DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL
UNLIMITED CIVIL CASE

1 Plaintiff Joseph W. Duran ("Plaintiff"), on behalf of himself and all others similarly
2 situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint
3 ("Complaint") against Defendants Edelbrock Foundry, LLC, a California Limited Liability
4 Company; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants"), and on information and 5 belief alleges as follows:

6 JURISDICTION

7 1. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this
8 Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions
9 Code § 17200 et. seq., Labor Code §§ 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 10 1197, 1198, 2802, 2804, 2698 et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order 1 ("Wage
11 Order 1"), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution. This 12 Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has 13 jurisdiction over Defendants' violations of the California Labor Code because the amount in 14 controversy exceeds this Court's jurisdictional minimum.

15 VENUE

16 2. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil 17 Procedure §§ 395(a) and 395.5, as at least some of the acts and omissions complained of herein
18 occurred in Riverside County. Defendants own, maintain offices, transact business, have an agent
19 or agents within Riverside County, and/or otherwise are found within Riverside County, and 20 Defendants are within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

21 PARTIES

22 3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of 23 eighteen (18). At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff was, and currently is, a California resident.
24 Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff
25 was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of 26 Defendants' policies and/or practices complained of herein, lost money and/or property, and has 27 been deprived of the rights guaranteed by California Business and Professions Code § 17200 et.
28 seq., Labor Code §§ 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198,

1 2802, 2804, 2698 et seq., and Wage Order 1, which sets employment standards for the 2 manufacturing industry.

3 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 4 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,
5 Defendants engage in and continue to engage in the manufacturing of roofing products, and
6 employed Plaintiff and other, similarly-situated non-exempt employees within Riverside County,
7 and the State of California and, therefore, were (and are) doing business in Riverside County and 8 the State of California.

9 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner,
10 or corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 100, inclusive, and for that reason, said
11 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 12 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed,
13 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
14 partners, or corporate, were responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein,
15 and proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes (as defined in Paragraph 15) to be subject to the 16 unlawful employment practices, wrongs, injuries and damages complained of herein.

17 6. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned 18 herein, Defendants were and are the employers of Plaintiff and all members of the Classes.

19 7. At all relevant times, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of the acts
20 hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendants; and furthermore, the Defendants,
21 and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each and every one of the other
22 Defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned were acting 23 within the course and scope of said agency and employment. Defendants, and each of them,
24 approved of, condoned, and/or otherwise ratified each and every one of the acts or omissions
25 complained of herein.

26 8. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of 27 and engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course
28 and scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further,

Plaintiff alleges that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff and all members of the Classes.

GENERAL FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

9. Defendants manufacture and distribute performance replacement parts for the automotive and motorcycle industry. Plaintiff began working for Defendants at its San Jacinto, California facility as a non-exempt employee in approximately 2020 and is currently employed by Defendants.

10. Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to work four 10-hour shifts per workweek without paying overtime for hours worked over 8 hours but less than 10 hours, pursuant to a purported alternative workweek schedule (“AWS”). However, upon information and belief, the AWS was not properly instituted because, prior to any AWS election, Defendants failed to follow the notice/disclosures procedures required by Wage Order 1, § 3(C). In addition, the AWS election is not registered with the State of California. As a result of its failure to properly institute an AWS, Defendants have improperly failed to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees time-and-a-half for all overtime hours worked, resulting in unpaid overtime wages.

11. During Plaintiff’s employment with Defendants, Defendants also utilized a timekeeping system which resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being compensated for all hours actually worked, whether by rounding, time-shaving, or otherwise. Defendants’ timekeeping policies/practices were not even-handed and have resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being compensated for all hours worked, resulting in unpaid minimum and overtime wages.

12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants’ meal period policies/practices, which have resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes of net rest) and missed meal periods. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with 30 minutes of net rest in an area appropriate for rest away from the workstation, resulting in short meal periods. Defendants have also failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-

1 exempt employees with an uninterrupted second meal period of at least 30 minutes in duration
2 for shifts in excess of 10.0 hours. On those occasions when Plaintiff was not provided with all
3 legally compliant meal periods to which he was entitled, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff 4 with the required meal period premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation as 5 mandated by Labor Code § 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no
6 mechanism for the payment of meal period premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7,
7 in the event that a legally compliant meal period was not provided to their non-exempt employees.

8 13. Defendants have also failed to authorize and permit all required rest periods for 9 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees. Specifically, Defendants have often failed to authorize 10 and permit a third 10-minute rest period on shifts over 10.0 hours, as required under California
11 law. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees from taking 10
12 minutes of net rest in areas away from the workstation appropriate for rest. Despite failing to 13 authorize and permit Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to take all rest periods to which 14 they are entitled, upon information and belief, during at least a portion of the relevant time period, 15 Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period premium payments as 16 required by Labor Code section 226.7 and did not pay Plaintiff or other non-exempt employees
17 any rest period premiums.

18 14. Defendants also failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees for 19 use of their personal cellular phones for work activities. Upon information and belief, Defendants 20 required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to communicate with coworkers and their 21 supervisors through their personal cellular phones; however, Defendants failed to reimburse
22 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees for the use of their personal cellular phones for business 23 purposes.

24 15. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages and 25 failure to pay all meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll
26 records and issued inaccurate wage statements to Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees.
27 Furthermore, Defendants issued facially deficient wage statements to Plaintiff and other non-28 exempt employees which fail to list the name of the legal entity of the employer in violation of

1 Labor Code § 226(a)(8).

2 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

3 16. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the 4 following Classes pursuant to § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

- 5 a. The Minimum Wage Class consists of all of Defendants' current and former non-
6 exempt employees in California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping 7 policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of 8 this action through the present.
- 9 b. The Overtime Class consists of all of Defendants' current and former non-exempt
10 employees in California who: (i) worked pursuant to a purported AWS; and/or (ii)
11 worked more than 8.0 hours per day and/or 40.0 hours per week and were subject
12 to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during the four years 13 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 14 c. The Meal Period Class consists of all of Defendants' current and former non-15 exempt employees in California who worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0
16 hours without a second meal period of at least 30 minutes in duration commencing 17 prior to the conclusion of the tenth hour of work as reflected in their timekeeping
18 records, and who do not have a corresponding meal period premium payment 19 made for such shifts, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this 20 action through the present.
- 21 d. The Rest Period Class consists of all of Defendants' current and former non-22 exempt employees in California who worked at least one workday of over 10.0
23 hours, at any point from four years immediately preceding the filing of this action 24 through the present.
- 25 e. The Employee Expense Class consists of all of Defendants' current and former 26 non-exempt employees in California who were not reimbursed for the use of their 27 personal cellular phones, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of 28 this action through the present.

- e. The Wage Statement Class consists of all of Defendants' current and former non-exempt employees in California who received a wage statement, during the one year immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

17. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the Classes and Subclasses are unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number greater than one hundred (100) individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records.

18. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well Defined Community of Interest: There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and all other similarly situated employees, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

- i. Whether Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices resulted in the failure to properly compensate members of the Minimum and Overtime Wage Classes for all hours actually worked;
- ii. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime Class;
- iii. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- iv. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods to members of the Rest Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
- v. Whether Defendants provided meal and rest period premium payments for non-compliant meal and rest periods;
- vi. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse members of the Employee Expense Class for necessary work expenses; and
- vii. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226.

19. Predominance of Common Questions: Common questions of law and fact predominate over questions that affect only individual members of the Classes. The common questions of law set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member, including but not limited to Defendants' timekeeping policies/practices, and meal and rest period policies/practices. As such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

20. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s) of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein, Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all minimum and overtime wages owed due to Defendants' timekeeping policies/practices, was not provided all required meal periods, was not authorized and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-compliant meal and rest periods, was not reimbursed for all necessary business expenditures, and was not provided with accurate, compliant, itemized wage statements.

21. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have prosecuted and defended numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the members of the Classes.

22. Superiority: The California Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. Further, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members, even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. Further, the claims of the individual members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto. As such, the Classes identified in Paragraph 15 are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

23. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

24. Wage Order 1, § 4 and California Labor Code §§ 1197 and 1182.12 establish the right of employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state law. Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid wages and interest accrued thereon. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform its pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the

1 Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, all hours they were
2 subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the California
3 Labor Code and Wage Order 1.

4 25. California Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee
5 under conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide
6 that an employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay
7 those employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an 8 amount equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

9 26. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of minimum wages, Plaintiff and 10 members of the Minimum Wage Class seek penalties pursuant to Wage Order 1 § 20(a) and 11 California Labor Code § 1199; interest pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.6 and 1194 and 12 Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289; liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2;
13 attorneys' fees and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194 et seq.; and damages
14 and/or penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 558(a).

15 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

16 FAILURE TO PAY ALL OVERTIME WAGES

17 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

18 27. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

19 28. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 20 1198, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages and 21 compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure
22 to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

23 29. At all relevant times, Defendants were required to compensate hourly non-exempt
24 employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours worked
25 pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194 and IWC Wage Order No. 1. Wage Order 1, § 3(B)
26 requires an employer to pay an employee "one and one-half (1½) times such employee's regular 27 rate of pay" for work in excess of 8 hours per work day and/or in excess of 40 hours in a 28 workweek. Labor Code § 510 and Wage Order 1, Section 3 also require an employer to pay an

1 employee double the employee's regular rate of work in excess of 12 hours each workday and/or 2 any work in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of the workweek. As alleged herein,
3 Defendants caused Plaintiff and the members of the Overtime Class to work overtime and/or 4 double-time hours but did not properly compensate Plaintiff and the members of the Overtime
5 Class at one and one-half times their regular rate of pay (or double-time, in the case of double-6 time hours) for such hours.

7 30. The foregoing policies and practices are unlawful and create entitlement to 8 recovery by Plaintiff and the Overtime Class members in a civil action for the unpaid amount of 9 overtime premiums owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and 10 costs of suit according to California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198;
11 Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

12 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

13 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

14 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

15 31. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

16 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 failed in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California,
18 including Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods
19 in accordance with the mandates of the California Labor Code and Wage Order 1, § 11. Despite 20 Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and members
21 of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in accordance with 22 California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

23 33. As a result, Defendants are responsible for paying premium compensation for meal
24 period violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, civil penalties, and costs of suit,
25 pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Order 1, and Civil Code §§ 3287(b) and 3289.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

3 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

4 34. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

5 35. Wage Order 1, § 12 and California Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516 and 558 establish 6 the right of employees to be provided with a rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for each four 7 (4) hour period worked, or major fraction thereof. Despite Defendants' failure to authorize and 8 permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class to take all legally complaint rest periods as 9 alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals an additional hour of pay at their 10 respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to authorize and permit them to take, as 11 required by Labor Code § 226.7.

12 36. Defendants' policies and practices described herein are unlawful and create an 13 entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class in a civil action for the 14 unpaid amount of rest period premiums owing, including interests thereon, statutory penalties,
15 civil penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code §§ 226.7, 16 516, 558, Wage Order 1, and Civil Code §§ 3287(b) and 3289.

17 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR ALL NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENDITURES

19 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

20 37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

21 38. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2802, which 22 states that "an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or 23 losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of 24 his or her obedience to the directions of the employer."

25 39. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2804, which 26 states that "any contract or agreement, express or implied, made by any employee to waive the 27 benefits of this article or any part thereof, is null and void, and this article shall not deprive any 28 employee or his personal representative of any right or remedy to which he is entitled under the laws of this State.”

40. Due to Defendants’ unlawful policy and practice of requiring employees to use their personal cellular phones for work purposes and failing to compensate employees for the use of their personal cellular phones, Defendants have violated Labor Code § 2802.

41. As a proximate result of Defendants’ policies and/or practices in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2804, Plaintiff and members of the Employee Expense Class suffered damages in sums, which will be shown according to proof.

42. Plaintiff and members of the Employee Expense Class are entitled to attorneys’ fees and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(c) for bringing this action.

43. Pursuant to Labor Code §2802(b), any action brought for the reimbursement of necessary expenditures carries interest at the same rate as judgments in civil actions. Thus, Plaintiff and members of the Employee Expense Class are entitled to interest, which shall accrue from the date on which they incurred the initial necessary expenditure.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

WAGE STATEMENT VIOLATIONS

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, and the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of Labor Code § 226 et seq.

46. Defendants’ failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages and meal and rest period premium wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies in Defendants’ reported data.

1 47. Defendants' failures create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and members of 2 the Wage Statement Class in a civil action for all damages and/or penalties pursuant to Labor
3 Code § 226 et seq., including statutory penalties, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees, and 4 costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226 et seq.

5 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 UNFAIR COMPETITION

7 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

8 48. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

9 49. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful 10 business practices in California in violation of California Business and Professions Code § 17200
11 et seq., by: (a) failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class all minimum
12 wages owed; (b) failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages
13 owed; (c) failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal periods 14 to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them meal period premium payments; (d) failing to 15 authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class all rest periods to which they 16 are entitled, and failing to pay them rest period premium payments; (e) failing to reimburse the 17 Employee expense Class for all necessary business expenditures; and (f) failing to issue accurate
18 and itemized wage statements to the Wage Statement Class.

19 50. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived 20 Plaintiff and continues to deprive members of the Classes of compensation to which they are 21 legally entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage
22 over Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and 23 attempting to do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

24 51. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged 25 herein, Plaintiff for himself and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of 26 monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired 27 and/or converted by Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

28 52. The acts complained of herein occurred within the last four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint in this action.

53. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and those of the Classes, to obtain restitution and injunctive relief on behalf of Defendants' current non-exempt employees, and to enforce important rights affecting the public interest. Plaintiff has thereby incurred the financial burden of attorneys' fees and costs, which he is entitled to recover under Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

54. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

55. Defendants have committed several Labor Code violations against Plaintiff, members of the Classes, and other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff, an "aggrieved employee" within the meaning of Labor Code § 2698 et seq., acting on behalf of himself and other aggrieved employees, brings this representative action against Defendants to recover the civil penalties due to Plaintiff, the members of the Classes, other aggrieved employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code § 558 and § 2699 (a) and (h) including, but not limited to: (1) $100.00 for each initial violation for each failure to pay each employee and $200 for each subsequent violation or willful or intentional violation pursuant to Labor Code § 210 for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld; (2) $50.00 for each initial violation and $100 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 558 per employee per pay period; (3) $100.00 for each initial violation and $250.00 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 1197.1 per employee per pay period; (4) $250.00 for each initial violation and $1,000.00 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3 per employee per pay period; and/or (5) $100.00 for each initial violation and $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided, based on the following Labor Code violations:

- a. Failing to pay minimum wages for all hours worked to Plaintiff, the Minimum Wage Class, and other aggrieved employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 558,

1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198;

b. Failing to pay Plaintiff, the Overtime Class, and other aggrieved employees all earned overtime compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198;

c. Failing to provide all legally required meal periods, and failure to pay meal period premium wages, to Plaintiff, the Meal Period Class, and other aggrieved employees at the regular rate of compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, and 1198;

d. Failing to authorize and permit all legally required rest periods, and failure to pay rest period premium wages, to Plaintiff, the Rest Period Class, and other aggrieved employees at the regular rate of compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198;

e. Failing to furnish Plaintiff, the Wage Statement Class, and other aggrieved employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;

f. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff, the Employee Expense Class, and other aggrieved employees for all necessary work expenses incurred in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2804;

g. Failing to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees all wages earned at least twice during each calendar month in violation of Labor Code § 204; and

h. Failing to maintain accurate records on behalf of Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1198.

56. On August 28, 2023, Plaintiff notified Defendants via certified mail, and notified the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) via its website, of Defendants’ violations of the California Labor Code and Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under California Labor Code § 2698 et seq. with respect to the violations of the California Labor Code identified in Paragraph 55 (a)-(h). Now that sixty-five days have passed from Plaintiff notifying Defendants and the LWDA of these violations, and the LWDA has not provided notice that it intends to investigate the violations, Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative requirements for bringing a claim under the Private Attorneys General Act with respect to these violations.

57. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff seeks to represent himself and all other aggrieved employees, as defined by Labor Code § 2699(c).

58. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the interests of other aggrieved employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff has thereby incurred attorneys' fees and costs, which he is entitled to receive under California Labor Code § 2699(g).
