UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT, CALIFORNIA LABOR
CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.

Violation of California Labor Code §
2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

COMES NOW, Plaintiff CHRISTINA ADAME (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Riverside. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees took place in the State of California, including the County of Riverside.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff CHRISTINA ADAME is an individual residing in the State of California.

23 caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek 24 leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same

4 19. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, including the unknown defendants
5 identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions,
6 wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
7 employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the 8 statutory provisions set forth herein.

9 PAGA ALLEGATIONS

10 20. At all times herein set forth, California Private Attorneys General Act
11 (“PAGA”) was applicable to Plaintiff’s employment by Defendants.

12 21. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under 13 the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the 14 Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) for violations of the California
15 Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an 16 aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to 17 procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

18 22. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an 19 “aggrieved employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and 20 against whom the alleged violations were committed.

21 23. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were 22 committed against her during her time of employment, and she is, therefore, an aggrieved
23 employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by 24 California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of 25 Defendants, and the alleged violations were committed against them.

26 24. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
27 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 28 following requirements have been met:

a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter, “Employee’s Notice”) to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter, “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violations within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties, in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

25. On January 6, 2026, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendants LEARNING CARE GROUP, INC. CHILDTIME CHILDCARE, INC., LEARNING CARE GROUP (US) NO. 2, INC., THE CHILDREN’S COURTYARD, INC., TUTOR TIME LEARNING CENTERS, LLC, LA PETITE HOLDINGS, INC., EVERBROOK ACADEMY, LLC, CREATIVE KIDS LEARNING CENTERS, and MONTESSORI UNLIMITED, of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff’s notice. Plaintiff has not received any notice of Defendants’ intention to cure the alleged violations.

26. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

1 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
3 receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for 4 overtime compensation.

5 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants

7 periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission
8 (“IWC”) Wage Orders, and, thus, they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

9 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants

16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
17 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other
18 aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not
19 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other
20 aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

21 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
23 receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 24 minimum wages for all hours worked.

25 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 27 receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and

1 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not receive all such wages
2 owed to them at the time of their discharge.

4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
5 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
6 employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages
7 and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor
8 Code section 204.

9 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 11 receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but they
12 did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies
13 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and 14 the other aggrieved employees.

15 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
17 records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law,
18 but they did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

19 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 21 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

22 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other
24 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability
25 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so and 26 falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly
