MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Jerrod Lamont Stevens (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $650,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendants BBQ Holdings, Inc. (“BBQ Holdings”), BBQ Growth LLC (“BBQ Growth”), and Tahoe Joe’s Steakhouse, LLC (“Tahoe Joe’s”, and together with BBQ Holdings and BBQ Growth, “Defendants”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 744 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Francis J. Ortman III, Esq., over the course of a full day of mediation that was conducted via Zoom. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendants’ defenses, the Parties reached a settlement on October 31, 2024. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff’s Claims

This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiff and putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendants during the class period. Defendants operate a multi-brand restaurant company. Notably, Tahoe Joe’s, a California-based steakhouse chain was acquired by BBQ Holdings, Inc. on October 8, 2021. (Declaration of Tyler J. Woods in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Woods Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiff alleges that Defendants’ payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants failed to provide employees with legally

1 compliant meal and rest periods, and Defendants failed to reimburse business expenses. Based 2 on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts related claims for failure to provide accurate wage 3 statements, failure to pay all final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and civil 4 penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

5 On July 28, 2023, Plaintiff filed a putative wage-and-hour class action complaint against 6 Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 7 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) failure
8 to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit rest 9 periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination
10 (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements (Labor Code 11 § 226); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (Labor Code § 2802); and (8) unfair 12 business practices (Business and Professions Code 17200 et seq.). Plaintiff sent a notice to 13 Defendants and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging 14 similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the PAGA (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) on 15 August 22, 2023. (Woods Decl., ¶ 4.)

16 B. Discovery and Investigation

17 Following the filing of the Complaint, the Parties exchanged documents and information 18 before mediating this action. Defendants produced over 300 pages of documents relevant to 19 Plaintiff’s wage and hour claims, including documents of its wage and hour policies and 20 practices during the class period, a sample of time and pay records for class members, and 21 information regarding the total number of current and former employees in its informal 22 discovery responses. (Woods Decl., ¶ 5.)

23 After reviewing documents regarding Defendants’ wage and hour policies and practices, 24 analyzing Defendants’ timekeeping and payroll records, and interviewing Class Members, Class 25 Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and 26 Defendants’ maximum monetary exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also 27 investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.)
28 Class Counsel reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.)

1 C. Settlement Negotiations

2 On October 18, 2024, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class 3 action mediator, Francis J. Ortmann III, Esq. (Woods Decl., ¶ 7.) The mediation was conducted 4 via Zoom. The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a 5 professional manner, were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore 6 the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their 7 position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive 8 negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and 9 Defendants' defenses, the Parties reached a settlement the material terms of which are 10 encompassed within the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 1 [Class Action and PAGA Settlement 11 Agreement and Class Notice].)

12 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 13 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 14 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 15 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 16 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendants both to certification and 17 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 16.)

18 Indeed, the $650,000.00 Settlement represents 63% of the realistic maximum recovery
19 of $1,040,594.90. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant's maximum 20 potential liability for all claims was approximately $5.2 million, when the risk of prevailing at 21 certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that Defendant's 22 realistic exposure was $1,040,594.90, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant recovery.
23 (Id. at ¶¶ 16-29.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at 24 trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Indeed, because of the proposed 25 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an 26 unfavorable judgment.

27 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

28 The Parties used the Los Angeles Superior Court's Form Class Action and PAGA

Settlement Agreement and Class Notice. The Settlement’s key terms include:

(b).” (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

As to PAGA: “The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees’ 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($8,125.00) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods." (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

14. Tax Allocation: "25% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholdings and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. The remaining 75% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms." (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

15. Class Representative Service Award: "Class Representative Service Payment to the Class Representative of not more than $10,000.00 (in addition to any Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a Participating Class Member)." (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) This amount is for Plaintiff's time and effort in bringing and presenting the action, and in exchange for a general release of all claims, known or unknown, pursuant to Civil Code Section 1542. (Settlement, § 5.1.) If the Court approves a lesser enhancement, then the unapproved portion or portions shall revert into the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed between the participating Settlement Class Members on a pro-rata basis. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

16. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose a fee application of up to 33 1/3% ($216,666.67) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-pocket costs not to exceed $30,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

17. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys' fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. 1, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 7.4.) ILYM Group, Inc., the proposed Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-

1 mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Woods Decl., ¶ 11, Ex. 3 [Settlement Administrator
2 Bid].)

3 III. DISCUSSION

4 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action 5 requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This 6 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
7 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached 8 through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 9 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
10 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

11 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 12 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 13 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 14 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 15 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 16 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., (2008) 168 17 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself 18 that the class settlement is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record 19 need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca- 20 Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 21 require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 22 prevailed on all its claims", but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy 23 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation."].)

24 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 25 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 26 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

27 ///

28 ///

1 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 2 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

3 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed
4 and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

5 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 6 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 7 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
8 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
9 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 10 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 11 to approve the settlement.”].)

12 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of 13 mediation with experienced employment mediator, Francis J. Ortman III, Esq. (Woods Decl. ¶ 7.)
14 The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 15 were adversarial. (Id.) The parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 16 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through 17 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 18 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendants’ defenses, 19 the Parties reached an agreement. (Woods Decl. ¶ 8.)

20 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 21 the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and payroll 22 records, Defendants’ policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 23 meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well 24 as information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus 25 former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages 26 paid to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, 27 Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 28

1 litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and his counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 2 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

3 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 4 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 40-52.) Again, this supports the position that the 5 terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed 6 in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this 7 action.

8 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’ 9 Respective Legal Positions

10 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 11 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
12 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 13 and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement 14 is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no 15 bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement 16 in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

17 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
18 (Woods Decl., ¶ 27.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate 19 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving 20 the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 21 uncertain proposition. (Id.)

22 The proposed settlement of $650,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 23 compared to Plaintiff’s reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 16-29.) Because of the proposed 24 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an 25 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 26 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 27 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $650,000.00 is within 28 the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed,

1 each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately 2 $471.62. (Id. at ¶ 28.)

3 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

4 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
5 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 6 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Woods Decl., ¶¶ 40-52.)
7 Although Plaintiff and his counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, 8 they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

9 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

10 The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved 11 for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of 12 their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object 13 to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and 14 be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice meets all the 15 requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

16 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

17 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class 18 Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees in amount of $216,666.67, which is 33 1/3% of the gross 19 Settlement Amount, and up to $30,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class 20 members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

21 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund"
22 Method

23 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created 24 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number 25 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 26 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 27 may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 28 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

1 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/ common 2 fund” theory. The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs proportionally among all 3 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” (Vincent v.
4 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 5 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in 6 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive 7 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and 8 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 9 that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought 10 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

11 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 12 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 13 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 14 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 15 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 16 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 17 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 18 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—19 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
20 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

21 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

22 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “No general rule can be articulated on what 23 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 24 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 25 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 26 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
27 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 28 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also

1 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 2 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 3 million].)

4 Here, Plaintiff requests attorneys’ fees equal to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, which 5 is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature
6 and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 7 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the 8 lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].)
9 Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated 10 by the parties and requested herein.

11 3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

12 Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime 13 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this 14 section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover her actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were 15 larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in 16 that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing 17 Defendants while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by 18 taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class 19 Counsel. (Woods Decl., ¶¶ 38-39.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent 20 basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the 21 Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class 22 ahead of all other concerns.

23 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 24 Requested Fee Award

25 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 26 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Woods 27 Decl., ¶¶ 40-53.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class 28 actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel's requested fee award is supported here.

Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendants and the reasonableness of the settlement. Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

D. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

Where settlements negotiate a good faith amount for PAGA penalties and "there is no indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other" class members, such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009) No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133 at *1, 9.) Courts have approved amounts for PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the total maximum amount of the Settlement. (Id. [approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%, or $1,500]; see also Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) 2011 WL 4899942 at *6 [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) 2012 WL 12882124 at *5 [acknowledging that courts approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement].) Here, the amount to be paid to the LWDA is larger than many other PAGA settlement amounts approved by the courts where seemingly nominal amounts were allocated for such claims. (See, e.g. Zubia v. Shamrock Foods Co. (C.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) No. CV1603128ABAGRX, 2017 WL 10541431, at *14 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.1%]; Hopson, supra, (N.D. Cal. Aug. 8, 2008) 2008 WL 3385452, at *1 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.3% or $1,500]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Oct. 31, 2012) No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.27%].) Here, the Parties negotiated a good faith amount of $32,500.00, 75% percent of which ($24,375.00) will be paid to the LWDA, with 25% ($8,125.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved

1 Employees. (Settlement, §3.2.5.) The $32,500.00 settlement amount equates to approximately 2 5% of the Gross Settlement Amount, which far exceeds amounts that are routinely approved.
3 The parties negotiated to allocate 5% of the Settlement to PAGA penalties in good faith and this 4 amount is reasonable considering that the maximum PAGA penalties were estimated at 5 $523,000.00 (which assumed $100 per pay period). (Woods Decl. ¶ 24.)

6 E. The Service Award to Named Plaintiff Is Reasonable

7 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 8 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 9 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 10 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 11 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 12 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
13 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

14 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 15 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 16 codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously 17 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to 18 work under substandard unlawful conditions”). Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court 19 has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is 20 widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
21 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for 22 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.
23 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

24 Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendants agreed to pay 25 a Service Award in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff. This amount is also in exchange for 26 Plaintiff’s general release of all claims against Defendants. Courts routinely approve a $10,000 27 enhancement award for plaintiffs represented by Class Counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v. Pretium 28 Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 3673845, *3 [“The Court concludes a

1 $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez, supra, 2024 WL 150721 at p. *4 [“The court
2 approves awards of $10,000 for each class representative.”].) Class Counsel represent that Plaintiff 3 devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel
4 very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and was frequently in contact with Class 5 Counsel during the mediation. (Woods Decl., ¶¶ 30-34.) This amount is reasonable particularly 6 in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all class members. (Id.)

7 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 8 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 9 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 10 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg 11 & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev.
12 1303, 1308.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class 13 actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named 14 plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median 15 award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in 16 employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by 17 compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization 18 or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

19 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

20 A. Legal Standard

21 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive 22 from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the 23 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 24 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when 25 the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are 26 numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend 27 for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) 28 There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest

1 in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow
2 Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the 3 California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the 4 community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of 5 law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class
6 representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29
7 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

8 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
9 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 10 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 11 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to 12 the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, 13 supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

14 B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 15 Settlement Purposes.

16 1. The Classes Are Ascertainable and Numerous

17 The proposed class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is easily ascertainable and includes 18 approximately 744 employees of Defendants.

19 Plaintiff maintains that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 20 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business 21 records of Defendants, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
22 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the 23 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

24 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 25 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981)
26 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 27 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable 28 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a

1 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries
2 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 3 574; see also, Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, 4 Plaintiff contends that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

5 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

6 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 7 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 8 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 9 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 10 Cal.App.3d 605.)

11 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendants had legally compliant 12 policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether Defendants had legally 13 compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees to take rest periods; 14 whether Defendants had legally compliant policies and practices for all hours worked, including 15 overtime wages; whether Defendants reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether final 16 payment of wages was untimely and excluded unpaid wages, including meal period premium 17 wages, and rest period premium wages; and whether the wage statements were consequently non-18 compliant. Plaintiff contends that the factual and legal issues are the same for all of the identified 19 class members, including Plaintiff. Further, all class members suffered from, and seek redress for, 20 the same alleged injuries.

21 3. Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

22 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 23 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 24 typicality of the proposed representative’s claims as they relate to the defendant’s conduct and 25 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 [“[t]he only requirements are that 26 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 27 situated” vis-à-vis the class.]) A representative plaintiff’s claims are typical of the class if they 28 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal

1 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendants; as 2 such, he alleges that he was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated 3 employees.

4 4. Plaintiff and His Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

5 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 6 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 7 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 8 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

9 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained counsel 10 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 11 previously settled. (Woods Decl., ¶¶ 40-52.) Class Counsel unquestionably is "qualified, 12 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 13 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and Plaintiff has, with counsel, 14 litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing his dedication. Plaintiff's 15 willingness to serve as a representative demonstrates his serious commitment to bringing about the 16 best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

17 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

18 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 19 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
20 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court's use of the 21 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 22 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-23 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 24 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 25 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal. 4th 443, 457-62; Leyva v.
26 Medline Ind. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the 27 superiority concerns are essentially non-existent.
