13 each);
- 14 5. Awarding $12,000.00 to Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions 15 (“Phoenix”) for settlement administration expenses;
- 16 6. Approving allocation of $50,000.00 as civil penalties under the Private Attorneys 17 General Act (“PAGA”), 75% of which ($37,500.00) will be paid to the California 18 Labor and Workforce Development Agency, and 25% of which ($12,500.00) will 19 be distributed on a pro rata basis to Aggrieved Employees; and
- 20 7. Entering a Final Judgment consistent with the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

21 This Motion is based on this Notice of Motion, Memorandum of Points and Authorities, 22 the accompanying declarations, and on all records and documents on file, together with such oral 23 and documentary evidence that may be presented at the hearing on this matter.

4	CONTE & NEWBERG, NEWBERG ON CLASS ACTIONS § 11.26 (4th ed. 2002)	8

1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiffs Roberta Jean Linoz and Natalie Yang (“Plaintiffs”) seek final approval of a 3 non-reversionary settlement of class claims and representative claims under the Private 4 Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), Lab. Code § 2698, et seq., for a Gross Settlement Amount of 5 $1,400,000.00 (the “Settlement”). The Class, Collective, and Representative Action Settlement 6 Agreement and Release of Claims (“Agreement”) provides that the following deductions will 7 be made from the Gross Settlement Amount:

- 8 1. Attorneys’ fees in an amount not to exceed $490,000.00;
- 9 2. Litigation costs in an amount not to exceed $30,000.00¹;
- 10 3. A Class Representative Service Award to each Plaintiff in an amount not to 11 exceed $10,000.00 ($20,000 total);
- 12 4. Settlement administration expenses in an amount not to exceed $12,000.00; and
- 13 5. Civil penalties in the amount of $50,000.00 for claims under PAGA, 75% of 14 which ($37,500.00) will be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency 15 (“LWDA”), and 25% of which ($12,500.00) will be distributed to Aggrieved Employees based 16 on the number of pay periods worked during the PAGA Period. (See Agreement ¶ D.52(i); see 17 also Declaration of Taylor Mitzner (“Mitzner Decl.”) ¶ 17.)

18 After all deductions are made, as of the filing of this Motion for Final Approval of Class 19 Action and PAGA Settlement (the “Motion”), the remainder (the “Net Settlement Amount”) will be distributed to 903 Class Members (“Participating Class Members”) based on the number 20 of weeks worked during the Class Period. (Mitzner Decl. ¶¶ 13-16.)

21 The proposed Settlement is the product of diligent efforts, litigation, arm’s length 22 negotiations, and informal discovery that resulted in the best possible outcome for the Class. By 23 resolving this matter now, Participating Class Members will receive a guaranteed recovery 24 without risk of nonpayment, delay, or an adverse judgment at trial.

25 An objective evaluation of the Settlement confirms that the relief negotiated on the 26

27

28 ¹ Class Counsel’s final litigation costs total $26,668.54, inclusive of $300.00 in future legal costs.
 (see Declaration of Arrash T. Fattahi in Support of the Motion (“Fattahi MFA Decl.”) ¶ 18, Ex. 4.)

1 Settlement Class’s behalf is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The Settlement was negotiated by 2 the Parties at arm’s length with helpful guidance from Mark LeHocky, Esq., an experienced and 3 well-respected mediator of wage and hour actions, and the Settlement confers substantial 4 benefits to Participating Class Members. This relief—averaging approximately $882.74 per 5 Class Member from the Net Settlement Amount—is particularly impressive when viewed 6 against the difficulties typically encountered by plaintiffs pursuing wage and hour cases.
7 Moreover, by settling now rather than proceeding to trial, Participating Class Members will not 8 have to wait (possibly years) for relief, nor will they have to risk the denial of class certification, 9 decertification, Defendants’ prevailing at trial, or Plaintiffs’ prevailing at trial but losing on 10 appeal.

11 There are three (3) requests for exclusion from the Settlement and no objections from a 12 total of 906 Class Members. (Mitzner Decl. ¶¶ 6, 10, 11.) Participating Class Members will 13 receive an average settlement payment of $887.41, with the highest payout reaching $4,525.55.
14 (Id. ¶ 16.) Aggrieved Employees will receive an average settlement payment of $18.33, with 15 the highest payout reaching $51.87. (Id. ¶ 17.) In light of the Class’s favorable response, and 16 the facts and law set forth below, as well as in the motion for preliminary approval, Plaintiffs 17 respectfully request that the Court now enter an Order: (1) granting final approval of the 18 Settlement; (2) entering final judgment; (3) requiring distribution of individual settlement shares 19 to Participating Class Members; and (4) approving payments for attorneys’ fees, litigation costs, 20 the Class Representative Service Awards, Settlement Administration Expenses, and civil 21 penalties under PAGA.

22 II. THE SETTLEMENT MERITS FINAL APPROVAL

23 “Public policy generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation.” 24 (Cellphone Termination Fee Cases (2009) 180 Cal. App. 4th 1110, 1118, see also 7-Eleven 25 Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1151 26 (“voluntary conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution . . . [t]his 27 is especially true in complex class action litigation . . .”).)

28 Class action settlement approval occurs in two steps: (1) an early (preliminary) review

1 by the trial court, and (2) a subsequent (final) review after notice has been distributed to Class 2 Members for their comments and/or objections. Cal. R. Ct. 3.769. The Court granted preliminary 3 approval on April 8, 2026. Plaintiffs now seek final approval.

4 “[T]he trial court has broad powers to determine whether a proposed settlement in a class 5 action is fair.” (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal. App. 3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed 6 when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining, (2) investigation and 7 discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently, (3) counsel is 8 experienced in similar litigation, and (4) the percentage of objectors is low. (Dunk v. Ford Motor 9 Co. (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1802; see also Nordstrom Com. Cases (2010) 186 Cal. App.
10 4th 576, 581.) “Where the settlement terms are fair and reasonable, the settlement is 11 presumptively valid, subject only to objections that may be raised at a final hearing.” (Conte & 12 Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions § 11.26 (4th ed. 2002) (Newberg).)

13 In deciding whether to grant final approval of a class action settlement, California courts 14 consider whether the settlement is “fair, adequate, and reasonable.” (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co.
15 (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801.) In evaluating whether a settlement is fair, adequate, and 16 reasonable, courts evaluate the following factors: (1) the strength of the plaintiff’s case; (2) the 17 risk, expense, complexity, and duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class 18 action status through trial; (4) the amount offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery 19 completed and the stage of the proceedings; (6) the experience and views of counsel; (7) the 20 presence of a governmental participant; and (8) the reaction of class members to the proposed 21 settlement. (Id.)

22 A. A Presumption of Fairness Exists

23 While the burden is on the proponent to demonstrate that a proposed settlement is fair, 24 adequate, and reasonable, “a presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached 25 through arm’s length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court 26 to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of 27 objectors is small.” (Id. at 1802.)

28 At preliminary approval, Plaintiffs presented evidence that this Settlement is entitled to 1 a presumption of fairness because: (1) it was reached through arm’s length bargaining with the 2 assistance of an experienced mediator; (2) Plaintiffs conducted a thorough investigation through 3 formal and informal discovery and an analysis of Settlement Class Members’ time and payroll

4 records; and (3) Class Counsel is experienced in similar litigation. (See Declaration of Arrash 5 T. Fattahi in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA
6 Settlement filed February 13, 2026 (“Fattahi MPA Decl.”) ¶¶ 7-8, 9-15, 40-49. Three (3) Class 7 Members have opted out, and none has objected. (See Mitzner Decl. ¶¶ 10, 11.) Therefore, the 8 Court can confidently conclude that a presumption of fairness exists.

9 B. The Strength of Plaintiffs’ Claims, and the Risks, Expense, Complexity, and 10 Likely Duration of Further Litigation as a Class Action Through Trial

11 Courts are not required to ensure that a settlement maximizes the value of released claims 12 with mathematical precision. “[T]he test is not the maximum amount plaintiffs might have 13 obtained at trial on the complaint, but rather whether the settlement is reasonable under all of 14 the circumstances.” (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 250, 15 disapproved of on other grounds by Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, Inc. (2018) 4 Cal.5th 16 260, 269-270; see also 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 17 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1150 (“the merits of the underlying class claims are not a basis for upsetting 18 the settlement of a class action; the operative word is ‘settlement.’”).) The relevant 19 circumstances include the strengths and weaknesses of plaintiffs’ claims and the risks they faced 20 in litigation. (7-Eleven, 85 Cal.App.4th at 1146.)

21 Here, Plaintiffs presented sufficient information for preliminary approval regarding the 22 number of Participating Class Members and the estimated maximum value of each claim 23 alleged. (See Fattahi MPA Decl. ¶¶ 16-29.) Plaintiffs have also described in detail the risks the 24 Class faced in litigation and the strengths and weaknesses of each of the claims. (See id.) 25 Plaintiffs noted potential difficulties in obtaining class certification and succeeding on the 26 merits at trial. (See id.) The factual record here is sufficiently developed to allow the Court to 27 independently satisfy itself “that the consideration being received for the release of the class 28 members’ claims is reasonable in light of the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and the risks of the particular litigation.” (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 410.)

C. The Amount Offered in Settlement

The Settlement provides a $1,400,000.00 Gross Settlement Amount (“GSA”) to be distributed among the 903 Participating Class Members. (Mitzner Decl. ¶¶ 6, 13-15.) The GSA will be used to pay Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees and costs, Plaintiffs’ service awards, and Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions’ (“Phoenix”) costs for Settlement administration. (Id. ¶¶ 15.) The Settlement also allocates $50,000.00 from the GSA to PAGA civil penalties. (See Agreement ¶ D.52(i); see also Mitzner Decl. ¶ 17.) After all deductions are made, the Net Settlement Amount will be $801,331.46, which will be distributed to Participating Class Members according to the number of weeks they worked for Defendants Mains’l California, LLC and Mains’l Services, Inc. (“Defendants”) during the Class Period. (See Agreement ¶ D.52(d); see also Mitzner Decl. ¶ 16.)

The Administrator has calculated a total of 59,884 Workweeks in the Class Period. (Mitzner Decl. ¶ 14.) As a result, the average recovery for Participating Class Members is $887.41, and the highest payout is $4,525.55. (Id. ¶ 16.) Weighing the potential value of the class claims against the risk and expense of trial, the Settlement provides relief that is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

D. The Extent of Discovery Completed and the Stage of the Proceedings

Class Counsel sufficiently investigated the alleged claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Specifically, Class Counsel assessed the value of the claims using data and documents provided by Defendants in informal discovery, including policy documents and timekeeping and payroll records. (See Fattahi MPA Decl. ¶¶ 7-8, 16-29.) Following a complete analysis of this information, the Parties attended mediation on January 28, 2025, with an experienced mediator, Mark LeHocky, Esq. (Id. ¶ 9.) The Parties were able to reach an agreement and spent a considerable amount of time negotiating the terms of the Settlement. (See id. ¶ 10.)

The document and data exchanges allowed Class Counsel to assess fully the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled, as well as the impediments to recovery, and ultimately

1 enabled Class Counsel to make an independent assessment of the reasonableness of the 2 Settlement's terms. By engaging in such a thorough investigation and evaluation of Plaintiffs'
3 claims, Class Counsel can opine that the Settlement, for the consideration and on the terms set 4 forth in the Agreement, is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interests of Class
5 Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay 6 and uncertainty associated with litigation and various defenses asserted by Defendants.

7 E. The Experience and Views of Counsel

8 Plaintiffs are represented by Wilshire Law Firm, PLC. (Fattahi MFA Decl. ¶ 2.) Class 9 Counsel regularly prosecute wage and hour cases, including class and representative actions and 10 have successfully resolved cases involving issues similar to those presented in this matter. (Id.
11 ¶¶ 3-11.) Class Counsel have negotiated a settlement here that they believe is fair, reasonable, 12 and adequate based on their prior experience litigating these types of cases. (Id. ¶ 18.)

13 F. The Presence of a Government Participant

14 On June 21, 2023, Plaintiff Linoz provided notice to the LWDA of her intention to file 15 a PAGA claim. (Fattahi MPA Decl. ¶ 4.) The LWDA received the required notice of this 16 Settlement on October 23, 2025. (Id. ¶ 11, Ex. 2.) The Settlement provides for the payment of 17 $50,000.00 in civil penalties, 75% of which ($37,500.00) will be paid to the LWDA, and 25%
18 of which ($12,500.00) will be paid to Aggrieved Employees based on the number of pay periods 19 worked during the PAGA Period. (See Mitzner Decl. ¶ 17; see also Agreement ¶ D.52(i).) The 20 LWDA has not responded or objected to the Settlement. (Fattahi MPA Decl. ¶¶ 11, Ex. 2.)

21 G. The Reaction of Class Members to the Proposed Settlement

22 Class Members' reaction to the Settlement has been favorable. A court may properly 23 infer that a class action settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate when few class members 24 object to or opt out of it. (Lealo v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 51.)

25 When it granted preliminary approval, the Court also approved the method of providing 26 notice to Class Members. Following a search of the National Change of Address database, 27 Phoenix mailed the Class Notice to all Class Members on May 13, 2026. (Mitzner Decl. ¶¶ 4, 28 5.) The Class Notice informed Class Members of the terms of the Settlement, the amounts of

1 their individual payments and how those amounts were calculated, their right to participate in 2 the Settlement, opt out of it, object to it, or dispute the amount of their individual payments, the 3 procedures and deadlines to submit an opt out, objection, or dispute, and the date, time, and 4 place of the hearing on Plaintiffs’ Motion for Final Approval and instructions to be heard at the 5 hearing. (Id. ¶ 5, Ex. A.) Here, in response to the Class Notice, three (3) Class Members opted 6 out, and none objected, as of the date of the filing of the Motion. (Id. ¶¶ 10, 11.) Class Members’ 7 favorable response to the Settlement further supports final approval.

8 III. THE REQUESTED FEE AWARD IS REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE
9 APPROVED

10 There are two primary methods of determining a reasonable attorney fee in the context 11 of class action litigation. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 489.) The 12 percentage-of-recovery method calculates the fee as a percentage of a common fund recovered 13 on behalf of the class. (Id.) The lodestar method calculates the fee by multiplying the number 14 of hours reasonably expended by counsel by a reasonable hourly rate, which amount then may 15 be adjusted based on other factors. (Id.) In Laffitte, the California Supreme Court held that trial 16 courts have the discretion to choose between the two methods. (Id. at 504.) Trial courts also 17 have discretion to blend the two methods to calculate fees, using one method to “cross-check” 18 the reasonableness of the other’s result, but a cross-check is not required. (Id. at 506.)

19 A. The Requested Fee Award is Fair and Reasonable Based on the Percentage- 20 of-Recovery Method

21 The ultimate purpose of the percentage-of-recovery method is to “spread the attorney fee 22 among all the beneficiaries of the fund.” (Id. at 503.) The California Supreme Court recognized 23 that the percentage-of-recovery method has many advantages, “including relative ease of 24 calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better approximation of 25 market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it provides counsel to seek an 26 early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation. . .” (Id.)

27 The requested fee award, thirty-five percent (35%) of the GSA, is consistent with the 28 average fee award in class actions. (See, e.g., Roos v. Honeywell Int’l, Inc. (2015) 241 Cal.App.4th 1472 (fee award of 37.5% was not an abuse of discretion), disapproved of on other grounds by Hernandez, supra, 4 Cal.5th at 287; Wren v. RGIS Inventory Specialists (N.D. Cal. Apr. 1, 2011) No. C-06-05778 JCS, 2011 WL 1230826, at *29 (approving fee award of 42%); Singer v. Becton Dickinson and Co. (S.D. Cal. June 1, 2010) No. 08-CV-821-IEG, 2010 WL 2196104, at *8 (approving fee award of one-third and noting that the typical fees awarded in wage and hour class action cases ranges from 33.33% to 40%).) Therefore, the percentage-of-recovery method should be utilized to approve the requested fee.

B. A Lodestar Cross-Check Confirms the Reasonableness of the Requested Fee

Although Laffitte makes clear that a lodestar cross-check is not required, Class Counsel’s lodestar supports the reasonableness of the requested fee. The lodestar is determined by multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by the reasonable hourly rate. (PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal.4th 1084, 1095.) The lodestar figure may then be adjusted, based on consideration of factors specific to the case, in order to fix the fee at the fair market value for the legal services provided.” (Id.) The factors that can be considered include “the nature of the litigation, its difficulty, the amount involved, the skill required in its handling, the skill employed, the attention given, the success or failure, and other circumstances in the case.” (Melnyk v. Robledo (1976) 64 Cal.App.3d 618, 623-24 (citations omitted).) Additionally, Courts utilize “multipliers” to account for the risk of taking on cases where there is no guarantee of recovery, uncertainties as to the amount that will be recovered, uncertainty as to the cost of litigating the case (both in effort and expenses), and uncertainty about how much time will pass before the recovery is obtained. (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-33; see also Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48-49 (approving the adjustment of the lodestar figure based on factors specific to the case to ensure fair market value for legal services provided on a contingency basis).) Application of that rule is particularly appropriate where the case is brought to redress important rights of vulnerable persons. (Ketchum, 24 Cal.4th at 1133.)

Generally, “[m]ultipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher.” (Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255; see also Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases (2009) 171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (applying a 2.52 multiplier on a cross-check in an antitrust class action); Chavez v.

1 Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 60 (applying a 2.5 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check);
2 Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 n.6 (“most” common fund 3 cases apply a multiplier of 1.0-4.0); Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l (2014) 231 Cal.App.4th 860, 4 881-82 (affirming a 2.13 multiplier after finding that “2 to 4” is a reasonable range for 5 multipliers on a cross-check).) Here, the application of a modest 2.79 multiplier supports Class 6 Counsel’s fee request of $490,000.00. (Fattahi MFA Decl. ¶¶ 16, 17.)

7 The risk factors present in this case favor the application of a 2.79 multiplier. (Id. ¶ 17.)
8 To begin, Class Counsel has singularly assumed the risk and costs of litigation purely on a 9 contingency basis. And, while Plaintiffs are confident in the merits of their claims, a legitimate 10 controversy exists as to each cause of action, posing an actual risk that Plaintiffs may not 11 succeed at class certification and/or trial. (Id.) Any of these obstacles could have prevented 12 recovery, meaning Class Counsel would have been left with no compensation for all the time 13 and money invested in this case. (Id.) Despite these risks, Class Counsel took this case on a 14 contingency basis so that Class Members (a particularly vulnerable group of hourly paid 15 workers) could be compensated for Labor Code violations and unpaid wages. Consequently, 16 Class Counsel was precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases that could have resulted 17 in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain. (Id.) Moreover, Class Counsel’s hourly rates are 18 comparable to those charged by other class action counsel. (Id. ¶ 13, Ex. 1.) Class Counsel spent 19 239.4 hours prosecuting this action, which was divided among the attorneys working on this 20 case according to skill level. (Id. ¶ 16, Ex. 3.) Multiplying the total hours expended by Class 21 Counsel by their reasonable hourly rates yields a lodestar of $175,440.00. (Id.) The hours 22 expended by each attorney were reasonable and not duplicative and reflect the extensive 23 investigation and analysis that was required to achieve this Settlement. (Id.)

24 Considered against the risks of continued litigation, and the importance of advocating 25 for employment rights and a speedy recovery, the relief provided under the Settlement 26 represents a very strong result for the Class. Accordingly, Class Counsel’s fee request of 27 $490,000.00 is fair and reasonable and should be approved.

1 IV. THE REQUESTED COST AWARD IS REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE
2 APPROVED

3 The Settlement permits Class Counsel to seek reimbursement of litigation costs in an 4 amount up to $30,000.00. The actual costs incurred are $26,368.54 and future costs are 5 estimated at $300.00, for a total of $26,668.54, which does not exceed the maximum amount 6 allocated for litigation costs in the Settlement, and the remaining $3,331.46 will revert to and 7 increase the Net Settlement Amount. (Fattahi MFA Decl. ¶ 18, Ex. 4.) These costs were 8 reasonable and necessary to prosecute this case and obtain the results achieved. (Id.)

9 V. THE REQUESTED CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENTS ARE 10 REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

11 Plaintiffs also request approval of service awards of $10,000.00 each ($20,000.00 total) 12 for their efforts in obtaining the Settlement. In evaluating a service award, the Court may 13 consider: “(1) the risk, both financial and otherwise, the class representative faced in bringing 14 the suit; (2) the notoriety and personal difficulties encountered by the class representative; (3) 15 the amount of time and effort spent by the class representative; (4) the duration of the litigation; 16 and (5) the personal benefit received by the class representative as a result of the litigation.” 17 (Golba v. Dick’s Sporting Goods, Inc. (2015) 238 Cal.App.4th 1251, 1272; Clark v. American 18 Residential Services, LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804.)

19 Here, both Plaintiffs provided declarations in support of the Motion for Preliminary 20 Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement detailing the risks they faced in bringing the 21 suit, the notoriety and personal difficulties they encountered, the amount of time and effort they 22 spent on this litigation, the duration of the litigation, and the personal benefit they will receive 23 as a result of the litigation. (See generally, Declarations of Roberta Jean Linoz and Natalie Yang 24 in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, filed on 25 February 13, 2026.) Plaintiffs should be adequately compensated for their role in obtaining this 26 Settlement.

27 Additionally, no Class Members objected to the amount of additional compensation 28 sought by Plaintiffs. Accordingly, the awards are reasonable in light of the substantial benefits

1 Plaintiffs conferred upon the Settlement Class.

2 VI. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE REASONABLE AND 3 SHOULD BE APPROVED

4 The Parties agreed to hire Phoenix as the Settlement Administrator in this case and the 5 Court approved this choice at preliminary approval. The Settlement Administrator was 6 responsible for updating Class Members' mailing addresses, mailing the Class Notice to each 7 Class Member, responding to Class Member questions, providing weekly status reports, and 8 providing a declaration as to the results of the mailing. (See Mitzner Decl. ¶ 2.) Following final 9 approval, Phoenix's duties will continue in order to calculate and mail the settlement payments
10 to Participating Class Members, disburse other payments as ordered by the Court, and perform 11 such other duties described in the Settlement. (Id.) The requested amount of $12,000.00 for 12 services rendered and to be rendered is therefore fair and reasonable. (Id. ¶ 19.)

13 VII. CONCLUSION

14 Based on the foregoing, Class Counsel respectfully request that the Court grant final 15 approval of the Settlement and the Agreement, approve Class Counsel attorneys' fees in the 16 amount of $490,000.00 and reimbursement of litigation costs in the amount of $26,668.54, the 17 service awards in the amount of $10,000.00 each ($20,000.00 total) to Plaintiffs, PAGA civil 18 penalties in the amount of $50,000.00, and settlement administration expenses to Phoenix in the 19 amount of $12,000.00.
