DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff MITCHELL ANTHONY MUNGUIA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, employs individuals, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of Riverside. At all relevant times, Defendant maintained its headquarters/“nerve center” within the State of California, County of Riverside.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff MITCHELL ANTHONY MUNGUIA is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Defendant DMSD FOODS, INC., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation and, at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Riverside.

7. At all relevant times, Defendant DMSD FOODS, INC. was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants DMSD FOODS, INC. and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and/or assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

10. Defendant DMSD FOODS, INC. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff bring this action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of this Complaint to final judgment and who reside in California.

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;
- h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of Riverside.

18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee, from approximately April 2023 to approximately May 2023, in the State of California.

1 19. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other class members, classified them as 2 hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked and 3 missed meal periods and/or rest breaks.

4 20. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class
5 members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members'
6 employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

7 21. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 8 Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff 9 and the other class members.

10 22. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other 11 class members.

12 23. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 13 State of California.

14 24. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, 15 and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

16 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
18 employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing
19 to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed meal periods and rest 20 breaks in violation of California law.

21 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
23 certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate overtime 24 compensation for all overtime hours worked.

25 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members all required rest and meal periods during 27 the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders 28 and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

1 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class
4 member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal
5 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class member's 6 regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

7 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
9 all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class
10 member's regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest
11 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members'
12 regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

13 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
14 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
15 at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum 16 wages for all hours worked.

17 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
18 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
19 all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages 20 and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to 21 them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

22 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive 24 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other class members did
25 not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest 26 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

27 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
28 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive

1 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did
2 not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies
3 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the 4 other class members.

5 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
7 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did 8 not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

9 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants 10 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 11 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

12 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class 14 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 15 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely 16 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all 17 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

18 37. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to 19 Plaintiff and the other class members for all overtime hours worked. Plaintiff and the other
20 class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours 21 per week without overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

44. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs.

45. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

46. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against DMSD FOODS, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

47. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 46, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

48. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

49. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, and

1 working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the 2 rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more 3 than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

4 50. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 5 required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two 6 times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

7 51. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation
8 at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
9 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day 10 of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in 11 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day 12 of work.

13 52. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in 14 excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

15 53. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 16 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

17 54. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid 18 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 19 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

20 55. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class 21 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 22 attorneys' fees.

2 hours or major fraction thereof” unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half 3 (3 ½) hours.

5 members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute 6 rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.
