4.4 This General Release is not intended to bar any claims that, by law, may not be waived, such as claims for workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, and statutory indemnity. In addition, this General Release does not prevent Employee from contacting, providing information to, or filing a charge with any federal, state, or local government agency or commission, including but not limited to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), or the National Labor Relations Board ("NLRB"). Nevertheless, the Releasors waive any and all claims that might arise as a result of such different or additional claims or facts.

The Court's dismissal of the Complaint in its entirety is a condition on Employee's entitlement to the Settlement Payment under this Agreement. Should the Court fail or refuse to grant the request for dismissal, this Agreement is null and void and Employee agrees to return the Settlement Payment, in its entirety, to the Company. Employee represents that Employee has not filed with any court, administrative agency, or arbitral forum any action or claim against Employer other than the Complaint. Plaintiff shall submit a redacted copy of this Agreement (i.e. with the three monetary amounts in paragraph 2 above blacklined) to: (1) the Court in connection with the Request for Dismissal and (2) to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") via the LWDA's online portal.

In the event of any dispute, controversy, claim, or action arising out of or related to this Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the dispute, controversy, claim, or action.

17. Entire Agreement. Unless specifically provided herein, this Agreement contains all of the understandings and representations between the Company and Employee relating to the subject matter in this Agreement and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, discussions, agreements, representations, and warranties, both written and oral, regarding such subject matter; provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement modifies, supersedes, voids, or otherwise alters any arbitration, confidentiality, nondisclosure, or related agreements signed by Employee during Employee's employment with Company, which remain in full force and effect. In the event of any inconsistency between this Agreement and any other agreement between Employee and Company, the statements in this Agreement shall control.
