JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff, GEORGE RICHARDSON (hereafter “Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all
2 others similarly situated, complains and alleges as follows:

3 I. INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this class and representative action based on alleged violations
5 of the California Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission Orders No. 4-2001 (hereafter
6 “the Wage Order”), and the California Business and Professions Code against CALIFORNIA
7 PREMIER OFFICE SOLUTIONS, INC., a California corporation, JESUS MANUEL 8 VARELA, an individual, and DOES 1 to 25, inclusive, (collectively “CPOS” or 9 “Defendants”).

10 2. As set forth in more detail below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants are liable to 11 him and other similarly situated workers for unpaid wages, statutory penalties, interest, and 12 related relief. These claims are based on Defendants’ failures to:

13 (A) Pay all wages, including minimum, regular, overtime and doubletime 14 wages, earned for all hours worked at the correct rates of pay;

15 (B) Provide all meal periods;

16 (C) Authorize and permit all rest breaks;

17 (D) Pay premium wages for unprovided meal periods;

18 (E) Pay premium wages for unprovided rest breaks;

19 (F) Indemnify for necessary work-related expenditures;

20 (G) Only deduct wages lawfully;

21 (H) Issue only accurate and complete itemized wage statements;

22 (I) Issue statements of sick leave available; and 23 (J) Timely pay wages during and upon termination of employment.

24 Accordingly, Plaintiff now seeks to recover unpaid wages, interest, liquidated damages, 25 restitution, statutory penalties, attorneys’ fees, costs, and related relief through this class action.

26 II. THE PARTIES

27 3. Plaintiff George Richardson is a resident of San Diego, California. At all 28 relevant times, Plaintiff was an “employee” within the meaning of Title 8 California Code of

1 Regulations Section 11040 and an “Aggrieved Employee” within the meaning of Labor Code
2 Section 2699(c).

3 4. Defendant CALIFORNIA PREMIER OFFICE SOLUTIONS, INC. is a
4 corporation organized and existing under the laws of California and a citizen of California
5 based on Plaintiff’s information and belief.

6 5. Defendant JESUS MANUEL VARELA is a citizen of California based on 7 Plaintiff’s information and belief.

8 6. In relevant part, Labor Code section 558.1 states:

9 (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer, who 10 violates, or causes to be violated, any provision regulating minimum wages or 11 hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, or violates, or causes to be violated, Sections 203, 226, 226.7, 1193.6, 1194, or 2802, may be held liable as the employer for such violation.

12 7. Based on Plaintiff’s information and belief, Defendant JESUS MANUEL 13 VARELA is a natural person, and an owner, director, officer, and/or managing agent of 14 CALIFORNIA PREMIER OFFICE SOLUTIONS, INC., who directly or indirectly, or through 15 his agent, employed or exercised control over the wages, hours, or working conditions of 16 Plaintiff and the Class (defined below). Therefore, he is liable to Plaintiff and the Class for his 17 violations of, or causing Defendants to violate, Labor Code sections 203, 226, 226.7, 1194, 18 and 2802 pursuant to Labor Code section 558.1.

19 8. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships, and extents of 20 participation in the conduct alleged herein, of the defendants sued as DOES 1-25, inclusive, but 21 is informed and believes and thereon alleges that said defendants are legally responsible for the 22 wrongful conduct alleged herein and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names.
23 Plaintiff will amend the Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE 24 defendants when ascertained.

25 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times
26 herein, all Defendants were the agents, employees and/or servants, masters or employers of the 27 remaining defendants, and in doing the things hereinafter alleged, were acting within the course 28 and scope of such agency or employment, and with the approval and ratification of each of the 1 other Defendants.

2 10. At all relevant times, in perpetrating the acts and omissions alleged herein,
3 Defendants, and each of them, acted pursuant to and in furtherance of a policy, practice, or a
4 lack of a practice which resulted in Defendants not compensating Plaintiff and the other Class
5 Members or otherwise complying with their rights in accordance with applicable California
6 labor laws as alleged herein.

7 11. At all relevant times, in perpetrating the acts and omissions alleged herein,
8 Defendants and each of them acted pursuant to and in furtherance of a policy and/or practice, 9 or lack thereof, which resulted in Defendants not paying Plaintiff and other members of the 10 below-described class in accordance with applicable laws as alleged herein.

11 III. CLASS ALLEGATIONS

12 12. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant 13 to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community 14 of interest among the persons who comprise the readily ascertainable class defined below and 15 because Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case 16 as a class action.

17 13. Class Definition: The Class is defined as follows: All persons Defendants
18 employed in California as hourly, non-exempt employees, at any time during the period
19 beginning four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment
20 is entered in this action (“Class” or “Class Members”).

21 14. Reservation of Rights: Pursuant to Rule of Court 3.765(b), Plaintiff reserves
22 the right to amend or modify the class definition with greater specificity, by further division 23 into subclasses and/or by limitation to particular issues.

24 15. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that the individual joinder
25 of each individual Class Member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the 26 exact number of Class Members, Plaintiff is informed and believes that the actual number 27 exceeds the minimum required for numerosity under California laws.

28 16. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as

1 to all Class Members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual Class
2 Members. These questions include, but are not limited to:

3 A. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages earned to Class Members for 4 all hours worked at the correct rates of pay, including minimum, regular, overtime, doubletime,
5 meal period premium and rest period premium wages;

6 B. Whether Defendants failed to provide the Class Members with all meal
7 periods in compliance with California law;

8 C. Whether Defendants failed to authorize and permit the Class Members to 9 take all rest periods in compliance with California law;

10 D. Whether Defendants failed to indemnify the Class Members for the 11 reasonable expenses they incurred during the course of performing their duties;

12 E. Whether Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide the 13 class with accurate and complete itemized wage statements;

14 F. Whether Defendants failed to provide the Class Members with paid sick 15 leave and/or statements of sick leave available;

16 G. Whether Defendants willfully failed to provide the class with timely 17 wages during and upon termination of employment;

18 H. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair competition within the meaning of 19 Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., with respect to the Class; and 20 I. Whether Class Members are entitled to restitution of money or property 21 that Defendants may have acquired from them through alleged Labor Code violations.

22 17. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other Class Members' claims.
23 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants have a policy and/or 24 practice, or lack thereof, which resulted in Defendants failing to comply with the California
25 Labor Code, the Wage Order, and the Business and Professions Code.

26 18. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative 27 in that he has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise in conflict with, the interests of 28 absent Class Members. Plaintiff is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of

1 Class Members. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of Class
2 Members.

3 19. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel are adequate class counsel in 4 that they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent Class Members, are 5 experienced in class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action
6 on behalf of Plaintiff and absent Class Members.

7 20. Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair
8 and efficient adjudication of Class Members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties and 9 the Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to 10 simultaneously and efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the 11 unnecessary duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail.
12 In addition, the monetary amounts due to many individual Class Members are likely to be 13 relatively small and would thus make it difficult, if not impossible, for individual Class
14 Members to both seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a class action will serve an important
15 public interest by permitting Class Members to effectively pursue the recovery of monies 16 owed to them. Further, a class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent or 17 contradictory judgments inherent in individual litigation.

18 IV. STATEMENT OF FACTS

19 21. The Wage Order applies to "all persons employed in professional, technical, 20 clerical, mechanical, and similar occupations whether paid on a time, piece rate, commission, 21 or other basis[.]" § 1. At all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants 22 employed Plaintiff and the Class Members as furniture installers. Accordingly, Plaintiff and 23 the Class Members are entitled to the protections provided under the Wage Order.

24 22. Defendants first began to employ Plaintiff in or around November 2020 as a 25 furniture installer in San Diego, California. Defendants have continuously employed Plaintiff 26 in that capacity since then. Plaintiff generally worked five days a week, from approximately 27 5:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m./3:00 p.m., and his latest rate of pay was approximately $18.00 per hour.
28 In addition, Defendants also paid Plaintiff in cash.

1 23. At all relevant times, Defendants issued wages to Plaintiff and all of the other
2 Class Members on a weekly basis and paid them by the hour. At all relevant times, Defendants 3 classified Plaintiff and all of the other Class Members as non-exempt employees entitled to the 4 protections of the Labor Code and the Wage Order. Defendants employed Plaintiff and all of 5 the Class Members more than six, eight, ten, and twelve hours per day.

6 24. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members for all time worked 7 or subject to their control. Plaintiff and the other Class Members were not paid for all hours
8 worked and consistently worked “off the clock” in that the company had a policy and practice 9 of time shaving and rounding down work hours to the detriment of employees, which is akin
10 to a minimum wage violation. The total hours worked on Plaintiff’s and the other Class 11 Members’ paystubs was not accurate and did not reflect the actual amount of hours they 12 worked during the pay period. Moreover, Defendants management would often call/text 13 Plaintiff and other Class Members about work-related matters prior to the start of the shifts or 14 after their shifts had ended.

15 25. Due to the above “off the clock” violations, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff
16 and the Class Members properly-calculated overtime/double time wages. The Class Members’ 17 actual work hours, which included the “off the clock” work as described above, entitled them 18 to overtime/doubletime, however, it was not company policy to keep accurate track of all 19 hours worked and to pay employees the accurate amount of overtime/doubletime, especially 20 since the “off the clock” work was not factored into the equation. Defendants did not always 21 pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members 1.5 times their hourly rate of pay when they worked 22 more than 8 hours per day or double their rates when they worked more than 12 hours per day.
23 Furthermore, any incentive payments and/or bonus payments were not factored into 24 employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of deciphering the correct overtime rate of pay. In 25 addition, any bonus and/or incentive payments were not factored into the correct meal and rest 26 break premium pay per Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 858, 863.

27 26. Defendants failed to provide all compliant meal periods and authorize and 28 permit all compliant rest periods to which Plaintiff and the other Class Members were entitled.

1 Plaintiff and other Class Members were entitled to take off-duty, uninterrupted 30-minute
2 meal periods before the fifth and tenth hours of work and to take uninterrupted 10-minute rest
3 periods for every four hours or major fraction thereof worked. However, Plaintiff and the 4 Class Members did not receive compliant meal periods due to the workload/press of business.
5 Plaintiff and the other Class Members' meal periods were often late, past the fifth hour, due to 6 the workload. However, Defendants management would alter Plaintiff's and the Class
7 Members' time sheets (handwritten) to either add in a meal period that they never took or to 8 change the time of the meal period to reflect that it was taken on time. It is important to note
9 that Defendants did not have an electronic timekeeping system in place wherein the employees
10 would clock in/out for work or in/out for their meal periods. Defendants used paper sign in 11 sheets that Plaintiff and the other Class Members often did not often fill out on their own.
12 Moreover, when Plaintiff worked 13-hour workdays, he would not receive a second meal
13 period. On information and belief, Plaintiff has not signed a meal period waiver. Finally, even 14 when Plaintiff and other Class Members would try to take their meal period or rest break,
15 Defendants management or other employees would frequently interrupt them with questions
16 about work related matters. On information and belief, Defendants did not provide premium
17 wages for these meal and rest break violations; if Defendants did provide premium wages, 18 they were not paid at the correct rate, as explained above.

19 27. Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for 20 business expenses they incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties.
21 Defendants required Plaintiff to use his personal mobile phone to communicate with 22 Defendants management concerning work matters, as well as use his own personal vehicle to 23 travel to some job locations. However, Defendants did not reimburse Plaintiff and the other 24 Class Members for these gas, mileage, and mobile phone expenses. Accordingly, Defendants 25 was in violation of California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

26 28. At all relevant times, Defendants unlawfully deducted wages belonging to 27 Plaintiff and the other Class Members, including but not limited to, for uniform expenses.

28 29. Defendants failed to pay its employees all wages due to them within any time

1 period specified by California Labor Code section 204, including the minimum wages and 2 overtime as described above as well as meal/rest break premiums. Defendants did not provide 3 Plaintiff and other Class Members accurate, itemized wage statements. Wage statements must 4 include, among other things, total hours worked by the employee. Labor Code § 226(a)(2).
5 Defendants issued wage statements that inaccurately reflected total hours worked, gross and 6 net wages earned, and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate because of Defendants'
7 failure to properly pay wages as explained herein. Labor Code §§ 226(a)(1), (2), (5), (9).
8 Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records as to the hours worked daily by employees
9 also constitutes a violation of Labor Code section 1174(d).

10 30. Finally, because Defendants did not properly pay all wages earned as explained 11 herein, Defendants also failed to pay final wages owed to Plaintiff and other Class Members in 12 violation of Labor Code section 203. These earned but unpaid wages include minimum wages
13 and compensation for all hours worked, overtime compensation, premium pay for missed meal 14 and rest breaks, and business expense reimbursement, among others.

15 31. Moreover, Defendants failed to provide paid sick leave and/or correctly 16 calculated sick leave wages to Plaintiff and the other Class Members and failed to provide 17 Plaintiff and all of the other Class Members with statements of sick leave available, or paid
18 time off in lieu of sick leave, in violation of Labor Code sections 233 and 246.

19 32. Defendants have also violated Labor Code section 558 and engaged in business 20 practices which violate Business and Professions Code Section 17200.

21 33. For the reasons stated herein, Plaintiff alleges that as a result of Defendants' 22 unlawful practices and policies, Plaintiff and the Class Members were:

- 23 A. Not provided with all off duty meal periods;
- 24 B. Not authorized and permitted to take all rest break periods;
- 25 C. Not paid one hour's pay for each workday in which Defendants failed to 26 authorize and permit them to take one or more timely rest periods;
- 27 D. Not paid one hour's pay for each workday in which Defendants failed to 28 provide them with one or more timely meal periods;

1 E. Not paid all wages earned, including, but not limited to, minimum,
2 regular, overtime, and doubletime wages for work performed while clocked out;

3 F. Not indemnified for all necessary business expenditures incurred during 4 the discharge of their duties;

5 G. Not provided with accurate and complete wage statements;

6 H. Not provided with paid sick leave and/or statements of sick leave 7 available; and

8 I. Not timely paid all earned and unpaid wages at the time their 9 employment ended.

10 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

11 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES EARNED FOR ALL HOURS WORKED

12 AT THE CORRECT RATES OF PAY

13 (Lab. Code §§ 221, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198)

14 (By Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Class, against all Defendants)

15 34. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

16 35. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Class Members have been employees of 17 Defendants and entitled to the benefits and protections of California Labor Code §§ 221, 510,
18 1194, 1197, and 1198, and the Wage Order.

19 36. Section 2(K) of the Wage Order defines “hours worked” as “the time during 20 which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the 21 employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.”

22 37. Section 3 of the Wage Order states:

23 (A) Daily Overtime - General Provisions

24 (1) The following overtime provisions are applicable to 25 employees 18 years of age or over and to employees 16 or 26 17 years of age who are not required by law to attend 27 school and are not otherwise prohibited by law from 28 engaging in the subject work. Such employees shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or more than 40 hours in any workweek unless the employee receives one and one-half (1 ½) times such employee’s regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 hours in

1 the workweek. Eight (8) hours of labor constitutes a day's 2 work. Employment beyond eight (8) hours in any 3 workday or more than six (6) days in any workweek is 4 permissible provided the employee is compensated for 5 such overtime at not less than:

6 (a) One and one-half (1 ½) times the employee's
7 regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess 8 of eight (8) hours up to and including 12 hours in 9 any workday, and for the first eight (8) hours
10 worked on the seventh (7th) consecutive day of 11 work in a workweek.

12 (b) Double the employee's regular rate of pay for 13 all hours worked in excess of 12 hours in any 14 workday and for all hours worked in excess of 15 eight (8) hours on the seventh (7th) consecutive 16 day of work in a workweek.

17 (c) The overtime rate of compensation required to 18 be paid to a nonexempt full-time salaried 19 employee shall be computed by using the 20 employee's regular hourly salary as one-fortieth
21 (1/40) of the employee's weekly salary.

22 38. Section 4 of the Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt employees 23 at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all hours that 24 an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

25 39. Labor Code section 510 states:

26 Eight hours of labor constitutes a day's work. Any work in excess of eight hours 27 in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek and 28 the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee. Nothing in this section requires an employer to combine more than one rate of overtime compensation in order to calculate the amount to be paid to an employee for any hour of overtime work.

40. California Labor Code § 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an employee to work for less than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage

1 Order.

2 41. California Labor Code § 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an 3 employee less than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Order for all hours
4 worked during a payroll period.

5 42. California Labor Code § 1198 makes it unlawful for an employer to employ an 6 employee under conditions that violate the Wage Order.

7 43. In conjunction, these provisions of the California Labor Code require employers
8 to pay non-exempt employees no less than their agreed-upon or statutorily mandated wage rates 9 for all hours worked, including unrecorded hours when the employer knew or reasonably should 10 have known that employees were working during those hours. (See Morillion v. Royal Packing 11 Co. (2000) 22 Cal.4th 575, 585.)

12 44. With respect to overtime wages, the regular rate of pay under California law 13 must include “all remuneration for employment paid to, on behalf of, the employee.” O.L.
14 2002.06.14 (quoting 29 U.S.C. § 207E). This requirement includes, but is not limited to 15 bonuses. See, e.g., Huntington Memorial Hosp. v. Superior Court (2005) 131 Cal. App. 4th 893, 16 904–05. Bonuses must be included in the regular rate whether they are the sole source of the 17 employee’s compensation or are in addition to a guaranteed salary or hourly rate. 29 C.F.R. §§
18 778.117, 778.208. See Oliver v. Mercy Med. Ctr., Inc. (9th Cir. 1982) 695 F.2d 379.

19 45. As described above, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations
20 period, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Class Members for all hours worked, 21 including, but not limited to minimum, regular, overtime and doubletime wages for all 22 minimum, regular, overtime and doubletime hours, respectively, that they worked at the 23 correct rates of pay.

24 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times,
25 Defendants maintained a policy and/or practice, or lack thereof, which resulted in Defendants’
26 failure to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked at the correct
27 rates of pay as required by California law.

28 ///

1 A. UNLAWFUL WAGE DEDUCTIONS

2 47. Under Labor Code § 221, “It shall be unlawful for any employer to collect or 3 receive from an employee any part of wages theretofore paid by said employer to said
4 employee.” The Defendants deducted wages from the wages earned by Plaintiff and all of the 5 other Class Members for in violation of Labor Code § 221.

6 48. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times,
7 Defendants maintained a policy and/or practice, or lack thereof, which resulted in Defendants’
8 deduction of wages belonging to Plaintiff and the other Class Members in violation of 9 California law.

10 B. FAILURE TO PROVIDE SICK LEAVE

11 49. Labor Code section 233 states
12 Any employer who provides sick leave for employees shall permit an employee 13 to use in any calendar year the employee’s accrued and available sick leave 14 entitlement, in an amount not less than the sick leave that would be accrued during six months at the employee’s then current rate of entitlement, for the reasons specified in subdivision (a) of Section 246.5.

15 50. Labor Code section 246(a)(1) states
16 An employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works in California for the same 17 employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days as specified in this section.

18 51. Labor Code section 246.5 states
19 (a) Upon the oral or written request of an employee, an employer
20 shall provide paid sick days for the following purposes:

21 (1) Diagnosis, care, or treatment of an existing health 22 condition of, or preventive care for, an employee or an 23 employee’s family member.

24 ...

25 (c) (1) An employer shall not deny an employee the right to use accrued
26 sick days ...

27 52. The Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class Members with paid 28 sick leave.

53. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times,

1 Defendants maintained a policy and/or practice, or lack thereof, which resulted in Defendants'
2 failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members sick leave as required by California law.

3 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

4 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

5 (Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 1198)

6 (By Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Class, against all Defendants)

7 54. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

8 55. At all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Plaintiff and the 9 Class Members have been employees of Defendants and entitled to the benefits and 10 protections of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 1198, and the Wage Order.

11 56. In relevant part, Labor Code § 1198 states,

12 “The maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor
13 fixed by the commission shall be the maximum hours of work and the 14 standard conditions of labor for employees. The employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.”

15 57. In relevant part, Section 12 of the Wage Order states:

16 Rest Periods:

17 (A) Every employer shall authorize and permit all employees 18 to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the 19 middle of each work period. The authorized rest period time
20 shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate often
(10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction 21 thereof. However, a rest period need not be authorized for 22 employees whose total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 1/2) hours. Authorized rest period time shall be counted as hours worked for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

23 (B) If an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period
24 in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Order, the 25 employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the 26 employee’s regular rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

27 58. In addition, Labor Code Section 226.7 states

28 (b) An employer shall not require an employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable

1 statute, or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial
2 Welfare Commission, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards
Board, or the Division of Occupational Safety and Health.

3 (c) If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal or rest or 4 recovery period in accordance with a state law, including, but not 5 limited to, an applicable statute or applicable regulation, standard, or 6 order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the Occupational Safety
7 and Health Standards Board, or the Division of Occupational Safety and Health, the employer shall pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal or rest or recovery period is not provided.

8 59. Pursuant to the Wage Order, Plaintiff and the Class Members were entitled to 9 be provided with net rest breaks of at least ten minutes for each four-hour period of work, or 10 major fraction thereof.

11 60. Defendants intentionally failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Class 12 Members to take all 10-minute rest periods free from any work duties in accordance with the 13 Wage Order.

14 61. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the 15 Class Members to take all timely rest periods. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay premium 16 wages to Plaintiff and the Class Members for days on which they failed to authorize and 17 permit Plaintiff and the other Class Members to take timely rest periods.

18 62. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the 19 Class Members to take ten-minute, paid, duty-free rest breaks every four hours worked or 20 major fraction thereof. Defendants did not seek an exemption from the rest period protections 21 of the Wage Order from the California Division of Labor Standards Enforcement. Moreover, 22 Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class Members premium wages on workdays they 23 failed to authorize and permit them to take 10-minute rest periods every four hours worked or 24 major fraction thereof.

25 63. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times
26 within the applicable limitations period, Defendants had a policy, practice, or a lack of a
27 policy which resulted in Defendants not authorizing and permitting Plaintiff and the Class
28 Members to take all rest breaks required by California law.

1 64. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with all required rest breaks in 2 accordance with the Wage Order. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at 3 relevant times within the applicable limitations period, Defendants had a policy, practice, or a
4 lack of a policy which resulted in Defendants not providing the Class Members with all rest
5 breaks required by California law.

6 65. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the additional wages required by California
7 Labor Code § 226.7 for all rest breaks not provided to him. Plaintiff is informed and believes
8 and thereon alleges that, at relevant times within the applicable limitations period, Defendants 9 have maintained a policy, practice, or a lack of a policy which resulted in Defendants not 10 providing the Class Members with additional wages for all rest breaks not provided to them as 11 required by California Labor Code § 226.7.

12 66. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and the Class Members 13 have suffered damages in amounts subject to proof to the extent they were not paid additional 14 wages owed for all rest breaks not provided to them.

15 67. By reason of the above, Plaintiff and the Class Members are entitled to 16 premium wages for workdays in which one or more rest breaks were not provided to them
17 pursuant to California Labor Code § 226.7.

18 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

19 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

20 (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 1198)

21 (By Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Class, against all Defendants)

22 68. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

23 69. At all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Plaintiff and the 24 Class Members have been employees of Defendants and entitled to the benefits and 25 protections of California Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 and 1198, and the Wage Order.

26 70. In relevant part, Labor Code § 1198 states,
27 “The maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor 28 fixed by the commission shall be the maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor for employees. The employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.”

71. In relevant part, Labor Code Section 512 states

“An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.”

72. In relevant part, Section 11 of the Wage Order states:

Meal Periods:

(A) No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee...

(B) If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided.

73. In relevant part, California Labor Code § 226.7 states:

(b) An employer shall not require an employee to work during a meal or rest period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute, or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board, or the Division of Occupational Safety and Health.

(c) If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period or rest period in accordance with a state law, including, but not limited to, an applicable statute or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board, or the Division of Occupational Safety and Health, the employer shall pay the employee one

1 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 2 compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided.

3 74. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 512 and the Wage Order, Plaintiff and the 4 Class Members were entitled to be provided with uninterrupted meal periods of at least 30
5 minutes for each day they worked five or more hours. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 6 512, they were also entitled to a second 30-minute meal period when they worked more than 7 ten (10) hours in a workday.

8 75. As described above, Defendants intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and the 9 Class Members with all required 30-minute duty free meal periods in accordance with the 10 Wage Order. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay premium wages for days on which they 11 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other Class Members with timely meal periods.

12 76. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times
13 within the applicable limitations period, Defendants had a policy, practice, or a lack of a
14 policy which resulted in Defendants not providing the and the Class Members with all timely 15 and off-duty meal periods required by California law.

16 77. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and the Class Members 17 have suffered damages in amounts subject to proof to the extent they were not paid additional 18 wages owed for all meal periods not provided to them.

19 78. By reason of the above, Plaintiff and the Class Members are entitled to 20 premium wages for workdays in which one or more meal periods were not provided to them
21 pursuant to California Labor Code § 226.7.

22 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY

24 (Lab. Code §§ 1198 & 2802)

25 (By Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Class, against all Defendants)

26 79. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

27 80. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Class Members were employees of 28 Defendants and entitled to the benefits and protections of the California Labor Code §§ 1198

1 and 2802, and the Wage Order.

2 81. In pertinent part, California Labor Code § 2802(a) states: “An employer shall 3 indemnify his or her employee[s] for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in 4 direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties.” Additionally, the Wage Order states,

5 (A) When uniforms are required by the employer to be worn by the employee as 6 a condition of employment, such uniforms shall be provided and maintained by the employer.

7 ...

8 (B) When tools or equipment are required by the employer or are necessary to the performance of a job, such tools and equipment shall be provided and 9 maintained by the employer, except that an employee whose wages are at least 10 two (2) times the minimum wage provided herein may be required to provide and maintain hand tools and equipment customarily required by the particular 11 trade or craft in conformity with Labor Code Section 2802.

12 Wage Order, § 9(A) and (B).

13 82. California Labor Code § 1198 prohibits employers from employing their 14 employees under conditions prohibited by the Wage Order.

15 83. As described above, at all relevant times, Defendants required Plaintiff and the 16 Class Members to incur certain business expenses in the course of performing their duties, 17 including but not limited to purchasing uniforms (anti-slip shoes) and use of their own personal 18 mobile phones. However, Defendants did not provide these items and did not reimburse 19 Plaintiff and the Class Members for these business expenses.

20 84. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, 21 Defendants have maintained a policy, practice, or a lack of a policy which resulted in 22 Defendants’ failure to indemnify Plaintiff and the Class Members for the reasonable expenses 23 they incurred during the course of performing their duties.

24 85. Accordingly, with respect to this cause of action, on behalf of himself and the 25 Class Members, Plaintiff prays for the above stated relief, costs, and all reasonable attorneys’
26 fees pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(c) and as otherwise permitted by law.

1 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

3 (California Labor Code Section 226)

4 (By Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Class, against all Defendants)

5 86. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

6 87. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class Members
7 were entitled to receive, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment of wages, an accurate
8 itemized statement showing:

9 A. Gross wages earned;

10 B. Total hours worked by the employee, except for any employee whose 11 compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of overtime under 12 subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission;

13 C. The number of piece rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 14 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis;

15 D. All deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the 16 Employee may be aggregated and shown as one item;

17 E. Net wages earned;

18 F. The inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid;

19 G. The name of the employee and his or her social security number, except 20 that by January 1, 2008, only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an 21 employee identification number other than a social security number may be shown on the 22 itemized statement;

23 H. The name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and 24 I. All applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 25 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

26 88. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226, an employee is deemed to suffer 27 injury if the employer fails to provide a wage statement. Also, an employee is deemed to 28 suffer injury if the employer fails to provide accurate and complete information as required by

1 California Labor Code § 226(a) and the employee cannot “promptly and easily determine”
2 from the wage statement alone one or more of the following:

3 A. The amount of the gross wages or net wages paid to the employee during 4 the pay period or any of the other information required to be provided on the itemized wage 5 statement pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(a);

6 B. Which deductions the employer made from gross wages to determine the 7 net wages paid to the employee during the pay period;

8 C. The name and address of the employer and, if the employer is a farm 9 labor contractor, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682 of the California Labor Code, the 10 name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the employer during the pay 11 period;

12 D. The name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social 13 security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number; and 14 E. The number of piece-rate units earned and the piece rate.

15 89. “Promptly and easily determine,” as stated in California Labor Code § 226(e), 16 means a reasonable person would be able to readily ascertain the information without 17 reference to other documents or information.

18 90. As alleged herein, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, 19 Defendants violated California Labor Code section 226 because they did not properly and 20 accurately itemize each employee’s gross wages earned, net wages earned, the total hours 21 worked, the corresponding number of hours worked at each rate by the employee and other 22 requirements of California Labor Code section 226. Defendants failed to state in the wage 23 statements they issued to Plaintiff and the other Class Members all their hours worked and 24 wages earned, including, but not limited to, regular and overtime wages for work they 25 performed off-the-clock after clocking-out (as described above). Defendants knowingly and 26 intentionally did not issue either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the 27 employee’s wages, or separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, statements to 28 Plaintiff and the Class Members that state all overtime wages earned, all minimum wages

1 earned, all regular wages earned, all meal period premium wages earned, all rest break
2 premium wages earned, gross wages earned, net wages earned, all hourly rates, and all hours
3 worked at each rate of pay.

4 91. Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff and the other Class Members with 5 accurate wage statements was knowing and intentional. Defendants had the ability to provide 6 Plaintiff and the other Class Members with accurate wage statements but intentionally
7 provided wage statements that Defendants knew were not accurate.

8 92. As a result of being provided with inaccurate wage statements by Defendants, 9 Plaintiff and the other Class Members have suffered injury. Their legal rights to receive 10 accurate wage statements were violated and they were misled about the amount of wages they 11 had actually earned and were owed. In addition, the absence of accurate information on their 12 wage statements prevented immediate challenges to Defendants' unlawful pay practices, has 13 required discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed, 14 has caused difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records and/or has 15 led to the submission of inaccurate information about wages to state and federal government 16 agencies. Further, Plaintiff and the other Class Members were not able to ascertain from the 17 wage statements whether Defendants complied with their obligations under California Labor
18 Code section 226(a).

19 93. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e), Plaintiff and the class are entitled 20 to recover the greater of actual damages, or penalties of fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay
21 period in which a violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) occurred and one hundred 22 dollars for each violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) in a subsequent pay period, not to 23 exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000) per class member, and are also 24 entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

1 been willful in that, at all relevant times, Defendants have deliberately maintained policies and 2 practices that violate the requirements of the Labor Code and the Wage Order, even though at 3 all relevant times, they have had the ability to comply with those legal requirements.

4 102. Pursuant to Labor Code § 203, Plaintiffs seeks waiting time penalties on behalf
5 of himself and the Class, in amounts subject to proof not to exceed 30 days of waiting time
6 penalties for each Class Member.

7 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 CIVIL PENALTIES

9 (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

10 (By Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against all Defendants)

11 103. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

12 104. The “Aggrieved Employees” are all members of the Class defined above who 13 Defendants employed during the period beginning July 22, 2022 and ending on the date that 14 final judgment is entered in this action.

15 105. Labor Code § 204 states

16 (a) All wages, other than those mentioned in Section 201, 201.3, 202, 204.1, 17 or 204.2, earned by any person in any employment are due and payable twice 18 during each calendar month, on days designated in advance by the employer as 19 the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, 20 of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. ...

21 (b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, all wages 22 earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than 23 the payday for the next regular payroll period.

24 (2) An employer is in compliance with the requirements of subdivision (a) 25 of Section 226 relating to total hours worked by the employee, if hours worked 26 in excess of the normal work period during the current pay period are itemized 27 as corrections on the paystub for the next regular pay period. Any corrections set out in a subsequently issued paystub shall state the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employer is correcting its initial report of hours worked.

28 (c) However, when employees are covered by a collective bargaining agreement that provides different pay arrangements, those arrangements shall

1 apply to the covered employees.

2 (d) The requirements of this section shall be deemed satisfied by the 3 payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages
4 are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll
5 period.

6 106. Defendants paid wages to employees on regular intervals. Defendants,
7 however, failed to pay Plaintiff on such intervals for all wages earned and all hours worked.
8 On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants also failed to pay the Aggrieved 9 Employees on such intervals for all wages earned and all hours worked.

10 107. Labor Code section 1174, which also pertains to recordkeeping, states:

11 Every person employing labor in this state shall 12 ...

13 (c) Keep a record showing the names and addresses of all employees employed 14 and the ages of all minors.

15 (d) Keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at 16 which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked 17 daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by 18 and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective 19 plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules 20 established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on 21 file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 22 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate 23 basis, piece-rate units earned.

24 108. Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and all of the other Aggrieved
25 Employees for all hours worked at the correct rates of pay, including all minimum wages
26 earned, all regular wages earned, all overtime wages earned, all doubletime wages earned, all 27 meal period premium wages earned, all rest break premium wages earned, gross wages earned, 28 net wages earned, and related compensation. As a result, Defendants have failed to accurately maintain all records required by section 1174 and the Wage Order, including but not limited to Plaintiff and all of the other Aggrieved Employees' total hours worked, total wages paid, and applicable hourly rates during each payroll period.

 109. Labor Code § 246(i) states,

 An employer shall provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available, or paid time off leave an employer provides in lieu of sick leave, for use on either the employee's itemized wage statement described in Section 226 or in a separate writing provided on the designated pay date with the employee's payment of wages.

110. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and all of the other Aggrieved Employees with an itemized wage statement or separate writing that set forth the amount of paid sick leave available.

111. During the applicable time period, Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 98.6, 201, 202, 203, 204, 221, 226, 226.7, 233, 246, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1102.5, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1198, and 2802.

112. California Labor Code §§ 2699(a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of themselves and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures specified in California Labor Code § 2699.3.

113. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff and the Class Members are entitled to recover civil penalties for each of the Defendants' violations of California Labor Code §§ 98.6, 201, 202, 203, 204, 221, 226, 226.7, 233, 246, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1102.5, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1198, and 2802 during the applicable limitations period in the following amounts:

A. For violations of California Labor Code § 204, one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent violation (penalty amounts established by California Labor Code § 210).

B. For violations of California Labor Code § 221, one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial violation (if found to be neither willful nor intentional) and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial violation of California Labor Code § 221 (if found to be either willful or intentional) and for each subsequent violation of California Labor Code § 221 (regardless of whether they are found to be either willful or intentional) (penalty amount set by California Labor Code § 225.5).

C. For violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for initial violation and one thousand dollars

1 ($1,000.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent violation (penalty amounts
2 established by California Labor Code § 226.3).

3 D. For violations of California Labor Code §§ 510, 512, and 558.1, fifty
4 dollars ($50.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for initial violation and one hundred dollars
5 ($100.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent violation (penalty amounts
6 established by California Labor Code § 558).

7 E. For violations of California Labor Code § 1174, five hundred dollars
8 ($500.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for each violation (penalty amounts established by 9 California Labor Code § 1174.5).

10 F. For violations of California Labor Code § 1197, one hundred dollars 11 ($100.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial and intentional violation and two 12 hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent violation, 13 per pay period (regardless of whether the initial violations were intentionally committed) 14 (penalty amounts established by California Labor Code § 1197.1).

15 G. For violations of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226.7, 233, 16 246, 1194, 1198, and 2802, one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each Aggrieved Employee per 17 pay period for each initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each Aggrieved 18 Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation (penalty amounts established by 19 California Labor Code § 2699(f)(2)).

20 H. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff individually
21 is entitled to recover civil penalties for each of the Defendants' violations of California Labor
22 Code §§ 98.6 and 1102.5 during the applicable limitations period in the following amounts:

23 1) For violations of California Labor Code § 98.6, an amount not to 24 exceed $10,000 for each violation by Defendants of California Labor
25 Code § 98.6(a), as well as attorney's fees and costs under Labor Code
26 § 2699(g) (penalty amounts established by California Labor Code 27 §98.6(b)(3)).

28 2) For violations of California Labor Code § 1102.5, an amount not to exceed $10,000 for each violation by Defendants of California
Labor Code § 1102.5(c), as well as attorney's fees and costs under Labor Code § 2699(g) (penalty amounts established by California

Labor Code § 1102.5(f)).

114. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in California Labor Code § 2699.3. By letter dated July 22, 2023, Plaintiff filed written notice online with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and gave written notice by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff accompanied his LWDA notice with a fee in the amount of $75.00. The LWDA has failed to take action in response within 65 calendar days of the date of Plaintiff’s notice, but Plaintiff anticipates that the LWDA will provide written notice to Plaintiff informing him that it does not intend to investigate these allegations.

115. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g), Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to an award of civil penalties and reasonable attorney’s fees and costs in connection with their claims for civil penalties.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNFAIR COMPETITION

(Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

(By Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Class, against all Defendants)

116. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

117. At all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Plaintiff and the Class Members have been employees of Defendants and entitled to the benefits and protections of the Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

118. The unlawful conduct of Defendants alleged herein amounts to and constitutes unfair competition within the meaning of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. Due to their unfair and unlawful business practices alleged herein, Defendants have unfairly gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in California that comply with their legal obligations to compensate employees for all earned wages.

119. As a result of Defendants’ unfair competition as alleged herein, Plaintiff and

1 the Class Members have suffered injuries in fact and lost money or property. Plaintiff and the 2 Class Members were deprived of minimum wages, regular wages, overtime wages, missed
3 meal period premium wages, missed rest period premium wages, gas, mileage, mobile phone,
4 and other expenses, and comparable money and property.

5 120. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code § 17203, Plaintiff and the 6 Class Members are entitled to restitution of all monies rightfully belonging to them that 7 Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of their unlawful and unfair
8 business practices.

9 121. Plaintiff and the Class Members are entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees in 10 connection with their unfair competition claims pursuant to California Code of Civil 11 Procedure § 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine and/or the common fund doctrine.

12 V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

13 122. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Class Members, prays 14 for relief and judgment against Defendants as follows:

15 A. An order that the action be certified as a class action with respect to 16 Plaintiff's claims for violations of California law;

17 B. An order that Plaintiff be appointed class representative;

18 C. An order that counsel for Plaintiff be appointed class counsel;

19 D. Unpaid wages, including minimum, regular, overtime, double-time, split 20 shift, vacation, missed meal period, missed rest period, nonproductive time, rest and recovery
21 time, and reporting time wages;

22 E. Liquidated damages;

23 F. Statutory penalties, including waiting time penalties;

24 G. Civil penalties;

25 H. Restitution;

26 I. Declaratory relief;

27 J. Actual damages;

28 K. Pre-judgment interest;
