement permits a fee application of not 16 more than one-third of the GSA or $250,000.00, whichever is greater, for reasonable attorneys' fees, plus 17 reimbursement for actual litigation costs not to exceed $35,000.00, payable to Class Counsel from the GSA.
18 (Id. at ¶ 3.1.2.) In the event the amounts finally approved are less, the difference will revert to Participating 19 Class Members. (Id.) To date, my firm has incurred $27,808.74 in actual litigation costs, and a true and 20 correct copy of a report showing current costs is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

21 17. Administration Costs Payment: The Settlement provides an Administration Expenses Payment 22 to the Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount not to exceed $10,000.00, except for a showing 23 of good cause and as approved by the Court. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.3.) In the event the amount of actual administration 24 costs is less and/or the amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the difference will be allocated
25 to the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) The Parties jointly selected Phoenix Class Action Administration 26

27 ¹ The funding schedule was a critical component in settling the Action to ensure Defendant is able to 28 fund the Gross Settlement Amount within its financial constraints.

Solutions (“Phoenix”) as the neutral entity to administer this Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.1, 6.0.) A true and correct copy of Phoenix’s bid of $10,000.00 is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

18. Aggrieved Employees; PAGA Period: Aggrieved Employees is defined as all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant in California employed during the PAGA Period. (Id. at ¶ 1.3.) For purposes of Settlement, the “PAGA Period” is June 24, 2023, through the date the Class Period ends. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.34.)

19. PAGA Penalties; Individual PAGA Payments: The Settlement allocates $50,000.00 from the GSA for settlement of the Released PAGA Claims, which will be distributed 75% ($37,500.00) to the LWDA and 25% ($12,500.00) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff’s claims.² (Id. at ¶¶ 1.37, 3.1.4.) Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to a pro rata share of the 25% share of the PAGA Penalties directly proportional to their number of PAGA Pay Periods. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.4.1.) This results in an average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $26.37 for each of the estimated 474 Aggrieved Employees ($12,500 / 474), and a PAGA Pay Period value of roughly $0.97 for each of the 12,953 estimated Pay Periods in the PAGA Period ($12,500 / 12,953).

20. Net Settlement Amount: After deducting the Class Representative Service Payment, the Class Counsel Fees and Expenses Payments, the PAGA Penalties allocation, and the Administration Expenses Payment from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the amounts requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will be no less than $395,000.00 for an estimated Class of 474 individuals.³

³ The Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following from the $750,000 GSA: $10,000.00 for the Class Representative Service Payment, up to $10,000.00 for the Administration Expenses Payment, $50,000.00 for the PAGA Penalties to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees, $250,000.00 for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, and up to $35,000.00 for the Class Counsel Expenses Payment. (Settlement, ¶¶ 3.1–3.1.4.)

1 21. Class Members/Period: The Settlement Class is defined as all current and former hourly-paid 2 or non-exempt employees of Defendant in California employed during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 1.4.) For 3 purposes of Settlement, the “Class Period” is July 10, 2022, through the date of preliminary approval of the 4 Settlement, except as otherwise provided in Paragraph 7.0 of the Settlement. (Settlement, ¶ 1.12.)

5 22. Individual Class Payments: Each Class Member who does not opt-out will be entitled to a pro
6 rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that is directly proportional to the number of Workweeks worked 7 during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.3.1.) The estimated $395,000.00 Net Settlement Amount results in an 8 average Individual Class Payment of roughly $833.33 for each of the estimated 474 Class Members 9 ($395,000 / 474),⁴ and a Workweek value of roughly $15.19 for each of the 26,000 estimated Workweeks 10 in the Class Period ($395,000 / 26,000).

11 23. Tax Allocations: Individual Class Payments will be allocated as 20% as wages and 80% as 12 penalties and interest for tax purposes. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.3.2.) Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated as 13 100% penalties for tax purposes. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.4.2.)

14 24. Disbursement and Uncashed Funds: Disbursement will occur within 14 days of completed 15 funding. (Id. at ¶ 4.1.) Class Members will not need to submit any claim form as a condition of receiving 16 individual settlement payments. (Id. at ¶ 3.0.) Any funds remaining uncashed after 180 days from issuance, 17 or for any Class Member whose envelope is returned and no forwarding address can be located for the 18 Class Member after reasonable efforts have been made, will be transmitted by the Administrator to the 19 California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member, thereby leaving no 20 “unpaid residue” subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure (“CCP”) section 21 384(b). (Id. at ¶¶ 4.1.1, 4.1.3.)

22 25. Released Class Claims by Participating Class Members: The “Released Class Claims” is limited 23 to all causes of action and factual or legal theories that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, 24

26 ⁴ At this time, the actual amounts to Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees are unknown and will 27 be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary approval and receipt and processing of the Class 28 Data. (Settlement, ¶ 6.1.) The high and low range of payments will be provided to the Court in a motion for final approval.

1 based on facts stated in the Operative Complaint which occurred during periods of employment in a non-2 exempt position in California during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 1.42.)

3 26. Released PAGA Claims by PAGA Members and LWDA: The “Released PAGA Claims” is 4 limited to any and all claims for civil penalties, and attorneys’ fees and costs, under PAGA that were 5 alleged or that reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint 6 and Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, 7 agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns. (Id. at ¶ 5.2.)

8 27. Plaintiff’s Section 1542 Release: Under the Settlement, Plaintiff has agreed to a general release 9 of any and all claims related to her employment, including all claims alleged in the Action, and release of 10 rights pursuant to California Civil Code section 1542. (Id. at ¶ 5.0.1.)

11 28. Effective date of claims releases: The release of all claims will be effective only upon 12 Defendant’s funding of the GSA and employer-share of payroll taxes. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

13 29. Released Parties: Defendant, and each of its former and/or present directors, trustees, officers, 14 shareholders, owners, members, attorneys, fiduciaries, administrators, insurers, predecessors, successors, 15 assigns, partners, representatives, subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, employees, contractors, consultants and 16 any other entities that could be considered to have jointly employed the Settlement Class Members or 17 PAGA Group (including, without limitation, any investment bankers, accountants, reinsurers and any past, 18 present or future affiliated entities, joint ventures and assigns). (Id. at ¶ 1.44.)

19 30. Class Notice; Disputes, Requests for Exclusion, Objections: The Class Notice will be mailed 20 via first-class U.S. mail in English and Spanish to the current address of each Class Member. (Id. at ¶ 6.3.) 21 The proposed Class Notice sets forth, in plain terms, a statement of case, the terms of the Settlement, the 22 approximate amounts of attorneys’ fees, costs, PAGA Penalties, and service award being sought, an 23 explanation of how the individual payments are calculated, the Final Approval Hearing information, the 24 procedure for disputing the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to each Class Members, 25 and how Class Members may, should they choose, opt-out or otherwise object to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 26 6.3–6.5, Ex. A.)

1 31. No Related Actions: The Parties, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel represent that they are 2 not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or affected by the 3 Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 2.7.)

4 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

5 32. Plaintiff's Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. As 6 previously noted, the Settlement at issue was reached through arms'-length negotiations, private mediation, 7 and the assistance of a statistics expert. Based on Defendant's informal class-wide discovery production, on 8 Plaintiff's Counsel independent investigation and evaluation, and on their extensive experience in wage-9 and-hour litigation, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, 10 and adequate. Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial 11 risk, appellate risk, and the defenses Defendant may assert both to certification and on the merits, the 12 Settlement is in the best interest of the Class and LWDA.

13 33. Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's review of the time, payroll, and additional data provided by 14 Defendant, on Plaintiff's expert's analysis of the sample records provided by Defendant, and on information 15 from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated the estimated maximum and risk-adjusted exposure that 16 Defendant faced. Based on a review of Defendant's records, it is estimated that there are approximately 474
17 Class Members who collectively worked 26,000 Workweeks during the Class Period, and 474 Aggrieved
18 Employees who collectively worked 12,953 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (Id. at ¶ 7.0.) 19 Additionally, there were an estimated 248 former employees falling within the three-year statute of 20 limitations ("SOL") period for waiting time penalties, that Class Members' average hourly rate was $25.18, 21 and that the average regular hourly rate was $25.21.

22 Accordingly, we calculated Defendant's potential exposure as follows:

Claim	Relevant Time Period	Rate	Number of Violations	Realistic Recovery
Unpaid Wages (Reporting Time Pay)	26,000 Workweeks	$25.21 average regular rate	2,861 net unpaid hours	$18,031.45*

Unpaid Wages (Off the Clock)	26,000 Workweeks	$25.18 average hourly rate	12,520 net unpaid hours (assuming 7 minutes per shift)	$47,288.04
Meal Period Violations	26,000 Workweeks	$25.18 average hourly rate	22,089 unique meal break violations	$139,050.26*
Rest Period Violations	26,000 Workweeks	$25.18 average hourly rate	45,024 rest break violations (assuming 50% break violations for shifts of at least 3.5 hours)	$170,055.65
Unreimbursed Business Expenses Violations	26,000 Workweeks	$20 per week	Assumes $20 per week	$78,000.00
Labor Code § 203	Based on approx. 248 terminated employees within the 3-year SOL	$25.18 average hourly rate / 30-day max.	Assumes 8 hours / day	$149,871.36
Labor Code § 226	Based on approx. 474 employees within the 1-year SOL	$50 per initial pay period / $100 per subsequent pay periods / $4,000 employee max.	Based on 12,953 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$189,600.00
PAGA	Based on 12,953 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$100 per pay period	Based on 12,953 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$129,530.00
Total				$921,426.76
* These figures are discounted based on a 25% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.  These figures are discounted based on a 15% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.  These figures are discounted based on a 10% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.⁵

⁵ It is reasonable to apply discounts to account for risks at certification and trial, in part, because the Judicial Council of California found that only 21.4% of all class actions were certified either as part of a settlement or as part of a contested certification motion. (See Findings of the Study of California Class Action

1 34. Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is due to allegations that Defendant failed to pay for reporting
2 time. Plaintiff's expert determined there were a net 2,861 reporting time hours, resulting in $72,125.81
3 unpaid wages. However, Defendant argues that it properly compensated its employees, including for all 4 reporting pay. Although I believe there is merit to this claim, I acknowledge there is risk with certifying 5 this claim and proof on the merits. Therefore, for purposes of settlement, I applied a 75% discount to the 6 maximum exposure figure; accordingly, I arrived at a realistic damage estimate of $18,031.45 for the 7 reporting time pay claim.

8 35. Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is based on allegations that Defendant failed to pay all 9 minimum and overtime wages due to off-the-clock work performed related to time spent waiting to clock 10 in and out of work. Plaintiff alleges that Class Members were directed to arrive 5 minutes earlier to 11 ensure that they clock in at their scheduled start time to account for the time to get to the single timeclock 12 machine. In addition, Plaintiff asserts that she was required to return to her cleaning cart to finish organizing 13 it or complete tasks such as cleaning classroom windows even after clocking out. Therefore, Plaintiff's 14 Counsel estimated Class Members spent an average 7 minutes off the clock per shift. Accordingly, 15 Plaintiff's Counsel and data expert estimated Defendant failed to pay Class Members for approximately 16 12,520 hours. From this, and in light of the average rates of the Class Members, Defendant's estimated 17 maximum potential liability is $315,253.60. Defendant contends that all time worked was compensated, that 18 the time spent waiting to clock in and out of work was de minimis, that Class Members were not permitted 19 to work off-the-clock, and that this claim is highly individualized and not susceptible to class-wide treatment.
20 I acknowledge that "off-the-clock" claims are difficult to be tried on a class wide basis because there is no 21 apparatus that can be used to prove this claim—there are no records to be used as evidence. In light of these 22 defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted the maximum potential liability by 85%. Plaintiff's 23 realistic recovery estimate for the unpaid wages claim due to off-the-clock work is therefore 24 $47,288.04.

26
27 Litigation, 2000-2006, available at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/class-action-lit-study.pdf>.) Further, 28 the likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its overall exposure.

1 36. Plaintiff's meal period claim is based on allegations that Defendant did not provide or maintain 2 sufficient meal period practices, such that Class Members were not always permitted or able to take meal 3 periods and/or were sometimes subjected to late, short and/or interrupted meal periods without compensation 4 in lieu thereof. The sample of time and corresponding payroll records for the putative Class indicated that 5 Defendant either failed to provide a meal period or provided a short and/or untimely meal period 22,089
6 times throughout the Class Period, resulting in a 26.9% violation rate. Plaintiff's Counsel and its data expert 7 then calculated that, in light of these violations and the average hourly rate of the putative Class, that 8 Defendant had a potential liability of $556,201.02 (22,089 unique violations x $25.18 avg. hourly rate).
9 Defendant nonetheless contends that many meal breaks were taken and, where a violation appears, it was a 10 result of the Class Member voluntarily choosing to forego a meal period, to take it after the end of the fifth 11 hour, or to stop his or her break early to return to work. Moreover, certification and proof of this claim would 12 require declarations from Class Members and obtaining such declarations potentially would reveal that each 13 Class Member had a different experience with respect to meal periods. In light of these defenses, and for 14 purposes of settlement, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it reasonable to apply a 75% discount to the potential 15 liability. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the meal period claim is therefore $139,050.26.

16 37. The rest break claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not provide or maintain 17 sufficient rest break practices, such that Class Members were regularly required to work in excess of four 18 consecutive hours a day, or a major fraction thereof, without authorization or permission to take a ten-minute, 19 continuous and uninterrupted rest period or without compensation in lieu thereof. The precise number of rest 20 break violations could not be calculated since Defendant neither documented, nor is required to document, 21 when Class Members took their required rest breaks. Therefore, in preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's 22 Counsel assumed a 50% violation rate for shifts of at least to 3.5 hours in length and, based on the average 23 hourly rate of the putative Class, calculated Defendant's potential liability to be $1,133,704.32 (45,024 24 unique rest break violations x $25.18 per hour). Defendant nonetheless contends rest periods do not have 25 to be recorded, that Class Members voluntarily chose to forego some rest breaks and, significant for purposes 26 of class certification, that this claim is individualized in nature and therefore would require declarations 27 indicating the majority of Class Members experienced issues as to rest breaks. In light of these defenses, 28

1 and for purposes of settlement, I discounted Defendant's potential liability by 85%. Plaintiff's realistic 2 recovery estimate for the rest break claim is therefore $170,055.65.

3 38. The unreimbursed business expenses claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not 4 reimburse Class Members for all expenses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of duties, 5 including the purchase cleaning supplies like Fabuloso and Pine, maintenance of their company-provided 6 uniforms, and use of their personal cellphone for work purposes. The precise value of all necessary business
7 expenses Class Members incurred could not be calculated. Therefore, in preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's 8 Counsel estimated Defendant owed approximately $20.00 a week to each Class Member in the statutory 9 period and that Defendant's maximum potential liability is $520,000.00. Defendant contends it complied 10 with all its reimbursement obligations, that it provided Class Members with necessary tools and uniform, 11 that cellphone use was not required for work, and further, that the reimbursement claim would be difficult to 12 certify, given the individualistic nature of this claim. In light of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, 13 I discounted Defendant's potential liability by 85%. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the 14 unreimbursed expenses claim is therefore $78,000.00.

15 39. With respect to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory and civil penalties, Plaintiff estimates 16 Defendant's maximum potential recovery, prior to risk-adjustment, is $4,690,013.60, which breaks down as 17 follows: $1,498,713.60 for waiting time penalties for approximately 248 terminated Class Members in the 18 3-year SOL; a $1,896,000.00 penalty for inaccurate wage statements based on approximately 474 Class 19 Members in the 1-year SOL; and $1,295,300.00 for PAGA penalties based on 12,953 Pay Periods and the 20 Court assessing a $100 penalty for each pay period containing a violation. However, I believe it would be 21 unrealistic to expect the Court to award the full exposure amount given the discretionary nature of awarding 22 penalties and given Defendant's defenses, including without limitation, that any failure to pay all final wages 23 at the time of separation was not willful or intentional and that to the extent Plaintiff received wage statements 24 that were allegedly inaccurate, Plaintiff suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. Moreover, I understand 25 the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims could bar class certification or 26 otherwise significantly reduce Defendant's overall liability for statutory and civil penalties. Furthermore, 27 considering the underlying wage claims are realistically estimated to be $452,425.40, awarding such a disproportional amount in penalties would also raise Due Process concerns. Weighing these factors, I applied a 90% discount to each penalty (resulting in $149,871.36 for waiting time penalties, $189,600.00 for inaccurate wage statement penalties, and $129,530.00 for PAGA penalties) and accordingly arrived at a realistic recovery estimate of $469,001.36 for statutory and civil penalties.

40. Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff predicted the realistic (risk-adjusted) recovery for all claims, including penalties, is $921,426.76. This means the $750,000.00 gross settlement figure represents roughly 81.4% of the total realistic recovery. This is an excellent result for the Class, particularly because, under the Settlement, Class Members will receive timely and guaranteed relief, avoiding the risk of not being able to recover anything.

41. With regards to the PAGA claims, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies PAGA's dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. As a result of this litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in informal class-wide discovery, and participate in mediation. Defendant will also have to pay civil penalties to the LWDA under the Settlement, assuming final settlement approval is granted. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.4.) Not including its own attorneys' fees and costs as well as the employer's share of payroll taxes, Defendant will pay no less than $750,000.00 to resolve this matter—of which $50,000.00 is allocated toward the PAGA claims and will be distributed, in compliance with Labor Code section 2699 as 75% ($37,500.00) to the LWDA and 25% ($12,500.00) to Aggrieved Employees—and the release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved Employees from pursuing any individual claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released Parties. Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, there is a possibility of the Court not awarding the PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction.

42. Further, Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis due to the potential manageability issues and that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, penalties would likely be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties and

1 in light of other defenses available to Defendant. Thus, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would 2 be successful at trial, assuming she is first able to certify the claims and defeat the manageability issues 3 presented at litigation, Plaintiff could be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the 4 Settlement. In sum, the $50,000 PAGA Penalties allocation under the Settlement constitutes genuine and 5 meaningful relief.

6 43. Here, the Settlement represents a substantial recovery when considered against the risk and 7 uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to certify the claims and 8 establish liability, and the probability of appeal. While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of her claims, a 9 legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount 10 owed to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition.

11 44. The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or some 12 of Plaintiff's claims. Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not prevailing at trial due to low or 13 no participation by Class Members. Indeed, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the claims 14 could bar manageability of the representative claims or otherwise significantly reduce any recovery 15 whatsoever. For example, the rest period and unreimbursed expense claims are testimony-driven claims and 16 assume a 50% and a 100% violation rate, respectively, which would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as it 17 assumes either the participation of a majority or all employees (which would be difficult given the reality 18 that many, if not all, employees would be unwilling to participate due to fear of retaliation), or alternatively, 19 the use of surveys or statistical data as a surrogate (which would still require the participation of a majority 20 of employees to establish a sound representation of all non-exempts). Even assuming employees would be 21 willing to participate, obtaining declarations would potentially reveal that each individual employee had a 22 different experience.

23 45. Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue her claims on a class-wide basis and obtain 24 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial and 25 possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. Although the Parties 26 have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, and class-wide data analysis, they 27 have not conducted extensive formal discovery. Moreover, preparation for class certification and a trial 28

1 would remain for the Parties as well as the prospect of appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification
2 ruling for Plaintiff and/or any summary judgment ruling. As a result, the Parties would incur considerably 3 more attorneys' fees and costs through trial. In sum, this Settlement avoids the risks, burdens, and the 4 accompanying expense of further litigation.

5 46. The proposed $750,000.00 Settlement represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 6 reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 7 involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability of 8 appeal, it is clear the Settlement amount is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness, and that preliminary 9 settlement approval is appropriate. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133; 10 see Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar 11 does not require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed 12 on all its claims," but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic 13 range of outcomes of the litigation"].)

14 THE REPRESENTATIVE PAYMENT TO PLAINTIFF IS REASONABLE

15 47. Throughout this litigation, Plaintiff, who was a former employee of Defendant, has cooperated 16 immensely with my office and has taken many actions to protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff provided 17 valuable information regarding her hours worked, and what duties were performed during those hours.
18 Plaintiff also provided information regarding meal periods taken and missed by Plaintiff and other Class 19 Members. Plaintiff participated in decisions concerning this action, assisted in preparation for the mediation, 20 and provided my office with the names and contact information of potential witnesses in this action. Before 21 we filed this case, Plaintiff worked with my office to determine the viability of her claims. Plaintiff also 22 provided information and documents relating to her employment by Defendant. The information and 23 documentation provided by Plaintiff was instrumental in establishing the wage-and-hour violations alleged 24 in this action, and the recovery provided for in the Settlement would have been impossible to obtain without 25 her participation.

26 48. At the same time, Plaintiff faced many risks in adding herself as the named Plaintiff in this 27 matter. Plaintiff faced actual risks with her future employment, as putting herself on public record in an 28

1 employment lawsuit could also very well affect her likelihood for future employment. For example, a search
2 of Plaintiff's name will reveal this action, and as a result, many employers may likely forego hiring 3 Plaintiff in learning she sued a former employer.

4 49. In turn, Class Members can now participate in a settlement, reimbursing them for wage 5 violations they may have never known about or been willing to pursue on their own. If each Class Member 6 would have tried to pursue legal remedies on their own, that would have resulted in each having to expend a 7 significant amount of their own monetary resources and time, not to mention limited judicial resources, which 8 were obviated by Plaintiff putting herself on the line on behalf of the Class.

9 50. This class action would not have been possible without the aid of Plaintiff, who put her own 10 time and effort into this litigation and placed herself at risk for the sake of the Class. The requested 11 enhancement award to Plaintiff for her service as the Class Representative is a relatively small amount of 12 money considering the time and effort put into the litigation and compared to enhancements granted in other 13 class actions. The requested enhancement award is therefore reasonable to compensate Plaintiff for her active 14 participation in this lawsuit, in addition to her general release of claims, both known and unknown, and 15 waiver of section 1542 rights.

16 MY EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

17 51. I received a B.A. in History in 1998 from UCLA, and my J.D. from Loyola Marymount Law 18 School in 2006. I became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in June 2007 and have been an 19 Active Member in good standing continuously since then. I have been selected to Super Lawyers each year 20 from 2019 to 2023.

21 52. I co-founded Moon & Yang, APC—now Moon Law Group, PC—in March 2010. My practice 22 is focused exclusively on advocating for the rights of employees in wage-and-hour litigation, almost entirely 23 in class and/or representative actions.

24 53. For the past decade, I have built my practice to have an emphasis on employment and related 25 civil litigation cases and have both prosecuted and defended employment-related litigation cases. I have been 26 heavily, successfully, and continuously involved in active litigation and trial work, and have conducted bench 27 and jury trials on behalf of both employees and employers in wage-and-hour cases.

1 54. My current billing rate is $950.00 per hour, which is my usual hourly rate in wage-and-hour 2 litigations. A $950.00 per hour rate is reasonable considering my years of experience practicing in the 3 highly specialized area of employment and labor law and my Laffey Matrix rate (The Laffey Matrix, 4 <http://www.laffeymatrix.com/see.html> [last visited April 28, 2026].) The Laffey Matrix is a “well-5 established objective source for rates that vary by experience” used by the District of Columbia. (In re 6 HPL Tech., Inc. Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal. 2005) 366 F. Supp 2d 912, 921.) A true and correct copy of the 7 Laffey Matrix is attached hereto as Exhibit 6. California Courts have adjusted the Laffey Matrix rate 8 upwards based on “locality pay differentials” and the location of counsel’s office in California to determine 9 whether counsel’s rates are reasonable. (See, e.g., id. [applying a 9% upward adjustment to the Laffey 10 Matrix rate based on an approximate difference of 9% between the locality pay differential of the District 11 of Columbia and San Francisco, California, where counsel’s office was located].) To determine the locality 12 pay differential, the Court in In re HPL Technologies, Inc. utilized the locality pay differentials within the 13 federal courts. (Id. at pp. 921–22.) Using the same method here and based on my firm’s location in Los 14 Angeles, California, the locality pay differential of the Los Angeles-Long Beach area is 36.47% and the 15 locality pay differential of the Washington-Baltimore-Arlington area is 33.94%, which results in a 16 difference of approximately 2.53%. (Compare Judiciary Salary Plan of Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA, 17 Effective January 12, 2026, with Judiciary Salary Plan of Washington-Baltimore-Arlington, Effective 18 January 12, 2026.) True and correct copies of the Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA and Washington-19 Baltimore-Arlington salary plans are attached hereto as Exhibit 7 and Exhibit 8, respectively. Based on 20 my 19+ years of experience out of law school, my Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78
21 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). Accordingly, my current billing rate of $950.00 22 per hour is reasonable.

23 55. I am experienced in prosecuting and defending employment matters, particularly class actions 24 and PAGA representative actions. My firm has focused a substantial percentage of its practice on wage, hour, 25 and working conditions violations. In addition to the present case, I am also class counsel for other wage-26 and-hour class action lawsuits pending in various California counties, including in state and federal courts.
27 The following is a list of some of our recent class action settlements that have received preliminary and final 28

1 approval: Aparicio v. Lineage Logistics, LLC (LASC No. BC722764) (class size approx. 155; lead counsel); 2 Black v. Mission Healthcare Servs., Inc. (LASC No. 19STCV04602) (class size approx. 1,000; lead counsel); 3 Campa v. Bloomingdeals, Inc. (LASC No. BC700366) (class size approx. 1,500; lead counsel); Garcia v.

10 lead counsel) (in approving my hourly rate in that case, the Court found: “Class Counsel’s declarations show 11 that the attorneys are experienced and successful litigators. Other courts have approved the attorneys’ current 12 rates for the Moon & Yang, APC attorneys”); Martinez v. Bail Hotline Bail Bonds, Inc. (LASC No.
13 BC700131) (class size approx. 173; lead counsel); Montoya v. Golden 1 Credit Union (Sacramento No. 34-
14 2018-00228252) (class size approx. 1,900; lead counsel); Onofre v. Caitac Garment Processing, Inc. (LASC 22 (class size 435; lead counsel).

23 ALLEN FEGHALI’S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

24 56. Allen Feghali is a partner at Moon Law Group, PC. He received his B.A. in Global and 25 International Studies in 2011 from UC Santa Barbara, and his J.D. from University of La Verne College of 26 Law in 2014. Mr. Feghali became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in December 2014 and 27
28

1 has been an Active Member in good standing continuously since then. He was selected by Super Lawyers as 2 a “Southern California Rising Star” in 2020–2023.

3 57. Mr. Feghali began working at Moon Law Group, PC in May 2015, and his practice has focused 4 on advocating for the rights of employees at the trial-court and appellate level. Prior to roughly June 2018, 5 with the exception of a handful of cases, his practice focused on individual FEHA and wrongful termination 6 claims, as well as individual wage-and-hour claims. Since June 2018, Mr. Feghali’s practice has shifted to 7 almost exclusively representing employees in wage-and-hour class and PAGA representative actions.

8 58. Mr. Feghali’s current billing rate is $900.00 per hour, which is his usual hourly rate in wage and 9 hour litigations. Based on Mr. Feghali’s 11+ years of experience out of law school, his Laffey Matrix rate 10 with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). (See Ex.
11 6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering his experience, Mr. Feghali’s billing rate of 12 $900.00 per hour is reasonable.

13 59. During Mr. Feghali’s tenure with Moon Law Group, PC, he has played a critical role in 14 obtaining outstanding results for employees who have been wronged by their employers. Mr. Feghali’s 15 litigation experience includes, but is not limited to:

- 16 (a) In March 2021, Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in the matter of Rivera, et al. v. Clearpath
17 Federal Credit Union (LASC No. 19STCV33504), which resulted in a certification order 18 on all causes of action following contested briefing in a wage-and-hour class action.
- 19 (b) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of 20 Dawson, et al. v. GoHealth, LLC, et al. (No. CGC-19-577790), which was argued and taken 21 under submission by the Court on February 3, 2022.
- 22 (c) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of 23 Brown v. NTI-CA, Inc., et al. (No. 21STCV04397), which is not currently scheduled for 24 hearing.
- 25 (d) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification 26 motion in the matter of Thong, et al. v. Outlook Resources, Inc., et al. (No. 19STCV44400), 27 which was granted, in part, and denied, in part, in October 2022.
- 28

- 1 (e) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Andrade
2 v. Rehrig Pacific Corp. (C.D. Cal. April 22, 2020) No. CV 20-1448 FMP (RAOx), 2020
3 WL 1934954, where Defendant removed a wage-and-hour class alleging that Plaintiff's 4 claims were pre-empted by the Labor Management Relations Act.
- 5 (f) Mr. Feghali briefed, argued, and won the matter of Lee, et al. v. The Christian Herald, 6 U.S.A., Inc. (Cal. Ct. App. Dec. 12, 2017) No. B266853, 2017 WL 6333905, at *1. There, 7 the Court of Appeal reversed a dismissal of an individual defendant following the trial 8 court's granting of a demurrer without leave to amend relating to alter ego allegations.
- 9 (g) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Sotelo v.
10 Belfor USA Group, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Mar. 13, 2018) No. 2:17-cv-09056-RSWL-MRWx, 11 2018 WL 1352910. Defendants there sought to remove the case based on the inclusion of a 12 "sham defendant," but the court agreed with Mr. Feghali's briefing which argued that the 13 individual defendant, who was alleged to have harassed the plaintiff under FEHA, was a 14 proper defendant.
- 15 (h) Mr. Feghali has been the lead counsel, or co-lead counsel, in individual cases that settled for 16 $850,000.00, $375,000.00, and $250,000.00. In addition to the foregoing, Mr. Feghali has 17 resolved or assisted in the resolution of approximately 100 cases which has resulted in 18 millions of dollars of unpaid wages being returned to low-wage employees.
- 19 (i) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class 20 certification motion in the matter of Hernandez v. CR Laurence, Inc., et al. (No.
21 20STCV32372), which was granted, in part, and denied, in part, in February 2024.

22 60. Since June 2018, Mr. Feghali's practice has shifted to almost exclusively representing 23 employees in wage-and-hour class and PAGA representative actions. His fee has been approved by Courts 24 throughout the state. He has participated as lead, or co-lead counsel, in the litigation and resolution of over 25 100 wage-and-hour class actions, including obtaining preliminary and final approval of settlements. A 26 selection of settled cases wherein Mr. Feghali served as lead or co-lead class counsel includes the following:
27 Barahona v. Methodist Hosp. of Cal. (No. 20STCV09876) ($5,000,000); Vazquez v. St. Mar 2.0 Inc. (No.
28

37-2021-00042702-CU-OE-CTL) ($2,250,000); Duncan v. Infineon Technologies Americas Corp. (No. 21STCV16872) ($2,500,000); Aquino v. Coast King Packing, LLC (No. 21CV002448) ($2,300,000); Martinez, et al. v. Curative LLC (No. 21STCV20778) ($1,500,000); Calderon v. Installed Building Products (No. 37-2021-00035844-CU-OE-CTL) ($1,500,000); Majdoub v. Argent Hotel Mgmt. (No. CGC-20-582921) ($1,800,000); Fuentes v. Covid Clinic, Inc. (No. CIVSB2106806) ($1,526,317.57); Rahman, et al. v. Gate Gourmet, Inc. (No. 3:20-cv-03047) ($3,850,000); Pagoulatos v. Coast Hills Credit Union (No. 20CV02801) ($1,100,000); Hammers v. Redwood Oil Co., Inc. (No. SCV-269625) ($1,180,000); Cuadras v. R.C. Wendt Painting, Inc. (No. BC705964) ($1,400,000); Zaragoza v. The Roman Catholic Bishop of Fresno (No. 22CV-00282) ($1,500,000); Garcia v. San Jose Water Co. (22CV396328) ($1,200,000); Garcia v. Tri-Valley Plastering, Inc. (No. 22CECG00591) ($1,250,000); Garcia v. Tapia Enter., Inc. ($2,137,651 for 507 class members); Cha v. Center Point, Inc. (No. CIV2102081) ($1,000,000); Sison v. Cha Hollywood Med. Ctr., L.P. (No. BC644129) (2,137 class members); Lagos v. ThyssenKrupp Elevator Corp. (No. BC682972) ($750,000 for 79 class members); and Montoya v. Golden 1 Credit Union (No. 34-2018-00228252) ($1,250,000).

JACQUELYNE VANEMMERIK'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

61. Jacquelyne VanEmmerik received a Bachelor of Arts in Law, History, and Culture from the University of Southern California in 2017, and a Juris Doctorate from the University of California, Davis School of Law in 2021. In law school, Ms. VanEmmerik served as a Judicial Extern for the Honorable Todd W. Eddins of the Supreme Court of Hawai'i and Senior Articles Editor of the Environmental Journal of Law and Policy.

62. Ms. VanEmmerik became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in November 2021 and has been an Active Member in good standing continuously since. Ms. VanEmmerik is also a member in good standing with the United States District Court for the Central and Northern Districts and was selected by Super Lawyers as a "Southern California Rising Star" in 2024.

63. Ms. VanEmmerik is an associate attorney at Moon Law Group, P.C. and represents employees in all aspects of employment litigation, including wage-and-hour class and representative actions involving claims related to overtime and minimum wages, meal and rest break violations, improper wage statements, the California Private Attorneys General Act, and unfair business practices.

64. Ms. VanEmmerik's current billing rate is $700.00 per hour, which is her usual rate in wage-and-hour litigations. Based on Ms. VanEmmerik's nearly 5 years of experience out of law school, her Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $640.81 per hour ($625 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $625)). (See Ex. 6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering her significant wage-and-hour class action experience, Ms. VanEmmerik's billing rate of $700 per hour is reasonable.

65. During her tenure with Moon Law Group, P.C., Ms. VanEmmerik has played a critical role in obtaining outstanding results for employees who have been wronged by their employers. Ms. VanEmmerik's litigation experience includes, but is not limited to:

- (a) In March 2023, Ms. VanEmmerik briefed a Motion for Class Certification in the matter of Roland Tolentino v. Gillig, LLC, Case No. RG20073930, Alameda County Superior Court, thereafter, removed to Federal Court;
- (b) In May 2023, Ms. VanEmmerik briefed, and prevailed on, an Opposition to Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings in the matter of Rodrigo Gonzalez Guzman v. Wayne Provisions Co., Inc., Case No. 21STCV41124, Los Angeles Superior Court, in which Defendant attempted to invalidate Plaintiff's standing to bring a representative claim under the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004;
- (c) In January 2022, Ms. VanEmmerik briefed, and prevailed on, an Opposition to Demurrer in the matter of Fernando Alquicira, et al. v. Sit N' Sleep, Inc., et al., Case No. 21STCV14594, Los Angeles Superior Court, in which Defendant wrongfully sought an order of abatement or stay of proceedings pending final judgment of an unrelated matter;
- (d) In January 2022, Ms. VanEmmerik briefed, and prevailed on, an Opposition to Motion for Bifurcate and Sequence Discovery in the matter of David Flores Valencia v. Wawona Packing Co., LLC, Case No. 21CECG01163, Fresno County Superior Court, in which Defendant sought to subject Plaintiff to a preliminary trial

1 to establish his status as an aggrieved employee before proceeding as a 2 representative in his PAGA action; and 3 (e) From September 2021 to the present, Ms. VanEmmerik has participated in the 4 litigation and/or resolution of approximately seventy wage-and-hour class and/or 5 representative actions, including through successfully moving the Court for 6 preliminary and final approval of settlements on the first attempt.

7 NICHELLE CHRISTOPHERSON'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

8 66. Nichelle Christopherson is an associate attorney at Moon Law Group, PC, formerly 9 known as Moon & Yang, APC, and represents employees in all aspects of employment litigation, 10 including wage-and-hour class and representative actions involving claims related to overtime and 11 minimum wages, meal and rest break violations, improper wage statements, the California Private 12 Attorneys General Act, and unfair business practices.

13 67. Ms. Christopherson received a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Arizona State 14 University and a Juris Doctor from Michigan State University College of Law. In law school, Ms.
15 Christopherson served as a Senior Editor on the MSU International Law Review Journal and 16 President of the Lori E. Talsky Center for Human Rights of Women and Children Student Network.

17 68. Ms. Christopherson became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in May 18 2023 and has been an Active Member in good standing continuously since. Ms. Christopherson is 19 also admitted to practice before the U.S. District Courts for the Central, Southern, and Eastern 20 Districts of California.

21 69. Ms. Christopherson's billing rate is $500.00 per hour, which is her usual hourly rate in 22 wage and hour litigations. Based on Ms. Christopher's 2+ years of experience out of law school, 23 her Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $520.85 per hour ($508 Laffey Matrix rate + 24 (2.53% x $508)). (See Ex. 6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering her 25 experience, Ms. Christopherson's hourly rate of $500.00 is reasonable.

26 CLASS COUNSEL'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

27 70. As demonstrated by the foregoing, my office is qualified to handle this litigation because we 28

1 are experienced in litigating Labor Code and Wage Order violations in individual, class, and representative 2 actions. The attorneys at my office have been appointed as lead or co-lead counsel in numerous wage-and-3 hour class and/or PAGA actions in state and federal courts by way of motion for settlement approval.
4 Including myself, Moon Law Group, PC is comprised of approximately 35 attorneys, all of whom are 5 actively and continuously practicing employment litigation, representing almost entirely employee-6 plaintiffs, in both individual and class and/or PAGA actions, in this Superior Court and other Superior Courts 7 throughout the State, in the Courts of Appeal, and in various federal courts. The attorneys at my firm have a 8 high level of skill and knowledge in wage-and-hour class actions, PAGA representative actions, and labor 9 and employment law generally, the substantive (state and federal) and procedural law of which is 10 frequently evolving.

11 71. Moon Law Group, PC has been engaged in the practice of employment and labor law for over 12 a decade, and presently focuses exclusively on plaintiffs' employment law. The firm and its lawyers have 13 tried both bench and jury trials (representing both plaintiffs and defendants) relating to employment matters.
14 As noted above, Moon Law Group, PC has been appointed lead or co-lead class counsel in federal and state 15 courts in California. Also, the firm and its lawyers have successfully settled hundreds of cases during that 16 time, including wage-and-hour class and/or PAGA actions.

17 72. The foregoing experience of myself and other attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC is helpful in 18 assessing the reasonableness of settlements, such as the one at issue here, and from this experience we 19 concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than provided under the Settlement.

20 73. I respectfully submit that the attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC, myself included, are well 21 suited to act as Class Counsel in this action, and we have, and will continue to, vigorously represent the 22 interests of the Class. To my knowledge, we do not have any conflicts of interest with Plaintiff, other Class 23 Members, or the proposed Administrator, and we are not related to Plaintiff. We respectfully request to be 24 appointed as Class Counsel, for settlement purposes.

25 THE REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS IS REASONABLE

26 74. The Settlement provides for attorneys' fees payable to Class Counsel in an amount up to one-27 third of the Gross Settlement Amount or $250,000.00, whichever is greater, and litigation costs up to 28

1 $35,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.2.) The proposed award of attorneys' fees can be justified under either the 2 lodestar method or the percentage/common-fund recovery method. however, we base the proposed fees 3 award on the percentage method, as many of the entries in the time records will have to be redacted to 4 preserve attorney-client and attorney work product privileges.

5 75. I am informed and believe that the fees and costs provision in the Settlement is reasonable. The 6 fee percentage requested is less than that charged by my office for most employment cases. Moreover, my 7 office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the end of the case, and 8 then, of course, contingent on the outcome.

9 76. It is further estimated that my office will need to expend at least another 50 to 100 hours to 10 monitor the administration process leading up to the final approval, prepare for final approval, and oversee 11 distribution to the Class following final approval. My office also bears the risk of taking whatever actions 12 are necessary should Defendant fail to pay.

13 77. The risk to my office has been very significant, particularly if we would not be successful in 14 pursuing this class action. In such instance, we would have been left with no compensation for all the time 15 taken in litigating this case due to the contingency fee arrangement. Indeed, I have taken on a number of class 16 action cases that have resulted in thousands of attorney hours being expended and ultimately having the 17 defendant company going bankrupt during litigation. The contingent risk in these types of cases is very real 18 and occurs regularly. Furthermore, we were precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which 19 could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain.

20 78. Because most individuals cannot afford to pay for representation in litigation on an hourly basis, 21 Moon Law Group, PC represents virtually all its employment law clients on a contingency fee basis, 22 including Plaintiff in this matter. Pursuant to this arrangement, we are not compensated for our time unless 23 we prevail at trial or successfully settle our clients' cases. Because Moon Law Group, PC is taking the risk 24 that we will not be reimbursed for our time unless our client settles or wins his or her case, we cannot afford 25 to represent an individual employee on a contingency basis if, at the end of our representation, all we are to 26 receive is our regular hourly rate for services. It is essential that we recover more than our regular hourly rate 27
28

1 when we win if we are to remain in practice so as to be able to continue representing other individuals in 2 civil rights employment disputes.

3 79. As of the drafting of this motion, my office has incurred $27,808.74 in expenses litigating this 4 action, and we anticipate accruing additional costs up to final approval. These expenses were reasonably 5 necessary to the litigation and were actually incurred by my office. Moreover, because total litigation costs 6 are below the maximum amount allowed under the Settlement, the difference will revert to Participating 7 Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.2.) Therefore, our costs should be reimbursed in full.

8 80. My office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the 9 end of the case, and then, of course, contingent on the outcome. My office's efforts have included, and will 10 include following preliminary and final approval, without limitation, the following:

- 11 (a) Numerous interviews with Plaintiff and review of documents provided by her;
- 12 (b) Legal research and investigation regarding Defendant's business and employment practices 13 at numerous points in the litigation;
- 14 (c) Preparation and submission of Plaintiff's PAGA notice;
- 15 (d) Preparation, finalization, and filing of multiple drafts of the original class action complaint 16 and subsequent first amended complaint;
- 17 (e) Extensive "meet and confer" correspondence and discussions with Defense Counsel 18 regarding mediation and to obtain relevant documents and information through informal 19 discovery;
- 20 (f) Research and preparation of Plaintiff's mediation brief;
- 21 (g) Analysis of the discovery production and preparation of a damages model with the aid of a 22 statistics expert;
- 23 (h) Attendance and active participation at a full day of mediation;
- 24 (i) Drafting, negotiating, and reviewing multiple drafts of the Settlement and Class Notice;
- 25 (j) Preparation of the motion for preliminary approval and the accompanying filings;
- 26 (k) Anticipated preparation for and attendance at the preliminary approval hearing;

- 1 (l) Anticipated conferring with Defense Counsel and the Administrator regarding the Class 2 Notice mailing, Class responses, and preliminary and final calculations;
- 3 (m) Anticipated preparation, finalization, filing, and service of a motion for final approval and 4 accompanying filings;
- 5 (n) Anticipated preparation for and anticipated attendance at the final approval hearing, and 6 then monitoring of the distribution of funds following final approval; and
- 7 (o) Anticipated responding to Class Member inquiries and communicating with Plaintiff 8 regarding the case.

9 81. Through the efforts of my office and Plaintiff in this case, a fair and reasonable joint resolution 10 has been reached that includes a gross, non-reversionary payment by Defendant of no less than $750,000.00 11 to compensate Class Members for the alleged unlawful wage-and-hour practices. I am informed and believe 12 that, without the efforts of my office or Plaintiff, the Labor Code and Wage Order violations alleged in the 13 Operative Complaint would have gone completely unremedied.

14 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California and the United States that 15 the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on April 29, 2026, at Los Angeles, California.
