Attorneys for Plaintiff CINEA SHERMAN, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF ALAMEDA

CINEA SHERMAN, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

KCE CHAMPIONS LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 26CV176750

PAGA ACTION

COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff CINEA SHERMAN ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants KCE CHAMPIONS LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively
"Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours

1 worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to 2 authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium 3 wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest 4 period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by 5 employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; statutory penalties for failure to provide 6 accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for 7 failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff experienced 8 these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved employees did as 9 well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce 10 Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 11 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

12 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 14 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 15 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 16 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars 17 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-18 based hourly non-exempt employees within California; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other 19 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations 20 throughout California, including but not limited to Alameda County.

21 III. PARTIES

22 3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 23 Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to 24 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 25 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work 26 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 27 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 28 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by

1 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Alameda from in or around August 11, 2 2025, until on or about the present.

3 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant KCE 4 CHAMPIONS LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business
5 in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto 6 were persons acting on behalf of Defendant KCE CHAMPIONS LLC in the establishment of, or 7 ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant KCE 8 CHAMPIONS LLC operates in Alameda County and employed aggrieved employees in Alameda 9 County at, without limitation, Ruby Bridges Elementary School, in the City of Alameda.

10 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 11 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 12 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 13 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 14 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

15 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
16 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 17 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 18 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 19 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 20 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

21 7. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 22 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 23 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 24 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 25 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 26 complaint.

8. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

(Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

9. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

10. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, , 1197, 1198, 2802, 6401.7, 6401.9, and the applicable Wage Orders.

11. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California Labor Code:

12. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage: Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,” which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

13. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees for all “hours worked” at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the Wage Orders.

14. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all

1 hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 2 to:

3 (a) Sometimes requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
4 based hourly non-exempt employees to perform work off-the-clock and without being paid, 5 including during what should have been their meal periods, which resulted in unpaid minimum and 6 overtime wages.

7 15. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 8 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 9 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 10 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 11 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 12 Wage Order.

13 16. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 14 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
15 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
16 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

17 17. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 18 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 19 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 20 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee 21 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 22 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 23 the benefit of the employer.'

24 18. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 25 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 26 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

27 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 28 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours

1 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 2 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

3 Labor Code section 510.

4 19. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 5 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 6 to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

7 (a) Sometimes requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
8 based hourly non-exempt employees to perform work off-the-clock and without being paid, 9 including during what should have been their meal periods, which resulted in unpaid minimum and 10 overtime wages.

11 20. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 12 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
13 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
14 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

15 21. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 16 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 17 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 18 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 19 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 20 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 21 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 22 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

23 22. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 24 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 25 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 26 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 27 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.
28

23. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 4 at §11; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

24. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 4 at §11.

25. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not limited to:

(a) Sometimes requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to perform work off-the-clock and without being paid, including during what should have been their meal periods.

(b) Sometimes failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes for every five hours worked.

(c) Sometimes failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a second uninterrupted duty-free meal period of no

1 less than thirty (30) minutes for each workday that Employee and other current and former aggrieved
2 California-based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

3 26. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 4 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 5 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 6 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 7 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

8 27. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 9 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 10 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 11 periods in compliance with California law.

12 28. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 13 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
14 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
15 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

16 29. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 17 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
18 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 19 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

20 30. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 21 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code 22 section 226.7; Wage Order 4 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes' 23 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 24 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on." Brinker
25 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 26 Wage Order 4 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
27 Wage Order 4 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement "“obligates employers to permit – 28 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc.

1 (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 2 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

3 31. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 4 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday the 5 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 6 Order 4 at § 12.

7 32. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 8 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 9 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 10 limited to:

11 (a) Sometimes failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 12 California-based hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four 13 (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof.

14 (b) Sometimes failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 15 California-based hourly non-exempt employees a third uninterrupted duty-free rest period of no less 16 than ten (10) net minutes on each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
17 California-based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

18 33. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 19 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 20 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday 21 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 22 226.7.

23 34. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 24 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 25 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 26 in compliance with California law.

27 35. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 28 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.

1 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
2 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

3 36. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 4 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 5 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 6 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 7 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

8 37. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff 9 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' necessary 10 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 11 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

12 (a) Sometimes requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 13 California-based hourly non-exempt employees to use or purchase their own tools and/or resources 14 in order to work for Defendants, including but not limited to their cell phone (including both 15 telephone use and cellular data use) and uniform for work-related purposes – without reimbursing 16 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees for 17 such use.

18 38. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 19 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.
20 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 21 compliance with California law.

22 39. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 23 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell 24 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

25 40. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 26 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
27 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
28 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 41. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 2 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 3 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 4 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 5 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 6 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 7 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7) 8 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 9 section 204(d).

10 42. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 11 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 12 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 13 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 14 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 15 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 16 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

17 43. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
18 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
19 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

20 44. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 21 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 22 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 23 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 24 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 25 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 26 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 27 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 28 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

1 45. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
2 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
3 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

4 46. Failure to Establish, Implement, and Maintain a Workplace Violence and 5 Injury Prevention Program in Compliance with Labor Code Sections 6401.7 and 6401.9: 6 California Labor Code Section 6401.7 requires every employer to establish, implement, and 7 maintain an effective injury prevention program. California Labor Code Section 6401.9 requires 8 California employers to adopt a comprehensive Workplace Violence Prevention Plan (WVPP), train 9 employees on workplace violence, log safety incidents, and conduct periodic inspections to evaluate 10 workplace violence hazards.

11 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant did not comply with Defendant's responsibilities and duties 12 under Labor Code sections 6401.7 and 6401.9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges 13 that Defendant (1) failed to establish, implement, and maintain an effective injury prevention 14 program; (2) failed to adopt a compliant Workplace Violence Prevention Plan; (3); failed to train 15 Employee and other aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees in workplace 16 violence and injury prevention; (4) failed to log safety incidents; and (5) failed to conduct compliant 17 periodic inspections. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional. Plaintiff also 18 believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable 19 for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

20 47. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 21 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 22 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 23 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 24 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 25 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 26 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 27 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 28 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive

1 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 2 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 3 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 4 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

5 48. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff 6 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 7 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 8 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 9 hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 10 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

11 49. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

12 50. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
13 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
14 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

15 51. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 16 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 17 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 18 section 2699.3.

19 52. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 20 section 2699.3. On January 9, 2026, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 21 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 22 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 23 violations alleged.

24 53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 25 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 26 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 27 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff’s PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 28 to investigate Plaintiff’s claims.

1 54. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 2 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 3 246, 510, 512, 1194, 2802, 6401.7 and 6401.9: During Plaintiff's employment and continuing 4 through the present, preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the 5 present, in the following amounts:

6 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 1198, and 7 2802; one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation 8 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 9 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

10 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 11 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each
