on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees,

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES-CENTRAL DISTRICT

OCTAVIO OROPEZA, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees,

Plaintiff,

vs.

LOS ANGELES ENGINEERING, INC.; and
DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 23ST CV 19369

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF OCTAVIO OROPEZA'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff OCTAVIO OROPEZA ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants LOS ANGELES ENGINEERING, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive
(collectively, "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated

1 with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all
2 hours worked at the employees' minimum wage rate or overtime rate, failure to provide all legally
3 required and/or legally compliant meal and rest periods and/or pay meal and rest period premium 4 wages, failure to timely pay earned wages during employment, failure to provide complete and 5 accurate wage statements, and failure to timely pay all unpaid wages following separation of 6 employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and 7 Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor
8 Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and 9 others aggrieved.

10 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 12 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 13 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
14 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars
15 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-
16 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 17 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 18 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County at 633 N. Barranca Ave, Covina, CA 19 91723.

20 3. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California enacted
21 Emergency Rule 9 to the California Rules of Court, which provided that, notwithstanding any 22 other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are 23 tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

24 III. PARTIES

25 4. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce
26 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 27 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 28 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will

1 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp
2 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 3 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 4 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Covina from 5 approximately March 2018, until on or about March 10, 2023.

6 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant LOS 7 ANGELES ENGINEERING, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and 8 is doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times
9 relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant LOS ANGELES ENGINEERING,
10 INC. in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices
11 or policies. Defendant LOS ANGELES ENGINEERING, INC. operates in San Bernardino 12 County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including but 13 not limited to, at 633 N. Barranca Ave, Covina, CA 91723.

14 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 15 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 16 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted
17 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 18 working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

19 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
20 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued
21 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 22 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to 23 be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of 24 the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

25 8. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff
26 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 27 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 28 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously

1 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 2 complaint.

3 9. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 4 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and 5 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 8 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

9 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

10 10. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

11 11. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges
12 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197
13 and the applicable Wage Orders.

14 12. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
15 Labor Code:

16 13. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
17 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
18 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked,"
19 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 20 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either
21 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

22 14. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees
23 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 24 Wage Orders.

25 15. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 26 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with 27 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 28 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum

1 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but 2 not limited to:

3 (a) Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved
4 California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their actual hours worked during their shifts and 5 instead paid Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
6 employees by scheduled hours despite that they routinely worked beyond their scheduled hours;
7 and

8 (b) Defendant automatically deducted half of an hour each workday from Plaintiff's
9 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' daily
10 hours worked and attributed that time to a meal break despite that Defendant routinely failed to 11 provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 12 employees' meal breaks and/or duty-free meal breaks.

13 16. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 14 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants'
15 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 16 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 17 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable
18 Wage Order.

19 17. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay:
20 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
21 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked,"
22 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the
23 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either
24 directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.'

25 18. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 26 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty 27 (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

28 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

Labor Code section 510.

19. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their actual hours worked during their shifts and instead paid Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees by scheduled hours despite that they routinely worked beyond their scheduled hours; and

(b) Defendant automatically deducted half of an hour each workday from Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' daily hours worked and attributed that time to a meal break despite that Defendant routinely failed to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' meal breaks and/or duty-free meal breaks.

20. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

21. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

22. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 16 at §11; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

23. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 16 at §11.

24. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not limited to:

(a) Defendant automatically deducted up to hour an half of an hour each workday from Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' daily hours worked and attributed that time to a meal break despite that Defendant routinely failed to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' meal breaks and/or duty-free meal breaks.

25. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt

1 employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code
2 section 226.7.

3 26. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
4 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not
5 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them
6 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

7 27. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 8 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other
9 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 10 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

11 28. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest
12 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor
13 Code section 226.7; Wage Order 16 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10
14 minutes' rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more 15 than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so
16 on." Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code
17 section 226.7; Wage Order 16 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of 18 each work period. Wage Order 16 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement "obligates 19 employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods." Augustus v. ABM
20 Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must 21 relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

22 29. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer
23 must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday
24 the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; 25 Wage Order 16 at § 12.

26 30. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 27 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
28 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not

1 limited to:

2 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 3 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 4 or major fraction thereof; and

5 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
6 non-exempt employees to remain at the jobsite during their rest periods resulting in rest periods
7 that were not duty-free.

8 31. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 9 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
10 based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
11 workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor
12 Code section 226.7.

13 32. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
14 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 15 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with 16 rest periods in compliance with California law.

17 33. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 18 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 19 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages 20 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 21 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day,
22 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following
23 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 24 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 25 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

26 34. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed 27 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-28 exempt employees' earned wages ((including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

35. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

36. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226.

37. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

38. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay

1 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees
2 all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages,
3 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 4 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

5 39. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved
6 employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil 7 action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in 8 Labor Code section 2699.3.

9 40. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor
10 Code section 2699.3. On June 5, 2023, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 11 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 12 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 13 violations alleged.

14 41. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 15 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 16 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 17 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 18 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

19 42. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 20 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510,
21 512, 1194, 1197, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding
22 Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following 23 amounts:

24 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, and 512;
25 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation 26 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 27 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

28 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250)

1 for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation,
2 one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts
3 established by Labor Code section 226.3].

4 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each
5 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one
6 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts
7 established by Labor Code section 558].

8 d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194 and 1197, one hundred dollars
9 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each
10 subsequent violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay 11 period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1].

12 43. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 13 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

14 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

15 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER
16 AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

17 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

18 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and 19 the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

20 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations 21 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the 22 California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2699(f);

23 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable
24 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 25 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or
