MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiffs Eric Schneekluth (“Plaintiff Schneekluth”), Miguel Guzman (“Plaintiff Guzman”), and Gabriel Castellanos-Lopez (“Plaintiff Castellanos-Lopez”) (collectively, “Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives”) seek preliminary approval of the Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Release (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered into by and between Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated and other aggrieved employees, on the one hand, and Defendant Mountain F. Enterprises, Inc. (“Defendant”), on the other hand. Subject to approval by the Court, Plaintiffs and Defendant (collectively, the “Parties”) have agreed to settle the lawsuits for a Maximum Settlement Amount of $2,085,000.00.¹

Plaintiffs also seek to provisionally certify the following Class for settlement purposes, which Defendant does not oppose:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant in California who worked during the Class Period (“Class” or “Class Members”).²

Class Members who do not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (“Settlement Class Member”) will receive a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount (“Individual Settlement Share”). The net payment of each Settlement Class Member’s Individual Settlement Share (“Individual Settlement Payment”) will be distributed to Settlement Class Members on a pro rata basis based upon the number of weeks each Class Member worked at least one (1) day for Defendant as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee in California during the Class Period (“Workweeks”).³

The Settlement, upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Maximum Settlement Amount, will operate to resolve the Released Class Claims of Plaintiffs and Settlement Class

² Id., § 12(d). “Class Period” is defined as the period from August 31, 2016 through the date of Preliminary Approval. See id., § 12(f).

Members and the Released PAGA Claims of Plaintiffs Miguel Guzman and Gabriel Castellanos-Lopez, PAGA Employees and, the State of California.⁴

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Defendant provides residential and commercial vegetation management, tree removal, pole clearing, site preparation, and forestry services. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendant.

On July 1 2025, Plaintiff Schneekluth filed a Class Action Complaint for Damages in the Superior Court for the County of Sacramento, thereby commencing the above-captioned lawsuit (“Action”).⁵

On September 8, 2025, Defendant filed an Answer to Plaintiff Schneekluth’s Class Action Complaint for Damages.⁶

On January 13, 2026, Plaintiff Guzman provided written notice by electronic notice to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendant of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code that were alleged to be violated (“Original Guzman PAGA Notice”).⁷

On January 13, 2026, Plaintiff Castellanos-Lopez provided written notice by electronic notice to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendant of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code that were alleged to be violated (“Original Castellanos-Lopez PAGA Notice”).⁸

On April 8, 2026, Plaintiff Schneekluth filed a First Amended Complaint for Damages and Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698, Et Seq. (“First Amended Complaint”), thereby adding Plaintiff Guzman and Plaintiff Castellanos-Lopez

as additional plaintiffs and adding a claim for civil penalties pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”).⁹

On May 11, 2026, Plaintiff Guzman provided additional written notice by electronic notice to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendant of the additional specific provisions of the California Labor Code that were alleged to be violated (“Additional Guzman PAGA Notice”).¹⁰

On May 11, 2026, Plaintiff Castellanos-Lopez provided additional written notice by electronic notice to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendant of the additional specific provisions of the California Labor Code that were alleged to be violated (“Additional Castellanos-Lopez PAGA Notice”) (collectively with the Original Guzman PAGA Notice, Original Castellanos-Lopez PAGA Notice, and Additional Guzman PAGA Notice, “PAGA Notices”).¹¹

On May 21, 2026, Plaintiffs filed a Second Amended Complaint for Damages and Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698, Et Seq. (“Operative Complaint”), thereby incorporating additional provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant into the claim for civil penalties pursuant to PAGA, on behalf of the State of California in connection with Plaintiff Guzman, Plaintiff Castellanos-Lopez and aggrieved employees.¹²

Plaintiffs’ core allegations are that Defendant has violated California wage and hour law, including but not limited to laws set forth in the California Labor Code, by engaging in a uniform practice and procedure, with respect to Plaintiff, Class Members, and PAGA Employees of, inter alia, failing to pay all overtime and minimum wages, at all or at the correct rate of pay, failing to provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium pay, failing to timely pay wages during employment and upon termination of employment, failing to provide compliant wage statements, failing to maintain requisite payroll records, and failing to reimburse necessary business expenses, and thereby engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq., and conduct giving rise to civil penalties recoverable under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq.). Plaintiffs contend that they, and the Class Members, are entitled to, inter alia, unpaid wages, penalties (including and not limited to, penalties pursuant to PAGA), and attorneys' fees and costs.

The Parties have actively litigated the Action since it was commenced on July 1, 2025. On January 28, 2026, the Parties participated in arm's-length and informed negotiations with Mediator Doug Leach, Esq. ("Mediator"), a respected mediator of complex wage and hour actions.¹³ With the aid of the mediator, the Parties reached the Settlement described herein to resolve the Action in its entirety.¹⁴

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

Under the terms of the Settlement, Defendant will pay a Maximum Settlement Amount of $2,085,000.00 to resolve the Action.¹⁵ Subject to approval by the Court, the Net Settlement Amount will be calculated by deducting the following amounts from the Maximum Settlement Amount: (1) attorneys' fees in an amount not to exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Maximum Settlement Amount (i.e., $729,750.00 if the Maximum Settlement Amount remains $2,085,000.00) and litigation costs and expenses in an amount not to exceed $20,000.00 ("Attorneys' Fees and Costs") to Class Counsel; (2) Settlement Administration Costs, which are currently estimated not to exceed $25,000.00 to the Settlement Administrator ("Settlement Administration Costs"); (3) PAGA Amount of $670,000.00 ("PAGA Amount"); and (4) payments in the amount of up to $10,000.00 to each Plaintiff ("Enhancement Payments").¹⁶ The Parties have agreed to retain ILYM Group, Inc. ("ILYM" or "Settlement Administrator") to handle the notice and settlement administration process.¹⁷

¹³ Settlement Agreement, § 10.

¹⁵ Id., § 12(v).

¹⁶ Id., §§ 17-20.

¹⁷ Id., § 12(mm).

1 The Parties have agreed that the Settlement Administrator will determine each Settlement
2 Class Member's share of the available Net Settlement Amount ("Individual Settlement Share"),
3 in accordance with the Settlement Agreement on a pro rata per Workweeks basis, which will be
4 adjusted after Final Approval to reflect the total Workweeks worked by Settlement Class
5 Member.¹⁸ The Parties have agreed that the Settlement Administrator will determine each PAGA
6 Employee's pro rata share of the 35% share of the PAGA Amount, in accordance with the 7 Settlement Agreement on a pro rata per PAGA Pay Periods basis.¹⁹

8 The Parties agree, for purposes of this Settlement, that Individual Settlement Shares will 9 be allocated 20% to wages and 80% to penalties, interest, and non-wage damages.²⁰ The 10 Settlement Administrator will withhold the employee's share of taxes and withholdings with 11 respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Share, and issue checks to Settlement
12 Class Members for their Individual Settlement Payments. Each Individual PAGA Payment will 13 be allocated as 100% penalties and will not be subjected to withholdings.²¹ Defendant will 14 provide the funds for any employer-side taxes related to the Individual Settlement Shares.²²

15 Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment checks will be negotiable
16 for one hundred eighty (180) calendar days from the date of their issuance, and thereafter, shall 17 be canceled.²³ Thereafter, funds from uncashed Individual Settlement Payment and/or Individual
18 PAGA Payment checks shall be transmitted to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property
19 Fund in the name of each Class Member and/or PAGA Employee to whom the checks were 20 issued.²⁴

21 Any Class Member may request to be excluded from the Class Settlement by mailing a
22 Request for Exclusion postmarked on or before the date that is forty-five (45) calendar days

Only Class Members who have not submitted a Request for Exclusion (i.e., Settlement Class Member) may object to the Class Settlement by submitting an Objection, to the Settlement Administrator prior to the Response Deadline or by presenting their objection orally at the Final Approval hearing, regardless of whether they submitted a written objection.²⁸

In order to dispute the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods attributable to an individual Class Member and/or PAGA Employee, that Class Member and/or PAGA Employee must submit a written letter to the Settlement Administrator, and include copies of any supporting evidence they may have.²⁹

IV. LEGAL STANDARD FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

The settlement of a class action requires approval by the court. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800; Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 1781(f). Courts review class action settlements in a two-step process: (1) an earlier conditional review by the court; and (2) a later detailed review after the period during which notice is distributed to class members for their comments or objections. Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions § 11.24 (4th Ed. 2002). Preliminary approval of a settlement does not require a court to make a final determination that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Rather, that decision is made only at the final approval stage. Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(g).

²⁵ Settlement Agreement, § 12(II).

²⁶ Ibid.

²⁷ Id., § 28.

²⁸ Id., § 29.

²⁹ Id., §§ 12(qq) & 26(c).

1 In considering a potential class settlement, a court need not reach any ultimate
2 conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute and need not
3 engage in a trial on the merits. See City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corporation (2d Cir. 1974) 495
4 F.2d 448, 456; Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Commission of City and County of San
5 Francisco (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625. Neither formal notice nor a hearing is required for 6 the trial court to grant provisional class certification and preliminary approval; the court may 7 grant such relief upon an informal application by the settling parties and may conduct any 8 necessary hearing in court or in chambers, at the court's discretion. Newberg, § 11.25.

9 V. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARY APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT

10 The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether a proposed settlement is fair
11 under the circumstances of the case. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1800. To make this fairness 12 determination, courts must consider several relevant factors, including “the strength of the 13 Plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of 14 maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of 15 discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and view of counsel, the 16 presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed 17 settlement.” Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801. “The list of factors is not exclusive and the court is 18 free to engage in a balancing and weighing of the factors depending on the circumstances of each
19 case.” Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245. Furthermore, courts 20 give “proper deference to the private consensual decision of the parties.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 21 1027 (citation omitted).

22 The proponent of the settlement has the burden to show that it is fair and reasonable.
23 Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. “A presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is 24 reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow 25 counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4)
26 the percentage of objectors is small.” Id.; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802; 7-Eleven Owners for 27 Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151.

1 A. The Settlement Resulted from Arm’s-Length Negotiations Based
2 Upon Extensive Investigation and Discovery.

3 The Parties have actively litigated the Action since it commenced on July 1, 2025. Both
4 sides investigated the veracity, strength, and scope of the claims throughout the case, and Class
5 Counsel was actively preparing the matter for class certification and trial.³⁰

6 Class Counsel conducted significant investigation and formal and informal discovery
7 regarding the facts of the case, including and not limited to, the exchange, review, and analysis
8 of a volume of documents and data from Plaintiffs, Defendant, and other sources.³¹ Class
9 Counsel served multiple sets of formal written discovery requests onto Defendant (specifically,
10 Requests for Production of Documents (Set One), Special Interrogatories (Sets One and Two), 11 and Form Interrogatories–General (Set One)).³² Additionally, Class Counsel noticed the 12 deposition of Defendant’s Persons Most Knowledgeable regarding Organizational Structure, and 13 reviewed Defendant’s Objection thereto. The volume of data and documents that Class Counsel
14 reviewed and analyzed included and was not limited to: Plaintiffs’ employment records, Class
15 Members’ time and pay data, multiple iterations of Defendant’s Employee Handbook, company
16 policy acknowledgements, internal memoranda, Defendant’s operations and employment
17 practices, forms, procedures, and policies, among other information and documents.³³ Class
18 Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiffs to gather facts and to identify potential
19 witnesses.³⁴ In addition, Class Counsel has extensive experience in California wage-and-hour
20 class actions.³⁵

21 The Parties engaged in extensive settlement negotiations and participated in a full-day
22 mediation conducted by Doug Leach, Esq., a well-respected mediator experienced in mediating
23 complex labor and employment matters.³⁶ Prior to and during the mediation and settlement negotiations, the Parties exchanged extensive information and engaged in discussions regarding their evaluations of the case and various aspects of the case, including but not limited to, the risks and delays of further litigation, including the risks and delays of further litigation, the law relating to off-the-clock theory, regular rate, meal and rest periods, PAGA representative claims, and state wage-and-hour law and enforcement, as well as the evidence produced and analyzed, and the possibility of appeals, among other things.³⁷ During all settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations at arm's length in an adversarial position.³⁸ Arriving at a settlement that was acceptable to both Parties was not easy. Both sides felt strongly about their ability to prevail at certification and at trial.³⁹ After conducting investigations, formal and informal discovery, extensive settlement negotiations, and with the aid of the mediator's evaluation, the Parties have agreed that the matter is well-suited for settlement given the legal issues relating to Plaintiffs' principal claims, as well as the costs and risks to both sides that would attend further litigation.⁴⁰

B. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate.

The Settlement represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of the matter.⁴¹ The Settlement was calculated using the information and data uncovered during litigation, case investigation, and the formal and informal exchange of information.⁴² The Settlement takes into account the potential risks and rewards inherent in any case and, in particular, in the matter at issue.⁴³ Moreover, considering all of the facts and circumstances of the lawsuit, the Settlement represents a fair, reasonable, and adequate recovery for the Class.⁴⁴

Assuming that the Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payments, PAGA Amount, and Settlement Administration Costs are approved by the Court and paid in the full amounts provided for by the Settlement, the Settlement provides for a Net Settlement Amount that is currently estimated to be $610,250.00.⁴⁵ Additionally, 35% of the PAGA Amount (i.e., PAGA Employee Amount), which is $234,500.00 out of $670,000.00, will be distributed to the PAGA Employees. The entire Net Settlement Amount will be fully paid out to the Settlement Class Member, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

The amount of each Settlement Class Member's Individual Settlement Share and each PAGA Employee's Individual PAGA Payment will be calculated based on their Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods during the Class Period and PAGA Period, respectively.⁴⁶ "An allocation formula need only have a reasonable, rational basis [to warrant approval], particularly if recommended by experienced and competent class counsel." In re American Bank Note Holographics, Inc., Securities Litigation (S.D.N.Y. 2001) 127 F.Supp.2d 418, 429-30. Here, the allocation is reasonably related to the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods actually worked for Defendant during the relevant period and should be approved.

In light of the foregoing considerations, Class Counsel believes that the Settlement as a whole is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is in the best interest of the Class Members, PAGA Employees, and the State of California.⁴⁷ Although the recommendations of Class Counsel are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the recommendations into account, particularly if Class Counsel appear to be competent, and have experience with this type of litigation, and investigation have been completed, as is the case here. Newberg, §11.47. Accordingly, the Court should grant preliminary approval of the Settlement.

C. The Settlement Is of Significant Value.

Pursuant to Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, the Parties conducted extensive formal and informal discovery and exchanged a volume of documents, data, and information prior to mediation.⁴⁸ The information that Class Counsel obtained from Plaintiffs, Defendant, and other sources allowed Class Counsel to develop valuation models in order to evaluate the potential value and merit of the claims, and perform a complete evaluation of Defendant’s defenses thereto.⁴⁹ As outlined in the Declaration of Ryan Slinger, Class Counsel performed an extensive analysis of each and every claim pursuant to Kullar prior to entering into the Settlement.⁵⁰

VI. CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS IS APPROPRIATE

The requisites for establishing class certification are met, and the Parties have stipulated to conditional certification of the Class for settlement purposes only.⁵¹ California Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 “authorizes class actions when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the Parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court.” Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, 326. California courts certify class actions where the Plaintiff identifies “both [1] an ascertainable class and [2] a well-defined community of interest among class members.” Id.

A. The Class Is Ascertainable and Sufficiently Numerous.

“Ascertainability is required in order to give notice to putative class members as to whom the judgment in the action will be res judicata.” Hicks v. Kaufman & Broad Home Corp. (2001) 89 Cal.App.4th 908, 914. “A class is ascertainable if it identifies a group of unnamed Plaintiffs by describing a set of common characteristics sufficient to allow a member of that group to identify himself or herself as having a right to recover based on the description.” Bartold v. Glendale Federal Bank (2000) 81 Cal.App.4th 816, 828. The proposed Class must also be sufficiently numerous. Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 435; see also Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934-35 (indicating that a class of 30 to 40 individuals satisfies the numerosity requirement as joinder is not practical at that point). The Class here is estimated to be approximately 3,887 individuals, as of December 9, 2025, which is sufficiently numerous.⁵² Further, all Class Members can and will be identified by Defendant to the Settlement Administrator through a review of Defendant’s employment records regarding hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant in California who worked during the Class Period. As such, the Class is ascertainable and sufficiently numerous.

⁵¹ Settlement Agreement, § 13.

⁵² Slinger Decl., ¶ 17.

B. The Share a Well-Defined Community of Interest.

The community of interest requirement “embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) Class Representative with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) Class Representative who can adequately represent the class.” Sav-On, supra, 34 Cal.4th at 326. “[T]he community of interest requirement for certification does not mandate that class members have uniform or identical claims.” Capitol People First v. Dep’t of Developmental Services (2007) 155 Cal.App.4th 676, 692 (emphasis in original). Rather, courts focus on the Defendant’s internal policies and “pattern and practice . . . in order to assess whether that common behavior toward similarly situated Plaintiff renders class certification appropriate.” Id. (citing Sav-On, 34 Cal.4th at 333).

Here, common issues of law and fact predominate as to each of the claims alleged and asserted in the Action. Based on the documents and information obtained through formal and informal discovery and exchange of information in the case, Plaintiffs contend that Class Members performed similar job duties and were subject to uniform operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures during the Class Period, including payroll and recordkeeping practices.⁵³ As a result, Plaintiffs claim that all of the Class Members were uniformly not paid all compensation due to them from Defendant during the time period at issue. Plaintiffs maintain that the outcome of this litigation would be determined by Defendant’s alleged uniform operations and employment policies and procedures that applied across its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees in California who worked during the Class Period.

As members of the Class who were subject to these same policies, practices, and procedures, Plaintiffs’ claims are typical of the Class. Moreover, Plaintiffs have no interests adverse to the Class. Plaintiff Schneekluth took steps to initiate and Plaintiffs have taken steps to maintain this action and to ensure that it comes to a fair and reasonable resolution.⁵⁴

⁵³ Slinger Decl., ¶ 18.

⁵⁴ Id., ¶ 19.

1 Importantly, Plaintiffs have retained a law firm well-versed in wage and hour class actions,
2 which has at all times represented the best interests of Plaintiffs and the Class.⁵⁵

3 Accordingly, the proposed Class shares a community of interest, and the Court should 4 certify the Class for settlement purposes only.

5 VII. APPOINTMENT OF CLASS COUNSEL AND ALLOCATION FOR
6 ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

7 Class Counsel has litigated the matter since July 1, 2025 and was actively preparing the 8 matter for class certification and trial.⁵⁶ The ongoing work has been extensive, demanding, and 9 ultimately successful in achieving a substantial settlement resolution. Class Counsel reviewed a 10 volume of documents and data⁵⁷ and also interviewed and obtained information from Plaintiffs,
11 researched applicable law, undertook damages/valuation calculations, and met and conferred
12 with Defendant's counsel regarding the pleadings and the production of documents and data
13 prior to mediation.⁵⁸ Counsel for the Parties also undertook extensive settlement discussions,
14 which included participating in mediation.⁵⁹

15 Class Counsel is well-experienced in wage-and-hour class action litigation and used that 16 experience to obtain a great result for the Class.⁶⁰

17 The Settlement establishes a Maximum Settlement Amount of $2,085,000.00, and 18 provides for Class Counsel to apply to the Court consisting of attorneys' fees in an amount not to 19 exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Maximum Settlement Amount (i.e., $729,750.00 if the 20 Maximum Settlement Amount remains $2,085,000.00) and reimbursement of actual costs and 21 expenses in an amount up to $20,000.00.⁶¹

22 The attorneys' fees provided for by the Settlement are commensurate with: (1) the risk
23 that Class Counsel took in bringing and litigating the case, (2) the extensive time, effort and

1 expense that Class Counsel dedicated to the case, (3) the skill and determination that Class
2 Counsel has shown, (4) the results that Class Counsel has achieved throughout the litigation, (5)
3 the value of the Settlement that Class Counsel has achieved for the Class Members, PAGA
4 Employees, and the State of California, and (6) the other cases that Class Counsel had to turn
5 down in order to devote its time and efforts to this matter. The proposed Class Notice provides 6 Class Members that an award of the Attorneys' Fees and Costs will be sought, and the amount
7 allocated toward the Attorneys' Fees and Costs by the Settlement.⁶²

8 Trial courts have "wide latitude" in assessing the value of attorneys' fees and their 9 decisions will "not be disturbed on appeal absent a manifest abuse of discretion." Lealao v.
10 Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 41. Indeed, it is long settled that the 11 "experienced trial judge is the best judge of the value of professional services rendered in his 12 court." Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132. California law provides that attorney
13 fee awards should be equivalent to fees paid in the legal marketplace to compensate for the result
14 achieved and risk incurred. Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503 (citing 15 Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 48-49). In Lealao, the court held that when an action leads to a 16 recovery that can be "monetized" with a reasonable degree of certainty, the trial court should 17 "ensure that the fee awarded is within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace 18 in comparable litigation." Id. at 50.

19 The California Supreme Court has confirmed the propriety of calculating and awarding 20 attorneys' fees as a percentage of a settlement that has, by litigation, been preserved or recovered
21 for the benefit of others. Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th 480 at 486 & 506. The Court has taken the 22 position that while "[t]rial courts have discretion to conduct a lodestar cross-check on a 23 percentage fee," "they also retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other 24 means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee[.]" and "[t]he percentage of 25 fund method survives in California." Id. (internal quotation marks omitted).

26
27
28 ⁶² Settlement Agreement, Exh. A.

Historically, courts have awarded fees as high as fifty percent (50%) of the settlement, depending on the circumstances of the case. Newberg, § 14.03; see also In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp. 494 (awarding attorneys’ fees in the amount of 45% of the $7.3 million settlement); Beech Cinema, Inc. v. Twentieth-Century Fox Film Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1979) 480 F.Supp. 1195 (awarding approximately 53% of the settlement as attorneys’ fees). California courts routinely approve class action attorneys’ fee awards “averag[ing] around one-third of the recovery.” Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (lower court found 20 to 40 percent range of contingency fee in marketplace was appropriate in class actions); see also Estrada v. Dr. Pepper/Seven-Up, Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. BC262247 (May 2005) (wage and hour); Moore v. IKEA, Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. BC263646 (Sept. 2006) (wage and hour).

Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁶³

Class Counsel will provide extensive evidence as to the time worked, litigation efforts, and further argument at the time of filing Plaintiffs’ Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement and application for the Attorneys’ Fees and Costs at the Final Approval Hearing. Considering the work performed and the risks incurred, the attorneys’ fees provided for by the Settlement are well within the range of reasonableness for preliminary approval.

VIII. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE IS ADEQUATE

California statutory authority and case law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning appropriate class notice. See Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 1781; Cartt v. Superior Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74. A class notice is adequate if it “present[s] a fair recital of the subject matter and proposed terms” of the Settlement. Mendoza v. United States (9th Cir. 1980) 623 F.2d 1338, 1351 (quoting Marshall v. Holiday Magic (9th Cir. 1977) 550 F.2d 1173, 1177).

“Sufficient information about the case should be provided to enable class members to make an informed decision about their participation.” Manual for Complex Litigation § 21.311

at 413 (4th ed. 2004). The proposed Class Notice describes the Settlement, the deadlines and procedures to submit an objection to the Class Settlement, submit a Request for Exclusion from the Class Settlement, and/or dispute regarding Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods, and the date and time set for the Final Approval Hearing.⁶⁴ The proposed Class Notice summarizes the proceedings to date and the terms and conditions of the Settlement in an informative and coherent manner.⁶⁵ The proposed Class Notice recognizes that the Court has not yet granted final approval of the settlement.⁶⁶ The proposed Class Notice also apprises the Class Members and PAGA Employees of, inter alia, how their Individual Settlement Share and if applicable, their Individual PAGA Payment is calculated and the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods credited to them.⁶⁷ The proposed Class Notice fulfills the requirement of neutrality in notice procedure. Newberg, at § 8.39.

Thus, the proposed Class Notice satisfies all due process requirements and complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2) and 23(e); Newberg, §§ 8.21, 8.39; Manual, §§ 21.311, 21.312; see also Cartt, supra, 50 Cal.App.3d at 960. Accordingly, the Court should approve the proposed Class Notice.

IX. APPOINTMENT OF THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR

The Parties have selected ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the Class List, the Settlement Administrator will perform an NCOA check and will mail the Class Notice to each Class Member and PAGA Employee.⁶⁸ The Settlement Administrator will skip-trace returned Class Notice and re-mail the Class Notice to the new addresses within five (5) calendar days.⁶⁹ In the case of a re-mailed Class Notice, the Response Deadline will be extended by fifteen (15) calendar days from the initial Response Deadline.⁷⁰ The Administrator will receive and process Requests for Exclusion, Objections, and any challenges to Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods.⁷¹ In addition, the Settlement Administrator will be responsible for printing, distributing, and tracking Class Notices and other documents for the Settlement; calculating and distributing payments due under the Settlement; issuing of 1099 and W-2 IRS Forms and all required tax reporting, filings, withholdings, and remittances; providing necessary reports and declarations; and other duties and responsibilities to process the Settlement and as requested by the Parties.⁷² The Settlement Administration Costs is currently estimated to be $25,000.00 and will be paid out of the Maximum Settlement Amount, subject to approval by the Court.⁷³ Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court appoint ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator and direct the mailing of the Class Notice to the Class Members and PAGA Employee in the manner outlined and based on the proposed deadlines as described herein and set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

X. ENHANCEMENT PAYMENTS

Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court appoint them as the Class Representatives and preliminarily approve the Enhancement Payments in an amount up to $10,000.00 each ($30,000.00 total).⁷⁴ It is within the Court's discretion to award payment to a Class Representative for their efforts and work. Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 299. The factors that courts may consider in determining whether to make Enhancement Payments include: (1) the risk to the Class Representative in commencing suit, both financial and otherwise; (2) the notoriety and personal difficulties encountered by the Class Representative; (3) the amount of time and effort spent by the Class Representative; (4) the duration of the litigation; and (5) the personal benefit (or lack thereof) enjoyed by the Class Representative as a result of the litigation. Id.

The Enhancement Payments are fair and appropriate. Plaintiffs spent a substantial amount of time and effort in producing relevant documents and past employment records and

1 providing the facts and evidence necessary to attempt to prove the allegations.⁷⁵ Plaintiffs were 2 available whenever Class Counsel needed them and actively tried to obtain and provide 3 information that would facilitate the pursuit of the class and PAGA claims.⁷⁶ Accordingly, it is 4 appropriate and just for Plaintiffs to receive $10,000.00 each for their services on behalf of the 5 Class, PAGA Employees, and the State of California, in addition to their individual settlement
6 payment(s).

7 XI. CONCLUSION

8 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant Preliminary 9 Approval of the Settlement; conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes; preliminary
10 appoint and designate Lawyers for Justice, PC as Class Counsel; appoint Plaintiffs Eric
11 Schneekluth, Miguel Guzman, and Gabriel Castellanos-Lopez as Class Representatives; appoint 12 ILYM Group, Inc. as Settlement Administrator; preliminarily approve the allocations for 13 Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payments, PAGA Amount, and Settlement
14 Administration Costs; approve the proposed Class Notice; direct the Settlement Administrator to 15 undertake the notice and settlement administration process in conformity with the deadlines and 16 procedures provided by the Settlement Agreement; and to schedule a Final Approval Hearing to
