on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees,

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES-CENTRAL DISTRICT

BRENDA MERCADO, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees,

Plaintiff,

vs.

WORLD OIL CORP.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 23STCV22320

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF BRENDA MERCADO'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff BRENDA MERCADO ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants WORLD OIL CORP.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively
"Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated

1 with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay all overtime
2 hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or 3 compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all
4 legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; failure to pay
5 wages for accrued paid sick time at the regular rate of pay; failure to timely pay earned wages 6 during employment; failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements; and failure to 7 timely pay all unpaid wages following separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a 8 representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil 9 penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought 10 on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

11 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 13 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 14 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
15 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars
16 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-
17 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 18 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 19 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County at 9302 Garfield Avenue, South Gate, 20 CA 90280.

21 3. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California enacted
22 Emergency Rule 9 to the California Rules of Court, which provided that, notwithstanding any 23 other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are 24 tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

25 III. PARTIES

26 4. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 27 Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to 28 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is

1 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will
2 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp
3 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 4 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 5 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in South Gate San 6 Bernardino from approximately September 16, 2019, until on or about April 25, 2023.

7 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant WORLD OIL
8 CORP. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business in the 9 State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto were 10 persons acting on behalf of Defendant WORLD OIL CORP. in the establishment of, or ratification
11 of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant WORLD OIL
12 CORP. operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los 13 Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 9302 Garfield Avenue, South Gate, California 14 90280.

15 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 16 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 17 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted
18 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 19 working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

20 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
21 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued
22 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 23 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to 24 be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of 25 the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

26 8. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff
27 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 28 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as

1 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously
2 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 3 complaint.

4 9. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 5 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and 6 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

8 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 9 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

10 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

11 10. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

12 11. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 13 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 1194, and 14 the applicable Wage Orders.

15 12. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
16 Labor Code:

17 13. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay:
18 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
19 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 20 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 21 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either
22 directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.'

23 14. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 24 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty 25 (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

26 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40)
27 hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 28 work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve
(12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

Labor Code section 510.

15. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures.

16. Overtime is based upon an employee's regular rate of pay. "The regular rate at which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment paid to, or on behalf, of the employee." See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – Enforcement Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

17. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when she and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees earned overtime wages, Defendants failed to pay them overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include all remuneration when calculating the overtime rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as "early release pay," for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying overtime.

18. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

19. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

20. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 1 at §11; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

21. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §11.

22. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not limited to:

(a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes for every five (5) hours worked.

23. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

1 24. Finally, on occasions when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former
2 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a “premium” wage for late, missed,
3 short, on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1)
4 additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 5 hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained
6 a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as “early release
7 pay,” for example, when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-
8 based hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying meal period 9 premium wages.

10 25. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
11 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 12 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them
13 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

14 26. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 15 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other
16 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 17 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

18 27. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest
19 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor
20 Code section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10
21 minutes’ rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more
22 than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so
23 on.” Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code
24 section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of 25 each work period. Wage Order 1 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates 26 employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM
27 Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must 28 relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

1 28. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer
2 must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday
3 the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7;
4 Wage Order 1 at § 12.

5 29. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 6 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
7 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 8 limited to:

9 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 10 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 11 or major fraction thereof.

12 30. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 13 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
14 based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
15 workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor
16 Code section 226.7.

17 31. Finally, on occasions when Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other current and 18 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, 19 missed, short, on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted rest periods, Defendants failed to pay the 20 one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-
21 based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants 22 maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as 23 "early release pay," for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former 24 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of 25 paying rest period premium wages.

26 32. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
27 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 28 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods in compliance with California law.

1. Failure to pay wages for accrued paid sick days at the regular rate of pay:

Defendants had a policy and/or procedure where Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees accrued paid sick time.

2. Labor Code section 246, subdivision (a), states in relevant part “[a]n employee who...works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days.” Additionally, an employee accrues paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning at the commencement of employment. Labor Code section 246(b).

3. Labor Code section 246, subdivision (l), provides that an employer shall calculate the paid sick time for non-exempt employees in the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee elected to use paid sick time. “The regular rate at which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment paid to, or on behalf, of the employee.” See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – Enforcement Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

4. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when she and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees elected to use paid sick time, Defendants failed to pay them sick time wages at the proper sick time rate of pay due to Defendants’ failure to include all remuneration when calculating the sick time rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as, for example, “early release pay,” when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying sick time.

5. Defendants’ foregoing policy, practice, and/or procedure resulted in Defendants failing to pay Plaintiff and similarly situated employees at their sick time regular rate of pay for all sick time accrued, in violation of Labor Code section 246.

1 6. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages
2 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 3 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages 4 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 5 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day,
6 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following
7 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 8 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 9 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

10 7. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed 11 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-12 exempt employees' earned wages (including overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or 13 rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' aforementioned
14 policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and other current 15 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned wages within 16 the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

17 8. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 18 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 19 employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an 20 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 21 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 22 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 23 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable
24 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all
25 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 26 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 27 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 28 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and

1 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

2 9. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff
3 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages
4 earned (including overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium
5 wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-6 exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226.

7 10. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 8 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 9 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72)
10 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

11 11. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
12 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees
13 all their earned wages (including overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period
14 premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each employee’s
15 termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

16 12. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved 17 employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil 18 action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in 19 Labor Code section 2699.3.

20 13. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor 21 Code section 2699.3. On July 11, 2023, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 22 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 23 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 24 violations alleged.

25 14. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 26 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 27 within 60 days of the date of the complainant’s written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 28 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff’s PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends

1 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

2 15. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 3 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 246,
4 510, 512, 1194, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding
5 Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following 6 amounts:

7 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, and 512;
8 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation 9 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 10 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

11 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250)
12 for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation,
13 one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts
14 established by Labor Code section 226.3].

15 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each 16 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 17 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts
18 established by Labor Code section 558].

19 d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194, one hundred dollars ($100) for 20 each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent 21 violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period
22 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1].

23 16. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 24 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with her claims for civil penalties.

1 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

2 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HERSELF AND OTHER AGGRIEVED
3 EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

4 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

5 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and 6 the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

7 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations
8 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the 9 California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2699(f);

10 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable
11 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 12 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 13 appropriate.
