1       I.     INTRODUCTION

2               This motion seeks preliminary approval of a reversionary proposed wage-and-hour class
3 action settlement by Plaintiff on behalf of herself and all current and former hourly-paid or 4 nonexempt employees who worked for Defendant Vita-Pakt Citrus Products Co. either directly, or 5 those who were placed to work for Defendant Vita-Pakt Citrus Products Co. by Randstad Inhouse
6 Services, LLC within the State of California at any time during the period from July 28, 2022,
7 through July 18, 2025 (“Class,” “Class Members,” and “Class Period”). At the time of this filing, 8 the number of Class Members is estimated to be seven hundred fourteen (714), which was 9 confirmed by Defendants Vita-Pakt Citrus Products Co. and Vita-Pakt, Inc. (“Defendant”).
10 (Declaration of Douglas Han In Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action 11 Settlement (“Han Decl.”), ¶¶ 8, 9.)

12       II.    BACKGROUND

13               On July 28, 2023, Giovanni Cervantes filed a wage-and-hour class action lawsuit in the 14 Superior Court of California, County of Kern, alleging eight (8) causes of action (Case No. BCV-
15 23-102461). (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 10.)

16               On July 28, 2023, Giovanni Cervantes provided written notice to the California Labor and 17 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 11; Exhibit 18 3.) On October 3, 2023, Giovanni Cervantes filed a representative PAGA action in the Superior
19 Court of California, County of Kern (Case No. BCV-23-103292). (Id. at ¶ 12; Exhibit 4.)

20               On April 3, 2024, pursuant to a joint stipulation, the class action causes of action were 21 dismissed, and both lawsuits were consolidated with the wage-and-hour class action lawsuit (Case
22 No. BCV-23-102461) designated as the lead case. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 13.)

23               After engaging in discovery, investigations, and negotiation, on July 15, 2024, the Parties
24 attended mediation with the mediator David Phillips but were unable to negotiate a settlement at 25 the time. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 14.)

26       ///

27       ///

On November 6, 2024, Giovanni Cervantes provided an amended written notice to the LWDA and Defendant to add Plaintiff as a named representative. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 15; Exhibit 5.) On February 25, 2025, Giovanni Cervantes and Plaintiff provided a second amended written notice to the LWDA and Defendant to identify extra employers. (Id. at ¶ 16; Exhibit 6.)

After continuing negotiations with the mediator’s assistance, on May 19, 2025, the Parties eventually negotiated a tentative settlement. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 17.)

Pursuant to the settlement, the Parties stipulated that Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint: (1) re-adding the class action causes of action that were dismissed; (2) adjusting the “aggrieved employees” definition; and (3) replacing Giovanni Cervantes with Plaintiff as the named plaintiff. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 18.)

III. INVESTIGATION/ LITIGATION HISTORY

a. Discovery, Investigation, and the Parties’ Staunchly Conflicting Positions

After initiating this matter, the Parties engaged in discovery. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 20.) Plaintiff drafted and propounded form interrogatories, special interrogatories, requests for admission, and requests for production of documents. (Ibid.) The Parties then met and conferred and agreed to engage in an informal exchange of information and attended mediation. (Ibid.)

Defendant produced documents relating to the policies, practices, and procedures. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 21.) Plaintiff also reviewed time records, pay records, and information relating to the size and scope of the Class. (Ibid.) Furthermore, Putative class members were located and interviewed to attain a better understanding of the extent and frequency of the alleged day-to-day violations taking place. (Ibid.)

Plaintiff contends – and Defendant denies – Defendant: (1) failed to provide employees with legally mandated meal and rest breaks; (2) failed to pay employees for all hours worked; (3) failed to factor non-discretionary bonuses into employees’ regular rate of pay; (4) failed to reimburse employees for necessary business expenses; (5) issued noncompliant wage statements; and (6) is liable for waiting time penalties. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 23-30.)

1                   b. The Parties Were Able to Reach an Agreement

2                   i. The Parties Attended Mediation Which Led to the Settlement

3                   The Parties attended mediation with an experienced mediator. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 31.)
4                   While the Parties did not settle at mediation, continued negotiations resulted in a settlement, and 5                   the terms were memorialized in the Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 31; Exhibits 2, 7.)

6                   ii. The Settlement Was Reached Through Arm's-Length Negotiations

7                   The Settlement Agreement was reached because of arm's-length negotiations. (Han Decl., 8                   supra, at ¶ 34.) Though cordial and professional, the settlement negotiations have always been 9                   adversarial and non-collusive in nature. (Ibid.) At the mediation, the Parties' counsel conducted
10                  extensive arm's-length settlement negotiations until an agreement was ultimately reached. (Ibid.)

11                  Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of additional proceedings 12                  necessary to continue the litigation through trial and any possible appeals. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 13                  35.) Plaintiff and Class Counsel also considered the uncertainty and risk of further litigation, 14                  potential outcome, and difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation. (Ibid.) Based on the 15                  foregoing, Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement is a fair, adequate, and 16                  reasonable settlement and is in the best interests of Class Members. (Ibid.)

17                  iii. The Settlement Is the Result of Thorough Investigation and Discovery

18                  The Parties investigated and evaluated the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and 19                  defenses before reaching the Settlement and engaged in research and discovery to support the 20                  Settlement. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 36.) The Settlement was only possible following investigation
21                  and evaluation of the relevant policies and practices, permitting Class Counsel to engage in a
22                  comprehensive analysis of liability and potential damages. (Ibid.) This case has reached the stage
23                  where the Parties understand “the strength of the case; the reasonableness of the settlement in light
24                  of the attendant risks of litigation, and in light of the best possible recovery” sufficient to support 25                  the reasonableness, adequacy, and fairness of the Settlement. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 36; Boyd v.
26                  Bechtel Corp. (N.D.Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 617.)

27                  ///

1                   c. Terms of the Settlement

2                   i. Deductions from the Settlement

3                   The Parties agreed that this matter be settled and compromised for the reversionary sum of 4 $450,000 (“Gross Settlement Amount”) that includes: (1) attorneys’ fees up to $157,500 (35% of 5 the Gross Settlement Amount); (2) attorneys’ costs up to $25,000; (3) Class Representative Service
6 Payment up to $10,000; (4) Administration Costs up to $15,000; and (5) PAGA Penalties up to 7 $30,000. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 32.)

8                   ii. Calculating Settlement Payments

9                   Assuming that all the requested payments are approved and paid in the full amounts
10 requested, the Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be $212,500. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 33.)
11 The amount to be distributed to the Claimants will equal at least fifty percent (50%) of the Net
12 Settlement Amount. (Ibid.) Any unclaimed amount above fifty percent (50%) of the Net Settlement
13 Amount will remain the exclusive property of Defendant. (Ibid.)

14                  Claimants will receive a proportionate share of the Net Settlement Amount using the 15 formula set forth in the Settlement Agreement. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 31; Exhibit 2, supra, at § 16 IV(8).) If the total Individual Settlement Payments to the Claimants equals less than fifty percent 17 (50%) of the Net Settlement Amount, the Administrator will proportionately increase the 18 Individual Settlement Payment for each Claimant to ensure that the total Individual Settlement
19 Payments equal fifty percent (50%) of the Net Settlement Amount. (Ibid.) All the Individual 20 Settlement Payments will be allocated ten percent (10%) as wages and ninety percent (90%) as 21 interest and penalties. (Id. at § IV(9).)

22                  The portion of the PAGA Penalties that is to be paid to each Aggrieved Employee shall be 23 determined using the formula set forth in the Settlement Agreement. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 31; 24 Exhibit 2, supra, at § IV(6).) Aggrieved Employees’ portion of the PAGA Penalties will be 25 allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties. (Id. at § IV(9).)

26                  ///

27                  ///

1                   iii. Notice to the Class

2           Within fourteen (14) calendar days of Preliminary Approval, Defendant will provide the 3   Class Data(s) to the Administrator. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 31; Exhibit 2, supra, at § IV(15).)
4   Within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving the Class Data(s), the Administrator will mail a
5   Notice Packet with a translation to all Class Members via regular First-Class U.S. Mail, using the 6   most current, known mailing addresses available. (Id. at § IV(17).)

7                   iv. Distribution of Funds

8           The Gross Settlement Amount will be funded pursuant to the manner and timeline set forth
9   in the Settlement Agreement. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 31; Exhibit 2, supra, at §§ IV(1), IV(2).) The 10   uncashed settlement checks will be transmitted to California Controller's Unclaimed Property
11   Fund in the name of the Claimant. (Id. at § IV(12).)

12                  v. Release of Claims

13           Effective on the date when Defendant funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount, less any
14   unclaimed funds from the Net Settlement Amount, and funds all employer's share of payroll taxes
15   owed on the wage portion of the Individual Settlement Payments, all the Settlement Class
16   Members, on behalf of themselves and their former and present representatives, agents, attorneys,
17   heirs, dependents, administrators, devisees, legatees, executors, trustees, conservators, guardians,
18   personal representatives, successors, and assigns, whether individual, class, representative, legal,
19   equitable, direct or indirect, or any other type of any capacity, shall and do forever release,
20   discharge, and agree to hold harmless the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims. (Han 21   Decl., supra, at ¶ 31; Exhibit 2, supra, at § IV(14)(b).)

22           Effective on the date when Defendant funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount, less any
23   unclaimed funds from the Net Settlement Amount, and funds all employer's share of payroll taxes
24   owed on the wage portion of the Individual Settlement Payments, all the Aggrieved Employees
25   are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their former and present representatives, agents, 26   attorneys, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from the 27   Released PAGA Claims. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 31; Exhibit 2, supra, at § IV(14)(c).)

Effective on the date when Defendant funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount, less any unclaimed funds from the Net Settlement Amount, and funds all employer's share of payroll taxes owed on the wage portion of the Individual Settlement Payments, Plaintiff and her former and present spouses, representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, dependents, administrators, devisees, legatees, executors, trustees, conservators, guardians, personal representatives, successors, and assigns whether individual, class, representative, legal, equitable, direct or indirect, or any other type of any capacity, shall and does forever generally release, discharge, and agree to hold harmless the Released Parties from the Plaintiff's Release. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 31; Exhibit 2, supra, at § IV(14)(a).) Plaintiff also expressly waives and relinquishes the provisions, rights, and benefits, if any, of section 1542 of the Civil Code. (Ibid.)

With regards to class action releases, “[A] court may release not only those claims alleged in the complaint and before the court, but also claims which ‘could have been alleged by reason of or in connection with any matter or fact set forth or referred to in’ the complaint.” (Amaro v. Anaheim Arena Management, LLC (2021) 69 Cal.App.5th 521, 537.) The scope of the releases in this case are acceptable because they are limited to the scope of the allegations in the operative complaints. Moreover, the released claims are “‘based on the identical factual predicate as that underlying the claims in the settled class action.’” (Ibid.) In other words, the released claims do not “‘go beyond the scope of the allegations in the operative complaint ... .’” (Ibid.)

d. Counsel for Both Parties Are Experienced in Similar Litigation

The Parties' counsel are experienced in wage-and-hour employment law and class actions. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 2-7; Exhibit 1.) Class Counsel have prosecuted numerous cases on behalf of employees for Labor Code violations and are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class claims, settlement versus trial on a fully informed basis, and viability of the defenses. (Ibid.) This experience instructed Class Counsel on the risks and uncertainties of further litigation and guided their determination to endorse the Settlement.<sup>1</sup> (Ibid.)

<sup>1</sup> The final factor mentioned in Dunk – the number of objectors – is not determinable until the Notice Packet has been provided to the Class Members, and the Class Members have had an

1 IV. ARGUMENT

2 a. Class Action Settlements Are Subject to Court Review

3 Rules of Court, rule 3.769 requires court approval for class action settlements.<sup>2</sup> “Before 4 final approval, the court must conduct an inquiry into the fairness of the proposed settlement.”
5 (Rules of Court, rule 3.769(g).) Rule 3.769 further requires a noticed motion for preliminary 6 approval of class settlements:

- 7 (a) A settlement or compromise of an entire class action, or a cause of action in 8 a class action, or as to a party, requires the approval of the court after 9 hearing.
10 . . .
11 (b) Any party to a settlement agreement may serve and file a written notice of 12 motion for preliminary approval of the settlement. The settlement 13 agreement and proposed notice to class members must be filed with the 14 motion, and the proposed order must be lodged with the motion.

15 Courts have discretion to approve settlements that are fair, not collusive, and consider “all 16 the normal perils of litigation as well as the additional uncertainties inherent in complex class
17 actions.” (In re Beef Industry Antitrust Litigation (5th Cir. 1979) 607 F.2d 167, 179, cert. den. sub 18 nom. Iowa Beef Processors, Inc. v. Meat Price Investigators Ass’n (1981) 452 U.S. 905.)

19 b. The Settlement Is a Reasonable Compromise of Claims

20 An understanding of the amount in controversy is an important factor in whether the 21 settlement “of the class members’ claims is reasonable in light of the strengths and weaknesses of 22 the claims and the risks of the particular litigation.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168
23 Cal.App.4th 116, 129; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186
24 Cal.App.4th 399, 409.) The most important factor in this regard is “the strength of the case for 25 _____

26 opportunity to respond. This information will be provided to the Court in conjunction with the 27 Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement.

28 <sup>2</sup> The California Supreme Court has also authorized California’s trial courts to use Federal Rule 23 and cases applying it for guidance in considering class issues. (See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal.3d 800, 821; see Green v. Obledo (1981) 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146.) Where appropriate, the Parties cite Federal Rule 23 and federal case law in addition to California law.

plaintiffs on the merits, balanced against the amount offered in settlement.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 130; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at p. 409.)

Kullar’s instructions to the court is not to “decide the merits of the case or to substitute its evaluation of the most appropriate settlement for that of the attorneys.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 133.) Kullar does not require a statement of the maximum amount the class could recover if plaintiff prevailed on all his claims, provided there is a record that allows “an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.” (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at p. 409.) “[A]s the court does when it approves a settlement as in good faith under Code of Civil Procedure § 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of reasonableness.” (Kullar, at p. 133.)

i. The Settlement Amount of $450,000 Is Fair and Reasonable

The Settlement Agreement was only possible following significant investigation and evaluation of the relevant policies and procedures, as well as the data produced, as referenced in Section III above, permitting Class Counsel to engage in a comprehensive analysis of liability and potential damages. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 36.)

The claims are predicated on the alleged: (1) failure to pay overtime wages; (2) failure to pay minimum wages; (3) failure to provide meal and rest breaks and pay applicable premium wages; (4) failure to timely pay wages; (5) failure to issue compliant wage statements; (6) failure to reimburse business expenses; (7) violation of PAGA; and (8) violation of Business & Professions Code section 17200. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 37.) Defendant vehemently denies the theories of liability. (Id. at ¶ 38.)

While Plaintiff believes that the case is suitable for certification, uncertainties with respect to certification are always present. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 39.) As the California Supreme Court ruled in Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, class certification is always a matter of the trial court’s sound discretion. (Ibid.) Decisions following Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. have reached different conclusions concerning certification of wage-and-hour claims.<sup>3</sup> (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 39.) The calculations for potential damages were discounted.

ii. The PAGA Penalties of $30,000 Is Reasonable

The provisions of the Labor Code potentially triggering PAGA penalties in this case include Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 48.) Defendant asserted that, regardless of the results of the underlying causes of action, PAGA penalties are not mandatory but permissive and discretionary. (Ibid.) Defendant also maintained that it had a strong argument it would be unjust to award maximum PAGA penalties given the law's current unsettled state. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 48; Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt. (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112 [reducing penalties by 30% under this authority].) Furthermore, Defendant argued against stacking of the PAGA penalties and denied any amounts to be owed whatsoever. Without stacking and limited to the initial violation, the PAGA penalties would be limited to about $71,400 (714 employees x $100 penalty for initial violation) on the low end and $428,400 (714 employees x $100 penalty for initial violation x 6 theories of recovery) on the high end. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 49-51.)

Plaintiff recognized the risk that any PAGA award could be reduced. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 52.) Many of the causes of action brought were also duplicative of the statutory claims. (Ibid.) Allocating $30,000 to PAGA civil penalties was reasonable given that Defendant is also paying an additional $420,000 in the class settlement. (Ibid.) When PAGA penalties are negotiated in good faith and “there is no indication that [the] amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other Class Members,” such amounts are reasonable.<sup>4</sup> (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 52.)

<sup>3</sup> (See e.g. Harris v. Superior Court (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 164 [reversing decertification of class claiming misclassification and ordering summary adjudication in favor of employees], review granted Nov. 28, 2007, (2007) 171 P.3d 545 [not cited as precedent, but rather for illustrative purposes only]; Walsh v. IKON Office Solutions, Inc. (2007) 148 Cal.App.4th 1440 [affirming decertification of class claiming misclassification]; Aguiar v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2006) 144 Cal.App.4th 121 [reversing denial of certification]; Dunbar v. Albertson's Inc. (2006) 141 Cal.App.4th 1422 [affirming denial of certification].)

Considering the defenses, supporting evidence, and position that the case is not suitable for class treatment, the Settlement Agreement is reasonable, adequate, and fair.

c. Discount Analysis Justifies the Settlement

Excluding the civil penalties, which could be completely discretionary, the total estimated potential exposure, assuming certification and prevailing at trial, would be about $5,372,497.01 on the low end and around $5,559,287.96 on the high end. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 53.)

The realistic recovery for this case is about $684,431.38 on the low end and $722,256.55 on the high end. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 61.) The Gross Settlement Amount is about eight percent (8.09%) of the maximum potential exposure and around sixty-two percent (62.30%) of the maximum realistic exposure at trial, which is a reasonable settlement. (Ibid.)

1 The only question at preliminary approval is whether the settlement is within the range of 2 possible approval. (In re General Motors Corp. Engine Interchange Litigation (7th Cir. 1979) 594
3 F.2d 1106, 1124; Acosta v. TransUnion, LLC (C.D. Cal. 2007) 240 F.R.D. 564, 575.) “The fact
4 that a proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction of the potential recovery does not, in and 5 of itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be disapproved.”
6 (Detroit v. Grinnell Corp. (2d Cir. 1974) 495 F.2d 448, 455; see also Linney v. Cellular Alaska
7 P’ship (9th Cir. 1998) 151 F.3d 1234, 1242, “[I]t is the very uncertainty of outcome in litigation
8 and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual settlements. The 9 proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what 10 might have been achieved by the negotiators”). This settlement is in line with the realistic exposure
11 if Plaintiff prevailed at trial and provides a significant recovery for the Class.

12 d. Conditional Certification of the Class Is Appropriate

13 Code of Civil Procedure section 382 “authorizes class actions ‘when the question is one of 14 a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is 15 impracticable to bring them all before the court.’” (Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 16 supra, 34 Cal.4th at p. 326.) California courts certify class actions if plaintiff identifies “both [1]
17 an ascertainable class and [2] a well-defined community of interest among class members.” (Ibid.)

18 The Class is ascertainable and numerous as to make it impracticable to join all Class
19 Members, and there are common questions of law and fact that predominate over any questions
20 affecting any individual Class Member. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 62.) Plaintiff contends that her 21 claims are typical of the claims of the Class, and Class Counsel will fairly and adequately protect 22 the interests of the Class. (Ibid.) Plaintiff asserts that the prosecution of separate actions by 23 individual Class Members would create the risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications. (Ibid.)

1                                   i. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Sufficiently Numerous

2                   “Ascertainability is required in order to give notice to putative class members as to whom 3 the judgment in the action will be res judicata.” (Hicks v. Kaufman & Broad Home Corp. (2001)
4 89 Cal.App.4th 908, 914.) “A class is ascertainable if it identifies a group of unnamed plaintiffs
5 by describing a set of common characteristics sufficient to allow a member of that group to identify 6 himself or herself as having a right to recover based on the description.” (Bartold v. Glendale
7 Federal Bank (2000) 81 Cal.App.4th 816, 828.) The proposed class must also be sufficiently 8 numerous. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 435.)

9                   This case involves approximately seven hundred fourteen (714) Class Members, meaning
10 that the Class is sufficiently numerous. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 63.) The Class Members can and 11 will be identified by Defendant’s employment records regarding hourly-paid, non-exempt persons
12 employed during the Class Period that will be provided to the Administrator. (Ibid.)

13                                   ii. Class Members Share a Well-defined Community of Interest

14                   The community of interest requirement “embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 15 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 16 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v.
17 Superior Court, supra, 34 Cal.4th at p. 326.) “[T]he community of interest requirement for 18 certification does not mandate that class members have uniform or identical claims.” (Capitol
19 People First v. Department of Developmental Services (2007) 155 Cal.App.4th 676, 692 (emphasis 20 in original).) Courts focus on the defendant’s internal policies and “pattern and practice ... in order
21 to assess whether that common behavior toward similarly situated plaintiffs renders class
22 certification appropriate.” (Ibid.) The application of each of these factors is discussed below.

23                                   1. Common Issues Predominate

24                   The “common issues” requirement “involves analysis of whether the proponent’s ‘theory 25 of recovery’ is likely to prove compatible with class treatment.” (Capitol People First v.
26 Department of Developmental Services, supra, 155 Cal.App.4th at p. 690.) In other words, courts
27 determine whether the elements necessary to establish liability are susceptible to common proof, even if the class members must individually prove their damages. (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1024). These types of claims are regularly granted class certification when the plaintiff can present evidence of common policies. (See e.g. JGC Dallas LLC (N.D.Tex. Nov. 29, 2012, Civil Action No. 3:11-CV-2743-O) 2012 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 185042 [certified collective action involving 190 dancers]; Espinoza v. Galardi South Enters. (S.D.Fla. Jan. 11, 2016, No. 14-21244-CIV-GOODMAN) 2016 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 2904 [court certified class of dancers on state law claims].)
28

Plaintiff asserts common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims alleged. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 64.) Plaintiff contends that all Class Members were subject to the same or similar employment practices, policies, and procedures described in detail above. (Ibid.)

2. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Class Claims

Typical claims rely on legal theories and facts that are substantially like those of other class members. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 46.)

Plaintiff is a former employee of Randstad Inhouse Services, LLC and alleges that she and Class Members were employed by or placed to work at the same company and injured by the common policies and practices related to the claims described above. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 65.) Plaintiff seeks relief for these claims and derivative claims on behalf of the Class. (Ibid.) Thus, Plaintiff alleges the claims arise from the same employment practices and are based on the same legal theories applicable to the Class. (Ibid.)

3. Plaintiff Is Adequate to Represent the Class

Plaintiff has proven to be an adequate class representative. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 66.) Plaintiff conducted herself diligently and responsibly in representing the Class, understands the fiduciary obligations, and actively participated in the prosecution of this case. (Ibid.) Plaintiff spent time in meetings and conferences with Class Counsel to provide them with a complete understanding of the work experience and environment. (Ibid.) Furthermore, Plaintiff has no interest averse to the interests of the other Class Members. (Ibid.)

1 Penalties, and formula for calculating their settlement payment; (6) dates of the Class Period and 2 PAGA Period; (7) instructions on how to submit valid Claim Forms, Requests for Exclusion,
3 Notices of Objection, or written disputes regarding Workweeks; (8) requirements relating to, and 4 deadlines by which the Class Member must submit Claim Forms, Requests for Exclusions, 5 Notices of Objection, and written disputes regarding Workweeks; (9) claims to be released; and 6 (10) date and time of the Final Approval Hearing. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 73.) The Notice Packet
7 will include the Claim Form that will provide pertinent information. (Id. at ¶ 74.)

8 V. CONCLUSION

9 Plaintiff submits that the Settlement is in the best interests of the Class. Plaintiff also 10 submits that the Settlement should be preliminarily approved by the Court, Class should be 11 conditionally certified for settlement purposes, and Notice Packet should be approved.
