Demand for Jury Trial

COMES NOW Plaintiff JULIET BARNIA ("Plaintiff"), in a Representative capacity only, on behalf of all aggrieved employees, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges for her complaint as follows:

PARTIES, JURISDICTION, AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter in that all parties are residents of, or do business within, the State of California and the amount in controversy exceeds the statutory minimum limit of this Court. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. Furthermore, there is no federal question at issue as Wage and Hour protections and remedies related thereto are based solely on California Law and Statutes, including the Labor Code, Civil Code, and IWC Wage Order(s). Also, the Ninth Circuit has recently held that, for purposes of establishing federal diversity jurisdiction, penalties pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") may not be aggregated. Urbino v. Orkin Servs. of California, Inc., 726 F.3d 1118, 1122 (9th Cir. 2013).
2. Venue before this Court is proper in that certain wrongful acts which gave rise to Plaintiff's injuries occurred in the County of San Diego, State of California.
3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendant RADY CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL - SAN DIEGO, (Referred to herein as "Rady"), was and is a Corporation doing business throughout the state, including the County of San Diego, State of California.
4. Plaintiff is presently unaware of the true names, capacities and liability of Defendants named herein as DOES 1 through 10, inclusive. Accordingly, Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities after the same have been ascertained.
5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Defendants is responsible in some manner for the wrongs and damages as herein alleged, and in so acting was functioning as the agent, servant, partner, and employee of the co-defendants, and in doing the actions mentioned below, was acting within the course and scope of his or her

1 authority as such agent, servant, partner, and employee with the permission and consent of the 2 co-defendants. Plaintiff's injuries as herein alleged were proximately caused by said
3 defendants. Wherever it is alleged herein that any act or omission was done or committed by 4 any specially named Defendant or Defendants, Plaintiff intends thereby to allege and does
5 allege that the same act or omission was also done and committed by each and every defendant
6 named as a DOE, both separately and in concert with the named Defendant or Defendants.

- 7 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them,
8 including DOES 1 through 10, are and at all times herein mentioned were either individuals,
9 sole proprietorships, partnerships, registered professionals, corporations, alter egos or other
10 legal entities which were licensed to do and/or were doing business in the County of San 11 Diego, State of California at all times relevant to the subject matter of this action.

12 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

- 13 7. On or about September 5, 2019, Plaintiff commenced working for Defendants. Plaintiff's
14 employment with Defendants lasted until September 20, 2022. Throughout her employment
15 with Defendants, Plaintiff has performed her job in a capable and competent manner and has 16 been commended for doing so.

- 17 8. Throughout the term of her employment, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees were, and 18 currently are, denied the benefits and protections of the Labor Code due to Defendants'
19 institutionalized pay practices, standard as to all of Defendants' California-based employees.

- 20 9. On July 13, 2023, counsel for Plaintiff prepared and submitted via online filing a letter to the 21 California Labor & Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). A copy of the letter was 22 mailed to Defendant, via USPS Certified Mail. The letter contained the specific provisions of 23 the California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code violated by Defendants, as well
24 as the facts and theories in support of Plaintiff's claims. (Please see Exhibit 1, a true and 25 correct copy of this letter.)

- 26 10. The statutory time period for the LWDA to investigate and/or respond, and for the employer 27 to respond, has concluded.

REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

11. As more specifically set forth below, Plaintiff brings this action in a representative capacity on behalf of all current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who performed work for Defendants in California only. Code Civ. Proc. § 2699; Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 969, 980-981. Throughout the operative limitations period, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees were denied the protections and benefits of the Labor Code due to Defendants' standard practices. Throughout their employment, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees were and are denied full and accurate compensation, including overtime compensation, in violation of, inter alia, Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1197. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were and are denied Meal and Rest Periods and Meal and Rest Period payments, in violation of, inter alia, Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512. Defendants failed to furnish accurate itemized wage statements in violation of, inter alia, Labor Code section 226. Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees for necessary business expenditures in violation of, inter alia, Labor Code section 2802. Defendants failed to provide all compensation due at termination of employment in violation of, inter alia, Labor Code sections 201 through 203.
12. Plaintiff brings this action on the grounds that she and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants were and are improperly denied the mandated wages resulting from the above-referenced violations. Code Civ. Proc. § 2699; Arias, 46 Cal. 4th at 980-981. The number of current and former aggrieved employees is believed to exceed Five Thousand Six Hundred (5,600) members.
13. The approximately Five Thousand Six Hundred (5,600) aggrieved employees are comprised of Defendants' current or former California-based employees.
14. The questions of law and fact common to all aggrieved employees arising from Defendants' actions include, among others, the following:
- a. Whether Defendants failed to pay its employees the proper straight-time, overtime, and double time wages due and owing to them;
 - b. Whether Defendants failed to pay its employees all compensation due and owing at 1 termination of employment;

- 2 c. Whether Defendants failed to provide its employees with statutorily-compliant Meal
3 and/or Rest Periods, in violation of, inter alia, California Labor Code section 512 and 4 226.7, in that Defendants' written policies are not compliant with California law, and 5 Defendants do not allow its employees duty-free Meal and/or Rest Periods on occasion;
6 d. Whether Defendants failed to properly provide Meal and Rest Period Premiums in 7 accordance with law;
8 e. Whether Defendants failed to properly calculate and pay its employees overtime
9 compensation or Meal and Rest Period Premiums in accordance with law by failing to 10 properly calculate, into the Regular Rate of Pay, the value of all employee benefits and 11 other non-discretionary compensation; and 12 f. Whether Defendants failed to properly reimburse its employees for necessary business 13 expenditures for, inter alia, cell phone costs and other work supplies, in violation of 14 Labor Code section 2802.

15 15. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants were subject to the Labor Codes and Industrial 16 Welfare Commission Wage Orders of the State of California, including, but not limited to, 17 California Labor Code section 2698 et seq.

18 16. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants are and were "employers" as that term is used
19 within the relevant sections of the California Labor Code.

20 17. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies and pre-filing requirements pursuant to 21 California Labor Code section 2699.3, and has also fulfilled all notice requirements under the 22 statute.

23 18. Throughout the operative limitations period, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees were 24 denied the protections and benefits of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Order(s) due to 25 Defendants' standard practices. Said violations are set forth below.

26 ///

27
28 ///

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Meal and Rest Period Violations Pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq.
Representative Action
(By Plaintiff against Defendants and DOES 1 through 10)

19. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 18 as though fully set forth herein.

20. Labor Code section 1198 states:

The maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor fixed by the commission shall be the maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor for employees. The employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.

Defendants violated this section by establishing working conditions below the standard of the applicable Wage Order.

21. Under applicable California law, “An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a Meal Period of not less than 30 minutes [...] An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second Meal Period of not less than 30 minutes” Lab. Code § 512(a); see also 8 Cal. Code Regs. § 11050 (11)(A).

22. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a thirty (30) minute Meal Period, the Meal Period shall be considered an “on duty” Meal Period and counted as time worked. 8 Cal. Code Regs. § 11050 (11).

23. California law requires employers to provide nonexempt employees with a 10-minute Rest Period for every four hours worked, or “major fraction thereof.” 8 Cal. Code Regs. § 11050 (11).

24. An employer who fails to provide Meal or Rest Periods as required by an applicable Wage Order must pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday that the Meal or Rest Period was not provided. Lab. Code § 226.7(b); 8 Cal. Code Regs. § 11050 (11), (12).

25. Within the operative time period, Defendants failed to possess compliant Meal and Rest Period policies.

- 1 26. For example, Defendants do not possess a legal Meal Period policy or legal Rest Period policy,
2 and make no attempt to ensure that its employees are either timely or wholly provided Meal
3 Periods or Rest Periods.
- 4 27. Defendants would also pressure employees to either skip, or cut short, Meal Periods and Rest
5 Periods, based on patient volume and coverage issues.
- 6 28. In addition, Defendants had notice of Plaintiff working outside of her scheduled and/or 7 reported hours, as well as within her Meal and Rest Periods, but failed to provide any 8 compensation for this work-time.
- 9 29. Defendants willfully failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees one 10 additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for all workdays that a Meal or Rest Period
11 was not provided, as required by Labor Code section 226.7 and IWC Wage Order 5 § (11), 12 (12).
- 13 30. Any payments made by Defendants for non-compliant Meal Periods were not paid at the 14 employee's regular rate in violation of Labor Code section 226.7 and the operative IWC Wage 15 Orders. Instead, these payments were made at an employee's base rate and did not include the 16 value of, inter alia, all actual compensation owed, and/or all employee benefits such as, for 17 example, non-discretionary compensation and other employee benefits.
- 18 31. As a direct result of Defendants' failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of the Labor
19 Code, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees have been damaged in an amount to be
20 proven at trial.
- 21 32. As California Labor Code Section 2699 provides for civil penalties recoverable by Plaintiff on
22 behalf of herself and all other aggrieved employees by and through Labor Code section 2699.3,
23 and as Plaintiff has complied with all pre-filing requirements, Plaintiff may recover these
24 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, as more specifically set forth in the below
25 Prayer For Relief.
- 26 33. Plaintiff seeks an award of statutory civil penalties for each underpaid employee of Defendants
27 pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) for each of these employees.
- 28 34. Plaintiff also seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code

1 section 2699(g)(1).

2 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
3 Minimum Wage Violations Pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq.
4 Representative Action
5 (By Plaintiff against Defendants and DOES 1 through 10)

6 35. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 34 as though fully set forth
7 herein.

8 36. Defendants failed to pay its employees all compensation due in violation of, among other
9 statutes, Labor Code section 1197. California law holds that the failure to pay for any work
10 time constitutes a violation of minimum wage laws. Armenta v. Osmose, Inc., (2005) 135 Cal.
11 App.4th 314, 323. These violations were caused by and through Defendants' failure to 12 maintain accurate Time Records (as required by California law), to the detriment of the 13 employees. Specifically, although Defendants would receive "to-the-minute" start and end
14 times (from their employees' mandated timekeeping practices), Defendants would thereafter
15 alter - and deduct time from - the Time Records, prior to payment of compensation to the 16 employees. Additionally, the right to receive the proper minimum wage compensation was 17 impacted by Defendants knowingly failing to consider other work performed by the employees,
18 including all time employees were under Defendants' control. These actions, and instructions,
19 caused the employees to lose compensation, including proper minimum wage compensation
20 and overtime compensation.

21 37. As a result of Defendants' failure to comply with the provisions of the Labor Code, Plaintiff
22 and all other aggrieved employees have been damaged in an amount to be proven at trial.

23 38. As California Labor Code Section 2699 provides for civil penalties recoverable by Plaintiff on
24 behalf of herself and all other aggrieved employees by and through Labor Code section 2699.3,
25 and as Plaintiff has complied with all pre-filing requirements, Plaintiff may recover these
26 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, as more specifically set forth in the below
27 Prayer For Relief.

28 39. Plaintiff seeks an award of statutory civil penalties for each underpaid employee of Defendants pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) for each of these employees.

1 40. Plaintiff also seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code
2 section 2699(g)(1).

3 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
4 Overtime Violations Pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq.
5 Representative Action
6 (By Plaintiff against Defendants and DOES 1 through 10)

7 41. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 40 as though fully set forth
8 herein.

9 42. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees all compensation,
10 including overtime compensation, due in violation of, among other statutes, Labor Code
11 section 510. These violations occurred due to Defendants' illegal policies, referenced above, 12 whereby employees experienced monetary under-compensation. The systematic failure to 13 provide proper overtime compensation is a violation of California law.

14 43. Additionally, Defendants also failed to provide the actual Overtime Rate of Pay by ignoring 15 certain compensation when calculating the Regular Rate of Pay including, but not limited to,
16 shift differentials, various forms of bonus and/or incentive pay, and the value of employee
17 benefits and employee discounts, in violation of Labor Code section 510.

18 44. As a direct result of Defendants' failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of the Labor
19 Code, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees have been damaged in an amount to be 20 proved at trial.

21 45. As California Labor Code Section 2699 provides for civil penalties recoverable by Plaintiff on
22 behalf of herself and all other aggrieved employees by and through Labor Code section 2699.3,
23 and as Plaintiff has complied with all pre-filing requirements, Plaintiff may recover these
24 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, as more specifically set forth in the below
25 Prayer For Relief.

26 46. Plaintiff seeks an award of statutory civil penalties for each underpaid employee of Defendants
27 pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) for each of these employees.

28 47. Plaintiff also seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1).

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Wage Statement Violations Pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq.
Representative Action
(By Plaintiff against Defendants and DOES 1 through 10)

48. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 47 as though fully set forth herein.
49. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees with accurate itemized wage statements in violation of, among other statutes, Labor Code section 226. These violations include, but are not limited to, Defendants' failure to accurately identify all applicable regular and overtime (including double-time) rates of pay in violation of section 226(a)(9), and providing inaccurate representations of both "gross" and "net wages." Defendants also failed to accurately list "all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate," in violation of 226(a)(9). Defendants also failed to provide an accurate showing of the "total hours worked," in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(2).
50. Further, the Defendants' wage statement listings are confusing and employees cannot readily ascertain their total hours worked, applicable rates, and all gross and net wages. As one example, Defendants are apparently using a time calculating system other than "minutes", but without explanation to the employees within the wage statement.
51. As a direct result of Defendants' failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees have been damaged in an amount to be proven at trial.
52. As California Labor Code Section 2699 provides for civil penalties recoverable by Plaintiff on behalf of herself and all other aggrieved employees by and through Labor Code section 2699.3, and as Plaintiff has complied with all pre-filing requirements, Plaintiff may recover these penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, as more specifically set forth in the below Prayer For Relief.
53. Plaintiff seeks an award of statutory civil penalties for each underpaid employee of Defendants pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) for each of these employees.

1 54. Plaintiff also seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code
2 section 2699(g)(1).

3 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
4 Failure to Reimburse Pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq.
5 Representative Action
6 (By Plaintiff against Defendants and DOES 1 through 10)

7 55. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 54 as though fully set forth
8 herein.

9 57. Defendants failed to reimburse their employees for all necessary business expenditures
10 incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties in violation of, among other 11 statutes, Labor Code section 2802. These expenditures are the result of, inter alia, Defendants'
12 standard policies which require its employees to incur mileage, purchase work supplies, and 13 to use their own cell phones for work-related purposes, without reimbursement.

14 58. As a direct result of Defendants' failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of the Labor
15 Code, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees have been damaged in an amount to be
16 proven at trial.

17 59. As California Labor Code Section 2699 provides for civil penalties recoverable by Plaintiff on
18 behalf of herself and all other aggrieved employees by and through Labor Code section 2699.3,
19 and as Plaintiff has complied with all pre-filing requirements, Plaintiff may recover these
20 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, as more specifically set forth in the below
21 Prayer For Relief.

22 60. Plaintiff seeks an award of statutory civil penalties for each underpaid employee of Defendants
23 pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) for each of these employees.

24 61. Plaintiff also seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code
25 section 2699(g)(1).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Failure to Pay Wages Upon Separation Pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq.
Representative Action
(By Plaintiff against Defendants and DOES 1 through 10)

62. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 61 as though fully set forth herein.
63. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with all wages earned and unpaid at termination in violation of, among other statutes, Labor Code sections 201 through 203. These violations resulted from, among other unlawful actions, Defendants' willful failure to provide accurate and complete compensation to aggrieved employees under Labor Code sections 226.7, 510, 512, 1197, and 2802, as set forth above.
64. As a direct result of Defendants' failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees have been damaged in an amount to be proven at trial.
65. As California Labor Code Section 2699 provides for civil penalties recoverable by Plaintiff on behalf of herself and all other aggrieved employees by and through Labor Code section 2699.3, and as Plaintiff has complied with all pre-filing requirements, Plaintiff may recover these penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, as more specifically set forth in the below Prayer For Relief.
66. Plaintiff seeks an award of statutory civil penalties for each underpaid employee of Defendants pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) for each of these employees.
67. Plaintiff also seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1), and interest, pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of all aggrieved employees, prays for judgment as follows:

1. For an award of attorneys' fees and costs of suit herein pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1);
2. For an award of statutory civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2); and
3. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Re: Juliet Barnia v. Rady Children's Hospital-San Diego
Our File No.: 7359

Dear Administrator:

Please allow this correspondence to serve as "written notice," as required by California Labor Code section 2699.3(a)(1), of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code believed to have been violated by Rady Children's Hospital-San Diego (hereinafter referred to as "Rady"), in the above referenced matter. This "written notice" is filed on behalf of Juliet Barnia (hereinafter "Ms. Barnia") and all current and former non-exempt employees employed by Rady. Thank you for your assistance and instruction on this issue.

The specific provisions alleged to have been violated by Rady are as follows:

CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE SECTIONS 201-203, 226, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197.1, and 2802, as well as IWC Wage Order 5, or any other applicable wage orders, codified as Title 8, California Code of Regulations, section 11050 et seq.

Facts and theories supporting the allegations: Ms. Barnia was employed as a non-exempt employee for Rady from approximately September 5, 2019, through September 20, 2022.

Throughout the term of Ms. Barnia's employment, Rady required Ms. Barnia and all other non-exempt employees to experience actions illegal under the California Labor Code, including the following:

Minimum Wage and Overtime Violations

Rady failed to provide all compensation, including minimum wage and overtime compensation, as well as compensation for work performed inside of Meal and Rest Periods, to its employees in violation of, inter alia, Labor Code sections 1194, 510, IWC Wage Order 5, or any other applicable wage orders. This illegal action is due, in part, to Rady's policies of (1) failing to properly retain accurate Time Records, in violation of California law, and (2) failing to provide compensation (including both minimum and overtime compensation) for all time worked by the employees, or in control of the employer. For instance, Rady would instruct Ms. Barnia to report scheduled (as opposed to actual) work hours, resulting in a loss of compensation. Additionally, Rady would often require Ms. Barnia to work extended hours (beyond scheduled hours), without compensation. Further, Rady would regularly contact Ms. Barnia outside of normal work hours (i.e., "after hours" or during lunch) without compensation.

- Additionally, among other issues, Rady has notice of Ms. Barnia, and others, working outside of their scheduled and/or reported hours, as well as within Meal and Rest Periods, but fails to provide any compensation for this work-time. Ms. Barnia was frequently scheduled to be "On Call" outside of when her work shifts ended, but was never compensated for this time. Further, Rady failed to properly calculate and pay overtime at the actual overtime rate of pay, as Rady ignores certain compensation when calculating the Regular Rate of Pay.

Failure to Provide Compliant Meal Periods

- Rady failed to provide compliant Meal Periods or requisite Meal Period penalty payments, in violation of, inter alia, Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and IWC Wage Order 5, or any other applicable wage orders. For example, Rady does not possess a legal Meal Period policy and makes no attempt to ensure that its employees are either timely or wholly provided Meal Periods. As an example, Rady Time Records (produced by Rady) show that on September 5, 2022, Ms. Barnia started a shift at 6:58 p.m. and ended her shift at 1:00 a.m. On this date, Ms. Barnia worked 6 hours and 2 minutes without receiving a Meal Period. (See Exhibit A). The employees would often either miss a Meal Period entirely, or be provided a short or untimely Meal Period. Whether or not an employee was provided a Meal Period was often contingent upon the how busy the employees were on a given day.

- Rady would pressure its employees to either skip, or cut short, a Meal Period as employees were expected to respond to supervisors and/or patients at all times. Rady has never provided a compliant Meal Period penalty payment to any employee as to the above referenced issues. Finally, on the rare occasions when employees were paid Meal Period penalties (i.e. California Meal Period Premiums), such payments do not "cure" the stated Labor Code violation under section 226.7. The California Supreme Court held that "An employer's failure to provide an additional hour of pay does not form part of a section 226.7 violation, and an employer's provision of an additional hour of pay does not excuse a section 226.7 violation. The failure to provide required meal and rest breaks is what triggers a violation of section 226.7.” Kirby v. Immoos Fire Protection, Inc. (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1244, 1256, italics added. Even more recently, a 2020 California Supreme Court ruling stated that, “The remedy for a Labor Code violation, through settlement or other means, is distinct from the fact of the violation itself. For example, employers can pay an additional hour of wages as a remedy for failing to provide meal and rest breaks. (§ 226.7, subd. (c).) But we have held that payment of this statutory remedy ‘does not excuse a section 226.7 violation.’” Kim v. Reins International California, Inc., (2020) 9 Cal.5th 73. To be clear, payment of a Meal Period penalty to employees does not rectify the violation, it is in fact an admission of a Labor Code violation. Finally, Rady failed to pay Meal Period Premiums at the proper rate, as Rady fails to either (1) pay a full hours worth of pay, or (2) properly calculate the regular rate of pay for purposes of determining the premium rate owed. Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC, (2021) 11 Cal.5th 858.

- Rady required its employees to constantly monitor their cell phones and be “on-call” at all times, specifically during Meal Periods. On occasion, Rady would interrupt, or cut short, its employees’ Meal Periods and require them to return to work.
- Rady illegally retained control over its employees during Meal Periods. For example, Rady required its employees to “remain on the premises,” and to remain “On Call” (i.e. monitor their phones) at all times, including during Meal Periods.

Failure to Provide Compliant Rest Periods

- Rady failed to provide compliant Rest Periods or requisite Rest Period penalty payments, in violation of, inter alia, Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and IWC Wage Order 5, or any other applicable wage orders. For example, Rady does not possess a legal Rest Period policy, as its Rest Period policy lacks required language under California law. Rady makes no attempt to ensure that its employees are either timely or wholly provided Rest Periods. The employees would often either miss a Rest Period entirely, be provided a short or untimely Rest Period, or be provided only one Rest Period, even when they were working in excess of 6.5 hours a day. Rady would pressure its employees to either skip, or cut short, a Rest Period as employees were expected to respond to patients at all times. Rady has never provided a compliant Rest Period penalty payment to any employee as to the above referenced issues. Finally, on the rare occasions in which Rady would provide a Rest Period penalty, it would pay said penalty at an improper (and lesser) rate, due to the failure to properly calculate the Regular Rate of Pay.
- Rady required its employees to constantly monitor their cell phones and be “on-call” at all times, specifically during Rest Periods. On occasion, Rady would interrupt, or cut short, its employees' Rest Periods and require them to return to work. Ms. Barnia was required to respond to supervisors and work related emergencies during her Rest Periods.

- Finally, Rady illegally retained control over its employees during Rest Periods. For example, Rady required its employees to "remain on the premises," and to remain "On Call" (i.e. monitor their telephones) at all times, including during Rest Periods.

Wage Statement Violations

- Rady violated Labor Code section 226(a)(2) by failing to furnish an accurate showing of all hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. Ms. Barnia and other employees were not compensated for all hours worked (due in part to Rady's requirement that employees list only scheduled work-times, not actual work-times.)
- Rady violated Labor Code section 226(a)(5) by failing to furnish an accurate showing of the net wages earned by its employees. For example, Rady (a) would not provide compensation for all hours and minutes worked, (b) would use an improper (and lesser) Overtime Rate of Pay, and (c) would fail to pay Meal and/or Rest Period penalties when due. Further, on the rare occasions in which Rady would provide a Meal or Rest Period penalty, it would pay said penalty at an improper (and lesser) rate, due to the failure to properly calculate the Regular Rate of Pay.
- Rady violated Labor Code section 226(a)(9) by failing to furnish an accurate showing of all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. Rady does not explain how its system describes "time worked" on the Wage Statement itself. As such, Ms. Barnia cannot "readily ascertain" what these figures mean. This is because Rady is apparently using a time-calculating system other than "minutes," but without explanation to the employees within the wage statement. As minutes are measured on a scale of 1 through 60, it is not apparent what these figures (i.e. ".97") are meant to represent. Without an explanation for how these figures were arrived at, employees cannot "readily ascertain" their total hours worked. Therefore, Rady failed to provide an accurate showing of the "total hours worked" by its employees pursuant to section 226(a)(2), due to all the aforesaid reasons.

Failure to Provide Compliant Expense Reimbursement Payments

- Rady failed to provide compliant expense reimbursement payments in violation of, inter alia, Labor Code section 2802, by failing to provide payments for expenses incurred by Ms. Barnia, and other non-exempt employees, including expenses for cell-phone costs and mileage.

Willful Failure to Provide All Compensation to Ex-Employees

Rady failed to provide all compensation upon termination of employment in violation of Labor Code sections 201-203, due, in part, to the fact that Rady failed to provide proper compensation for all hours worked, and failed to pay full Meal or Rest Period penalties, as discussed above.

To confirm, Rady is a "person" as defined within California Labor Code section 18.

Again, thank you for your assistance and instruction throughout this matter. Should you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.
