DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff ANTONIA GARCIA RODRIGUEZ (“Plaintiff”) brings this action on behalf of herself and the Class Members who are defined as “all current and former employees within the State of California who, at any time from four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, are or were employed as non-exempt hourly employees by Defendants SUPER CARE, INC., a California corporation; SUPERCARE INC., a business entity of unknown form; SUPER CARE, a business entity of unknown form; SUPERCARE HEALTH, a business entity of unknown form; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive” (all defendants being collectively referred to herein as “Defendants”).

3. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and (1) shared similar job duties and responsibilities; (2) was subjected to the same policies and practices; and (3) endured similar violations at the hands of Defendants as the other Class Members who served in similar and related positions.

17 all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried 18 out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of 20 all respects as the employers or joint employers of Class Members. Defendants, and each of them, 21 exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Class Members, or suffered or

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 13. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil 6 Procedure § 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code § 17203. This Action is brought 7 as a Class Action on behalf of similarly situated Class Members of Defendants pursuant to 8 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Venue as to Defendants is also proper in this judicial 9 district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395 et seq. Upon information and belief, 10 the obligations and liabilities giving rise to this lawsuit occurred in part in Los Angeles County.
11 Defendants maintain and operate facilities in Los Angeles County and employs Plaintiff and other 12 Class Members in Los Angeles County, while doing business throughout California.

13 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

14 14. Class Members consistently worked at Defendants behest without being paid all 15 wages due. Class Members were either not paid by Defendants for all hours worked or were not 16 paid at the appropriate minimum, regular and overtime rates. Plaintiff also contends that 17 Defendants failed to pay Class Members all wages due and owing, including by requiring off the 18 clock work, failing to provide meal and rest breaks, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, 19 failing to timely pay wages including final wages, failing to maintain accurate records, and failing 20 to reimburse necessary business expenses all in violation of various provisions of the California 21 Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

22 15. During the course of Class Members' employment with Defendants, they were not 23 paid all wages they were owed. Class Members were required to perform pre-shift and post-shift 24 off the clock work which they were not compensated for despite being subject to Defendants' 25 control. Specifically, Class Members performed pre-shift work activities because they had to turn 26 on their computers and log into Defendants' system to clock in through the employee portal, but 27 the portal was consistently down. Additionally, Class Members performed post-shift work 28 activities as well. Moreover, at least twice a month, Defendants called a "huddle time" meeting

1 after Class Members clocked out. Further, Class Members often had problems connecting to and 2 accessing Defendants system to clock in and spent time on the phone and emailing with 3 Defendants' IT Technical Support Help Desk to try to fix it resulting in further off the clock work.

4 16. By implementing policies, programs, practices, procedures and protocols which 5 resulted in off the clock work, Defendants' willful actions resulted in the systematic underpayment 6 of wages to Class Members, including underpayment of overtime pay to Class Members over the 7 relevant time period. For example, the above described off the clock work addressed above caused 8 Plaintiff to begin receiving overtime pay later than they should have.

9 17. As a result of the above described requirements to work off the clock, Class 10 Members were not properly paid all wages earned and all wages owed to them by Defendants, 11 including when working more than eight (8) hours in any given day and/or more than forty (40) 12 hours in any given week.

13 18. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policies and practices, Class Members incurred 14 overtime hours worked for which they were not adequately and completely compensated, in 15 addition to the hours they were required to work off the clock. To the extent applicable, 16 Defendants also failed to pay Class Members at an overtime rate of 1.5 times the regular rate for 17 the first eight hours of the seventh consecutive work day in a week and overtime payments at the 18 rate of 2 times the regular rate for hours worked over eight (8) on the seventh consecutive work 19 day, as required under the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders.

20 19. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 21 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Class
22 Members for all hours worked, and failing to pay minimum wages for all time worked, as required 23 by California law. Defendants thus failed to pay Class Members at least minimum wages for all 24 the time they worked for Defendants in violation of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage 25 Orders as the actual times when Class Members were under the control and direction of 26 Defendants was under reported in the hours reflected on the timekeeping records. Furthermore, 27 Defendants' willful actions resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Class Members, 28 including underpayment of overtime pay to Class Members over a period of time.

1 20. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 2 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Class
3 Members for all hours worked. Also, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit
4 and continuing to the present, Defendants also had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay 5 Class Members their true and correct overtime compensation at premium overtime rates for all 6 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, and double-time
7 rates for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours a day, in violation of Labor Code § 510 8 and the corresponding sections of IWC Wage Orders.

9 21. Additionally, Defendants failed to provide all the legally required unpaid, off-duty 10 meal periods and all the legally required paid, off-duty rest periods to Class Members, as required 11 by the applicable Wage Order and Labor Code. Class Members were required to perform work as 12 ordered by Defendants for more than five (5) hours during a shift but were often required to do so 13 without receiving a lawful and timely meal break. In addition to untimely meal periods, 14 Defendants also required Class Members to respond to work demands. Defendants placed their 15 needs over Class Members lawful meal and rest breaks and this resulted in Class Members often 16 having to work through their scheduled meal and/or rest breaks, or otherwise taking shortened 17 ones, because the demands of the job would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully 18 uninterrupted and off duty meal and/or rest break. Additionally, to the extent Class Members 19 attempted to take a break, they were prohibited from leaving the premises.

20 22. On the occasions when Class Members worked over 10 hours in a shift, Defendants 21 also failed to provide them with a second, uninterrupted, timely and duty-free meal period. As a 22 result, Defendants' failure to provide Class Members with all legally required off-duty, unpaid 23 meal periods and all the legally required off-duty, paid rest periods is and will be evidenced by 24 Defendants' business records, or lack thereof. Defendants also failed to pay Class Members 25 "premium pay," i.e. one hour of wages at each Class Member's effective hourly rate of pay, for 26 each meal period or rest break that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

27 23. Therefore, for at least four years prior to the filing of this action and through to the 28 present, Defendants have regularly required Class Members to work shifts in excess of five (5)

1 hours without providing them with uninterrupted meal periods of not less than thirty (30) minutes, 2 and shifts in excess of (10) hours without providing them with second meal periods of not less 3 than thirty minutes; nor did Defendants pay Class Members “premium pay,” i.e. one hour of 4 wages at each Class Member’s effective hourly rate of pay, for each meal period that Defendants 5 failed to provide or deficiently provided.

6 24. Meal period violations thus occurred in one or more of the following manners:

- 7 (a) Class Members were not provided full thirty-minute duty free meal periods 8 for work days in excess of five (5) hours and were not compensated one (1) 9 hour’s wages in lieu thereof, all in violation of, among others, Labor Code 10 §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage 11 Order(s);
- 12 (b) Class Members were not provided second full thirty-minute duty free meal 13 periods for work days in excess of ten (10) hours;
- 14 (c) Class Members were required to work through at least part of their daily 15 meal period(s);
- 16 (d) Meal periods were provided after five (5) hours of continuous work during 17 a shift; and
- 18 (e) Class Members were restricted in their ability to take a full thirty-minute 19 meal period.

20 25. Class Members were also not authorized and permitted to take lawful rest periods, 21 were systematically required by Defendants to work through or during breaks and were not 22 provided with one (1) hour’s wages in lieu thereof. Class Members were restricted in their ability 23 to take their full ten (10) minutes net rest time or were otherwise not provided with duty-free rest 24 periods. Therefore, from at least four years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 25 present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Class Members with paid rest breaks of not 26 less than ten minutes for every work period of four or more consecutive hours; or major fraction 27 thereof, nor did Defendant pay Class Members premium pay for each day on which requisite rest 28 breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided.

1 26. Rest period violations therefore arose in one or more of the following manners:

2 (a) Class Members were required to work without being provided a minimum 3 ten (10) minute rest period for every four (4) hours or major fraction 4 thereof worked and were not compensated one (1) hour of pay at their 5 regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not 6 provided;

7 (b) Class Members were not authorized and permitted to take timely rest 8 periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof; and 9 (c) Class Members were required to remain on-duty during rest periods or 10 otherwise had their rest periods interrupted by work demands.

11 27. Defendants also consistently failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements as 12 required by Labor Code § 226(a). Specifically, the wage statements given to Class Members failed 13 to accurately account for unpaid wages and overtime because Defendants under-reported Class 14 Members' actual hours worked due to off the clock work. Additionally, the wage statements given 15 to Class Members failed to accurately account for premium pay for deficiently provided meal 16 periods and rest breaks.

17 28. From at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing to the present, 18 Defendants have thus also had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages owed to Class 19 Members at the time of their termination of within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, as 20 required by California wage-and-hour laws. Specifically, Class Members were not paid all regular 21 and overtime wages because Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked by requiring off the 22 clock work. Additionally, Defendants failed to pay premium wages owed for unprovided meal 23 periods and rest periods, as further detailed in this Complaint. Defendants' failure to pay said 24 wages within the required time was willful within the meaning of Labor Code § 203.

25 29. From at least four years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 26 present, Defendants have also consistently violated Labor Code § 221 by unlawfully collecting or 27 deducting Class Members' earned wages. By not compensating Class Members for all hours 28 worked, Defendants unlawfully deducted wages earned by and owed to Class Members, in violation of Labor Code § 221.

30. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the present, Defendants have regularly required Plaintiff to incur business expenses in the course of performing her required job duties for Defendants including for home internet and equipment such as a desk and chair. Plaintiff was required to use her personal internet when working remotely from home and was also required to purchase her own equipment such as a desk and chair. Upon information and belief, Class Members incurred similar costs. These expenses incurred by Plaintiff and Class Members were necessary and required of them in performing their assigned job duties, but Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for all such necessary expenditures, thus entitling them to reimbursement according to proof as required under Labor Code § 2802 and the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage Orders.

31. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff and Class Members bring this action pursuant to, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 221, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2802 and 2698 et seq. and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et seq.

32. Furthermore, pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, Plaintiff and the Class Members seek injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits Defendants have enjoyed from their violations of Labor Code and the other unfair, unlawful, or fraudulent practices alleged in this Complaint.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

33. Plaintiff seeks to represent the Subclasses composed of and defined as follows:

a. Subclass 1. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class Members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.

b. Subclass 2. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class Members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for all hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.

c. Subclass 3. Meal Period Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to provide unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted and duty-

1 free meal periods or one hour of pay at the Class Member's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

2 d. Subclass 4. Rest Break Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to 3 Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Class Members to take 4 uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction 5 thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Class Member's regular rate of pay in lieu 6 thereof.

7 e. Subclass 5. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class Members who, within the 8 applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

9 f. Subclass 6. Termination Pay Subclass. All Class Members who, within the 10 applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their employment 11 and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay wages upon 12 termination.

13 g. Subclass 7: Failure to Timely Pay Wages Twice Monthly Subclass. All Class 14 Members who were subject to Defendants' policy and practice of not timely paying all wages 15 earned when they were due and payable at least twice monthly.

16 h. Subclass 8. Unauthorized Deductions from Wages Subclass. All Class Members 17 who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of deducting wages earned from their pay, 18 including by requiring off the clock work.

19 i. Subclass 9. Payroll Records Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to 20 Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to keep accurate time and wage records as required 21 by California wage-and-hour laws.

22 j. Subclass 10. Expense Reimbursement Subclass. All Class Members who incurred 23 necessary and reasonable expenses in connection with performing their job duties for Defendant 24 and who were subject to a policy and/or practice under which such expenses were not reimbursed.

25 k. Subclass 11. UCL Subclass. All Class Members who are owed restitution as a 26 result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are found to 27 be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

28 34. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or 1 modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or 2 limitation to particular issues. To the extent equitable tolling operates to toll claims by the Class 3 against Defendants, the Class Period should be adjusted accordingly.

4 35. Defendants, as a matter of company policy, practice and procedure, and in violation 5 of the applicable Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order requirements, 6 and the applicable provisions of California law, intentionally, knowingly, and willfully, engaged 7 in a practice whereby Defendants failed to correctly calculate compensation for the time worked 8 by Class Members, even though Defendants enjoyed the benefit of this work, required Class 9 Members to perform this work and permitted or suffered to permit this work. Defendants have 10 uniformly denied these Class Members wages to which these employees are entitled and failed to 11 provide meal periods or authorize and permit rest periods, in order to unfairly cheat the 12 competition and unlawfully profit.

13 36. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action 14 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community 15 of interest in litigation and proposed class is easily ascertainable.

16 A. Numerosity

17 37. The potential members of the class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all 18 the member of the class is impracticable. While the precise number of class member has not been 19 determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants employ or, during the 20 time period relevant to this lawsuit, hundreds of employees who satisfy the Class definition within 21 the State of California.

22 38. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant time period increases this 23 number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants’ employment records will provide 24 information as to the number and location of all Class Members.

25 B. Commonality

26 39. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class that predominates over 27 any questions affecting only individual Class Members. These common questions of law and fact 28 include:

- a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members minimum wages;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members wages for all hours worked;
- c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members overtime as required under Labor Code § 510;
- d. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, by failing to provide Class Members with requisite meal periods or premium pay in lieu thereof;
- e. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, by failing to authorize and permit Class Members to take requisite rest breaks or provide premium pay in lieu thereof;
- f. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226(a) by providing Class Members with inaccurate wage statements;
- g. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by failing to pay wages and compensation due and owing at the time of termination of employment;
- h. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful;
- i. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226 and § 1174 and the IWC Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of Class Members' earned wages and work periods;
- j. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 1194 by failing to compensate all Class Members during the relevant time period for all hours worked, whether regular or overtime;
- k. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 204 by failing to timely pay wages;
- l. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 221;
- m. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses Defendants required them to incur in performing their job duties;
- n. Whether Defendants violated Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; and
- o. Whether Class Members are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and

C. Typicality

40. The claims of the named plaintiff is typical of those of Class Members. The Class Members all sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of statutes, as well as regulations that have the force and effect of law, as alleged herein.

D. Adequacy of Representation

41. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of the Class Members. Counsel who represents Class Members are experienced and competent in litigating employment class actions.

E. Superiority of Class Action

42. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to all Class Members predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class Members. Each Class Member has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies or practices of failing to compensate Class Members properly.

43. As to the issues raised in this case, a class action is superior to all other methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, as joinder of all Class Members is impracticable and many legal and factual questions to be adjudicated apply uniformly to all Class Members. Further, as the economic or other loss suffered by vast numbers of Class Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual actions makes it difficult for the Class Members to individually redress the wrongs they have suffered. Moreover, in the event disgorgement is ordered, a class action is the only mechanism that will permit the employment of a fluid fund recovery to ensure that equity is achieved. There will be relatively little difficulty in managing this case as a class action, and proceeding on a class-wide basis will permit Class Members to vindicate their rights for violations they endured which they would otherwise be foreclosed from receiving in a multiplicity of individual lawsuits that would be cost prohibitive to 1 them.

2 44. Class action treatment will allow those persons similarly situated to litigate their 3 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
4 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties in managing this case that should preclude class treatment.
5 Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed Class Members that would 6 set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records can be 7 utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent 8 that any further notice is required additional media and/or mailings can be used.

9 45. Defendants, as prospective and actual employers of the Class Members, had a 10 special fiduciary duty to disclose to prospective Class Members the true facts surrounding 11 Defendants' pay practices, policies and working conditions imposed upon Class Members as well 12 as the effect of any alleged arbitration agreements that may have been forced upon them. In 13 addition, Defendants knew they possessed special knowledge about pay practices and policies, 14 most notably intentionally refusing to pay for all hours actually worked which should have been 15 recorded in Defendants' pay records and the consequence of the alleged arbitration agreements 16 and policies and practices on Class Members.

17 46. Class Members did not discover the fact that they were entitled to all pay under the 18 Labor Code until shortly before the filing of this lawsuit nor was there ever any discussion about 19 Plaintiff's and the Class' waiver of their Constitutional rights of trial by jury, right to collectively 20 organize and oppose unlawful pay practices under California law as well as obtain injunctive relief 21 preventing such practices from continuing. As a result, the applicable statutes of limitation were 22 tolled until such time as Plaintiff and the Class Members discovered their claims.

23 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

24 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 47. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporate all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 27 full herein.

28 48. Defendants failed to pay Class Members minimum wages for all hours worked.

1 Defendants had a consistent policy of misstating Class Members' time records and failing to pay 2 Class Members for all hours worked. Class Members would work hours and not receive wages, 3 including as alleged above in connection with off the clock work. Defendants, and each of them, 4 have intentionally and improperly changed, adjusted and/or modified the hours of Class Members, 5 which resulted in off the clock work and underpayment of all wages owed to Class Members over 6 a period of time, while benefiting Defendants. During the relevant time period, Defendants thus 7 regularly failed to pay minimum wages to Class Members, to their detriment. Additionally, 8 Defendants had a consistent policy of failing to pay Class Members for hours worked during 9 alleged meal and rest periods for which Class Members were consistently denied, as also 10 addressed herein. Defendants' uniform pattern of unlawful wage and hour practices manifested, 11 without limitation, applicable to the Class as a whole, as a result of implementing a uniform policy 12 and practice that denied accurate compensation to Class Members as to minimum wage pay.

13 49. In California, employees must be paid at least the then applicable state minimum 14 wage for all hours worked. (IWC Wage Order MW-2014). Additionally, pursuant to California 15 Labor Code § 204, other applicable laws and regulations, and public policy, an employer must 16 timely pay its employees for all hours worked. Defendants failed to do so.

17 50. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled "Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage" states: 18 "The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to 19 employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful."

20 51. The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the 21 relevant period is found in Paragraph 4(A)-4(D) of the IWC Wage Orders.

22 52. The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private 23 civil action pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a) which states: "Notwithstanding any agreement to 24 work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal 25 overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the 26 unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including 27 interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit."

28 53. As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages

1 incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission. Also, 2 California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and those Industrial Welfare Commission Wage 3 Orders entitle non-exempt employees to an amount equal to or greater than the minimum wage for 4 all hours worked. All hours must be paid at the statutory or agreed rate and no part of this rate may 5 be used as a credit against a minimum wage obligation.

6 54. In committing these violations of the California Labor Code, Defendants 7 inaccurately recorded, or required Class Members to input times that did not reflect their actual 8 hours worked, or calculated the correct time worked and consequently underpaid the actual time 9 worked by Class Members. Defendants acted in an illegal attempt to avoid the payment of all 10 earned wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code, the Industrial Welfare 11 Commission requirements and other applicable laws and regulations. As a result of these 12 violations, Defendant also failed to timely pay all wages earned in accordance with California 13 Labor Code § 1194.

14 55. California Labor Code § 1194.2 also provides for the following remedies: “In any 15 action under Section 1194 . . . to recover wages because of the payment of a wage less than the 16 minimum wages fixed by an order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover 17 liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.”

18 56. In addition to restitution for all unpaid wages, pursuant to California Labor Code § 19 1197.1, Class Members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely 20 pay each employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each 21 employee minimum wages.

22 57. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Class Members are further entitled to 23 recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

24 58. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have 25 willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this 26 indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Class Members.

27 59. Wherefore, Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages 28 (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum

1 wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant 2 to California Labor Code § 1194(a). Plaintiff and the other members of the Class further request 3 recovery of all unpaid wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the 4 assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California 5 Labor Code, including § 558, and/or other applicable statutes.

6 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

7 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND OVERTIME UNDER LABOR CODE § 510

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 60. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 10 full herein.

11 61. California Labor Code § 1194 provides that "any employee receiving less than the 12 legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to 13 recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime 14 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit." The action 15 may be maintained directly against the employer in an employee's name without first filing a 16 claim with the Division of Labor Standards and Enforcement.

17 62. By their conduct, as set forth herein, Defendants violated California Labor Code § 18 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Class 19 Members: (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight (8) 20 hours in a workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek or for the first eight (8) hours 21 worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for 22 hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one (1) day or for hours worked in excess of 23 eight (8) hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek.

24 63. Defendants had a consistent policy of not paying Class Members wages for all 25 hours worked, including by requiring off the clock work. Defendants, and each of them, have 26 intentionally and improperly changed, adjusted and/or modified certain employees' hours, 27 including Plaintiff's, in order to avoid paying Class Members all earned and owed straight time 28 and overtime wages and other benefits, in violation of the California Labor Code, the California

1 Code of Regulations and the IWC Wage Orders and guidelines set forth by the Division of Labor
2 Standards and Enforcement. Defendants have also violated these provisions by requiring Class 3 Members to work through portions of their meal period. Therefore, Class Members were not 4 properly compensated, nor were they paid overtime rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours
5 in a given day, and/or forty hours in a given week. Based on information and belief, Defendants 6 did not make available to Class Members a reasonable protocol for correcting time records when 7 Class Members worked overtime hours or to fix incorrect time entries.

8 64. Defendants' failure to pay Class Members the unpaid balance of regular wages 9 owed and overtime compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of Labor 10 Code §§ 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

11 65. Additionally, Labor Code § 558(a) provides "any employer or other person acting 12 on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any 13 provisions regulating hours and days of work in any order of the IWC shall be subject to a civil 14 penalty as follows: (1) For any violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each 15 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover 16 underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each 17 underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an 18 amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall 19 be paid to the affected employee." Labor Code § 558(c) states, "the civil penalties provided for in 20 this section are in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided by law." Defendants 21 have violated provisions of the Labor Code regulating hours and days of work as well as the IWC 22 Wage Orders. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class Members seek the remedies set forth in Labor 23 Code § 558.

24 66. Defendants' failure to pay compensation in a timely fashion also constituted a 25 violation of California Labor Code § 204, which requires that all wages shall be paid 26 semimonthly. From four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present, in direct 27 violation of that provision of the California Labor Code, Defendants have failed to pay all wages 28 and overtime compensation earned by Class Members. Each such failure to make a timely

1 payment of compensation to Class Members constitutes a separate violation of California Labor
2 Code § 204.

3 67. Class Members have been damaged by these violations of California Labor Code 4 §§ 204 and 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission).

5 68. Consequently, pursuant to the California Labor Code, including Labor Code §§
6 204, 510, 558, and 1194, and the applicable IWC Wage Order, paragraph 3(A) and 4(B), 7 Defendants are liable to Class Members for the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime 8 compensation, with interest, plus their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, as well as the 9 assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, and any additional 10 sums as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

11 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

12 MEAL-PERIOD LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

13 (Against All Defendants)

14 69. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 15 full herein.

16 70. Class Members regularly worked shifts greater than five (5) hours and in some 17 instances, greater than ten (10) hours. Pursuant to Labor Code § 512 an employer may not employ 18 someone for a shift of more than five (5) hours without providing him or her with a meal period of 19 not less than thirty (30) minutes or for a shift of more than ten (10) hours without providing him or 20 her with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

21 71. Defendants failed to provide Class Members with meal periods as required under 22 the Labor Code. Defendants placed their needs over Class Members lawful meal breaks and this 23 resulted in Class Members consistently having to work through their scheduled meal breaks 24 because the demands of the job would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully 25 uninterrupted and off-duty meal break. Furthermore, upon information and belief, on the occasions 26 when Class Members worked more than ten (10) hours in a given shift, they did so without 27 receiving a second uninterrupted thirty (30) minute meal period as required by law.

28 72. Defendants thus failed to provide Class Members with meal periods as required by

1 the Labor Code, including by not providing them with the opportunity to take meal breaks, by 2 providing them late or for less than thirty (30) minutes, or by requiring them to perform work 3 during breaks.

4 73. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Class Members for each meal period 5 not provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraph 11 of 6 the applicable IWC Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an employee 7 a meal period in accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of 8 pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not 9 provided. Defendants failed to compensate Class Members for each meal period not provided or 10 inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7.

11 74. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order, 12 paragraph 11, Class Members are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages 13 at their effective hourly rates of pay for each meal period not provided or deficiently provided, a 14 sum to be proven at trial, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the 15 Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and other statutes.

16 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 REST-BREAK LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 75. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 20 full herein.

21 76. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders 22 provide that employers must authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods at the rate of 23 ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) work hours.

24 77. Class Members consistently worked consecutive four (4) hour shifts and were 25 generally scheduled for shifts of greater than 3.5 hours total, thus requiring Defendants to 26 authorize and permit them to take rest periods. Pursuant to the Labor Code and the applicable IWC 27 Wage Order, Class Members were entitled to paid rest breaks of not less than ten (10) minutes for 28 each consecutive four (4) hour shift, and Defendants failed to provide Class Members with timely

1 rest breaks of not less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift. Defendants
2 placed their needs over Class Members lawful rest breaks and this resulted in Class Members 3 consistently having to work through their scheduled rest breaks because the demands of the job 4 would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully uninterrupted and off-duty rest break.
5 Thus, Class Members were consistently denied of their rest breaks. Additionally, to the extent 6 Class Members attempted to take a break, they were prohibited from leaving the premises.

7 78. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders 8 provide that if an employer fails to provide an employee rest period in accordance with this 9 section, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 10 compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.

11 79. Defendants, and each of them, have therefore intentionally and improperly denied 12 rest periods to Class Members in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and paragraph 12 of 13 the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

14 80. Defendants failed to authorize and permit Class Members to take rest periods, as 15 required by the Labor Code. Moreover, Defendants did not compensate Class Members with an 16 additional hour of pay at each Class Member's effective hourly rate for each day that Defendants 17 failed to provide them with adequate rest breaks, as required under Labor Code § 226.7.

18 81. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC 19 Wage Orders, Class Members are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages 20 at their effective hourly rates of pay for each day worked without the required rest breaks, a sum to 21 be proven at trial, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each 22 of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

23 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(a)

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 82. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 27 full herein.

28 83. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each of his or her

1 employees with an accurate, itemized statement in writing showing the gross and net earnings, 2 total hours worked, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; these 3 statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else 4 serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these 5 statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the 6 employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid.

7 84. Defendants failed to provide Class Members with accurate itemized wage 8 statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to 9 Class Members failed to accurately account for unpaid wages and overtime because Defendants 10 under-reported Class Members' actual hours worked due to off the clock work. Additionally, the 11 wage statements given to Class Members failed to accurately account for premium pay for 12 deficiently provided meal periods and rest breaks.

13 85. Throughout the liability period, Defendants intentionally failed to furnish to Class 14 Members, upon each payment of wages, itemized statements accurately showing: (1) gross wages 15 earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any 16 applicable piece rate paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 17 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and 18 only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number 19 other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 20 employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 21 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee pursuant to Labor Code § 226, 22 amongst other statutory requirements. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide 23 Class Members with such timely and accurate wage and hour statements.

24 86. Class Members suffered injury as a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional 25 failure to provide them with the accurate wage and hour statements as required by law and are 26 presumed to have suffered injury and be entitled to penalties under Labor Code § 226(e), as the 27 Defendants have failed to provide wage statements with accurate and complete information as 28 required by any one or more of items Labor Code § 226 (a)(1) to (9), inclusive, and Class

Members cannot promptly and easily determine from the wage statement alone one or more of the following: (i) The amount of the gross wages or net wages paid to the employee during the pay period or any of the other information required to be provided on the itemized wage statement pursuant to items (2) to (4), inclusive, (6), and (9) of subdivision (a), (ii) Which deductions the employer made from gross wages to determine the net wages paid to the employee during the pay period, (iii) The name and address of the employer and, (iv) The name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number. For purposes of Labor Code § 226(e) “promptly and easily determine” means a reasonable person [i.e. an objective standard] would be able to readily ascertain the information without reference to other documents or information.

87. Therefore, as a direct and proximate cause of Defendants’ violation of Labor Code § 226(a), Class Members suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

88. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e) and 1174, and the applicable IWC Wage Order, paragraph 7(B), Class Members are entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 203
(Against All Defendants)

89. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

90. Numerous Class Members are no longer employed by Defendants; they either quit Defendants’ employ or were fired therefrom.

1 91. Defendants failed to pay these Class Members all wages due and certain at the time 2 of termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation.

3 92. The wages withheld from these Class Members by Defendants remained due and 4 owing for more than thirty (30) days from the date of separation from employment.

5 93. Defendants failed to pay Class Members without abatement, all wages as defined 6 by applicable California law. Specifically, Class Members were not paid all regular and overtime 7 wages because Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked by requiring off the clock work.
8 Additionally, Defendants failed to pay premium wages owed for unprovided meal periods and rest 9 periods, as further detailed in this Complaint. Defendants' failure to pay said wages within the 10 required time was willful within the meaning of Labor Code § 203.

11 94. Defendants' failure to pay wages, as alleged entitles these Class Members to 12 penalties under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until 13 paid for up to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

14 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
15 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 204
16 (Against All Defendants)

17 95. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 18 full herein.

19 96. Labor Code § 204 instructs that: "All wages, ...earned by any person in any 20 employment are due and payable twice during each calendar month, on days designated in 21 advance by the employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, 22 inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month 23 during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, 24 inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following 25 month." Additionally, the requirements of this section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of 26 wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven 27 calendar days following the close of the payroll period." As detailed above, Defendants 28 maintained a consistently applied policy and practice of not paying all wages earned between the

1 1st and 15th days of a month between the 16th and 26th day and failed to pay all wages earned 2 between the 16th and the last day of the month between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.
3 Defendants similarly failed to pay all wages earned by not more than seven calendar days 4 following the close of the payroll period. These failures all arose from either Defendants' failure to 5 pay for all hours worked or failure to pay all earned commission wages.

6 97. All wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Class Members, including as required 7 under Labor Code § 510, were therefore not timely paid by Defendants, as addressed in detail 8 above. Additionally, wages required by Labor Code § 1194 and other sections became due and 9 payable to each Class Member in each pay period that he or she was not provided with a meal 10 period or rest period or paid straight or overtime wages or commissions to which he or she was 11 entitled.

12 98. Defendants thus violated Labor Code § 204 by systematically refusing to pay 13 wages due under the Labor Code, as addressed above. Additionally, under paragraph 4(B) of the 14 applicable IWC Wage Orders, employers are required "to pay each employee, on the established 15 payday for the period involved, not less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in 16 the payroll period, ..." Under Labor Code § 1198, "[t]he employment of any employee for longer 17 hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is 18 unlawful." Plaintiff and the Class Members may therefore pursue damages and penalties for 19 violations of Labor Code § 204 and paragraph 4(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, including 20 penalties under paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

21 99. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and Class Members seek to 22 represent they have been deprived of wages in amounts to be determined at trial, and they are 23 entitled to recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, 24 pursuant to Labor Code § 210, 218.5, 1194 and 1198, and paragraphs 4(B) and 20 of the 25 applicable IWC Wage Orders.

28 ///

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 221
(Against All Defendants)

100. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

101. Labor Code § 221 provides, "It shall be unlawful for any employer to collect or receive from an employee any part of wages theretofore paid by said employer to said employee." Additionally, pursuant to California Labor Code § 204, other applicable laws and regulations, and public policy, an employer must timely pay its employees for all hours worked. Defendants failed to do so.

102. Defendants unlawfully received and/or collected wages from Class Members in the Class by implementing a policy requiring off the clock work, and as otherwise alleged above.

103. As a direct and proximate cause of the unauthorized deductions, Class Members have been damaged, in an amount to be determined at trial.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO KEEP REQUIRED PAYROLL RECORDS UNDER LABOR CODE § 1174
AND 1174.5
(Against All Defendants)

104. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

105. California Labor Code § 1174 requires that all employers shall keep accurate time and wage records for all employees. California Labor Code § 1174.5 further requires that any employee suffering injury due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may seek damages, including civil penalties, from the employer.

106. During the course of Plaintiff's and Class Members' employment, Defendants consistently failed to maintain accurate time and wage records for Plaintiff and Class Members as required by California Labor Code § 1174 by failing to pay Plaintiff and Class Members proper wages, overtime, and premium pay as discussed above.

107. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code § 1174.5 for the three (3) years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

REIMBURSEMENT OF NECESSARY EXPENDITURES UNDER LABOR CODE § 2802

(Against All Defendants)

108. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though set forth in full herein.

109. Under Labor Code § 2802(a) an employer must indemnify its employees for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

110. Defendants have regularly required Plaintiff to incur business expenses in the course of performing her required job duties for Defendants including for home internet and equipment such as a desk and chair. Plaintiff was required to use her personal internet when working remotely from home and was also required to purchase her own equipment such as a desk and chair. Upon information and belief, Class Members incurred similar costs. These expenses incurred by Plaintiff and Class Members were necessary and required of them in performing their assigned job duties, but Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for all such necessary expenditures. Class Members were not reimbursed for those lawful and necessary work related expenses or losses incurred in direct discharge of their job duties during employment with Defendants and at the direction of the Defendants pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, paragraph 9.

111. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Class Members have been deprived of reimbursement in amounts to be determined at trial; they are entitled to recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200 ET SEQ.

(Against All Defendants)

112. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in

1 full herein.

2 113. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, Class Members, and the general public, brings this 3 claim pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. The conduct of Defendants as 4 alleged in this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Class 5 Members and the general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public 6 interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

7 114. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of Business & Professions Code 8 § 17204, has suffered injury, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive 9 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

10 115. Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair 11 business practices. By the conduct alleged herein, Defendants’ practices were deceptive and 12 fraudulent in that Defendants’ policy and practice failed to provide the required amount of 13 compensation for missed meal and rest breaks, and failed to adequately compensate Class 14 Members for all hours worked, due to systematic business practices as alleged herein that cannot 15 be justified, pursuant to the applicable California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission 16 requirements in violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., and for 17 which this Court should issue injunctive and equitable relief, pursuant to California Business & 18 Professions Code § 17203, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

19 116. Wage-and-hour laws express fundamental public policies. Paying employees their 20 wages and overtime, providing them with meal periods and rest breaks, etc., are fundamental 21 public policies of California. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State 22 vigorously to enforce minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or 23 permitted to work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding 24 employers and their employees from competitors who lower costs to themselves by failing to 25 comply with minimum labor standards.

26 117. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged 27 in this Complaint Defendants have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific 28 provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in

1 violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; which conduct has deprived Plaintiff, 2 and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons, of the rights, benefits, and privileges 3 guaranteed to all employees under the law.

4 118. Defendants' conduct, as alleged above, constitutes unfair competition in violation 5 of the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

6 119. Defendants, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, by failing to pay wages and 7 overtime, failing to provide meal periods and rest breaks, etc., either knew or in the exercise of 8 reasonable care should have known that their conduct was unlawful; therefore their conduct 9 violates the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

10 120. By the conduct alleged herein, Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in 11 a business practice which violates California and federal law, including but not limited to, the 12 applicable Industrial Wage Order(s), the California Code of Regulations, and the California Labor 13 Code including Sections 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 512, 1194, 1197, and 1198, for which this Court 14 should issue declaratory and other equitable relief pursuant to California Business & Professions 15 Code § 17203 as may be necessary to prevent and remedy the conduct held to constitute unfair 16 competition, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

17 121. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendants, Class Members 18 have been damaged, in a sum to be proven at trial.

19 122. Unless restrained by this Court Defendants will continue to engage in such 20 unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this Court 21 should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be 22 necessary to prevent the use by Defendants or their agents or employees of any unlawful or 23 deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, including but not limited to the 24 disgorgement of such profits as may be necessary to restore Class Members to the money 25 Defendants have unlawfully failed to pay.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.
(Against All Defendants)

123. Plaintiff realleges and incorporate all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

124. Plaintiff and the Employees in the Class are also aggrieved employees as defined under Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they suffered the violations alleged in this Complaint and either were or are employed by the alleged violators, Defendants (“Aggrieved Employees”) during the relevant time period.

125. In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages and overtime, not providing proper meal and rest periods, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and failing to pay Employees wages upon termination or timely upon resignation, all discussed above, Defendants failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor Code § 204. Defendants also failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and paragraph 7 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

126. As such, Employees seek wages and penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699 for Defendants’ violation of Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code § 2699.5, including the penalty provisions, without limitation, based, inter alia, on the following California Labor Code sections: 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.2, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1185, 1194, 1194.1, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, and 2698 et seq.

127. More specifically, after complying with the notice procedures of Labor Code § 2699.3, Plaintiff asserts, as a representative action on behalf of the California Attorney General and the other similarly Aggrieved Employees, a PAGA claim for violations of the above addressed underlying claims and seeking penalties as specified by the applicable corresponding provisions, including as follows:

(a) Wage Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned regular pay and minimum wages for regular hours worked and for failure to pay overtime

1 premium wages for overtime hours worked under Labor Code §§ 226.2, 510, 1194(a), 1197, and 2 1198, and paragraphs 2(K), 3(A), 4(A), 4(B) and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking 3 all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, and wages, under Labor Code §§ 510, 4 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant 5 to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

6 (b) Meal and Rest Period Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 7 Employees off-duty, timely, and unpaid meal periods and failure to authorize and permit them to 8 take off-duty, timely, and paid rest periods, or pay one hour of regular pay in lieu thereof, under 9 Labor Code §§ 512, 1198, and 226.7, and Sections 11, 12(A), and 12(B) of the applicable IWC 10 Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, including under 11 paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and wages under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 12 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and also for attorneys' fees and costs 13 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

14 (c) Inaccurate Wage Statements and Failure to Maintain Records: For failure to provide 15 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to 16 maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 17 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking 18 all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226(e), 19 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, 20 and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1). More specifically, by 21 providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor 22 Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor 23 Code §226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to "a 24 penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial 25 citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent 26 citation, ...";

27 (d) Failure to Timely Pay Wages: For failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at 28 least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201, 203, 204,

226.2, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable, and wages, under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(e) Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses: For Defendants' failure to reimburse the necessary work related expenses incurred under Labor Code §§ 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802, and Sections 2(K), 4, 9, and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), seeking civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 221, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802, 2699.5, and 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 9 and 20 of the IWC Wage Orders, and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(f) All Alleged Violations of the IWC Wage Orders and Other Labor Code Sections: For any above addressed violation of the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage Orders, each of which constitute separate violations of Labor Code § 1198 and Labor Code § 2699.5, and seeking penalties available and applicable under Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

128. As also addressed above, Plaintiff, on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees, also seek the penalties and remedies set forth in Labor Code § 558, which states:

(a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.

(b) If upon inspection or investigation the Labor Commissioner determines that a person had paid or caused to be paid a wage for overtime work in violation of any provision of this chapter, or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the Labor Commissioner may issue a citation. The procedures for issuing, contesting, and enforcing judgments for citations or civil penalties issued by the Labor Commissioner for a violation of this chapter shall be the same as those set out in Section 1197.1.

(c) The civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided by law.

129. Plaintiff has exhausted HER administrative remedies by sending a certified letter to the LWDA and Defendants postmarked on August 30, 2023, addressing in detail the specific provisions of the Labor Code Defendants have violated and addressing the facts and legal theories to support the alleged violations and requested penalties. The LWDA has not provided notice of its intent to investigate the alleged violations within 65 calendar days of the postmark date of the letter, and Plaintiff adds this claim seeking penalties under the PAGA for the violations addressed herein and in the PAGA Notice letter and the original Complaint.
