Re: Private Attorney General Act Notice Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699

Dear Mr. Swanson:

Karen Pushea ("Pushea") has retained Levinson Stockton LLP to represent her and other aggrieved employees (collectively, "Employees"). Pushea alleges that Sprouts Farmers Market, LLC (and/or any iteration of that name which appears on any of her employment records, hereinafter "Sprouts") violated California's Equal Pay Act and California's Labor Code § 1197.5 (b) by paying her and other female Employees less than its male employees for substantially similar work. Because Sprouts has violated several of California's Labor Code provisions it is liable for civil penalties under California Labor Code § 2698 et seq. This letter will serve as notice of these allegations pursuant to the Private Attorney General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"). Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3.

Sincerely,

Justin R. Stockton
