Case No. CIVSB2312321

CLASS & REPRESENTATIVE ACTION

[Assigned for all purposes to: Hon. Joseph T. Ortiz, Dept. S-17]

DECLARATION OF ARRASH T. FATTAHI
IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF
CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL HEARING

Date: October 8, 2025

Time: 1:30 p.m.

Dept: S-17

Complaint filed: May 31, 2023
FAC filed: April 17, 2024
Trial date: Not set

I, Arrash T. Fattahi, declare as follows:

CASE BACKGROUND

4. On May 31, 2023, Plaintiff filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint against Defendant and defendant Star Crab, Inc. for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; and (8) violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law, California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. On June 21, 2023, Plaintiff sent a notice to Defendants and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour violations

1 pursuant to the PAGA. Attached as Exhibit 3 is a true and correct copy of Plaintiff's notice letter
2 to the LWDA.

3 5. On April 17, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class & Representative Action
4 Complaint ("FAC") adding Honey Crab, Inc., Ocean Crab Inc., Panorama Crab, Sea Crab LLC,
5 and the Cajun Management, Inc. as additional named defendants, and alleging an additional cause
6 of action for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff will file a Second Amended Class &
7 Representative Action Complaint ("Operative Complaint") dismissing defendants Star Crab, Inc.,
8 Honey Crab, Inc., Ocean Crab Inc., Panorama Crab, Sea Crab LLC, and the Cajun Management,
9 Inc. Attached as Exhibit 7 is a true and correct copy of the Second Amended Class &
10 Representative Action Complaint.

11 DISCOVERY AND INVESTIGATION

12 6. Following the filing of the Action, the Parties exchanged documents and 13 information before mediating this action. Defendant produced a sampling of timekeeping and 14 payroll records for the class members. Defendant also provided documents of its wage and hour
15 policies and practices during the class period, and information regarding the total number of current 16 and former employees in its informal discovery responses.

17 7. After reviewing documents regarding Defendant's wage and hour policies and 18 practices and analyzing Defendant's timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able to 19 evaluate the probability of class certification and success on the merits and assess Defendant's
20 maximum monetary exposure for all claims. Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law
21 regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. Class Counsel reviewed these records
22 and utilized an expert to prepare a damages analysis prior to mediation.

23 SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS

24 8. On May 6, 2024, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class
25 action mediator, Phillip Cha, Esq. The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although 26 conducted in a professional manner, were adversarial. The Parties went into mediation willing to 27 explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their 28 position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached.

1 9. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and
2 weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses, the Parties were able to reach a
3 resolution, the material terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement Agreement.
4 Attached as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement
5 Agreement ("Settlement Agreement").

6 10. Class Counsel submitted the proposed Settlement to the LWDA before filing the 7 Motion for Preliminary Approval. Attached as Exhibit 4 is a true and correct copy of the 8 confirmation of the Settlement Agreement being submitted to the LWDA.

9 11. My office requested several bids from experienced class action settlement
10 administrators to handle the responsibilities of the Settlement Administrator under this Settlement.
11 The Parties accepted the bid of Apex Class Action Administrators ("APEX"). APEX has multiple
12 years of experience in the field of Class Action Administration, particularly in the wage and hour
13 arena. In its bid, APEX agreed to cap its costs at $6,990.00 if there are 175 class members. APEX's
14 bid accounts for the Notice in English with Spanish translation. Attached as Exhibit 2 is a true and 15 correct copy of the administrator bid from APEX. APEX will handle the Class Notice and receipt 16 of any objections or opt-outs.

17 12. No one at Wilshire Law Firm, PLC (meaning the law firm itself and anyone 18 employed at the law firm) has any interest, financial or otherwise, in the proposed third-party
19 administrator, APEX. No one at Wilshire Law Firm, PLC has any actual or potential conflict of 20 interest with any class member.

21 13. Wilshire Law Firm, PLC has no fee-splitting agreement with any other counsel in 22 this case.

23 14. Class Counsel is not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims
24 that will be extinguished or affected by the Settlement.

25 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND REASONABLE

26 15. Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case.
27 Based on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class
28 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best

1 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk
2 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and on
3 the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk.

4 16. Based on an analysis of the facts and legal contentions in this case, documents and
5 information from Defendant, I evaluated Defendant's maximum exposure. I took into account the 6 risk of not having the claims certified and the risk of not prevailing at trial, even if the claims are 7 certified. After using the data Defendant provided, including class member timekeeping and
8 payroll records, as well as class member demographics (i.e., the number of class members, 9 workweeks, and average total compensation of the class), with the assistance of a statistics expert,
10 I created a damages model to evaluate the realistic range of potential recovery for the class. The 11 damages model is based on the following benchmarks:

12 Total Class Members: 139

13 Terminated Class Members during 3-year statute of limitations period: 105

14 Total Workweeks: 5,101

15 PAGA Pay Periods: 950

16 PAGA Eligible Employees: 65

17 Avg. Hourly Rate: $15.50

18 17. Based on Plaintiff's discovery and investigation, Class Counsel reached the 19 conclusion that Defendant: failed to pay class members for all hours worked, including minimum,
20 straight time, and overtime wages, by requiring employees to work off-the-clock; had a policy and 21 practice of not providing its employees with California compliant meal and rest periods which it
22 did not pay appropriate premiums for; and failed to reimburse its employees for business-related 23 expenses. Defendant denies these claims.

24 18. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked, including 25 minimum, straight time, and overtime wages, by requiring class members to work off-the-clock,
26 unpaid. For purposes of calculating Defendant's liability based on a best-case scenario for Plaintiff
27 and the Class, I estimate that Defendant's maximum potential exposure by assuming that all unpaid
28 work time should have been paid at the overtime rate, and I assumed that Defendant is liable for 1

1 hour of unpaid worktime per workweek. This results in an estimate of $118,598.25 (5,101
2 workweeks x $15.50 hourly rate x 1.5 overtime rate x 1.0 hours of unpaid work per workweek),
3 but I applied a risk discount based on a 70% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 60%
4 chance of succeeding at trial on the merits because liability depends on whether Defendant knew
5 or should have known that class members were working off-the-clock, yielding a realistic damage
6 estimate of $49,811.27 ($118,598.25 x 70% x 60%).

7 19. With respect to the meal period claim, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant required her
8 and similarly situated class members to either work in lieu of taking meal periods, or their meal
9 periods were untimely or interrupted. My expert analyzed Defendant's timekeeping records and 10 found that approximately 72.5% of all shifts over 5 hours had meal breaks violations of short,
11 missed, or no meal periods. Therefore, potential liability for the meal period claim is $235,021.08
12 (20,914 shifts x $15.50 hourly rate x 72.5% violation rate). After taking into account the difficulty
13 of certifying and proving meal period claims, as well as Defendant's contention that the claim lacks
14 merit, and some class members have valid meal period waivers, I discounted this figure based on 15 a 60% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 50% chance of succeeding at trial, yielding 16 a realistic damage estimate of $70,506.32 ($235,021.08 x 60% x 50%).

17 20. With respect to the rest period claim, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant required her
18 and similarly situated class members to work in lieu of taking rest periods, or their rest periods
19 were interrupted. Assuming a 75% violation rate for the class period based on Plaintiff's and other
20 class members' experience working for Defendant, Defendant's potential liability for the rest
21 period claim is $243,125.25 (20,914 shifts x $15.50 hourly rate x 75% violation rate); however, I
22 discounted this figure to account for the difficulty of certifying and proving rest period claims,
23 particularly because rest periods do not have to be recorded, and to account for the possibility of 24 Class Members voluntarily choosing to forego a rest period. Because this claim would have relied 25 exclusively on Class Member testimony, I discounted this claim based on a 40% chance of 26 succeeding at class certification and a 30% chance of succeeding at trial, yielding a realistic
27 damage estimate of $29,175.03 ($243,125.25 x 40% x 30%).

28 21. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse necessary business

1 expenses. Defendant's employees (including Plaintiff) were frequently required to: use their
2 personal cell to communicate with supervisors and managers about work-related matters; use their
3 personal vehicles for work-related purposes; and purchase specific work attire. For purposes of 4 calculating Defendant's liability based on a best-case scenario for Plaintiff and the Class, I
5 estimated that Defendant was liable to each class member for $50 per month, or $12.50 per
6 workweek, in unreimbursed expenses, for a total amount of $63,762.50 ($$12.50 \times 5,101$
7 workweeks); however, I discounted this figure based on an evaluation of a 50% chance of 8 succeeding at class certification and a 50% chance of succeeding at trial to account for the difficulty
9 of certifying and proving expense reimbursement claims, yielding a realistic damage estimate of 10 $15,940.63 ($$63,762.50 \times 50\% \times 50\%$).

11 22. In sum, I estimated that Plaintiff's maximum recovery for the off-the-clock claim,
12 meal period violations, rest period violations, and failure to reimburse expenses is $660,507.08,
13 but, after factoring in the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at certification and trial, I estimate that 14 Plaintiff's realistic estimated recovery for the non-penalty claims is $165,433.24.

15 23. With respect to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory and civil penalties,
16 Plaintiff estimated that Defendant's realistic potential liability is $92,173.30. While Defendant's
17 maximum potential liability for waiting time penalties is $424,777.50 based on approximately 105
18 terminated class members during the 3-year statute of limitations period, $260,000.00 for 19 inaccurate wage statements based on approximately 65 aggrieved employees who worked during
20 the 1-year statute of limitations period, and $95,000.00 for PAGA violations based on the Court
21 assessing a $100 penalty for initial violations for all 950 pay periods within PAGA period, I believe
22 that it would be unrealistic to expect the Court to award the full $779,777.50 in penalties given
23 Defendant's defenses, the contested nature of Plaintiff's claims, and the discretionary nature of 24 penalties. Considering that the underlying claims are realistically estimated to be $165,433.24,
25 such a disproportionate award would also raise due process concerns. As such, I discounted these 26 figures to account for the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation
27 of $50,973.30 ($$424,777.50 \times 40\% \times 30\%$) for waiting time penalty claims, $31,200.00
28 ($$260,000.00 \times 40\% \times 30\%$) for wage statement penalty claims, and $10,000.00 for PAGA, or

1 $92,173.30 for statutory and civil penalties.

2 24. Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff predicted that the realistic maximum
3 recovery for all claims, including penalties, would be $257,606.54. This means that the
4 $250,000.00 settlement figure represents 97% of the realistic maximum recovery ($$250,000.00 /$
5 $$257,606.54 = 97\%$). Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and
6 at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class.¹ Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, class
7 members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment.

8 25. While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of her claims, a legitimate controversy
9 exists as to each cause of action. Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount of wages due to 10 each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition.

11 26. This Settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
12 Although the Parties had engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery and 13 class-wide data analysis, the Parties had not yet completed formal written discovery. Plaintiff
14 intended to further depose corporate officers and managers of Defendant. Moreover, preparation
15 for class certification and a trial remained for the Parties, as well as the prospect of appeals in the 16 wake of a disputed class certification ruling for Plaintiff and/or adverse summary judgment ruling.
17 Had the Court certified any claims, Defendant could move to decertify the claims. As a result, the 18 Parties would incur considerably more attorneys' fees and costs through trial.

19 27. The Net Settlement Amount available for settlement payments is estimated to be 20 $114,676.67 for a class of 139 persons.² As a result, each Settlement Class Member is eligible to 21 receive an average net benefit of approximately $825.01.

22 28. The proposed Settlement of $250,000.00, therefore, represents a substantial
23 recovery when compared to Plaintiff's reasonably forecasted recovery. When considering the risks

24 ¹ See, e.g., Wise v. Ulta Salon, Cosmetics & Fragrance, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Aug. 21, 2019) 2019 WL 3943859 at 25 *8 (granting preliminary approval where the proposed allocation to settle class claims was between 9.53 percent of 26 Plaintiffs' maximum recovery); Bravo v. Gale Triangle, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Feb 16, 2017) 2017 WL 708766 at * 10
27 (finding that "a settlement for fourteen percent recovery of Plaintiffs' maximum recovery is reasonable"); In re
28 Omnivision Techs., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2008) 559 F.Supp.2d 1036, 1042 (approving settlement amount that "is just over 9% of the maximum potential recovery asserted by either party.").

² The Net Settlement Amount is: $250,000.00 minus $83,333.33 for Class Counsel's attorneys' fees, minus
$25,000.00 for Class Counsel's litigation expenses, minus $6,990.00 in administration costs, minus $10,000.00 for the PAGA payment, and minus $10,000.00 for the class representative service payment to Plaintiff.

1 of litigation, the uncertainties involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof
2 necessary to establish liability, the probability of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the 3 settlement amount of $250,000.00 is well within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary
4 settlement approval is appropriate.

5 CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENT FOR PLAINTIFF IS REASONABLE

6 29. Class Counsel represent that Plaintiff devoted a great deal of time and work assisting 7 counsel in the case, communicated with counsel very frequently for litigation and to prepare for
8 mediation, and was frequently in contact with Class Counsel during the mediation. Plaintiff’s
9 requested service payment is reasonable, particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff
10 generated for all class members.

11 30. Throughout this litigation, Plaintiff, who is a former employee of Defendant, has 12 cooperated immensely with my office and has taken many actions to protect the interests of the 13 class. Plaintiff provided valuable information regarding the off-the-clock, meal period, and rest
14 period claims. Plaintiff also informed my office of developments and information relevant to this
15 action, participated in decisions concerning this action, and made herself available to answer
16 questions during the mediation. Plaintiff provided my office with documents regarding the claims
17 alleged in this action. The information and documentation provided by Plaintiff were instrumental 18 in establishing the wage and hour violations alleged in this action, and the recovery provided for 19 in the Settlement Agreement would have been impossible to obtain without Plaintiff’s
20 participation.

21 31. At the same time, Plaintiff faced many risks in adding herself as the class
22 representative in this matter. Plaintiff faced actual risks with her future employment, as putting 23 herself on public record in an employment lawsuit could also very well affect her likelihood for 24 future employment. Furthermore, as part of this Settlement, Plaintiff is executing general releases
25 of all claims against Defendant.

26 32. In turn, class members will now have the opportunity to participate in a settlement,
27 reimbursing them for alleged wage violations they may have never known about on their own or 28 been willing to pursue on their own. If these class members would have each tried to pursue their

1 legal remedies on their own, that would have resulted in each having to expend a significant amount
2 of their own monetary resources and time, which were obviated by Plaintiff putting herself on the
3 line on behalf of these other class members.

4 33. In the final analysis, this class action would not have been possible without the aid
5 of Plaintiff, who put her own time and effort into this litigation and placed herself at risk for the 6 sake of the class members. The requested service payment for Plaintiff for her service as the class
7 representative and for her general release of all individual claims is a relatively small amount of 8 money when the time and effort put into the litigation are considered, and in comparison to the 9 service payments granted in other class actions. The requested service payment is therefore 10 reasonable to compensate Plaintiff for her active participation in this lawsuit.

11 THE REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS IS REASONABLE

12 34. The Settlement provides for attorneys' fees payable to Class Counsel in an amount
13 up to one-third (1/3) of the Settlement Amount, for a maximum fees award of $83,333.33, plus
14 actual costs and expenses not to exceed $25,000.00. The proposed award of attorneys' fees to 15 Class Counsel in this case can be justified under either method – lodestar or percentage recovery.
16 Class Counsel intends to provide justification of their requested attorneys' fees and costs at final 17 approval.

18 35. I am informed and believe that the fee and costs provision is reasonable. The fee
19 percentage requested is less than that charged by my office for most employment cases. My office
20 invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the end of the case,
21 and then, of course, contingent on the outcome.

22 36. It is further estimated that my office will need to expend at least another 50 to 100
23 hours to monitor the process leading up to the final approval and payments made to the class. My 24 office also bears the risk of taking whatever actions are necessary if Defendant fails to pay.

25 37. The risk to my office has been very significant, particularly if we would not be
26 successful in pursuing this class action. In that case, we would have been left with no compensation
27 for all the time taken in litigating this case. The contingent risk in these types of cases is very real
28 and they do occur regularly. Furthermore, we were precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other

1 cases which could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain.

2 38. Because most individuals cannot afford to pay for representation in litigation on an
3 hourly basis, Wilshire Law Firm, PLC represents virtually all of its employment law clients on a 4 contingency fee basis. Pursuant to this arrangement, we are not compensated for our time unless 5 we prevail at trial or successfully settle our clients' cases. Because Wilshire Law Firm, PLC is 6 taking the risk that we will not be reimbursed for our time unless our client settles or wins his or 7 her case, we cannot afford to represent an individual employee on a contingency basis if, at the 8 end of our representation, all we are to receive is our regular hourly rate for services. It is essential
9 that we recover more than our regular hourly rate when we win if we are to remain in practice so
10 as to be able to continue representing other individuals in civil rights employment disputes.

11 MY EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

12 39. Wilshire Law Firm, PLC was selected by Best Lawyers and U.S. News & World
13 Report as one of the nation's Best Law Firms for every year since 2020 and is comprised of over
14 120 attorneys and over 600 total employees. Wilshire Law Firm, PLC is actively and continuously
15 practicing in employment litigation, representing employees in both individual and class actions
16 in both state and federal courts throughout California.

17 40. Wilshire Law Firm, PLC is qualified to handle this litigation because its attorneys
18 are experienced in litigating Labor Code violations in both individual, class action, and 19 representative action cases. Wilshire Law Firm, PLC has handled, and is currently handling,
20 numerous wage and hour class action lawsuits, as well as class actions involving consumer rights
21 and data privacy litigation.

22 41. I graduated from the University of California, Los Angeles with a Bachelor of Arts
23 in Political Science, summa cum laude. I received my Juris Doctor from The George Washington
24 University Law School. During law school, I was a member of the student editorial board for the 25 Federal Circuit Bar Journal.

26 42. My practice is focused on advocating for the rights of consumers and employees in 27 class action litigation. I am currently the managing attorney in charge of litigating several class
28 action cases in state and federal courts in California.

1 43. As the attorney responsible for day-to-day management of this matter at the
2 Wilshire Law Firm, PLC, I have over four years of experience litigating wage and hour class
3 actions. Over the past four plus years, I have managed and assisted with the litigation and
4 settlement of several wage and hour class actions. In those class actions, I performed similar tasks
5 as those performed in the course of prosecuting this action.

6 44. I was selected as a “Southern California Rising Star” in 2025.

7 45. My current contingent billing rate of $750 per hour is consistent with the legal
8 market, accepted hourly rates, and my expertise and knowledge as it pertains to wage and hour
9 matters. Below is a non-exhaustive list of the cases where I have been appointed as class counsel

- 2.1. On May 31, 2023, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Complaint alleging causes of action against The Cajun Pub, Inc. and Star Crab, Inc. for violations under the Labor Code and Business and Professions Code for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; and (8) violation of California's Unfair Competition Law, California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. On April 17, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class & Representative Action Complaint adding Honey Crab, Inc., Ocean Crab Inc., Panorama Crab, Sea Crab LLC, and The Cajun Management, Inc. as additional named defendants, and alleging an additional cause of action against all named defendants for: (9) civil penalties under the PAGA. As a part of this Agreement, Plaintiff has agreed to dismiss all defendants except for The Cajun Pub, Inc. Plaintiff will file a Second Amended Class & Representative Action Complaint reflecting the dismissal of Star Crab, Inc., Honey Crab, Inc., Ocean Crab Inc., Panorama Crab, Sea Crab LLC, and The Cajun Management, Inc. following the execution of this Agreement. The Second Amended Class & Representative Action Complaint shall serve as the operative complaint in the Action (the "Operative Complaint"). Cajun Pub denies the allegations in the Operative Complaint, denies any failure to comply with the laws identified in the Operative Complaint and denies any and all liability for the causes of action alleged.
- 2.2. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subd. (a), Plaintiff gave timely written notice to Cajun Pub and the LWDA by sending the PAGA Notice.
- 2.3. On May 6, 2024, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation presided over by mediator Phillip Cha, Esq. which led to this Agreement to settle the Action.
- 2.4. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff obtained, through informal discovery, documents and information pertaining to his wage and hour claims, including, but not limited to, wage and hour policy and procedure documents, employee time and payroll records, and the exchanges of relevant data points pertaining to the Class and PAGA claims. Plaintiff's investigation was sufficient to satisfy the criteria for court approval set forth in Dunk v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 and Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-130 ("Dunk/Kullar").
- 2.5. The Court has not granted class certification.
- 2.6. The Parties, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel represent that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or affected by the Settlement.

3. MONETARY TERMS.

- 3.1. Gross Settlement Amount. Except as otherwise provided by Paragraph 8 below, Cajun Pub promises to pay $250,000.00 and no more as the Gross Settlement Amount and to separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments. Cajun Pub has no obligation to pay the Gross Settlement Amount (or any payroll taxes) prior to the deadline stated in Paragraph 4.3 of this Agreement. The Administrator will disburse the entire Gross Settlement Amount without asking or requiring Participating Class Members or Aggrieved Employees to submit any claim as a condition of payment. None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Cajun Pub.
- 3.2. Payments from the Gross Settlement Amount. The Administrator will make and deduct the following payments from the Gross Settlement Amount, in the amounts specified by the Court in the Final Approval:
 - 3.2.1. To Plaintiff: Service Payment to the Class Representative of not more than $10,000 (in addition to any Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a Participating Class Member). Cajun Pub will not oppose Plaintiff's request for the Class Representative's Service Payment that does not exceed these amounts. As part of the motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Litigation Expenses Payment, Plaintiff will seek Court approval for any Service Payment no later than 16 court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing. If the Court approves the Class Representative's Service Payment less than the amount requested, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount. The Administrator will pay the Class Representative's Service Payment using IRS Form 1099. Plaintiff assumes full responsibility and liability for employee taxes owed on the Service Payment.
 - 3.2.2. To Class Counsel: A Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than 1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount, which is currently estimated to be $83,333.33 and a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $25,000.00. Cajun Pub will not oppose requests for these payments provided that do not exceed these amounts. If the Court approves a Class Counsel Fees Payment and/or a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment less than the amounts requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. Released Parties shall have no liability to Class Counsel or any other Plaintiff's Counsel arising from any claim to any portion any Class Counsel Fee Payment and/or Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. The Administrator will pay the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Expenses Payment using one or more IRS 1099 Forms. Class Counsel assumes full responsibility and liability for taxes owed on the Class Counsel Fees Payment and the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and holds Cajun Pub harmless, and indemnifies Cajun Pub, from any dispute or controversy regarding any division or sharing of any of these Payments.

- 3.2.3. To the Administrator: An Administrator Expenses Payment not to exceed $10,000 except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. To the extent the Administration Expenses are less or the Court approves payment less than $10,000, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount.
- 3.2.4. To Each Participating Class Member: An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks.
- 3.2.4.1. Tax Allocation of Individual Class Payments. 20% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. 80% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.
- 3.2.4.2. Effect of Non-Participating Class Members on Calculation of Individual Class Payments. Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will retain amounts equal to their Individual Class Payments in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.
- 3.2.5. To the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: PAGA Penalties in the amount of $10,000 to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, with 75% ($7,500) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($2,500) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.
- 3.2.5.1. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($2,500) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.
- 3.2.5.2. If the Court approves PAGA Penalties of less than the amount requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

4. SETTLEMENT FUNDING AND PAYMENTS.

- 4.1. Class Workweeks and Aggrieved Employee Pay Periods. Based on a review of its records to date, Cajun Pub estimates there are approximately 139 Class Members who collectively worked a total of 5,101 Workweeks.
- 4.2. Class Data. Not later than 15 days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Cajun Pub will simultaneously deliver the Class Data to the Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. To protect Class Members' privacy rights, the Administrator must maintain the Class Data in confidence, use the Class Data only for purposes of this Settlement and for no other purpose, and restrict access to the Class Data to Administrator employees who need access to the Class Data to effect and perform under this Agreement. Cajun Pub has a continuing duty to immediately notify Class Counsel if it discovers that the Class Data omitted class member identifying information and to provide corrected or updated Class Data as soon as reasonably feasible. Without any extension of the deadline by which Cajun Pub must send the Class Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use best efforts, in good faith, to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or omitted Class Data.
- 4.3. Funding of Gross Settlement Amount. Cajun Pub shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay Cajun Pub's share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than 30 days after the Effective Date.
- 4.4. Payments from the Gross Settlement Amount. Within 14 days after Cajun Pub funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will mail checks for all Individual Class Payments, all Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class Representative's Service Payment. Disbursement of the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and the Class Representative's Service Payment shall not precede disbursement of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments.
 - 4.4.1. The Administrator will issue checks for the Individual Class Payments and/or Individual PAGA Payments and send them to the Class Members via First Class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid. The face of each check shall prominently state the date (not less than 180 days after the date of mailing) when the check will be voided. The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. The Administrator will send checks for Individual Settlement Payments to all Participating Class Members (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees including Non-Participating Class Members who qualify as Aggrieved Employees (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator may send Participating Class Members a single check combining the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA

Payment. Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update the recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database.

4.4.2. The Administrator must conduct a Class Member Address Search for all other Class Members whose checks are returned undelivered without USPS forwarding address. Within 7 days of receiving a returned check, the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Class Member prior to the void date.

4.4.3. For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member.

4.4.4. The payment of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments shall not obligate Cajun Pub to confer any additional benefits or make any additional payments to Class Members (such as 401(k) contributions or bonuses) beyond those specified in this Agreement.

5. RELEASES OF CLAIMS. Upon the final approval of the Settlement by the Court, Plaintiff, Class Members, and Class Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

5.1 Plaintiff's Release. Plaintiff and each of his respective former and present spouses, representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns generally, release and discharge Released Parties from all claims, transactions, or occurrences that occurred during the Class Period, including, but not limited to: (a) all claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged, based on the facts contained, in the Operative Complaint and (b) all PAGA claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged based on facts contained in the Operative Complaint, the PAGA Notice, or ascertained during the Action and released under 5.2, below ("Plaintiff's Release"). Plaintiff's Release does not extend to any claims or actions to enforce this Agreement, or to any claims for vested benefits, unemployment benefits, disability benefits, social security benefits, workers' compensation benefits that arose at any time, or based on occurrences outside the Class Period. Plaintiff acknowledges that Plaintiff may discover facts or law different from, or in addition to, the facts or law that Plaintiff now knows or believes to be true but agrees, nonetheless, that Plaintiff's Release shall be and remain effective in all respects, notwithstanding such different or additional facts or Plaintiff's discovery of them.

5.1.1 Plaintiff's Waiver of Rights Under California Civil Code Section 1542.
For purposes of Plaintiff's Release, Plaintiff expressly waives and relinquishes the provisions, rights, and benefits, if any, of section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, and that if known by him or her would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or Released Party.

5.2 Release by Participating Class Members Who Are Not Aggrieved Employees:

Upon remittance of the Maximum Settlement Amount by Cajun Pub to the Settlement Administrator, Participating Class Members will fully and finally release and discharge Cajun Pub from all claims, rights, demands, liabilities and causes of action that are alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts and claims asserted in the operative complaint in this action including the following claims: (i) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 (Unpaid Overtime); (2) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a) (Unpaid Meal Period Premiums); (3) Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 (Unpaid Rest Period Premiums); (4) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. (Unpaid Minimum Wages); (5) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 (Final Wages Not Timely Paid); (6) Violation of California Labor Code § 204 (Wages Not Timely Paid During Employment); (7) Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) (Non-Compliant Wage Statements); (8) Violation of California Labor Code § 1174(d) (Failure to Keep Requisite Payroll Records); (9) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 (Unreimbursed Business Expenses); and (10) violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2698, et seq., 2800, and 2802. Upon remittance of the Maximum Settlement Amount by Cajun Pub to the Settlement Administrator, Plaintiff, PAGA Members, and the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency will fully and finally release and discharge Cajun Pub from any and all claims for the recovery for civil penalties, attorneys' fees and costs permissible under PAGA which Plaintiff and/or the Aggrieved Employees had, or may claim to have, against Released Parties, arising out of the violations alleged in the Complaint or the PAGA Notice, including failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to pay minimum wages, failure to provide compliant meal and rest breaks, failure to pay meal and rest period premiums, failure to pay all wages owed at discharge or resignation; failure to timely pay wages during employment; failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements; failure to keep complete and accurate payroll records; failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses; and violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2698, et seq., 2800, and 2802. This release is limited to claims arising during the PAGA Period. In light of the binding nature of a PAGA judgment on non-party employees pursuant to Arias v. Sup. Ct. (Angelo Dairy) (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969 and Cardenas v. McLane Foodservice, Inc. (2011) 796 F.Supp.2d 1246, individuals otherwise meeting the definition of a PAGA Member who are eligible to receive an Individual PAGA Payment shall be deemed to have released PAGA claims, regardless of whether the check for the Individual PAGA Payment is cashed or not.

6. MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL. Subject to Defense Counsel's approval, Plaintiff shall prepare and file a motion for preliminary approval ("Motion for Preliminary Approval") that complies with the Court's current checklist for Preliminary Approvals.

6.1 Cajun Pub's Declaration in Support of Preliminary Approval. Within 14 days of the full execution of this Agreement, Cajun Pub will prepare and deliver to Class Counsel a signed Declaration from Cajun Pub and Defense Counsel disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with the Administrator. In their Declarations, Defense Counsel and Cajun Pub shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.

6.2 Plaintiff's Responsibilities. Plaintiff will prepare and deliver to Defense Counsel all documents necessary for obtaining Preliminary Approval, including: (i) a draft of the notice, and memorandum in support, of the Motion for Preliminary Approval that includes an analysis of the Settlement under Dunk/Kullar and a request for approval of the PAGA Settlement under Labor Code Section 2699, subd. (f)(2); (ii) a draft proposed Order Granting Preliminary Approval and Approval of PAGA Settlement; and (iii) a signed declaration from Class Counsel attesting to its competency to represent the Class Members; its timely transmission to the LWDA of all necessary PAGA documents (initial notice of violations [Labor Code section 2699.3, subd. (a)], Operative Complaint [Labor Code section 2699, subd. (1)(1)], this Agreement [Labor Code section 2699, subd. (1)(2)]); and all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflict of interest with Class Members and the Administrator. In its Declaration, Class Counsel shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.

6.3 Responsibilities of Counsel. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel are jointly responsible for appearing in Court to advocate in favor of the Motion for Preliminary Approval. Class Counsel is responsible for delivering the Court's Preliminary Approval to the Administrator.

6.4 Duty to Cooperate. If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed Motion for Preliminary Approval and/or the supporting declarations and documents, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement. If the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval or conditions Preliminary Approval on any material change to this Agreement, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to modify the Agreement and otherwise satisfy the Court's concerns.

7. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION.

- 7.1 Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected Apex Class Action Administrators to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, Apex Class Action Administrators agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Expenses. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.
- 7.2 Employer Identification Number. The Administrator shall have and use its own Employer Identification Number for purposes of calculating payroll tax withholdings and providing reports state and federal tax authorities.
- 7.3 Qualified Settlement Fund. The Administrator shall establish a settlement fund that meets the requirements of a Qualified Settlement Fund (“QSF”) under US Treasury Regulation section 468B-1.
- 7.4 Notice to Class Members.
- 7.4.1 No later than three (3) business days after receipt of the Class Data, the Administrator shall notify Class Counsel that the list has been received and state the number of Class Members, PAGA Members, Workweeks, and Pay Periods in the Class Data.
- 7.4.2 Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service (“USPS”) mail, the Class Notice with Spanish translation, if applicable substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A. The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if applicable) used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.
- 7.4.3 Not later than three (3) business days after the Administrator’s receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notices to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time.

7.4.4 The deadlines for Class Members' written objections, Challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 14 days beyond the 45 days otherwise provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class Notice.

7.4.5 If the Administrator, Cajun Pub or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, whichever are later.

7.5 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-Outs).

7.5.1 Class Members who wish to exclude themselves (opt-out of) the Class Settlement must send the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail, a signed written Request for Exclusion not later than 45 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed). A Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member's election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member's name, address and email address or telephone number. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, emailed, or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

7.5.2 The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

7.5.3 Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement, entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members' Releases under Paragraphs 5.2 and 5.3 of this Agreement, regardless whether the Participating Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.

7.5.4 Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a Non-Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class Payment or have the right to object to the class action components of the Settlement. Because future PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release the claims identified in Paragraph 5.3 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment.

7.6 Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have 45 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed) to challenge the number of Class Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination the challenges.

7.7 Objections to Settlement.

7.7.1 Only Participating Class Members may object to the class action components of the Settlement and/or this Agreement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or the Class Representative's Service Payment.

7.7.2 Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail. In the alternative, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than 45 days after the Administrator's mailing of the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).

7.7.3 Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement.

7.8 Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.

- 7.8.1 Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will establish and maintain and use an internet website to post information of interest to Class Members including the date, time and location for the Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Preliminary Approval, the Class Notice, the Motion for Final Approval, the Motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and the Class Representative's Service Payment, the Final Approval and the Judgment. The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.
- 7.8.2 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 5 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion ("Exclusion List"); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).
- 7.8.3 Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments ("Weekly Report"). The Weekly Reports must include provide the Administrator's assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.
- 7.8.4 Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator's decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.
- 7.8.5 Administrator's Declaration. Not later than 14 days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration(s) in Court.

7.8.6 Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 15 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

8. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES and ESCALATOR CLAUSE. Cajun Pub represents that there are no more than 5,101 workweeks worked by the Class Members during the Class Period. In the event the number of workweeks worked by the Class Members increases by more than 10%, then the Gross Settlement Amount shall be increased proportionally by the workweeks worked in excess of 5,612 multiplied by the workweek value. The workweek value shall be calculated by dividing the Gross Settlement Amount by the estimated 5,101 workweeks. The Parties agree that the workweek value is $49.01 ($250,000.00 / 5,101 workweeks). Thus, for example, should there be 6,000 workweeks in the Class Period, then the Gross Settlement Amount shall be increased by $19,015.88 ([6000 workweeks – 5,612 workweeks] x [$49.01/workweek]).
9. CAJUN PUB'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 10% of the total of all Class Members, Cajun Pub may, but is not obligated, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Cajun Pub withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Cajun Pub will remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred to that point. Cajun Pub must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than seven days after the Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel; late elections will have no effect.
10. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment (collectively "Motion for Final Approval"). Plaintiff shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.

- 10.1 Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than five court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.
- 10.2 Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court's concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court's decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Representative's Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administrator Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.
- 10.3 Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.
- 10.4 Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment reflected set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.
- 10.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative's Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

11. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit and a proposed amended judgment.

12. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

12.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Cajun Pub that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Cajun Pub has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Cajun Pub's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, Cajun Pub reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Cajun Pub reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Cajun Pub's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

12.2 Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Cajun Pub and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Cajun Pub and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, any with third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that "the matter was resolved," or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

12.3 No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

- 12.4 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.
- 12.5 Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Cajun Pub, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 12.6 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.
- 12.7 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 12.8 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Cajun Pub nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 12.9 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 12.10 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 12.11 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 12.12 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.

- 12.13 Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 12.14 Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Cajun Pub in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy, all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Cajun Pub unless, prior to the Court's discharge of the Administrator's obligation, Cajun Pub makes a written request to Class Counsel for the return, rather than the destructions, of Class Data.
- 12.15 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 12.16 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.
- 12.17 Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Michelle Mireles v. The Cajun Pub, Inc., et al., San Bernardino County Superior Court,
Case No. CIVSB2312321

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against The Cajun Pub, Inc. (“Cajun Pub”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by former Cajun Pub employee Michelle Mireles (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of back wages and other relief for a class of non-exempt, hourly-paid employees (“Class Members”) who worked for Cajun Pub in California during the Class Period (December 4, 2018 to July 2, 2024); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) for all non-exempt, hourly-paid employees who worked for Cajun Pub in California during the PAGA Period (May 31, 2022 to July 2, 2024) (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Cajun Pub to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Cajun Pub to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Cajun Pub’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $_____ (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $_____. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Cajun Pub’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Cajun Pub’s records showing that you worked _____ workweeks during the Class Period and you worked _____ workweeks during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Cajun Pub to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Cajun Pub.

If you worked for Cajun Pub during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

(1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Cajun Pub.

(2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Cajun Pub, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Cajun Pub will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Cajun Pub that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is [date]	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Cajun Pub must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).
Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by [date]	All Class Members who do not opt-out ("Participating Class Members") can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court's decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.

You Can Participate in the [date] Final Approval Hearing	The Court’s Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on [date]. You don’t have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by [date]	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to Cajun Pub’s records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by [date]. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former Cajun Pub employee. The Action accuses Cajun Pub of violating California labor laws by failing to pay minimum and overtime wages, failing to provide meal periods and rest breaks, failing to pay wages due upon termination, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and failing to indemnify employees for expenditures. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) (“PAGA”). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Arrash T. Fattahi and Arman A. Salehi of Wilshire Law Firm, PLC (“Class Counsel.”).

Cajun Pub strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Cajun Pub or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Cajun Pub hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Cajun Pub have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Cajun Pub does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Cajun Pub has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2)

Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Cajun Pub Will Pay $250,000.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Cajun Pub has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the Class Representative's Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and expenses, the Administrator's expenses, and penalties to be paid to the LWDA. Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Cajun Pub will fund the Gross Settlement within 30 days of the Effective Date (as defined in the CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT). The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.

Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement Amount, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:

- A. Up to $83,333.33 (1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $25,000 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
- B. Up to $10,000.00 to Plaintiff for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. The Class Representative's Service Payment will be the only money Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
- C. Up to $XXX to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
- D. Up to $10,000.00 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

2. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the "Net Settlement") by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.

3. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Cajun Pub are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 20% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 80% to penalties and interest (“Non-Wage Portion”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Cajun Pub will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Cajun Pub have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

4. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be transmitted to the California State Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund under your name.
5. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [date], that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by [date]. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member’s name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Cajun Pub.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Cajun Pub based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

6. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiff and Cajun Pub have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Cajun Pub will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Cajun Pub.
7. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, Apex Class Action Administrators (the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members' Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.

8. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and Cajun Pub has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Cajun Pub or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

Upon remittance of the Maximum Settlement Amount by Cajun Pub to the Settlement Administrator, Participating Class Members will fully and finally release and discharge Cajun Pub from all claims, rights, demands, liabilities and causes of action that are alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts and claims asserted in the operative complaint in this action including the following claims: (i) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 (Unpaid Overtime); (2) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a) (Unpaid Meal Period Premiums); (3) Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 (Unpaid Rest Period Premiums); (4) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. (Unpaid Minimum Wages); (5) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 (Final Wages Not Timely Paid); (6) Violation of California Labor Code § 204 (Wages Not Timely Paid During Employment); (7) Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) (Non-Compliant Wage Statements); (8) Violation of California Labor Code § 1174(d) (Failure to Keep Requisite Payroll Records); (9) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 (Unreimbursed Business Expenses); and (10) violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2698, et seq., 2800, and 2802. This release is limited to claims arising during the Class Period.

9. Aggrieved Employees' PAGA Release. After the Court's judgment is final, and Cajun Pub has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Cajun Pub, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Cajun Pub or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Aggrieved Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

Upon remittance of the Maximum Settlement Amount by Cajun Pub to the Settlement Administrator, Plaintiff, PAGA Members, and the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency will fully and finally release and discharge Cajun Pub from any and all claims for the recovery for civil penalties, attorneys' fees and costs permissible under PAGA which Plaintiff and/or the Aggrieved Employees had, or may claim to have, against Released Parties, arising out of the violations alleged in the Complaint or the PAGA Notice, including failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to pay minimum wages, failure to provide compliant meal and rest breaks, failure to pay meal and rest period premiums, failure to pay all wages owed at discharge or resignation; failure to timely pay wages during employment; failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements; failure to keep complete and accurate payroll records; failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses; and violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2698, et seq., 2800, and 2802. This release is limited to claims arising during the PAGA Period. In light of the binding nature of a PAGA judgment on non-party employees pursuant to Arias v. Sup. Ct. (Angelo Dairy) (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969 and Cardenas v. McLane Foodservice, Inc. (2011) 796 F.Supp.2d 1246, individuals otherwise meeting the definition of a PAGA Member who are eligible to receive an Individual PAGA Payment shall be deemed to have released PAGA claims, regardless of whether the check for the Individual PAGA Payment is cashed or not.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $2,500 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Cajun Pub's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until [date] to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Cajun Pub's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Cajun Pub's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Cajun Pub's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as Michelle Mireles v. The Cajun Pub, Inc., and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by [date], or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and Cajun Pub are asking the Court to approve. At least 16 days before the [date] Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses, and the amount Plaintiff are requesting as the Class Representative's Service Award. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website [need details] or the Court's website [need details].

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award may wish to object, for example, that the proposed Settlement is unfair, or that the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff are too high or too low. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is [date]. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Action as Michelle Mireles v. The Cajun Pub, Inc., and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for Cajun Pub and sign the objection. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. See Section 8 of this Notice (immediately below) for specifics regarding the Final Approval Hearing.

8. CAN I ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING?

You can, but don't have to, attend the Final Approval Hearing on [date] at [time] in Department S-17 of the San Bernardino County Superior Court, San Bernardino Justice Center, located at 247 West Third Street, San Bernardino, California 92415. At the Hearing, the judge will decide whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement and how much of the Gross Settlement will be paid to Class Counsel, Plaintiff, and the Administrator. The Court will invite comment from objectors, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel before making a decision. You can attend (or hire a lawyer to attend) personally. Check the Court's website for the most current information (sb-court.org).

It's possible the Court will reschedule the Final Approval Hearing. You should check the Administrator's website [need details] beforehand or contact Class Counsel to verify the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing.

Terms & Conditions

The following Terms and Conditions govern the provision of all services to be provided by Apex Class Action and its affiliates ("Apex") to the Client. These terms and conditions are binding and shall apply to all services provided by Apex in relation to any related services or products.

1. Services: Apex commits to providing the Client with the administrative services detailed in the attached Proposal (the "Services").

2. Payment Terms: As compensation for the legal services to be provided, the Client agrees to pay Apex all fees detailed in the Proposal. The fees quoted in the Proposal (and any subsequent proposals for additional services) are estimates based on the information provided to Apex by the Client. Apex makes no representation that the estimated fees in the Proposal or any subsequent proposals for additional services shall equal the actual fees charged by Apex to the Client, which fees (including individual line items) may be greater or less than estimated. If additional services are requested on an hourly basis and are not specifically detailed in the Proposal, Apex will prepare estimates for such services subject to approval by the Client. In the performance of such additional services, Apex will charge standard hourly fees which shall apply.

3. Incurred Expenses: In relation to the provision of services outlined in this agreement, the Client agrees to reimburse Apex for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Such expenses may include, but are not limited to, costs associated with postage, media production or publication, banking fees, brokerage fees, messenger and delivery service expenses, travel expenses, filing fees, office supplies, meals, staff overtime expenses, and other related costs and expenses. If not otherwise specified in writing, fees for print notice and certain expenses, such as media publication and postage, must be paid immediately upon invoicing and, in certain cases, at least ten (10) days prior to the date on which such expenses will be incurred.

4. Invoicing: Apex shall present invoices for its fees and expenses on a monthly basis, except as provided in Section 3. The Client agrees to pay each invoice within 30 days of receipt. In case of non-payment within 90 days of the billing date, an additional service charge of 1.5% per month may apply. Apex reserves the right to increase its prices, charges, and rates annually, subject to reasonable adjustments. If any price increases exceed 10%, Apex shall give thirty (30) days' notice to the Client. In the event of any unpaid invoices beyond 120 days of the due date, Apex reserves the right to withhold services and reports until payment is received, subject to notice to the Client. It is important to note that Apex's failure to provide services and reports in such instances shall not constitute a default under this agreement.

5. Case Duration: The duration of these Terms and Conditions, except for the data storage obligations stated in Section 13, shall be in effect until 30 days following the completion of the Services as described in the Proposal. The parties may extend these Terms and Conditions in writing for a mutually agreed-upon period beyond this initial 30-day period.

6. Termination of Services: Either party may terminate the Services by providing thirty (30) days written notice to the other party. Alternatively, termination may occur immediately upon written notice for Cause, as defined below. Cause means (i) Apex's gross negligence or willful misconduct that causes serious and material harm to the Client; (ii) the Client's failure to pay Apex invoices for more than one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of the invoice; or (iii) the accrual of invoices or unpaid services where Apex reasonably believes it will not be paid. Termination of the Services shall not relieve the Client of its obligation to pay Apex for services rendered prior to the termination.

7. Independent Contractor: As an independent contractor, Apex will provide services under the terms of this agreement. It is agreed that neither Apex nor any of its employees will be considered an employee of the Client. Consequently, Apex and its employees will not be eligible for any benefits provided by the Client to its employees. The Client will not make any tax deductions from the payments due to Apex for state or federal tax purposes. Apex will be solely responsible for paying all taxes and other payments due on payments received from the Client under this agreement.

8. Apex warrants that the Services outlined in the Proposal will be performed in accordance with the standards generally adhered to by professionals providing similar services. It is acknowledged that the Services may entail the likelihood of some human and machine errors, omissions, delays, and losses that may result in damage. However, Apex shall not be held liable for such errors, omissions, delays, or losses unless they are caused by its gross negligence or willful misconduct. In the event of any breach of this warranty by Apex, the Client's sole remedy will be limited to Apex's reworking, at its expense, any inaccurate output provided that such inaccuracies occurred solely as a result of Apex's gross negligence or willful misconduct under this agreement.

9. Limitation of Liability: The Client acknowledges that Apex shall not be held liable for any consequential, special, or incidental damages incurred by the Client in relation to the performance of Services, whether the claim is based on breach of warranty, contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability, or any other grounds. Under no circumstances shall Apex's liability to the Client, for any Losses (including court costs and reasonable attorney's fees), arising out of or in connection with these Terms and Conditions, exceed the total amount charged or chargeable to the Client for the specific service(s) that caused the Losses.

10. Indemnification: The Client agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Apex from any losses, suits, actions, judgments, fines, costs, liabilities, or claims arising from any action or proceeding relating to the Services provided by Apex, regardless of whether or not it results in liability (collectively referred to as "Indemnified Claims"). However, this indemnification provision shall not apply to the extent that such Indemnified Claims are caused by Apex's willful misconduct, gross negligence, or breach of these Terms and Conditions. This provision shall survive termination of the Services.

11. Confidentiality: Apex will uphold strict confidentiality between Apex and the Client and applies to all non-public records, documents, systems, procedures, processes, software, and other information received by either party in connection with the performance of services under these terms. Both Apex and the Client agree to keep confidential all such non-public information, including any material marked or identified as confidential or proprietary. Any such confidential information shall not be disclosed, provided, disseminated, or otherwise made available to any third party, except as required to fulfill the parties' obligations under these terms. The parties acknowledge that in the event of any request to disclose any confidential information in connection with a legal or administrative proceeding, or otherwise to comply with a legal requirement, prompt notice of such request must be given to the other party to enable that party to seek an appropriate protective order or other remedy or to waive compliance with the relevant provisions of these terms. If the Client seeks a protective order or another remedy, Apex, at the Client's expense, will cooperate with and assist the Client in such efforts. If the Client fails to obtain a protective order or waives compliance with the relevant provisions of these terms, Apex will disclose only that portion of the confidential information that it determines it is required to disclose. This confidentiality provision shall survive termination of the services provided. Both parties acknowledge and agree that any breach of these terms may cause irreparable harm to the non-breaching party and that injunctive relief may be necessary to prevent any actual or threatened breach. The terms set forth between the parties supersede all prior negotiations, understandings, and agreements between the parties concerning confidentiality. These terms may only be amended in writing and signed by both parties.

12. Ownership of the programs, system data, and materials provided by Apex to the Client during the course of providing services herein shall solely belong to Apex. It is acknowledged that fees and expenses paid by the Client do not confer any rights in such property. It is also understood that the said property is made available to the Client solely for the purpose of using it during and in connection with the services provided by Apex.

13. Apex may derive financial benefits from financial institutions in connection with the deposit and investment of funds with such institutions, including without limitation, discounts on eligible banking services and fees, and loans at favorable rates.

14. COMPLETE AGREEMENT. These Terms and Conditions, along with the attached Proposal, represent the complete agreement and understanding between the parties and override any prior agreements (whether written or oral) between Apex and the Client regarding the subject matter. Any modification to these Terms and Conditions may only be made in writing and must be signed by both Apex and the Client. The headings in this document are included for convenience only and do not alter or restrict any provisions in these Terms and Conditions. They may not be used in the interpretation of these Terms and Conditions.

15. This provision outlines the requirements for providing notice or other communication under this agreement. Re: Michelle Mireles v. The Cajun Pub, Inc., et al.
Notice of Labor Code Violations and PAGA Penalties

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that my office has been retained by Michelle Mireles ("Plaintiff") to pursue a Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") representative action (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) against her former employers, The Cajun Pub, Inc. and Star Crab, Inc. (collectively "Defendants"). The purpose of this letter is to comply with PAGA and set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Defendants engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendants' Aggrieved Employees.

Plaintiff wishes to pursue this action on behalf of herself as an aggrieved employee, on behalf of the State of California, as well as on behalf of all other persons who worked for Defendants in California as a non-exempt or hourly-paid employee at any time within the applicable statutory period (hereafter, the "Aggrieved Employees").

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered the Labor Code violations described below.

Plaintiff's Employment with Defendants

Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including San Bernardino County. As such, and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

Plaintiff Michelle Mireles is a California resident who worked for Defendants in San Bernardino County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately July 2021 to approximately February 2023. During Plaintiff's employment for Defendants, Defendants paid Plaintiff an hourly wage and classified her as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Plaintiff regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with legally compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take rest periods, failed to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated her employment, failed to furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, and failed to indemnify Plaintiff for expenditures. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

Defendants Failed to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum, Straight Time, and Overtime Wages

Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

In addition, Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not paying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work "off-the-clock", uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work during unpaid meal periods. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the start of sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s).

Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants regularly, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a meal period. Defendants also failed to permit Plaintiff to take a second meal period when Plaintiff worked at least ten hours of work in a workday. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods and that were not provided.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210 and 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours).

Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210 and 2699(f)(2) for failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages.

Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendants owe employees the legally required wages for unpaid wages, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

Moreover, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 210 for failing to pay all earned wages twice per month.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

Plaintiff seeks penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendant. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continues to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employment. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), missed meal period premium wages, and missed rest period premium wages.

Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

Moreover, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to timely pay all wages at termination.

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Lab. Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

The statute further provides: "An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney's fees." (Lab. Code § 226(e)(1).)

Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).

Because Defendants violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

Moreover, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 226.3 for failing to furnish accurate itemized wage statements.

Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the employees in direct discharge of his or her duties. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, work attire, use of personal cell phones, and use of personal vehicles. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2699(f)(2) for failing to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary business expenditures.

Action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA

In light of the above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants violated the following provisions of the Labor Code with respect to the Aggrieved Employees:

1. Labor Code § 204, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 by failing to pay for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime wages;
2. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to provide meal periods;
3. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to authorize and permit rest periods;
4. Labor Code § 204 by failing to pay all earned wages two times per month;
5. California Labor Code § 1174.5 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed;

6. Labor Code §§ 201 to 203 by willfully failing to pay all wages owed at termination;
7. Labor Code § 226 by failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
8. Labor Code § 2802 by failing to indemnify for necessary expenditures.

Therefore, on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff seeks applicable penalties related to the violations alleged above pursuant to the PAGA. These include, but are not limited to, penalties under Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

Plaintiff has placed Defendants on notice by mailing a certified copy of this correspondence, as indicated on the first page. Thank you for your attention to this matter. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Report Use Considerations

2022 Real Rate Report

- Examines law firm rates over time
- Identifies rates by location, experience, firm size, areas of expertise, industry, and timekeeper role (i.e., partner, associate, and paralegal)
- Itemizes variables that drive rates up or down

All the analyses included in the report derive from the actual rates charged by law firm professionals as recorded on invoices submitted and approved for payment.

Examining real, approved rate information, along with the ranges of those rates and their changes over time, highlights the role these variables play in driving aggregate legal cost and income. The analyses can energize questions for both corporate clients and law firm principals.

Clients might ask whether they are paying the right amount for different types of legal services, while law firm principals might ask whether they are charging the right amount for legal services and whether to modify their pricing approach.

Some key factors¹ that drive rates²:

Attorney location - Lawyers in urban and major metropolitan areas tend to charge more when compared with lawyers in rural areas or small towns.

Litigation complexity - The cost of representation will be higher if the case is particularly complex or time-consuming; for example, if there are a large number of documents to review, many witnesses to depose, and numerous procedural steps, the case is likely to cost more (regardless of other factors like the lawyer's level of experience).

Years of experience and reputation - A more experienced, higher-profile lawyer is often going to charge more, but absorbing this higher cost at the outset may make more sense than hiring a less expensive lawyer who will likely take time and billable hours to come up to speed on unfamiliar legal and procedural issues.

Overhead - The costs associated with the firm's support network (paralegals, clerks, and assistants), document preparation, consultants, research, and other expenses.

Firm size - The rates can increase if the firm is large and has various timekeeper roles at the firm. For example, the cost to work with an associate or partner at a larger firm will be higher compared to a firm that has one to two associates and a paralegal.

Invoice Information

Data in Wolters Kluwer ELM Solutions' reference database and the 2022 Real Rate Report were taken from invoice line-item entries contained in invoices received and approved by participating companies.

Invoice data were received in the Legal Electronic Data Exchange Standard (LEDES) format (LEDES.org). The following information was extracted from those invoices and their line items:

- Law firm (which exists as a random number in the ELM Solutions reference database)
- Timekeeper ID (which exists as a random number in the ELM Solutions reference database)
- Matter ID (which exists as a random number in the ELM Solutions reference database)
- Timekeeper's position (role) within the law firm (partner, associate, paralegal, etc.)
- Uniform Task-Based Management System Code Set, Task Codes, and Activity Codes (UTBMS.com)
- Date of service
- Hours billed
- Hourly rate billed
- Fees billed

Non-Invoice Information

To capture practice area details, the matter ID within each invoice was associated with matter profiles containing areas of work in the systems of each company. The areas of work were then systematically categorized into legal practice areas. Normalization of practice areas was done based on company mappings to system-level practice areas available in the ELM Solutions system and by naming convention.

The majority of analyses included in this report have been mapped to one of 11 practice areas, further divided into sub-areas and litigation/non-litigation (for more information on practice areas and sub-areas, please refer to pages 232-234).

To capture location and jurisdiction details, law firms and timekeepers were systematically mapped to the existing profiles within ELM Solutions systems, as well as with publicly available data sources for further validation and normalization. Where city location information is provided, it includes any address within that city's defined Core-Based Statistical Area (CBSA) as defined by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). The CBSAs are urban centers with populations of 10,000 or more and include all adjacent counties that are economically integrated with that urban center.

Where the analyses focus on partners, associates, and paralegals, the underlying data occasionally included some sub-roles, such as "senior partner" or "junior associate." In such instances, those timekeeper sub-roles were placed within the broader partner, associate, and paralegal segments.

Demographics regarding law firm size, location, and lawyer years of experience were augmented by incorporating publicly available information.

Big Law Rates Topping $2,000 Leave Value ‘In Eye of Beholder’

By Roy Strom

Column

June 9, 2022, 2:30 AM

Welcome back to the Big Law Business column on the changing legal marketplace written by me, Roy Strom. Today, we look at a new threshold for lawyers' billing rates and why it's so difficult to put a price on high-powered attorneys. Sign up to receive this column in your inbox on Thursday mornings. Programming note: Big Law Business will be off next week.

Some of the nation's top law firms are charging more than $2,000 an hour, setting a new pinnacle after a two-year burst in demand.

Partners at Hogan Lovells and Latham & Watkins have crossed the threshold, according to court documents in bankruptcy cases filed within the past year.

Other firms came close to the mark, billing more than $1,900, according to the documents. They include Kirkland & Ellis, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, Boies Schiller Flexner, and Sidley Austin.

Simpson Thacher & Bartlett litigator Bryce Friedman, who helps big-name clients out of jams, especially when they're accused of fraud, charges $1,965 every 60 minutes, according to a court document.

In need of a former acting US Solicitor General? Hogan Lovells partner Neal Katyal bills time at $2,465 an hour. Want to hire famous litigator David Boies? That'll cost $1,950 an hour (at least). Reuters was first to report their fees.

Eye-watering rates are nothing new for Big Law firms, which typically ask clients to pay higher prices at least once a year, regardless of broader market conditions.

"Value is in the eye of the beholder," said John O'Connor, a San Francisco-based expert on legal fees. "The perceived value of a good lawyer can reach into the multi-billions of dollars."

Kirkland & Ellis declined to comment on its billing rates. None of the other firms responded to requests to comment.

Charge It Up

Big Law firms are crossing the $2,000-an-hour threshold after two years of surging rates driven by an increase in demand for lawyers.

Firm	Highest Billing Rate
Hogan Lovells	$2,465
Latham & Watkins	$2,075
Kirkland & Ellis	$1,995
Simpson Thacher & Bartlett	$1,965
Boies Schiller Flexner	$1,950
Sidley Austin	$1,900

Bloomberg Law

Law firms have been more successful raising rates than most other businesses over the past 15 years.

Law firm rates rose by roughly 40 percent from 2007 to 2020, or just short of 3 percent per year, Thomson Reuters Peer Monitor data show. US inflation rose by about 28% during that time.

The 100 largest law firms in the past two years achieved their largest rate increases in more than a decade, Peer Monitor says. The rates surged more than 6% in 2020 and grew another 5.6% through November of last year. Neither level had been breached since 2008.

The price hikes occurred during a once-in-a-decade surge in demand for law services, which propelled profits at firms to new levels. Fourteen law firms reported average profits per equity partner in 2021 over $5 million, according to data from The American Lawyer. That was up from six the previous year.

The highest-performing firms, where lawyers charge the highest prices, have outperformed their smaller peers. Firms with leading practices in markets such as mergers and acquisitions, capital markets, and real estate were forced to turn away work at some points during the pandemic-fueled surge.

Firms receive relatively tepid pushback from their giant corporate clients, especially when advising on bet-the-company litigation or billion-dollar deals.

The portion of bills law firms collected—a sign of how willingly clients pay full-freight—rose during the previous two years after drifting lower following the Great Financial Crisis. Collection rates last year breached 90% for the first time since 2009, Peer Monitor data show.

Professional rules prohibit lawyers from charging “unconscionable” or “unreasonable” rates. But that doesn’t preclude clients from paying any price they perceive as valuable, said Jacqueline Vinaccia, a San Diego-based lawyer who testifies on lawyer fee disputes.

Lawyers’ fees are usually only contested when they will be paid by a third party.

That happened recently with Hogan Lovells’ Katyal, whose nearly $2,500 an hour fee was contested in May by a US trustee overseeing a bankruptcy case involving a Johnson & Johnson unit facing claims its talc-based powders caused cancer.

The trustee, who protects the financial interests of bankruptcy estates, argued Katyal’s fee was more than $1,000 an hour higher than rates charged by lawyers in the same case at Jones Day and Skadden Arps Slate Meagher & Flom.

A hearing on the trustee’s objection is scheduled for next week. Hogan Lovells did not respond to a request for comment on the objection.

Vinaccia said the firm’s options will be to reduce its fee, withdraw from the case, or argue the levy is reasonable, most likely based on Katyal’s extensive experience arguing appeals.

Still, the hourly rate shows just how valuable the most prestigious lawyers’ time can be—even compared to their highly compensated competitors.

“If the argument is that Jones Day and Skadden Arps are less expensive, then you’re already talking about the cream of the crop, the top-of-the-barrel law firms,” Vinaccia said. “I can’t imagine a case in which I might argue those two firms are more reasonable than the rates I’m dealing with.”

Worth Your Time

On Cravath: Cravath Swaine & Moore is heading to Washington, opening its first new office since 1973 by hiring former heads of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Meghan Tribe reports the move comes as Big Law firms are looking to add federal government expertise as clients face more regulatory scrutiny.

On Big Law Promotions: It’s rare that associates get promotions to partner in June, but Camille Vasquez is now a Brown Rudnick partner after she shot to fame representing Johnny Depp in his defamation trial against ex-wife Amber Heard.

On Working From Home: I spoke this week with Quinn Emanuel’s John Quinn about why he thinks law firm life is never going back to the office-first culture that was upset by the pandemic. Listen to the podcast here.

That's it for this week! Thanks for reading and please send me your thoughts, critiques, and tips.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff MICHELLE MIRELES (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have
2 evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for
3 further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant THE CAJUN PUB, INC., and DOES
6 1 through 10 (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code
7 violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours
8 worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to 9 authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish accurate
10 wage statements, and failure to indemnify employees for expenditures.

11 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a
12 class action on behalf of herself and certain current and former employees of Defendants
13 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” and defined more fully 14 below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any 15 Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of 16 limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

17 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 18 California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 19 her, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt employees employed by Defendants
20 in the State of California during the statute of limitations period for her PAGA claim (hereinafter 21 referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

22 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 23 establishment within the State of California, including San Bernardino County. As such, and 24 based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California,
25 Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial 26 Welfare Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

27 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants 28 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 1 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum,
2 straight time, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor
3 Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- 4 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 5 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 6 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 7 failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period
8 violation occurred;
- 9 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
10 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
11 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest
12 period violation occurred;
- 13 (d) Willfully failing to pay employees all expenditures, minimum wages,
14 straight time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest
15 period premium wages due within the time period specified by California 16 law when employment terminates;
- 17 (e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
18 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 19 IWC Wage Orders; and,
- 20 (f) Failing to indemnify employees for expenditures incurred in direct 21 discharge of duties of employment;

22 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 23 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 24 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 25 willful and deliberate.

26 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 27 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 28 foregoing paragraphs as the employers of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior.”

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff MICHELLE MIRELES is California resident who worked for Defendants in San Bernardino County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately July 2021 to approximately February 2023.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendant THE CAJUN PUB, INC. is, and at all times herein mentioned, was:

- (a) A California corporation qualified to do business and actually conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in San Bernardino County; and,
- (b) The former employers of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employers of the putative Class and Aggrieved Employees because Defendant THE CAJUN PUB, INC. suffered and permitted Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and

1 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of,
2 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in
3 the State of California.

4 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times
5 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and 6 the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their
7 wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges
8 that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer,
9 director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest
10 and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 11 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to 12 some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters
13 alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted
14 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 15 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 16 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

17 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

18 14. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in San Bernardino County, California as an 19 hourly-paid, non-exempt employee. During Plaintiff's employment for Defendants, Defendants
20 paid Plaintiff an hourly wage and classified her as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants
21 typically scheduled Plaintiff to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per
22 day, but Plaintiff regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and more than forty (40)
23 hours in a workweek.

24 15. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked
25 (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with legally
26 compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take rest periods, failed to 27 timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated her employment, failed to 28 furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, and failed to indemnify Plaintiff for expenditures.

1 As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

2 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of
3 not paying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including
4 minimum, straight time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiff, the Class, and the 5 Aggrieved Employees to work "off-the-clock," uncompensated, by, for example, requiring
6 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work during unpaid meal
7 periods. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay
8 for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff,
9 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

10 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff,
11 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants
12 regularly, but not always, required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work in 13 excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-
14 free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and 15 the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of 16 work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff, the 17 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform
18 work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal
19 periods, or by denying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a 20 meal period. Defendants also failed to permit Plaintiff to take a second meal period when 21 Plaintiff worked at least ten hours of work in a workday. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and 22 practice was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in 23 compliance with California law.

24 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize
25 and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest
26 periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to 27 work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting 28 them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all final wages due at their termination of employment. In addition, Plaintiff's final paychecks did not include payment for all expenditures, minimum wages, straight time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages owed to her by Defendants at the conclusion of her employment. On information and belief, Defendants' failure to timely pay Plaintiff's final wages when her employment terminated was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead consistent with Defendants' policy and practice that applied to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, all overtime hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law). As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other things:

- (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they were entitled;

- 1 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,
2 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
3 wages, even though they had not been;
- 4 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum,
5 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
6 wages at the correct California rate even though they were entitled;
- 7 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time,
8 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the 9 correct California rate even though they had not been;
- 10 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum,
11 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
12 wages owed to them;
- 13 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 14 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 15 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
16 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage
17 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 18 (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to 19 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, 20 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- 21 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage
22 rates to which Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 23 entitled, and Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were paid 24 less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

25 Thus, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in 26 California Labor Code § 226(e) and injunctive relief under California Labor Code § 226(h).

27 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully required Plaintiff,
28 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of

1 their duties for Defendants. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees regularly paid
2 out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, work
3 attire, use of personal cell phones, and use of personal vehicles.

4 22. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses
5 as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to 6 indemnify Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related 7 expenses.

8 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

9 23. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all
10 other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil 11 Procedure § 382.

12 24. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief
13 authorized by California law.

14 25. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

15 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or 16 non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years and 178 17 days before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.¹

18 26. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

19 27. Plaintiff undertook this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 20 conditions of all Class Members.

21 28. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 22 readily ascertainable:

- 23 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so
24 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
25 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time;
26 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals

27 ¹ In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California adopted Emergency Rule 9(a)
28 (California Rules of Court), whereby “statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 to October 1, 2020.”

and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.

(b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

(c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

(d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and,
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California

1 is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through
2 a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their
3 rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are 4 also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former
5 employers might damage their future endeavors through negative
6 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members
7 who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows 8 for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is 9 protected.

10 29. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 11 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 12 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 13 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, 14 straight time, and overtime wages;
- 15 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to 16 Class Members;
- 17 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium
18 wages to Class Members;
- 19 (d) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages;
- 20 (e) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements;
- 21 (f) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures; and,
- 22 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a 23 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

24 30. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 25 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 26 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 27 question affecting only individual members;
- 28 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;

(c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;

(d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;

(e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;

(f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:

1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,

2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

(g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

31. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated

1 notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff contemplates the use of
2 additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail
3 notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the 4 Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All
7 Hours Worked)

8 32. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
9 paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

10 33. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 11 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 12 not required to do so.

13 34. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 14 Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay
15 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 16 provisions of California Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which 17 require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

18 35. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight
19 time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

20 36. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been
21 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

22 37. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to
23 Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class
24 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 25 Plaintiff and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

26 38. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code §
27 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage
28 compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

39. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

40. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required by law, including minimum and straight time wages. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

41. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum and straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

43. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

44. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

45. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, as employees of Defendants.

46. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours

1 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

2 47. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
3 compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the
4 Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently
5 unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be
6 ascertained according to proof at trial.

7 48. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d),
8 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 9 Plaintiff and the Class.

10 49. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according 11 to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well
12 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 13 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

14 50. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all
15 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 16 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all
17 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class
18 with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

19 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

21 51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
22 paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

23 52. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 24 Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the 25 start of Plaintiff's and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal
26 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. California Labor
27 Code § 512, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide 28 unpaid meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a

1 violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work
2 during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

3 53. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff
4 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit
5 and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact
6 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods),
7 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable
8 Wage Orders.

9 54. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 10 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s),
11 plus interest thereon.

12 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

14 55. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
15 paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

16 56. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten 17 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 18 two hours). California Labor Code § 512, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer
19 permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of ten minutes each for each 4-hour
20 period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 21 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is
22 itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of California Labor Code §
23 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under 24 any Wage Order.

25 57. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the 26 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a
27 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as 28 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take

1 these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor
2 Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

3 58. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of
4 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s),
5 plus interest thereon.

6 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 8 Penalties)

9 59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
10 paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

11 60. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 12 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 13 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment,
14 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter,
15 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 16 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

17 61. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other
18 members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of 19 others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail
20 to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California
21 Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of 22 their leaving Defendants' employ.

23 62. Defendants' failure to pay those Class members who are no longer employed by 24 Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72)
25 hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 26 202.

27 63. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay
28 wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue

1 as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is
2 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

3 64. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages
4 for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days
5 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

6 65. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also 7 entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this 8 action.

9 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant 11 Wage Records)

12 66. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
13 paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

14 67. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 15 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement
16 in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
17 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
18 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made
19 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages
20 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the 21 employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee
22 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 23 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 24 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

25 68. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 26 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the 27 failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list
28 the true "total hours worked by the employee," and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

69. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

70. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants' intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

71. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

72. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

73. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h).

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

74. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

75. As set forth above, Plaintiff and the Class were required to incur substantial necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

76. Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and indemnify Plaintiff and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

77. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

78. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(b).

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

79. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

80. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business & Professions Code § 17201.

81. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

82. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

83. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages

84. Defendants' failure to pay minimum and straight time wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

85. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

86. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

87. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Indemnify Business Expenses

88. Defendants' failure to reimburse expenses incurred in accordance with California Labor Code § 2802, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

89. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and has deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

90. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

91. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of

Defendants in order to recover restitution.

92. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, is further entitled to, and does, seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

93. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, has no plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

94. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other withholdings.

95. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years and 178 days prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

1 97. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 2 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

3 98. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action
4 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of 5 law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by
6 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions,
7 commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative,
8 be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or
9 herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section
10 2699.3.”

11 99. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor
12 Code § 2699.3. She gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce
13 Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor
14 Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and former aggrieved
15 employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also paid the filing 16 fee.

17 100. The Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to 18 investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff
19 may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3
20 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are 21 not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699.

25 according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

26 102. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs
27 pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, “Any employee who prevails in 28 any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”
