COMPLAINT FOR ENFORCEMENT
UNDER THE PRIVATE
ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT,
CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE § 2698,
ET SEQ.

Violation of California Labor Code §
2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff ROBERT GELLER (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles. At all relevant times, Defendant maintained its headquarters/“nerve center” within the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff ROBERT GELLER is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

6. Defendant POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT OF CALIFORNIA, P.C., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

7. At all relevant times, Defendant POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT OF CALIFORNIA, P.C. was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.

8. At all times herein relevant, POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT OF CALIFORNIA, P.C. and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

10. POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT OF CALIFORNIA, P.C. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

12. At all times herein set forth, California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) was applicable to Plaintiff’s employment by Defendants.

13. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

14. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an “aggrieved employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

15. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

16. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not

1 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days
2 of the postmark date of the Employee's Notice. Upon receipt of the 3 LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five
4 (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee's Notice, the 5 aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California
6 Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any 7 other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

8 17. On July 6, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice by U.S. Certified Mail to the 9 LWDA and to Defendant POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT OF CALIFORNIA, P.C. of the 10 specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the 11 facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA
12 Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of submission of Plaintiff's Notice.

13 18. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under 14 California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for 15 violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 16 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

17 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

18 19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other 19 aggrieved employees, including but not limited to (a) all current and former hourly-paid or 20 non-exempt individuals who were employed by any of the Defendants within the State of 21 California ("aggrieved employees in subgroup A"), and (b) all current and former salaried
22 Schedulers, or persons who held similar job titles and/or performed similar job duties,
23 misclassified as "exempt" who were employed by any of the Defendants within the State of 24 California ("aggrieved employees in subgroup B") (collectively with subgroup A as "aggrieved 25 employees").

26 20. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-27 exempt employee and as a salaried employee misclassified as "exempt" from approximately 28 ///

December 2020 to approximately February 2023 in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

21. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in subgroup A, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked, missed meal periods or rest breaks.

22. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in subgroup B, misclassified them as “exempt” employees, and paid them on a salary basis, without compensation for overtime hours worked, missed meal periods or rest breaks.

23. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff’s and the other aggrieved employees’ employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

24. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff’s and the other aggrieved employees’ employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

25. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

26. Defendants continue to employ salaried Schedulers misclassified as “exempt” within the State of California.

27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their “exempt” or salaried Schedulers. This scheme involved, inter alia, misclassifying these positions as “exempt” employees for purposes of the payment of overtime compensation when, in fact, they were “non-exempt” non-managerial employees according to California law.

29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to

1 receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for
2 overtime compensation.

3 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal periods
5 during the relevant time period as required under the applicable Industrial Welfare
6 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable
7 penalties.

8 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
10 receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other
11 aggrieved employee’s regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not
12 receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other
13 aggrieved employee’s regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

14 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 16 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s regular rate of 17 pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one
18 additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay
19 when a rest period was missed.

20 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
21 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 22 receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 23 minimum wages for all hours worked.

24 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that the aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all wages
26 owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime wages and meal and rest
27 period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to them at the time of 28 their discharge.

1 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
3 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
4 employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime wages and meal and rest
5 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

6 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
8 receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
9 they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The 10 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by 11 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

12 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
14 for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
15 did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

16 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 18 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

19 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other
21 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability 22 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and
23 falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly
24 denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

25 40. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages
26 to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees
27 were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week
28 without overtime compensation.

1 41. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide uninterrupted
2 meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

4 other aggrieved employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

5 43. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay the aggrieved
6 employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

7 44. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the 8 other aggrieved employees' wages within any time permissible under California law,
9 including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

10 45. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide complete and 11 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

12 46. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep complete and 13 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

14 47. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff
15 and the other aggrieved employees for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

16 48. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate
17 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law in order to increase
18 Defendants' profits.

19 49. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
20 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty 21 due to him [or her] under this article."
