MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff Jason Sampson (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a class action settlement of wage and hour claims, including representative claims brought under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), against Letter Ride, LLC (“Defendant”). The proposed Class is defined as all persons who worked for Defendant in California as an hourly-paid non-exempt employee (“Class Members”) at any time during the period from November 27, 2019, through June 16, 2025, subject to Defendant’s option to shorten the Settlement Class Period to avoid triggering the Escalator Clause (“Class Period”). The main terms of the Settlement are as follows:

1. A Gross Settlement Amount of $370,000.00, which will be distributed to approximately 1,018 Class Members on a pro rata basis according to the total Workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Period;
2. Attorneys’ fees of up to one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently estimated to be $123,333.33) and up to $37,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation costs to Plaintiff’s Counsel;
3. A Class Representative Service Payment of up to $5,000.00 to Plaintiff;
4. Costs of settlement administration of up to $13,990.00; and
5. Allocation of $15,000.00 to PAGA penalties, seventy-five percent (75%) of which ($11,250.00) will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), and twenty-five percent (25%) of which ($3,750.00) will be paid to all persons who worked for Defendant in California as an hourly-paid non-exempt employee (“Aggrieved Employees”) at any time during the period from November 27, 2022, through June 16, 2025 (“PAGA Period”).

The Settlement meets all criteria for preliminary approval and falls within the range of reasonableness given the risks and expenses of further litigation. The Settlement was reached through informed, arm’s length bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of an experienced neutral. As such, Plaintiff requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative, appoint Plaintiff's Counsel as Class Counsel, appoint Apex Class Action LLC as the Settlement Administrator, authorize the Settlement Administrator to administer notice of the Settlement to the Class, and set a final approval hearing date.

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On November 27, 2023, Plaintiff filed this putative class action against Defendant Letter Ride, LLC ("Defendant") alleging: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; (8) failure to produce requested employment records; and (9) unfair business practices, in the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego, Case No. 37-2023-00051773-CU-OE-CTL ("Class Action"). Declaration of John G. Yslas in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement ("Yslas Decl.") at ¶ 3.

On November 15, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendant of the specific provisions the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories in support. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 4, Exhibit 1. The LWDA did not notify Plaintiff that it intended to investigate within 65 days of this written notice. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 4. Therefore, on February 2, 2024, Plaintiff filed a separate action against Defendant for civil penalties under PAGA, in the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego, Case No. 37-2024-00005107-CU-OE-CTL ("PAGA Action"). Id. On June 21, 2024, Defendant filed a petition to compel arbitration and strike class claims. Prior to the hearing on Defendant's petition to compel arbitration and strike class claims, the Parties agreed to mediate the action and the hearing was vacated. Id. Defendant represented to Plaintiff that it would re-notice the motion if the matter did not resolve at mediation. Id.

On March 18, 2025, the Parties participated in a private full-day mediation with mediator Louis Marlin ("Mr. Marlin"). Yslas Decl. at ¶ 5. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm's length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id.

1 The mediator made a proposal and the Parties accepted it. Id. The Parties negotiated the terms of 2 the Settlement over the next several months, which was finalized in December 2025. Id. at ¶ 6, 3 Exhibit 2 (“Settlement Agreement”). On December 12, 2025, Plaintiff submitted a copy of the 4 Settlement Agreement to the LWDA. Id. at ¶ 7, Exhibit 3.

5 On December 19, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint in this Class Action, 6 which added a cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 8.

7 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

8 A. Terms of the Proposed Settlement

9 The parties have agreed to settle the claims alleged in this Class Action and PAGA Action 10 for a Gross Settlement Amount of $370,000.00. Settlement Agreement at § 3.1. Subject to Court 11 approval, the following payments will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount: (1) a Class 12 Representative Service Payment of up to $5,000.00 to Plaintiff; (2) attorneys’ fees of up to one 13 third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently estimated to be $123,333.33) and 14 reimbursement of litigation costs of up to $37,000.00 to Plaintiff’s Counsel; (3) costs of settlement 15 administration of up to $13,990.00 to Apex Class Action LLC; (4) individual class payments to 16 Class Members; and (5) PAGA penalties in the amount of $15,000.00, which will be allocated 75%
17 to the LWDA ($11,250.00) and 25% to Aggrieved Employees ($3,750.00). Id. at § 3.2. After all 18 requested deductions are made, the remaining Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be 19 $175,676.67. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 21.

20 Individual class payments will be calculated based on the number of workweeks worked 21 by each Class Member during the Class Period. Id. at § 3.2.4. For tax purposes, the individual class 22 payments will be allocated 20% to wages and 80% to interest and penalties. Id. at § 3.2.4.1.
23 Defendant will separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the wage positions of 24 the individual class payments separate from the Gross Settlement Amount. Id. at 3.1.

25 Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved Employees will be calculated based on the 26 number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period. Id.
27 at § 3.2.5.1. For tax purposes, the Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated 100% to penalties.
28 Id. at § 3.2.5.2.

1 Any deductions not approved by the Court will be retained by the Settlement Administrator
2 in the Net Settlement Amount. Id. at § 3.2. Funds from any uncashed checks will be transmitted 3 by the Settlement Administrator to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in the 4 name of the Class Member thereby leaving no “unpaid residue.” Id. at § 4.4.3. None of the Gross 5 Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant. Id. at § 3.1.

6 B. Proposed Settlement Administration

7 The parties’ proposed Class Notice complies with the requirements of California Rules of 8 Court, Rule 3.766(d). See Exhibit A to Settlement Agreement. It provides information regarding 9 the nature of this lawsuit, a summary of the settlement terms, the formula used for calculating 10 individual class and PAGA payments and instructions to dispute the calculations, instructions on 11 how to opt-out of or object to the Settlement, the date, time, and location of the final approval 12 hearing, and the amounts sought for the class representative service payment, attorneys’ fees and 13 litigation costs, and settlement administration costs. See generally, id. The Class Notice also 14 notifies Class Members that they do not need to submit a claim in order to participate in the 15 Settlement and receive a payment. See id. The Settlement Administrator will mail Class Members 16 the Class Notice by first-class mail. Settlement Agreement at § 7.4.2.

17 If a Class Notice is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail the 18 Class Notice within five (5) days to the forwarding address provided by the U.S. Postal Service.
19 Id. at § 7.4.3. If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will conduct a 20 Class Member Address Search and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained.
21 Id. The deadline to opt-out of the Settlement or to submit an objection or dispute will be extended 22 by 14 days for all Class Members whose Class Notice was remailed. Id. at § 7.4.4.

23 C. Proposed Releases

24 Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the Gross Settlement Amount and all 25 employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiff, 26 Class Members, and Class Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

27 Released Class Claims: “All Participating Class Members will release all claims, rights, 28 demands, liabilities, and causes of action, alleged or which could have reasonably been alleged

1 based on the facts alleged in the Operative Class Complaint, including but not limited to: (1) failure 2 to pay minimum and straight time wages (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 3 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 1194, and 1198); (3) 4 failure to provide meal periods (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to 5 authorize and permit rest periods (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay
6 final wages at termination (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate
7 itemized wage statements (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226); (7) failure to indemnify
8 employees for expenditures (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 2802); (8) failure to produce requested 9 employment records (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226 and 1198.5); and (9) unfair business 10 practices (pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.). The enumeration of these specific 11 claims shall neither enlarge nor narrow the scope of res judicata based on the claims that were 12 asserted in the Actions or could have been asserted in the Actions based on the facts and 13 circumstances alleged in the Operative Class Complaint. The Released Class Claims are those that 14 accrued during the Class Period.” Settlement Agreement at § 5.2.

15 Released PAGA Claims: “All Aggrieved Employees will release all claims for PAGA civil 16 penalties that are alleged or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts alleged in the 17 Operative PAGA Complaint and in Plaintiff’s November 15, 2023 PAGA Notice. The Released 18 PAGA Claims are those that accrued during the PAGA Period. Plaintiff, as the proxy and agent of 19 the LWDA, will release all claims for PAGA penalties asserted in the operative PAGA Complaint 20 and the LWDA Notice letter.” Settlement Agreement at § 5.3.

21 “Released Parties” means Defendant and its officers and directors, and all of Defendant’s 22 shareholders, members, agents, predecessors, successors, owners, and assigns.” Settlement 23 Agreement at § 1.43.

24 Only Plaintiff will agree to a general release and a waiver of Civil Code § 1542. Id. at § 25 5.1.

28 ///

1 IV. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT MEETS ALL CRITERIA FOR 2 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

3 A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

4 Class certification is appropriate when there is: (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently 5 numerous class; (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members; and (3) substantial 6 benefits from certification that render proceeding as a class superior to the alternatives. Brinker 7 Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1021 (2012). Although courts still need to 8 review and consider each element for certification, a lesser standard can be used to provisionally
9 certify a settlement class. Global Minerals & Metals Corp. v. Superior Court, 113 Cal.App.4th 10 836, 859 (2003).

11 1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

12 “Ascertainability” is determined by examining the class definition and the size of the class, 13 and may also involve examining the means available to identify class members. Noel v. Thrifty 14 Payless, Inc., 7 Cal.5th 955, 980-981, 985-986 (2019). As the settlement eliminates the need for 15 trial, “the case management issues inherent in the ascertainable class determination need not be 16 confronted.” Global Minerals, 113 Cal.App.4th at 859. Further, under California law, there is no 17 minimum number of class members for maintenance of a class action. Hendershot v. Ready to Roll 18 Transp., Inc., 228 Cal.App.4th 1213, 1222 (2014). Class sizes as small as 10 have been permitted.
19 Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981), disapproved on other grounds by Noel, 20 7 Cal.5th at 986.

21 The Class here consists of all persons who worked for Defendant in California as an hourly-22 paid non-exempt employee at any time during the Class Period. See Settlement Agreement at § 23 1.5. The Class is also readily ascertainable from Defendant’s business records, because all Class 24 Members are or were employees of Defendant. Id. Defendant’s records show there are 25 approximately 1,018 Class Members, making joinder of all Class Members impracticable. Yslas 26 Decl. at ¶ 10.

27 2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists

28 The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common

1 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 2 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class. Brinker, 53 Cal.4th at 1021.

3 a. Common Questions Predominate

4 In determining whether common issues “predominate,” courts consider both plaintiff’s 5 legal theories and defendant’s affirmative defenses. Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat’l Ass’n, 59 Cal.4th 1, 6 28-29 (2014). The “predominate common questions” factor does not require that all class members 7 have identical claims. Ayala v. Antelope Valley Newspapers, Inc., 59 Cal.4th 522, 530 (2014).
8 Rather, the focus is on whether issues shared by the class members are sufficiently uniform to 9 permit class-wide assessment, and whether individual variations in proof on those issues are 10 manageable. Id.

11 Plaintiff has alleged that Defendant maintained common employment policies and/or 12 practices that unlawfully deprived Class Members of wages, meal periods, rest periods, 13 reimbursements for business expenses, accurate wage statements, timely payment of wages upon 14 separation of employment, and timely production of employment records. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11.
15 These allegations present common factual and legal questions of, inter alia, whether Defendant 16 applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, reimbursement, and 17 employment record production policies to all Class Members, whether these policies and practices
18 resulted in Labor Code violations, whether Defendant’s conduct was intentional, and whether Class
19 Members are entitled to damages and/or penalties. Id. These common questions could be resolved 20 using Class Members’ time records, payroll records, testimony from Defendant’s designated 21 representative(s), and Class Members’ testimony. Id. Therefore, the Court can and should exercise 22 its discretion to grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes.

23 b. Plaintiff is Typical of the Class

24 Typicality does not require that the representative plaintiff’s claims and those of the class 25 members be identical or perfectly aligned. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 26 228 (2001), disapproved on other grounds by Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, Inc., 4 Cal.5th 27 260, 269-280 (2018). Typicality does not require that a plaintiff’s claims be identical to those of 28 other class members, only that their claims and the defenses applicable to them are sufficiently

1 similar to those of other class members that a named plaintiff is able to adequately represent the 2 class and focus on common issues. Medraza v. Honda of North Hollywood, 166 Cal.App.4th 89, 3 99 (2008).

4 Plaintiff has alleged that he and other Class Members were employed by the same 5 Defendant and injured by Defendant's common wage and hour policies and practices, including 6 Defendant's scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, reimbursement, and 7 employment record production policies. See Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11. Through informal discovery, 8 Plaintiff confirmed that these challenged policies and practices applied to Plaintiff as well as Class 9 Members. See id. at ¶ 9. Therefore, Plaintiff's claims and Class Members' claims arise from the 10 same challenged employment policies and practices and are based on the same legal theories.

11 c. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel Will Adequately Represent the 12 Class

13 Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative and of the 14 proposed class counsel. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382. "Only a conflict that goes to the very subject 15 matter of the litigation will defeat a party's claim of representative status." Richmond v. Dart 16 Industries, 29 Cal.3d 462, 470 (1981). Only conflicts that are "irreconcilable" can defeat adequacy.
17 Nat'l Solar Equip. Owners' Ass'n v. Grumman Corp., 235 Cal.App.3d 1273, 1286 (1991). The 18 proposed representative Plaintiffs and proposed Class Counsel present no such conflict.

19 Plaintiff's interests are coextensive with Class Members' interests. Declaration of Jason 20 Sampson in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA 21 Settlement ("Sampson Decl.") at ¶ 6. Plaintiff has demonstrated an ability to advocate for the 22 interests of Class Members by initiating this lawsuit, providing information to his attorneys, 23 meeting with his attorneys regarding the claims, making himself available the day of mediation to 24 answer questions, and reviewing the proposed Settlement. Sampson Decl. at ¶ 7.

25 Likewise, Wilshire Law Firm, PLC has expended considerable time and effort on this case 26 and will continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Yslas Decl. Therefore, Plaintiff 27 should be appointed Class Representative, and his counsel should be appointed Class Counsel.

28 ///

3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

Courts have held that class treatment of wage and hour claims is clearly “superior to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.” Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc. v. Superior Court, 211 Cal.App.3d 758, 772-773 (1989). This is so because “[p]ublic policy has long favored the ‘full and prompt payment of wages due an employee.’” Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal.4th 319, 340 (2004). Here, a class action is superior to a multitude of individual lawsuits. Given the size and amount of each Class Members’ claim, Class Members have little incentive to litigate their claims on an individual basis because the out-of-pocket expenses and personal commitment necessary to litigate each claim likely outweigh any potential recovery. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 10. Therefore, a class action is the superior method for seeking relief.

B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

The moving party must demonstrate that “the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 126 (2008). “In determining whether a class settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant factors, such as the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 244-245 (internal quotations and citations omitted).

1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

A settlement is entitled to “a presumption of fairness . . . where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996). The Settlement here satisfies the first three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor at final approval after Class Members have been notified of the Settlement and provided with an

1 opportunity to object.

2 a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm's Length Negotiation

3 Courts have recognized that the involvement of a respected mediator provides a high degree
4 of assurance that the settlement is the result of arm's length bargaining. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 5 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-53 (2008). The Settlement in this matter was the product of a full-day
6 mediation session with a respected mediator. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 6. The negotiations were adversarial, 7 conducted at arm's length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their 8 clients. Id.

9 b. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery Have Been Conducted

10 Prior to attending mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the claims, 11 applicable law, and potential defenses. Id. at ¶ 9. Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the value to the class 12 claims using the documents and data Defendant produced in informal discovery. The data and 13 documents produced by Defendant included the number of Class Members and Aggrieved 14 Employees, the number of workweeks in the Class Period, and the number of pay periods in the 15 PAGA Period, the average rate of pay, documents concerning Plaintiff, wage-and-hour policy
16 documents, Defendant's handbook, a random sampling of Class Members' time and payroll 17 records, and documents regarding Defendant's financial condition. Id.

18 c. Plaintiff's Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

19 Plaintiff is represented by Wilshire Law Firm, PLC. Id. at ¶ 1. Plaintiff's Counsel has 20 extensive experience litigating wage-and-hour class actions on behalf of employees. See id. at ¶¶ 21 22-35. Plaintiff's Counsel has been involved as counsel in numerous class actions that have 22 resulted in millions of dollars in recovery. See id.

23 2. The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiff's
24 Claims and the Risks and Expense of Further Litigation

25 A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered fair 26 and reasonable. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Although 27 the exposure Plaintiff's Counsel calculated is substantial, the various risks at succeeding at class
28 certification and through trial affected the valuation of the claims for settlement purposes. Yslas

Decl. at ¶ 12. Based on an analysis of the facts and legal contentions in this case, documents and information from Defendant, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated Defendant's maximum exposure. Id. Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not having the claims certified and the risk of not prevailing at trial, even if the claims are certified. Id. Notably, throughout this litigation and at mediation, Defendant has maintained that Plaintiff and all other Class Members signed binding mutual arbitration agreements with a valid class action waiver. Id. At mediation, Defendant also claimed ongoing financial hardship since 2019 and produced financial documents in support of that contention. Id. After using the data Defendant provided, including class member timekeeping and payroll records, as well as class member demographics, with the assistance of a statistics expert, Plaintiff's Counsel created a damages model to evaluate the realistic range of potential recovery for the class. Id.

Minimum and Overtime Wages: Plaintiff's unpaid minimum and overtime wage claims were based on the allegation that Defendant required Class Members to routinely perform work duties off the clock. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 13. For example, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant required him and other Class Members to work through their meal periods, line up and wait to clock in, and communicate with management on their days off from work, all without compensation. Id. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel conservatively estimated that Class Members worked one (1) hour off the clock per week as overtime in calculating potential exposure to be approximately $1,480,606.50 for these claims (52,700 workweeks x $18.73 hourly rate x 1.5 overtime rate of pay x 1.00 hour of unpaid work per workweek). Id. Because this claim would have relied heavily on Class Member testimony and would not be evidenced in Defendant's time and payroll records, the risk of succeeding at class certification was substantial. Id. Moreover, Defendant argued that the class claims were not suitable for class certification because all Class Members entered into binding arbitration agreements with a valid class action waiver. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 20% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 30% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $88,836.39 ($1,480,606.50 x 20% x 30%). Id.

Meal Periods: Plaintiff's meal period claim was based on the allegation that Defendant

1 failed to provide Class Members with legally compliant meal periods or pay meal period premiums 2 in lieu thereof. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 14. For example, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant almost always 3 failed to provide him and other Class Members with timely uninterrupted meal periods due to 4 overwhelming business needs, severe understaffing, and unrealistic managerial expectations. Id.
5 Plaintiff's Counsel's expert found a violation rate of approximately 49.6% in Defendant's time and 6 payroll records for shifts greater than five (5) hours. Id. Therefore, potential liability for the meal 7 period claims is approximately $1,870,771.28 (201,373 shifts greater than 5 hours x $18.73 hourly 8 rate x 49.6% violation rate). Id. However, Defendant argued that any failure by Class Members to 9 take a compliant meal period or receive a meal period premium was the Class Members' own fault 10 and that Defendant had compliant meal period policies. Id. Moreover, Defendant argued that the 11 class claims were not suitable for class certification because all Class Members entered into 12 binding arbitration agreements with a valid class action waiver. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel 13 applied a risk discount based on a 30% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 40% chance 14 of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately 15 $224,492.55 ($1,870,771.28 x 30% x 40%). Id.

16 Rest Periods: Plaintiff's rest period claim was based on the allegation that Defendant failed 17 to provide Class Members with legally compliant rest periods or pay rest period premiums in lieu 18 thereof. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 15. For example, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to provide him 19 and other Class Members with timely uninterrupted rest periods due to overwhelming business 20 needs, severe understaffing, and unrealistic managerial expectations. Id. Based on these 21 allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a 100% violation rate to all shifts of 3.5 hours or longer.
22 Id. Therefore, potential liability for the rest period claims is approximately $4,133,748.46 (220,702 23 shifts of 3.5 hours or longer x $18.73 hourly rate x 100% violation rate). Id. However, Plaintiff's 24 Counsel discounted this figure to account for the difficulty of certifying and proving rest period 25 claims, particularly because rest periods do not have to be recorded and would rely exclusively on 26 Class Member testimony, and to account for the possibility of Class Members voluntarily choosing 27 to forego a rest period. Id. Moreover, Defendant argued that the class claims were not suitable for 28 class certification because all Class Members entered into binding arbitration agreements with a

1 valid class action waiver. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this claim based on a 2 20% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 20% chance of succeeding at trial, yielding 3 a realistic damage estimate of approximately $165,349.94 ($$4,133,748.46 \times 20\% \times 20\%$). Id.

4 Reimbursements: Plaintiff's reimbursement claim was based on the allegation that 5 Defendant failed to indemnify Class Members for expenses incurred as a direct result of performing 6 their job duties for Defendant. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 16. For example, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant
7 failed to reimburse him and other Class Members for personal cell phone use which was required
8 to perform their work duties. Id. For purposes of calculating Defendant's liability based on a best-9 case scenario for Plaintiff and the Class, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated that Defendant was liable to 10 each class member for $30 per pay period, or $7.50 per workweek, in unreimbursed expenses, for 11 a total amount of approximately $395,250.00 ($$7.50 \times 52,700$ workweeks). Id. However, 12 Defendant argued that the class claims were not suitable for class certification because all Class 13 Members entered into binding arbitration agreements with a valid class action waiver and that all 14 drivers were issued a personal work device they were supposed to use for business needs. Id.
15 Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this figure based on an evaluation of a 20% chance of succeeding 16 at class certification and a 30% chance of succeeding at trial to account for the difficulty of 17 certifying and proving expense reimbursement claims, yielding a realistic damage estimate of 18 approximately $23,715.00 ($$395,250.00 \times 20\% \times 30\%$). Id.

19 In sum, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated that Plaintiff's maximum recovery for the off-the-20 clock claim, meal period violations, and rest period violations (i.e., the wage claims) is 21 approximately $7.49 million, but after factoring in the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at 22 certification and trial, Plaintiff's Counsel estimates that Plaintiff's realistic estimated recovery for 23 these non-penalty wage claims is approximately $478,678.88. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 17.

24 Derivative Penalties: Plaintiff alleges that as a result of Defendant's failure to pay all wages 25 owed, Defendant owed waiting time penalties and wage statement penalties. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 18.
26 With respect to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory penalties, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated 27 that Defendant's realistic potential liability is approximately $193,891.29. Id. Defendant's 28 maximum potential liability for waiting time penalties is approximately $2,925,532.35 ([585 employees x $18.73 hourly rate x 8.00 hours/day x 30 days] + [585 employees x $18.73 hourly rate x 0.60 hours of overtime/day x 1.5 overtime rate x 30 days]) based on approximately 585 formerly employed class members during the 3-year statute of limitations period. Id. Defendant's maximum potential liability for inaccurate wage statements is approximately $1,796,000.00 (449 employees x $4,000 penalty maximum) based on approximately 449 class members who worked during the 1-year statute of limitations period and approximately 19,442 pay periods in the statutory timeframe. Id. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff's Counsel believes that it would be unrealistic to expect the Court to award the full $4,721,532.35 in statutory penalties given Defendant's defenses, the contested nature of Plaintiff's claims, the challenges of establishing willfulness as applicable, and the discretionary nature of penalties. Id. Considering that the underlying wage claims are realistically estimated to be approximately $755,433.76, such a disproportionate award would also raise due process concerns. Id. As such, Plaintiff's Counsel discounted these figures to account for the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation of approximately $117,021.29 for waiting time penalty claims ($2,925,532.35 x 20% x 20%), and approximately $76,870.00 for wage statement penalty claims ($1,796,000.00 x 20% x 20%), or approximately $193,891.29 total for statutory penalties. Id.

PAGA: For the PAGA claim, Plaintiff's Counsel determined that Defendant's potential exposure could potentially reach $1,627,800.00, assuming the initial $100 penalty would apply for each of the 16,278 weekly pay periods in the PAGA Period. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 19. However, even assuming success on the merits of each claim, PAGA gives the Court discretion to reduce penalties for a variety of reasons, including where to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory. Id. For example, the Court may choose to reduce penalties because Defendant pays on a weekly basis, artificially doubling its exposure as compared to an identical employer who pays every other week or semimonthly. As such, Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this figure to account for the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation of approximately $162,780.00 for PAGA penalties ($1,627,800.00 x 10%). Id. The settlement allocates $15,000.00 of the Gross Settlement Amount to PAGA, therefore the PAGA allocation amounts to 9% of the realistic maximum damages for PAGA penalties

1 ($15,000.00 / $162,780.00). Id.

2 Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff's Counsel predicted that the realistic maximum 3 recovery for all claims, including penalties, would be approximately $859,065.17. Yslas Decl. at 4 ¶ 20. This means that the gross settlement figure represents approximately 43% of the realistic 5 maximum recovery ($370,000.00 / $859,065.17). Id. Considering the risk and uncertainty of 6 prevailing at class certification and at trial, and potential uncertainty of successfully collecting on 7 a judgment given Defendant's financial condition, this is an excellent result for the Class. Id.
8 Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief 9 and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. Id.

10 Based on the figures in the Settlement Agreement, the Net Settlement Amount available for 11 class settlement payments is currently estimated to be $175,676.67 for approximately 1,018 Class 12 Members. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 21. As a result, each Settlement Class Member would be eligible to 13 receive an average net benefit of approximately $172.57. Id. Based on the estimated Net Settlement
14 Amount available for individual class payments and there being approximately 52,700 workweeks
15 in the Class Period, the estimated weekly valuation for individual class payments is $3.33 16 ($175,676.67 / 52,700 workweeks). Id. Based on these current estimates, the lowest estimated 17 individual class payment could be $3.33 ($3.33 x 1 week) and the highest estimated individual 18 class payment could be $965.70 ($3.33 x approximately 290 weeks in the Class Period). Id. Based 19 on these current estimates and the fact that Plaintiff worked for Defendant for approximately 111
20 weeks during the Class Period, Plaintiff's estimated individual class payment is $369.63 ($3.33 x 21 111 weeks). Id.

22 C. The Requested Service Payments are Reasonable

23 Plaintiff seeks a class representative service payment of up to $5,000.00 for accepting the 24 responsibilities of representing the interests of the Class and potential costs that were not borne by 25 any other Class Members. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.1. A named plaintiff is eligible for 26 payment that reasonably compensates him or her for undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary duty to 27 represent absent class members. See Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 28 1393 (2010); Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (2004).

1 Throughout this case, Plaintiff assisted counsel in providing information necessary to 2 prosecute the claims, meeting with counsel regarding the claims, maintaining regular contact with 3 counsel, making himself available the day of mediation to answer questions, and reviewing the 4 Settlement to ensure it was fair to the Class. Sampson Decl. at ¶ 7. No action would likely have 5 been taken by Class Members individually and no compensation would have been recovered for 6 them, but for Plaintiff's services on behalf of the Class. By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiff 7 furthered the California public policy goal of enforcing the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav- 8 On, 34 Cal.4th at 340. The requested class representative service payments are reasonable and 9 should be preliminarily approved. Plaintiff has provided declarations regarding his work performed 10 to date and will provide additional information as requested or required by the Court at final 11 approval.

12 D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

13 The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who 14 invested in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the 15 class. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees equaling one third or more of the potential 16 value of the common fund. See Chavez, 162 Cal.App.4th at 66, fn. 11 ("Empirical studies show 17 that, regardless of whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in 18 class actions average around one-third of the recovery.").

19 Plaintiff seeks appointment of Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel. The attorneys 20 performed significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting this matter with no 21 guarantee of payment. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 22. Plaintiff's Counsel seeks preliminary approval of up to 22 one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, currently estimated to be $123,333.33, and up to 23 $37,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation costs. Given the work performed in this matter, the 24 extensive information exchange, and the substantial recovery obtained on behalf of the Class, 25 Plaintiff's Counsel achieved a settlement through efficient and diligent work. See generally, Yslas 26 Decl. At final approval, Plaintiff's Counsel will fully brief the merits of its request for the award 27 of attorneys' fees and litigation costs.

28 ///

The Parties have agreed upon using Apex Class Action LLC to administer this Settlement Agreement at § 1.2. Plaintiff seeks preliminary approval of $13,990.00 for Apex Class Action LLC to administer this Settlement pursuant to Apex Class Action LLC's bid. See Yslas Decl. at ¶ 38, Exhibit 4. The services covered by this payment are extensive and necessary to carry out the Settlement administration. Id.

The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable settlement of the class claims in light of the risks presented in this case. Plaintiff has presented the materials and information necessary to demonstrate that the requirements for preliminary approval have been met, and therefore respectfully request that the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement and schedule a date for the final approval hearing.
