1 Plaintiffs Grant Wagemaker (“Wagemaker”) and Zaid Almufti (“Almufti”) (collectively,
2 “Plaintiffs”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary
3 support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, allege as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants Cyient, Inc., and Does 1 through 10
6 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations and unfair business
7 practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime
8 wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to 9 maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to 10 terminated employees, failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, and failure to furnish 11 accurate wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiffs bring the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a class
13 action on behalf of themselves and certain current and former employees of Defendants 14 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 15 below). The Class consists of Plaintiffs and all other persons who have been employed by any 16 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations
17 period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiffs bring the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 20 Plaintiffs, the State of California, and past and present employees of Defendants (hereinafter 21 referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

22 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 23 establishment within the State of California, including Ventura County. As such, and based upon 24 all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants are 25 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission
26 (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

27 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants maintained 28 a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 1 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum
2 wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code
3 and IWC Wage Orders;
- 4 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 5 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing
6 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing
7 to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period violation 8 occurred;
- 9 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
10 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
11 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 12 period violation occurred;
- 13 (d) Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- 14 (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, 15 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within the 16 time period specified by California law when employment terminates; and
- 17 (f) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked.
- 18 (g) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
19 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 20 IWC Wage Orders.

21 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 22 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 23 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 24 willful and deliberate.

25 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 26 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 27 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiffs and the Class and Aggrieved Employees.
28

Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior”.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiffs

8. Wagemaker is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of Ventura, State of California, as a section manager from approximately September 2020 to November 2022.

9. Almufti is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of Ventura, State of California, as a field tech from approximately January 2021 to November 2022.

10. Plaintiffs reserve the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

11. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief allege, that Defendant Cyient, Inc. is:

- (a) A California corporation with its principal place of business in Ventura, California.
- (b) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Ventura County; and
- (c) The former employer of Plaintiffs, and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class and Aggrieved Employees. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiffs and the Class and Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.
- (d) At all times mentioned herein, Defendant is and was the employer of Plaintiffs and the Class and Aggrieved Employees.

12. Plaintiffs do not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sue said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

13. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of California.

14. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and Aggrieved Employees as defined above, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

15. Plaintiff Wagemaker is a California resident who worked for Defendants in the County of Ventura, State of California, as a section manager from approximately September 2020 to November 2022. Plaintiff Almufti is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of Ventura, State of California, as a field tech from approximately January 2021 to November 2022. Plaintiffs were typically scheduled to work at least 5 days in a workweek, and typically in excess of 8 hours in a single workday.

1 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs for all hours
2 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiffs with 3 uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs to take uninterrupted rest
4 periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiffs for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all final 5 wages to Plaintiffs when Defendants terminated Plaintiffs' employment, and failed to furnish 6 accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs. As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experience working for 7 Defendants was typical and illustrative.

8 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not 9 paying Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including all
10 overtime wages. During the statutory period, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
11 were misclassified as salaried employees, when in-fact Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
12 Employees should have been classified as non-exempt employees. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 13 Aggrieved Employees were not paid for all work performed, and Defendants failed to maintain 14 accurate records of actual times worked. Also, despite working in excess of 8 hours per day and in 15 excess of 40 hours per week, Defendants failed to pay overtime compensation.

16 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 17 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods.
18 Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
19 Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing 30-minute, 20 continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without 21 compensating Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not 22 provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not
23 adequately inform Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal
24 period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the 25 tenth hour of work. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal periods
26 to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

27 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 28 and permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest

1 periods. Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
2 Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and
3 permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours
4 of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 5 Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendants also did
6 not adequately inform Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a
7 rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or 8 authorizing rest periods for Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendants
9 have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants also did not 10 have adequate policies or practices to verify whether Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
11 Employees were taking their required rest periods. Further, Defendants did not maintain accurate
12 records of employee work periods, and therefore Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiffs,
13 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees took rest periods during the middle of each work period.
14 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiffs, the Class,
15 and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

16 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiffs, the 17 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their 18 duties for Defendants without reimbursement, which included without limitation the use of 19 personal cellular telephones for work purposes. Also, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
20 Employees were required to work from home, but were not reimbursed all expenses such as home
21 internet, personal computers and printer, and office supplies. Also, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 22 Aggrieved Employees were required to use their own personal vehicles for work purposes, without 23 reimbursement.

24 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
25 pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of their employment all
26 wages for all minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period
27 premium wages. Further, Defendants did not pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
28 Employees their final paychecks immediately upon termination.

1 22. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs, the Class,
2 and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable
3 hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages
4 earned for hours worked, correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were 5 not provided in accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were not
6 authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and Defendant's address).
7 Further, the wage statements do not show Defendant's address as required by California law. As 8 a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 9 Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other things:

- 10 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
11 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest
12 period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were 13 entitled;
- 14 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,
15 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even 16 though they had not been;
- 17 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum, 18 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the 19 correct California rate even though they were;
- 20 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime,
21 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct
22 California rate even though they had not been;
- 23 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, 24 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- 25 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 26 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 27 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages 28

owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information;

(g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;

(h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages rates to which Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled, and Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

Thus, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 226(e), including actual damages.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

23. Plaintiffs bring certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

24. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiffs seek relief authorized by California law.

25. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as a non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

26. At all material times, Plaintiffs were a member of the Class.

27. Plaintiffs undertake this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

28. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

(a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.

1 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time,
2 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the 3 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 4 Defendants' records.

5 (b) Typicality: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
6 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
7 defined community of interest, and Plaintiffs' claims (or defenses, if any)
8 are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

9 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
10 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
11 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated
12 herein. Plaintiffs have no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 13 Member. Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the 14 rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
15 Plaintiffs have incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 16 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 17 necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial 18 benefit of each class member.

19 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 20 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 21 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling 22 the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 23 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy
24 already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 25 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the 26 claims in the particular forum; and
- 27 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class 28 action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

29. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum wages, and overtime wages;
- (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- (d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their discharge or resignation;
- (e) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
- (f) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses; and
- (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

30. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;

- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiffs, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or
 - 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
- (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

31. Plaintiffs contemplate the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of

1 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own
2 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated
3 notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiffs would contemplate the 4 use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice,
5 e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable
6 to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

9 32. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
10 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

11 33. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 12 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 13 not required to do so.

14 34. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 15 Plaintiffs and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay
16 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions
17 of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which 18 require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

19 35. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for all 20 non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

21 36. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiffs and the Class have been 22 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

23 37. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 24 Plaintiffs and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiffs and the Class 25 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 26 Plaintiffs and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which will 27 be ascertained according to proof at trial.

38. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiffs and the Class.

39. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

40. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiffs and the Class all such wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

41. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

42. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

43. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

44. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

45. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs and the Class have worked more than eight

1 hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

2 46. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Class
3 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
4 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198. Plaintiffs and the Class
5 are regularly required to work overtime hours.

6 47. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
7 compensation to the Plaintiffs and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiffs and the 8 Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown
9 to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained
10 according to proof at trial.

11 48. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 12 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 13 Plaintiffs and the Class.

14 49. Plaintiffs and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according 15 to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well
16 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 17 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

18 50. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 19 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 20 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all
21 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the Class
22 with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

23 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

25 51. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
26 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

27 52. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 28 Plaintiffs and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the

1 start of Plaintiffs and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal
2 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the 3 California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer
4 provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a
5 violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee
6 to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

7 53. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiffs
8 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and 9 authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that 10 Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), 11 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and the 12 applicable Wage Orders.

13 54. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 14 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s),
15 plus interest thereon.

16 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

18 55. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
19 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

20 56. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 21 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 22 two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that the 23 employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for each 24 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, 25 the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is 26 itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of the California
27 Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated 28 under any Wage Order.

1 57. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiffs and the 2 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours in a workday.
3 By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest periods as alleged above
4 (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted
5 rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor
6 Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

7 58. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 8 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s),
9 plus interest thereon.

10 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

12 59. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
13 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

14 60. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by failing
15 to pay and indemnify the Plaintiffs and the Class for their necessary expenditures and losses
16 incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions
17 of Defendants.

18 61. As a result, Plaintiffs and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 19 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

20 62. Plaintiffs and the class they represent are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and 21 costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 22 2802(b).

23 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 25 Penalties)

26 63. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
27 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

64. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

65. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiffs and many other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

66. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and those Class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

67. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

68. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

69. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

70. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

71. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

72. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiffs and the Class, the failure to list the true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

73. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

74. Specifically, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

75. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiffs and the Class is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiffs and the Class were also injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related

1 laws and regulations.

2 76. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their actual damages
3 caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

4 77. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 5 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code
6 § 226(h).

7 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, 9 et seq.)

10 78. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
11 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

12 79. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business
13 & Professions Code § 17201.

14 80. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
15 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiffs, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiffs seek 16 to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 17 Procedure § 1021.5.

18 81. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 19 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
20 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

21 82. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 22 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations
23 of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy;
24 and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby
25 constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business
26 & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

27 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

28 83. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

84. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

85. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

86. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

87. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

88. Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

89. Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

90. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

91. Plaintiffs and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

92. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, are entitled to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiffs and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiffs and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

93. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

94. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, have suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

95. Plaintiffs also allege that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other withholdings.

96. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiffs and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by

1 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a
2 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiffs and Class
3 Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and 4 other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

5 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act
7 of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

8 97. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
9 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

10 98. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 11 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

12 99. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action
13 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law,
14 any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
15 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
16 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a 17 civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or 18 former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3."

19 100. Plaintiffs have exhausted their administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor 20 Code § 2699.3. On May 20, 2023, Plaintiff Wagemaker gave written notice by online filing to the 21 Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific 22 provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Wagemaker and current and 23 former Aggrieved Employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. On August
24 29, 2023, Plaintiff Almufti gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce
25 Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor
26 Code that Defendants have violated against Almufti and current and former Aggrieved Employees, 27 including the facts and theories to support the violations. At the time of this filing, 65 days have 28 elapsed since Plaintiffs provided notice, but the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has

1 not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants' Labor Code violations discussed in the 2 notice. Accordingly, Plaintiffs may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code
3 § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint.
4 These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210,
5 226.3, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

6 101. In addition, Plaintiffs seek penalties for Defendants' violation of California Labor
7 Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, 8 employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by 9 California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable
10 IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins
11 and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.
12 Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall keep total 13 hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

14 102. During the time period of employment for Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees, 15 Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders by failing to 16 maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and accurate records showing when employees
17 begin and end each work period. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by 18 the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to 19 know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of 20 their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved 21 Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an
22 unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved
23 Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment
24 of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel
25 Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts
26 according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code
27 and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.
28

103. Based on the conduct described in this First Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs are entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of themselves, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

104. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;

2. That Plaintiffs be appointed as the representatives of the Class; and

3. That counsel for Plaintiffs be appointed as Class Counsel.

As to the First Cause of Action

4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all minimum wages due;

5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;

6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

7. For liquidated damages;

8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

1 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

2 As to the Second Cause of Action

3 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
4 Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all
5 overtime wages due;

6 11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;

7 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from 8 the date such amounts were due;

9 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 10 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

11 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

12 As to the Third Cause of Action

13 15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
14 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

15 16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

16 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
17 such amounts were due;

18 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 19 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

20 19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

21 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

22 20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
23 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

24 21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

25 22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
26 such amounts were due;

27 23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 28 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders;

26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be appropriate;

27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h);

38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify necessary business expenses;

41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiffs and all Class Members and prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to all Causes of Action

46. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.
